My Beautiful Beloveds, I have a job for you to do, a work I have amply prepared you to do!

Isa 42:6 I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles; Isa 42:7 To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house. Isa 32:3 And the eyes of them that see shall not be dim, and the ears of them that hear shall hearken. Isa 32:4 The heart also of the rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly.

Awake to Righteousness
Deborah Joyner-Johnson

“Awake to righteousness, and sin not.” (I Corinthians 15:34 KJV).

Have we actually been asleep to righteousness, as the above Scripture states? Looking at the world, one could definitely come to this conclusion, as many are slumbering in sin because their senses are dulled as to what is right and wrong.

The question arises: Have some Christians fallen into this snare of indifference? We need to seriously ponder this in our own hearts. The enemy will set a trap to capture those who seek after their own pleasures, which is all too easy to fall into if seeking the Lord wholeheartedly is not our priority. Being righteous should set us apart from those who are of the world. We are called to be lights—not caught in the darkness that controls those who do not know the Lord.

To understand what it means to be righteous, let us look at just a few of the thirty-six attributes in a thesaurus. Righteous means to be: honorable, goodhearted, noble, moral, honest, trustworthy, guiltless, blameless, and having a clear conscience. How do we measure up to this definition?

Basically, if we are righteous, we are pure and do not sin. Can we truly be pure in our world today? It is a high calling, but Jesus is our standard of righteousness. If we will aspire to become like Jesus, then we will eventually become righteous. As we can conclude from the above Scripture, we are instructed to awaken from our slumber, and to be just that—righteous.

Righteous vs. Religious
There is quite a difference between being righteous and being religious. The scribes and Pharisees had the appearance of being righteous, religiously doing good works, but on the inside, they were full of pride. The most stern language that Jesus ever used in the Bible was when He talked to the scribes and Pharisees, speaking seven woes against them. Here is just one:

“Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside they are full of robbery and self-indulgence. You blind Pharisee, first clean the inside of the cup and of the dish, so that the outside of it may become clean also” (Matthew 23:25-26).

This truth is hard to hear, but God placed it in the Bible for a purpose and for us to learn from. The Pharisees were the epitome of the religious spirit. They made sure that they “appeared” righteous, but Jesus could see their hearts. They were anything but righteous, as their hearts were full of pride.

The world, which so desperately needs Jesus, picks up on the legalism that follows the religious spirit, and turns them completely from the Lord. This is why the Lord spoke so harshly to the scribes and Pharisees because He knew what they were doing to the lost. Jesus came to save the lost, and they were turning many from following God, thinking they were doing Him a favor by persecuting those who did not live up the their “holier than thou” standard.

Jesus said: “… unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you shall not enter the kingdom of heaven” (Matthew 5:20). Jesus gave this warning to us as well. It may seem like we are a far cry from being anything like a Pharisee, but we may need to think about that again. Let us pray and ask God to remove pride from our lives and help us become righteous, as He is. He will help us.

Sobering Truth

I was recently told the following story and it broke my heart. A young lady had just met the Lord. She was having a few drinks, and a Christian began berating her for drinking—telling her it was a terrible thing to do. She felt condemned, guilty, and rejected. Her thoughts were: “Why even bother trying to be a Christian—I can’t do it!” It is likely that this young woman had not even been a Christian long enough to learn that some of things she was doing were wrong. Sadly, the harshness with which her behavior was confronted did not encourage her toward righteousness, but discouraged her.

New Christians are not changed overnight and they will still have many of their old ways, as we all did when we first came to the Lord. We may have a tendency to immediately try to “fix” someone when they first become saved, but we cannot be the Holy Spirit to others. Which one of us became perfect overnight? It takes time for healing and the Lord to change new followers into His image. So we must have patience with others.

We can correct someone about a matter that is in fact true, and yet do it in a wrong spirit, causing wounds instead of the liberty that comes from the truth of God, which sets us free. Furthermore, wounds can be very deep and the person who is being healed has to want to be healed. But with time, as they seek the Lord and develop their own relationship with Him, they will become more like Him and be changed into His image. We must always remember, it is God who will do the changing, not us.

Choice Words Follow the Righteous

The situation with the young Christian woman could have been so different if she had heard encouraging words, instead of condemning words. Proverbs 10:20 states: “The tongue of the righteous is as choice silver, the heart of the wicked is worth little.” We would all like to take things back that we have said, so it is very important to be careful with our words to begin with. We want our words to be as “choice silver,” but this takes the practice of self-control and prayer. You see, being righteous comes from the outgrowth of our relationship with God. As we become more like Jesus, our words will become like His.

The Heart of Jesus

Jesus had many friends, and most lived questionable lives. Why did they want to be with Him? Because they felt accepted by Him. He loved them and it showed. He came with open arms to those who were not accepted by the so-called “religious” of their society, the scribes and Pharisees. Neither was Jesus accepted by these same religious ones, but was rather delivered up to be crucified by them.

Jesus came to save the brokenhearted, having great compassion for them. The LORD is near to the brokenhearted, and saves those who are crushed in spirit (Psalm 34:18). He is our example of righteousness and we should likewise help those who are crushed in spirit. My heart goes out to that young lady who so recently met the Lord. She too may have been brokenhearted or crushed in spirit. Who knows the reason why she was drinking too much? We do not know her past or her heart. Perhaps she had been addicted to cocaine, and she was trying desperately not to get a fix, so she drank instead. Those who are addicted, or have been addicted to drugs, know that it is difficult to stop. Instead of condemnation, she needed someone to accept her just the way she was. She needed a friend to love her through her problems.

When someone is going through a process of healing, the last thing they need to hear is condemnation from anyone. They have enough condemnation and guilt from the enemy, without others heaping coals on top of that. The Holy Spirit is the One who does the convicting. We must pray for that person, leave it with the Lord, and just be a friend. Remember: “Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins (I Peter 4:8 NIV).

If we are becoming righteous, then we are taking on the nature of Christ. When we truly love the Lord and know that He loves us, that love will shine forth from us as an extension of our relationship with Him, and then it will be given to others. This is the essence of being righteous.

Just Accept

What keeps those who may not “look” like Christians out of the churches? Most of the time it is guilt and condemnation from the church. Maybe some have ten tattoos and two nose rings. God loves them just as they are and we should too. Why does it matter anyway? God looks at the heart, not the outside, which should be our example to love others as well. As we grow in His love, becoming more righteous, we will begin to love those around us.

What about a homeless person? They need compassion, not condemnation. Those just getting out of prison need friends to surround them. They may have met the Lord there, but when they return to society, it is all too easy to fall back into sin. I Corinthians 15:33 states: “Do not be deceived: ‘Bad company corrupts good morals.’” If they are not accepted in the church, where else are they going to go? Sadly, they will go back to where they are accepted, to their old friends and old ways. We can make a difference in this world—we can love the unlovable through the power of His love.

We are called to be “the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do men light a lamp, and put it under the peck measure, but on the lampstand; and it gives light to all who are in the house. Let your light shine before men…” (Matthew 5:14-16).

How can we awake to righteousness and make a difference? By letting our lights shine in a dark world that has no hope. Accept and love those who may be unacceptable in the eyes of many, just as Jesus in His life on earth gave us as an example. The world is a sad and lonely place. The unsaved and the hurting need the Lord, the brightest Light of all. May we learn to be compassionate, just as Jesus cares for us.

Light arises in the darkness for the upright; He is gracious and compassionate and righteous (Psalm 112:4).

One Christian is just a single light, but it is still a light and many can be drawn to the Light within us. But if we all shine together, the world will become a brighter place. Proverbs 4:18 states: “But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, that shines brighter and brighter until the full day.” As we individually become more like Jesus, corporately we will become the righteous lights the Lord has called us to be. And, we will make a difference.

Awaken
Clay Sikes

Nov 12, 2004

"Awaken my children to the arrival of my Sons. You who operate in discernment will recognize them when you see them. They will not come with great fanfare and ceremony; no, they will come in my Spirit operating in my power. They will lack nothing, they will ask for nothing, but rather will be my blessing to you (my children).

They will have my counsel, my power; They will not judge by what they see or hear, but rather what they have heard me say. They will speak my words, which will release my power. You will know these whose sole purpose will be to usher my people into my Kingdom upon the earth. You will know them by their fruit, and their ultimate fruit is their testimony (their life), not mere words. They live for my glory, not theirs, and they are obedient unto death."

The Davids Are Coming
Clay Sikes

Can the Institutional Church system, as we know it, fulfill the plan of God? Could the system (government) that is found in most churches today precipitate many of the problems that we now see? These questions are cause for a search into deeper truth, and as such, cause us to understand the spiritual relevance of the (Church) structure that now serves most of Christianity.

During a recent time of prayer I felt I heard the Lord say that the spirit of anti-Christ is not coming; he is already here! He has set himself up in the house of God in the form of the carnal church, led by carnal men who have taken God's (the Holy Spirit's) place; men who are led by their minds instead of God's Spirit. Many Church leaders have unwittingly substituted themselves and their thinking in place of God and God's Spirit, and in the process become Gods unto themselves and their flocks. Only God can occupy God's place in the temple (in us) in order that God's true destiny to spawn in our lives individually and corporately.

The exodus we see in the Church worldwide is not made up of rebellious backsliders and quitters; to the contrary, many of those leaving are seeking more of God, hungry for a true form of worship and assembly. As is the center of much discussion these days, the Institutional Church is housed in a system (government) that man erected, which finds its support and structure in a system that has evolved since the pure structure of the First Century Church. This revolutionized system (structure) we see today has little scriptural basis for its existence - a one-fold pastor led form of leadership (devoid of the five fold ministry), enforcement of the tithe, and the laity clergy divide that tragically separates the body into two parts; none of which are evidenced in New Testament scripture.

This system operates through the efforts of men. Men working through men produce human results - Men working through God produce Godly results, and while there has been grace upon the Institutional Church for many years, it appears that this grace is lifting as God continues to reveal a true Godly structure (for His Church).

God's ordained structure for anything ignites and invites God's power (Isaiah 9:7). I do not think that many, outside of leadership, could reasonably debate the fact that the Church is powerless, ineffective and besieged with problems. Unfortunately, the Church is more like Saul's army assembled on the battlefield trembling at the taunts of Goliath, rather than the conquering David that God desires. It seems an injustice that we have the greatest power in the universe residing within us, yet we as a people have been powerless and ineffective to conquer this earth for our Lord. Could it be that our structure, the very foundation upon which we act as a Body, is wrong?

Prophetic men and women men are beginning to recognize that it is not God's plan for His people to live in the earth in this powerless and ineffective state much longer: He is now taking direct steps to implant His power and effectiveness in His true (Davidic) people for His destined purposes to be fulfilled in the earth. As the David's come forth, Goliath will fall! But where are the David's? They sit idly in a system that does not recognize the powerful gifts that reside in them; gifts and offices of ministry that will change the world. The most under used and unrecognized talent in the world lies dormant in church pews all over this world.

But be encouraged, in this hour in which we live, it appears that God is much less prone to bless the works of men, all the while using those who truly know Him to create His works through them. Presumption that we all used to so routinely get away with now seems to bring sobering retribution. Acts in the church and business) outside of the leading of the Spirit of God can now be seen for what they are - acts of men. "Except the Lord build a house its builders build in vain." If we believe these assessments, the facts beg the question; can God's authority truly operate in and through the works of men? Can God's people within this system ever find their appointed destiny? Can those who cling to the system do so and remain in God's will? Can any real peace be found within the current church structure?

Isaiah 9:6,7,8 is a prophetic reflection of God's view of government. It further evidences that the government, order, and structure of God rest upon the back of Jesus. These scriptures clearly reveal that God ordains government (structure) according to His plan.

Isaiah 9:6-8 "For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. The zeal of the Almighty will accomplish this."

Another interpretation of Kingdom/government is God's perfect order - the hierarchy, position and placement of things according to God's will and plan. Godly structure (government) is evidenced by God's peace. In God, government precedes peace. Peace is a blessing that flows out of good government. If there is not peace in a situation, it is because there has been a breakdown in the government of that situation. Bad government produces confusion, dependency, and poverty whereas Godly government produces order, initiative, and productivity.

Could it be that God is about to radically change the Church as we know it to a structure more akin to the First Century Church which turned the world upside down for our Lord?

For many in the Church today there is knowledge that something is wrong. "What is it?" we ask. "Is it me?" "Is it my Church?" "Is it my Pastor?" The knowledge that something is wrong pervades the Church from Savannah to Siberia; the Internet and many prophetic websites and lists confirm and link us to this truth. Be comforted that your situation is neither unique nor unusual, but of greater significance, be aware that God is signaling CHANGE. A new Davidic order is rising up and out of the existing Church, replacing the order of Saul. There is a separation now taking place as the Spiritual seed begins to separate from the carnal. Ishmael can no longer live in the house with Isaac.

Recently a friend of mine was heard to say, "Don't tell me that something is wrong - I already know that, give me solutions!" As I pondered and prayed as to why this remark sparked such an unsettling in my spirit, clarity began to emerge from the Holy Spirit. The Spirit of the Lord grants us a sense of the problem, then provides His solutions: It is important to note here that our solutions are not necessarily His solutions, and our ways are not necessarily His ways. The era in which we now live has revealed problems in the Church and now is the time for God's solution, God's way. Has the Church realized yet that man's way will work no longer? Perhaps we should continue another two or three hundred years playing church! Have we tricked ourselves into believing there is real power in the Church?

The key to solving a myriad of problems in the Church is found in solving the main problem. When the main problem is dealt with, in an almost cataclysmic fashion, things will begin to dramatically change as God's people begin to walk in God's power. The problem that glares at us constantly is a powerless Church; a Church taunted by Satan on a daily basis much the same as Goliath taunted the Armies of God. Financial hardship, defeat, sickness, sin, divorce, jealousy, vain ambition, hype, programs, formulas, and relational failures permeate the Church from the pulpit to the pew. Since we know this is true, let us examine accurate, word filled, Holy Ghost inspired prophetic revelation for our solution.

Step one in resolving the problem is recognizing and accepting that anyone who has accepted Jesus as Lord must also understand that they have a destiny to fulfill, a part to play in this move of God. Any activity short of God's plan for our lives (destiny) will not fulfill us, will not produce the continuing joy of the Lord in us, and will not sustain us financially or relationally or any other way. It is important to note that outside of our destiny, we can have some degree of happiness (without the continuing joy of the Lord), we can have relationships and we can make money; however, a called man or woman will know the difference in their heart of hearts. Said differently, you cannot be holy in Dallas, if you are called to be righteous in Cleveland.

A well known lecturer once said that he had traveled Christian circles for years and seen thousands upon thousands of miserable Christians, yet never had he seen anyone pursuing and walking out their destiny, who was not filled to the brim with vitality, life, and enthusiasm - "Jesus came to give us an abundant life" John 10:10.

In facing the powerless Church question, understand that the human resources are now in place to release this great power, but the old system (Saul's armor) under which these human resources operate will not permit them the freedom to be used - the whole creation awaits our adoption as sons. Just as Saul's armor constrained David, so too has the old order constrained those who are called to demolish Satan's strongholds, strapped with the heavy cumbersome equipment of Saul. I feel the solution is prophetically answered in I Samuel 17. As you may recall from these verses, David was appalled that Goliath so freely taunted God's people. With confidence he prepared to face Goliath, yet quickly recognized that the old order (armor) would not work. Similarly, as we recognize that the old order will not work for the Church, we too must seek the new Davidic order that God is raising up in this hour. To have what we have never had, we must do what we have never done. Much prophetic revelation is found in the meaty verses of I Samuel 17.

"Then Saul dressed David in his own tunic. He put a coat of armor on him and a bronze helmet on his head. David fastened on his sword over the tunic and tried walking around, because he was not used to them. I cannot go in these, he said to Saul, because I am not used to them. So he took them off. Then he took his staff in his hand, chose five smooth stones from the stream, put them in the pouch of his shepherd's bag and, with his sling in his hand, approached the Philistine" (I Samuel 17:38-40).

As with David, we must recognize that God is doing a new thing to bring victory to a less than victorious Church. Let us examine further the prophetic implications of these scriptures - " I cannot go in these, he said to Saul, because I am not used to them. So he took them off. Then he took his staff in his hand, chose five smooth stones from the stream…"

The order of Saul was built upon a one-man system, the direct results of men directing God. This one-man system of Saul had more to do with man's leadership than God's. As a downward spiraling parallel, we see the Church dissolving from the powerful First Century Church, utilizing the entire five-fold ministry; to the one fold Pastor led system of today. Through the traditions of men, we have systematically eliminated four folds of ministry to the Body of Christ and of equal importance, knocked countless thousands out of attaining their destiny and purpose in the earth. Many powerful, destiny filled ministries sit idle in pews, bound and constrained by an order that does not recognize any calling except Pastor (See Ephesians 4:11,12). The present day Church structure, for the most part, denies 80% of the equipping ministries the opportunity to do what they were put on earth to do. This diabolical system cuts the Body in two ways: It first denies ministry to those who need such from other folds - Evangelists, Teachers, Prophets, and Apostles and secondly, keeps these respective gifts on pews sitting idle and stagnant.

David realized, as we must, that victory would not come through the way battles were typically fought. David dared to look to a different non-traditional manner to attain victory against Goliath, so too must the Church. In more than a twist of irony, let us look again to the word - "Then he took his staff in his hand, chose five smooth stones from the stream…" I submit to you that as the Davidic order replaces the order of Saul that a true victorious Church will emerge as the five-fold ministry begins to find its way back into the Body of Christ. As David reached into the stream he pulled five smooth stones to the surface. Symbolically, many of those who are being raised up in this hour will be those that have been hidden from the Body, submerged for years, yet washed by the water of the word until all rough edges have been smoothed. Any stone that David chose was enough to bring Goliath to the ground.

Destiny releases the power and purpose of God in us, in the earth, and in the heavenlies. When we touch destiny and purpose, we know it - it witnesses in our spirit; a surge of power is felt in our mind, body, and spirit. Many apostolic and prophetic anointings lay dormant as do other callings within the Body, but soon will awaken as the emerging Davidic order brings change to the Church. The Church cries out for solutions to its problems, BUT IS IT READY FOR REAL ANSWERS? Much of the solution will require change from those in the old order of Saul, and many like those in Saul's company will be ever so reluctant to join David the anointed and called King. Any change that has ever affected this world began in the hearts of men, so too will this move of God begin in the hearts of men.

All change must begin within each of us seeking change. At the risk of sounding redundant, let me state again THAT THOSE DESIRING TO SEE CHANGE MUST REALIZE THAT IN ORDER TO BRING CHANGE, WE MUST BE WILLING TO CHANGE. The willing and obedient eat the good of the land and fulfill their predestined call. Just prior to David's Kingship he held up in the cave at Addulum (I Samuel 22). What a choice his followers had to make - a cave with David or a Palace with Saul. The palace represents a close parallel to decisions faced today: Saul offered comfort, stability, safety, prominence, position, power, influence and acclaim. David offered a cave, actually a hole in the side of a mountain, but deep in the hole was a dream. The order of Saul deals in the seen; the order of David in the unseen.

Those with an affinity for the external will likely stick with Saul, while those with the eye of the Spirit will follow David to the death. "All those who were in distress or in debt or discontented gathered around him, and he became their leader" (I Samuel 22:2). The Davidic Order WILL NOT attract those who are happy with things just the way they are. We now live in the age of the Laodicean Church - "To the angel of the church in Laodicea write: These are the words of the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the ruler of God's creation. I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either one or the other! So, because you are lukewarm - neither hot nor cold - I am about to spit you out of my mouth. You say, I am rich; I have acquired wealth and do not need a thing. But you do not realize that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind, and naked" (Revelation 3:14-17). John saw a Church in his era that prophetically speaks to a Church in another era and that era is now! In summary, the spiritually contented will stay with Saul, while the spiritually discontented will hold up with David.

Several years ago the Lord spoke to me over a period of time and said several things that changed my life. First he said, "Anything growing will change - be open, be flexible, be willing to change." This phenomenon is true in both the natural and the spiritual world. GROWTH REQUIRES CHANGE. Though all change isn't a sign of growth, all growth is a sign of change! Our growth will require change, but even more importantly and initially, our willingness to change. He then said, "Ignorance often comes disguised as tradition." With those words, when combined, I realized that traditional thinking is dangerous in dealing with spiritual matters. I had hindered my own spiritual growth by my own preconceived traditions, much of which emanated from my soul. He then said a final word that has changed my life forever. "The sin of presumption often hides itself in noble purposes." As with Sarah, I have been guilty of trying to help God by assuming roles that God had not assigned me (See Genesis 16:3), but because the purpose appeared noble and good, I presumed it to be God. This incredibly dangerous error, in my opinion, has stopped more people from fulfilling their destiny and walking in the real power of God than any other aspect of Christianity; evangelist acting as pastors, businessmen in ministry, ministers in business, teachers acting as prophets, programs in place of prayer, organizations in place of an organism, etc.,

Much of the modern day Church is a result of works of the flesh (Ishmael). Said differently, presumptive decisions based on noble purposes run most churches today. IT IS HERE THAT WE IDENTIFY WHY WE HAVE A POWERLESS CHURCH - IT IS RUN FOR THE MOST PART BY WORKS OF THE FLESH. That which is a work of the Spirit will produce Spiritual results. That which is a work of the flesh will produce the results of the flesh - Works of God produce Godly results while works of men produce human results. Judge for yourself the state of the Church.

Before leaving the subject of presumption, let us look deeper into why it reigns in the Church today. God's word is filled with scriptural assurances that if we seek him for answers, he will provide them. His Word also gives us many scriptural assurances that God will guide and lead us beyond our need for critical answers, even to the extent of telling us in Romans "those that are led by the Spirit of God are called the sons and daughters of God."

Despite these assurances, we still operate in presumption in many areas of our lives. Self-rule is a product of trusting self more than God. As one Pastor put, "Why do you think I went to the Seminary?" A major characteristic of the Davidic order rest in the fact that God does the leading. David always sought God for specific direction after learning that he was not only to get the direction of the Lord, but also the 'how to' within the confines of that direction (See II Samuel 6:1-13). Saul took matters into his own hands and lost his kingdom, not only for himself, but his heirs as well. Sadly, Jonathan stayed with his father, Saul and met an untimely death. How many who linger in the house of Saul will birth spiritual death for themselves and their families? During a recent time of praying in the Holy Spirit for several hours, I heard the Lord say that He is raising up a victorious Church, a warrior like David who operates in the true power and strength of the Lord. As I asked the Lord about the initial steps that we must take in arriving at this victorious place, He spoke the following to me:

The Body of Christ is made up of people, not buildings, not denominations, not ministries. It will be through unifying and joining of those called to be joined that God's power will be released in this hour. Two parts in the world only equal two: two parts in the Kingdom equal ten - "One can put a thousand to flight, two can put ten thousand to flight." Proper joining results in proper sharpening - "A man sharpens his brother as iron sharpens iron." Body parts when properly joined will have the strength they are designed to have and perform the functions they are designed to perform. Just as a finger apart from the hand has no functioning power, so too are the parts of the Body of Christ apart from those to whom they are called. Praying in the Holy Spirit will release the knowledge, the enabling, and the joining that God desires in this hour.

The Army of God is now beginning to make strategy for VICTORY; the primary focus of this strategy involves unifying the Body and joining the parts that are 'called' to be JOINED. We must pray to properly discern and join the Body properly…This is not a joining for the sake of joining, but rather a fitting of the parts that are called to be JOINED.

Begin to look for the Davidic Order - it is soon coming to a town near you!

Purpose Ignites Power

"Where there is no vision the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he" (Proverbs 29:18). "Enter the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the way easy, that leads to destruction, and those that enter by it ARE MANY"(Matthew 7:13).

There 'ARE MANY' Christians today without purpose, without vision, and without a quest for destiny; and the end thereof is to perish and destruct. As we humble ourselves and pray for a deep abiding hunger for God - a one on one personal relationship, not to be confused with the blessing of God, or the knowledge of God, but for God Himself; as the hunger fills us so too will the purpose. The purpose and will of God will ignite within us as we earnestly seek the God of things, not the things of God (Matthew 6:33).

Any foundation that is not built on knowing God is a false foundation. Many confuse the knowledge of God with knowing God - there is vast difference! Hebrews 11:10 begins to point us in the right direction. Abraham knew not where he was going, but he knew what he was looking for. "For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and builder is God." Our ultimate calling is to ultimately believe. Relationship produces understanding, which produces vision. Abraham knew only what was in his heart and he was willing to forsake all to pursue it.

As Abraham, we too are seeking a city with foundations and the foundation of the city in which we are to abide is Jesus. The strength and type of any building is its foundation. Our spiritual lives are a reflection of the foundation underneath us, the invisible strength upon which we stand. "No man can lay a foundation other than the One which is laid, which is Jesus Christ" (I Corinthians 3:11).

Relationship produces vision and vision produces power. We need a continual God given revelation of what we are to pursue and truly come to a place of trust where we lean not unto our own understanding. There are times ahead in which this revelation will become increasingly important. "Unless the Lord builds a house, those who build it labor in vain" (Psalm 127:1). "I can of my own self do nothing…"(John 5:30).

Most of us are not receiving revelation before we pray or before we enter into an endeavor, and consequently our efforts are in vain. We need to come into a God given vision and purpose, EVEN IF IT IS SLOW TO UNFOLD, for as we seek first the Kingdom of God, all things shall be added unto us. God wants us to come as little children, "…except ye turn and become as little children, ye shall in no wise enter into the Kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 18:3).

We are being brought into the Kingdom as we find our appointed places in God. We are now beginning to be caught up in the whirlwind of the Holy Spirit. As with Abraham, God is shattering our earth bound natural existence that is keeping us out of the Kingdom and the supernatural plan and provision of God. We are God's planting and we will begin to flourish as His Kingdom comes. As the call upon our lives takes form, and as we move into the place that our Father has prepared for us, we begin to enter into His Kingdom. Our Father is now gathering us who are straggling and bringing us into line according to His purposes.

Awhile back my wife and I saw an excellent movie entitled ENEMY AT THE GATE. The World War One story line revolved around the Russian Army's historical defense of Stalingrad as a last line of defense against German invasion. The movie, whose events were based on historical fact, serves to illustrate a major point in understanding purpose and destiny and its relationship to God's power operating in our lives.

As the battle progressed, it became apparent to Russian military leaders that the battle was no longer simply a battle for a city, but of much greater importance, a battle for the country; the dire consequences of which meant German domination. As knowledge of the greater importance became known among Russian ground troops, their routine fighting and somewhat mechanical defense of the city transformed into a mission with great purpose and passion. A new invigorated purpose ignited a strong action, the results of which were the turning point of the battle and eventually the war. The greater purpose released an invigorated passion, which turned the tide of battle.

True passion can only be ignited by purpose, vision being the ultimate motivator. Now translate this into spiritual terms and the spiritual energy of a God appointed destiny: "Men perish without vision." God's vision within the heart of a man is the strongest motivator any man will ever know while walking this earth. As the historic World War One example reveals, purpose ignites power. We have come to the prophetic hour in time in which our purpose and destiny can be found with great clarity as our hunger for God grows.

Let us look at another point that ties into vision and purpose: "Fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." The fear of the Lord is earnestly hungering for Him, walking in obedience to His direction, worshiping and being in His presence, accepting Him on His terms, and ultimately seeking His power and purpose to work in and through us. Simply stated, Fear of the Lord in a Biblical and Spiritual sense IS obedience and compliance to God's agenda, which IS our destiny.

When we operate in a true fear of the Lord, there is a oneness between us and God that unites God's purpose and power in our life - the place where we touch true God breathed, God inspired destiny; the type that changes circumstances, people's lives and moves us into the ORDAINED plans, purposes, and POWER of God. True fear of the Lord establishes (releases) the Authority of God in us. Scripture tells us that God's people perish for a lack of knowledge or, said differently, God's people perish for a lack of knowledge of the Spiritual Authority and purpose God desires us to walk in. Purpose ignites power in a natural sense, just as God's purpose ignites supernatural power is a spiritual sense. When we move in God's purpose (our destiny), we can expect all heaven's backing; we can expect to be able to accomplish what we, on our own, are not capable of accomplishing.

"The Lord looks down from heaven on the sons of men to see if there are ANY WHO UNDERSTAND, any who seek God." If we seek, we have a Biblical promise that we will find our purpose and authority. POWER FROM HEAVEN CANNOT COME WHERE THERE IS NO ESTABLISHED AUTHORITY, AND AUTHORITY CANNOT BE ESTABLISHED LESS WE SEEK HIM FOR IT. Seeking Him, establishes the Authority through which the power can operate.

God is calling the Church to walk in and live in His anointing (for us) and not be satisfied to simply sit under the anointing of another on Sunday morning.

The word of faith movement taught us to know who we are in Christ, now our Lord desires us to know who He is in us. When WE begin to know Him and who HE is in us, and GAIN KNOWLEDGE THAT HE WANTS TO WORK THROUGH US, we will begin to see HIS PURPOSE AND POWER OPERATE IN US.

When we truly recognize that it is not about us, but Him who lives in us and His will, we can with confidence speak His word into circumstances by the leading of His Spirit and see the circumstances change - "Whosoever shall say unto this mountain..." (Mark 11:23).

Until now, we have been content to have the Lord revealed TO US, but the day has arrived that he wants to be revealed IN US. This new wine will require new wineskin. God doesn't simply want to bless us, he wants to inhabit us: Better said, and contrary to present Church doctrine, He doesn't want to improve us - HE WANTS TO REMOVE US! He wants us doing what He does, saying what He says and STRATEGICALLY moving away from the Church mindset of being blessed, to being a blessing!

"His intent was that now, through the Church, the manifold wisdom of God should be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly realms, according to his eternal plan which he accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Ephesians 3:10).

"Through the Church," which is God's people, is God's "manifold wisdom," which is God's word, being made known to THE ENEMY AT THE GATE. With this in mind, now understand Luke 10:19, "Behold, I have (GIVEN UNTO YOU POWER) to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and (OVER ALL THE POWER OF THE EMENY), and (NOTHING) shall by any means (HARM YOU)."

Vision, or a sense of purpose should become our quest with our Lord. It is the ultimate motivator and will bring a quality of life that cannot be measured in words. When we grasp God's vision for our lives, especially as it relates to specific purpose, a supernatural spiritual energy is released in us TO PERFORM THE PURPOSE. As you touch this energy you will find that it transcends spirit and releases a natural physical energy that will touch your mind and physical body, just ask Moses, Abraham, Joshua or Caleb.

AWAKEN! AWAKEN! NOT ONLY TO THE SPHERE, BUT TO THE FACT, THAT I HAVE GIVEN YOU SPIRITUAL AUTHORITY AND PURPOSE. AWAKEN EARLY TO UNDERSTAND THE SPIRITUAL AUTHORITY I HAVE GIVEN AND THE SPHERES OF ITS APPLICATION. I MAY SPEAK BUT A SINGLE WORD FOR YOU TO KNOW WHERE YOU HAVE BEEN GIVEN POWER TO PRAY AND SPEAK MY WORD.

Manifestation Of The Sons Of God (The Davids Are Coming)

'Those who are led by the Spirit of God are the sons of God' (Romans 8:14). Notice that this scripture does not say "all Christians," or "all preachers," or "all church leaders" are sons of God…only those led by the Spirit of God. As the Spiritual Church continues to be birthed out of the Carnal Church, we are beginning to see the sons of God manifested - those men and women who have died to themselves and who are 'about doing the Father's business.' A distinguishing characteristic of a true son is the continuing grace of God - the grace to pray, the grace to hear, the grace to move according to the plan of God. Grace and humility are virtually synonymous terms.

Humility, staying bowed before the Father, draws the grace of God like a magnet draws metal because God gives grace to the humble and resist the proud (James 4:6). Staying bowed before the Father means hanging onto His every word - the words He speaks to us. We can only have faith for what we have heard the Father say and if we are not hearing, it is safe to assume that we are not bowed, in a state of humility, before the Father (I Peter 5:6).

Our hearing (faith) is proportional to our humility. God desires a pre fall, Tree of Life relationship with His sons and daughters, those that are led by His spirit (the humble), those who do not live life on their own terms by the vanity of their own minds (the proud). God's true sons live completely on His terms staying bowed before Him; spending time with him, hearing Him speak, and doing what He says. They do not live from the Tree of Knowledge where they judge from their own mind, but from the Tree of Life where men do not live by bread alone, but upon 'every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God.' They have a great revelation and understanding of Jesus words, "I can of my own self do nothing" (John 5:30). They have come to the end of themselves and recognize that without Him, all else is fruitless and neither worth the time nor the effort.

We know that idolatry is sin and yet often commit it unknowingly. Often the idol we place between us and God IS US: our own intelligence, our own way of doing things, our own traditions, our own theology, our own doctrine. Let us look at the consequences of this lifestyle in Jonah 2:8 - 'Those who cling to worthless idols forfeit the grace that could be theirs.'

God is calling us to a place where we function effectively as tools in His hands. We must be about the Father's business, accomplishing His will, NOT OUR OWN. We are to "Forget not His benefits" as we become (God's) purpose minded, we will never again have to be resource minded (like the pagans in Matthew 6:32). If nothing else is remembered in this reading, remember this - God pays for what He orders…when we become purpose minded, we'll not ever again have to be resource minded. In the process of doing God's will all needs are met. What a unique and wonderful Kingdom dynamic. While we are busy doing His will, our needs are being taken care of because the greater (doing His will), always includes the lesser (taking care of our needs). When we fulfill His desire, our desire is seen to. This is just one of the benefits of staying bowed before the Father, in a state of humility, obeying His every word.

When we continuously use the mind (the arena of reason) instead of the Spirit for direction, we unconsciously forfeit the grace to hear God for His directed purposes. Galatians 5:1-4 further reveals the consequences of our actions.

'It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery (the world's system, man's way - using the mind over the Spirit). Mark my words! I Paul, tell you that if you let yourselves be circumcised (engage the old way of mind over Spirit), Christ will be of no value to you at all. Again I declare to every man who lets himself be circumcised that he is obligated to obey the whole law. You who are trying to be justified by law have been alienated from Christ; YOU HAVE FALLEN AWAY FROM GRACE.'

'You are made sons by faith in Christ Jesus…' - (Galatians 3:26): 'You who are trying to be justified by law (the old way of doing things) have been alienated from Christ; you have fallen away from grace.' We are made sons by faith in the new way, Jesus Christ, hearing God and obeying him. We become alienated from Christ and lose the grace to hear the Father when we engage the old way (making major decisions from the mind). There is a right way with God and a wrong way as we see in Jeremiah 6:16-19 - There is a good way that God blesses and a wrong way that He does not bless.

Read Galatians 3:26 and 5:1-4 in the context of the following: THE VOICE OF THE SPIRIT IS NOT AVAILABLE TO US IF THE DAILY GRACE HAS FALLEN AWAY. Engaging the old way ("the yoke of slavery") will cause the grace that could be ours to fall away; we have re entered a form of idolatry, a form of the old law (way) by looking to self for answers… when we do this we lose the grace that could be ours to hear God for specific direction. Jesus made it possible for us to hear God individually for direction in our lives, yet we forfeit the grace to hear Him as we return to the vanity of our own minds for direction.

It is possible to be a Christian and live without the ministry of grace offered by the Holy Spirit. When Paul said the Galatians had fallen from grace he didn't mean they had lost their ability to go to heaven. He meant they had fallen from their dependence on the Holy Spirit…they were reverting to other methods, and in so doing deprived themselves of the Holy Spirit's ministry of grace for daily living. The letter kills, the Spirit gives life.

There is a prophetic sound that is being heard with clarity, "Ishmael can no longer live in the house with Isaac." "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman's son" (Galatians 4:30). Ishmael represents the child of the flesh, the original son (the original way). He taunted Isaac much the same as our natural mind taunts us as we begin to move in the things of the Spirit. We all began by using our mind (looking to self for answers) instead of God's Spirit within us, yet now is the time for Ishmael to be put out of the house. "We are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman" (Galatians 5:31). It is time for the child of promise to reign: Jesus enabled us to walk by the leading of the Spirit.

Our inheritance is based upon our growing up and becoming mature in God (Galatians 4:1-7). We will never receive our inheritance until we grow up - trusting God, hearing and obeying, discerning Spiritually, spending time with God etc., Part of that maturation process is putting Ishmael out of the house; in fact, out of our house! Beginning in verse 28 of Chapter 4 of Galatians, 'Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. BUT WHAT DOES THE SCRIPTURE SAY? Get rid of the slave woman and her son, FOR THE SLAVE WOMAN'S SON WILL NEVER SHARE IN THE INHERITANCE WITH THE FREE WOMAN'S SON.' We have come to the time where the two cannot occupy the same house. We can no longer mix living from our minds with living by the Spirit. The two can no longer live in the same house. A little leven unleventh the whole lump.

I belabor this point because of its vast importance in understanding sonship. Those who allow human reasoning to rule their decision-making are the seed of Cain; they produce Ishmaels. Ishmael is a work of the flesh - the very essence of human reasoning. When we make decisions by human reasoning and do not seek the Lord for His will, we will inevitably produce another Ishmael. Ishmaels are always produced by a lack of patience, which promotes the idea that it is always best to wait until we are sure we have heard God before we act. Again, we can only have faith for what we have heard God say, which not only includes His direction, but also His timing. When we follow exactly what God says, we will birth Isaac and Isaac is the seed of promise.

Ishmael and Isaac can no longer live in the same house because there is enmity between the two. Said differently, we can no longer allow human reasoning to stay in the house with being Spirit led. There will always be enmity with between that which is born of the flesh and the true seed of God. As we know, Abraham eventually put Ishmael out of the house, recognizing the mocking and taunting nature of Ishmael toward the true seed -Isaac. As a wonderful Biblical example for us and to Abraham's credit, he was able to recognize Ishmael as a work of the flesh, further realizing that every tree can only bear fruit after its own kind, hence he chopped the tree down and got rid of it. So too should we when we recognize our works of the flesh.

Even though God blessed our Ishmaels for a while, when Isaac appears, that which is born of flesh MUST BE DRIVEN OUT. Flesh cannot be an heir with that which is born of Spirit. Many make the mistake of using their mind for the purposes of God. Many Churches today are governed by the seed of Cain. If Sarah could shout one phrase to all of Christian humanity it would be "The Sin Of Presumption Often Hides Itself In Noble Purposes!"

We must begin to distinguish between the things that God blesses and those that He inhabits. Ishmael was a work of the flesh, having been born of the bondwoman and remaining in bondage (Galatians 4:21-31). Ishmael was not the promised seed, but he persecuted the true heir and does so to this day, yet God blessed him and made him a great nation. He blessed him because he had a covenant with Abraham, and he often blesses our works of the flesh, to a degree, because of the covenant He has made with us; however, he will not inhabit them. The time has come when the child of the flesh must be cast out. We must now look beyond that which may have a blessing upon it and give our attention to that which He inhabits. He inhabits what He orders, and if we cease from our own works and ways, He will be sure, by His grace, to give us His works and ways - the place He inhabits, the place of His blessing. The rest of God can only be found in obeying the work of God. This type rest is not necessarily the absence of activity, but rather the absence of anxiety. We find peace and rest in the middle of God's assignment and specific purpose for our lives.

God is looking for true sons upon which to build His Kingdom in the earth. Those who move in the vanity of their own minds are hirelings, not sons. Building new things in the earth on hirelings is not only negating God's building pattern and methodology, but also a ticket to failure and loss of time, capital and energy - this is a business-economic revelation, a ministry revelation, a personal revelation; True Sons Are About the Father's Business.

Though I have less than a year of walking in this in my own life, I realized recently that in following God's instructions totally (his guidance and direction), all of which started out as selfless acts has now resulted in over a million dollars of my existing debt being paid off (during the last six months) in addition to many relational and Spiritual blessings. The intellectuals (Ishmaels) have repeatedly attacked me over messages like this. They can argue with the doctrine all day long, but they cannot argue with the testimony.

A willingness to only do what the Father says draws the grace that provides specific instruction by the Spirit, which leads to life and it more abundantly.

God Is Calling A Remnant

The Spiritual Church is being birthed out of the Carnal Church; much of which is happening with Home Groups and Cell Groups whose hunger for God exceeds any tradition or soulical ties to men. As always, God has a pattern whenever the Whole either cannot or will not fulfill God's Purpose. Historically, the Lord has taken a Remnant out of the Whole in order to secure His Will on behalf of the Whole. Of all the nations in the world, He chose Israel to be the Remnant. Out of Israel, He chose a handful of faithful ones to carry out His will. Of all the people carried to Babylon, Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego were the only ones who did not defile themselves. The Church is a Remnant compared to the world, and the Overcomers are a Remnant compared to the Church. 'He gave some... till we ALL' (Ephesians 4:11-13). The Lord uses SOME until He gains ALL. This is the Remnant Principle that we have seen historically and are now seeing in the earth today.

A Measure Without Measure

Becky McLendon

Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again. Luke 6:38

But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Ephesians 4:7

Eph 4:13 - Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ:

From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love. Ephesians 4:16

Could it be we may be waiting on something that’s already there? Call the spiritual post office. We have already received something we don't know about yet. We have been delivered some thing in the spirit we have not seen work yet. The Lord will reveal shortly what it is. And if we call the spiritual post office, we will find out it is already there ready to be delivered. We may have missed it the first time, but now we will get it. We have received some thing that is waiting to see action. We have received his measure.

What about love? Can it be measured? How many people would know or guess their love has to be converted? We are brought into situations we can't love any more, and then he loves. Yet people say...OH you need to show LOVE. But they don't understand the Love they are talking about

If we love Jesus, his revelation is going to be loved. His love has no measure, for he is the measure. So we do not measure out this love. We love according to how he measures it out to whom he will. This is not what we have been taught all our lives that says, "You have to love everybody, because God loves everybody." Man cannot measure perfect love. We can only love with the measure of Jesus! And that is immeasurable, because man has no standard by which he can compare that love.

How do you measure life? Life is measured in Jesus. And HE is without measure. Man counts life as breathing and existing and grabbing for whatever makes him look good, feel good, and promote self. But when Jesus came to give us life, there was no man made standard by which to measure that life. Jesus is the measure.

Can perfection be measured? Could we say a measure of perfection has been given? A measure of faith? A measure of love? He IS the measure that is given, and there is no end to it. He cannot be measured and He is our measure! Jesus is the MEASURE. He is the immeasurable measure. So the MEASURE HE gives is without measure! We are converted to that measure. LIFE is measured in Jesus. And HE is without measure.

Can the mind of God be measured? The mind of God has no IQ. What would you compare it with? it is without measure! The mind of God cannot be "tested" and profiled. There are no statistics, no norms to compare the mind of god to. It is just little minds that think about I Q.

Some people think Genesis to Revelation is an end to God's word. But what is Revelation but a revelation of the measureless measure of Christ to those who come to understanding? But most bind the word of God up between the covers and to man’s private interpretation of it. It is their measure, but not the measure of Christ.

How do you measure the deep? The deep is measured in the same way: In Christ.

There is no tool to be laid to the measure of Christ. And man has been trying to "measure Christ" ever since the beginning. In all of this arguing about oneness vs. trinity; once saved always saved vs. predestination; sprinkling or dunking; pre-post-or mid-tribulation; and other lengthy worn out debates and discussions spawned in the belly of Babylon, they have neglected the experience of the measure of Christ that we have all been commanded to be full of and to grow up into! The willing and obedient will always find predestination has been on time for every thing ahead of it.

Think of the centuries in the history of mankind that man has tried to measure God with his own puny little tools, and then set his findings as absolutes to teach to all generations. Yet God says we are to search the unsearchable riches of His kingdom. He is telling us right there that He cannot be measured by our means of measuring.

He is only measurable when we grow up in the fullness of the measure of Christ! Truth and revelation will only be known by those that have a cross. It doesn’t come out of books but out of God only.

Amen and Amen,

Becky

A Word To The Church For 2004

Heidi Cummins

Dec.29, 2003
"Know WHO you believe, know WHY you believe and know WHERE you are going!

My children, you have got to know Me and know Me well! You must make Me a priority in your lives! I say this not to condemn you, but to give you the strength to go thru the times ahead. This is a time to put all unnecessary things aside and seek My face. I said that those who seek Me with their whole heart WILL find Me- You WILL find Me! I AM not far from you, if you will but seek Me as you would seek for hidden treasure.

But those who only have a nonchalant attitude towards Me will not be hearing from Me- I am seeking people who will worship Me in Spirit and in Truth. People who LOVE the truth! Who love ME! People who do not love falsehood! People who do not love the things of this world! People who love Me with a pure heart! I am not looking for perfect people, only people who WILL LET ME perfect them! That is what I am looking for!

I am raising up an army of Holy warriors who are consumed with My purposes and My desires. This army knows that they can't do ANYTHING in themselves, but they have learned that by relying on Me, they receive MY power. Power that I give them by My Holy Spirit. It CANNOT be worked up by themselves thru wishful thinking or desire thru self-exaltation. Those who would seek to exalt themselves will be exposed for the charlatans that they are! You cannot play games with God and think that you are getting away with it! It is MY power, and the glory belongs to ME alone! My true disciples recognize this, and are filled to overflowing with My power, My love, My glory!

So seek Me while it is still daylight. I want My children prepared and ready for what's ahead. You MUST love the truth and all that the truth stands for! I AM the truth! You must not turn aside to falsehood and false teachings. You must speak truth to one another in love. I am making you overcomers. This world will see the manifestation of MY true sons and daughters and will marvel at them in the midst of great difficulty. It will be a time where those will grab hold of you and say, " Who is this Great God of whom you speak? Who is this God?" And you will have the answers because I will put the right words in your mouth to say at that time. It will not be you speaking, but My Holy Spirit speaking thru you. So you don't need to worry. Worrying is for cowards!

Trust Me that I WILL accomplish what I started. I will do EXACTLY what I said I would do in My word. You need to know My word inside and out. I will make it very clear to you what you need to know. I do not want My church worrying about unimportant things. Only a few things are necessary. Trust Me as you have never trusted Me before. I AM your faithful Lord and I will bring you thru it all just as I said I would, even if the world looks like it is falling apart. As I was with My chosen people throughout history, I will be with you too. I was with Daniel in the fiery furnace. I was with Joseph. I was with Moses. I was with all of My disciples down thru the ages. And I am with you! I AM THAT I AM! The world was not worthy of Me and the world is not worthy of you! So rejoice, and trust Me in EVERYTHING!

A Word To My Body

dee@heartbeatofthefather.co.za

Cease from all striving, cease from all works, for why would you die O' Israel? Why would you call down upon you My Mighty Hand of Judgment? Turn to Me; it is in Me that you will find life, not only true life on earth, but eternal life.

I see you struggling Children, struggling to enter into My anointing, to enter true worship If your works could save you, then why did My Son die? Your own works could have saved you? No a thousand times NO. It is by entering into the finished work of the Cross that you enter into My Rest, into My Life, into anointing of My Holy Spirit.

Oh proud and haughty ones, did your flesh save you when you came to the Cross? Did your fleshly deeds and works NOT STINK IN MY NOSTRILS? Then why O why, IF YOUR FLESH WAS NOT ACCEPTABLE THEN, WHY DO THINK IT IS NOW?

O'Lord you say, but I am washed in the Blood of Jesus and that makes me acceptable. The washing by the Blood does cleanse you from sin and makes you My child, by the spirit of adoption. You indeed address Me as Father and rightfully so, for that I am, but as you walk you are to crucify the works and deeds of the flesh! DIE TO SELF WILL AND WORKS AND DO MY WILL, AND THE WORKS THAT YOU DO MUST BE BY MY HOLY SPIRIT!

O precious one, I see you reading and studying, trying to memorize My Word, but you NEED THE REVELATION OF MY HOLY SPIRIT, to take you into the life that is in My Word. You weary yourself with much studying but WHERE IS MY LIFE IN YOU?

You weary yourself with works and you say it is unto Me. DID I TELL YOU TO STRIVE, DID I TELL YOU TO LABOR OR DOES MY WORD NOT SAY THAT YOU ARE TO ENTER INTO MY REST?

Heb 4:7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts. 4:8 For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.4:9 THERE REMAINETH THEREFORE A REST TO

THE PEOPLE OF GOD 4:10 FOR HE THAT IS ENTERED INTO HIS REST, HE ALSO HATH CEASED FROM HIS OWN WORKS, AS GOD DID FROM HIS.

IT IS AT MY FEET THAT YOU WILL BE RENEWED. IT IS AT MY FEET THAT YOU WILL BE TAUGHT; in quietness and rest, in prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, WITH A HEART RECEIVING AS A CHILD.

Know you not that your religious works stinketh in My nostrils? COME TO ME MY CHILD, SIT AT MY FEET, cease from all your labors and RECEIVE FROM ME. Receive the living water of My Spirit that you may have life. THAT LIFE, THAT LIVING WATER IS FOUND IN ME AND NOT IN YOUR ENDLESS LABORS AND STRIVING.

I AM THE GREAT PHYSICIAN, COME TO ME AND I WILL RESTORE AND HEAL YOU AS YOU EARNESTLY SEEK MY FACE. I LOVE YOU MY CHILD, I AM WAITING FOR YOU.

Heb 4:12 For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two edged sword, PIERCING EVEN TO THE DIVIDING ASUNDER OF SOUL AND SPIRIT, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. 4:13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: BUT ALL THINGS ARE NAKED AND OPENED UNTO THE EYES OF HIM WITH WHOM WE HAVE TO DO.4:14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. 4:15 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. 4:16 LET US THEREFORE COME BOLDLY UNTO THE THRONE OF GRACE, THAT WE MAY OBTAIN MERCY, AND FIND GRACE TO HELP IN TIME OF NEED.

A Word Of Caution

We have seen many with a misconception that the Lord is going to do away with leadership in the church of Jesus Christ. Throughout all of history and all of the scriptures there was always the leadership structure that the Lord Himself set in place. Kings and Judges were used of the Lord in the Old Testament. Leaders of the various tribes of Israel were used of the Lord to give direction and leadership to the people of God. Moses, David and Joseph were leaders given of God in their day.

Joseph learned to submit under the leadership of a godless Pharaoh and the Lord honored him. Daniel submitted under a godless governmental structure and the Lord promoted him. The Tribes of Israel were set up with very specific structure and leadership. The "congregation" was the twelve tribes under the leadership of Moses, Aaron, and his sons.

In the New Testament, the Lord Himself appointed and gave to the church, Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, Pastors and Teachers for the "Equipping of the Saints" to do the works of ministry, see Ephesians 4:11-15.
Many people today sense the shift that is taking place in the Body of Christ and the Lord Himself is reorganizing His Church and Breathing fresh life upon it, but He is not doing away with the very structure that He has put into place in His Body. There are some aspects of fellowship, teaching, encouraging, and the corporate anointing that can only happen as the church gathers corporately as His Body.

Yes, there is much wrong with the church, but abandoning it for individual motivations will not make it better. There is a form of rebellion in the Body of Christ today and we must be careful that we are not sowing into that nature. Much of it directly ties into the nature of our culture.

Many do not want to have to be accountable to any form of leadership and do not realize that our character is greatly formed and grown as we learn how to walk together in the body of Christ through relationship and submitting ourselves to those whom may have more wisdom and understanding than us. Yes, there is control in the church, but we don't throw the baby out with the bath water.

We must find five fold leaders and ministers that we can align ourselves with and walk with. God is the author of leadership and has given it through-out all of Biblical history. I really believe that we must be careful that our leaving of churches is TRULY motivated only by our Lord Jesus Christ and not by our deceiving ourselves into thinking that we know better than those the Lord has called us to walk under for instruction, protection, growth, equipping and character building. After all, it is His Church and He loves His church, even with all of it's flaws.

Let's freely embrace the new things that our precious Lord is doing in His church, but remember that those that God has given authority to, must also walk under authority and learn to submit to one another.

I am concerned that there is simply a lot of individuals out there who truly want to seek the Lord, but have not learned how the Kingdom of God is set up in His church. The Lord gave the structures to the church. Check out I Timothy, II Timothy and the book of Titus. Please check out the book of Acts again and the need for the council at Jerusalem in Acts 15. There are many such examples in the New Testament.

Even in the book of Revelation, the first three chapters, the Lord Jesus walks amongst the lampstands, His churches, with admonition, encouragement and exhortation. In our zeal for more of God, we must learn to walk in wisdom which is given from the Lord above and see the bigger picture of what He is doing. The church of Jesus Christ has endured for over 2000 years and in environments of structure. I'm not sure that He would do away with it now.

The first century believers gathered daily "in the temple courts, and from house to house." It is not either/or, but both/and. My prayer is that instead of leaving churches with complaints and grumbling, that many will learn how to work together and love each other. That is the true fruit of the Lord Jesus' followers.
Blessings to you,

A Word Of Encouragement
Bill Burns

Apr 26, 2004
I speak a word of encouragement to you, My children. Do you not know that I see your trials? Do you not know that I see your struggles? I have seen you in those trials and tribulations from the day your were born; I have seen you bathed in the blood. I am increasing your strength and power in these days, says the Lord. I am giving you an anointing, the anointing of the breaker, the anointing of the breakthrough. I will come and deliver you and bring you to victory. My word declares that I will always bring you to a place of triumph. Lift up the hands that hang down, and strengthen your feeble knees. Gird yourself for battle, put on your armor, and go forth into battle, says the Lord, for the battle is Mine, and I will surely bring victory if you will but believe. Arise and strengthen yourself in Me, then I shall undertake on your behalf. I will rout the enemy even as I have from days of old. You shall possess the good land and gain the victory, says the Lord. Only believe!

Things Are Written
Bill Burns

Is it not written that all things must be shaken before the end of the age? It is not written that My Church will be judged first? Those things are written, and the scriptures cannot be broken. Indeed, I am coming in these days to shake you. Have you considered that I will chasten those that I love? I will shake you for My purposes so that all the things that are not worthy of Me may be removed and that your mind be renewed and your eye become single in focus on the Lord of Glory. Get ready for the shaking and the judgment that now comes at this time. I will have a Church without spot or wrinkle. I am preparing My Bride. She shall be glorious, circumcised of tongue and of heart, and will worship in spirit and in truth. These are the days of the fulfillment of those things that were written long ago, for many have wondered, and many have desired to see these days. The angels have desired to look into the events of the end of the age and see and understand the mysteries that will be revealed in My Church before that great Day of the Lord. Get ready. Get ready to be shaken. Get ready to move in power.

Rise up, My people, for you are My battle axes. It is time to gird up the loins of your strength and go forth as a mighty man to battle. I, the Lord, have risen up like a mighty man, and I will do battle on behalf of My people. I come with a sword and a sling and a bow. I come with hail stones from My storehouse in the heavenlies. I, Myself, am angry with the enemy. I am against the voice of the enemy, and I am now arising to go forth to battle. I will bring judgment upon those who are against My people, says the Lord. I will pull down their vain imaginations, and I will make a distinction between those who are truly Mine and those who are not.

Come into the Holy of Holies, for in abiding and rest you shall be victorious, says the Lord. As you abide in My presence you shall take on My nature. As I show your fingers how to war, I will send you forth. I have strengthened your arms to pull the bronze bow, and I will send you forth to loose the arrows at the enemy. This is your inheritance, to pull down the strongholds and the powers of the kings that are set against My people and against My land.

Marsha Burns: I keep hearing in my spirit the phrase "situation ethics" which means moral judgment according to interrelated conditions instead of absolute principles. And, I heard the Lord say, do not judge any situation according to what it appears to be. You cannot judge by past experience. You have not been this way before. You must not judge by the flesh, but you must yield to the work of My Spirit to bring you through this current dilemma. What worked in the past to bring solutions and conclusions will not work in this situation. Now is the time when you must not operate out of preconceived notions, but you must seek My wisdom and follow My leading in dealing with the things you face. I am bringing you to a higher level of conduct, and you can trust Me to direct your steps if you will only yield to My direction.

A spirit of insanity has been loosed against My people, says the Lord. The door was opened through a curse of intimidation and accusation. Forgive those who have cursed you and release them. Rise up and break this assignment of intimidation, fear, rejection, accusation, heaviness, condemnation and isolation. Refuse to entertain the spirit of insanity. I have not given you a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind. Begin to move in the power of My great deliverance and liberty, for surely I will bring clarity once again to your thoughts and emotions.

I am releasing a wave of My Spirit that will wash away all lies and deception if you will yield and be washed by it. Children, do you not know that you are not concealed in deception and hypocrisy? Nothing is hidden from Me or from those who walk in the Spirit. You are only hiding from yourself. The problem is that your fear of man is greater than your fear of God. You use deception to protect yourself from rejection. I am calling forth a people who will be open and honest with themselves, with Me and with others. Come into the freedom that absolute truth produces. Be washed and cleansed even from little "white lies" for they also are sin. Colossians 3:9, "Do not lie to one another since you have off the old man with his deeds."

Resist the temptation to be overwhelmed with your responsibilities. Indeed you are facing situations that require a response, but by My grace I have given you the ability to respond with wisdom. The enemy has sent a spirit of intimidation to make your circumstances loom before you like a mountain too big to climb and too wide to get around, but this mountain is only his lies designed to immobilize you with fear. Do not be afraid. Move ahead with courage and assurance that I am with you. You can make your plans, but know that I will direct your steps, says the Lord.

Marsha Burns: You have fled from the face of a controlling spirit, and you have been hiding in a spiritual cave. You have seen the wind and the earthquake and the fire. You have endured shaking. Hear My still small voice, and wrap your face in your mantle. I have called and chosen you for such a time as this. I trust you with this testing and this trial, and you will come forth in victory, says the Lord.

Beloved, your speech betrays your heart. Let the meditations of your heart be pleasing, for the words that come forth will either accuse or excuse yourself and others. Allow Me to purify and cleanse your heart so that your communication is not corrupt. As you yield to the work of My Spirit, you will only meditate on truth, for I will thoroughly purge you of fear and deception so that you are free from hypocrisy and duplicity. I will touch your lips with the coal of My fire so that you will only speak from pure motives of peace, love and joy. Prepare to be transformed as the fire of My Spirit comes forth to produce the power of life and health.

I am the living Bread, says the Lord, and you also must become broken bread and spilled out wine to impart the sweetness of your communion with Me. Yet, you tend to want to keep yourself protected and in a state of preservation instead of freely sharing the revelation and hope within you. This is because in times past you have innocently cast your pearls before swine, and they have turned and trampled you. But, I tell you the truth, they did not reject you; they rejected Me. Do not recoil and retreat in self-protection and isolation; rather take the time to develop a more acute discernment of the nature of those you might share with. Hold yourself in reserve until you find a hungry heart and a thirsty soul and then share the bread of life and pour the wine in abundance.

My children, temptations will arise to be drawn into conflict, but I tell you that the enemy has set a trap that will result in accusation, condemnation and rejection. Do not take the bait. Remember the proverb: "Do not answer an fool according to his folly lest you be like him." Guard your heart and your mouth, and be willing to walk away without expressing your dissatisfaction or disagreement. These are days of provocation, but you can quite easily pass the test through awareness and self-control.

A Wall Of Fire Round About Her Lucinda Evans

(luevans@hiwaay.net)
The Cupbearer Journal (www.cupbearer.com)

Out of the years of obscurity, there is arising a people of understanding in the kingdom of God. After 2000 years of building in the earth, the church has come to a crossroads in her journey and much like the children of Israel in the wilderness, she has been unwilling to cross over into the promise of her inheritance, settling for a life of disillusionment which falls short of her 'pre-destined' purpose (that which is purposed in the heart of the Father).

What is our purpose? Is it to build the greatest ministries, build the largest buildings, and have the best the world has to offer? Do not misunderstand my questions, for I do believe that it is alright to have nice things and prosper naturally in the earth, but the question is, should that be the primary focus? What is the role of the church? Is it to teach the children of God to prosper?

Recently I heard one prophesy that gold was going to begin to manifest among the children of God and that it would be everywhere! That it would be all over them and all around them and within them. That they would be able to release the gold and it would provide all that they had need of, that they would be rich beyond measure, and never again would they be in lack for anything and they would be able to minister to the needs of others. Throughout the day at break times, it was the constant topic of discussion and my spirit was grieved beyond measure.

Gold has always stood for the deity of God, the character and the divine nature of God. The true interpretation was that the nature and character of God was about to be made manifest within, through, and upon His chosen. That as they came into this place with God, they would operate out of the same realm as the Son to release provision in the earth. Both spiritual and physical.

The problems of understanding in the church today, are the same ones that Jesus confronted in His day. Continually the Lord had to deal with man's unwillingness to 'hear' what the Spirit of the Lord was saying. Much of the focus today within the church world is on extremities. Father is not dealing with externals, He is dealing with internals and eternals. He is in the eternal day and has 'predestined' His vision and purpose to be manifested out of the realm of eternity into the earth. Whether we realize it or not, we already dwell in eternity (seated with Him in heavenly places Eph. 2:6) and He is bringing many sons unto glory (Heb.2:10)! His sons are about to be manifested in the earth! The victorious ones in Him, the royal priesthood (Melchizedek Order), the holy nation of the living God! The true church is about to be manifested in all of His glory!

I lifted up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold a man with a measuring line in his hand. Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof. And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him, And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein: For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her. Zech. 2:1-5

As the angel went to measure the city (church), another angel stopped him and told him to RUN to Zechariah that Jerusalem would be as TOWNS (plural) WITHOUT WALLS! The multitude of people and its provision would be so great that the only limits and boundaries would be God Himself. Her boundaries are a WALL OF FIRE, GOD HIMSELF (For our God is a consuming fire Heb. 12:29).

Her boundaries are limitless, for God is her limit. He is the glory in the midst of His people, for they dwell in Him and He in them! Can you see/hear it? Zechariah was seeing the New Jerusalem of Revelation 21 where God Himself and the Lamb are the TEMPLE (the dwelling place).

And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. Revelation 21:22-23

We are told in the scriptures that 'we are the temple of the Holy Ghost'(1Cor. 6:19) and 'yet we live and move and have our being in Him (Acts 17:28)'. In the above scripture, we see where the Father and the Lamb are the temple, THE ONLY TEMPLE IN THE CITY which is the New Jerusalem, which is the bride, the Lamb's wife (Rev. 21:9-10). Oh my Father, grant to us understanding and enlighten us by the revelation of Your Spirit!

Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north (judgment), saith the LORD: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD. Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of BABYLON (religious confusion). For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled (drawn out, plundered) you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye. For, behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me. Zech. 2:6-9

This church has come out of condemnation for they know that they have been judged in Christ and therefore flee from judgment! This is a people born of the Spirit of the Living God who are not any longer constrained by the dictates of the flesh but free to move in the realm of the Spirit as the Father wills!

That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is EVERY ONE that is born of the Spirit (John 3:6-8).

The confusion which plundered them, the traditions of their fathers which made the word of God of none effect, they have come out of and the religious system of man is becoming a spoil in the midst of them. These are they that worship their Father in SPIRIT and in TRUTH (John 4:23).

Babylon means confusion (by mixture). When Jesus gave the Parable of the Sower to the people, the disciples came to Him privately and asked Him to explain to them concerning the parable. When you look at the scriptures, you will find that He said something very interesting to them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables:That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them. And he said unto them, KNOW YE NOT THIS PARABLE? AND HOW THEN WILL YE KNOW ALL PARABLES (Mark 4:11- 13)?

Jesus was telling them that the parable of the sower was the key to all the other parables because the primary principle of this parable is the SEED! The secondary principle is WHERE IT FALLS! God's word is HOLY, a PURE SEED! In Ezra 9:1-2, we find that the princes came to Ezra complaining that "the people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands (world), doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the HOLY SEED HAVE MINGLED THEMSELVES with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass."

THE PRINCIPLE???? DO NOT MIX THE HOLY SEED! When you mix the Word with carnal thoughts and ideologies, it spawns mixture, i.e. confusion (Babylon).

Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD. And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee. And the LORD shall inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jerusalem again. Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation. Zech. 2: 10-13

These are a people whom join themselves unto Him in purpose of heart. The Lord is about to move in an unexpected way to many and yet it will be a way long anticipated and expected by others. In this time that we are in, the Lord is about to be raised up out of his holy habitation! No longer hidden, no longer obscure, no longer retained but fully manifested!

Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God; And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord: In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit. Ephesians 2:19-22

We are the city without walls, the holy habitation of God which is being fashioned by His Spirit. AND we are being built TOGETHER, FITLY (to be closely joined) framed together. Lord in heaven and earth, give us eyes to see and ears to hear what the Spirit says to the church!

If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious. To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. 2Peter 2:3-5

As lively stones, we will NOT be chosen of men, just as He was not chosen but rather was rejected. To know Him in the power of His resurrection, we will fellowship with His sufferings (Phil. 3:10), and one of His greatest sufferings was rejection of HIS OWN. Scriptures plainly tell us that HIS OWN KNEW HIIM NOT (Acts 13:27) and neither did the world!

Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not (1John 3:1).

For those that eyes to see and ears to hear, we have come to the third day (seventh day) which is the time of resurrection and completion. Yet, beyond this we have the fourth day (eighth day) which few have perceived. Yet it is all encompassed in God's eternal day. For time only governs the natural elements, but does not exist with God. God is not governed by time. We are in His day ALREADY if we are His, where the end meets the beginning and weds in covenant to become so intertwined together that they lose their place in one another. So it is with the body of Christ growing up into the Head, which is Christ. It is time for the people of God to AWAKEN UNTO RIGHTEOUSNESS and arise to their inheritance in Him for they are the FULLNESS of Him which FILLETH ALL IN ALL! It is in that awakening unto righteousness (out of the cloak of the lie of condemnation) that we truly can see Him. And when we SEE Him, we shall be LIKE Him (1John 3:20) for as He IS, so ARE we IN THIS WORLD (1John 4:17).

But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned . 1Cor. 2:9-14

It was over twenty years ago that I went into cardiac and respiratory arrest and was 'caught up' in the Spirit before the Lord. It is as fresh in my heart today as it was then. Truly it was a time set in the heart of the Father for the release of a journey of illumination, refreshing, release and revelation. As I was before Him, he spoke these words to me "I shall be a wall of fire around about you and the glory in your midst" as He released me for my return.

So extraordinary was my time with Him, suffice it to say that words cannot express that which is infinite. It would be a couple of years later before my eyes fell upon the scripture in Zechariah 2:5. When the written word met the spoken word in my spirit, it released vision and a journey toward manifestation. His church is not a building of bricks and stone, but it is a people clothed in His presence, woven into the fabric of His nature, and a painting of His character. A people personifying His love, His grace and His mercy. A people filled with song!

In that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong city; salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks. Isaiah 26:1

Bulwarks: a fortified wall; a safeguard; a rampart; a means of protection or defense. This people are a city which is strong in the power of His might with SALVATION appointed for their walls and protection. SALVATION is their FORTIFIED WALL which cannot be penetrated, even by darkness. Truly she is resplendent in beauty encompassed about by the fire of His presence. Truly He is radiant beyond comprehension and her glory forever!

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. Revelation 21:1-3

A Word Over Indonesia

Musa Opiyo

January 17, 2004

And the Lord would say to you Indonesia, that I am breaking the power of Islam over you. I have heard the cry of your intercessors, and I am calling you My warriors, those that are in that land, to pray for your nation, for indeed the enemy has planned a mission of manslaughter over the peoples of the islands, yet your prayers My intercessors are more powerful than you think. For remember that the weapons of your warfare are not carnal, but mighty in the pulling down of strongholds, and bringing every captive mind to the obedience of Christ.

Rejoice for the enemy is fighting a losing battle. For from within the midst of the turmoil I will raise out of you apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers who will carry My message of salvation and power throughout the land and unto the ends of the earth. My will shall be done in Indonesia. And the Lord says I will institute leaders that are godly, even now I am placing those of My choosing in the influential spectrum. Fear not, My people of Indonesia, only continue to pray for your nation.

A Spirit Of Joy And Thanksgiving

Musa Opiyo

elyonpower@yahoo.com

January 13, 2004

My people you are entering a new season of joy. A spirit of thanksgiving shall overtake you even as you ponder on all the things that I the Lord have done for you. For indeed I am faithful and I have shown My mercy in abundance. My provision has been poured out to you even as the windows of blessing have been opened. Rejoice, for in rejoicing, you give no foothold to the enemy and there is no discontentment. Rise up, and lift your voices in praise and adoration for all the things I have done in your midst. For I am He who has mercy on you, says the Lord. So move forward in this new season and rejoice, that your joy indeed may be full. If you are to dwell in the past, let it be spent thinking about how My faithfulness has led you to where you are. I am the same yesterday, today and forever. Be assured of My abundant protection and provision for your lives, for I am the Lord your God Almighty.

Awake From The Slumber

Musa Opiyo

elyonpower@yahoo.com

11 January, 2004:

Awake, those that have slumbered. Be watchful and know that the battle is increasing in the heavenlies for the souls of men. The enemy has lulled many of My people to sleep in these days through complacency and undiscernment of the times. Know ye not, My warriors, that this is a fresh season in which I am releasing My anointing and power in greater measure? As My Spirit moves amongst the hearts of men and bringing many into My kingdom, daily are many added into My army. The enemy knows his time is up. He is stubborn and does not accept his defeat. He has pulled out the big guns and weapons that are meant for the destruction of My people.

That is why I say awake from your sleep and be sober and vigilant, for your adversary the devil is walking about seeking those that he may devour. In complacency he has led many into deception and distortion of My word. Yet you are My victorious conquerors who I will use to crush his efforts. The battle is never over in the heavenlies, My people, but as you wage war under My direction against his forces, I, the Lord, empower you with My strength and ability. Trust in Me alone, and lean not on your own understanding, but daily stand on the wisdom of My word and the voice of the Holy Spirit.

It is truly time for My people to awake, says the Lord.

My Presence That Makes You Whole

Musa Opiyo

January 7, 2004

Hearken to My voice and understand wisdom. For out of Me flows rivers of pure water to refresh your soul. Draw closer to My presence and let My fires refine you. Let My presence make you whole and complete, for I AM in the business of bringing restoration to those of a broken heart. My ways are higher than your ways, My thoughts are higher and are always toward you My beloved. When will you stop and realise that I desire intimacy with you? Yes I saw you when you veered off course and sinned against Me. I saw as you came to Me and asked forgiveness. Did I not cleanse you from the defilement of sin? Why would you remind me about that which is in the past?

Have I not indeed said that if you confess your sin, then I am faithful and just to forgive you of your sin and to cleanse you from ALL unrighteousness (1 John 1:9)

Did I not say that the "just shall live by faith"?

Did I not declare that there is no condemnation to those who are in Christ, to those who walk according to the Spirit and not the flesh (Rom 8:1)

Do not let guilt and condemnation and your past sins hold you back. Now is the time to press into me. Enter into My presence with thanksgiving, into My courts with praise. I admonish you, Beloved, to leave the comfort of the outer and inner court, and draw into the holy of holies where My presence resides.

Make no mistake, I do not condone sin. But if you bring that which is a weakness for you before Me, I become your strength. Fear not, for I have not called you this far to quit, but to press on to the mark of the prize that it Jesus Christ. Remain faithful in that which I have given you to do. Do not be wavered or moved by doubt or unbelief, but stand firm, with your armour close by, for the devil is a liar and walks about seeking those that he may devour and lead into deception, but I raise up My army of warriors and intercessors, who unlock the keys in the spirit realm and cause major shiftings through the prayer and praise. Fear not, only be aggressive toward your enemy, for I have given you the victor, says the Lord. For I surround My own like a tower. I AM their strength in the time of the storms.

Awakening Of The Watchmen

Musa Opiyo

WATCHMEN, IT IS TIME TO STAND AND TAKE YOUR PLACE UPON THE WALLS

"I will stand upon my watch and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say to me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved." Habakkuk 2:1

It is time to set the trumpet to your mouth and to declare what you see.

"Set the trumpet to thy mouth." Hosea 8:1a

Watch, for I shall speak to you in the night visions and upon broad daylight what you shall see concerning My people.

My admonition to you, My watchmen is:

"No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath enlisted him as a soldier." 2 Timothy 2:4

I have assigned to each of you different posts. To one, it is to watch over cities and nations, to anothe, I have placed to watch over families and communities, still others I have placed upon you the burden of watching over My church, My Bride.

"And the Lord answered and said unto me, 'Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it." Habakkuk 2:2

" When I say unto the wicked, tnou shalt surely die, and thou givest him no warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his way, to save his life, the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at your hand. Yet if thou warn and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity, but thou hast delivered thy soul." Ezekial 33: 8-9

Give warning to My people as I direct you. Share with them the whole counsel of My word.

My watchmen, it is not time to fall asleep on the job, for in these end times the enemy has sought to plunder My people and to scatter My sheep. Stand upon your watch and give warning and encouragement even according to My will.

To many of you I am giving the responsibility of nations. I ask you to ask Me for the nations, that I may give them to you as an inheritance. To those I have placed the responsibility over cities, pray for your cities, that they may become places where My revival fire would break out in great measure.

To those that I have given the responsibility over families and communities, intercede for your loved ones and those closest to you, for My Spirit shall give you the utterance to pray according to My will.

To those whom I have placed the responsibility to watch My church, be faithful to sound the trumpet and declare My will and purposes to her that she may grow and mature in My word to be the Bride that I made her to be.

" And the Holy Spirit helps us in our distress. For we don't even know what we should pray for, nor how we should pray. But the Holy Spirit prays for us with groanings that cannot be expressed unto words." Romans 8:26 NLT

TO GOD BE THE GLORY,

AMEN.

You Cannot Face This Battle On Your Own
Musa Opiyo

You are facing many battles to which you cannot fight on your own. I Am your Commander in Chief. I Am the Almighty God who fights for you. You, My people, need to stay close by Me and know My ways, for when you know My ways, you will know first of all that I never leave nor forsake My own. For I am indeed the God of the Breakthrough, and I am breaking through your situations and showing Myself mighty. You cannot sustain in the coming days on your own. You were never made to be the 'lone ranger' but you were made to submit.

Many of you at this time are submitting to your circumstances in the natural. You have resigned and thrown in the towel saying, 'Its is impossible'. I hear words like 'I have been down this road before and I keep getting the same results'. My children, if your faith and reliance is not found on Me, then is it no wonder that you have played 'musical chairs' in despair, discouragement and defeat? I say unto you to rise up above what you see and see through My eyes. Look at your life and the coming days through My perspective. Examine your hearts today. What are you truly holding on to?

Is it worth it to gain the whole world and loose your soul? And what is in the world that draws you back? Is it wealth and riches? Do you not know that millionaires have committed suicide despite their riches for lack of love? My people, you are Mine according to the covenant I made with you through the blood of My son. Do not lean on the world nor the ways of the world. Do not be drawn in by what the enemy puts before you, for remember you are soldiers of the Most High God. I have warned you through My Word not to entangle yourself with the affairs of this life, that you would please Me who enlisted you as a soldier.

When the enemy throws his fiery darts, thrust out the shield of faith. I have not called you to complacency and to depending on yourself, but to rely on Me. be holy even as I, the Lord am holy. I am returning for you, My love, as spotless and without error. Endeavor to live worthy of My calling on you. Be encouraged and know that even as My hand is upon you, I will not allow you to slumber nor fall.

Are We Sheep Or Goats

Dave Howe

davehow@dsl.pipex.com

Sheep and the Goats.

M't:25:31: When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

M't:25:32: And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats:

M't:25:33: And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

M't:25:34: Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

M't:25:35: For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

M't:25:36: Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

M't:25:37: Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

M't:25:38: When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

M't:25:39: Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

M't:25:40: And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

M't:25:41: Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:

M't:25:42: For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

M't:25:43: I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

M't:25:44: Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

M't:25:45: Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

M't:25:46: And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

Where do we stand? Are we sheep or goats? Are we building for ourselves? Thinking we are doing the Lords work but are really serving ourselves. Serving our man made houses be it what ever we like to name it.

House fellowship, Cell church, Roman Catholic, Pentecostal, Anglican, Baptist, Methodist, Free Church, Independent fellowship, Evangelical, Fundamentalist, Liberal and many more.

Each one with its own rules and doctrines.

Each one thinking in their hearts that we are Gods true church and all others are out of the will of God and need to be converted to our cause.

Many today getting together so they can influence others to become like them and all the time watering the gospel down so as not to upset anybody.

I heard someone say just recently that it does not matter what system we use as long as it gets bums on seats.

Many ministries big and small today are looking to make a name themselves. Looking to be number one, To be better than others in Christianity. Heaping grander titles upon themselves. Pride has come in a big way and many don't know it, Our hearts being deceived by its wants and desires. Saying in our hearts look at what we are building for Christ. But when water and wind comes the sand will be washed away.

The Lord said that we should not do as the gentiles do, Should not be lording over each other. But what do we go and do, Look to the world for our programs and ministry strategies. Look for ways to put ourselves above others.

It may look good and efficient in our eyes, Get the numbers in but this should not be amongst us. This makes weak christens at best and leaves many unsaved among us thinking that they are ok.

Someone said to me "But I like titles and being in charge" I heard another say "I hear God better than you, That why I am in charge". "We are going to the biggest church in town and everybody else will follow us". Comments like this reveal the real hearts of those persons, Hearts of pride.

In the mean time many are being hurt and killed. The sheep are being trampled underfoot. The poor being let down, Ignored and pushed aside or just counted as a number on a seat, To be milked so the ministry organization can grow fat on their meat.

And all done in the name of Jesus Christ.

Are We sheep or goats?

In which shoes do we stand? Our own big boots or are we shod with the gospel of Christ. When the Son of God comes to call us to give account which side shall he place us on, Right or Left, Sheep or Goats.

Will he say to us "Well done my good and faithful servants, Enter into your Eternal rest, Enter into your inheritance my people.

For you fed me when I was hungry, Visited me when I was in prison, Came and healed me when was ill. For as you did it for the least of these my bothers, You did it unto me".

Or will he say "Depart from me ye cursed into eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you did not feed me, Sick and you did not come to heal me, In prison and you did not visit me".

Then it would be to late and a waste of time trying to argue with him. For the very fact that we are trying to argue with him proves that we are out of the will of the Lord.

That we are still trying to justify yourselves before the Lord just as we tried to justify our actions before men when on earth.

Boasting about good we are, About how good our ministry is. How do we treat others around us? How do we treat our brothers and sisters?

Do we ignore them. Do we use them for our own good. Cut them off in our pride. Do we just speak to them or visit them when we want them to do something for us.

Search your hearts, For we have all done things like this at times.

Remember the world around us can see if we are true or not, Can see if we really love our bothers and sisters. Remember the Lord said "That it will be by the love that you show for each other that all men will be drawn unto me"

Or do they see us biting and hurting each other. Divided against each other. The house of God broken down by our actions.

Broken by our goat like behaviour.

Where do we stand? Are we sheep or goats? Examine your hearts this day. Enquire of the Lord. Repent before its to late.

Come let us reason together says the Lord. For even though your sins be red as scarlet. They shall be white as snow. Come Speak with me. Come repent. For I want none to perish but all to have life eternal. Do not use the gifts that I have given you to look good in the eyes of men, Using them to build your own houses. But use them in the service of others. To build them up. So I may build my church in them. So that they will be set free into what I would have them do for my Kingdom Says the Lord.

Are we a sheep or goat? Are you a Sheep or Goat?

All Who Will Yield

Barbara Lynch

December 13, 2004, 7:48 AM
Let me take you back to the beginning. In the beginning there was no man, only My family. But as I created all things, I created man in My image and I breathed My life into him. Man was My perfect creation and he was all that I am. But satan came along in total jealousy of My man and corrupted My men and changed them into his image. Now I am coming for My men. All who will yield to My calling, I will turn back into My image, and all who refuse My calling, will remain in the realm of the satanic forces and will one day perish and be eternally damned.

My purpose and plan was to have man be as I am. To have them flow in My spirit and to lift Me up. But man was corrupted by the evil in this world, and man has forsaken the only true and living God. I am restoring My purpose and plan for men. I will bring them to the forefront once again and they shall do the mighty works that I have called them forth to do.

There will be no more compromise in My men, for they will no longer fulfill the lusts of the flesh, for they will be so totally consumed by My Glory, that all else will grow dim and perish. Their only thought will be to obey Me at all costs. They will no longer look to the dregs of society to fulfill their deepest longings, for I have come to fulfill those deepest longings with My Love and My Glory.

Total Abandonment! It will take total abandonment in this day and in this hour to fulfill the works that I have started in each and everyone of My men, and that will occur, for the love of money and the lusts of this world will grow strangely dim in their eyes and they will have conquered the enemy of their souls and will follow Me totally and completely. My men are arising, even as I speak and they are coming forth to fulfill their total destiny in Me.

Compassion For The Lost

Barbara Lynch

I received this word on April 15, 2004, but I have not submitted it until now. I feel it needs to be heard today. I believe this is where the Lord is at, at this given time. We have been hearing of all the destruction that is coming, but in the midst of all this, God is also speaking of other things and about the lost and dying and telling us the desires of His heart for these souls.

Little has been said of My great love and compassion for the lost and the dying. The church must arise and listen to My voice and what I have to say about the down trodden.

I am surely a God of Love and Mercy, and My Grace is extended to all. Those who are enslaved by the enemy need My Love, Mercy and Grace shed abroad in their hearts. They are bound by the enemy and they cannot free themselves and it will take My true saints ever interceding on their behalves to bring them full circle round, into complete freedom from the snares that the fowler has them bound with.

Saul is a sure example of the entrapment of the evil one. But I came and set the captive free and then used him for My honor and My glory. It is now time that we step out of the boundaries of the church and we go out into the highways and the byways and share the love of the Lord to the lost and dying world. If My people will only free themselves from the cares of this world and if they will only turn their eyes upon Me, I will surely give them the path to walk on that is strewn with lost and dying souls in need of their savior.

Take heed this day church! Rise up from your bed of comfort and go forth and preach this gospel of love to this lost and dying generation. Speak not of the things of this world, but give them the Gospel of love! The gospel of peace! The gospel of resurrection power! The gospel of salvation!

I am calling My church forth today! To go forth into the highways and byways and compel them to come into the house of the Lord. In the house of the Lord many signs, wonders and miracles will occur. These signs will be for the lost and they will believe and they will receive. But first I must find a preacher. I must find someone who will say: yes Lord, here I am, use me, and commit all their ways unto Me, the true and living Father.

Then I will empower them with power from on high and they shall go forth completely full of My Glory and My Resurrection Power and My Holy Spirit will compel the lost to come into the house of the Lord.

Are You In HIS Place Of Safety

Marie Stewart

Jul 20, 2004
Good morning one and all, blessings to you today in the name that is above every name, the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ of Nazareth, The King of Kings, and the Lord of Lords.

The word of the Lord says in, Math. 6:6; But you, when you pray, enter into thy closet (room) and when thou hast shut the door, pray to thy Father which is in secret, and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward you openly.

Can we focus right now on what Jesus said. But you, meaning us, enter into your own individual closet, or room, and when you have shut the door, etc.. We have to first of all enter, that is a step of faith. We must make a decision to do it first. Then we must take the time to follow through. We must put every distraction out of our way and enter into the secret place of the most High so that we can abide under the shadow of the Almighty, and no other shadow will be able to be near us.

When we shut the door, then no one else can get in, and in that room, where there is no other shadow, (when it is only He and us,) then we will be under the shadow of the Almighty. This is true intimacy, it is when we enter in, and He enters into us, and the two become one, then the interaction takes place, and then the Fathers will and purposes are conceived in that place of intimacy.

The seed is only planted in the secret place, and I believe this is the place of Holiness, the place where our Father resides. He is in our hearts by the power of His Holy Spirit, who is, in essence God, amen. In the Old Testament the High priests had to have on their foreheads a gold platelet, and on that platelet was inscribed, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD.

Holiness is a lifestyle not just a name, Be you Holy as I am Holy, how can we do that, only by the power of the Holy Spirit within us, and it is in the secret place of the most High that we are made Holy. Only the Holy Spirit can make us holy, we cannot do it by ourselves, why, because we are not supernatural, He alone is.

Psa. 91: 1;He that dwelleth, (my interpretation, He that has made up his mind to stay permanently, he that has decided nothing shall draw him out of that place, he that abides, stays in the shadow of, he that walks in the spirit so that he does not fulfill the lusts of the flesh. In the secret place of the most High.

Where would that be, well doesn't the word of God say, that it is God who is within you to will and to do of HIS good pleasure. Could that secret place of the most High God be in our heart, or spirit. That means that the closet, the room, would be a room in our heart.

It is in the heart that all work of God is done in our lives. Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks, out of the heart flow the issues of life, faith is of the heart, and as our minds are renewed to the word of the Lord, our hearts are changed and then we are changed into His most glorious image.

It is in that secret place that He meets us, it is in worshipping Him in that secret place, where it is only He Himself and us, that we are changed, and healed, and turned around, IF we are going in the wrong direction. It is in this place that we meet with THE LOVER OF OUR SOUL, and it is there that He whispers in our ears and tells us how much He loves us.

Do you know that God Almighty, the Creator of this Universe is crazy about you? When I learned that and really believed it, it changed my walk in God forever. The fear of man left, and the fear of God came, and I walked in a dimension that I never thought possible, and signs, miracles, and wonders, followed me.

Perfect love came and cast out all fear, and there was no more condemnation that I received. It would go as quick as it came.

I started to learn who I was in Him, but most important WHO HE WAS IN ME.

No condemnation could catch up with me after that. He loves us church, with an everlasting love, and He is not fickle, but loves us unconditionally. That means whether we are good or bad, when we are flying in Him, or in a low place, when we sin and miss it.
He alone knows we are but flesh.

When he taught me that, it was when I sinned that I had to run to Him, and not run away from Him, I would just fly into His arms and ask Him to change me, and he would.

So remember when all hell tries to tear you apart, run into that secret place, shut the door, (my interpretation, what I learned by the Holy Spirit in my walk,) stay off the telephone, get out of books and tapes, don't ask council of anyone but the Lord, stay out of strife, so I can hear His voice, when the answer comes, and I don’t miss it, and last but not least, be still and KNOW that he is God, and that He alone has the answer, and not even the most anointed person I know can help me, but it is in my secret place with Him that the answer will come.

Last but not least. We can never get pregnant with the will and purposes of God until we are first intimate with Him. So lets enter in today into the secret place of the most High, and we shall then be under the shadow of the Almighty, and no matter what comes against us this day, we will know that we are in our safe place, because He is our refuge and our strength and our ever present help in time of trouble, Amen.

A Year of Choice

Mark Kaphaem

2004 - A Year of Choice, Will you Elect the Administration of God? mkap@insightbb.com 3/21/2004

2004 is a very important year in the Kingdom of God. In the natural we are in a election year. In the Spirit we are in a year on God calling out His Elect.

In the natural we cast a vote for our leader. In the Spirit, the leader of the church, Christ Jesus, is casting a vote for you! Many are being called. How many will be chosen? How many will run for the Kingdom of God?

In the natural, when you have two opponents that are diametrically opposed, it is unlikely they will win over each other's supporters. So instead they use a tactic called voter suppression. The second best solution to having them vote for you, is to not have them vote at all. This is done by discouraging the opponents supporters. In the spirit, the enemy will be doing everything he can this year to discourage those called by God from becoming the Chosen of God, His Elect.

To combat this wave of discouragement from the enemy, the Lord is calling up Bravehearts to the head of His army. You will see them coming up through the ranks. Unlike the Scottish nobles in the movie Braveheart, he is calling up leaders who have no interest in compromising with the enemy to gain land and tittles. These leaders are not interested in land and tittles. Their only interest is leading the body of Christ to Freedom! Over the last year the enemy had come to destroy these leaders, but in the process he only woke them up. They are now on the warpath!

Like in the movie, the enemy will be coming with his heavy horse this year. A wave of accusation, gossip, rumors, lies, slanders, half truths, greed, lust, pride. To stand up to this wave, the Lord has equipped His Bravehearts with His most powerful weapons. Faith, Hope and Love. The greatest of these is Love. He has called out warriors who are determined to love at all costs.

William Wallace issued a challenge to the troops on the day they stood up to the enemies heavy horse. Some were ready to flee the battle because they knew it may cost them their life. He told them, run and you may live, for at least a while. But lying in your beds many years from now, would you not gladly give every day, from this one till then, for just one chance, one chance, to return here, and tell our enemy, that you can take my life, but you can never take my freedom!

Bravehearts, come forth into the calling and anointing of God given for this very hour.

A Year of Knowing
Dennis Drewlo

2004 - A Year of Knowing

A Year of Preparation: (Know the Plan)

"Then Moses summoned Joshua and said to him in the presence of all Israel, "Be strong and courageous, for you must go with this people into the land that the LORD swore to their forefathers to give them, and you must divide it among them as their inheritance. The LORD himself goes before you and will be with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid.." Deuteronomy 31:7 "So Moses arose with Joshua his servant, and Moses went up on the mountain of God." Exodus 24:13

A Year of Courage (Know the Word)

Moses, my servant is dead. Now then, you and all these people, get ready to cross the Jordan River into the land I am about to give to them to the Israelites. I will give you every place where you set your foot, as I promised Moses.. Be strong and courageous, because you will lead these people to inherit the land I swore to their forefathers to give them." Joshua 1:2-3, 6 "Be strong and very courageous. Obey all the laws Moses gave you. Do not turn away from them, and you will be successful in everything you do. Study this Book of the Law continually. Meditate on it day and night so you may be sure to obey all that is written in it. Only then will you succeed." Joshua 1:7-8

A Year of Commitment (Know The Cost)

"But if serving the LORD seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your forefathers served beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will serve the LORD." Joshua 24:15 "For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not sit down first and count the cost, whether he has enough to finish it-- " Luke 14:28

"For the eyes of the Lord moved to and fro Through out the earth that He may strongly support those Whose hearts are completely His." (II Chronicles 16:9)

A Year of Consecration: (Know the Father - Intimacy):

"But the anointing which ye have received of Him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things,and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in Him." ~ I John 2:27 "Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of His knowledge by us in every place. For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish." Second Corinthians 2:14-15 "So let us know, let us press on to know the Lord." - Hosea 6:3a

A Year of Stepping Out (Going By Faith - Going Before Knowing)

"By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to the place which he would receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going."

Hebrews 11:8 Stepping "out of the boat" - "." And when Peter had come down out of the boat, he walked on the water to go to Jesus.

A Year of Relationship, Not Religion (Knowing Each Other & Knowing the Father - A Time to Get Real With One Another... Transparency)

Now is the time to strengthen relationships in the Body. Be transparent. "Confess your faults one to another..." - James 5:16

"Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. 2For there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, nor hidden that will not be known." - Luke 12:1-2

"And we beseech you, brethren, that you come to know those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord and admonish you. -1 Thessalonians 5:12

A Year Of Intention (Knowing & Going With Purpose)

Intentional with the unsaved and with the members of the Body of Christ.

"Jesus went up on a mountainside and called to him those he wanted, and they came to him. He appointed twelve -- designating them apostles -- that they might be with him and that he might send them out to preach and to drive out demons (Mark 3:13-15, RSV). "As Jesus was walking by Lake Galilee, He saw two brothers, Simon (called Peter) and his brother Andrew. They were throwing a net into the lake because they were fishermen. (Intentional casting of the net) (19) Jesus said, 'Come follow Me, and I will make you fish for people.' (20) So Simon and Andrew immediately left their nets and followed Him. (Intentional (21) As Jesus continued walking by Lake Galilee, He saw two other brothers, James and John, the sons of Zebedee. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets. Jesus told them to come with Him. (22) Immediately they left the boat and their father, and they followed Him."

"So we rebuilt the wall till all of it reached half its height, for the people worked with all their heart." (Nehemiah 4:6)

A Year of Caution, But Not Fear (Know Your Enemy)

"Be self-controlled and alert. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour.: Resist him, standing firm in the faith, because you that your brothers throughout the world are undergoing the same kind of sufferings" (I Peter :8-9). "The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full." (John 10:10)

"Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices." (2 Corinthians 2:11)

A Year of Access (Knowing The Way):

"By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God." (Romans 5:2) "For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father" (Ephesians 2:18). "In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him"(Ephesians 3:12).

A Year of Contentment: (Knowing the Source)

"Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content." - Phil. 4:11 "Godliness actually is a means of great gain when accompanied by contentment"

(I Timothy 6:6) "Rest in the LORD and wait patiently for Him; do not fret because of him who prospers in his way, because of the man who carries out wicked schemes. Cease from anger and forsake wrath; do not fret; it leads only to evildoing" (Psalm 37:7-8) "O satisfy us in the morning with Your lovingkindness, that we may sing for joy and be glad all our days" (Psalm 90:14). "For He has satisfied the thirsty soul, and the hungry soul He has filled with what is good" (Psalm 107:9) "The fear of the LORD leads to life, so that one may sleep satisfied, untouched by evil" (Proverbs 19:23).

"Not that I speak from want, for I have learned to be content in whatever circumstances I am. I know how to get along with humble means, and I also know how to live in prosperity; in any and every circumstance I have learned the secret of being filled and going hungry, both of having abundance and suffering need" Philippians 4:11-12.

"If we have food and covering, with these we shall be content" (1 Timothy 6:8). "Make sure that your character is free from the love of money, being content with what you have; for He Himself has said, 'I will never desert you, nor will I ever forsake you'" (Hebrews 13:5). "Therefore I am well content with weaknesses, with insults, with distresses, with persecutions, with difficulties, for Christ's sake; for when I am weak, then I am strong" (2 Corinthians 12:10)

A Year of Inheritance (Know Your Birthright)

"that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him, the eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that you may know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe, according to the working of His mighty power which He worked in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principality and power and might and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age but also in that which is to come. And He put all things under His feet, and gave Him to be head over all things to the church, which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all in all"

(Ephesians 1:17-23). You are born again, redeemed by the blood of the lamb, filled with the Holy Spirit, and seek to live by every word that comes from the mouth of God (John 1:12, 3:3,7; Eph 5:18; Rev 5:9; 1 Peter 1:18-19; Deut 8:3) You will not be conformed to this world, but will be transformed by the renewing of your mind so you can prove the good and acceptable and perfect will of God. (Romans 12:2)

A Year Of Unveiling & Unlocking

Ayman & Hala,

Many shakings are happening almost everywhere in the world. Conflicts, east & west between powers are increasing. Such shakings are taking place on many different levels. It is even including shakings on nature level.

Through such conflicts & shakings, God is aiming to remove the veil, to Unveil & Unlock. This has already started and will continue taking place more vividly in year 2004.

This "Unveiling & Unlocking" will be aiming both the Church and the nations level. On the church level, this is a year the Lord will unveil the roots. This is a season God will address the old issues or breach and bring healing and deliverance and give supernatural strength to bring forth things that were hindered. God wants to bring the church to a place, a higher place, where she could see things from above, from God's eye view and where she could know and discern the signs of times & consequently to know how to pray the right effective prayers. The prayers that will have their great impact to bind & to loose. He will bring the church to a new level of authority and release a new administration of government to agree with Him and declare the very things on His heart. The Lord is calling His church to behold Him in complete submission and to behold a place of dominion.

On the world level, the verse: "You crushed the leader of the land of wickedness, You stripped him from head to foot. With his own spear You pierced his head" Hab:3:13b,14a , is describing the Unveiling that God is going to do. With his own spear, You pierce his own head.

God is working to reveal Himself for those who were rejecting Him. HE is stretching His mighty Hand towards the nations using these shakings & conflicts to unveil the work of the enemy.

What does the world needs to come next after that "Unveiling"?!. Deliverance, cleansing, revelation, Knowing of the Lord Jesus all must come next. How all this could happen? They all could happen by the work of the Holy Spirit through the Church.

God is working to deliver a church that is coming in full armor & full authority. The prophetic apostolic church. And as what happened with Joseph in Genesis when he was released out of prison. He came out using the prophetic to reveal and "Unveil" the dream. Then he practiced his Godly given authority to speak the Godly intervention in the situation. God is raising & will keep on raising the Joseph Church. Amen.

The Lord will come with unity and a move of reconciliation on relationships on all levels. On personal level, He will restore old or hurting relationships and even ongoing relationships with deep hidden barriers. On the church level, He will restore relationships in different aspects. And even on nations levels, nations will come into alignment that are destined by God and bridges will be built among them and old ancient relationship will be restored (we need to pray only the nations that need to come into alignment to come together and no other coalition). Nations that were divided and separated are destined to restitute.

There are some necessary keys that the Lord is going to give to this church, the Joseph church. These keys are crucial for the coming battle. They are very essential in making the currently happening "Unveiling" is of great impact in changing the face of the earth & in bringing forth God's will for the nations. Among these keys are the true unity [which is not just nice talking but a real challenge]. Also, Humbleness is very crucial. A new revelation about the key of Worship, the Lord will give. The worship that will bring the true meaning of Psalm 149:6 "May the praise of God be in their mouths and a double-edged sword in their hands, to inflict vengeance on the nations and punishment on the peoples, to bind their kings with fetters, their nobles with shackles of iron, to carry out the sentence written against them. This is the glory of all His saints". A new dimension for the key of Faith even in the midst of challenges. The Faith that rejects all kinds of Fears. The Faith that brings into reality all what's on God's heart. The key of practical Love will be needed in an unprecedented way.

There is a deep work by God in His church. A change of character. Above all, there is a new dimension of intimacy with God, HE is calling His bride to. Our heart is to run to the river. Being immersed in the beauty of the Lord, enjoying His wonderful presence. A deep feeling that God is waiting for His church in that very intimate place to show Himself to His bride with all the might that never seen before.

Finally, again it's a Year of Unveiling.
Lord God, we put this year 2004 & all the coming time in your hand seeking you for ourselves, our families, our churches & our nations. We need you Lord. We seek your presence, your mighty Hand. We apply your precious Blood on every single item & every single moment in our life & proclaim a wall of fire around your people, your church & your plans for the nations.

Are You Running Low On Oil?

Rhonda Hughley

Recent events have shaken not only the world but also the Church. So much fear, confusion, grieving and pain. What is going on? What is the Lord doing in the middle of the shaking?

The doors and windows have swung open wide and the Lord is calling His Church out of Her lethargy and dullness into Her identity and destiny. Don't be mistaken - this will be the finest hour of the Church! Jesus is longing to touch the hearts of people everywhere who are looking for security and hope in the midst of the turmoil and confusion. The stage is set for revival, the question is - is the Church prepared?

We hear things like 85% of Americans consider themselves "christian" or that we are a "christian" nation, etc. While it's encouraging that many people believe in a higher power and pray, the true condition of the Church in the United States is startling according to recent surveys by Barna Research Group:

- there has been no net church growth (by conversion) in any county in the U.S. for 20 years and 4,000 churches close every year
- it is estimated that 10 million of born again Christians are unchurched which means it's not just the world that is disillusioned by the Church but the Church is as well!
- it is estimated that 41% of people IN the church haven't accepted Jesus as Lord and Savior. We need a harvest IN the Church before the Church can bring in the harvest from the world!.

What does this mean? It means we have a huge gap between our perceived spiritual condition and the reality of our spiritual condition. This gap has caused a double-mindedness and lack of effectiveness in the Church. We have lost our righteous standard and therefore much of our spiritual influence and authority. We are being tossed about as a result - looking more like the world than the Bride of Christ and agent of transformation and restoration in the earth. Our hearts have become divided in our affections, our eyes are cloudy and our hearing dull. Jesus addressed this situation in His letter to the Church of Laodicia when He rebuked them for their lukewarmness. He said "you say 'I am rich, have acquired wealth and don't need a thing'. But you don't realize that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind and naked" Then, He counsels them to buy from Him gold refined in the fire, white garments to cover their nakedness and eye salve that they may see.

I believe the Lord is saying this very thing to His Church in the United States. We must recognize our spiritual poverty and humble ourselves and ask Him for mercy that He may turn to us, and heal our land.

The Church must begin to walk in Her destiny and minister with authority as a reflector of His glory and releaser of His life into our communities. We are living in critical days, the window of opportunity is open for God to send revival to His people. He longs to lead us out of our captivity!

The shaking and purifying work begins in His house. If we aren't walking in freedom and righteousness what hope does our city have? If the Church doesn't look like Jesus where will people go to find comfort and peace?

The counsel of Jesus in Luke 12:35 is key in preparing us for the days ahead. He encourages us to be "dressed, ready for service and to keep our lamps burning". In order to be prepared, we must have fresh, pure oil in our lamps! We must be alert and watching. What is the condition of your oil? Are you running low? Let Jesus refill you with fresh, pure oil that will burn brightly!

Beloved, even in the midst of confusion and chaos, we have a Rock, we have a purpose and we have a destiny! Ask Him for gold refined in the fire, ask Him for pure white garments and ask Him for eye salve that we may see clearly in the days ahead.

Back To The Future

Renee Smith

Aug 16, 2004
The Lord has for some time now been speaking to me the phrase "Back to The Future" Now I know this is an old movie, He sometimes shows me things in songs, movies, and other ways, but I knew He was trying to show me a particular thing that is happening in the Spirit right now in particular for the body of Christ that would lay hold.

Do You Not Believe That I Can Go Back And Cover Time?

He reminded me of sometime back, maybe five or six years ago, I had been asked to pray for a lady that was to undergo a very dangerous surgery, as some of us had been asked to pray at a particular time slot for her very life because of the delicacy of the procedure. I Never say that I will pray at a certain time for anyone because I am always thinking I might forget to do so, and it so happened that very day I got a call to come answer a phone at a local business which was not my usual day. Now my schedules' slot was from 3:30 pm-4:00 pm to pray for her while she was in surgery. Well ,you might have guessed, around 4:30 pm ,I looked at my watch, and the realization hit me! OH NO! I did not hold to what I had promised,, oh my, if she had died I felt it was my fault! I started asking, begging almost the Lord to please forgive me, I had let her down and felt it was too late. Well, God and my time table is different according to Him. As sweetly as could be, He whispered to my heart," Do you not believe that I can go back and cover that time for you if you ask me to? I can go backwards in time, and I can go forward. I can do anything. I forgave you backwards did I not for Past sins?" He can go back in time! Yes, He can go back I time and cover us for the Future. As bizarre as that sounds it is God. The Lady came through the surgery with flying colors. God watched over His word and did the healing He promised .

Mantle Yet To Be Given Out Again

I have been asking Him as of late, what do you mean now, "Back to the Future"? He has been reminding me of the servants of old, the mantles they have had not been given out to others yet, or others have not taken then when offered. Mantles as far back as the Bible. We have to go "Back" to go Forward to the Future in what God wants for us to do fully as a body for this coming move His Spirit is bringing will require us believing and receiving All that He has for us, even if it makes no sense. Does it make sense for a small boy to give up a few fish and loaves of bread and feed multitudes with it? No it is a Super-natural occurrence. GOD is SUPER-Natural. WE are SUPER-Natural. God is in us. We are His off-springs. Therefore Nothing is impossible. Not with Him in us.

Angels Still Visit

I was given the opportunity by the Lord to go to Boise, Idaho to speak at the church where pastor Rowland Buck preached, a man of God (now gone home to be with Jesus) that many in the body of Christ need to go Back to that period of time and ask the Lords forgiveness for misjudging what God was doing through this precious man of God. Gabriel had visited him time after time, had angelic visitations over and over there in that chosen place. The Lord showed me there, that that was a Well where He would visit again there in that place and would carry it on to other places that would grasp and believe, I needed to go Back to go onto the future, Rowland Buck was a fore-runner. I want angel visitations, do you?. We had photos taken there that night in his very office (or where the office was previously when Gabriel appeared), right smack dab in the picture above our head, showing up on the film was a Red Fire Trumpet and appearance of fire at the top! Gods angels are still there on assignment!! Super-natural things! We can have these mantles Now to carry on into the future IF we will only BELIEVE.

Taken Back In Time And Knowing The Future

There have been incidents where the Lord has taken men and women (very well known ones even now) back in time and showed them things that were on documents and asked them even to pray and intercede to change some things. There have been times God has carried some away in the spirit and showed them even ancient writings that have been uncovered as of late to show He is real and He is miraculous. I DO think God can do that, why not, He is God you know. I also know He can project us through time. Not astral projection like New Age, but God projection like "Ancient Of Age"! YES! Look at Phillip! Acts 8.

God has Transported Me and Others -One Moment You Are Here, The Next You Are There.

God has done that for me. I have been needing to be some place to speak, time wise impossible. God-wise, Possible, and before I knew it time and time again, without conscious thought look up at the town in front of me where I needed to be somehow skipping through what we call "time", and not being late! I am talking hours lost. I have had witnesses in the car with me to testify of this over and over again. I want that More Lord. I will go Back to the Future and get that. God wants to give it to me. He wants to give it to you also. Ask for it!

Go Back And Get The Seeds

I was sent to the grave of John G Lake sometime back also, and there was a pine cone from the tree that grows at his grave. The Holy Spirit instructed me to pick up the pine cone and break it in small pieces, each one of those small pieces was to be given to those He asked me to give it to plant seeds of the Healing Revival that He is planning on the Earth again in great magnitude. The seeds came from the grave of this great man of God. Some will have to go "Back" to go on to the future of what God is doing and re-visit the wells of healing through this man and others like him, like Kathryn Kulman and so on, even Bible men and women that have mantles waiting to be picked up to be carried to the future. Go back by the Holy Spirits' help and get them and bring them here NOW to be used for the Master.

Go Back To The Future To Ask For Forgiveness From Others

Many will have to go back and ask forgiveness from some as the word instructs. If a brother is offended at you, leave Your gift at the altar and go be reconciled to your brother before you can go On to the Future to what God is calling you to. That is why there is no Power today that we all should be experiencing. We need to the One thing and then we can go ON to our destiny. God is truly calling us to: GO BACK TO THE FUTURE. Are we ready? YES!!! Lets all go.

Back To The Garden Of God

Paul Ekemezie

nosike_ekemezie@yahoo.com

Ezek 28:13—You were in Eden, the garden of God.

Do you know that you were in the Garden of Eden, albeit in the loins of Adam? When Adam and Eve were driven out of the garden, you also left the garden, in Adam. In this article we want to explore the possibility of going back to dwell in that garden. One may ask, is the garden still in existence? The answer is that there is some dualism with every story in the Bible. This dualism requires that we see every story from both the ordinary (or worldly) and the spiritual (or heavenly) viewpoints. However, the spiritual viewpoint is superior to the worldly.

2 Cor 5:16—So from now on we regard no one from a worldly point of view. Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer.

In Hebrews 3 and 4, the Bible deals extensively with entering God's rest. God's rest is the spiritual antitype of the garden of God. We need to get a closer view of some portions of Hebrews 3 and 4, but before that, it is important that we see something that happened when man exited the garden of God.

Gen 3:22-24—And the LORD God said, "The man has now become like one of us, knowing good and evil. He must not be allowed to reach out his hand and take also from the tree of life and eat, and live forever." 23So the LORD God banished him from the Garden of Eden to work the ground from which he had been taken. 24After he drove the man out, he placed on the east side of the Garden of Eden cherubim and a flaming sword flashing back and forth to guard the way to the tree of life.

Due to man's eating of the fruit of the knowledge of good and evil, God decided to banish him from His garden or His rest. Prior to this point in time, man simply enjoyed the fruit of God's labor, without needing to do much work. But now God says that man has to work the ground. After man was driven out of God's garden, a cherubim and a two-edged flaming sword that flashes back and forth were placed on the way that leads to the garden. Someone once told me that a person that is sharp could get past the flaming sword (assuming that the cherubim is not watchful enough). I told the person that it depends on the frequency of oscillation of the sword. Now, looking more closely at Gen 3:24, we can see that the sword "flashes" back and forth, an indication of a very high frequency.

Has God removed the cherubim and sword that guard the way to His garden? This question is important because these same guards also exist in the spiritual antitype. The answer to the question is no. Since Gen 3:24 is part of Scripture, it cannot pass away (Matt 24:35). The fact that the flaming two-edged sword still guards the way to God's garden means that no one enters God's garden alive. Any person who wants to enter God's garden must get ready to die, with faith that God is able to raise the dead.

Heb 11:17-19—By faith Abraham, when God tested him, offered Isaac as a sacrifice. He who had received the promises was about to sacrifice his one and only son, 18even though God had said to him, "It is through Isaac that your offspring will be reckoned." 19Abraham reasoned that God could raise the dead, and figuratively speaking, he did receive Isaac back from death.

Note the phrase "figuratively speaking" in Heb 11:19. That is the spiritual viewpoint, which is the emphasis in this article. Hence, saying that no one enters the garden of God alive should only be seen figuratively. God raising the dead or resurrection should also be seen figuratively.

From the spiritual viewpoint, what is the two-edged flaming sword?

Heb 4:12-13—For the word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart. 13Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of him to whom we must give account.

The sword that guards the way leading to God’s garden or rest is the word of God. Heb 4:13 represents the work of the cherubim in Gen 3:24. So you see, Hebrews 4 that is about entering God’s rest, which we have seen to be the spiritual antitype of the garden of God, also has the spiritual antitypes of the two-edged flaming sword and the cherubim. Let us now look more closely at some quotations from Hebrews 3 and 4.

Heb 3:7-12—So, as the Holy Spirit says: "Today, if you hear his voice, 8do not harden your hearts as you did in the rebellion, during the time of testing in the desert, 9where your fathers tested and tried me and for forty years saw what I did. 10That is why I was angry with that generation, and I said, `Their hearts are always going astray, and they have not known my ways.' 11So I declared on oath in my anger, `They shall never enter my rest.'"
12See to it, brothers, that none of you has a sinful, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God.

The person who hears the voice of God is the person who hears the word of God preached. If the person hardens his heart, that is equivalent to keeping away from the flaming two-edged sword and hence the garden of God. But the better thing to do is to allow the word of God to slay the natural or worldly thinking in that person. Heb 3:12 sums it up by saying that not yielding to the word of God makes a heart to be sinful and in opposition to God.

Heb 3:18-4:3—And to whom did God swear that they would never enter his rest if not to those who disobeyed? 19So we see that they were not able to enter, because of their unbelief.
4:1Therefore, since the promise of entering his rest still stands, let us be careful that none of you be found to have fallen short of it. 2For we also have had the gospel preached to us, just as they did; but the message they heard was of no value to them, because those who heard did not combine it with faith. 3Now we who have believed enter that rest, just as God has said, "So I declared on oath in my anger, `They shall never enter my rest.'"

The Lord Jesus Christ put the condition for getting back to God’s garden this way:

Luke 14:26—"If anyone comes to me and does not hate his father and mother, his wife and children, his brothers and sisters-yes, even his own life-he cannot be my disciple.”

Anyone who wants to enter God’s rest must die to self and the world. Much of Christianity of today does not meet this standard. That is why there has not been much of God’s rest in the Church. As we approach the great end time move of God, He is already speaking to the Church through prophets and emphasizing the urgent requirement for His own to die to self and the world. That is the only way to expect resurrection power. No death, no resurrection.

2 Cor 5:1 (KJV)—For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

The spiritual antitype of the earthly house or our body is self- and world-centered life. This form of life with which we have been covered must be dissolved so that God will clothe us with His anointing and power, so that, like the Lord Jesus Christ, we may go about doing good. The way to dissolve the earthly house is by determining to fulfill the word of God at all cost. The Word will become our (eternal) life. That way, the Word would be made flesh—the apocalyptic man-child.

Now we are in the Pentecost season. According to an article I saw on the Internet, Pentecost in the Old Testament was originally an agricultural festival celebrating and giving thanks for the "first fruits" of the early spring harvest (Lev 23, Exod 23, 34). By the early New Testament period, it had gradually lost its association with agriculture and became associated with the celebration of God’s creation of His people and their religious history. By the destruction of Jerusalem in AD 70, the festival focused exclusively on God’s gracious gift of Torah (the "Law") on Mount Sinai. It continues to be celebrated in this manner in modern Judaism.

Can you see how the celebration of Pentecost among the Jews gradually shifted from a worldly point of view to a spiritual point of view? These things do not happen by chance; God is responsible for this paradigm shift.

Among we Christians, what we mostly see in Pentecost is the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, that is, being clothed with a dwelling from heaven (2 Cor 5:1). What we often miss out is the prior dissolution of the earthly tent, before the heavenly dwelling can come down. In looking at the Pentecost described in Acts 2, we often fail to connect it with Jesus’ dying on the cross and the disciples abandoning their families, friends and the world to wait for the promise of God—they died to self and the world. This is why we have found it so difficult to replicate the Pentecost experience of Acts 2.

Many prophets are saying that this year’s Pentecost season will be different. From the month of June, new things will begin to happen. That is the reason the message about the need to die to self and the world has suddenly become the current emphasis of God. A number of committed Christians I met recently have told me that God specifically ministered to them about the need to die to self. Patsy Shelton wrote extensively about this matter on Apr 22, 2004 (www.ft111.com/shelton.htm). Those who respond to this current message of God will be clothed with a dwelling from above in this Pentecost season.

This Pentecost season will be but a beginning of the great end time move of God. Prophets are also indicating that the long-awaited end time tribulation is about to begin. This will help to drive many more Christians towards dying to self and the world and hence further increase the great move of God.

Beauty For Ashes
Musa Opiyo

May 15, 2004
I the Lord am giving beauty for ashes. I am changing the old tattered garments stained with sin, past guilt and shame and replacing them with new robes of righteousness. You shall not be held back by the past. What was done was done. Today, My Most Holy Spirit says, Today, if you will hear My voice, do not harden your hearts in rebellion as did the children of Israel. I am making a new way for My people. I am teaching you faith in Me and renewing your resolve to come up higher. My Spirit is doing new things at this present time, and they can only be done through vessels who have washed themselves in My River and in My Word, armies of men and women who have said yes and have made themselves available to be used by the Spirit. To these people I say, I am exchanging beauty for ashes.

During your time of preparation I have burnt with My Holy Fire things that were not of Me. Old friends, relationships and alliances have come under close inspection and what was not of Me was all wood, hay and stuble that was consumed by My Fire. So many of My children have laid their possesions, their jobs, callings, gifts and ministries upon My altar signifying their willingness to surrender all to Me. Some I have dealt with so severely that by the time you were through, it was though there was nothing left. You have looked to Me holding the ashes, and to you now I say I am doing an exchange. I shall replenish that which was stolen by the enemy. What you have surrendered to Me has not been in vain for I shall equip you with something even better than you expected.

Remain faithful. Do not look at what you have and say it is not much, for surely what you have given, I shall give you back a hundred fold. I shall fill your lives with Joy and Peace that you have not comprehended before. Your ministries and harvest fields will take a new turn as you see Me work through you more effective than ever. Come under the shadow of My wing and take refuge.

Job 42: 12a So the Lord blessed the latter end of Job more than the beginning....

Blessings,

Contend With The Enemy
Musa Opiyo

You Are On The Winning Side

May 13, 2004

Stand and declare My promises before the face of your enemy. For you shall stand boldly before your adversaries and demand a recompense of all that was stolen, yes, even that which the locust, cankerworm and palmerworm consumed. You shall contend against the demonic forces and you shall subdue your enemies because I have given you the victories. It is imperative to understand that your enemy is not your brother or sister, that one who does not agree with your views or one whom you do not see eye to eye with. Remember, My children, that your war is not against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers and rulers of this world. To your natural eyes you fight an unseen battle, yet in the Spirit you are waging fiercely against the enemy of your souls.

Fear not the enemy's empty roar, for it is merely his way of intimidation to drive you back and to prevent you from moving forward into My plan and purpose for you. You are a city set on a hill that is shining My Glory throughout the whole earth. You are those who are victorious and who will not back down at the threats of the enemy. I have place you strategically where you are and equipped you with sufficient tools with which to do My work faithfully. You are not where you are by chance or accident, but I the Lord have led the course of events in your life according to My purposes to refine you and to prepare you for what is ahead.

Don't give up now. You have come this far and have won many victories to take a second glance back. The past is the past, and I have made a way for you to go through unhindered but your eyes must be focused upon Me so that your faith is focused and steadfast. Remain planted in My word and in prayer. Call those things that were not as though they were. My Word carried creative power to turn an obstacle into a stepping stone over the stumbling and into My way. Arise, fearless warriors. Go forth equipped with My Word and the strategies which I shall show you. I have given you the victory. Accept it, take it and declare it says the Lord.

Blessings,

Blood For Sale

Nancy Smith

August 11th, 2004

I had a vision last night and heard an almost audible voice saying, "BLOOD FOR SALE, BLOOD FOR SALE!!!" Now that got my attention. What He showed me was a bloodbank where these dead-looking men whom I could only suppose to be vampires were handing out blood for a price. Where they got the blood, I was not yet sure, but He showed me later in the vision.

I sat up and reached for a pen and paper in bed and I heard the sounds of angels crying out in unison, their voices fading as it went:

NOT BY MIGHT Not By Might
not by might

NOT BY POWER
Not By Power
not by power

BUT BY MY SPIRIT SAYS THE LORD!!!!!

Then I heard spoken:

It is in this hour that I am taking the church into a place of introspection and examination before Me to see if they are clinging to ME or to their own dead works. For the life is in the BLOOD and if the blood covers you, all that you do should LIVE! Is it your blood, my precious Bride, or MINE? What are you trading your sorrows for? Are you laying them down for the joy of the Lord or for the joys of the flesh which bring more and more sorrows later on? For My Joy is released only when you lack your own strength or refuse to cling to it. I'm bringing My People to a new level. It is a place where you can step past the vampires and say "I have The Blood, thank you, and it covers all my transgressions and heals all of my diseases, and meets all of my needs. I will not receive and pay for it as if it were that given for free!"

It was then that God showed me that those who had bought the blood at the bloodbank saw that they had bought back their OWN blood which had been stolen from them by dead works and slave labor. It was not adequate blood for it was dried up and used up and never amounted to anything anyhow.

Back For The Future

Robert Ricciardelli

Jul 16, 2004
We believe the Father is beginning to take His children "Back For The Future". He is taking us back to the foundations that established the early church. Restoration to foundations that work, "Back For The Future". He has always been a builder beginning with a seed, a word, the lowest denominator in creation. He begins with an individual and then makes a family. Then many families make a community and many communities make a nation. We have built in many ways like the world's system, top down structures that seem to house that which needs to be released. God builds bottom up, seed to harvest, servant towards the Master.

In the book of Acts, the pattern was lived out in his people, flourishing as the Spirit of the living God flowed through individuals in a Spirit led relationally powerful way. Homes and families extended outward like a flood of love and unity capturing the hearts of communities in a way that we have not since seen. We are beginning to see transformation pockets like this all over the world right now, where pioneering individuals and leaders have decided build God's way. "Unless the Lord builds the house, we labor in vain", Psalm 127:1. They have decided to lay it all down for His will and His way. They have chosen to forsake competition in ministry for transformation in unity.

Men and women of God have begun to choose to do what the Father is saying to the church. It is the heart of Father for the church to live out His Son's prayer that we become one even as Father and the Son are one. We are beginning to see underground churches in places like China and Vietnam flourish because it is based on family and on relationships and that every believer must be willing to die to self on purpose towards the Father's will.

In the mean time, in our western churches, we are seeing many of God's people not being released into the harvest of the marketplace. Many are crippled by systems that create few laborers for the harvest but many spectators not knowing what to do. Many of them are hearing the sound of Father and crying out, "There has got to be more to this Christian life and my purpose in it". Do not get me wrong, I am not trying to throw stones at the church of today. I love the church of today, but we need to realize that all of us believers need to lift up our leaders in prayer and in the mean time begin to get into the game.

The game is on folks, God's green light is on and although the enemy has had his way by paralyzing us for a season, a long, long season, that season is over. It must be over and we are watching an army being raised up that is nameless and faceless. The days of one man band or few man bands are over. The day of the Saints is here to bring many laborers into the harvest. God's orchestra of incredible unique instruments of His glory, are being enabled to release a symphony of His light and His truth through his love.

The orchestra will not look to man but begin to look to the Maestro to release them to play His tune. We will all be unique, but in obedience to Him and His design, we will create a sound that the enemy will not be able to withstand and we will be able to spread it across the world because we now have all the musicians involved. I have no idea how I got into this musical analogy as I am writing this, but it sounds good to me.

Joyce and I were recently in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. I never even thought about Cedar Rapids until I found out that there was an Italian named Francis Frangipane there. We were introduced to Francis a few years back on cable TV and I immediately looked him up and found out that sure enough, there was at least one Italian in Iowa. We signed up for His "In Christ's Image" online training and it had a tremendous impact on our lives and ministry. We had no clue the truths that we began to apply to our lives were going to be tested so soon. In Iowa, many nations and people from all over this country were in unity during this conference. The same unity we need to begin to believe for across the world. The one thing we can all agree on which is the foundation of our faith, Jesus Christ and His pattern for our lives.

The revelation to walk out our days as ambassadors of our Lord Jesus Christ and to model His image and His heart of un-offense in a world of offenses was vital to where God was taking us, and is taking us. When the revelation grips you to die to yourself and your ways and to prefer even your adversaries, there is an indescribable freedom unleashed. We truly believe that each of us must be accountable to seek Jesus and His righteousness, and as we do, all things in this world will be appropriated for us and fear and anxiety will hold us no longer.

"Back For The Future" means that we must go back to the foundations of our faith. Back to the essence of Christ and the pattern He has set for us knowing that without the Comforter it would be impossible, but with the precious Holy Spirit, it is not only possible, but very probable in our obedience to His word. We must bring the gospel into our homes and families. I encourage every family to begin to open their homes and as God leads, He will add a neighbor, a friend, a relative to come and join us. As two or three are gathered in His name, His presence will bring healing and restoration, as well as a resolve to stir up the gifts in each other. There will be a release in what we need to truly make a joyful noise in our communities.

In Proverbs 27:2 it says,
Let another praise you, and not your own mouth; A stranger, and not your own lips.

Humbling Before Tumbling

Pride is the root of many of man's problems and the root of man's fall from grace. As we see pride seeding into the anti-Christ spirit in much of the sins of mankind, we must also recognize that maybe, just quite possibly, the opposite of pride would be the seeding into the virtues of Christlikeness and the many fruits of the Spirit of Christ that follow.

*"Therefore, anyone who becomes as humble as this little child is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven" (Matthew 18:4).

The disciples asked Jesus who would be the greatest in the kingdom of heaven, and Jesus brought forth the answer in such a simple and yet profound way. The answer was humility, and that humility, as a little child. I love the simplicity of God's word. He did not make it complicated so that you needed a certain degree or pedigree to understand it. How could He bring forth the gospel in any other way, especially knowing that many of the authors were not of any noble pedigree or schools of great learning?

Let's look at the humility of a child. The first thing that comes to my mind is the fact that a child is so open to learn from their parents and the world around them. They welcome the process of going from "Da-Da" to "Daddy" in dialogue. They are like a sponge to see the world and desire to drink up the truths that come their way. I always love to say, "I know what I know, I know what I don't know, but, I do not know what I do not know". I mean, the revelation from Father as we grow up should never cease to be unfolding. There are things we know today that last year we had very little clue of. There will be many area's God will uncover in our lives and the world around us next year that will make us say, "Lord, I had no clue on that last year, thank you Father".

I think most of us know that we must walk in humility before our God, but what are ways to get us there. One significant way is to realize that Father resists the proud and gives grace to the humble and then with that revelation, cast all of our cares on Him!

*"You younger men, likewise, be subject to your elders; and all of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, for God is opposed to the proud, but gives grace to the humble. Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you at the proper time, casting all your anxiety on Him, because He cares for you." (I Peter 5:6-7)

Always remember, pride says, "God I have it figured out and can do it on my own, so by trusting God completely by casting everything on Him, then He will perform it through us and only He will get the glory for that which He has performed in and around us.

*"Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up" (James 4:10).

John Ruskin said, "I believe that the first test of a truly great man is his humility. I do not mean by humility, doubt of his own power. But really great men have a curious feeling that the greatness is not in them, but through them. And they see something divine in every other man and are endlessly, foolishly, incredibly merciful."

Can you see something divine in everyone around you? Are you incredibly merciful toward others? Have you really come to terms with the area of pride in your life?

Some people spend their whole life seeking to become well-known, accepted, popular and famous only to find themselves further and further down and out. Why is that?

"A man's pride brings him low, but a man of lowly spirit gains honor"

Many of you know how much I desire unity in God's people and I pray daily the fulfillment of Christ's prayer to the Father for all of us. This will only be birthed out of true humility.

My prayer for all of them is that they will be one, just as you and I are one, Father--that just as you are in me and I am in you, so they will be in us, and the world will believe you sent me.

"I have given them the glory you gave me, so that they may be one, as we are-- I in them and you in me, all being perfected into one. Then the world will know that you sent me and will understand that you love them as much as you love me. (John 17:21-23)

I truly believe humility is one key ingredient missing in the body of Christ today, that without it, unity will never come. I talked recently with Jackson Senyonga of Kampala, Uganda. He pastors a church there of about 30,000 and is a key leader in his country and also you see him in the Transformation Video's. Watching how the Lord in his sovereignty has transformed that nation, and of course the process is not complete, I asked him how this happened and what was it that began the process?

He said, "The leaders and people of this country knew that without unity and working together in Christ, our very existence was in jeopardy". Each leader in many denominations began to see Christ in all the other leaders and that dominated every issue of doctrinal difference which in the end does not matter, which in the end, it does not matter to God". He also told me that within two weeks time, He can fill a stadium with every leader in the region, because of the barriers that have been broken due to the humility of knowing that Father's agenda and ways will always supersede our agenda and ways. This is a man and this is a nation in majority that has chosen the way of humility, the way of the cross, and the way of the Christ.

Father, may we see the world as you do, may we see each other as you do. May we lay aside those weights and judgments that so easily beset us and choose humility. May we choose not knowing anything but our love for you and our love for others, especially if that "anything" would keep us divided from fulfilling your purposes in unity. May all the verses in the bible on "one anothering", be on the forefront of our lives. May we seek relational rightness, rather than technically having to be right. Father we lay it all at your feet. We only know in part, and may that part be a willing and humble servant choosing to serve you and your kingdom in the humility of a child of the King in Jesus name, Amen!

Babylon Revealed

Clay Sikes

("Come Out of her…" Revelation 18:4) Clay Sikes

God is equipping His remnant people with an understanding of the times. It is not His desire that His very elect be deceived, thus He is raising voices in the wilderness to proclaim prophetic truth for this hour in which we live. This teaching is heavily influenced by several prophetic voices, including Joseph Herrin and Arthur Burt, who believe the mandate in Ezekiel 33:6,

"But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet to warn the people and the sword comes and takes the life of one of them, that man will be taken away because of his sin, but I will hold the watchman accountable for his blood."

This word is a shot across the bow of our proverbial boats to warn us, to encourage us, but most of all, to awaken us. Let us awaken from the slumber of self-will, presumption, and apathy that we may follow the steps that have been ordered for us since the beginning of time. Let us be willing to share this word with others and not shrink back when opportunity knocks.

Joseph Herrin recently wrote, "Babylon is a land of works where man must accomplish every task and fulfill every mandate. Babylon knows nothing of rest and faith. Oh yes, Babylon speaks very much about faith, but it is a faith that is rooted in man's ability. Babylon's faith is founded upon man's ability to envision some end and to see it through. Babylon is built with blueprints, and planning sessions, and organization, and fund drives, and pep rallies, and the sweat of untold men and women. Then when it is all said and done and some project has come to completion, the people of Babylon feel justified to stand and proclaim:"

"Is this not Babylon the great, which I myself have built…by the might of my power…?" (Daniel 4:30).

"Zion, however, is not seeking to build anything of her own will and initiative. Zion is a people of faith. Zion knows that salvation is of the Lord, as is sanctification, and as is glorification. Zion does not labor to build a city, for she seeks a city not built with hands whose builder and maker is not man, but God. Zion does not seek to work for the approval of Yahweh, she works because she is approved by Yahweh…Zion is a city of rest. This does not mean that those who are of Zion are doing nothing, it means that they are doing nothing of their own initiative. They are doing those works that God prepared beforehand for them. They are not dreaming up their own works, nor are they stretching out their hands to labor in fields to which they have not been sent."

In April of 1988 God began dealing with me about this very time in which we now live, and about understanding the difference between the World's System and the Kingdom of God. He spoke a powerful prophetic word to me that has not only sent me on a quest to understand, but also produced life-changing events as slowly I am learning to walk in the Kingdom. It is my destiny to continue this search for truth, and share it whenever possible. A true watchman can not only see through darkness, but also articulate what is being shown. I pray the voice of the Lord is heard in this word (John 10:2-4).

It began on an afternoon jog with God speaking clearly, "Forego the world's system for your reward and gain the Kingdom's method of receiving. If you engage the world's system you will be dependent upon it for your reward." Without realizing it at the time, God was speaking Revelation 18:4 to me, "Come out of her, my people, so that you will not share in her sins, so that you will not receive any of her plagues." I knew I was being called out of something much better than anything I had experienced, but wasn't sure of what. I also knew I was being called into something, but wasn't sure of that either. Was it my business; was it my church, the town I live in, my group of friends, or simply my method of doing things? I didn't have a clue. During much of the last sixteen years, God has revealed the dichotomous nature of these two systems, especially in the realm of personal experience. When I touched one system it produced life, while touching the other produced death. Experientially, I began to see a pattern.

I have touched the World's System with severe consequences, while touching the Kingdom with equally drastic results on the opposite end of the spectrum. Some are aware of my testimony. You can argue my doctrine, but you cannot argue my testimony. As stated, one produces death, while the other produces life and it more abundantly. One is based upon my goodness, good ideas, good intentions, creative ideas, and motivations, while the other is based purely upon entering His rest, ceasing from my own works and being obedient to do what the Father has said.

These two systems are constantly competing for our alliance and affections. Most of our training, indoctrination, and natural inclinations are aligned with one, while the spiritual force of God, the peace within us, is aligned with the other. One is natural, the other Spiritual. One requires that we think, analyze, toil and strain to succeed (Genesis 3:17); the other requires prayer, hearing God, and obeying (Genesis 2:15). One requires us to work for things; the other allows things to work for us. One is based on works, the other based on obedience.

The amount of lordship that we maintain over our lives relegates which of these two systems we are most tied to. Again, self-will, coupled with intellectual logic and reason epitomize the World's System, while faith, trust, hearing, and obeying God are aligned with the Kingdom. In the World little is accomplished without toil. Toil is work that is accomplished only with great and painful effort. We labor in the Kingdom of God, but the Lord's yoke is easy and His burden light. In His Kingdom, far more is accomplished with less effort. All toil brings weariness, but the labor in Christ, regardless of whether it is secular or a Spiritual endeavor will bring rest and refreshment. "Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart; and you shall find rest in your souls" (Matthew 11:29).

The World's System or Babylon in human form IS ME DOING MY OWN THING! Babylon is all about me; my ideas, my great works, my goodness, the righteousness I have attained for myself through my works. Much of what we see in the Institutional Church today is man doing man's thing. Much of what we see with most Christians, and I include myself, IS ME DOING MY OWN THING! The system that I engage the most is the system to which I belong. Does the Spirit lead me, or am I led by my own ambitions, good ideas, intentions, and conveniences? Make no mistake about it; at the risk of redundancy, Babylon screams that righteousness can only come through works. God's word says something different.

"So I tell you this, and insist on it in the Lord, that you must no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their thinking. They are darkened in their understanding and separated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them due to the hardening of their hearts" (Ephesians 4:17,18).

"Do not deceive yourselves. If any one of you thinks he is wise by the standards of this age, he should become a "fool" so that he may become wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in God's sight. As it is written: "He catches the wise in their craftiness" and again, "The Lord knows that the thoughts of the wise are futile." So then, no more boasting about men!" (I Corinthians 3:18-21)

Most are caught short in understanding the Holy Spirit's desire to guide and lead with specific instruction. There are others who have progressed beyond the point of the first group, but who will not yield to the Spirit when it is not convenient. And then there are those who after hearing a bit of God's instruction act presumptuously calling their presumptive efforts GOD, and blaming Him when things don't work out! This is not Sonship as described in Romans 8:14 "Those that are led by the Spirit of God are the Sons of God," nor is it walking in the Kingdom. Those who truly walk in the Kingdom are completely yielded to the Spirit of God and will wait patiently upon the Lord to speak or move before they themselves move. If we are not completely yielded, we are yet engaging the World's System because we remain dependent upon ourselves. The instant we divorce ourselves from self-dependency and self-will is the moment we enter the Kingdom and its benefits.

Perhaps we are beginning to see that Babylon is not a place or even a system as much as it is a condition of man's heart. Much of what we call the Church today is an outcropping of Babylon, just as we could say about other physical evidences of Babylon; American corporations, the stock market etc., but these are simply limbs from the tree, not the root of the problem. The root of the problem is the condition of man's heart, which says, "I don't need God!" It is man's supreme confidence in himself: his intellectual prowess, his expertise, his financial might, or political power. We see this spirit in individuals, institutions, governments, business, armies, churches, and sports to name a few.

Our ability to hear and obey is dependent upon the depth of our dependence upon Him. If we are not hearing, we are not depending, and many unfortunately have yet to learn to completely depend upon God. How dependent was Christ, who is our example, upon the Father (John 5:30)? TOTALLY!

Here is where the rubber meets the road. It is not enough to conform to Christ in outward form and actions. OUR CONFORMITY MUST BE INTERNAL. Without internal conformity we will never see true Kingdom life upon this earth, and we will be called "lawless" on our day of judgment. We can act like Jesus and even perform the way Jesus did, and still be rejected by heaven. What is internal conformity? Internal conformity is simply doing the will of the Father; seeking God, hearing His instructions, and obeying.

"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the Kingdom of heaven, BUT HE WHO DOES THE WILL OF MY FATHER who is in heaven will enter. Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name cast out demons, and in your name perform many miracles? And then I will declare to them, I never knew you; DEPART FROM ME: YOU WHO PRACTICE LAWLESSNESS" (Matthew 7:21-23).

Matthew 7:21-23 in NIV calls those who are not submitted to the will of the Father, "evildoers." How many well-meaning Christians do you know that are Spirit-filled, but not Spirit-led? God's word calls them "evildoers." How can you do the will of the Father if you do not regularly hear His voice? (John 10: 2-4) Have you seen those with extraordinary gifts to preach, heal the sick, do miracles, and yet felt no witness to them as strong men of God? Many prophesy, cast out demons, and perform miracles, yet do not do "the will of the Father." These men, despite their outward appearance, are not walking in the Kingdom upon this earth, nor will they enter the Kingdom of heaven according to Matthew 7:21-23.

We can put on a show for, and even fool man with our external conformity to Christ, doing miracles, prophesying, and preaching the gospel, but until we line up inside with an internal conformity committed to hearing God and obeying, we are lying to ourselves and to the people we lead. Internal conformity is being the Father's son; being led of the Father's Spirit: a Romans 8:14 Sonship. Jesus only did what He saw the Father doing. He realized that of His own self He could do nothing (John 5:30), which really means that He had a revelation that any works outside the boundaries of the Holy Spirit's leading would profit little. Jesus existed to do the will of the Father, and so should we. Lawlessness is acting on your own initiative independent of God's Spirit. There are many Shepards leading sheep, who themselves have never become sons. The spirit of Babylon is alive and well and explains the chaos and powerlessness that we see in most churches today.

Jesus never did anything outside of hearing from God. He did nothing on His own initiative while remaining totally submitted to the government of God. He is our great example of what INTERNAL CONFORMITY is all about; He is our key to walking in the Kingdom upon this earth and the key to our entering the Kingdom of Heaven when our journey is finished. How can we have faith for what we have not heard: anything that is not done in faith is sin, so to move without hearing, to act without a confirming word (which often is the inner witness of the Spirit producing peace), is to act foolishly.

Through God's mercy and grace, many of us have survived being Spirit-filled, yet not necessarily Spirit-led Christians. For some of us, the consequences have become greater and greater, the fire of the consequences revealing the level of importance in taking time to hear and obey. Those who have experienced these consequences have an incumbent responsibility to share this word and subsequent testimonies with those who have not. Let us become that voice in the wilderness teaching that there is much more to our Christian life than simply being Spirit-filled, that they too can become Spirit-led.

Be Aware Of Infiltrators

Yvonne Walsh

THE WORD SAYS….

Proverbs 6: 12-19 (Amp)
A worthless person, a wicked man, is he who goes about with a perverse (contrary, wayward) mouth.
He winks with his eyes, he speaks by shuffling or tapping with his feet, he makes signs (to mislead and deceive) and teaches with his fingers (on the computer??)
Willful and contrary in his heart, he devises trouble, vexation and evil continually: he lets loose discord and sows it.
Therefore upon him shall the crushing weight of calamity come suddenly : suddenly shall he be broken, and that without remedy.
These six things the Lord hates, indeed seven are an abomination to Him.
A proud look (the spirit that makes one overestimate himself and underestimate others)
A lying tongue
And hands that shed innocent blood,
A heart that manufactures wicked thoughts and plans
Feet that are swift in running to evil
A false witness who breathes out lies (even under oath)
And he who sows discord among his brethren.

Like bed bugs, they spread the irritation and the EVIDENCE of their presence is:

1. They lie—you can't nail them down, they make excuses, devious, sly, evasive.
2. They point with their fingers—blameshift
3. A perverse mouth—a different agenda and perspective—irreconcilable differences!
4. Winks with his eyes—makes light of, signals intentions, pretends not to see what they don't want to see, makes it a joke, mocks our dedication and purpose.
5. Shuffles with feet—ungrounded, restless, not meshing in the group, cat on hot bricks
6. Perversity of heart—not prepared to work with group's agenda and purpose of group—wants to change basic foundations—often to "modernize" or be more "PC"
7. Devises evil continually - because it comes from a demonic source. Eventually this will show up as the mole gets more confident, but can be found out if leaders are aware
8. Sows discord—when there is discord in the group SOMEONE is causing it. This is an important clue that someone is at odds with the purpose of the group.

HOW THEY WORK

Let's look a bit more closely at how INFILTRATORS work in the Church

Definition

AN INFILTRATOR IS ONE WHO BECOMES PART OF A GROUP (OR CHURCH) IN ORDER TO GET INFORMATION OR TO INFLUENCE THE WAY THAT GROUP THINKS. THEY MOVE SLOWLY INTO A PLACE, SYSTEM OR ORGANIZATION. THEY SEEK TO JOIN A GROUP BY STEALTHY MEANS, WITH AN UNFRIENDLY PURPOSE.

They will appear to be innocuous, unassuming, modest, quiet, "behind the scenes" people, even "invisible". They try hard NOT to draw attention to themselves, so that they can do what they want to do without being noticed. They make friends and influence others who have credibility and who leaders listen to. They INFECT these people with dissatisfaction and mistrust of leaders motives, and any other way that may create disharmony..

An infiltrator is an undercover person. They actively undermine the organization by causing dissension among the members, or by promoting time consuming, or even harmful activities. An infiltrator who pushes others to engage in behaviour that is contrary to the organizations goals or ethical standards is an "agent provocateur".

Moles and infiltrators in the Church have strong agendas and want to destroy the work of God. They are unequivocal in their goals. Church people are usually trusting people, believing that NO ONE would wish us harm. We assume God will stop them, and that everyone who comes to our meetings wants what we have—for the right reasons. We NEED to know that some do NOT want what we have, and wish to destroy it. These people are out there, ready and willing to do harm.

Their behaviour is hard to distinguish from a sincere new person's involvement. How do we tell them apart? An infiltrator may suggest activities to meet "needs" which take resources away from more valuable objectives. They will try to build profiles on the church's beliefs, habits, and weaknesses (which they will exploit). At the same time they will shield their true selves from others. They can talk the talk, so look deeper. Check out their credibility and backgrounds if concerned. Some churches follow up on newcomers by checking out with their previous church—sometimes this is beneficial

There are several "modus operandi" but one is to present a somewhat more active role, but confine themselves to less prominent work. They don't take the initiative, but the work they do is valued (or is in an important but less valued area). This helps them to build trust and credibility.

Some infiltrators will attempt to gain key forms of control, such as communications, secretarial, or financial. They aim to find out how the church or group functions and potentially destabilize group dynamics. Some specialize in disruptive tactics such as sowing disorder and demoralizing meetings, heightening conflicts. They will seek to exploit group sensibilities by posing (as a person in need, for example), or spreading rumours and innuendo of sin (which will be untrue)

Infiltrators seek information .. The extent to which they are able to infiltrate our groups depends on our seriousness and responsibility in learning about and working within the security of our culture. Once identified, appropriate action is needed to undo, contain or remove the danger. I have heard on one large church which is aware of this—they have people on the stage, scanning the audience, and if they pick up on someone, that person is quietly removed from the meeting. When God moves, or wants to move, it is critical that we allow Him to do so

Leadership roles are best done with long standing, TRUSTED members — exercise caution, and ALWAYS seek God on WHO should be in responsible positions. Think through possible consequences, and be prepared to deal with them. And we must be very careful of offering support and sympathy to those who harm others.

It is valuable for us to learn more about the covert actions of these people. An often neglected part of our strength is our knowledge of and protection from people who may harm us. We do NOT need to be afraid, for "greater is He (who) is with us".. But we do need to be wise and aware.

AND THE LORD SAID...
My daughter, ANY work done in My Name will attract those who wish to muscle in and destroy it. Like a hole in a dyke, ANY sin still present in lives, acts as a gateway for the enemy to use to access My work. "The enemy comes in like a flood"… and if given access he will do just this. Flooding is devastating and some areas never fully recover—BUT they show up weaknesses and areas of vulnerability.

My people often rest at ease, with a false sense of security, thinking that all is well, but often all is not well. It is only in the testings and times of pressure that weaknesses (sins) and stress fractures become evident. It is time to shore up the boundaries, seek My face, repent of your sins, that I may heal your land. Often the flooding damages and destroys all in its path—victims who are not to blame for a "hole in the dyke" somewhere else. Never blame the victims but pray for them. Flooding gains momentum as it goes, and so in the spiritual. Unless people are GROUNDED in ME, they can lose their footing and be swept away in the flood of evil. Unless they are aware, they can be caught out by surprise—and the enemy loves a surprise attack—it is the terrorists greatest weapon.

The enemy will seek to flood My Church, My people, My creation with his evil, devastating force, B U T ...
When the enemy comes in like a flood, THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD WILL RAISE UP A STANDARD AGAINST HIM. (the Amplified adds… and put him to flight). Isaiah 59:19

A STANDARD is:
1. A required level of quality
2. 2.A distinctive flag
3. Ordinary, regular, not rare

4. Generally recognized as authoritative

My daughter, WHEREVER My Name is honoured, or spoken, the enemy is attracted to it. This is, after all, the enemy's main purpose. He has a morbid fascination with the things that pertain to Me—out of jealousy, anger, envy, fury and hatred, frustration and old failings. He has NO GOOD FEELINGS about Me, My people, My Body or My work. It rouses his hatred and antagonism like NOTHING ELSE does.

When My Name is spoken—either in love or hate—you can be sure the enemy's ears prick up. You can be equally sure that when you pray, I act. When you ask for protection, I give it. When you ask for wisdom I give it—either as an instant aid or an understanding and wisdom gift that develops and grows as you know Me and My word better. You can be very sure that what you ask for I respond to. Always. Sometimes I hold up the full answer until other things have developed that I want you to see, or that must be done—but I have your answer in My hand, ready to deliver it at the exact right time.

When My Name is used—in whatever context—I hear and respond—be it in a loving answer or divine judgment. NO OTHER NAME in HEAVEN or ON EARTH has the power of My Name. My Name resonates through Heaven and hell—it inspires love and awe, or fear and dread, depending on who used it and how.

I have given My children—My TRULY BORN AGAIN ones, the right and authority to use My Name, to call upon My Name, to Know My Name. But it depends on the level of relationship I have with you, how I honour that. Some use My Name unwisely or selfishly.

My intent is not to frighten anyone, but to awaken My people to the dangers around them. The world in NOT a safe place any more—not that it ever was. But the enemy has unloosed some of his most ferocious demons in these days to act in cruel and harmful ways against My creation. They don't stop at just My people either, but seek harm for harm's sake. To inflict pain and fear in carefully calculated ways.

I need My people to RECOGNISE the hour and seek My Face and PRAY! Pray for those in authority, and those who need protection. Pray for a turning to Me for salvation, protection and covering. My hand must be on My people in a "heavy" way for the times are serious and the impact powerful of the evil being loosed among those I have created with such loving care

I ABSOLUTELY HATE these things, but without the prayers of My People, I have no "authority" to move—because of man's free will.

PRAYER and PRAISE are the weapons of My choice for you. As powerful as the enemy is, My weapons in the hands of My blood bought children are more, MUCH MORE powerful. Lift Me up in your prayers and your praise. Love Me, enjoy Me, Praise Me, Trust me and your prayers will please Me and enable me to accomplish much. I love My people and My creation passionately and have no desire to allow evil to flourish in the garden.

Lord, we ask You to deal with those who have or use a Jezebel spirit in the church, and flush out and deal with all moles and infiltrators, who are infecting and "devouring" Your people.
Lord, make us aware of the moles and show us the evidence of their activity. Keep us from being frightened, but give us bold spirits full of praise and trust for Who YOU ARE.
May Your name be magnified in our churches again, and in our countries.

Psalm 32:6 For this cause, everyone who is godly shall pray to You in a time when You may be found.

PERSONAL EXPERIENCE
I had an experience some years ago, that helped me gain insight into the subject of infiltrators. I was the President of our local Woman's …. group. One of our Board members was quickened by the Holy Spirit, to look into the New Age belief system, and she told us what she was finding out as she went along. However, those in authority over us told her not to worry about it as it wasn't necessary, so in some embarrassment she dropped it.

However, unknown to us at that time, a lady who had started coming to our group, was a witch. She came in appearing to be a very humble, new Christian. Every time we had a public meeting, the most bizarre things happened. We were constantly putting out fires but had no idea what was going on. We were finding perfectly sound relationships floundering, and whatever could go wrong, did. She asked for a job to “help” and got to look after the tape library - and destroyed everything she didn’t like. and so it went on. Eventually, this lady got herself onto our Board and everything became clear. She had a very strong agenda, which would have made the whole spiritual part of our group defunct. She wanted to change the whole purpose of the group!! Every prayer meeting, she wanted to talk about issues - anything but pray. She passionately hated prophecy. And so on. The discord she sowed was immense—she was a spiritual terrorist!

She gave her testimony at one of our outreach meetings and we were so shocked – she almost glorified her past experiences, (she was very proud of them) but had no godly, spiritual answers for her hearers at all. Sadly, those in authority over us who had attended, thought she was wonderful because it was a new field! They showed no discernment at all. In fact, they got her to speak to all the other groups in the area, saying that she would grow by the experience. They just would not listen to our comments. She would cry in their presence and tell them how hurt she was by what we were not letting her do, and it worked!! She got their full support! Needless to say, she would be anything but like this with us!

In the end, the whole Board and I resigned. And the lady who caused the trouble? She moved to another area to live, and the group struggles to survive.

We found out so much about this side of things through this. It is often easier to see in hindsight – but they are valuable lessons. The clues had been there but we didn’t recognize them as warnings: for example, she never spoke about Jesus or the Holy Spirit, only God and “Lord” - and we wondered who her Lord was! She SAID she spoke in tongues—but no one heard her. She prayed while we worshipped. An infiltrator with the wrong spirit cannot worship. She never USED her Bible, although she carried one. Her testimony of “salvation” was odd—she saw an aura round her son and then she believed. We believe she was camouflaged. “By their fruit shall you know them” - Christlikeness or soulishness?

We, like most Christian groups were well aware of those with a Jezebel spirit, but were not aware of moles or infiltrators, their agendas and how they function. Since then, I have looked into this and am convinced that many churches and Christian groups have been infiltrated and are unaware of it. Where the Jezebel spirit will want the high ground and seek position and prominence, (is often “extrovert”), the “mole” or infiltrator will be as unobtrusive as possible, so as to be hard to detect (an “introvert”) . WE MUST PRAY THAT GOD EXPOSES THESE PEOPLE AND SHOWS US HOW TO LIMIT THE DAMAGE—and bring good out of the messes they leave behind.

Baruch Atah

I heard “ Baruch atah” and thought it might mean blessed are you, but went to check out the ‘atah’…and sure enough that is the meaning in Hebrew.

Matt 5:3-20 NKJV
3 "Blessed are the poor in spirit, For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
4 Blessed are those who mourn, For they shall be comforted.
5 Blessed are the meek, For they shall inherit the earth.
6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
For they shall be filled. 7 Blessed are the merciful, For they shall obtain mercy. 8 Blessed are the pure in heart, For they shall see God.
9 Blessed are the peacemakers, For they shall be called sons of God.
10 Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake,
For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
11 "Blessed are you when they revile and persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely for My sake. 12 Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you. 13 "You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt loses its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? It is then good for nothing but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by men. 14 "You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. 15 Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. 16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.
17 "Do not think that I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfill. 18 For assuredly, I say to you, till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle will by no means pass from the law till all is fulfilled. 19 Whoever therefore breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does and teaches them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20 For I say to you, that unless your righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.
The first thing that came to mind was the Sermon on the Mount.

Then I asked the What it is the Lord wanted to say and heard:

Blessed is the man who hears abusive words and does not yield to the temptation to answer back in like manner. Blessed is the man who is mocked and scorned for believing in Me, and does not get angry, but instead cried tears for the one who is deluded and ignorant. Blessed is the man who defies all logic trusting in Me for everything, when others are scurrying around in their own self-sufficiency, for he has grown to know the kindness of Hashem. [Blessed be His name !] Blessed is the man who loves his wife and children and does not abuse them. Blessed is the man who loves Me, and is faithful to My Word ! Blessed is the man or woman who considers the poor and outcast. Blessed is he who does not forget his own flesh and blood.

Cursed is he who tells men to do the word, but does not do it himself.
Cursed is the man who leads others to leave intimacy with Me and gets them to love him instead of Me. Cursed is he who teaches little children to be ashamed, because he has abused them. Cursed is he who abuses his wife without any shame. Cursed is he who thinks I approve of hating any other man or woman. Cursed is he who delights in running to evil and comes into My temple on Sundays to make himself feel good ! Cursed is she or he who chooses to walk in bitterness of soul knowing there is a means to get free. Cursed is he who loves his own words or the words of others, more than listening for My Voice. Cursed is he who ignores the poor, the widow, the crippled and maimed. For, blessed are the merciful, For they shall obtain mercy.

Truly I tell you that when you walk in your own ways and do not consider Mine, you are in danger of hell fire. I love you and adore you. I do all you ask that is in ME. I teach you if you are willing to listen. But if you ignore Me and go your own way, how can you say you have relationship with ME ?

I said, “ If you love Me, then obey Me ! “ I didn’t say obey what you think I mean, obey what you think is best, or obey in word only. I said to obey ME.

I AM a LIVING GOD, a living Being. I am a person. I am not a god of wood or stone ! They do not talk, but I speak. My sheep hear My voice and they follow ME. The voice of another they do not follow. The voice you follow has to FIT with the written Logos. For example, I would never tell you to take another wife, while still married to another. That is foolish and delusional. Man often thinks that if he has favor with Me, receives good things from Me, that then he can do whatever seems to please himself, instead of pleasing ME.

You tend to be independent because of the fall. You must LEARN to be dependent on ME. Independence from ME is not a relationship. It is an abomination because it is IGNORING ME. I came to RESTORE relationship with the Father and ME and to provide access to the Holy Spirit Who once in you remains forever. But if you stay in a place of independence from ME, then you are REFUSING My counsel. You are refusing relationship with ME, like a man who refuses to love his wife, or a wife who refuses to love her husband ! That is not a marriage. How then can you be My BRIDE if you refuse to come to ME ? Are you not then like Vashti – the disobedient and independent wife of Ahasuerus ?

There is no independence in a relationship with Me ! That is why marriage between a man and a woman is so much like a relationship with Me. The woman is not independent of the man and the man is not independent of the woman. They become ONE. Just as the Father and I and Spirit are One. When you think you know better how to do things, that is PRIDE. Pride exalts SELF. It thinks IT knows better what to do than others. Then it exalts it’s way of doing things above what is told to others, causing strife and competition. That is also the undergirding of CONTROL. People think they know what is best for others instead of allowing others to move and have their being in ME, they want to control them. Men and women must learn that dependence on ME is the only way they can get along. What did I say ?

Matt 6:33-34 NKJV 33 But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you. 34 Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.

I do not CONTROL you ! I admonish you to obey Me, but I do not control you. So why do you allow others to control you ? I am Your ADONAI, Your Lord and Master. So why do you make other men your LORD and MASTER ?
Did I not say there is only ONE GOD ? You cannot give allegiance to Me, and at the same time make others your gods. That is the fruit of mammon.
Mammon is trusting in something other than Me.”

Luke 16:13 KJV
13 No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

MAMMON
mamonas NT:3126, a common Aramaic word for "riches," akin to a Hebrew word signifying "to be firm, steadfast" (whence "Amen"), hence, "that which is to be trusted"; Gesenius regards it as derived from a Heb. word signifying "treasure" Gen 43:23; it is personified in Matt 6:24; Luke 16:9,11,13.
(from Vine's Expository Dictionary of Biblical Words, Copyright (c)1985, Thomas Nelson Publishers)

“Do not give heed to the doctrines of demons for they are plenteous in these times, but study the true Word and show yourselves approved. I have sent you the Teacher that you might rely on Us, and not your own or someone else's thinking. It is important in this hour. Remember that I am your SOURCE of everything you need ! Eat the scroll ! "

1 Tim 4:1-3 NKJV Now the Spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons, 2 speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their own conscience seared with a hot iron, 3 forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth.

1 Tim 4:6-11 NKJV 6 If you instruct the brethren in these things, you will be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished in the words of faith and of the good doctrine which you have carefully followed. 7 But reject profane and old wives' fables, and exercise yourself toward godliness. 8 For bodily exercise profits a little, but godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life that now is and of that which is to come. 9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance. 10 For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe. 11 These things command and teach.

1 Tim 4:12-16 NKJV Let no one despise your youth, but be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity. 13 Till I come, give attention to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. 14 Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy with the laying on of the hands of the eldership. 15 Meditate on these things; give yourself entirely to them, that your progress may be evident to all. 16 Take heed to yourself and to the doctrine. Continue in them, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

2 For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, 3 unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, 4 traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, 5 having a form of godliness but denying its power. And from such people turn away! 6 For of this sort are those who creep into households and make captives of gullible women loaded down with sins, led away by various lusts, 7 always learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. 8 Now as Jannes and Jambres resisted Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, disapproved concerning the faith; 9 but they will progress no further, for their folly will be manifest to all, as theirs also was.

2 Tim 3:12-15 NKJV Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. 13 But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. 14 But you must continue in the things which you have learned and been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them, 15 and that from childhood you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

Made to Order
Priscilla Van Sutphin

March 28th, 2004 11:11 pm
tearsofthefather@comcast.net
www.upstreamca.org

"My order defies all man's logic. My Kingdom does not run the same as man's kingdom. My Kingdom runs on LOVE and HOPE, and PEACE, TRUTH, and JOY…and all that is good and holy. The carnal mind cannot understand the things of the Spirit. The wind blows where it wills and nothing can stop what I want to bring forth in this hour. The plans of man will be laid low, and My plans will prevail. For though the earth languish and bring forth birth pangs and all manner of shaking, MY ORDER will prevail in the hearts of My people. For I will do a GLORIOUS thing in their midst and nothing will be left the same. Everything I make STANDS. Everything I produce will stand.

Though the mountains fall, and the earth tremble, My will is exalted in all the earth. My church will be made to order, in the way I want it ! I WILL have My way. My ways are much higher than your ways oh man ! I WILL have the PRE-EMINENCE ! All that exalts itself in defiance against Me will fall to the ground and made to nothing.

My people will testify of My glory and they will not love their lives even unto death ! They will STAND in the rays of My glory and My fury will be against all who oppose them ! I AM a JEALOUS HUSBANDMAN ! YOU will not touch My glory without consequence !

I AM HE WHO SITS ABOVE THE HEAVENS. AND MY ORDER WILL PREVAIL AGAINST ALL THAT IS UNHOLY ! Who will ascend the hill of the Lord ? He who has clean hands and a pure heart !

Psalm 24:3-4 NKJV
3 Who may ascend into the hill of the LORD? Or who may stand in His holy place? 4 He who has clean hands and a pure heart, Who has not lifted up his soul to an idol, nor sworn deceitfully.

I will bring My house into order and they will have love for one another when I am through. They will not break ranks when they run through defenses !
They will appreciate one another's place in My heart ! They will look at one another and see ME. They will see with My eyes and hear with My ears. They who are My remnant will rise up in this hour as a mighty army and they will be something to reckon with the enemy ! The enemy has some secret weapons in this hour, but I TOO HAVE MY OWN SECRET WEAPONS !

Martyrdom is coming to the earth in unprecedented measure already compared to the past. Yet many do not even want to hear of the suffering of their brothers and sisters, or the torture and maiming, because they do not want to accept that I have allowed such a thing to happen. FEAR has gripped their hearts too tightly. Many as in the days of Gideon will succomb to the fear of the enemy in the coming tumult. But I WILL DEFEND My own till their hour of assignment on the earth is finished !

Better for you to fear HIM Who holds the keys of Death and Hell than the one who goes about like a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour. Fear will cause you to be devoured My beloveds ! The thing that Job greatly feared came upon him ! So fight off the fear and come into MY arms of love to be soaked in My LOVE, that fear may be driven OUT ! He who fears is not perfected in love ! I want you to be perfected in love that you may receive the fullness of ME !

Eph 3:16-19 Amplified version
16 May He grant you out of the rich treasury of His glory to be strengthened and reinforced with mighty power in the inner man by the
17 May Christ through your faith [actually] dwell (settle down, abide, make His permanent home) in your hearts! May you be rooted deep in love and founded securely on love,
18 That you may have the power and be strong to apprehend and grasp with all the saints [God's devoted people, the experience of that love] what is the breadth and length and height and depth [of it];
19 [That you may really come] to know [practically, through experience for yourselves] the love of Christ, which far surpasses mere knowledge
[without experience]; that you may be filled [through all your being] unto all the fullness of God [may have the richest measure of the divine Presence, and become a body wholly filled and flooded with God Himself] !

I am a God of RESTORATION and not destruction ! Man reaps his own destruction because of the destructive nature of SIN in his heart. But I am a RESTORER and a FATHER to all who are Mine. Too many are concerned with getting out of the fight. I want you prepared to fight MY WAY. And to SPEAK MY WORDS into existence prophetically ! DECLARE MY WORD unto the heavens and it will not return VOID !"

Mic 7:8-13 NKJV Israel's Confession and Comfort
Do not rejoice over me, my enemy; When I fall, I will arise; When I sit in darkness, the LORD will be a light to me. 9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against Him, until He pleads my case and executes justice for me. He will bring me forth to the light; I will see His righteousness. 10 Then she who is my enemy will see, and shame will cover her who said to me, "Where is the LORD your God?" My eyes will see her; Now she will be trampled down like mud in the streets.

11 In the day when your walls are to be built, in that day the decree shall go far and wide. 12 In that day they shall come to you from Assyria and the fortified cities, from the fortress to the River, from sea to sea, and mountain to mountain. 13 Yet the land shall be desolate because of those who dwell in it, and for the fruit of their deeds.

“And who was trampled oh sons of man in the streets ? Who was it that dogs licked her bones ? YES , Jezebel, who is the harlot church is about to be judged. For judgment begins in the house of the LORD ! When My judgments are in the earth, My people will learn righteousness ! She who criticizes and refuses to curb her tongue…she who exalts self over Me and robs MY GLORY will be humbled and I will exalt the humble in this hour !
Her witchcraft has reached far and wide, causing My people to abandon GRACE and mercy, humility and forgiveness ! But I WILL RESTORE TRUE SHEPHERDS. And they will exalt only ME in this hour !

I will POUR OUT GLORY and it will transform My Bride and humble those who are proud and arrogant in their hearts. It will break the chains that have bound my people and they will arise a new MAN. It is soon upon you for the wicked are escalating in their plans, and I must have a church ready in this hour to reap the Harvest of all time ! “

Mic 7:15-20 NKJV "As in the days when you came out of the land of Egypt, I will show them wonders." 16 The nations shall see and be ashamed of all their might; They shall put their hand over their mouth; Their ears shall be deaf. 17 They shall lick the dust like a serpent; They shall crawl from their holes like snakes of the earth. They shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall fear because of You. 18 Who is a God like You, pardoning iniquity and passing over the transgression of the remnant of His heritage?
He does not retain His anger forever, because He delights in mercy. 19 He will again have compassion on us, and will subdue our iniquities.
You will cast all our sins into the depths of the sea. 20 You will give truth to Jacob and mercy to Abraham, Which You have sworn to our fathers From days of old.

Barely Recognizable, Having Gone Through The Fire

Richard and Jeanette Elliott

Aug 15, 2004
Today Katelyn, our 16 year-old daughter, went with a friend and her family to the local county fair. This is a regular part of rural life in the midwest. Each county has a local fair where there are rodeos, tractor pulls, demolition derbys, 4H competition [animals, crafts and cooking], and of course the carnival rides. I am certain we will hear stories tomorrow of the wonderful activities shared throughout the day.

With Katelyn gone, this left Jeanette and I alone to spend some time together. What a treasure! We enjoyed the day by spending time with one another, doing some things we like to do, and relax around the house.

After getting back from a drive through the park, Jeanette made a statement that the Lord used to fashion a message in my heart. She said that we are barely recognizable, having gone through the fire.

While at the park, we talked about some of the things we have been through the past several years together. In a nutshell, you would have to say we have been through the fire. Fierce fire. Fire that burnt away a lot of things in our lives that didn't seem so bad, but must have been from the Lord's perspective. Fire that consumed parts of us. Fire that burned. Not just a pretty fire, but a fire that burnt up, that was hot, unpleasant, and a downright fearful thing.

This fire burnt up our dreams. This fire burnt up our very lives. I lost a way of providing for my family for a time. As a result, we went through bankruptcy. We were forced to move to another community. We lost every relationship that we counted dear. We lost every position, title, and station in life. All that was left was our love of the Lord and of one another.

In many ways, we are barely recognizable, having gone through the fire. NOTHING is the same. We don't recognize our lives as being like other people's lives. We seem strange after this experience. We don't even recognize ourselves any more.

After thinking about what Jeanette said ... I must agree. We are barely recognizable after going through the fire.

What I believe the Lord is wanting me to share right now is this ...

Are you willing to go through the fire with Me? Are you willing to let Me strip everything that is of importance from your life? Are you willing to let Me burn and consume all the idols, all the things that compete with My Lordship in your life? If you let Me do My fiery work, I will come as the Lord of hosts and establish My rule. My absolute rule.

The Lord would say, there is a burning coming to America. If you will embrace the fire, you will escape the burning. If you will embrace Me in the flames, you will escape the burning to come.

Those that embrace the fire, will not be recognized. Being barely recognizable will save your life in the future burning. Do not be eager to retain your own identity, or that of religion, but allow Me to consume your identity. I will take you off the grid, so to speak, by burning your idols and replacing them with a simple lifestyle.

Those that embrace the fire, will be used to build places of refuge. Places of refuge from the future burning. I will not leave My holy people alone, but I will provide a habitation, a dwelling place, during the time of burning. These places of refuge will be My provision, for that specific time.

I have given the Elliotts a vision for the Three Inns. I have given others visions too. These places of refuge will be shelters in the coming burning.

Do not fear, but embrace Me in the fire. Run to Me. Allow Me to do what you cannot do yourself. Allow Me to burn all that is a blemish and a smudge, replacing them with gold. Yield to My fire. Embrace Me in the fire.

Keep radically following Jesus!!

Railway
Richard Elliott

Jul 14, 2004
Railway. Men will plan a railway through a countryside or a city or a town. They have committees and they plan where the railways are going to be laid. It is not just a "oh, let's lay it here" it is carefully planned out and they have to build the bridges to go across the rivers. And they carefully put it through towns. They have to build railway crossings through the town to make it safe and through country sides they go around mountains or go through mountains and it is all very carefully planned out. Some places don't want the railway go come to their town. And some cities want a railway to come through because they think it will help business. Some don't want the sound of the train whistle late at night, and the mess that goes along with having a railroad, the tracks, the whistles, the cars, etc. some just don't want it in their town. So some people fight it and some people welcome the railroad because of their businesses. They build their business right beside it for easy access to the railroad.

Your lives are like a very carefully planned railway. A railway I have very carefully planned. In everybody's life I plan the tracks. I put them down carefully. I plan them over the land, the rivers and the countryside. Railways always build from town to town to town. It is not just out there. It goes somewhere. It just doesn't go into a river and stops and the train goes in the river. It has meaning it has purpose and it has a plan. And it always goes somewhere. Your life right now you seem to think that your train has stopped. And so it has stopped. But I soon will start it up again. You must be patient for your train to start up again. I do have a plan. I have your tracks and are being laid out as I speak. They are being carefully laid down and soon your train will start up again. And you will have a purpose and you will go somewhere. The train has been stopped and the train did stop and I stopped it for a purpose. But now, now I am going to start laying more tracks down. In a new place. You are going to new place. A place you have never been before. And I will lay down the tracks carefully all you have to do is follow. Just like a train. A train doesn't think, a train just goes and does not think. it just goes on its tracks and it just follows the track. And the engineer just kind of sits there and he regulates the speed but he doesn't steer there is no steering wheel in an engine it is all planned out and the train goes on the track.

Be careful not to jump the track but stay on the tracks that I am carefully going to lay down. I am going to start this very day, this very night, laying down new tracks for you to follow and you just must wait for Me to lay them down. A train cannot go without tracks. So don't try to go without you first seeing the tracks. I am going to start laying the tracks down and then I will tell you to get on the train again. Then I will lead you where to go. It will be really soon. Let Me lay down the tracks first. I have to lay down the tracks down first and then you can start going somewhere again. You and Me we will all start going somewhere again. I have a plan and purpose and your track and your train will go somewhere. Be patient and wait for Me to lay the tracks.

"Do not think that I have come to bring peace, but rather I have come to bring a sword!

I will divide between the truth and the lie, between the holy and the profane, between the sheep and the goats, between those who love me, and those who love lies and their own lives more than me.

My sheep hear my voice and they follow me.
They follow "The Lamb" wherever he leads.
For they love not their own lives, even unto death!

They have overcome!

Be aware, that no one deceives you!"

Matthew 24:4,7-10,13-14,34
4. And Jesus answered and said unto them, TAKE HEED THAT NO MAN DECEIVE YOU.
7. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.
8. All these are the beginning of sorrows.
9. Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and YE SHALL BE HATED OF ALL NATIONS for my name's sake.
10. And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.
13. But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.
14. And THIS GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM shall be preached in ALL THE WORLD FOR A WITNESS unto ALL NATIONS; and THEN SHALL THE END COME.
34. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

John 15:19-20
19. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.
20. Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. IF THEY PERSECUTED ME, THEY WILL ALSO PERSECUTE YOU;
27. AND YE SHALL ALSO BEAR WITNESS, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

Rev. 12:11
And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony [witness];
and they loved not their lives unto the death.

Rev 2:10-11
10. Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.
11. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

Luke 6:22
22. Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.
23. Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

Hebrews 11
32. And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gedeon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthae; of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets:
33. Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions.
34. Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.
35. Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:
36. And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment:
37. They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;
38. (OF WHOM THE WORLD WAS NOT WORTHY:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.
39. And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:
40. God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

Matthew 10:16-42
16. Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.
17. But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues;
18. And ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.
19. But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.
20. For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.
21. And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.
22. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.
23. But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.
24. The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.
25. It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household?

26. Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.
27. What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops.
28. And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.
29. Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.
30. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.
31. Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.
32. Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.
33. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.
34. THINK NOT THAT I HAVE COME TO SEND PEACE ON EARTH: I CAME NOT TO SEND PEACE, BUT A SWORD.
35. For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.
36. And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.
37. He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.
38. And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.
39. He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.
40. He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.
41. He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward.
42. And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

Birds Being Let Out Of The Cage

Cyndee Pillow

(iclight@sstelco.com)

A vision and a word from the Lord

I walk through an ancient door, and behold the walls are white stone. There are no windows, no exits. There is only the entrance that I have just entered.

I notice there is no roof. Ah, the sky is so beautiful and clear blue with bright light shining as in the Springtime, above me. There is not a cloud in the sky.

Then, I notice on the far wall, there is a large square glass container full of birds. They are beautiful from what I can see, but the glass is clouded over with steam and lots of moisture.

Suddenly, I notice that this cage has no windows or openings, so the birds can breath fresh air. They are suffocating, and their beautiful multicolored feathers are wet with perspiration and lack of oxygen.

I say, "LET THEM OUT!"

I hear, "But they are suppose to be in the cage. That is where you keep birds."

I say, "Not when they can't breathe. LET THEM OUT!"

I hear, "If we let them out, they will all fly in different directions. They will go all over the place. We will never be able to contain them again!"

I say, "LET THEM OUT!!"

No one moves to set them free. These stubbornly stand stern, and do not move from their places. They are determined not to let them go, even at my command.

I decide that I must let them out myself, because those around me are too ignorant to see that soon they will die. They don't realize they will have no birds anyway, if they leave them in this state.

I push past one person standing in my way. Finally there is movement, but not to set the birds free. They only move to hinder me from getting to the little birds held captive.

I go quickly around another that steps between me and the birds. I am quick on my feet and much stronger than all in the room.

Alas, I am in arms reach of the glass compartment. I grab it off the wall, and have to tug it away from someone trying to keep me from breaking the birds' prison open.

I peer inside to see them all looking at me. I hear their little peeps as whispered prayers. I view their weakened movements as gestures made, to let me know that they are full of hope, even though weary from no air. I comprehend and see their faith, even in this situation. They have waited so long to be set free.

I say, "BE FREE."

Behind me I hear many voices crying, pleading, "No. Please, NO! Stop! What will we do without the lovely birds that sang for us so beautifully?"

I don't listen. With my mighty Right Hand, I pry apart the cage, and I break the glass that separated the birds from me.

Fresh air floods the cage. I watch as the first one realizes that he can fly. He looks at me with such gratitude and such joy. I see tears roll down his little dark eyes onto his lovely yellow feathers. He is so overwhelmed with the realization that he no longer has to stay in the cage, and can go where the wind carries him.

From years of being in the same place with all these other birds, he waits until all that he loves, are also strong enough and refreshed enough to go along with him. He has so much love. I am amazed, that this trap has not made them hard, yet so tender and loving for one another. He peers up at me and I know his heart is overwhelmed with love for me as well, because I have opened the cage.

After he sees the others are ready to fly, he leaps out and sores into the air.

Then, another gives a beautiful shrill whistle of delight and flies free. This continues until all are out of the cage.

I am delighted to see them soaring overhead. They dip and dive as if to dance with Joy in mid-air. They sing the most beautiful tunes, that seem to harmonize. Their tunes are testimonies of their freedom and with one voice, in unity, they sing.

I listen and giggle with laughter. I rejoice with them as I watch the beautiful diversity in all they do, with amusement. Now, they can do their heart's desire. Years in the cage of dreaming is over. Now, they will do what has been on their heart as they sat helplessly in the cage.

I look above, and I see that every one of them are soaring above me, yet they will not leave my sight. They dance around high above my head, as if they are singing praises to me.

Word from the Lord on the vision given:

"My people. Need I explain this vision? Need I tell you who these birds represent? Need I tell you whom my servant represents as she opened the cage and sets them free?

The birds are my people that have suffocated in man made cages. These were traps lay long ago for them by the enemy and foolish evil shepherds have obeyed the enemy's voice to keep them held tightly. Through their ignorance of My ways, they have been found in error.

My beautiful song birds have longed for the skies above, yet their wings have been made to lay dormant. These have been unable to fulfill what they were called to do. I made wings for flying, yet they were made to sit in cramped uncomfortable spaces too small to contain them. There has been little or no breath of my spirit in these places, and yet, these that have been trapped in hopeless situations have not lost hope. They could see there was more, and through a glass they beheld the skies, but they were never able to be free to move further than the boundary of the cage made for them.

These particular birds have come to a place of desperation and all they can do is look up. These birds, have spent their efforts, until there is nothing left to give. All they can do is hope and look through the stale air in the cage, watching and waiting for rescue. It has appeared to them by circumstances around them, that this was all that they would ever do. It appeared to them that this was what their life was to be. Nothing more than to spend it trapped and then to die without a breath of the Spirit to rekindle their strength again.

The ancient walls white, are the church buildings that have not made an avenue for those lovely ones I sent, to go freely in and out as I directed. Religion has sealed the windows and sealed the doors. They have made rules of old as ancient laws too hard to bear and impossible to follow. There is no room for grace behind these walls. These have said you must have a covering. Yet, they don't know that the true covering has left them and made them vulnerable to the elements of the world. These are the ones that hinder my path to my dear ones.

I have said, "LET THEM OUT!"

If they do not willingly let them go, I will bring them out of bondage by my mighty right arm. I will do it with force and intent, as I enter the religious sanctuaries, not to sup with them, but for my people to be set free from their strongholds. Some will not even recognize me as I come in to release my people, and they will resist Me. They have forgotten whom they were to be serving.

Fly away, my beautiful birds. Soar like you have seen the eagle soar, while watching from your traps. Fly high and rejoice. Dance in the heavenlies! Sing a melodious tune unto Me, for I alone will release you to exercise your wings.

You will be released into a new level. Will I not make you to fly to the highest heights? Will I not cause you to be far above those that suppressed you? Your enemies are no more, says Your Lord and Master. I rejoice in what I am about to do for my lovely ones, oh, my gentle birds that love Me and worship me.

In your dry places, your heart has become tender and you love much. I will use you in the coming days. You have been perfected in your prisons. Now, I will shake the very walls that hold you, and you will be set free to do what I have called you to do in these last days, says Your Deliverer, Your King and Your God."

"Our Lord, you are a friend of your worshipers, and you make an agreement with all of us. I always look to you, because you rescue me from every trap." Psalms 25:14-15

"I praise you, Lord, for answering my prayers. You are my strong shield, and I trust you completely. You have helped me, and I will celebrate and than you in song." Psalms 28: 6-7

Boldness, Courage And Confidence

Carla Rickard

December 21 2004

Scripture taken from Amplified

Psalm 138:3
When I called, you answered me; you made me bold and stouthearted.

Proverbs 28:1
The wicked man flees though no one pursues, but the righteous are as bold as a lion.

2 Corinthians 3:12
Therefore, since we have such a hope, we are very bold.

Proverbs 14:26
26 In the reverent and worshipful fear of the Lord there is strong confidence, and His children shall always have a place of refuge.

Hebrews 13:6
6 So we take comfort and are encouraged and confidently and boldly say, The Lord is my Helper; I will not be seized with alarm [I will not fear or dread or be terrified]. What can man do to me?(A)

Carla Rickard

Bold means fearless and daring. It is not another word for arrogance. For to be fearless and daring implies there must be danger of some form present! There must be a real or perceived risk for one to assume to be fearless and daring. If there is no danger, there needs to be no boldness.

Often times courage and confidence is exchanged for the word bold in scripture. Courage means : a quality of spirit that enables you to face danger of pain without showing fear Courage is the ability to confront fear in the face of pain, danger, uncertainty or intimidation. As stated in the encyclopedia. In many New Testament scripture the Lord spoke against those who were cowards.

Revelation 21:8
But as for the cowards and the ignoble and the contemptible and the cravenly lacking in courage and the cowardly submissive, and as for the unbelieving and faithless, and as for the depraved and defiled with abominations, and as for murderers and the lewd and adulterous and the practicers of magic arts and the idolaters (those who give supreme devotion to anyone or anything other than God) and all liars (those who knowingly convey untruth by word or deed)--[all of these shall have] their part in the lake that blazes with fire and brimstone. This is the second death. [Isa 30:33]

I thought this subject would be good to cover right now, mostly for my own learning as I have recently been experiencing a boldness like I have never experienced in a very long time. It's a boldness which speaks " no turning back"; it speaks, " I'm not putting up with lies and games". At first this newness of being bold concerned me as I thought perhaps I was losing my ability to remain patience and steadfast. When I began to consider it more closely, I realized that it is the Holy Spirit within me that is rising up and taking control of a situation wherein the enemy may have put a stumbling block in front of me. What I find most interesting, and I am sure that the reader will as well, is before this boldness took form, I was struggling with the desire to faint. As we seen the scripture quoted from Revelations, that is not what the Lord would have us do!

Have you ever felt like you don't have the time or desire to play children's games? This is likely due to the fact that you are maturing in the Lord. I believe that Paul reached this stage in his maturing as a Christian. He said,

1 Corinthians 13:11
When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; now that I have become a man, I am done with childish ways and have put them aside.

A child will remain in an argument until he gets his way. A child will pout when he is denied his desire. A child will use emotional manipulation to get his need or desire met. This is not boldness but rather tactics. Boldness comes with knowing our authority and most of all the Love of God which is shed abroad in our hearts. Boldness requires that we face down anything that threatens us without showing fear. Not as a bully would, but as someone who is confident in the Lord taking care of us. The battle is the Lord's. If the Lord is for us , who can be against us?

When do we lose confidence in the Lord not taking care of our problems? This usually occurs when we are too sin conscious. We must confess our sin. Yet the Word says that when we do so, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sin! Knowing His love for us produces boldness!

Ephesians 3:17
May Christ through your faith [actually] dwell (settle down, abide, make His permanent home) in your hearts! May you be rooted deep in love and founded securely on love,

Therefore we should OPERATE in boldness at all times. Boldness tells the enemy " BACK OFF". Boldness tells sickness " OUT OF MY HOUSE NOW". Boldness works together with authority. For when fear is present, it is boldness that must respond!

Some believe that boldness is shouting, yelling, screaming, etc. However God's kind of boldness is one such as found in Jacob.

Genesis 32
24 And Jacob was left alone, and a Man wrestled with him until daybreak.
25 And when [the [a]Man] saw that He did not prevail against [Jacob], He touched the hollow of his thigh; and Jacob's thigh was put out of joint as he wrestled with Him.
26 Then He said, Let Me go, for day is breaking. But [Jacob] said, I will not let You go unless You declare a blessing upon me.
27 [The Man] asked him, What is your name? And [in shock of realization, whispering] he said, Jacob [supplanter, schemer, trickster, swindler]!

28 And He said, Your name shall be called no more Jacob [supplanter], but Israel [contender with God]; for you have contended and have power with God and with men and have prevailed.(B)
29 Then Jacob asked Him, Tell me, I pray You, what [in contrast] is Your name? But He said, Why is it that you ask My name? And [b][the Angel of God declared] a blessing on [Jacob] there.

Boldness is not letting go of the Truth. Boldness IS steadfastness. It is not about an emotional reaction. Its about " standing" fearlessly against the pressure to bend other wise. It is not about being rude. It is about being decided, determined, settled with the issue.

Sometimes emotions will seem to rise up with boldness as the gas needed to be taken seriously. However emotions are not the source of boldness. The source of boldness is the Truth of God. Knowing that you know that you know, will produce this boldness. Knowing you are to be and are, dead center in the will of God will produce this boldness.

Ephesians 5:17
Therefore do not be vague and thoughtless and foolish, but understanding and firmly grasping what the will of the Lord is Nothing and no one will deter you. You will not need to convince others of your conviction, for the purpose of boldness is to bulldoze down all those obstacles that are places in your way. Faith is the fore runner of Boldness. Once faith is established it must then incubate until boldness is birthed to get the job done.

Boldness is the took needed to overcome factors of fear such as intimidation, rejection, physical and emotional danger of all types and sorts. Fear paralyzes, boldness energizes!

The Lord has not called us to be cowards. The Lord has called us to be bold. For the Lord fears nothing, for the spirit of fear does not come from God!

May the Lord increase you in boldness, teaching you all things through His Spirit who knows all things.

Beauty

Marion Lundy

In a vision, I saw someone encircled, just engulfed in swirls and swirls of beautiful light. “This is My Shekinah,” said the Lord. “In My house are many mansions. Many rooms you have not explored yet. There are many areas that have yet to be unveiled. I will be opening up My mansion of BEAUTY now. Be ready for this phenomenal occurrence. Now are you My sons and it does not yet appear what you shall be. I Am appearing and you SHALL be LIKE Me. I, indeed, shall break forth as Lightening and the world shall see Me, the King, in My BEAUTY. The former beauty shall be restored to you, as I shall give you beauty for all of your ashes. I will restore the AWE of your CREATOR. That Light within that has, seemly, been hidden from view shall openly appear to mark the place of My presence as the Star in the East did to announce My entrance into this world. I shall publicly demonstrate My power and My glory in variegated hues. My Shekinah shall burst forth in all of its radiance and perfection. When My BEAUTY shines in it’s fullness, you won’t believe the greatness of My manifestations that will happen even if I were to tell you now? Look to see people being saved whose hearts seemed to have been hardened against the Lord. Look to see the cripple and lame to walk and people healed of dreaded diseases on a larger than ever, widespread scale. Look to see the ministry of My Spirit coming forth in all kinds of marvelous, extraordinary ways.

This Shekinah, this Splendour will not be adulterated by the spirit of the world, the flesh or the devil. It shall be the BEAUTY of My HOLINESS and ADORNMENT that shall shine out of My secret place of peace and love.” (I saw, in a vision, clods being broken up). “Prepare your heart. Break up the fallow ground so I can have an abundant entrance” says the Lord.

VISION:
I admonish you by the Spirit of the Lord, to try with all of your heart to get into ONENESS with Him. About 6 weeks ago in a vision, I saw some little white crosses at the head of graves. I knew that more people would die in the U.S. as a result of terrorism. There were a lot of little green trees all in back of the crosses. They were 'Trees of Life." The Lord reminded me that the "Tree of Life" is symbolic of the Word of God and He said that His people are to become The Word. It is imperative that this happens and PRAY, PRAY, PRAY about the world situations.

Beachcombers

Bill Yount

I Saw 'Angelic Beachcombers' Storming The Beaches; Bringing Spiritual 'R & R'!

They appeared to be angelic beings with metal detectors searching for treasure on the beaches of the earth. What seemed to be washed up upon the shores of life through storms and spiritual shipwrecks, disregarded by many, were now in great demand in Heaven. Much treasure was buried in the sands of beaches upon the earth. As angels began to dig deeper in the sand, an outline of what appeared to be a large treasure, a form in the image and likeness of God appeared just beneath the sand - a human being! Angels began reporting to Heaven that many who were made in the very image of God had actually buried themselves and had died spiritually trying to find rest and relaxation in the pleasures of the shifting and the quicksands of life. But Jesus now appeared walking on the waters along these shorelines of the nations. The waters were being anointed.

As these 'angelic beachcombers' continued to dig many of these lost treasures free, the grains of sands beneath them began to cry out the sweetest word ever heard upon the earth... "Repent!" The grains of sand seemed to speak this word with so much love, like no human voice had ever spoken to these treasures before. In fact, one angel wrote with his finger across the beaches the word repent and then built a heart shaped sand castle around it as Heaven proclaimed... "Kings and queens of the earth were meant to live in castles. Return to Me!"

True 'R & R' was coming to these worn, broken lives as they began being kissed by the 'Sun of Righteousness' rising upon them with healing in His wings! Sweet 'Repentance and Restoration' was invading the beaches and shorelines of nations!

I then heard the Father commanding these 'angelic beachcombers'. "Begin on the beaches of the earth and then begin to move inland, combing the mountains and the valleys, the cities, and don't miss combing through My own House to search and bring forth My treasures who have buried themselves in their own 'church traditions' and are locked up inside those 'church walls'. Compel them to go out 'now' into the highways, the byways, the cities, and the beaches and pick up the spoil that lies waiting."

"I'll see you at the beach... "

Beheaded

Cindye Coates

In the Fall of 1999, I had a dream of a loved one being beheaded. When I woke, I was so terrorized by the idea that I dared not mention it to a soul. A few days later, I was sitting in a large church known for teaching the Gospel of The Kingdom, listening to a powerful prophet of God graphically describe the scene in Revelation 20:4. All I could do is stand to my feet and weep in the midst of the congregation as God's Word flooded of my heart, freeing me from the fear of being beheaded. The Spirit of Understanding was being unleashed in the atmosphere of that meeting. I was no longer victimized by a dream. I began embracing a revelation; a Revelation of Jesus Christ.

Authority to the Beheaded

In order to understand the passage in Revelation 20, we must first review the opening statements in Revelation, Chapter 1; " the Revelation of Jesus Christ …" To understand this book, is to know that it is a book that reveals Jesus and it is a blessing to all who read it. It's not scary or something to dread. It's something to understand figuratively as it is written in symbols and metaphors. Now the text in Revelation Chapter 20 reads this way:

"I saw thrones on which were seated those who had been given authority to judge. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony for Jesus and because of the word of God. They had not worshiped the beast or his image and had not received his mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ a thousand years." Rev. 20:4

Here we see the identification of the corporate body of overcomers, as it is confirmed in Rev. 3: 21; "to him that overcomes will I grant to sit with Me in My throne." They were given authority to judge having been processed by the judgments of God themselves, for "Judgment must begin at the house of God," (1 Peter 4:19), they are now qualified "To execute the judgment written: this honor have all His saints." (Psalm 149:9). Here they become "laborers together with God," in the restoration of all mankind.

"Beheaded for the witness of Jesus... and the Word of God." Beheaded, no stronger word could be used to speak of the process of ending all carnal mindedness, and being renewed into the mind of Christ. "Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus." (Philippians 2:5). The RENEWING OF THE MIND brings an end to self-will, in it's attitudes and thinking, so that we can mind spiritual things and bear witness to Him alone. His Word is truth, and we lay down our own life " and they loved not their lives unto the death," that His truth might dwell in us richly, filling our thoughts, directing our steps. Then whatever outward persecutions come our way, because we do not think as the world, with joy we shall overcome, and be found pleasing to God. " They had not worshiped the beast or his image and had not received his mark." No longer do they bear the imprint and character of this world's system, they have repudiated any allegiance to the flesh, and now bear the marks of God, conformed to His image, that He might be exalted. Truly, they are the Lord's.

"And they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years." Whether the "thousand years" is a literal time span, or a figurative one, really doesn't matter when we are "reigning with Christ." For as Peter reminds us, "Beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day." (2 Peter 3:8). The Psalmist David concurs, "For a thousand years in Your sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night." (Psalm 90:4).

To be with Christ, to "live and reign" with Him, that is the issue! Again the Psalmist reaffirms this: " Better is one day in your courts than a thousand elsewhere!" (Psalm 84:10). It's not the time frame that matters, it is LIVING WITH CHRIST NOW! For "they which receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall REIGN IN LIFE by one, Jesus Christ." (Romans 5:17). His life is eternal!

How Jesus Responds to a Beheading

The scriptures tell of the beheading of John the Baptist in Matthew 14.
It is most comforting to note how Jesus responded to such a thing. We would be wise to imitate Him.

“When Jesus heard what had happened, He withdrew by boat privately to a solitary place. Hearing of this, the crowds followed Him on foot from the towns. When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, He had compassion on them and healed their sick.” Mathew 14: 13-14

Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever (Hebrews 13:8). He can be trusted to do the same today; heal the sick! It is also key to note 1 John 4:17:
As He is, so are we in this world. We must continue the ministry of Jesus. The best war the Church can wage on terrorism is do the works of Jesus against all odds. It is also comforting to see what the Lord did after He healed the sick. He fed the multitude! (Matt. 14:16-21) Something of epic proportions happens in the Kingdom when there is a beheading. The pure in heart see God even in bleak darkness. We will see what we are looking for. If we are looking for God in this hour, we will not be denied. The Lord is surely appearing in and through His people.

Beheading
Ann Duffy

Dearly loved saints of the Lord Most High

Tonight I AM would come with a reassuring Word to all that have ears to hear. For fear would try and reign and cripple My own - for many have yet to learn that to try and save their life means they will lose it and to deliberately and systematically lose it to the Lord Jesus Christ means that they, in fact, gain eternal Life with the Creator of the Universe.

Hear ye, hear ye, the Words of the Lord:-

My dear ones, cradled in the palm of My hand, realise, know and understand that there is about to be a revolutionary change of Headship. For this is what My ownership is about. The church of Babylon has as its 'head' the god of this world. The nations and countries of this world have this same 'head.' but did I not say that the earth is mine and the fullness thereof? Yes, this is the Truth. The earth is Mine.

So comes a beheading - the demise of the rulership and ownership of the Babylonian system and then comes a fullness of installation of the Headship of My Christ. For you see, the Bride belongs to the Bridegroom. She (the church, the remnant) is Mine. Her Headship has been ordained since the beginning of the created universe. All things are to be summed up in Christ as the Head. Then flows the anointing as like unto flowing down Aaron's (the high priest's) beard.

The anointing flows when the Headship is right. So, precious ones, this is the time for the Christ to take His headship with full jurisdiction. This is His Time for the fullness of all things to be made manifest In Him.

This is the time for the apostate church to be decapitated and laid aside and for the True Church to raise up in worship and Truth. For truly as she is now positioned upon the earth, multitudes are in this worship position already. All over the world dear broken ones are falling at My feet in adoration. There is a circle being formed and a layering effect. Picture if you will, saint upon saint, broken and desperate; abandoned and cleaving to her love. Each one in perfect union and harmony with Himself. Each one reaching thru time and space into the realm of the Righteous. Unto My very throne. Yes, they all cry out to me; harmonise with My Will and sing love songs to the Unknown God. For they esteem what they have not seen and for this much accreditation occurs.

As the harmonious adoration continues and increases a layering and elevation occurs. More and more are added and placed on top of their brothers and sisters that have laid down their lives for their Lord. So picture if you will an apex shape filled with women and men, boys and girls all in the sweet array of white garments prominent with the fragrance of Christ their love.

now superimpose this picture over My mountain. Zion. And here you have My Church being built. Pure and Holy as He is pure and holy. Under His Headship ; one spirit; one body; one faith; one baptism. Ah...........the glory.......satisfies me.

So dear ones, realise that the increasing violent beheadings throughout the world is the enemy's counterfeit of My current move.

War against his arm of death and the ungodly violent deaths and embrace My Arm of Justice and the pure Headship of Christ.

love In Christ,
His Servant and lover, Ann

Belly Ache

Vicki Camp

6-25, '04 short dream scene / vision …
I saw a man standing holding his upper belly with his crossed arms as if in some pain.
Not sure how to write this next part as it will sound very strange.....but on the ground near him, which the man was looking down upon, was laying some kind of bunched tubes or scrolls,,, that somehow were a part of him that had become dis-connected or lost 'out of him'....... like he had lost and was still losing some of his very being/essence 'parts'.

I watched as he then abruptly turned around his direction, and still holding his stomach began to run 'home'........ I felt him sensing he must 'run home', 'must get home'....... somehow this was the fix and repair for him. This was going to make him whole again - had to 'get back to home'.

-- I guess I could write much about this prophetic dream scene, and probably get needlessly wordy :) , but I feel to not do that. I will only mention that Rev. 2 came to me of this scene as I awoke - the portion about '…you have left your first Love',,,, with the understanding of the need to return to 'first-Love' ,,, as in 'run back to home base'.

My great appreciation and thanks to my friend whom I shared this dream with, who then advised me to look into Ezekial 3... Yes!
For both Ezekial and John the apostle - - The Word of God, prophecy, is a book, a written scroll ......

The Word of God, prophecy, presented as a scroll of God' writing to be ingested, and then given out..........

To Ezekial the prophet,
"... : open thy mouth, and eat that I give thee." - Ezek. 2:8b
" Moreover He said to me, "Son of man, eat what you find; eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel." So I opened my mouth, and He caused me to eat that scroll. And He said to me, "Son of man, feed your belly, and fill your stomach with this scroll that I give you." So I ate, and it was in my mouth like honey in sweetness. Then He said to me: "Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak with My words to them." - Ezek. 3:1-3
v. 14 "So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the Lord was strong upon me.........."

To John the apostle on Isle Patmos,
"And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book (scroll). And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey. And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter. And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.... " - Rev. 10:9-11a

I hope and trust this short piece and prophetic dream scene will be as instructive to others who may read this, as it has been to myself. Lord Jesus Christ IS and always will be our "first Love"; HE is to be our "home and our base", to Whom we can and must run to ……

"...; for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy." – Rev. 19:10b

Weeding
Vicki Camp

June 24, ’04 (vision/insight w./instruction)
I heard the Lord clearly speak,
“I am weeding my garden.”
I was taken into a vision where I saw Jesus; He was working in a garden pulling the weeds out.

I saw this was a garden of rows. The soil was dark and looked to be fresh rained upon or watered for I saw the weeds easily yield-up from this soft dark rich looking soil. What surprised me was that this “garden” Jesus worked was actually an orchard, with rows and rows of small young fruit trees. These were fruit trees not full grown yet, only a few feet tall, at the most.
I saw that ‘this garden’ was a well cared for young orchard.

The little trees -- branches not yet leafed, or budded, or fruited - Early springtime I thought, for the weeds seemed to be in some fresh abundance, but not established nor too large yet. Jesus looked from His work to me and nodded a 'yes'…to my unspoken thoughts; It was the time of end of winter, early spring season, and I knew this depiction was a ‘season in The Spirit’, not an actual natural season.

Jesus was dressed in what looked to me like a biblical times garment / robe that was wrapped up and tied up so that he could ‘work’ unhindered by his clothing. He had a cloth wrapped on His head, somewhat like a bandanna -- The sun was shining strong and His face reflected it’s Light. He worked on His haunches, occasionally standing to over-look all of this His’ orchard, the whole…...

I watched Jesus work for some time, then I saw Him pull a clump of nasty weeds near one of the small healthy looking trees. The whole weed clump and small tree came out into Jesus hands, both together! Jesus looked at me as He extended His hands for me to see the little tree and the weeds.

“Oh,,,, I do see Lord, the roots of this little tree and the weeds have all grown together…the roots,,,, their roots are entangled with each other.”

Then He began to instruct me about these trees in this, His' orchard garden. These healthy little trees may be likened to his own beloved ones, ‘My fruitful people who walk in My Spirit.’ He said that in doing His garden work, ‘My weeding’ , sadly some of His’ trees do not want to let go of the peripheral weeds that surround them closely, growing.

I then felt led to look closer at the rows of trees, and it became suddenly like a zoom-in viewing. I could now see each weed had a label, nasty spirit label names, and also some I read were actual people names (!); Each various type of weed, crab grass, thistles, choking wild vines, mean thorns, and the more. I was enabled to see these up close and labeled with these 'names'. I recognized many of the bad spirit names, but I did not read any names of persons I would recognize --There were only these many weeds with labels I read, with many repeating 'like-kind-weeds' with label names of various bad spirits, and some obviously not so good weed-type-persons …..

I looked back to Jesus. I saw as He took the small tree which had been pulled up, still in His hands, and I watched as He gently extricated it's roots from the weeds and their roots. He then placed it back in it's tree hole, filling then tamping the dirt down around it once again.

Jesus made me to know that, once again, He was giving this tree another opportunity, for 'My Father and I are longsuffering'…….I was to see that this little tree lived and moved and had it's being of Holy Spirit. I was to know that it had great healthy further potential if it would simply yield in more suppleness to His weeding procedures – in letting go of the surrounding invader weeds.....

"I want you to see in this depiction and understand also, that My Spirit will not always strive with man.
Look again."

I did so, and I saw Jesus reach right over a few of the rows of these little trees to a small bloated looking young fruit tree. As I looked more carefully at this tree I saw that it was dark spotted, sickened of some disease, it's bark was missing in some areas, and it appeared as swelled. This tree was surrounded by weeds and I could see winding young brambles and wild vine of some sort growing up it's trunk and out onto some of it's branches,,, When Jesus touched it the whole thing came-up out of the ground with all of it's attached weeds and thorn vines, where it then fell apart (!); Rotten and wormy looking wood in the core of it's main small trunk. I felt I could even smell the 'putrefying' shown…it was so real.
I was reminded of the scripture then, about not yielding to sin which can so easily beset (entangle, ensnare - Heb. 12: 1)

"I am weeding my garden,"
Jesus explained to me further,
"As I work, some will stand firm of good root to grow forward. Some whose hearts I know are eager and right will be re-worked by Me again, and some who will not let go of the weeds and thorns, as Judas would not, have already rotted where they stand, and will be discarded. My Spirit will not strive with man forever."

The Lord paused for a long time, looking seriously at me as I received this warning word. I thought of Paul writing,
"...fools - you started well in The Spirit, but now think you can finish by the flesh…… " (my loose remembrance paraphrase, - Gal. 3)

The Lord pointedly made me to note; These trees were not new shoots, nor little blades of new growth, but rather He stressed to me that these were full of form, developed little trees In Christ. I was to see/understand that these were not full grown yet, but in plain fact these young fruit trees of this vision were not representing babes In Christ. These ones, these little trees Jesus cared for in this His' orchard were full form of fruitful crop giving ability already (!), just not grown full stature for the larger, greater crop …….. yet.

I feel The Lord was showing and saying, for myself (and for some of us) to heed that our growth is not delayed or even stunted at this time by weeds and wild vines; Not tendering towards spots of yuk disease,,, or the worse - Rotted right as we stand,,,, where we are standing.
small synopsis: Shown me = not late Winter tree vine pruning for our better growth direction, but rather early spring-type ground-surround clean-up weeding work being done by our Lord Jesus. Keeping to mind/heart that these weeds depicted are not me, or us.
This is what I hear our Lord saying in part, concerning this vision,

"Yes, I do touch and heal and bring again fresh health and life, but to those who are not supple to obey My touch, My weeding of the ground surround - these ones are in danger of being discarded. Hear Me.

I speak to you, my sons and daughters already developed, to let loose of all close growing weeds as I pull them from the surrounding soil. I will expose them to you in front of your face.

I am weeding My garden again this sap re-stirring season, before the leaf bud and the new bloom come in Glory; Caring over My orchard for a new more abundant crop of harvest that is in the making, My making.
Be supple in My Hands of working.
Know that I SEE YOU as finished In ME; Thus I bend down to you, working and caring over My grounds, for you, touching you whom I love
– I am not a God far off !
My fruitful ones, today My hands of working are rooting out the weeds that surround, even these which are attempting to choke off Life – You are to let loose.
Understand that even as the vision depicted this is a foundational ground level clean-up which I work.

Grow on beloved, into My full height of stature; My ones moving on to larger crop in My FREEDOM and LIBERTY of ministry. This is My desire -- Even as you love Me, it is your desire also, for I've implanted this into you since Our beginning.
Continue to stand firm,, yet being supple wise ones of My Spirit."

Be Strong

Denise Lagrimas

Sometimes in the midst of things we forget that God Almighty knows us and understands us in fact He created us just to be His. He longs for us to love Him and wants to encourage out hearts. While in a deep place of prayer for the nations I heard these words below and I truly was humbled. I looked at my oil bottle and had to see if I have poured out properly. Beloved be encouraged for we serve the God of "the blink of an eye" and in that blink mountains move and things happen.

> When will you understand how deeply I long to fulfill the desires of your heart. Do you not know that I am the God who remembers the heritage of yesterday and I know those who stood on the mountain and cried out to me with a loud cry. My eyes look to and fro upon the earth and I see the nations that truly long for me and my salvation. I see the hearts of the true worshipers and those who are crying out for me. I have not looked away but have dispatched My angels to cover the earth and prepare for My glory to fall. Look to the west and see the redemption of the sin filled cities as they are transformed into a beacon of light and serve as a notice to the pagan nations. I am coming and I will pour out My Spirit. Prepare the lands for blessing, pour out the oil of repentance and cast out the wickedness, Look to the east and see My honor bestowed on the beloved. As far as the east is from the west so My love is for the beloved. Be strong and of good courage for I will cover you with My right hand and pass before you that you may see My glory. In this hour Kings will fall and new Kings will rise up and I will have My purposes fulfilled so we may commune in eternity.
> Let the earth cry out for peace and let the sword of truth divide for I will have excellence in the land. I know all who are mine and I know your heart so again I say be strong and of good courage for soon we will be together.

May this encourage you. He knows us........

Be Still!
Dennis Rainey

Be still, and know that I am God.

This has a personal reminder to me of my former days. There was a time when my two sons were young that in one week, we had baseball practice, wrestling practice, soccer practice and karate practice. In the weekend we had to choose between a wrestling tournament, a baseball game and a soccer game. It was too much and impossible to be still and know He is God. Parents that are filling their children with activities and sports, please listen to this message. By the grace of God and much pain, my children are learning to be still, but the early years of this type of hyper activities did not help the cause. I am not condemned but have learned and desire to bring forth truth to others. R.R.

I wonder if you share one of my concerns for my children: the pressure to be busy. Do you find it as difficult to "be still" as our family does?

There is a strong current in our country to involve our children in a myriad of activities at younger and younger ages. Parents naturally want to produce the brightest, best-dressed and most-talented children. They fear that, if they don't provide Tommy with music lessons at age three, gymnastics at four, art and nature studies two afternoons a week in the summer, and T-ball by the time he is five, that he will grow up handicapped.

And what do the children feel? Do they really want all this activity? Or have their parents persuaded them to want it?

It is my opinion that children who grow up with an abundance of activity and busyness become adults who can't live without it-sort of "activity junkies." They don't know how to contemplate, to rest, to think, to "be still, and know that I am God" (Ps. 46:10).

And many parents are not much better. Why, really, are we hurrying so? We need to ask, "Why am I involved in Junior League, PTA or the midweek women's Bible study? Or working full-time?" I've had to ask just how essential it was for me to do the watercolor painting, sewing, quilting and handiwork I used to do. Gently over the years, He has guided me in setting aside (perhaps just temporarily) most of these activities in order to have time to be more focused as a mother.

It isn't always easy to give up such busyness, or to assert authority over your schedule. But I wouldn't trade the opportunity to instill a calm heart in my children for all the busyness in the world.

Discuss: Do you feel that you and your family are too busy? What activities do you and your children participate in primarily because of social pressure? Have you taken a recent inventory of family activities in order to rank their importance?

Pray: Pray that God will increase your ability to claim your time schedule for Him, and to experience His presence even in the midst of necessary busyness.

Be Ye Perfect
Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,

In response to letter 230 [Overcoming Sin] a brother wrote the following:

Thank you for sounding the note of victory over sin, and DARING to hold out the very words of Yeshua regarding perfection. So few dare to do this in the current Christian world. "Through Him"--Amen! That's the only way, but it IS the way, and it WORKS.

Thank you too, for striking what seems to me a godly balance between leaving it all up to God, and trying to do it on our own. "Work out your own salvation" is a part of "all truth," and yes, there are some things left up to our own initiative. We are "workers together with Him." We have the responsibility to make choices: sow to the flesh, or sow to the Spirit.

This is good gospel, my friend! Keep sending it out! We CAN be what we ought to be, praise God, and by His Spirit working in us, we ARE.

Yours for the truth,

Tim

Tim's letter was very encouraging and helped me press a little further into this message of "perfection". Two of the scriptures that were quoted at the end of letter 230 contained "perfect" or "perfecting". With that in mind, I decided to do a word study on those two words. In Paul's letter to the Ephesians we see that the body of Messiah has been given workers "for the perfecting [Strongs 2677 kat-ar-tis-mos - perfecting, complete furnishing, thoroughly completing or maturing] of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Messiah; till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect [teleios: perfect, of full age, completeness] man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Messiah" (4:12-13). Just as a side note, the word "katartismos" is sometimes translated as "equip", which is interpreted by some to mean a method or a technique on "how to do" this, that or the other, depending on what method they devised. These 'methods' will not necessarily mature the disciple unto full stature.

Yeshua also spoke about the "perfect man": "Be therefore perfect [5046 teleios - tel'-i-os - perfect, of full age, completeness, fully mature], even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect [teleios]" (Matt. 5:48).

Recently I have been challenged to believe what Yeshua and the Apostles all taught about the saints (the set apart ones) maturation and ability to express the Father's life and nature in its fullest sense, measure or stature in this lifetime. Almost everyone, including myself, has been led to believe that the power of sin is a permanent feature and more influential, powerful or higher ranking than the Spirit of Holiness. "Whosoever is born of God does not commit sin; for His seed remains in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God" (1 John 3:9-10).

Paul was emphatic that our victory over the power of sin, the devil, the flesh and the world was only "through" Yeshua our Messiah and Lord (ref Rom. 7:25). The Greek word for lord/master is "kurios" and means "supreme authority or controller". Those of us who have lived within a democratic system are under the impression that we have the freedom to decide, "what is right in our own eyes". This predisposition got our ancestors into a lot of trouble, as it bred rebellion against the Creator and His Word/Torah. Satan's lies and deception led us to believe that we are our own gods and are lords over our life. By using this little trick Satan actually set himself up on the throne, and we gullibly left him there thus making him our lord or master. When we cooperate with sin, or anything that is not a part of our new creation life in Messiah, we come under the principalities and powers of Satan's kingdom, despising the grace of our Heavenly Father and His way of redemption through His Son.

Thirty years ago, after being filled with the Spirit, I had gone through a seminar called "Life in the Spirit". In that teaching we were admonished to "get off the throne of our life" and to "allow Jesus (Yeshua) to get on it”. This teaching made most of my spiritual walk into an exercise of an “on again/off again” game of proverbial musical chairs with Yeshua, as it implied that I was actually lord over my life. Since I did not succeed in getting off the throne permanently, I had to give up and compromise by “letting” Yeshua become my helper to get me through life’s problems. He could be Lord when I needed Him, but when things smoothed out a bit I could take over again.

This past year I found out (not that I wasn’t told at the beginning of my spiritual birth), that when I became a believer in my salvation and redemption, and embraced Yeshua’s death (the cross), I actually died. If that is the case, then how could I be on any throne ruling over my life? With a little more teaching from the Holy Spirit and the Word, I found out that there is another spiritual kingdom, rule and authority that are operating in me and making their nature known through my ignorance of the truth of the apostolic Gospel. If those spirits can make me believe lies or doubt the scriptures, or who I am in Messiah Yeshua, they will sit on the throne of my life and govern my thoughts, words and deeds. In other words, they will have a ready channel to express the nature of their spiritual kingdom, and because they had a good start before I became a believer (through the “flesh”), it will not be hard for them to continue, as they have already worked their evil nature into my soul. But there is a way out of this mess. As stated above, we can be delivered by the power of the Spirit of Holiness as we embrace Yeshua’s authority/Lordship through the obedience to faith. The Word tells us that “anything that is not of faith is sin” (Rom 14:23), which is a pretty sobering statement.

In Hebrew the word for spirit (“ru’ach”) is masculine and for soul (“nefesh”) feminine. As we know from nature, the male provides the potency for life and the female takes it into herself, giving birth to the nature of that which came in from the male. There are only two spiritual seeds/sperms that impregnate the soul of man, as is seen with Cain and Abel, Ishmael and Isaac and Esau and Jacob. Paul tells us to cast out the bondwoman and her son. In other words, deliverance must be an integral part of our spiritual walk. “In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever does not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loves not his brother” (1 John 3:10). We are a new creation being, and as such any residue of the old nature inherited from Satan’s spirit sperm/nature must be sent away. “Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting [epiteleo: perfecting, accomplishing, executing, performing] holiness in the fear of the supreme authority of our Heavenly Father” (2 Cor 7:1). We must work out our salvation by cleansing ourselves. He has already put into us everything pertaining to life and godliness, as well as the power of His Spirit in order to accomplish His purposes, thus we have no excuse except to plead guilty of ignorance from lack of knowledge. The scriptures warn us that, “My people perish” or “are destroyed for lack of knowledge” (Isa. 5:13; Hos 4:6). This cleansing is necessary so that the bride (soul) will be without spot or wrinkle and can be fully merged with the New Spirit Man (Yeshua), who is wooing the soul into a divine love affair with Himself. He is impregnating my soul with His fruit/nature: “The fruit [“karpos” -fruit of ones’s loins, i.e.his progeny, his posterity] of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, and temperance” (Gal. 5:22).

In calling Him Father/Abba we are proclaiming that we are His offspring and are just like Him. “We know that whosoever is born of God sins not; but he that is begotten of God keeps himself, and that wicked one touches him not” (1 John 5:18).

“He is the Rock, His work is “tamiym” [perfect, without blemish, upright, without spot]; for all his ways are judgment; an Elohim of truth and without iniquity, just and right is He” (Deut 32:4).

Back For The Future

Robert Ricciardelli

We believe the Father is beginning to take His children "Back For The Future". He is taking us back to the foundations that established the early church. Back to foundations that work, not of the law, but of relationship to Him and each other. The early church was alive and well, and they did not have programs and big buildings. Silver and gold had they none, but oh, what they had was so much more, as they lived and moved and had their being in our Lord. It is almost like the church must be born again, AGAIN! As we go back to where we were before man made religion and other doctrines began to bind us from thriving in the Holy Spirit and in relationship with each other, we are now being birthed anew into the saints Father desires us to be.

Many have been hearing this call for years now towards doing things the way they did them in the book of Acts. More importantly then simply returning to the way things were done, we need to return to the One who did the things that were done. The Lord is insisting on building His house, all other architects and builders, please step aside. Can you imagine what would happen, if we let the Creator come and re-create His church? Many of our finest programs would be eliminated and how could we be comfortable without the programs, buildings and all the fine entertainment?

Jeremiah 50:6 comes to mind:
"My people have been lost sheep.
Their shepherds have led them astray;
They have turned them away on the mountains.
They have gone from mountain to hill;
They have forgotten their resting place." NKJV

This is how God's people have been led astray, from mountain to hill, from program to program, from hype to hype and so on. They are constantly moving and busy and never entering into His rest, which of course is intimacy with our heavenly Father!

And here is the Message Version

"My people were lost sheep.
Their shepherds led them astray.
They abandoned them in the mountains where they wandered aimless through the hills.
They lost track of home, couldn't remember where they came from.

We have lost track of home, we cannot remember the beginning, the apple of our eye, the source of our strength, the Alpha and the Omega. Lord help us!

The people are worn out from all of the meetings and programs and busyness that Father most likely had no part in. It is the major cause of a church that is not dynamic, that is not walking in power as the army of the Lord…Not yet!

Father is knocking, can you hear Him? As we allow the Lord in, we then can begin to establish Him as the foundation. Then we can truly love and honor Him and each other in Him. We will meet in the buildings, we will meet in the homes and in the marketplace and we will begin to manifest as true son's and daughter's of the King because He is the lover of our soul and the guide in every jurisdiction of life he leads us.

In the book of Acts, God's people flourished as the Spirit of the living God flowed through them in a Spirit led, relationally powerful way. Homes and families extended outward like a flood of love and unity capturing the hearts of communities in a way that we have not since seen. We are beginning to see transformation pockets like this all over the world right now, where pioneering individuals and leaders have decided build God's way. "Unless the Lord builds the house, we labor in vain", Psalm 127:1. They have decided to lay it all down for His will and His way. They have chosen to forsake competition in ministry for transformation in unity.

Men and women of God have begun to choose to do what the Father is saying to the church. It is the heart of Father for the church to live out His Son's prayer in John 17, that we become one even as the Father and the Son are one. We are beginning to see underground churches in places like China and Vietnam flourish because it is based on family and on relationships and that every believer must be willing to die to self on purpose towards the Father's will.

In the mean time our western churches have been sluggish in releasing into the harvest of the marketplace. Many are crippled by systems that create few laborers for the harvest but many spectators not knowing what to do. Many congregants are hearing the sound of God and crying out, "There has got to be more to this Christian life and my purpose in it". I am so thankful for the church of today, you and I would not be here without it, but a shift is happening and we might as well partner with the Father in the way He desires to build in the coming years. All believers need to lift up their leaders in prayer and in the mean time begin to get into the game.

The game is on folks, God's green light is on and although the enemy has had his way by paralyzing us for a season, a very long season, that season is over. It must be over and we are watching an army being raised up that is nameless and faceless. The days of one man band or few man bands are over. The day of the Saints is here to bring many laborers into the harvest. God's orchestra of incredible unique instruments of His glory, are being enabled to release a symphony of His light and His truth through his love.

The orchestra will not look to man but begin to look to the Maestro to release them to play His tune. We will all be unique, but in obedience to Him and His design, we will create a sound that the enemy will not be able to withstand and we will be able to spread it across the world because we now have all the musicians involved.

The one thing we can all agree on which is the foundation of our faith, Jesus Christ and His pattern for our lives.

The revelation to walk out our days as ambassadors of our Lord Jesus Christ and to model His image and His heart of un-offense in a world of offenses was vital to where God was taking us, and is taking us. When the revelation grips you to die to yourself and your ways and to prefer even your adversaries, there is an indescribable freedom unleashed. We truly believe that each of us must be accountable to seek Jesus and His righteousness, and as we do, all things in this world will be appropriated for us and fear and anxiety will hold us no longer.

"Back For The Future" means that we must go back to the foundations of our faith. Back to the essence of Christ and the pattern He has set for us knowing that without the Comforter it would be impossible, but with the precious Holy Spirit, it is not only possible, but very probable in our obedience to His word. We must bring the gospel into our homes and families. I encourage every family to begin to open their homes and as God leads, He will add a neighbor, a friend, a relative to come and join us. As two or three are gathered in His name, His presence will bring healing and restoration, as well as a resolve to stir up the gifts in each other. There will be a release in what we need to truly make a joyful noise in our communities. Father, may it be so in each of us!

Birthing Forth The Man Child

Bayo Omoyiola

According to the timing of God, we are in a season of birthing forth the will of God.
At this time the church is pregnant with a man child which is the perfect church. We have hitherto been groaning in the Spirit just like the woman in Rev. 12. We have been desiring rest. Wanting to birth the will of God but now in this season we will begin to birth those dreams. To birth the man child church the church has to go through some processes namely:

Travailing

As it is written as soon as Zion travailed she brought forth, the church will bring forth after travailing. We have to pray. intercede with fasting and fervency and look up to God. As we look unto him the babe in us leaps for joy. It conforms to the Lord's plan as we behold him. Let us therefore give the Lord no rest till he makes Zion, a place of beauty for it is written out of Zion, the perfection of beauty God hath shined.
The church was indeed birthed in the midst of prayer and the perfect church will indeed manifest in the midst of prayer.

Cleansing

God must purify his church. He will have to wash her with the washing of water of the word of God. Making her pure - without stain and without wrinkle. God will purge his church with his fire as well. The refiners fire will purify the church and make it as gold. Part of the cleansing is done in trials where God refines us for his use .

Impartation

There must be the impartation of the 5 fold graces if there is going to be any perfect church. The apostles, prophets, teachers, pastors and evangelists must impart the church so that Christians will carry the 5 graces in themselves even where they are not called to the five fold ministries.

Love

We must all walk in love keeping all the law for by so doing we fulfill the law. Love is the greatest of all the fruits of righteousness and when we walk in love we walk in the Spirit.

Wisdom and knowledge

We must live a life of wisdom in order to live a perfect life. Wisdom and knowledge would build God's house. Understanding will raise it up. Lets covets God's best this season, Wanting to know him more.

Holiness

It is written - Without holiness no man can see God so we have to be consecrated before God watching day and night. That's only way in which the devil cant win us.

Worship

The father seeks true worshippers and true worship means to offer one's life totally to him. We must die to self if we must walk before him and be perfect

Faith

We must believe God's word and believe it with our heart if we are to be perfect. The bible said that Enoch pleased God before his rapture and that gives us the picture of what we are to do if we to be perfect. He said to Abraham - walk before me and be thou perfect but he never became perfect until he learned to put his faith in God so let us walk in faith.

Something will be happening our way as we go into the season of birthing forth the will and the purposes of the kingdom. We will be changed. We will be transformed and we will never regret ever waiting upon the name of the Lord.

The Angels Of Worship

scroll_of_david@yahoo.com

Its a beautiful thing to see angels worship God. It teaches us how to reverence God more and how to serve him in Spirit and in Truth.

The Seraphim's

In Revelations 4 and Isaiah 6 the seraphim's are seen worshipping God. They cry Holy, Holy, Holy (One for the Father, one for the Son and one for the Holy Spirit) night and day worshipping him.

With their six wings they worship him. Covering their face with 2, flying with 2 and covering their feet with 2. This teaches us how to worship.

We must worship him with reverence and humility yet maintaining our spiritual status before him.

Each of them possess a face different from the other. The Ox face, Eagle face, Man face and Lion face. They all show different roles of Christ. The ox face represent his servanthood, the eagle face represents his deity, the man face represents his humanity and the lion face represents his kingly role.

The Cherubim's with 2 wings

The cherubs that covereth are unique symbols of worship. With their 2 wings they cover the mercy seat worshipping him who sits between them.
Lucifer was one of these anointed cherub that covereth and he worshipped God with his divine musical abilities. The cherubs do use their musical abilities to praise God. They are ever in his sight when covering his seat, when walking on the stones of fire and in whatever they do.

The Cherubim's with 4 wings

These ones follow God wherever he goes. The bible says God rideth upon a cherub and Ezekiel 1 tells more about them. They carry his presence. They have 4 faces each and they worship God with their endowments. The chariots of God are 20,000 even thousands of angels David said. These ones have wheels under them and they are like chariots.

Our guardian angels

These angels always behold the face of God in heaven. They worship him and always rely on him for direction. They hearken to the voice of his word obeying his commandments.

Other angels

Other angels too do worship God one way or the other. Like the angel of revelations that showed John the beloved the city - New Jerusalem. He is a messenger angel and he gave God the glory and first place. The warrior angels who are for defense and security also worship God with their jobs. With their stern face they show God's severity and judgment

A Call

> Come worship me like the angels. O come from away and enter into my throne room. O come, don't be late. Let us have wine and dine together. Come for the harvest is ripe and the seeds sown into the ground are all grown. Come let us celebrate. Enter the harvest with joy. With joyful gladness you shall reap. Come let us celebrate as we harvest together, for the seeds sown into the ground are all ripe.
> Worship me with delight and praise me with your songs for I am here to hear you, The angels are praising me and I am enjoying their songs. Won't you join them in praising me? I desire truthful worshippers who will worship me in Spirit and in truth. Therefore come and worship me with a song. Sing with your heart for I am moved at your praises that come from the heart. I will fill you up so you could do your task. Don't be late my love for my heart pants and wait for you . Come for ye are my delight - This is a call from heaven.

Bridal Garments of Humility

Jill Austin

> Isaiah 62:4-5 - You shall no longer be termed Forsaken, nor shall your land any more be termed Desolate; but you shall be called Hephzibah, and your land Beulah; for the LORD delights in you, and your land shall be married…and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.

One of the greatest, most breath-taking moments in a wedding is watching the bride promenade down the aisle, wrapped in the most glorious of garments. Crowds hush and all eyes are affixed for she has captured the room just by her appearance.

Even today, Holy Spirit is training us in humility to rule and reign with Him as His Bride. If the Bride is to be equally yoked to the Bridegroom, she must wear the same wedding garments He wore. If Jesus, the King of Kings, chose a crown of thorns, how much more should we adorn ourselves in the beauty of meekness? If He forsook His divine robes of righteousness for earthly burlap robes, how much more should we wrap ourselves in a mantle of humility?

At the Marriage Supper of the Lamb, each one of us will be wrapped in different garments, brilliantly embroidered with the fruits and rewards from our earthly lives. A stunning, colorful, tailor-made royal robe will be our portion.

A Secret Testimony

In the Lord's great wisdom, it's as though the outer garment that covered each person was a simple burlap robe - a mantle of humility. Underneath that robe is the beautiful royal robe of our gifting. The Lord displays these at different times, but most of the time it is a secret testimony between you and the Lord.

Walking in humility is a heart issue, a lifestyle, an attitude that is God-given. An impartation of humility is different than a decision of humility. You can't instantaneously grow humility in your heart. Rather, it is a journey of a lifetime of matching your heart with God's heart. Ask God to do whatever it takes to make you a pure reflection of His Son.

Prayer: Lord, I give you permission to do whatever it takes to kill my pride. Help me to be the first one to run to the cross, humble out, and say "Yes" to you, Lord - always. I need Your help to forgive and always put other people before me, even as You sacrificed everything for me. I want to cloak myself in a garment of humility so I am a Bride that matches her Husband.

Behold I Am At The Door

Luz Cintron

Allow me now to rise up after you allow me to be one with your desire
Oh that your hand would move my heart of stone from where I stand beholding you, a prisoner of hope.

Don't knock on doors, my king but place your hand in me dripping in me your myrrh awake me through the night that I may watch with you as you watch for mankind.

I slept but my heart yearned your name resounded clear though spoken under breath awoke my heart to fear the goodness of your heart surrendered for me complacency stood far while you pursued me near.

Such love never has been and faithfulness as yours never seen by mankind.
In you we have seen God the Father of our souls long suffering and love incarnate where you stand.

Oh that you would abide where all of our sorrows hide that you would come inside!
That your would open swift the latch that closed the door as painful as maybe
You that all pains have bore.

Listen to me, my love
I drank my vinegar
my feet now stand in filth and naked through the night
I search for you and long to find you were you stand and came losing it all rejected by my kind.

Listen to me, if now your heart compassion finds, to this that once refused to follow through the night.
Of all that I once had,
remains nothing in here
my heart within me faints despair assaulted me.

Still I stood to behold
the beauty of your face, a glimpse would prove my love,
its worth all I forsake.
"Who is God but my Lord?
Who is love but His heart?
Who is my all in all except His tender smile?

Come in, and take it all not much remains with me but all that is, is you,
even in lack or fear...

Will I be risen up to look upon my heart?
Only You know, my Lord only you love like that.
All that remains in me your waterfalls of life posses in longing streams that bids me wait to rise.

I may be needy, naked and feeble but... I know That faithfulness is with you enough to become hope.
And that this hope is sure extended on the cross to embrace all my weakness to engulf me with love.

Sustain me now I plead you with the breath of your mouth or I die because nothing can sustain me now.

My Beloved is ruddy,
my beloved is handsome,

my beloved is rugged,
through his sufferings, ransom.
He was given to rescue this one sentenced to death in exchange or my love he bore sin and bore pain.

My beloved is lowly my beloved is tranquil my beloved is meekness nailed to bleed his love gladly.

My beloved is gentle
my beloved stands firm my beloved's face is set like a stone hard flint.

My beloved is tender my beloved is mighty and relentless and ruthless, unwaveringly faithful and unshakably highly.

My beloved gentle like a dove in the morning whose wings have been bathed in the dew of his longings.

That is why when He calls me all my soul rise to meet him in the midst of my misery and surrounded by weakness.

Behold I Come Quickly

Dee Hoetmer

Mic 2:7 O thou that art named the house of Jacob, is the spirit of the LORD straitened? are these his doings? DO NOT MY WORDS DO GOOD TO HIM THAT WALKETH UPRIGHTLY?

Behold I come quickly to beat fine that which is not of Me. I will beat it finely and blow away the chaff.

Matthew 3:12 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

Zep 2:3 Seek ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD's anger.

Proverbs 28:18 Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

O' proud and haughty ones, why do you persist in the ways of the flesh? If you can do all things in the flesh, THEN WHY HAVE I GIVEN YOU MY SPIRIT? Repent quickly from your striving and all earthly wisdom. I AM the Spirit of Wisdom and Counsel and the Spirit of Might! The doors are soon closing for those for those to enter into My Glory; My Glorious wave of Glory that is coming upon the earth. My visitation such as the world has never seen before. But there are many of My Children still in fleshly striving, in religious works. THEY DO WHAT SEEMETH RIGHT UNTO THEM, BUT THEY ARE NOT IN MY REST, NOT WALKING BY MY SPIRIT.

Put away from you carnal knowledge and carnal striving, FOR WHY WOULD YOU RESIST THAT WHICH WOULD BRING YOU INTO MY REST AND INTO MY GLORY. Know you not that you are no longer your own? Why is it that you persist in your own ways? Rise up in the Spirit, lay aside all striving and vain self-glorification and sit quietly before Me, seeking My Face. Receive your instruction from Me! In quietness and confidence shall be your strength, and that strength comes from Me as you cease from your religious striving and labors.

I seek vessels though which to show forth My Glory, but how can I do that when you are still so full of self? This perversity must come to an end speedily before I come with a swift sword, in righteous judgment to deal with the perversity still in you. He that hath an ear let him hear!

Rom 9:22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction: 23 AND THAT HE MIGHT MAKE KNOWN THE RICHES OF HIS GLORY ON HIS VESSELS OF MERCY, which he had afore prepared unto glory,

Behold I come quickly, repent therefore from your carnal ways. That which is flesh is flesh, that which is spirit is spirit. I will no longer allow a perverse mixture. THIS DAY IT IS YOUR CHOICE O SON OF MAN. CHOOSE YOU THIS DAY: THE PERVERSITY OF FLESH AND RELIGIOUS STRIVING, WHICH STINKETH IN MY NOSTRILS OR THAT WHICH IS BIRTHED SOLELY OF MY SPIRIT.

YOUR RELIGIOUS KNOWLEDGE PUFFETH UP THE FLESH. Your carnal judgments destroy My righteous ones with its perversity. You keep alive that which should die and kill that which should be kept alive. REPENT QUICKLY THEREFORE, before I come with a swift sword to forcefully and decisively come to cut asunder that which is unclean from that which is clean. You have many leprous sores on your soul, but you are too proud and haughty to come to Me for healing from that which ails you and perverts your ways!

Eze 13:18 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to the women that sew pillows to all armholes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature to hunt souls! Will ye hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you? 19 And will ye pollute me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, TO SLAY THE SOULS THAT SHOULD NOT DIE, AND TO SAVE THE SOULS ALIVE THAT SHOULD NOT LIVE, by your lying to my people that hear your lies? 21 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and DELIVER MY PEOPLE OUT OF YOUR HAND, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. 22 BECAUSE WITH LIES YE HAVE MADE THE HEART OF THE RIGHTEOUS SAD, WHOM I HAVE NOT MADE SAD; AND STRENGTHENED THE HANDS OF THE WICKED, THAT HE SHOULD NOT RETURN FROM HIS WICKED WAYS, BY PROMISING HIM LI FE 23 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: FOR I WILL DELIVER MY PEOPLE OUT OF YOUR HAND: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

No longer will My righteous ones be held back by your unjust judgments, your binding critical and haughty ways, FOR I AM TRULY A KNOWER OF HEARTS, and those with upright hearts will be snatched away from your evil clutches and perverse ways, as I fill them with My Glory. Then truly truth and error, light and darkness will be seen by all!

Eze 16:50 AND THEY WERE HAUGHTY, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good. 51 Neither hath Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and hast justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done. 52 THOU HAST ALSO JUDGED judged thy sisters, bear thine own shame for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more righteous than thou: yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

WHY WOULD YOU MISS OUT ON THE COMING WAVE OF MY GLORY, WHY WOULD YOU BE LEFT BEHIND? REPENT QUICKLY AND BE PARTAKERS IN MY GLORIOUS NEW WAVE UPON THE FACE OF THE EARTH.

It pains My Father’s heart My rebellious children, but I am a Holy and Righteous Judge, behold I come quickly with a swift sword to divide asunder soul and spirit, the precious from the vile, the flesh and it’s carnal ways, from the ways of My Spirit. In this new move I will not allow perversity, carnal striving and unjust judgment to persist. You already see afflictions and torment in My Body, repent you therefore, turn and live.

Thus saith the Lord of Hosts

Behold I Do A New Thing

Dee Hoetmer

26th April 2004
I have heard this repeatedly for several days now, so Father I ask You now what would You say Lord?

I do a new thing Beloved, a new thing. This has not been perceived of even in your wildest dreams. You have heard the prophets speak of signs and wonders, of the dead rising, of the blind seeing, of the deaf hearing. You have also already heard of My doing creative miracles, but now hold on Beloved for I do a new thing.

In a single day I will birth this; My people I will rise up as a mighty army. SUDDENLY THERE WILL BE CONNECTIONS MADE AND THESE CONNECTIONS ARE OF MY SPIRIT SAITH THE LORD You have wondered how you were going to move out into your calling My beloved faithful ones, for there is a lack of finances, a lack of support in every way that you will require, to move out to what I have called you to do.

Many have been in a quandary, many have been in deep pain, waiting for My promises to be fulfilled and that is the new thing I am going to do. SUDDENLY THE PROVISION WILL BE THERE. Suddenly those I have called to walk alongside you will be there. Suddenly you will know the path you are to take. It will be like the clouds have parted and the sunshine poured in through these dark days of waiting and waiting.

These days of waiting for My timing, I have used this time to teach you, to refine you and to strengthen you says the Lord, but the hour of your release is upon you.

Yes you will face giants in your promised land but take heart for I am with you in battle. It is in My authority that you now go forth and nothing will stand in your way as you obey Me, move as I tell you, speak as I tell you and do all at My prompting.

I have heard your prayers and seen your tears. WILL I BRING A THING TO BIRTH AND THEN NOT RAISE IT UP? Clap you hands in glee, dance before Me for what has been birthed will be raised up to maturity.

It has been a long season of travail but you have brought forth and now I will raise you up in your calling that My will be fulfilled on the face of the earth.

AMEN.

Birds Coming In From 4 Corners Of The Sky

Kem Tillford

The sky was the strangest color blue/gold I've ever seen in Oregon. It was early morning as I was returning home from taking my 3 kids to school when I began to notice flocks of these birds coming in from all 4 corners of the sky it seemed. They would fly in little groups, big groups and meet together, mix it up (what looked like fellowship) for a while and start to realign themselves to fly down South. The Spirit of the Lord settled upon me so heavily that I actually pulled my car off the side of the road to continue watching this as I sensed He would show me something wonderful through this natural wonder.

For 2 hours I sat on the roadside weeping as each time these birds would get lined up and ready, another flock would come and join the throng. This would disrupt the alignment, they'd fly around, fellowship for a while, realign and start to fly off.. then another and another and another group of birds followed this same pattern for what seemed to be a long time. (I prayed that the Lord would keep the police from pulling up behind me to see if I needed something as I did not want interruptions in this beautiful thing the Lord was showing me, not to mention how I was going to explain that I was in tears over watching these birds...it'd be off to the loony bin.) Finally the sky had become so darkened by the mass of these flocking birds that no more flew in so they were able to finally line up in unity and begin flying off in the same direction, one group after the other after the other, totally unified as One Body. I saw there until they all cleared out and the sky was once more this blue/gold color, clear no clouds.

I wiped my the tears from my eyes, pulled back onto the road and the Lord clearly revealed that this is what He is doing with all of the children in His flocks right now. Each group of birds seemed to represent many different parts of the Body of Christ and also those who are His within denominations to house churches to wherever His own may be found and He is gathering us all up into perfect unity so we can all head in the direction that He's calling us to. No more time is left for divisions over denominational rules and traditions or peripheral things that serve only to divide. Agreement on one core doctrine of Who the Son of God is, what His shed blood on the cross has done for all of us, we must know Him and be known by Him as He's returning for us.. that is what we all can confess with our mouth to agree upon and find peace with each other...

Breakthrough

Bill Inello

April 24, 2004

My people I will tell you again behold what I am doing in your lives. You are in a season of breakthrough. A season of skipping over from one level to another. You cannot allow the flesh with its distractions to weigh you down, for this is the enemy's ploy to keep you distracted and My work in you delayed. Do not look to or care how things look. Look to Me for I desire to bring you into My realm. Release those things that have been of a distraction and lean upon Me. Fret not, for My Most Holy Spirit shall speak to you and guide you into My truth, but you must also be willing to listen and heed.

I Open New Doors

Bill Inello

March 14, 2004

"Behold in this season I open new doors for you. But in order to proceed forth into what I have prepared for your future you must shut some doors to the past. Doors of hurt, unforgiveness and resentment must be closed in order to embrace those I have placed within your midst. Sin must be confessed and dealt with. Fear not, for My Spirit shall give thee direction. You are not alone, for I the Lord shall direct your path and you shall cross over the Jordan into your Promised Land, says the Almighty"

Bright Lights In Israel

Faye Brown

Greetings Saints,

Since I am a hidden one, live totally recluse, dwelling in caves and wilderness, I seldom make contact with others, but I have received something I need to share.

I listen only to the word I receive for myself, and lean not on others, for God is faithful to inform me of whatever is on His heart for the time. I heard a word from Him, saying, "something is about to change". Later I received a paper from a friend who listens to Clement that confirmed he had received the same message. I have spent much time in seeking the Lord on the words I heard. On April 24, I heard a word from the Lord, saying bright lights in Israel. This is the understanding I received. It does not contain everything that will happen, but it will give a counter-balance to the evil, and hope to believers. I have been taught of the Lord, the truth of Israel.

So this word was not referring to that nation but to those true Israelites among all nations. Some are going to manifest, great light from within is going to manifest Outward. Shining forth as angels would glow. The glory hidden within our mortal bodies will be plainly seen. The reason being is trouble so harsh, that will frighten the sheep and lambs so much they will stampede in fear. The true sheep will take heart, the goats will be plainly seen because of their fear and unbelief. God is going to allow whatever it is to happen. He controls the interplay of good and evil. What He can't use to purify His own, He will restrain. Those who love and trust Him He will steady and make to remain faithful. I have no word on what this trial will be. But worldwide lights manifest forth in those who are full-grown and committed to Him. Raising of a Standard.
God Bless and Keep You.
Faye.

Blowing In The Wind

Bill Somers

> 1Co 15:50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.
> The answer, my friend, is blowing in the wind, the answer is blowing in the wind. Bob Dylan, ancient American folksinger.

Part one.
More and more, I'm coming to see that today's church has a tremendous diversity of opinion on the topic of the Kingdom of God. [This is a function of Heinz's Law of Eschatology. That says, for any given topic of eschatology, the study of end time prophecy, there are 57 varieties of opinion.]

What exactly is the Kingdom of God? There are those who think the Kingdom of God commences when Jesus returns at the second advent, and establishes his capitol in Jerusalem, to rule for 1000 years. And there are those who think that it's up to the Church to establish the Kingdom, or to build the Kingdom or expand the Kingdom. Some are even at the point of claiming that the way to do this is by electing Christians to public office. And then there are those who think that the kingdom of God is present anywhere on the earth where there is a strong Christian witness or wherever revival breaks out. Still others think that the Kingdom of God is what you join when you become a Christian.

About a year ago I wrote a short essay on the topic. [Essay on the Kingdom of God.] One definition I use is to say, The Kingdom of God is wherever God is King. It's kind of obvious when you put it that way. Also I conclude that the church does not establish the Kingdom of God but the church becomes the Kingdom of God, when certain things come to pass.

Lately on meditating on the question, I feel led to expound on an operational definition based on the Words of Jesus in John chapter 3.

> John 3:
> 1 There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:
> 2 The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.
> 3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.
> 4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?
> 5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.
> 6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.
> 7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.
> 8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

Now here Jesus speaks about the kingdom in two different ways. In the first case, he talks about seeing the kingdom of God. [Verse 3] Then he talks about entering into the Kingdom of God. [Verse 5] The conditions for each are different. I'm going to try to analyze what he is saying and what the difference is. Lets look again.

> Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

What does it mean to see the Kingdom of God? In Luke 17 it says:

> Lu 17:20 And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:
> 21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you.

The Kingdom does not come with observation. The Greek word here is parateresis meaning, according to Strong's, inspection, i.e. ocular evidence, or proof based on sight.
What God is saying here is The Kingdom is not something you see with your eyes; it's something within. I don't think he was saying the Kingdom was within the Pharisees but that the Kingdom is something that comes to be within an individual. You can't look for it here and there, but within one.

The Greek word for see here is eido. It can mean to see, to know, to be aware, to behold, to consider, or to understand. So perhaps Jesus is saying here, unless you are born again, you cannot understand or know about the Kingdom.

Then he says:

> Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

What does it mean to enter into the Kingdom of God, and how is that different from seeing, knowing or comprehending the Kingdom? The word here in Greek is eiserchomai.

By the way, it doesn't matter whether Jesus spoke Greek, Hebrew, Aramaic, Latin or the valley girl dialect. The Word of God is written in Greek [or Hebrew] and that's what we have to deal with. We trust that the Holy Spirit of God who inspired the writers of the New Testament knows what he is doing. He dictated it in Greek.

Eiserchomai is defined thusly ; to enter (literally or figuratively):--X arise, come (in, into), enter in(-to), go in (through). No surprises here, Jesus is saying you can know about the kingdom, but you won't belong to it, unless you meet the conditions. Just like people can know about a country, and even visit that country, but becoming a citizen is a little more complicated.

Supposing that Born Again means what we usually think of; that someone is saved by coming to know and acknowledge the Lord Jesus Christ. Then he is able to know things somewhat more than what the bible calls a natural man. As in 1st Corinthians 2 where we read:

> 1Co 2:11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.
> 12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.
> 13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.
> 14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

What we see here is that the natural man cannot know or understand any spiritual matters, such as the Kingdom of God. But those who have received the Spirit can. And we're assuming that someone born again, has at least a small portion of the Spirit to allow them this understanding.

But now we also see that to really become a part of that kingdom, to enter in, it takes something more. It requires being born of water and of the Spirit. What exactly does that mean?

Usually we think of born as in when were you born. This refers to the manner we come into this world. Nicodemus clearly had this in mind when he said "How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?
Our good old American Heritage® Dictionary tells us that born is derived from the verb bear. The primary meanings of bear include: hold up, support, carry, relate or to have as a quality. So when a person enters the world, he is carried by his mother for a season and finally comes forth. The mother bears the child means the mother carries the child. The child is born means the child was carried, and the child came forth. It is passive voice, meaning it’s not something that you do, it’s something that is done or happens to you. Getting born, after the flesh is not something you initiate or control. Perhaps it’s the same with being born of the spirit.

> bear (bâr) verb
> bore (bôr, bor) borne (bôrn, born) or born (bôrn) bear·ing, bears verb, transitive
> 1. To hold up; support.
> 2. To carry on one's person; convey.
> 3. To carry in the mind; harbor: bear a grudge.
> 4. To transmit at large; relate: bearing glad tidings.
> 5. To have as a visible characteristic: bore a scar on the left arm.
> 6. To have as a quality; exhibit: “A thousand different shapes it bears” (Abraham Cowley).
> 7. To carry (oneself) in a specified way; conduct: She bore herself with dignity.
> 8. To be accountable for; assume: bearing heavy responsibilities.
> 9. To have a tolerance for; endure: couldn't bear his lying.
> 10. To call for; warrant: This case bears investigation.
> 11. To give birth to.
> 12. To produce; yield: plants bearing flowers.
> 13. To offer; render: I will bear witness to the deed.
> 14. To move by or as if by steady pressure; push: “boats against the current, borne back ceaselessly into the past” (F. Scott Fitzgerald).
> verb, intransitive
> 1. To yield fruit; produce: peach trees that bear every summer.
> 2. To have relevance; apply: They studied the ways in which the relativity theory bears on the history of science.
> 3. To exert pressure, force, or influence.
> 4. a. To force oneself along; forge. b. To endure something with tolerance and patience: Bear with me while I explain matters.
> 5. To extend or proceed in a specified direction: The road bears to the right at the bottom of the hill.

> Excerpted from The American Heritage® Dictionary

So being born of water and of the Spirit, is to be carried by water or by the Spirit; and also possibly to come forth from the water or from the Spirit.

Coming forth from water seems to refer to water baptism. It symbolizes one’s death to the flesh, or death to self, and coming forth as a new creation in Christ. Notice how Jesus rebukes Nicodemus for thinking along fleshly, literal lines.

> 6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

Then comes the clincher in verse 8. Notice that Jesus compares someone born of the Spirit with the seemingly random blowing of the wind.

> 8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

Our dictionary tells me that the word spirit is derived from Middle English, from Old French espirit, from Latin spìritus, breath, from spìrâre, to breathe. The root meaning of spirit is breath.

The Greek word is pneuma:

> pneuma (pnyoo'-mah)
> from 4154; a current of air, i.e. breath (blast) or a breeze; by analogy or figuratively, a spirit, i.e. (human) the rational soul, (by implication) vital principle, mental disposition, etc., or (superhuman) an angel, demon, or (divine) God, Christ's spirit, the Holy Spirit:--ghost, life, > spirit(-ual, -ually), mind.

And once again you see that the root meaning is breath, and by extension a current of air or a breeze. No wonder Jesus compares it to the wind. This wind is the very breath of God. Jesus is saying that being born of the spirit is like being carried by the wind. You don't know where it's coming from and you don't know where it's going. You just go along. That means you must have unquestioning obedience to the Spirit of God, the ultimate in faith and trust that comes with total yielding.

Now what did Jesus say about the kingdom of God?

> Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

Let's rephrase that in a positive sense. If a man is dead to self, and led by the Spirit, he can enter the Kingdom of God. So what is the Kingdom of God? The answer is blowing in the wind.

And this is just another way of saying exactly the same thing Jesus says in Mathew 7:21.

> Mt 7:21 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

It's those who are obedient to the word, that enter in. Those who enter the Kingdom of God are those for whom God is King, and not self. Our definition of the Kingdom still makes sense once we see that the Kingdom is within someone for whom God is King. The first commandment reads:

> Ex 20:2 I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.
> 3 Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Isn't that saying the same thing? And Jesus refers to the first commandment thusly in Mathew22.

> Mt 22:37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.
> 38 This is the first and great commandment.

So if one is led of the Spirit and truly obeys the first commandment, he has entered the Kingdom of God. No wonder Jesus says in Mathew 6 to seek first the Kingdom.

> Mt 6:33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

Blowing In The Wind

Bill Somers

Part 2

> 1Co 15:50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.
> The answer, my friend, is blowing in the wind, the answer is blowing in the wind. Bob Dylan, ancient American folksinger.

In part 1 we looked at defining the Kingdom of God on the basis of Jesus' words to Nicodemus in John 3.

> 5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.
> 8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

Our conclusion is this: If a man is dead to self, and led by the Spirit, he can enter the Kingdom of God. So what is the Kingdom of God? The answer is blowing in the wind.

Then we looked at other ways Jesus expressed the same thought. One of these is here in Matthew 7.

> Mt 7:21 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Then when his men asked him how to pray, he mentioned the Kingdom again.

> Lu 11:2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

If we look at the second half of this verse, we can find a case of parallel statements. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth. I'm going to rephrase these slightly to bring out an interesting feature.

> Thy kingdom come, as in heaven, so in earth.
> Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

The point here is that these are not two different requests, they are the same request repeated in slightly differing language. Looking at it this way it's clear that the kingdom is where his will is done. Doing his will is entering his kingdom. And to the extent we do his will, that is the extent of his rule in our lives. Praying that it be as in heaven, is praying that it be done totally and absolutely.

There is a transition into his kingdom coming to us in these end times. Here and there people are reporting that they spend more and more time in his presence and in his perfect will. This will increase dramatically with the outpouring of the spirit that is beginning. We will shortly see his kingdom fully and clearly established in his people. It's what we see in Isaiah 52, where the people of God are proclaiming his Kingdom has come on earth as in heaven, with the words Our God Reigns.

> Isa 52:7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!

This will be here on earth, as in heaven and before the second advent. Meanwhile the adversary's rule increases over the rest of the world. This can be seen in Isaiah 60.

> Isa 60:1 Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.
> 2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

Let's look at some other aspects of what the kingdom means.
We hear a lot of talk saying the church is not under the law, but look at how it's phrased here in Galatians 5:

> Ga 5:16 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.
> 17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.
> 18 But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

That is to say, you are not under the law only if you are fully led by the Spirit, not before. Now notice how the idea of receiving the Spirit is linked with faith in Galatians 3:

> Ga 3:2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?
> 3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?
> 4 Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.
> 5 He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?
> 6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.
> 7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

And in verse 7 you see how it's also linked with the Children of Abraham. If one is of faith and receives the spirit by faith, one is a child of Abraham. Then if one is totally led by the spirit, being dead to self, you are in the Kingdom, the household of Abraham, the house hold of God.

Look at this passage from Romans, and notice in Romans 8:1 how it defines what it means to be In Christ. That is to walk after, or be led by the Spirit, not the flesh.

> Ro 7:25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.
> Romans chapter 8
> 1 There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
> 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.
> 3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:
> 4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but > after the Spirit.

> 5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.
> 6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.
> 7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.
> 8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.
> 9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.
> 10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.
> 11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.
> 12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.
> 13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.
> 14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.
> 15 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.
> 16 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

Now notice verse 8 where it says:

> Rom 8:8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

And compare that with Hebrews 11:6 and you can see how being led of the spirit is linked with having faith.

> Heb 11:6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

Next note how being led by the spirit is equated with being Sons of God.

> Rom 8:14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

Let’s look back at the idea of being under or not under the law.

> Galatians 5: 18 But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law*.*

Here in Second Corinthians we see the written law contrasted with the Spirit.

> 2 Co 3:2 Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:
> 3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.
> 4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:
> 5 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;
> 6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life*.*

The written word, or letter of the law, is comparable to the flesh. It's only as the Spirit speaks the word to us that life is imparted. This is the hearing of faith. This is brought out in John 6:

> Joh 6:63 It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

Hebrews 4 brings out an example where the word of God did not profit those who heard it because of lack of faith. They did not hear with the ears of the spirit, but only with the flesh. They could only get the literal meaning, not the spiritual, and did not enter into God's rest.

> Heb 4:1 Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.
> 2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.
> 3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

The promise of entering his rest is one of those described in 2 Peter as leading to partaking of the divine nature.

> 2 Pe 1:4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

There are many other elements that could be brought out in this subject, but we will end with a selah and summarize.

Summary
Entering into the kingdom of God is like blowing in the wind. It is to die to self, to become a son of God, to do His will here on Earth, to be of the household of faith, to enter into his rest, to be in Christ, to have Christ be in you, to partake of the Divine nature, and be led of the Spirit. Ultimately it is to partake of the Tree of Life and the unity of the brethren.

Behold Now Is The Time

Heidi Owens

2004 - "Behold now is the time!"

The Lord says: The year 2003 was a year of grace. I trained you, took you through deliverance, equipped you, and prepared you. Now s the time to put to work all I have done in you. There will be no shame, only pride in me. Nor fear, only holy boldness. No sorrow only the joy in me which is your strength. I will send you out but never alone always at least in 2's and 3's. This is the season you will take back everything the enemy stole from you, everything you allowed him to take. You will take it all back. We will go in together and I will restore it all to you.

"Sound the battle cry. Blow the shofar. Where are the drummers? The war march is on! Take back the kingdom, take back your streets, your cities, your families, your inheritances. I will raise up a standard in this season such as has never been seen before. I will go before you as I went before Israel. I will lead you into battle and you will knock down all those who oppose you. I will take you out of the trenches and across the battle fields, pick up the spoils!

"In this next 3 mos I am pouring out such revelation, that my people will be dazed. The first part of this year of restoration, I will restore visions, dreams, hopes, songs. I will pour out the oil of gladness on a tired generation, and restore the hope. Then you will say 'Look how the Lord has breathed life back into us!' Then nations will say 'Look how great the Lord is! He has given us His eyes!' Then the lost will say 'I want a God like that!' Then our enemies will say 'Great is the Lord God of Salvation!'

"I HAVE poured out my spirit upon all flesh. Even the animals on the earth will testify of my goodness! Behold now is the time!"

"With Incredible Mercy I Will Embrace You"

Vision received March 25, 2004
I awakened with the word 'Bolivia' in my mind and on my heart. I had no direction for prayer at that point, simply a preemptive sense of God's anointing.

God's Kingdom Is Being Securely Established in Bolivia

Later in the day the urge to pray for Bolivia became so strong that I pursued the Lord and in prayer received this vision. In the prophetic experience I saw a huge metal nut and bolt being screwed down into the nation of Bolivia. The nut and bolt were massive and were fixed firmly and bolted down most securely. I had a profound sense of God's Kingdom being secured/established in Bolivia. The glory of God was released into the atmosphere. I felt the weight of it in the Heavenly realms.

Then I noticed a young man whom I recognized. He is a worshipper, an intercessor and one who is radically set apart to love Jesus and worship Him 24-7. He, along with a number of others, were dressed in construction clothing, complete with hard hats/helmets. They were acting in a delegated Kingdom supervisory role watching over and helping to direct that which was coming down out of the Heavenly realms.

I looked up, interested to see precisely what was coming down from Heaven. At this point I saw two things. One was a massive golden gate and the other an exquisite golden throne. The throne represents the increase of the manifest presence of Jesus, brought about through prayer and abandoned worship of believers, of whom my young friend was one.

The Lord is Raising up Lovesick Worshippers

I suddenly remember that he was in Bolivia at that very time, along with a group of folks from the House of Prayer in Kansas. They were in Bolivia to establish a House of Prayer and Praise. I see that the Lord God is raising up an army of lovesick worshippers in Bolivia to birth the Kingdom destiny of this nation. Bridal intimacy will unlock the beautiful presence of the King and His Kingdom in Bolivia. I see many lighthouses of prayer being birthed and night vigils of prayer and praise. I see whole families making pilgrimage to encounter the reality of Christ. I see the people of the nation quietly and confidently, with great humility, finding a profound depth of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. As with every move of the Spirit, there will be healings and miracles along with the wonder of salvations.

The gate represents the authority of the Lord in the nation of Bolivia. I have such a profound sense of God's Kingdom being mightily established in the nation, and that which is not of Him being overruled. The gate represents God's government in Bolivia. It speaks of the revelation of His wisdom, mercy and Person. The gates of hell shall not prevail against the Kingdom of God in Bolivia. Even in shaking, the gates of the Kingdom of God will not be removed and Jesus' presence will prevail and overtake and overrule the dominion of darkness. The Lord's light will uncover corruption and lawlessness, and with incredible mercy He will embrace Bolivia and rescue all those with a heart to respond to His Voice.

Blessings of peace and grace,

Breastplate of Righteousness

Revelation 15:6

A picture can speak a thousand words
Revealing truths that were once unknown
As images mark impressions
Within the depths of a man's heart and soul
Causing wisdom to claim possession
Over untruths that had taken hold
Of men who called upon the Lord
In search of revelation to the mysteries
Spoken by prophets long ago.

Angels who art in heaven
Adorned in God's righteous robes
Portray a picture of man's salvation
As a revelation for all to behold.

Holy are the angels set on high
Who in harmony with God's purposed design
Emerged from heaven's temple doors
Bearing evidence that the risen Lord
Now reigned from God's holy throne
And that God's judgment would now be known
According to the righteousness
Of God's beloved Son
The Redeemer, Savior, the Holy One.

Angels who art in heaven
Adorned with breastplates of gold
Manifest unto us the purpose of salvation
As judgment unto righteousness is made known.

> "And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles." Revelation 15:6
> "Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip. For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward; how shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him; God also bearing witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will?" Hebrews 2:1-4

The manifold depths of revelation of God's grace, judgment, and salvation according to the righteousness of Jesus Christ, is a mystery that even angels desire to look into. Man's eternal purpose, which God has purposed in Christ, is still a mystery that confounds many men of this present age. Men who continue to seek after truth and justice within the darkness of unbelief, have yet to understand that to place their faith in Jesus Christ, is to gain understanding of, "the breadth, and length, and depth, and height" of God's love, as the promised Holy Spirit, released from God's throneroom in heaven, moves in power and authority within their lives.

Yet, it is God's desire that the eyes of men's understanding be opened to see and comprehend the great riches of His glory that is theirs through faith in Jesus Christ. And that men obtain salvation from the penalty of sin, which is death, through partaking of the living waters of eternal life, God's Holy Spirit, which flow forth from God's holy temple that fills the heavens. God, whose mercy endures forever, continues to send out men equipped with the truth of the riches of His glory, to those still held captive to the prince of darkness, whose cruel voice of accusation against God's goodness continues to hold reign over those who have not obtained salvation according to faith in Jesus Christ.

> "But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man. For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren." Hebrews 2:9-11

Jesus Christ, who now sits on the right hand of the Majesty on high, within the temple of the testimony that fills the heavens, judging the nations in righteousness, was once "made a little lower than the angels" so that He could taste death for every man. So that men, born of the Adamic nature, deserving of the penalty of sin, which is death, could obtain the salvation of their souls, found in the Holy Spirit, Jesus Christ, the Son of God, took on "the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: that the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit." (Romans 8:3-4) Jesus Christ, unto whom God has committed all judgment, so "that all men should honor the Son, even as they honor the Father" was obedient unto death, so that sinful men, could be justified by His blood, and saved from the penalty of sin, which is death, as they partook of eternal life, through the infilling of the Holy Spirit.

On the day that the Virgin Mary gave birth to Jesus Christ, an angel appeared unto shepherds in the field, who were "keeping watch over their flock by night." The angel brought "tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people." Though the inhabitants of the earth sat in great darkness, and in the shadow of death, the true Light of the world, whose righteousness would shine brighter than the sun, was born in the town of Bethlehem, wrapped in swaddling clothes, and laid in a manger, because there was no room for them at the inn.

And as an angel announced to shepherds in the field, that "unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord", who would be found "wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger," there suddenly appeared a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men." Angels who had desired to look into the things God would accomplish through the Messiah, where men were forgiven their sins, so that they were reconciled to God, and where everlasting righteousness would reign within a kingdom built unto the Messiah, sang songs of praise unto God, as the baby Jesus lay in a manger, wrapped in swaddling clothes.

The Lord, Jesus Christ, was not born with the nature of angels, but of the seed of Abraham. So that He might be a merciful high priest in things pertaining to God, He "was made like unto his brethren", of flesh and blood. Because God's Spirit of Holiness would cause Him to suffer whenever encountering the fleshly, Adamic nature, He could not sin against God by giving into temptation. Yet He was still tempted in all ways that men are tempted, so that men would be made to realize that He understands the infirmities of the flesh.

Because Jesus Christ understands the infirmities of the flesh, He has compassion on those who are "out of the way." God so loved the world that He sent His Son into the world, not to condemn the world, "but that the world through him might be saved." (John 3:17) Today, men who are born of flesh and blood are helped in overcoming the infirmities of the flesh, as they turn to God's beloved Son in faith, and are filled with God's sanctifying, life transforming, eternal Holy Spirit released from God's holy temple that fills the heavens.

> "Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they." Hebrews 1:2-4

When Jesus Christ walked upon the earth, in the likeness of man, it was said that He was "made a little lower than the angels", so that He "should taste death for every man." Angels, "who are ministering spirits" are not born into the world as partakers of flesh and blood, as Jesus was; nor has God ever said to any angel, "Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee." God has never spoken to any angel the words, "Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool"; yet, these words have been spoken of His beloved Son.

As Jesus Christ walked the earth, in the likeness of man, it was said that He had been made a little lower than the angels. This was spoken not to exalt angels above Jesus Christ, but to help men understand the mercy of God's longsuffering toward mankind. That the Son of God would come to the earth, and walk in the likeness of man, blameless in all His ways, yet suffering as He encountered the infirmities of the flesh, and then, in obedience to the Father, allow Himself, as a flesh and blood man, to be nailed to a cross and crucified, was a proclamation to the world, of the longsuffering and love of God, toward mankind.

Angels who desired to look into the things pertaining to mankind's salvation, where men are reconciled to God as their sins are forgiven, so that they walk in righteousness, partakers of God's eternal kingdom, were never intended to be priests over God's holy people, as Jesus Christ is. Men, who are partakers of salvation through faith in Jesus Christ, are not to worship angels (Colossians 2:18), but are, like the heavenly messengers who rejoiced the day Jesus Christ was born, to worship the Son, for He alone is worthy to be praised.

Jesus Christ, who sits on the right hand of God within the temple that fills the heavens, has "obtained a more excellent name than" the angels who have been created to minister unto God. It is Jesus Christ, the Son of God, "who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature." It is Jesus Christ, who through His blood that was shed upon the cross, has reconciled all things unto God, things on earth, or things in heaven. It is Jesus Christ who is able to present men "holy and unblamable and unreprovable in His sight." There is no other name worthy to be praised, above His holy name.

God has sent His heavenly angels to men to reveal God's impending judgment, to announce His hand upon a situation, and to declare through words or physical appearance that God had given His approval or disapproval in a particular situation. God's heavenly messengers have been sent of God, to speak unto men news of heavenly events that would come to pass. God's angels have been sent of God to bring "good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people."

As Apostle John looked upon the vision of the temple built upon the testimony of Jesus Christ (Rev. 15:5-6), he saw seven angels come out of the temple. These seven angels, through their appearance, spoke volumes of God's purpose toward mankind; and through Apostle Johns letters, this message is shared with mankind. Angels, who desired to look into things that God had purposed for mankind, were now demonstrators of the mysteries that God purposed toward mankind.

In earlier visions, Apostle John had seen men who had obtained victory over the beastly, carnal, Adamic nature, as God's sanctifying Spirit put to death the deeds of the flesh, so that they gladly sang a song of praise unto God. Having partaken of His holiness that crucified the old man, they sang unto God with understanding and with thanksgiving. After that vision Apostle John looked and saw a vision where the temple of the testimony of Jesus Christ that fills the heavens is opened. Through this vision, a greater depth of revelation to the mystery of God's relationship with mankind, through His beloved

To understand the message spoken regarding the heavenly tabernacle, it will help to understand the commandments that God had given to Moses, regarding the earthly tabernacle that housed God's testament written on two tablets, which are the Ten Commandments that were given to Moses upon the mount.

According to the commandments that God had given to Moses, he was to build a tabernacle of testimony for the service of the children of Israel. Moses was given specific instructions on every detail that concerned the tabernacle, which housed the ark that contained God's testimony written on stone tablets, including what the clothes the priests, who ministered before the Lord, were to wear. God required that the priests be clothed in attire that would represent His relationship with the children of Israel. For example, the breastplate that was worn by the priest, was said to represent the "breastplate of judgment upon his heart, when he goeth in unto the holy place."

The breastplate of judgment that the high priest was to wear, according to God's commandment spoken to Moses, proclaimed that he, "bear the judgment of the children of Israel upon his heart before the Lord continually." The statute of God also required that all priests, when they came to minister in the holy place, were to wear fine linen coats, girdles, bonnets, "for glory and for beauty", and breeches "to cover their nakedness." In Ezekiel, we are told that the priests were to wear linen, and never wool or any other garment that would cause them to sweat. After the priests were clothed in their linen garments, they were to be anointed, consecrated and sanctified, so that they may minister unto the Lord in the priest's office.

Today, according to what Jesus Christ has accomplished for mankind through His obedience unto death, a temple has been raised in the heavens, for the service of those who walk with faith in His holy name. Men no longer need to look to an earthly temple, in hope of being in right standing before God, so that they may experience the blessings and protection of God. Jesus Christ's precious blood, which purged the heavens, has expanded the temple stakes, so that all who call upon the name of Jesus Christ may be blessed with "all spiritual blessings, in heavenly places in Christ." God's heavenly temple has been raised up to house the testimony of Jesus Christ, so that men may partake of the glory found in God's Holy Spirit.

> "Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. Wherefore also it is contained in the Scripture, Behold, I lay in Zion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded." 1 Peter 2:5-6

The tabernacle built upon the testimony of Jesus Christ, is for the service of those whose faith is placed in God's beloved Son. And as the angels in Apostle John's vision demonstrate, those who are partaker's of God's heavenly temple will be "clothed in pure and white linen", which signifies that they are to stand before God as a "holy priesthood." God's holy priesthood is adorned in the holiness of God, His Holy Spirit, so that they do not stand spiritually naked before God, as they willingly offer sacrifices of praise unto the King.

Those who receive the testimony of Jesus Christ, so that they are partakers of the spiritual blessings that fill God's heavenly temple, are clothed in robes of righteousness. The robes of righteousness have been made pure and white by the blood of Christ. A man adorned in robes of the righteousness of Christ, is a man led of the Spirit of truth. When a man is led of the Spirit of truth, he will rest from his carnal, Adamic laboring, which looks to the flesh for understanding, purpose and inspiration. When men are led of the Spirit, they will no longer "sweat" as they did when walking according to the flesh, which will always be at war against the purposes of faith.

According to the old covenant, the priest was required to wear a breastplate, signifying God's righteous judgment toward His people. The angels in Apostle John's vision also wear breastplates, which are made of gold, as they come out of the heavenly temple. This signifies that those who are to stand as holy priests, who minister unto the Lord, are to “Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness.” (Ephesians 6:14) God’s judgment toward those, who are partakers of His heavenly temple that fills the heavens, declares that they have been made righteous by the blood of Christ. Their hearts are now aligned with the purposes of God, who is the righteous judge over all creation.

Yet the seven angels, (seven representing fullness, completion and perfection), have in their hands seven plagues. The angels reveal to us that in order for God, who is perfect and blameless in every way, to complete His decree of judgment upon the earth, He must pronounce the judgment of condemnation upon those who refuse His hand of grace, just as He has judged those who have turned toward Jesus Christ in faith, unto righteousness. Both judgments reflect the righteousness of God. Both are perfect in representing God’s position toward mankind.

God’s throne is forever and ever: “a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of thy kingdom.” Those who love righteousness, having partaken of the righteousness of Jesus Christ, will rejoice that they have been anointed ”with the oil of gladness.” Yet, those who refuse God’s hand of grace will continue to walk under God’s judgment of condemnation. Because they do not understand who God purposed them to be in Christ, they will continue to look for purpose in the darkness, and find that peace continues to escape them. May God’s holy priesthood who, united through the Spirit, “are built up into a spiritual house”, continue to fight the good fight of faith, as they demonstrate through their lives, and through the words they speak, the good news, that Jesus Christ is the truth and the way unto eternal life.

> “Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: who hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: in whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins: who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: for by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: and he is before all things, and by him all things consist.” Colossians 1:12-16

Be Ready For Power

Geoff Pick

I AM stirring up enemies of the world's system. The powers over your nation [the United Kingdom] shall be shaken and dislodged. The god's of mammon and greed will be destroyed, as their kingdom proves empty and futile.

Only those who trust in ME shall know my peace and joy. Others will be unsettled and unable to rest.

I AM coming in power forcefully upon the earth and my people will see my hand at work for them magnified and exalted as I come to fix the mess.

In speaking out boldly I AM will release My power, at the direction of My trusted servants. Be ready to command the power that I AM clothing you with.

Be ready to declare My salvation to neighbours and friends with whom you speak and expect the moment of salvation to come quickly.

I AM redefining the boundaries, rewriting the "rule book". The now season is upon you, when those things that have seemed to take ages to occur will suddenly take place.

Be ready and walk close beside me, this is not a moment to hold back or sit back, but to strike out and capture the lost ground.

The joy of my Gospel will be known again, not the boring Gospel or the irrelevant Gospel, but the Living Word imparting life, health, wealth, wisdom and healing … breaking the hold of sin and releasing the captive souls… bringing the lost into the walls of salvation and life.

Forgive and be forgiven and know the fragrant love of MY forgiveness as never before…
"FREE… FREE!… FREE !!! "

Enjoying the life within and seeing the power of MY kingship extended across the earth.

In humility surrender and receive

[Every time we reject the things of God's Spirit because we do not fully comprehend or feel it does not fit with our ways of doing things, we are moving in the spirit of religion.]

I require a people who say
" We are really nothing before you O God come teach us. We are not experts of religion, we know how to become children of God. Our God is sovereign and we give him fully the right to move amongst us in ways that we do not know or understand. We are ready to receive all that He wishes to impart. O God we hunger in our hearts for you, we fall at your feet we shake inside in Holy fear of the Almighty. We will not sit in the judges seat. It is our lives that are to be tested and weighed and we welcome the refining fire and call upon our merciful Father."

In HIS presence we will draw near to listen, and wait for His wisdom to flow, we do not speak the words of fools.

A huge key is turned in a lock, it is the one who calls to us -
"I stand at the door and knock do not delay and resist - the moment will pass too soon", receive the light while it is shining upon you, do not hide from the flames of the Holy God, but let His light shine in and release you from all that is to your shame.

"I come that they may first surrender to me that they might be vessels who are ready and able to receive the full measure of the power that I bring".

Breaking Away
Danny Korakas

Oct 1, 2004
I find the account of and relationship of Nabal and Abigail to be one of intrigue and a prophetic signpost of what is transpiring within the religious system of today's church. The story is given to us in 1 Samuel 25. In the story we read that David and 800 of his men were in the land of Maon and in need of provision and food. Nabal, who was in the vicinity, was shearing some of the three thousand sheep that he owned. David, knowing that it was a feast time, assumed that Nabal would supply some of his surplus to the needs of his men. The Bible says Nabal was a very wealthy man. Nabal was very rich in worldly possessions, but we will soon find that he was bankrupt in spiritual wisdom and understanding. "Nabal" in the Hebrew language sounds like the word for "fool." In the Hebrew language, word play on names was very indicative of a person's natural and spiritual disposition. Nabal, as we shall read, would certainly fulfill the meaning of his name.

The wife of Nabal (Abigail) was a woman that the Bible says was not only beautiful, but of good understanding and wisdom. David, as a "type" of Christ completes the main characters that I would like to parallel in what I believe is transpiring in the church today.

"Now I (David) have heard that you have shearers. Your shepherds were with us, and we did not hurt them, nor was there anything missing from them all the while they were in Carmel." (2 Samuel 25:7)

David, in protecting Nabal's SHEPHERDS in the wilderness, thought it just and right to ask a portion of Nabal's prosperity and abundance. David sends "ten young men" who represent PROPHETIC MESSENGERS to ask Nabal to provide and give to "your servants and to your son David." (2 Samuel 25:8)

Nabal responds by denying that he even knows David. Of course this would be untrue. He surely knew ABOUT David, but did not know David personally. Nabal refused to give of himself and would not so much as offer a flask of water to the messengers. This is perplexing, considering that hospitality was the virtue of this culture and time. To add insult, Nabal says to David's messengers, "There are many servants nowadays who BREAK AWAY each one from his master." (1 Samuel 25:10)

Nabal is representative of the religious and dogmatic who know about the Lord, but do not know the Lord. Why would Nabal make this statement about "breaking away" if he didn't know about David and his relationship with Saul? David would come to a place in his life where he would remain loyal and honest to Saul, but would have to leave the leadership ordained by man and the old order for the anointing that awaited him from the Lord. Saul's SPIRITUAL JEALOUSY and INSECURITY would actually force David to pursue a greater destiny. This also would lead to Saul's ultimate downfall.

We see the same leadership traits today as well. Spiritual jealousy along with religious insecurity is forcing many to "break away" from the old order. When the young men came back to David (Who had been anointed and appointed king by the LORD at this time) and told him all that Nabal had said; David said, "Every man gird on his sword.' So every man girded on his sword, and David also girded on his sword. And about four hundred men went with David, and two hundred (Watchmen) stayed with the supplies."(2 Samuel 25:13)

I have heard and read many prophetic declarations of the judgment that is coming to various parts and facets of the world. Although I agree that God in His justice will judge the world and the one who commits evil, we must not forget that justice and judgment is manifesting in the church to an even greater degree. David, at this point, had executed judgment upon Nabal for his unwillingness to share and give of what the Lord had so generously blessed him with. Likewise, the Lord is exercising judgment upon the church system for its lack of generosity and recognition of His anointed in the wilderness.

We see this lack of recognition of those the Lord desires to anoint within youth ministries – our future. How many student pastors have equipped their juniors and seniors to win their peers to Christ? Have they won just one soul to Christ yet? Student ministers are not professional babysitters. 96% of all evangelical youth group seniors will say "no more Jesus" by the life they live after four years of secondary education! Only 4% will say "Yes" to Jesus by the life they live and confess after college. Obviously, the equipping of our young people is so pathetic that 94% are being influenced by the world, rather than changing or influencing the world. (Barna research)

The church should not be a place where "pastors" validate the money given to them by doing, teaching, and preaching everything. It should be a gathering together of believers for the purpose of encouraging and equipping one another to change the world through Christ. It is not a place where we deposit our weekly praise into our eternal account. True children of God worship as a lifestyle throughout the week. There is so much MORE than a set of hymns or three fast songs and three slow songs, the tithe and offering, and then a 30 minute word. Did God intend this to change our world and communities around us?

The church is a living organism in which EVERY body part has a part and function to fulfill. True leaders that are anointed and appointed by God, desire to facilitate others as we gather together. They enjoy seeing the common man and new convert being challenged to bring the Word on a Sunday morning! They don't need to teach and preach every Sunday and Wednesday because they trust God with HIS church. They thrive on seeing the saints of God moving in teaching, prophesying, interpreting, singing, dancing, equipping others, and expressing the love of God in how God has designed them – even if they mess up.

Many leaders have missed the purpose of coming together and have replaced it with religious tradition and fruitless agenda that has little eternal significance. Twenty-six hours a year (30minutes x 52 weeks) of sermons or lectionary outlines is not preparing the saints for their destiny and "one shot" at being a history maker for Christ. It's time to let go and be the equipping and "Davidic" leadership that the Lord is calling forth.

Nabal was not a very good leader of his household. He demonstrated past hurts and rejections by his possessive nature and unwillingness to share. His possessive nature demanded an unbiblical submission in his remark that "there are many servants nowadays who BREAK AWAY each one from his master." The "Nabal type leadership" in the church is going to receive a revelation that submission is earned through the FUNCTION and love that God has called them to and not to a TITLE. David would honor Saul as king (title) but would break away from Saul because of his failure to fulfill his FUNCTION as a righteous king. The die had been cast and justice and judgment was proclaimed over the household of Nabal for his unwillingness to help and promote whom God had anointed.

"Now one of the young men (one of Nabal's servants) told Abigail, (a type of the true church) Nabal's wife, saying, 'Look, David (a type of Christ) sent messengers (prophets) from the wilderness to greet our master: and he reviled them. But the men were very good to us, and we were not hurt, nor did we miss anything as long as we accompanied them, when we were in the fields. They were a wall to us both by night and day, all the time we were with them keeping sheep." (1 Samuel 25:14-16)

What is interesting is that the servant went to Abigail and not the "master of the house." This servant is a godly example of how discernment and communication should be used in the body of Christ. He does not GOSSIP or speak slanderous remarks about Nabal, but speaks clearly to Abigail in regard to a potentially disastrous situation that was coming to those who were related to Nabal. We also notice that Nabal was so consumed with his AGENDA that he was "ill-natured" toward anyone who would attempt to speak truth to him. This is another pitfall of insecure leadership in the church.

I started attending a new fellowship some years back (I was relatively new in town as well) and prophesied at a men's meeting that a spirit and principality of division was over the entire county. As I traveled back and forth across the county line, I could easily sense this principality that had gripped this county for many generations. There was racial division, division within churches, division within families, and divorce was permeating the fabric of this community. I prophesied that this church needed to immediately begin marital enrichment and encouragement along with strategic intercession and repentance. This "prophetic direction" didn't match the comfortable AGENDA of the "leadership." Consequently, I was promptly told that I "missed the boat." It wasn't long before an un-proportionate amount of married couples divorced and left this church. It also wasn't long before I realized that people were BREAKING AWAY from the chain of command in their communication to church leaders on spiritual related issues. The servant in this story does not go to Nabal, but to Abigail (someone who would listen attentively) for help and act upon the truth.

Abigail exercised one of the primary traits of the true prophetic mantle — the willingness to LISTEN. The natural and the spiritual mind-set are interconnected. If you do not listen attentively to people, or if your mind is on what you're going to say next rather than absorbing what someone is speaking to you, then you can assume that this is how well you truly listen to God. If we are not good listeners, we can be assured that our prophetic expression is tainted and corrupted by our fleshly thoughts and agenda. The Bible does not correct or look down upon the decision of the servant to contact Abigail. This is contrary to the demands of submission and chain of command ideals that many leaders in today's church expect and demand. If you are a leader in the church and people are talking behind your back, it is most likely due to fact that you will not listen to criticism of YOUR agenda and YOUR vision for the church. If you are a true leader, it is not about your vision anyway. It is about LISTENING and encouraging the dreams and visions of others and then being a part of helping provide a platform or medium for them to grow.

"Then Abigail made haste and took two hundred loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five sheep already dressed, five sheafs of roasted grain, one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and loaded them on donkeys. And she said to her servants, 'Go on before me; see, I am coming after you.' But she did not tell her husband Nabal." (1 Samuel 25:18-19)

Through prophetic insight and understanding, Abigail quickly considers what she must do. She gathers and prepares ALL that David had requested and goes to meet him...without telling Nabal. Abigail had to consider the problem. She then quickly determined a course of action. She implemented the plan, and then failed to seek Nabal's permission. In fact, she refused or thought it best not to tell him anything. The common and RELIGIOUS viewpoint would be that Abigail was in REBELLION toward the leadership and should be disciplined. However, in the Bible, we find quite the opposite.

"As she rode on the donkey and came down under cover of the mountain, David and his men came down toward her; and she meets them. Now David had said, 'Surely it was in vain that I protected all this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belonged to him; but he has returned to me evil for good. God do so to David and more also, if by morning I leave so much as one male of all who belong to him." (1 Samuel 25:20-22)

Abigail searches out David and finds him coming with justice and judgment. Many in Abigail's position (those coming out of ill-natured and controlling households) would have simply allowed David to pass by. However, Abigail possessed the mantle and anointing of a true prophet.

"When Abigail saw David, she dismounted quickly from the donkey, fell on her face before David, and bowed down to the ground. So she fell at his feet and said: "On me, my lord, on me let this iniquity be! And please let your maidservant speak in your ears, and hear the words of your maidservant. Please, let not my lord regard this scoundrel Nabal. For as his name is, so is he: Nabal is his name, and folly is with him! But I, your maidservant, did not see the young men of my lord whom you sent." (1 Samuel 25:23-25)

We notice that Abigail never criticizes Nabal to his face or to any another besides David. She only brought the truth to her "lord" what had been revealed to her. She goes on to display the hallmark and character of the "burden of the Lord." The PRIMARY purpose of prophetic revelation is for the purpose of INTERCESSION. Abigail assumes the responsibility for Nabal's actions. We see this common denominator in all of God's prophets – the intercession and vicarious repentance on behalf of the sins of others. To have publicly called her husband a "fool" would have placed a stigma upon his life and ruined his reputation. We see a lot of this in church today. We criticize leaders and GOSSIP to others rather than taking our discernment and concerns to the Lord. What is important is that we act and move in the AUTHORITY that the Lord has given us. Abigail stated that "I did not see the young men of my lord, whom you sent." Why would Abigail make this statement? It would not have made any difference whether or not she saw the young men if she did not have the authority to act.

"Now therefore, my lord, as the Lord lives and as your soul lives, since the Lord has held you back from coming to bloodshed and from avenging yourself with your own hand, now then, let your enemies and those who seek harm for my lord be as Nabal." (1 Samuel 25:26)

We can clearly see Abigail's prophetic insight into the heart of David. How could she have known about the recent events and mercy of David sparing Saul's life? This was a prophetic word given to David that would later bear witness in his life as he would face the accusation of bloodguilt before God. Abigail pleaded that if David followed through with his plan, he, and not Nabal, would be the guilty party. Under the law, David would have been found guilty before God in his act of RETALIATION. When we attack another believer publicly, we also, are found accused of "bloodguilt" – we kill the character and reputations of others.

Abigail demonstrated spiritual maturity in her prophetic gifting. She did not defend Nabal, but offered a prophetic word and prayer for David to fulfill God's plan and destiny for his life and that he fought for God.(1 Samuel 25:27-30) Abigail prophesied that David walked in the supernatural protection of God and that his enemies would be surely defeated. Why would he want to jeopardize such an anointing and calling upon his life? It’s too bad that David didn't remember this prophetic word in his dealings with Uriah. Not heeding this prophetic word (bloodguilt) would prohibit David from his ultimate dream and greatest purpose – the building of the Temple for the Lord's presence.

The purpose of this article is two-fold. One, is that we need to understand that the Nabal-type leadership in the church is being judged and dismantled through the BREAKING AWAY of God's people. Neither David nor the Lord chastised Abigail for breaking "rank" and moving in the authority and destiny that the Lord had called her to. We have got to come to terms with this. You have one shot at your spiritual dress rehearsal for all eternity. Our crowns are earned here on earth to be laid down "at the feet of our Lord" in heaven as we meet him. We must come to a place of understanding that "man" does not hold the keys to another's spiritual destiny and gifts. Spiritual authority comes from God and is "recognized" by man. The problem is that the church has abused the recognition (especially the "David’s" in the wilderness) of others based on agenda and misunderstandings of how God anoints certain individuals. We have a tendency as the church to validate a person's gift to the Body of Christ by our own understanding of how WE would steward or operate in that gift. The problem with this line of thought is that we are all very different in our spiritual maturity and emotional makeup. The only way to gain excellence at anything in life is to practice in an environment where mistakes are allowed to be made and encouragement and loving guidance is given as the result of mistakes.

The second is that prophetic maturity will be needed and expected from the Lord as we move into the new order and fresh wineskin of the church and bride that Christ is coming back for. We need to understand that the killing fields of gossip and slander will be an irremovable stain on our wedding garment. Like Abigail, let's not defend the Nabal system and individuals in the church. We need to speak TRUTH more than ever before...but without intercession before the Lord; our motives most likely reveal a hurt and wounded spirit.

Although Nabal would not so much as give David a flask of water, God, through the insight, understanding, and obedience of a WOMAN prophet, would supply David with two skins full of wine and more food than what David had asked for! "So David received from her hand what she had brought him, and said to her, 'Go up in peace to your house. See, I have heeded your VOICE and respected your person." (1 Samuel 25:35)

The Lord would "break away" Abigail from a life of oppression and foolishness to the destiny of being the bride to the king. Let’s break away from the Nabal mentality in the church. Let's pray and intercede for a shift in obedience to our calling as the church. So many understand and realize that something has to change, but are so unsure as of what to do. Well, maybe its time to "break away" to a fellowship of believers that will allow you to move in the authority and calling that Father has called you to. It would here that Abigail would find and marry her king.

Islam -- The Temptation
Danny Korakas

Sep 26, 2004

After Muhammad repudiated his concession that the pagan goddesses were intercessors to Islam, a conflict with the Quraysh would intensify. The Quraysh and the peoples of the Arabian peninsula had been worshiping the ancient pagan goddesses for centuries. The Quraysh approached Muhammad's uncle, Abu Talib (Abu Talib was a well to do power broker of sorts.), and demanded that he withdraw his hand of protection over the newly formed Muslims that had grown from a hand-full to a sect.

The withdraw of Abu Talib's hand of protection would almost certainly guarantee Muhammad's assassination. When Abu Talib refused, the exasperated Quraysh formed a league within Mecca's other families and clans against the Hashemites. Since the Quraysh could not prevail militarily, they chose what would be called in Arab history as the "Boycott," thus cutting off food and supplies which would force the Hashemites into an isolated corner of the cities outskirts.

The famine only worsened and provided Muhammad with a crucial question that he had to answer. He could end the boycott and famine by renouncing the protection of his family and followers which would be delivering himself up to his adversaries and face a certain death. (Children and adults alike were perishing in the midst of this boycott and famine.) Or, he could consolidate his followers to resist and fight. This of course would be seen as a declaration of war against the predominate Quraysh.

It would be during this "Boycott" that Muhammad would make his choice and forever define the difference between the founder of Christianity and the founder of Islam.

As the followers of both Christianity and Islam grew from their conception, they would both face dangerous hostilities and threats of death. The religious leaders along with the governments that were in place were antagonistic and bent on destroying these movements. It would be the RESPONSES of Jesus Christ and Muhammad that would prove to be profoundly different.

"Now when the tempter (Satan) came to Him, he said, 'If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become bread..' But He answered, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God."

Then the devil took Him up into the holy city, set Him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down . For it is written: 'In their hands they shall bear you up, lest you cast your foot against a stone." Jesus said to him, "It is written again, "You shall not tempt the Lord your God."

Again, the devil took Him up on an exceedingly high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. And he said to Him, "All these things I will give You if You will fall down and worship me." Then Jesus said to him, "Away with you, Satan! For it is written, "You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only you shall serve." (Matthew 4:3-10)

In Matthew 4:3-10, Jesus was tempted by Satan (the prince of this world system) in four (4) distinct areas.

1) Extreme hunger and the need of provision. Jesus put His trust in the Father and His promises to meet every need.

2) The stewardship of authority. Jesus only did what He saw the Father do and said what He heard the Father say – the Word incarnate.

3) Greed and lust for the power and the things of this world. Jesus' heart was set and focused on a kingdom that would be called the "Church." He was setting up an ETERNAL kingdom that neither rust nor moth would destroy.

Jesus was shown all of the kingdoms of the world and they were laid out before Him. All that Jesus had to do in this time of need was SUBMIT (submission is the meaning of Islam) to the prince of the world system and all of the pleasures therein would be His. In reality, for this to actually happen, it would need a political strategy to draw people to your side and the threat of the sword to butcher those who resisted. Jesus understood this very well along with the fact that Satan could not simply give what was not his. Only the "world system" is in the realm of his authority.

The forth temptation of Satan is almost always missed, but it is the most piercing and yet most honorable of all temptations that would forever prove the deity of Jesus Christ – "IF YOU ARE THE SON OF GOD." This temptation and statement has never been posed to any other besides the Lord Jesus Christ. Only to the real Son of God could Satan have made this remark.

While Jesus rejected the offers of Satan, events would unfold in Muhammad's life and he would choose the exact opposite road.

1) To pillage and steal in the name of "god" rather than trusting in God would be the means of acceptable provisions.

2) The idea of complete authority and a theocratic state of "submission or death" became increasingly appealing to Muhammad. True love can only come through the gift of free expression. The God of Israel - The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob - offers us the freedom to choose so that we can express and receive real and genuine love. Islam is based and thrives on forced submission and conversion. Those who choose not to submit are "infidels" and subject to death. This bondage has produced a loveless movement with an unloving "god."

3) Muhammad's personal lust for women and all that the world has to offer grew as he aged. He commanded in the Koran that a man could have only four wives, while he had 9 at one time. He demanded that 1/5th of all the plunder through raids (razzias) be given to him as "The Prophet" – as he now desired to be called. The temptation of conquering through force and attaining the kingdoms of the WORLD become the obsession of Islam and its founder.

The forth temptation defines the stark differences between Jesus and Muhammad with even more clarity. Muhammad's theology was that he was the final prophet of god. He stated that the revealed truth came to him through Gabriel. Jesus, on other hand, speaks as God Himself. Jesus came in the likeness of His creation to identify with their issues and offer a way to heaven that mankind had proved it could not accomplish. Jesus taught the importance of loving our enemy, whereas Muhammad taught that it was acceptable to kill and even rape a woman in front of her husband in times of warfare to show humiliation and superiority to a defeated foe. Jesus taught to give to those in need and that God promised to meet our every need in turn. Muhammad taught that it was acceptable to his god to steal and rob from others to meet the needs of Muslims. Jesus taught that God loves us so much that He was willing to die for us and take our sins upon Himself that we could have relationship with a Holy God. Muhammad taught of a god that demanded the murder of others with a reward of "70 virgins in heaven." There is never a mention of the god of Islam loving or caring for mankind – only judgment.

REVELATION - THE UNVEILING OF YESHUA - Number 18

After these things I saw another angel descending out of the heaven, having great authority: and the earth was lightened with his glory. And he cried with a strong voice, saying, Great Babylon has fallen, has fallen, and has become the habitation of demons, and a hold of every unclean spirit, and a hold of every unclean and hated bird; because all the nations have drunk of the wine of the fury of her fornication; and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have been enriched through the might of her luxury.

And I heard another voice out of the heaven saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye have not fellowship in her sins, and that ye do not receive of her plagues: for her sins have been heaped on one another up to the heaven, and God has remembered her unrighteousnesses. Recompense her even as she has recompensed; and double to her double, according to her works. In the cup which she has mixed, mix to her double. So much as she has glorified herself and lived luxuriously, so much torment and grief give to her. Because she says in her heart, I sit a queen, and I am not a widow; and I shall in no wise see grief: for this reason in one day shall her plagues come, death and grief and famine,and she shall be burnt with fire; for strong is the Lord God who has judged her.

And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication, and lived luxuriously with her, shall weep and wail over her, when they see the smoke of her burning, standing afar off, through fear of her torment, saying, Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! for in one hour thy judgment is come. And the merchants of the earth weep and grieve over her, because no one buys their lading any more; lading of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and pearl, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet dye, and all thyine wood, and every article in ivory, and every article in most precious wood, and in brass, and in iron, and in marble, and cinnamon, and amomum, and incense, and unguent, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and cattle, and sheep, and of horses, and of chariots, and of bodies, and souls of men.

And the ripe fruits which were the lust of thy soul have departed from thee, and all fair and splendid things have perished from thee, and they shall not find them any more at all. The merchants of these things, who had been enriched through her, shall stand afar off through fear of her torment, weeping and grieving, saying, Woe, woe, the great city, which was clothed with fine linen and purple and scarlet, and had ornaments of gold and precious stones and pearls! For in one hour so great riches has been made desolate. And every steersman, and every one who sailed to any place, and sailors, and all who exercise their calling on the sea, stood afar off, and cried, seeing the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like to the great city? They cast dust upon their heads, and cried, weeping and grieving, saying, Woe, woe, The great city, in which all that had ships in the sea were enriched through her costliness! for in one hour she has been made desolate. Rejoice over her, heaven, and ye saints and apostles and prophets; for God has judged your judgment upon her.

And a strong angel took up a stone, as a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall Babylon the great city be cast down, and shall be found no more at all; and voice of harp-singers and musicians and flute-players and trumpeters shall not be heard any more at all in thee, and no artificer of any art shall be found any more at all in thee, and voice of millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee, and light of lamp shall shine no more at all in thee, and voice of bridegroom and bride shall be heard no more at all in thee; for thy merchants were the great ones of the earth; for by thy sorcery have all the nations been deceived. And in her was found the blood of prophets and saints, and of all the slain upon the earth.

Come Out Of Her My People
David Clements

4:30 AM SUNDAY 2/22/04
Jerusalem, Israel
Mount of Olives Spoke to the Church.

I AM the redeemer, the Holy One of Israel. I redeemed you with my blood from Egypt and I led you out by my Spirit yet you have returned.

Just as Israel watched and saw the beauty and power of my presence so have my people the Church. I have visited you repeatedly yet you return to the Gates of Confusion, Babel. Even now great works calling themselves my Church have the sign of no Glory over them. I have called you out and even spoken to you and told you what to do yet you turn back.

Already judgment sits in your houses and you do not see that it is because you have turned from my ways. You have turned to the comfort of religion instead of seeking me and walking by My Spirit. For a time I have allowed this weight to sit upon you that you might return unto me yet you will not. I have warned of the working of witchcraft whereby you attempt to manipulate my blessings and keep your flesh comforted, yet you will not hear my voice.

Now I say that if you will listen to what the Spirit has to say to you, the Church, you can be restored. If you will not listen then you will perish for I Am sending a seal of judgment forth that will seal you into your delusion.

Because you have not loved truth but rather loved comfort and the systems of that evil witch Jezebel, who's city is Babylon, I will give you into your comfort.

Your comfort is no longer serving you but it is containing you and causing you great suffering. You must let go of Egypt to receive the wealth of My Presence. Do you not yet trust me?

Since Israel such a thing has not happened that a people given up their God to drink from empty cisterns. Yet you go and you go and you drink from the Babylonian Church and you never get your fill.

My manna lies in the wilderness. For in the wilderness you can still find the tabernacle of My Presence.

I Am everything that you have been searching for.

Flesh is what must be sacrificed to draw me for I detest everything that comforts your flesh and causes you to be in Bondage.

Time after time I have warned you not to even look back at this wickedness yet you have returned like a dog to his vomit. Even now you spurn this Word and say it is too hard. This is why I accuse Babylon of killing my prophets and saints. Those who I have called to lead you out have been accused and condemned because the message was not comfortable.

The message demanded too much of your flesh so you turned to Babylon for comfort because as well as a system of government she is a system of religion. Watch each time the people try to elect a Messiah when I Am your Messiah. The two systems have always been one and always will be one. You think because your occasional blessing that comes from this whore makes you feel good that it is from me. I Am not the blessings of this present world but rather the blessing of My presence is eternal and of the age to come. Money, cars, houses and the like are not blessings if they come without my Presence.

When My People was the last time you heard my voice and experienced the power of My Presence amongst you. Do you think that you will find Me in the place that I have gone from. Even Israel goes to a ruined wall to seek me while on top of this wall sits the house of a demon. Do you not think that I could visit this place again and destroy the evil that sits upon it? I left because of the evil of Israel and I have left many places that call themselves my Church because of their evil. My desire is to dwell in you.

Read then again My Church the warnings that I gave to the 7 Churches and to the leaders of those Churches. In each was a remnant and now I call that remnant out. Stop reasoning about how and when and where and just do what I have called you today. Then I will assemble you together and call My Shepard's over you and breathe new life into you. Come out and come unto me then you will willingly let go of all that you think you are holding onto. Rather "it" is holding onto you!

Receive then the final admonition to obey Me and stop arguing with My Spirit for I will soon cease to contend with you. This is the end and it becomes more perilous each day. Things will never be the same for soon increasing judgment will come to nations who depend on their armies and laws for security. Even now men stand in places of government and call themselves mine while they do evil in the backrooms of power.

Stay in Church or be the Church it is your choice. Be mine or be hers it is your choice.

Are you confused? Then understand that your confusion comes from standing in the gate of confusion, Babylon! Come then and stand in Me for I Am the Way, I Yeshua Am the Gate that leads unto eternal life. But make no mistake the way to me is still the Cross and it will crucify your flesh. You must join in the suffering of the cross to experience the power of My resurrection. Come out then before it is too late!

Where will you come? Come to me then come to one another. Open your homes up and begin to meet with one another. Not for a social gathering but for a Holy Convocation! Go back into the wilderness and find the leading of My Spirit. Even some of these that call themselves home Churches are just as fallen in rebellion as the others.

This must be by My Way and not yours. I have called and trained Holy Ones to you receive them! Learn from them as in times of old I sent ones to teach you.

Sing psalms and hymns, study my Word to be approved and learn the Way of Love. Leave behind that which I have told you to leave. Become transparent and stop putting on masks, trying to be someone else. Come and be transformed into My Image. Can you not see that you are caught in the web of your life.

Come out then and be free in Me.

Come out and be the ones I use to free others. Let the Truth set you free! Babylon is a lie and she is about to fall I call for you to come out because all is shaking now and soon the earthquake of My Spirit will bring all down, suddenly.

Birthing Revival Through Intimacy

Matt Sorger

Song of Solomon 3:1-4

The Next Move Of God Will Be Birthed Out Of Intimacy

What an incredible night we had. It was the last night of our Signs and Wonders Conference in Iowa at Heartland Assembly of God, March 13, 2004. There was a serious impartation granted by the hand of God Himself. As we went deeper into worship the glory of God came into the room. The air was heavy with His presence. As I lay on the floor soaking in His Glory the power of God so overwhelmed me, my body began to shake under the intensity of the visitation. I heard the inner audible voice of God speak to me about the next move of His Spirit. He told me "This move will not be brought by any one man. It will come from My Spirit." I then saw the Lord dancing with a baby in His hands. I knew the infant was the next move to be birthed by the hand of God. I was aware that the presence I was experiencing was the very breath of God, and a foretaste of the next wave of His Spirit.

A White Glory Mist Formed In The Rafters Of The Church

As I stood to the pulpit all I could do was bury my head in my Bible. As I held onto the podium the worship team continued to play. The Lord spoke that He would strengthen me to be able to share the word He had written on my heart. As I lifted my head I could visibly see a white mist glory cloud hovering near the ceiling of the church. Several others could see it too. It was the manifest glory of God. All around the sanctuary people were weeping and shaking - some on their knees and some standing. The Lord was impregnating us with the seed of revival. He began to speak to me that revival would be birthed out of intimacy.

He brought me to Genesis 1:2 "The earth was without form and void; and darkness was on the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters."

Then to Genesis 2:7 "And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being."

The Breath Of God Was Released

During our time in worship the Holy Spirit hovered over us the way He overshadowed Mary when she became pregnant with the Christ child (Luke 1:35). There was a genuine seed of revival deposited in our spirits. At one point during worship, the manifest breath of God, the "ruach" of God, was breathed into us and we were filled with new life. The worship leader could no longer stand behind his keyboard but could only lie across the altar groaning under the weight of His presence. It was like when the cloud of glory filled Solomon's temple and the priests could no longer stand to minister because of the cloud (2 Chron. 5:14).

The Lord spoke to me about this next move being birthed out of intimacy. He brought me to Song of Solomon 3:1-4:

> "By night on my bed I sought the one I love; I sought him, but I did not find him.
> "I will rise now," I said, "And go about the city; in the streets and in the squares I will seek the one I love."
> I sought him but I did not find him. The watchmen who go about the city found me; I said "Have you seen the one I love?"
> Scarcely had I passed by them, when I found the one I love. I held him and would not let him go, until I had brought him to the house of my mother, and into the chamber of her who conceived me."

Five Important Principles From The Song Of Solomon

There were several important principles the Lord revealed to me out of this account of the Shulamite woman searching for her Beloved:
1) She was so longing for the One she loved, that she was willing to be inconvenienced in the middle of the night to get out of bed to go search for Him. She couldn't wait till morning. The Lord is causing His church to arise out of the bed of our comfort and complacency to search for Him.

2) She didn't find Him right away. She had to look and search for Him. The Lord is not always easily found. Sometimes there has to be a persistent search for God until we find Him.

3) The watchmen couldn't tell her where He was. There are those times where we need to find God for ourselves. We can't live off of someone else's experience or anointing. We have to dig our own well and find the presence, power and anointing of God in our own lives. Other people's testimonies can encourage us. But we must always press in to find God for ourselves.

4) When she finally found Him she wouldn't let Him go. When we find the Lord we must not be easily satisfied. Many times when we are spiritually seeking and pressing in to God, we get a taste of His presence and then stop seeking or holding onto Him. This is where we miss it. We must be like Jacob who wrestled with the Angel of the Lord all night until He blessed him. He would not let Him go. This is how we must be with the Lord. We must not let Him go until we have the fullness of what He wants to bless us with. When Jacob wrestled with God there was a name change from Jacob to Israel. He went from "Deceiver" to "Prince with God." There was a deep transformation that took place in Jacob. As we wrestle with God and refuse to let Him go until we have His full blessing and favor, there will also be a deep transformation in us as we become more like Him, being transformed into His image.

5) They entered the chamber of intimacy. This is where new birth is conceived, in the secret place with God. It is in this chamber of deep intimate love with God that His seed of revival is imparted into us.

The Overshadowing Of God's Spirit

The next move of the Spirit will be birthed out of this place of intimacy with God, with the overshadowing of God's Spirit in our lives. Psalm 91 declares "He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty." The shadow of God is the place where His glory covers our lives. It's a place of refuge and protection from all the plots of the evil one. It's also the place where God infuses His strength and life into us.

In Genesis 1:2-3 there is a creative force and life released under the hovering of the Holy Spirit in Creation. Under the shadow of the Spirit there is creative power and authority released to bring order out of chaos and light out of darkness. It was under the shadow of the Holy Spirit that God spoke creation into existence. When we are under His shadow there is a creative power released in us and through us to declare into existence those things that God desires to manifest in the earth.

In Luke 1:31, 35-38, it was under the overshadowing of the Spirit that Mary became pregnant with the Christ child. What was impossible became possible. The supernatural became natural. The key to Mary receiving the impartation she received from God, to carry the seed of the greatest move of the Spirit in history, the birth of the Son of God, was her simple act of agreement. Her response to the Lord was "Let it be done unto me according to your word." In verse 45 it says "Blessed is she who believed, for there will be a fulfillment of those things which were told her from the Lord." God just needs our agreement and simple faith to receive the fullness of all He wants to give us.

As the presence of the Holy Spirit overshadows His church in this hour, there is coming an impartation to carry the seed of the next move of God. The secret place of intimacy with the Lord is vitally important to receiving the fullness of all He wants to birth in the earth. It will be out of this place of abiding under His shadow that the creative force and power of His Spirit will be released in our lives, including the move of extraordinary signs, wonders and miracles. This demonstration of God's power through His people will be a direct result of the time spent in the secret place, under the shadow of His glory. We must guard our time with God and guard the seed He places in us. Out of the secret place of intimacy will come the release of life and power to see the glory of God cover the face of the earth.

Bronze Serpents And Golden Ephods Revisited

Danny Korakas

Dec 18, 2004

"The people came to Moses and said, 'We sinned when we spoke against the Lord and against you. Pray that the Lord will take the snakes away from us.' So Moses prayed for the people. Then the Lord said to Moses, 'make a serpent and put it on a pole.' So Moses made a bronze serpent and put it up on a pole. Then when anyone was bitten by a snake and looked at the bronze serpent, he lived." (Num. 21:7-9)

"And he (Gideon) said, "I do have one request, that each of you give me an earring from your share of the plunder. (This was in reference to the defeat of the Ishmaelites whose custom it was to wear earrings) Gideon made the gold into an ephod which he placed in Ophrah, his town. All Israel prostituted themselves by WORSHIPING it there, and it became a snare to Gideon and his family." (see Judges 8)

BUT: "Hezekiah did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, just as his father David had done. He removed the high places, smashed the SACRED stones and cut down the asherah poles. He broke into pieces the BRONZE SERPENT that Moses had made, for up to that time the Israelites had been burning incense to it."

What is interesting about both the bronze serpent and the golden ephod is that they were never intended to hurt or harm God's people. On the contrary, quite the opposite, especially the bronze serpent. Even the golden ephod may have had good INTENTIONS. However, there was something about these two objects that became a disaster for God's people because they eventually led to a departure from TRUE worship.

We read in the Bible that because of the people's COMPLAINING and insolent WORDS, God sent poisonous snakes into their camp to discipline them. Well, this certainly brought forth an attitude change in the hearts of the people! The people of course quickly repented and God directed Moses to mold a snake and set it on a pole in the middle of the camp. Anyone who was bitten and dying would live by simply looking at the Lord's provision for their healing. Those who refused to look at "God's" PROVISION died.

We see clearly in John 3:14 that what may have been perceived as a strange way for God to heal was to be a "type" or a picture of God's way of forgiving and healing us from our sin and sickness through Jesus' death on the cross. It would seem that the Lord would instruct Moses to mold a bronze lamb. After all, "Jesus is the "Lamb" of God who takes away the sin of the world." However, it is clear in Galatians 3:12 that He (Jesus) became a curse for us. "He was made sin on our behalf." (2 Cor.5:21) And He Himself bore our sins in His body on the cross.

The Israelites were careful to preserve this bronze serpent for about 10 generations! However, over the years it became a religious relic and icon. So much so, that it resulted in the abandonment of worship in spirit and truth. I would like us to look closely at the scripture verse to "worship the Lord in spirit and truth." First of all, can you see spirit in a literal sense? Of course not, the Bible says that the Spirit is invisible and like the wind. We truly worship in spirit when we do not NEED the external VISION of a choir, a worship band, or a Sunday morning occasion. These are certainly wonderful expressions in themselves; however, do we REQUIRE them (What is visible) to live a life of worship? Do we need events or icons in our lives to stimulate us or "get us in the mood" to worship Him who is invisible? Father desires worship that is from our heart and INTERNAL. He desires that we have such an intimate and personal relationship with Him that we do not need people or external things to MOTIVATE us to draw near. The Lord desires that we draw near because of our love for Him. The word "truth" in the original Hebraic context and language means "to be hidden." We worship in "Spirit and Truth" when we do not require what is seen or to be seen.

The Bible continues to say that until Hezekiah's time the Israelites had even burned incense to the bronze serpent! Burning incense is a "type" and picture of sacrificial prayer. We can see that even the prayer life of the people had become "RITUALIZED." Sadly, we see many denominations encouraging "canned prayers" -- as if these were to move the heart of the Father when all along what really moves His heart is a REAL and genuine conversation from OUR heart. Our Lord just wants us to be real. I know this may seem judgmental, but it is not meant to be -- to have a personal prophecy spoken to me with "Thus saith the Lord" puts me in the "really" judge this prophecy mode! I mean, I never speak to my Father in Old English and neither does He to me. We have ritualized with tradition so much of the church (even the prophetic movement) that even its language has become a "bronze serpent" in the name of the Lord!

As I continue, it is important that we stay focused on the "SYSTEM" and not the people who have been innocently INOCULATED over the course of years by the traditions of men. Hezekiah destroyed this stumbling block of ritual and traditions of man and revival broke out in the land. It is becoming obvious that the Lord is raising up men and women CALLED to destroy the bronze serpents and golden ephods of the church. Imagine the persecution Hezekiah must have endured -- even being king. I would imagine that the RELIGIOUS community was outraged. I mean, after all, wasn't this a God-given object? After all, wasn't this the object that God had told Moses to mold for the salvation of His people so many centuries ago? The Bible says, however, that Hezekiah's destroying of the bronze serpent was good and right in God's eyes. It seems on the surface to be contradictory. But the issue at hand was making spiritual OBJECTS (including man) and practices an obstruction to our relationship with the Lord. Father does not desire that we go to "man" for our AFFIRMATION, but to Him --only He can fulfill our deepest relational needs. He does not delight in our RELIGIOUS PRACTICES, but in our RELATIONAL PURSUIT.

It is true that we are directed by the Lord to fellowship, meet together for worship and to share in God's word, but these times of meeting can digress into prideful denomination and non-denominational TRADITION. Preserving our religious traditions, rituals and forms that are so predictably man-made can become more focused upon than worshiping the Lord in Spirit and truth. It's time we, like Hezekiah, gain the courage to confront in wisdom and love the bronze serpent the church has become in hampering the spiritual and relational growth of believers.

Gideon's golden ephod is another idea that seemed good on the surface -- only to go bad. Gideon did right in that he turned down the people's request to become king. Gideon knew that God alone was to be their King. "I will not rule over you, nor shall my son rule over you. The Lord shall rule over you." (Judges 8:23) It began to go bad when Gideon REQUESTED a financial reward for his services. The DESIRE for gold from man rather than INHERITANCE from God among leaders has normally spelled their ruin. The Bible says that each person only gave one earring, but combined corporately it amounted to one thousand 1,700 shekels (over 40 pounds of gold)! Gideon had the gold molded into a golden ephod and set it up in his home town.

The parallel is that we are "arm twisted" and requested to give a financial reward to the "system" in order to make our golden ephods for our cities. You have heard me state many times before that millions of dollars are invested in dead cement stones for buildings instead of investing in needy living stones. Whether it be those who are scrapping to keep their lights on and feed their children or those who need an investment into their spiritual gift and destiny. How are the resources of your congregation being spent? What is being fashioned and built -- dead or living stones? I'll tell you what is sad: Is that many of these people in need of finances are being told they are in their financial position because they don't tithe!

Those who need a spiritual investment to see their ministries launched are played like a second fiddle to a building, program, or someone across seas who is more worthy of "God's" money. This is essentially leadership not stewarding the "TALENT" that has been given them. They bury it and soon find it taken from them and given to another! And they wonder why their congregations are not growing ...A wonderful article has been circulating this week written by David Ravenhill titled "Modern Day Money Changers." He exposes and confirms the modern day hucksters who are getting wealthy at the expense of God's people. He encourages us to be very discerning in giving to these money mongers that prey upon people's emotions. He goes on to encourage giving more to the local church. However, I must say that I find the same abuses in the local churches as I do with the "religious idols." (ministry superstars)

"Then Gideon made it into an ephod and set it up in his city, Ophrah. And all Israel played the harlot with it there. It became a SNARE to Gideon and to his house." (Judges 8:27) Gideon had the gold molded into a replica of a priestly garment that was solely intended for the high priest. The root problem here is that Gideon was not a priest in the Old Testament pattern. Gideon's intentions may have been good, but it became a snare to him and his house because it did not line up with God's Word. Gideon tried to replicate a ministry FUNCTION that God had not called him to. The result is that it would eventually lead the people astray from true and heart-felt worship and obedience.

There are many in ministry who are called to the function of "pastor." However, many are also trying to replicate themselves as that of prophet, apostle, evangelist or teacher. The Lord did not ordain that ephods be made of gold, but of cloth. In the same way, we are made and designed to be a particular BODY PART with its unique abilities and functions. It's high time that 1 Corinthians 12 be established in the church once again with each member fulfilling their part and destiny. Why do we desire to be called Doctor, (Doctor? Give me a break.) Reverend (Most Revered) or Pastor? Does the rest of the body of Christ go by a title -- like "Nurse Sue" or "Architect Joe?" It is not the title, but the function that validates our ministries. And if this is true, then why do you need a title ...Has the title of bond-servant become rejected in the lust for recognition within the church?

The golden ephods today are elaborate building projects and programs that do not line up with God's Word and the people who institute them. People who no longer proclaim the Word of God in truth and have strayed from Biblical foundations have become golden ephods. They are wolves in sheep's clothing preying on the needy and oppressed. Just as in Gideon's time, "golden earrings" are collected with promises not based on truth and principle. Buildings and MINISTRIES have become objects of worship because of the worldly desire for power and position. Yes, one of the churches greatest objects of worship is the ministry IDOL.

This prophetic word is important in that the Bronze Serpent and Golden Ephods in the church hinder the growth of God's people. The SYSTEM becomes empowered while the people perish for lack of VISION. The focus becomes religion rather than relationship with Christ. It functions with one-man ministry rather than each joint supplying its part Unfortunately, many leaders can become so enamored with their own ministry TRADITIONS that they will go to any length to preserve them ... just like the bronze serpent when it has departed from its original purpose and function.

Be Set Free
Carla Rickard

We had a wonderful time in the Lord last night. I was not sure what the Lord would have me speak on. The message was not prepared fully and I felt as though there was something important that was to be said, and I didn't know what that would be! I was dried up. However the Lord did tell me he wanted me to talk about offense and strongholds. Here is what the Lord by His Spirit brought forth to all of us at the same time last night.

Colossians 2
[16] Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:
[17] Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.
[20] Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances,
[21] (Touch not; taste not; handle not;

TAKING OFFENSE
Offense by definition means to be repulsed by something or to become resentful. It doesn't just mean to have your pride insulted. It is a more severe than a moment of ego deflation. It is the cause of roots of bitterness that create strongholds in our lives.

STRONGHOLD
noun 1. military defensible place: a place that is fortified or that can easily be defended

2. concentrated area: a place where a particular group, activity, or set of opinions is concentrated
There was much covered in this study but for the sake of time, it will be condensed to a few major points.
The Lord showed us that when offense occurs we retreat to a fortified place where we remain. It is in this safe place that we can become trapped having no one enter or no one leave. If an offense isn't quickly dealt with and healing takes place, we will build these areas of fortification in which to retreat when an attack comes. This is especially true when the same form of attack occurs to our person over and over again. This is the most powerful tool of the enemy against us. Once the enemy can get you to TAKE offense and bring you into a place where you become resentful and defensive, he has managed to get you to operate out of a stronghold. All your life experiences will occur out of operating from behind this fortification. The Lord does not want us locked away but in liberty. Once you are operating out of a stronghold you lose freedom. You must remain in that area to defend the " place".

To break strongholds in our lives, we must take its head off. The head of a stronghold is the OFFENSE. The Lord tells us to flee from evil. Offense is an evil and its important to remove yourself from the situation or person used in the attack, so that the Lord can do a quick healing work on you. Otherwise you will be vulnerable to greater attacks that will build deeper fortifications.

There are many methods in which to do so. But first it should be mentioned that many of us have had many attacks of offense and now fully operated, or at least close to that capacity, in the area of stronghold! This area leaves us vulnerable. No one leaves or no one enters the stronghold.

There are only a few ways to break a stronghold and most of them will be from the inside. A place so well protected and defended is not easily penetrable. Knowing God's Love and acceptance of us is the only way to break a stronghold that has been well fortified for many years. Love will burn a whole through those walls over time.

The best way to break a strong hold before it becomes a habitual stronghold, is to cut off the head of offense. Without an attack or PERCEIVED attack, the enemy can not push back the army of God into stronghold positions.

Sometimes the way to cut off the head of defense is to remove ourselves from the line of fire until healing can take place. If we do not, we are at risk of being hit with many more attacks of Offense creating greater strongholds! It is not wrong to retreat and receive healing. It is wrong to give up. To overcome we must be able to take the time that God can heal our wounds. We are not to LIVE in those wounds, but to quickly take the measures necessary in the Lord to recover. Many times we end up living in strongholds is because we have not taken care of ourselves as we should by allowing time to heal small wounds. Without that time, the wound becomes infected and can make sick the rest of the body!

That may look like cutting off relationships with certain individuals whom the enemy uses to send the spirit of attack. One can retreat in the Peace of God without causing offense to those whom you must pull back from.

Once this is done and the Lord can use that time alone with you to mend your wounds, you will not retreat into a stronghold so easily! But you will be strengthened through the healing. You will receive Wisdom and understanding so that when the same type of attacks come at you again, you will know how to stand without taking it in and avoiding your stronghold!

By not functioning out of a stronghold that had been developed by many years of offenses, you are not as subject to the attacks of offense!

The only stronghold we should have is Jesus Christ!
There is another point the Lord made to us that night and it is this. Our cross that we are to pick up and carry, is our own human nature. When we carry it, we are worthy of Christ Jesus for He was known as the Son of Man, the Man of Sorrows.

When the Lord said he came to give us life and life more abundantly, he wasn’t just referring to good times. He was giving us permission to feel, to experience in fullness! If that means our pain is more intense, it also means our Joy is more intense! If we have much for ashes, then we have greater beauty!

Keep these close to your heart as you meditate on the first scripture of Colossians. Let No Man! Be free to be you! Christ Jesus loved WHO YOU ARE AS YOU ARE enough that He made a way to the Father when there seemed to be no way!

Some Supporting Scriptures (obviously there are many more!)
1 Corinthians 10:29
Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?
2 Corinthians 3:17
Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.
Galatians 2:4
And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:

Be strong and courageous, for I am surely with you. I am with you, and I will hold you secure in Me.

In days of old, men walked seeking after the heart of the living God in a way that is not understood by men today. Men walked according to My promises. My promises were just and true then, just as they are today. But know this, beloved: You have the better covenant. You have a covenant of great purity. The purity lies in My shed blood on your behalf. The purity lies in My accomplishment for you.

My heart is to move you forward. I want you to know this with a certainty. I want you to cling to this truth with all of your heart. I am with you. Be strong! Be courageous. I am on your side, just as I was on the side of your forefathers. I am on your side, and I will see you arrive safely into your inheritance of glory. I will see you arrive into that place of wonder in Me.

What is this place like? What must you expect? I tell you, beloved, the fruit in this place is beyond your expectation. The soil in this land is rich for planting, and yields a high crop.

So do not despair when the enemy tells you that this territory is filled with giants. Do not despair! For I am with you, holding you secure, and this territory belongs to the Lord God Almighty and His chosen, and every where you place your foot belongs to you, beloved. It belongs to you, for I have spoken My heart on this matter, and My truth remains. My truth lives forever.

I am calling for My children to come forward into formation. I have prepared this formation for you to apprehend the enemy and his cohorts. This is the hour when truth will arise in your hearts in a spectacular way. So get your hearts ready to enter the promised inheritance. Get ready to MOVE, beloved. I want you ready to move – NOW!

Joy, Joy, Joy!
Mary Clark

In a vision, I saw Someone write something in a language that I could not read. Then the Lord told me that it said “Joy, Joy, Joy!!!”

Joy, joy, joy is what I am about to present to those who are called My own – joy unspeakable and full of glory. Yes, it is on the way. It is certainly on the way, My beloved. So get your hearts ready to receive all that they can contain. Get your minds ready to stand in amazement at My goodness to you, and know that the time has arrived when you will see much that I have spoken about to you.

It is on the way. It is certainly on the way. Watch for the signs of My approaching goodness in your vicinity, and know that the time is here, the time is right, and the time will benefit from the splendorous activity that I am bringing to all who will receive...

Between The Green And The Gray

Bob Neumann

Last Sunday morning I had one of those strange experiences that jumped back and forth between the REAL WORLD and THE VALLEY OF VISION. Now I have been thinking on it since then and acutely aware of the flow of THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT at this time. Brother Bill Somers wrote a great article called "THE SACRED COWS OF BIBLE STUDY". But it came at the right time and place for my whole attention. In our correspondence he shared with me his article on "THE ULTIMATE REPAIR KIT". It seems that both of us have been prompted to look at THE KEYS OF THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN. Likewise we are both concerned about the "SACRED COWS" that inhibit the growth and development of THE CHILDREN OF GOD.

Sunday morning as a family we went out to lunch. We were going to meet another couple at a restaurant. This is something people do all the time. But something went wrong. I missed a turn I had made before. The problem was the "sign" I watch for "was not there". So I "got lost" for about 10 minutes. Now I knew within a mile or so that "something was WRONG". I just could not figure how I could miss my turn. That may have been the problem, I was triggering my thinker rather than stopping and turning around. I just kept going expecting to find a "familiar road". Only I did not.

Eventually I confessed to my wife I was "lost" and had to go home to "find" the "RIGHT ROAD". Only I was not sure where to turn. You have to understand that I live on the continental divide. The roads are "narrow", the usual two lanes with no shoulders. Go off the road anywhere and you have deep trouble. Eventually I came to a place to where I could "see" beyond the dips and curves of the road. What I saw was a "peak". One of the few around Mount Mitchell. I could "see" it and it is a "landmark". Only I "knew" it was almost 40 miles away no matter which road I took. It "looked" close....but was not. Mt Mitchell is over 6000 feet high and it's sisters top 5000. I was at about 2500 feet and all I could see was the green of the peak and the gray overcast sky. Everything just blends. Hard to differentiate distance when everything "blends together".

Eventually we found a familiar road and got home. So we started out again for our appointed lunch. Now when I came to where I "expected" to see the "SIGN" that marked my "TURN" I slowed down to a crawl. There was no sign...just green. Everything was green. Here in North Carolina we have "KUDZU". A super fast growing "ground cover" that can defy the law of gravity. The "sign"..."landmark"...I expected to see was covered by kudzu. In fact kudzu covers everything in it's path.

In the SPIRIT we have "kudzu" growing well. It covers the signs and landmarks that we have grown used to. We spirit-filled believers are cruising down our roads confident in our "memories" of what should be. Only things have changed. The coming storm has left us an overcast sky so THE SON can not be seen. And all across the land KUDZU has simply taken over and covers everything. Miss one turn and you are lost.... for awhile.

Eventually you realize that you are LOST...and then you turn around and go back. This is the idea of repentance. And you got to "go back" and find the "right road". The GREEN and the GRAY blend in the distance. We can see THE MOUNTAIN OF GOD, but not THE ROAD to get there. Many people say straight is the path. Only JESUS said STRAIGHT IS THE GATE...the PATH is NARROW. Now THE PATH can be straightened. That is the job of HIS SERVANTS.

JESUS came to show us THE WAY...THE TRUTH...THE LIFE. The only way to ETERNAL LIFE is that we "we pick up our cross and follow HIM". The only ones who can follow are those who HEAR HIS VOICE. We are at a time where there are many voices, many distorted images. Lots of places where we can miss the turn we know we have to make. But the road looks the same when you have no idea in which direction are traveling. Sometimes you have to screech to a stop and acknowledge something is wrong.

It is not fun to realize you are on the wrong road going nowhere you are sure of. It is not easy to admit you need directions to get where you desire to go. But that is why HE GAVE TO US THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT. Now all we need is to listen and obey. That too is hard...sometimes.

Blood Transfusion Life Impartation

olds@intrastar.net

Blood transfusion is what I am hearing today
Love is a blood transfusion
In Christ's love, we have blood for each other as His body and for the nations.
Blood = life.
Impartation = transfusion.
Anointing = life = impartation = transfusion.

When the word says their blood cries out...He means life cries out. Life cries out for impartation, transfusion, to be sustained forever. Life cries out for anointing.

The Lord has shown me that what has happened to us during our earthly lifetime has seemed unbearable at times, but it has been for our good.

He has shown me that I was persecuted even before I had an anointing, and so were you, if you belong to the Lord. If you are truly going after God and hearing His voice, all the circumstances that brought you to this place were in His foreknowledge and He allowed these things to get you here today. The circumstances and persecutions to come will bring you to perfection.

When my natural father chose alcohol over his baby daughter, he basically persecuted me. When he left us, he rejected me. My blood has cried out ever since he drove off that day when I was three years old. However, I see now, everything that has happened, every rejection, every persecution, every disappointment was allowed for my own "good" because God foreknew where He would have me in the fullness of time. God has definitely caused all things to work together for good in my life because He foreknew that I loved him and was called according to His purposes, even before I knew it.

When we come to see that everything that has gone on in our lives has brought us to where we are in Christ in this present day, disappointment, frustration, dissatisfaction and bitterness will FLEE. We can finally THANK THE LORD IN ALL THINGS. What a blow to our enemy's agenda! And oh what victory as we step over the graves of defeat and death into LIFE ETERNAL AND ABUNDANT!

Look at things as they are in the natural. How many times have you heard advertisements pleading for blood. "We do not have enough blood to give transfusions." "We have a blood shortage."

Remember? God said "TRANSFUSION".
Remember? He said:
Love is a blood transfusion In Christ's love, we have blood for each other as His body and for the nations.
Blood = life.
Impartation = transfusion.

So what the world is saying in the natural, reflects what is going on too often in His church. The church does not have enough BLOOD (LIFE) to give transfusions (IMPARTATION). The church is not walking and LIVING in the LOVE that imparts LIFE. We have a blood shortage. We have a LOVE shortage. We have a LIFE shortage. We need a transfusion! We cry and groan for it.

What has kept the church in this perpetual "blood shortage"?

Too long Cain’s sacrifice has been honored in the church, even KNOWING that Cain’s sacrifice was never approved of God. Sacrifice requires blood to spill, and life to be given over to Him. Cain’s sacrifice glorified the works of Cain’s own hands and made CAIN look good.Cain has thrived in a humanist religious setting. But Cain’s sacrifice has NO BLOOD IN IT. NO LIFE. NO ANOINTING. NO LOVE. But whenever Cain realizes that his sacrifice is no longer honored, Abel is persecuted and dies at his hands. Abel is now dying daily as God separates the holy from the profane. Cain is NOT happy, and Abel’s blood is spilling worldwide.

We see here the separation of wheat and tares. Wheat sheds its blood and gives up its life for others. Tares seek to save their own lives and continually offer up the “fruit of their hands” as a sacrifice. Wheat is gathered to die of all earthly ties and reach perfection in Christ, and tares are bundled for burning with nothing left to show they even existed.

People from persecuted nations have said many times: If you are NOT being persecuted, even to the point of bloodshed, you might need to find out why! This grain of wheat HAS to fall to the ground and die to produce the FULL EAR. Only the FULL EAR can HEAR the voice of the Lord. . Persecution brings the grain down, to go into the earth and take root. Persecution brings forth the LIFE-CRY that God HEARS. His golden censer is FILLED with prayers from the FULL EARS who have cried out. Persecution because we are in this LOVE, this LIFE in HIS NAME, marries us to the Lamb forever! The FULL EAR will hear the FULLNESS OF GOD, and know Him forever.

Life cried out in me the other night, it was one of many nights over the years, and I know that He heard my cries. I also know that if you are truly His, your life, your blood is crying out too. The Abel in us will cry louder now, as we join the cries of the saints under the altar. He WILL vindicate. He WILL avenge our blood. He DID come that we may have LIFE and that more abundantly. We can say as Job did, "I know my redeemer lives...and though my flesh be destroyed, yet with my eyes I WILL SEE GOD."

The Lord also spoke about blood types. In the natural there are people with a certain blood type that makes them UNIVERSAL DONORS. Jesus’s blood is of that type. And when we receive His blood transfusion (anointing, impartation, LIFE, and LOVE), we, too, become UNIVERSAL DONORS. Remember He said “We have blood for each other in His body AND for the nations.”

Are you ready for the blood transfusion of a LIFE TIME from the DONOR whose blood is given for all? Are you ready to be a UNIVERSAL DONOR for your brothers and sisters in the Lord AND for the nations?

I believe I am.

Blessings and shalom.

Blood Out Of A Turnip
Becky McLendon

I don't know how many times I heard my mother say you can't get blood out of a turnip. What a prophetic statement. We can say about many religious “meetings” and organized fellowship programs: "I came here to get life and all I get is turnips.” To be honest, it’s like being at a funeral, when you cannot get a blood transfusion. A body is kept alive by the BLOOD that flows through it, NOT by turnip juice. Turnip juice can save no one.

When people don’t pray for each other in the anointing of Jesus, it is an unequal yoke. Married couples, groups of people, and whole congregations of people: if they do not pray in the anointing for one another, and truly love and care for one another, they are not giving life to each other. There is a blood shortage; a life shortage; a love vacuum. They cannot give blood if they don't pray for each other. They cannot give blood if they constantly criticize each other and demand to have their own needs met, their own agenda satisfied. They are like a turnip trying to give blood. You can’t get water out of a rock or blood out of a turnip.

And how can they give blood except they are sent? Turnips force their own brand of religiosity upon others and say it is all “in the name of Jesus,” but there is no LIFE in what they do. We don’t want to be a turnip. . Turnip preachers don’t give blood. No life impartations there. And turnip preachers “turn up” everywhere. Turnip preachers preach to turnips in the turnip patch, and give forth only turnip juice.

Turnips are also like broken cisterns, and broken cisterns don't have blood. Neither do clouds without water, or vinegar and gall. Only that Fountain filled with blood has blood. And only if all our fountains are in Him, can WE give blood, impart life!

We drove past a church one night...I saw all those cars around it, and the Lord asked: “What is it they are getting?“ He then said, “Nothing.” Then He revealed about the transfusion. He said, “Like the Blood Banks of the world, they have no blood for transfusions...Nothing to impart.” That is sad...it was known as a "spirit filled" church. He said, “They go to sing, dance clap, fall down at the altar, cry a tear, say amen and put money in a plate for the newest building project, but they get no blood. No life is imparted to them.” Turnip juice. And His people perish.

He said: “YOU CANNOT LOVE WITH THIS LOVE WITH OUT GIVING SOME ONE SOME OF THIS BLOOD.”

Jesus couldn’t love with this love without giving His blood, without imparting LIFE to us. What makes US who are made in the likeness of His image any different towards others? He did not come that we may produce TURNIP JUICE. He came to transfuse us that WE can transfuse others with this LIFE, in this LOVE.

So let him that hath an ear to hear this receive a blood transfusion, and go PREACH THIS GOSPEL that transfuses, imparts LIFE. Leave the turnips in the turnip patch for the varmints to feast on.

Blessings and shalom,

Becky

Breaking Through
Brenda Dowdin

2-4-4
Beloved ~

This last season has been a season of winter, dying to self. A stripping, a pruning, a place of transparency, vulnerability.....a time to let the light of the Father shine upon new places in our hearts to bring cleansing and healing. "With every new level of light (or glory) reveals an old level of darkness!", a quote from Jim Goll! The Lord's asking us to ascend, and in the ascending it reveals the "high places" in us that still need to come down.....the areas that oppose the spirit of the Lord. Ouch!

For the last six weeks or so I've been very still before the Lord. Waiting only on Him, and Him alone! David learned to wait on the Lord, and it is in the waiting that the "Father's strategies" come forth, as I will confirm with scripture.

I am sensing today to release some things the Lord has placed in my heart. I speak these things as I am still also walking them out myself. We must walk the word to have true authority to speak it out!

In this time of waiting the Lord directed me to several specific scriptures and began to "down load" what I sensed to be His heart......

2 Sam 5:6-8 "And the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, who spoke to David, saying, "You shall not come in here; but the "blind and the lame" will repel you, " thinking, "David cannot come in here." Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion (that is, the city of David). Now David said on that day, "Whoever climbs up by way of the water shaft and defeats the Jebusites (the lame and the blind, who are hated by David's soul), he shall be chief and captain." Therefore they say, "The blind and the lame shall not come into the house."

Keep in mind we are the place where his glory dwells, a spiritual house!

David had to defeat the enemies in his own city first, Jerusalem, the City of David. This speaks of the "blind and the lame" spirit. The sewage or strongholds in our own lives. He had to overcome the things at home (inward break through) in order to march forward and possess the promised lands (the outward breakthroughs)!

As I was waiting on the Lord, I sensed him showing me that these two strongholds, "the blind" and "the lame", speak of the disabilities within us that have held us back. The "blind spirit" comes against our "vision" (with out vision we perish!) and "the lame" comes against our ability to move forward in to our "God given destiny" our very DNA and purpose for which He formed us. The lame spirit comes against our ability to move forward in ministry, our transportation, our feet, our movement in Him and through out the earth!

These strongholds are mindsets, roots of bitterness, anything within us that opposes the spirit of the Lord moving completely through us and us completely yielded to him. This can pertain to an individual or corporately as a ministry......!

The Lord is asking us to let Him deal with these areas in our hearts. He's very serious about this! It is His tender mercies to deal with them now. There is a special season, a "window of opportunity" to have these areas dealt with gently and delicately, "if" we will, but yield to His spirits dealings during this time...... He will cut off the old, the negative and everything that has held us captive and held us back IF we will yield!

2 Sam 5:10 "So David went on and became great, and the Lord God of hosts was with him." 2 Sam 5:17-20 "Now when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David King over Israel, all the Philistines went up to search for David. And David heard of it and went down to the stronghold. (David was able to go to His stronghold of home because he had dealt properly with the things on the home front! It left no foot hold for the enemy to attack!)

The Philistines also went and deployed themselves in the Valley of Rephaim. So David inquired of the Lord, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my hand? And the Lord said to David, "Go up, for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into your hand." So David went to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them; and he said, "The Lord has broken through my enemies before me like a breakthrough of water." Therefore he called the name of that place Baal Perazim."

Ok, once we have dealt with the "inward stuff" then comes the "outward". The things that are staring you in the face that look like insurmountable mountains that would take an earthquake to move them out of your way!

The Philistines were the "Giants" in the land (they represent those mountains), but as David "waited" on the Lord, the Lord, a mighty man of war, gave David his strategies. And the Lord came through for him like a mighty wall of water!

When I was a kid my brothers and I had a three foot swimming pool. We went around and around in this little pool and suddenly the lining, (without warning) went under the frame and the water, the pool and three kids went sailing down the sidewalk into my moms rose garden. The force of the water was incredible, not to mention a lot of fun, we felt like we were surfing. When God brings His break-through it will be like a mighty rushing wall of water, that no force can or would even dare to try and stop.

He is looking for a remnant people who are willing to be dealt with to the point of bringing them into a higher level of purity for the his end time purposes.

Look at this scripture with me. 1 Sam 22:2 "And everyone who was in distress, everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented gathered to him. So he became captain over them. And there were about four hundred men with him." These men were David's remnant army!

What kind of person does it take to want break through bad enough to endure the fires of affliction to bring us to a place of purity, to a place where the Lord can really use us effectively???

I'll tell you what kind! Men and women who are in "DISTRESS, IN DEBT AND DISCONTENTED~ HOLY DISCONTENTMENT~!!! That is the mix it will take, are you desperate enough, and want it bad enough to face what ever hell that may come your way for your break through???

David took these four hundred men and led them apostolically in to victory after victory in to their prophetic destiny. They over came ALL the Lord's enemies, every single one of them! And David's kingdom had peace after they defeated the enemies! That is the Kingdom of God, and that is what our Father yearns to give each of us, but we must be willing to let him deal with us first and then bring the "breaker anointing" to release us into our destinies moving the mountains one after another out of our way!

Before we can have the outward "break through" we must deal with the inward "break through". The Lord's coming in to deal with us, so He can take us out! Out to be apostolic! The Lord's apostolic church is breaking through, apprehending, coming forth, over taking, moving past, overcoming, moving forward, pressing through, and overcoming. We are pioneers, not settlers, we are in the present and moving to the future. We have the future in mind, we are future oriented. What can we yet do, what has the Lord said to do? We are not afraid of controversy, but see it as an opportunity to advance the kingdom. The apostolic church overtakes the "blind and the lame" spirit, pushing through, and taking territory, pioneering, fathering and mothering.

I sense I need to wrap this up with one more thought and prayer. The word "contend"....

Early in January as I was praying I felt something different while I was praying. It was if I could feel things changing as I prayed, I could feel the authority of my prayers going out and changing things in the heavenly realm. I don't say this pridefully, but honestly. This is what I believe the Lord spoke to me. There is a new power and authority that has been released to the body of Christ to CONTEND!

Contend in the dictionary means: To strive in opposition, or rivalry, to compete, vie - to maintain, or assert, argue. Then in Strongs Concordance it says this: Grapple, wrangle, hold a controversy, to defend, adversary, chide, complain, debate, plead, rebuke, strive thoroughly!

Those are pretty strong words aren't they! Jude 3 "....I found it necessary to write to you exhorting you to "CONTEND" earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints." It is already a done deal, but we must pray! We must fight, struggle, wrestle over it and take it back in prayer.

I know I can feel the difference when I pray, and I am no one special, you can do the same thing. There has been a special release this year to contend in faith for the things that the Lord has spoken to each of you! Don't wait any longer.... I urge you to CONTEND~~~~~~!!!!!

"Father I take my hand of faith and I reach into the eternal realm, the unseen realm, the supernatural realm and I pull down in to the natural realm those things which you have spoken over your people. Those promises you have made to us. I pull them down. And Lord, just as Saul was apprehended by the very presence of the Lord Almighty and you completely changed him, even to name him Paul, you have apprehended us for a special destiny and purpose. I apprehend that which I was apprehended for by taking my hand of faith and reaching in to your supernatural realm and pulling it down in to the natural realm. Lord you said to speak the words of this new dimension that we have now ascended to and WE will do that, and I do agree with the body of Christ that this year we will see breakthrough personally and corporately. We will contend until we see it released in the natural, we will push through and apprehend this year! WE will receive break through and the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob will be glorified! WE will overcome the "blind and the lame" spirit. We will see past them in to our future and destiny. We will not look to circumstances in the natural, but look with the eyes of our hearts towards you and you alone! We will wait on you....just as David..... and yes we will see the victory.....

Isa 62:10-12 "The gates are open! For the breaker goes before you! Build up the "high" way to the Lord." Woo-ho! WE say yes Lord!

Babes vs. Those Of Full Age

Sandy Brunson

Jul 11, 2004
At some point in the life of every born again child of God who is growing an developing into the person God has ordained that they become, there will be occasions to participate in "wait training." The life we are called to requires it; for it is part of that maturing process which molds, strengthens, and perfects us as we have seen. None are excluded or excused.

We know, of course, there are many who have not yet reached maturity, for there are new ones born daily into the Kingdom of God. We praise God for them! Obviously, some have not had time to enter into the growth and development process, for they are new babes in Christ as described in Hebrews 5:12-13, living only upon the "sincere milk of the Word."

All must develop one day, one step at a time, learning about life in the Spirit "line upon line, precept upon precept, here a little, there a little," Isaiah 28:10. Our all-wise, loving God gives ample time and protection for those who are in that phase. Babes in Christ Jesus are not yet ready to enter into the rigors of "wait training." Babes must be fed on time, cleaned up and provided safe places to grow and develop and rest in the Lord. That is one of the primary responsibilities of the local church watched over by a leader with a pastor's heart. There they can be fed, tended, nurtured, trained, and taught those first principles of the faith and the elementary principles of Christ.

"But solid food is for full-grown men, for those whose senses and mental faculties are trained by practice to discriminate and distinguish between what is morally good and noble and what is evil and contrary either to divine or human law. Therefore, let us go on and get past the elementary stage in the teachings and doctrines of Christ, the Messiah, advancing steadily toward the completeness and perfection that belongs to spiritual maturity.....if indeed God permits, we will now proceed to advanced teaching!" Hebrews 5:14-6:1 & 3 (Amplified Version)

Though the Word of God often refers to God's followers as "children", the passage in Hebrews speaks only of two stages: those who are considered "babes" (newly born spiritually), and those who are "full age", or mature. In this last stage, we include those growing and developing ones who are obediently following on in the process where they are. They are "mature"...for their spiritual age...just as a 4th grader is "mature" for his or her age...they are progressing on schedule...not drawing back from God or His Word.

The study of "wait training" is not directed to the "babes" but to the obediently developing ones AND to the stubborn, rebellious, and lazy who need to repent and return to the life of running with "patient endurance and active persistence the course that is set before them" Hebrews 12:2 (AV)

There are a great number of spectators in the ranks of the church today who have lazily hidden behind the name of "babe" too long! Their actual life practice reveals that they have not personally taken seriously the commands to develop - to change - to mature in process. They show by their unchanging and on-going fleshly behavior their disobedience to walk in the sincere "fear of God " and the true knowledge of Him. (Psalm 55:19 NIV)

Many think that such a slip is not noticed, but in the serious end times in which we are living, God is watching for those who are producing the mature "fruit of His Spirit" in their lifestyle. In the passage found in Matthew 7:19-23, this becomes more urgent and clear: "Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus by their fruit you will recognize them. Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven. Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your name, and in Your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?' Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evil doers!'" (NIV)

A sharp warning such as this is sobering to the sincere soldier of the cross! God is long-suffering and full of mercy. He has faithfully shown to all who have called upon His Name in truth that He is love, but He is not a man that HE should change or repent. He has never changed from His purpose of having a "people made ready for His coming"! He has never changed from His purpose of preparing His Bride to be ready for the Holy marriage that is to come! He has purposed to have a mature Bride, one who is full grown and ready to enter eternity with Him. To look at many in the church today, there is a preoperational transformation that must yet take place....

Looking unto Jesus,
Sandy

My Beloved, although the calling upon your life is a call from My throne, My desire is for you to pursue Me and know Me in a way you have never known Me before. Many of you 'still' say "I don't have the background of faith as many well known people of God." I say "You have ME and I give you MY desires and MY faith. Pursue ME, not man - to truly know "My doctrines" not what man 'perceives' as My doctrines. My faithful ones must have a deep yearning for ME - there can be no other way. Now is the time to truly BEHOLD YOUR GOD, the calling is secondary to My presence in your life, therefore cry out for a deep hungering for ME and allow ME to fill you with MY presence and you will witness the blind to see, the lame to walk and your needs met!"

Many of you are struggling because some would tell you that you need to be doing something. My Beloved, as I cradle you in My arms, allow ME to carry you. Do not struggle as though you need to be doing something for I AM carrying you. Stay close in your heart to My heart for it is no struggle to Me to carry you, allow Me! Remain safely in My arms, it's where I want you. Beloved you are so precious to Me. This is what I want you to sense with every fiber of your being - that you are so very precious to Me. I long to hear your words of love to ME. You have been so consumed with concerns that I have missed hearing your words of love to Me and more than anything I want you to hear My Words of love to you. Beloved, Know that I AM carrying you.

I AM placing upon you a hunger and a thirsting for Me. A hunger and thirsting that you have never known before. I AM birthing within you a new love for your Father, your God. Just as I placed a birthing in Sarah, at an impossible time, so I AM placing with you a new love in what seems an impossible time. You shall see Me and you will know this Love. You say in your heart "I already know you God" but I say to you, this love will surpass anything you have ever known and it will increase your faith and increase your hope as you place yourself in My mighty arms.... Selah

Many of you feel that nothing is happening in your life let alone in your circumstances. Are My hands idle? Are My arms short? I say unto you: "No, not one day are My hands idle in preparing you for the calling that I placed upon your life - for your call, your ministry and your service. My hands are not idle, preparations have been in the making. I have prepared your heart and I AM preparing your heart. I would not send My child out into the world without preparation. My love and My compassion must be "seared" into your heart for the chosen you will encounter. You must have MY love and MY compassion. I AM preparing you - you must only be willing. Willing to go through the fire of preparation and like Job although you have not understood, your eyes and your heart were ever seeking Me - and you will receive back DOUBLE for ALL that you have lost, refined as pure gold, My most precious stone.

Behold, My Beloved, Behold Who I AM, behold ME... Do not give any place to the enemy when he strikes, but say "Behold My God, Behold My God." Do not allow the enemy to steal your joy and BEHOLD YOUR GOD!!! In all things give thanks according to My Word. Beloved, I AM a Mighty God, I can do ALL things! I have chosen you as messengers and I use messengers to deliver My people. I chose Moses as a messenger to deliver My people and he inquired of Me when Pharaoh refused to set the people free, so it is with you. Inquire of Me.... I do not see it as unbelief, inquire of Me and I will deliver you that you may be My messengers.

Beloved, I have not forsaken you. Can I forsake MY SELF ? NO .... I have called you for My purposes. If I would forsake you, I would be forsaking Myself and that I cannot do... You have a call and a purpose and it is all OF ME - I have prepared the way and devised the plan, a plan designed by ME and it CANNOT fail. For many of you the enemy has tried to stop it by taking you out, but you have stood strong. Now, he can only "try" to foil My plans but they are MY PLANS, all mine and they CANNOT fail. So prepare to follow where I AM leading you and I promise - you will not be disappointed or ashamed.

I AM ready to pour out great and mighty blessings into your life, for I AM a great and mighty God. You will see that your "whens" have become "nows." I AM moving on your behalf, stand and receive. You will begin to really move out in your calling... Doors that have been closed will now begin to open. Get ready, My Beloved, get ready to see your God move in ways you have never seen but desired to see .. Keep your eyes on ME, don't get caught up on things or in your circumstances.

Not by might, nor power but by My Spirit says the Lord. I AM moving by My Spirit. It cannot fail as My Spirit is in control and is moving in a mighty way on your behalf. Keep the Sword of the Spirit close to you it will be your direction and guide. It will satisfy all longings and continue to uplift you and I need built up sons and daughters to go forth In My Name! Move by My Spirit, stay by My Spirit and be directed by My Spirit! Do not say I cannot do the work but say "I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me! I am the vessel in His hands! I am the vessel that He has emptied - emptied of self and filled with HIM! I am the vessel that has been emptied of the things of the world and filled with the things of God! I am the vessel ready to reflect His Glory! I am ready to walk His walk and I am the vessel who will go where HE leads! I am ready!!!"

A move of My Spirit shall go forth in this day. A move unlike any that has ever been seen before. A move that will put a deep yearning into the hearts of My people. A move that will draw the lost to Me. Beloved, you are a part of that move, the instruments in the starting of this move of My Spirit. I have been honing you and refining you and My Words in your mouth will go forth as a two edged sword. It is My Word that will accomplish what I intend it to accomplish. I AM causing a stirring in your innermost being to see My face and hear My voice as never before. This stirring and this desire is from Me. In these final moments of preparation I have much to say and instruct you on and it's that still small voice that you will hear. My Beloved, expect the windows of heaven to open wide! There is much to say and much to do in your life and calling. Stand in faith, as you have never stood before, believing I will do what I have said I would do... Faith is the key that unlocks the door to what I have spoken over you. Believe, believe what I have said for "it shall be done!"

You have stood and waited and now be of good cheer because you have found favor In Me. My Word says: "Wait upon the Lord and He will give you the desires of your heart." You have waited for Me and I AM fulfilling My Word by giving you the desires of your heart. See the salvation of your Lord and My promises fulfilled. The I AM is moving you out in My power BY My Spirit. I AM calling forth My Beloved, a Holy people, holy and consecrated to Me and called for My purposes. I have consecrated you and pulled you aside for My hand to be upon your for My purposes. I am sending you forth for My purposes... I AM sending you forth In My Name... You will see millstones that have been around you neck BROKEN IN MY NAME! YOU WILL SEE RELEASE! Receive it, proclaim it and be free from all that the enemy has tried to use to hold you back. My way will be made clear unto you. You shall now see the crooked ways made straight and open doors where they have been closed.

My Word shall go forth and accomplish what I intend for it to accomplish. I have spoken My Word over you and it SHALL be accomplished and no demon in hell can stop it from coming to pass. Stand on what I have spoken, do not waiver, what I have said, I WILL DO!

It is spoken and it is done! BEHOLD YOUR GOD!!!!

Confusion In the Camp of the Enemy

"FATHER" in HIS infinite Wisdom and Power and by HIS SPIRIT will cause the plans of the enemy to be blown away in total disarray!!! There shall be confusion in the camp of the enemy as Yahweh causes the footsteps of HIS weakest saints to sound as an approaching army! It will be through the attacks of the enemy that Father will make a way where there is no way and confuse the enemy and bring glory and honor to HIS great name out of these adverse circumstances!!!

Yes, it is so, saith the One who is Faithful and True! I will bring forth fruit and harvest where there has been none, and will confound and dumbfound the wise with the simple things and the simple ones saith the Most High! That which was deemed unworthy, I will make worthy and purify and cleanse even as I did with MY high Priest Joshua, yes even the brands that I pluck from the fire! They are Mine and I shall do as I please with them!!! I will exalt that which is base and make base that which is exalted! Even so, the first shall be last the last shall be first! I have spoken it, and shall I not cause it to come to pass? Behold, I AM THAT I AM AND I AM WHO I WILL BE! Amen! So Let It Be!

I Have Been Preparing Many Daughters
Olivia Long

January 25, 2004
I HAVE BEEN PREPARING MANY DAUGHTERS. Favored ones amongst women by your Father and your God. I chose you and you sought Me and I have been filling you with Myself and preparing you for the work I have for you. You are blessed amongst women because of your obedience and My favor is upon you. It is time to put your painful circumstances behind you and proclaim "I am blessed amongst women." I say unto you, your circumstances are behind and before you is your new life, your new way, new beginning and MY blessings.

For many, you have felt like Job, sitting in ashes, wondering when I, your God would move on your behalf. You have tried to figure me out but you have found that it is futile to try to figure My ways as My ways are beyond your understanding. Keep your eyes focused on Me, and as Job, you will see that your redemption truly draws nigh, even at your door.

For many of you, I AM releasing My beautiful daughters from the cages that have held you. I AM opening the door and releasing you. Although many have seen this cage as a sort of prison holding you prisoner, I meant it for a place of safety and protection while I prepared you for release. I saw you as a delicate bird, that if you had flown off would have encountered more dangerous obstacles, so I placed you in a cage of safety until you were prepared for release. Your prison has really been a gilded cage, a place of safety. Now I AM releasing you and although you look like a delicate bird, you have been built up and prepared for all that you will encounter.

As a butterfly is released from her cocoon, so I AM releasing you and you are coming forth as a beautiful butterfly. I have prepared you for your calling and you are coming forth as one prepared by My hand. Your beauty is above all that you could imagine and you will fly, My pretty one, you will fly!!! O' daughters of Mine, you will understand and rejoice as you see My hand unfolding the mysteries and opening doors.

My daughters, listen to the wooing of My Spirit as He woos and blows like a gentle wind for He is wooing you into the Holy place where I wait expectantly for you to come. The gentle wind of the Spirit is saying "Come into the Father's chamber, He is awaiting you and He has much to disclose to you and many blessings to pour upon you." I AM whispering "Now is the time, now is the time." Heed My wooing, heed the gentle woos of My Spirit as I beckon you.

My chosen daughters, at times you have been in much distress. I have seen your distress and I AM aware of your inner thoughts and cries. Would your loving Father, send you into a place I have not prepared you to go? I know each place you will go and I see all that you will encounter. As your loving Father, would I send you without preparation? No, and you have allowed Me to prepare the good work in you. Now is the time for you to trust In Me with all of your heart and hear My voice and to know that I AM a God of My Word. Does My word depend on your works? I say "No, My daughters" - it is because of My love for you that I have given you great and mighty promises. Only believe My love for you. Only believe in the fulfillment of My Word and promises. As with the woman with the issue of blood was convinced of My power and Who I AM - I AM calling you to be convinced of My love for you and be convinced of Who I AM. Turn any dismay around and BELIEVE.

My Spirit has been moving to and fro, preparing the paths for those I have called. The way has been prepared by the Spirit of God. Your preparations are sure and are down to the exact minute. Walk in surety, step forth in surety for what I have for you. The mantle has been prepared, take up your mantle and move in My Spirit.

Prepare yourself My daughters, for the restraints are falling off like fetters. The things that have held you back are being removed and they will hold you no more. Your time has come - My Glory is coming down, be ready. I AM moving, My daughters, and the time is nigh!!! There is always an appointed time and I say your appointed time is nigh. Prepare yourself for the event that you have been waiting for - you are the honored guest and I have made all the arrangements and prepared the way and now it is the time for your "coming out."

I AM giving you "clarity of mind and thought." Seek My face and allow My thoughts to be your thoughts. You have sown and reaping and harvest time is here. You may have sown in tears but now you shall reap with joy. Your ministry is clear, you shall reap and harvest. I have laid on your heart your calling. I have given you My desires deep in your heart and now you shall go forth in that calling.

Lo, I AM with you. I have never left you alone. My hand has been on you every step of the way. Remember that I AM your beacon to follow. When you feel you have lost your way, turn to the east, west, north and south - look for My beacon of light, it will guide you.

I HAVE BEEN PREPARING MANY DAUGHTERS. It is your time for breakthrough. It is your time for release. A new day is dawning, be prepared to act on what I shall reveal to you. My angels have been released on your behalf this day. Messengers frm My throne bringing to you all that I have promised. Break forth, My daughters, break forth, do not allow the enemy to get in the way. The I AM will open the door before you, walk through that door for My hand is upon it and you.

I HAVE BEEN PREPARING MANY DAUGHTERS -
Now is the time for "WATCHING AND PRAYING."

WATCH for the answer "with expectancy."
PRAY for "love, grace and favor."
PRAY for "clarity" and PRAY against the enemy who would try to discredit what I AM doing.

My Daughters, watch with expectancy, speak words of faith and "see the fulfillment of My Word."

Rise Up O' Woman of God
Olivia Long

faithbuildersministries@the-i.net
January 31, 2004

RISE UP O' WOMAN OF GOD.... You are passing over the Jordan into the promised land. I have prepared you and I have guided you. Each word that I have given you was a preparation, like the manna I gave to the children of Israel. - and like the children of Israel you have become very weary, at times, of the manna. But this was to feed you and to sustain you. NOW, I AM taking you from your wilderness and into your promised land. I will go with you... I will go before you ... and I will go behind you. You shall move into the land that I have prepared for you.

As you draw near to the river to go into the place that I have called and prepared for you, do not be afraid to step into that river for it will part for you. Much preparation has been done in you and in the same wise much preparation has been done in the place I am calling you.

So many times you thought I was doing nothing, but the fact remains a great and mighty work has been done unbeknownst to you. I have never forsaken you although you may have thought that I have. Many times I have been carrying you and protecting you and guiding you through areas that you were never aware of, all the while holding you in the palm of My hand. Beloved, I saw every question, every concern, every tear - never forsaking you...EVER!

I have placed upon each of you a calling like no other. I have placed upon each of your hearts - a hunger and desire to serve Me. An all consuming desire, consuming your thoughts at this very time and times past. Through times of doubts, loneliness and hardships ... times when you have cried out to Me "Where are You God? You promised to move mightily in My life, where are you?" I say to you, here AM I in your midst. Even when you are surrounded by distractions, and the distractions have been many, I AM in your midst. Keep your eyes and your heart focused on Me, do not be moved, for I will move mightily. Many are called but few are chosen and I AM well pleased that you have stood and remain firm in your calling. One word of caution, My daughters, "YOU ARE SERVING ME, not man!" You have faced opposition in the past and you will face opposition in the future, such is the course of one who TRULY follows Me. Mankind will try to dissuade you - set your face like flint - only following and serving ME.

Over these past days and hours I have been placing within your spirit a stirring of hope and a stirring of assurance in your heart for the call upon your life. This stirring will begin to bring the flow of My Spirit. You have sensed that there is a moving, "a tangible" moving taking place. Do not denounce it but grasp and lay hold of what I lay before you. The time of being held in limbo is now coming to an end for My Spirit is moving in a mighty way.

Give ear to My Word and remember My precepts - they are for instruction and wealth. Take note of every jot and tittle - they are for a purpose. I do not give words of non effect or non meaning. Each word to you has been carefully picked for you edification and for you instruction. Do not discount My Words but take heed and give ear. Weigh them very carefully!

My Beloved Daughters, you have been in a most vulnerable place because it is the place where I am positioning you to enter and claim your inheritance. A place where often all you can do is "stand." My daughters, through it all, I AM delighted with your obedience and My recompense and reward is with Me. My daughters, I will never allow you, My faithful ones to lose or miss your inheritance and blessings - you can be sure ALL that I have promised you will be fulfilled.

Breakthrough, breakthrough, breakthrough ... I AM the Breaker and I AM breaking through every door and every hold that would try to bind you. You Lord God Almighty is doing this thing and I AM breaking through on your behalf. I AM reaching out My arm to you this day and I say come away My Beloved to that secret place reserved only for you. The time is right, the day is here, I AM calling you forth. It is no accident that I have chosen this season to bring release to you and to your calling. It is a new beginning that you are celebrating - a new day and a new hour is dawning, so lift up your eyes, My daughters and see your Father and your God bring to pass all that I have promised. Lift up your eyes for a mighty work has been accomplished. Lift up your eyes for your new day is dawning and your call been made ready. Lift up your eyes to the hills from which cometh your help - your help cometh from the Lord! Lift up your eyes for the unveiling...

You will stand in amazement in what I AM unveiling. You will 'watch' in amazement at the unveiling. I said I would do it and I AM fulfilling My Word. You will see that shortly it will be your triumphant day, a day of breakthrough, a day of triumph over all the enemy has tried to do to hold you back. It will be a day of laying forth the plans I have for you and the triumphant entering into those plans. It is a glorious entering in of you with your King. Listen, My daughters, for the trumpets are sounding and My angels have gone forth.

Get ready for your glorious visitation. Get ready to receive the voice of your God as the mysteries of My will shall be revealed to you. Do not question My instructions but move in them. They will bring an excitement to your spirit and music to your ears. You will say "I can't believe it" but Beloved, you WILL believe!

Don't believe or settle for the lies of the enemy that would say it's not going to happen. Let the words of My mouth be the final say in your life, knowing you can rely on what I say and know that it is truth and it cannot change or fail! My daughters stand on My Word it is life to you. Stand fast, stand fast and don't let go. Your vision, your dream, your hope is in the making, don't let go. Hold fast, stand fast and you will see the I AM bringing into the physical realm those things I have accomplished in the spiritual realm. You will stand in amazement for your thoughts, your conceptions of what I would do could not even begin to compare to what I AM really doing. You will stand amazed at what I AM bringing forth.

The way has been hard and the road has been rough but it is time to RISE UP O' WOMAN OF GOD, rise up and take your rightful place. A place of distinction and a place prepared for only you. I have been knitting you with like sisters who have known much heartache, suffering and pain and those who have 'no need' for personal glory - cherish My precious gift unto you! The hour and minute is upon you - RISE UP O' WOMAN OF GOD!

Called To Die, Die To Live

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints," Psalm 116:15.

"The Lord loves the smell of roasting lamb," Jill Austin.

Not only is our death precious to the Lord, HE is the one who is trying to kill us!

It's not like we haven't been warned. Just think of all the ways Jesus tells us that He is going to kill us; trading old wineskins for new, pruning our vines, circumcising our hearts, losing our life to find it, forsaking all to follow Him.

"Dear friends, do not be surprised at the painful trial you are suffering, as though something strange were happening to you," 1 Peter 4:12.

We all agree that the blood of Jesus is so very precious to us. But did you know OUR blood is precious to Him?

"He will rescue them from oppression and violence, for precious is their blood in his sight," Psalm 72:14.

Quit fighting it.

I know from personal experience. I fight it, I try to fix it, I run from it, I pray against it, I indulge my flesh to ease the pain. I even begin to miss that part of me that the Lord is killing. I get angry, I complain loudly, I get depressed, I pout. Hey, I hope I'm not alone here! Can you relate?

So what should we do?

Humbly submit. Relax and let the Master Surgeon finish His work. After all, He is the one who is allowing this in your life. You belong to Him! He is the potter and you are the clay.

"Trust and obey For there's no other way To be happy in Jesus But to trust and obey."

"God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble. Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time. Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you," 1 Peter 5:5-7.

Dear Friend, whatever you may be going through, just know that you are not alone. Seek peace before solution. Reach out an encouraging hand to someone who has it worse then you. And look up, for your redemption draweth nigh.

Very soon you will be soaring with the eagles!

Lev, 27:28:

(KJV) Notwithstanding no devoted thing, that a man shall devote unto the LORD of all that he hath, both of man and beast, and of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is most holy unto the LORD.

(CEV) Anything that you completely dedicate to me must be completely destroyed. It cannot be bought back or sold. Every person, animal, and piece of property that you dedicate completely is only for me.

(DRB) Any thing that is devoted to the Lord….shall not be sold: neither may it be redeemed. Whatsoever is once consecrated shall be holy of holies to the Lord.

(GNB) None of you may sell or buy back what you have unconditionally dedicated to the LORD, whether it is a human being, an animal, or land. It belongs permanently to the LORD.

(MSG) "But nothing that a man irrevocably devotes to GOD from what belongs to him, whether human or animal or family land, may be either sold or bought back. Everything devoted is holy to the highest degree; it's GOD's inalienable property.

Devoted thing: that which is cut off from common use and given up to God without the right of recall…an absolute unredeemable grant to God. Every devoted thing is most holy unto the Lord; and therefore not to be appropriated to any use but His.

Things or persons devoted, are distinguished from things or persons that were only sanctified. Devoted things were most holy to the Lord, and could neither be taken back nor applied to other purposes.

We have been sanctified by the blood of the Lamb and set apart unto God. Let us (called to be His ministers) DEVOTE and CONSECRATE ourselves (cut ourselves off from anything common or earthly in origin (though it may be acceptable and not sinful, nevertheless, not separated solely unto God). As the priests and prophets were consecrated solely to the Lord, so we must not dare give ourselves to “common” use but our lives must reflect their true ownership of God. What may be ordinarily permitted and not sinful, may not be allowed and may even be considered sin for those who are called into the five-fold ministry—dedicated to Him and cannot be appropriated otherwise. This is a solemn consecration that the Lord takes seriously, and we must do the same (irrevocably give ourselves to Him). These are the ones of special estimation and purpose, have His unique mark of ownership as well as special promises - “touch not mine anointed, nor do my prophets any harm.”

This means that my life is lived for HIM first, and no other priority is given that highest demand or place. Everything else takes a back seat to Him. Whatever and whenever He calls in my heart to go apart from my activities and be with Him, or do something for Him, this must be instantly obeyed…at His beck and call. My life is no longer for my own pleasure and will, but for His pleasure and will only. That means decisions are not mine to make, but according to His divine will and direction; plans may be changed because of the Master’s necessity; even social events and the people I associate with are His choice, not my own. If He so chooses that I am isolated from the world for a season and at times to just “be with Him” for His good pleasure and hear His voice, then that is my will and desire, notwithstanding if others may not understand or criticize my actions. I am HIS PROPERTY!

Decisions, plans, events, friendships, associations, activities, desires, hobbies – ALL are His choice, not mine; His will, not mine.

Call To Holiness

Musa Opiyo

Dec 7, 04

I am calling you, My people to walk in My holiness. Too long have many of you compromised My word to be accepted by men. I have called you to shine forth My light to a dark world. There can no longer be any mixture. The line is being set between those who are for Me and those who are not. Those that choose to walk in My counsel I will give the grace to walk by My Spirit and live that uncompromising word that I have placed within you. Who's side are you on?

Blessings,
Musa Opiyo

Come To Me
Susan Cummings

Listen to Me, My Child. There is much for you to do, and you cannot do it still holding on to your life and your situation. There is no preservation of self in My House. All who have given themselves to Me, have done so without any reservation and without with-holding anything back. There is nothing that you can do, but to come to Me.

Self-preservation has always prevented My People from coming to Me. It has always been fear that has been the root of the self life, and it is pride that causes them to hold back from Me. You must lay down everything, and take My Hand, and not look back anymore. For if you continue to look back, it will ensnare you and cause you to walk away from Me.

All that is not wholly given unto Me, will become a snare unto you. As with all of My Children, it is always your choice whether or not you will fully abide in Me. I desire those who totally desire Me, and who wholly have given themselves to Me, and who love not their lives more than Me.

The perspective that you now have will change when you have totally given it all to Me. For you cannot see what is ahead clearly until you do. When all of your self gets out the way, then the path ahead clears up. Take no thought for the path, for I have already laid it out, and walked it ahead of you. I will faithfully be with you as you now walk that which I have made for you. Take the next step.

Come to Me.

Shake off the cares and the concerns that others have weighed you down with. Leave them at My Feet and let Me take care of them.

Shake off the doubts and the fears that dog your thoughts and your steps and hinder you from following Me fully, and put your trust In My Faithfulness.

Shake off the lies of the enemy and of the liars that tell you that you won’t make it, or that you will fail Me and not pleasing to Me.

Shake off the sins that so easily beset you, and count the cost, and choose who you will serve, either it will be your flesh, or it will be Me.

Shake it all off, and give Me everything, for I will take it all and give you more, so much more. It starts with more of Me. I Am all that you need.

Take Me now.

Never Fear What You Hear
Susan Cummings

Never fear what you hear, child. The only one you are to fear is Me. You have been listening to others, and to things that have caused fear to enter your heart. You are to allow nothing to enter into you that would cause you to fear. Every word, or thought that comes to you, must be judged by you, and discerned, and then properly dealt with. Cast down those things that cause you to fear, to doubt, to waver in your faith, and to be burdened.

I have not given you the spirit of fear, but of power, love, and a sound mind.

Prepare yourself for changes. I have told you this repeatedly. One of those changes is that hearts of men would fail them for the fear of the things that are to be soon experienced upon the earth. Have I told you to fear? I have told you to come to Me, and to sit at My Feet, and to rest and refresh yourself in My Presence, and to learn of Me, and to be strengthened for the times ahead.

I have not told you to look around at what everyone else is doing, and to listen what all of the others are saying, without coming to Me first. You must keep your focus. You must remain solidly upon My Foundation that I have established you onto. Let nothing distract you from My Presence. Remain In Me!

Everything that I have told you concerning your walk with Me, I will certainly do, as you walk it out with Me. Do not think that I will change My mind. What I have told you, is what I will do. The only change that will occur is the change that comes from your choices along the way. The choices you make affect your path, and your future. Trust in Me. I will not fail you. My Word is true.

I have My Timing for all things, and it won't agree with your concept of what My Timing should be, so you have to die to your ideas and completely trust Me in your life. My Ways are not your ways, and My Thoughts will not be in agreement with your thoughts. You must weigh all things according to My Word, and by My Holy Spirit. Then you must choose to walk in My Truth or in your own understanding. I know what I am doing, and just when to do it, in your life. You cannot see everything that I am doing. Trust in Me, and do not fear anymore, but cast all things at My Feet.

I said in Hebrews 4 that I have a place of rest for My People. But few enter in, and truly and sincerely partake of Me. I am always available, but few indeed come. Few come and choose to remain there with Me. Some come in, and then immediately go back out, but they only have a taste, but are not transformed. They miss the intimacy and the fullness of what I would have given them as they came to know Me. Oh, that My People would come to Me, and remain In Me, and truly know Me!

These are those who will be overcome with fear, because they have not known Me, the Prince of Peace.

Come To Me And Learn Of Me

Chip Brogden

http://www.watchman.net/

Jesus says it is the narrow Gate AND the narrow Path that leads to Life, and only a few will find it. There is a Path that you must walk, and the Path is a process that Jesus calls "discipleship". Discipleship is not an optional extra to people who are already born-again. I don't believe that you can make Jesus your Savior, and later on, at your discretion and at your convenience, make Him Lord. I believe He must be Lord OF all, or He isn't Lord AT all. Many people just want to trust in Jesus to save them from their sins and take them to heaven when they die, but they don't want the process of discipleship. They are willing to enter into the Gate, but they are not willing to walk the Path. That's what it amounts to. Many Christians have entered the Gate, but very few of them are actually walking the Path. There they are, sitting just inside the Gate, rejoicing in a future hope, rejoicing in a future heaven, rejoicing in a future reward, but they don't realize that being a disciple of Jesus does not simply mean praying a prayer or believing something or joining something. It is a process. It is the Path, in fact, that leads you to Life. The Gate does not lead you anywhere - it is only the beginning of the journey, it is not the destination.

Now, what is a disciple? What really is a disciple? Well, a disciple, according to the Scripture, according to the usage of the term if you'll look this up in Strong's Concordance, a disciple is a learner. A pupil. A student, if you will. Let me ask you a question. If Jesus call us to be His disciples, and a disciple is a learner, a pupil, a student, what does that mean? It means...

"COME TO ME, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and LEARN FROM ME" (Matthew 11:28).

Underline that, highlight that, write that down, but make special note of that phraseology. "Take My yoke upon you and learn OF Me," King James says. "Learn FROM Me," New King James says. "For I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden light."

Now that word "learn" there, where He says "learn of Me" or "learn from Me", that is the same root word as "disciple". A disciple is one who learns. When He says, "learn of Me" He is saying, "Be discipled by Me. Learn Of Me. Be my pupil. Be my student. Come to Me and be discipled by Me." That is discipleship. "Come to Me and be discipled by Me." We could say "Come to Me" is the Gate, and "Be discipled by Me" is the Path. We could say, "Come to Me (enter into the Gate) and learn of Me (walk the Narrow Path)." Do you see that? The Gate, and the Path. It's not just coming to Jesus, it is LEARNING of Jesus! Coming to Jesus, everyone [is] coming to Jesus - but how many are LEARNING of Him? "Come to Me and be discipled by Me. Come to Me and learn of Me."

What's my point? To be a disciple of Jesus means you are a student of Jesus. A pupil of Jesus. A learner of Jesus Himself, as opposed to going someplace to learn ABOUT Jesus from someone else. It's a very fine, fine distinction. See, most churches will want you to come to church and learn about God, learn about the Bible, learn about church doctrine, learn about their denomination, learn about their religious ways and customs and philosophies and traditions. But that is not what Jesus said at all. He says, "Come to Me and learn of Me." "Come to Me and learn of Me." "Come to Me (that is the Gate); learn of Me (that is the difficult Path)."

So what was He doing? Was He teaching them teachings? Was He giving them doctrines? No, He said, "Come and be with Me." It says in Mark that He selected twelve disciples. Why did He select them? Not just to give them some teachings. Not to give them some doctrines. But it says "He selected Twelve that they should be with Him and that He might send them forth to preach" (Mark 3:14). Your primary calling as a disciple is to BE with Jesus, because that is how you LEARN OF HIM. It is not learning about the Christian faith - that is a thing. It is not learning about Bible doctrine - that is a thing. We're not talking about things, we're talking about a Person. It is not learning about Christian things or religious things or spiritual things. It is not learning about the Bible. It's not even learning ABOUT Jesus, it is learning OF Jesus FROM Jesus. Can you see that? Can you see the difference between coming TO Jesus and learning OF Him, versus coming to someone else and learning ABOUT Him? The difference is night and day, and for the majority of Christians, they don't know a thing in the world directly FROM Jesus, they only know what they have heard the church say, what brother so-and-so said, what sister so-and-so said, some book, some article, some tape they got off of the Internet or off the television set. They don't have a personal, intimate, experiential, knowledge and knowing of who the Lord is for themselves because they have never come to HIM to learn of HIM. They go everywhere else but Jesus to learn ABOUT Him, but they never come to Jesus to learn from Jesus. And that's what being a disciple of Jesus is all about. If you go anywhere else you are their disciple, you are not the disciple of Jesus.

It is learning OF Jesus FROM Jesus. Here's what I believe - now, you check yourself out and see if you believe this as well. I believe Jesus is alive. I believe He LIVES. He is not a million miles away off in heaven either. But He is an ever-present help in time trouble. He says I will never leave you, I will never forsake you, I am with you always, even to the end of the age. I believe He is risen, I believe He is alive, and I believe He is well able to teach us and disciple us HIMSELF if only we will come to Him. If only we will come to Him and learn of Him. He is alive. He did not just hand down some teachings because He knew He was going to die, and so He gave some teachings to the disciples so they could keep the message alive and keep the Gospel going forth in His absence. Absolutely not! He is alive, and He is teaching us, and He wants to disciple us, if only we will come to Him and learn of Him.

Call to Prayer
Dutch Sheets

Praying friends,

During the night watch early this morning, the Lord spoke the following words to me:

"The hour of reckoning is at hand. It takes much to stop the momentum of a free fall. Once the fall is stopped, it requires much effort and hard work to turn things around. This election is about stopping the free fall. It will take more than intense, knowledgeable intercession to turn things around. It will require the whole body of Christ. All the parts; all the gifts; all the ministries."

He told me other things but this much I can share right now. All of us are needed to stop the free fall. When I was able to get on my computer, I found this call for special prayer from Dutch Sheets. I commend it to you. Besides praying without ceasing at home, ask the Lord to show you where and with whom you are to pray as well. Corporate prayer can bring corporate anointing. God is leading Gary and me to travel to two different locations for 24 hours of prayer. He's going east, I'm going south. Where are you supposed to go to get away from telephones, TV, and your normal life demands? At this critical time, we don't need to listen to the latest polls or what this expert or that "in-the-know" person says. We only need to know what the Spirit of God says.

RaJean

October 28, 2004
Dear Friends,

Up until now the Holy Spirit has not led me to issue a call to prayer for this year's elections, as I did in 2000 (others have done so and many are praying). That began to change this morning as I sensed clearly that the warfare over this election went to another level—big time! As it was in 2000, it is an all-out war in the spirit realm for the soul of this nation and I sense in my spirit that we have not yet broken through into victory. If we lose this war—and make no mistake, we can lose it if at any point we yield to apathy, overconfidence, weariness, or anything else that might cause us to not finish well—the results will be devastating.

Do not make the fatal mistake of laying the results of this election solely on the will and sovereignty of God. As He did in 2000, God is requiring a partnership with the praying church in order for righteousness to prevail. We must not allow a faulty theology that simply says "we have asked God to intervene, the rest is up to Him" to give us a false sense of security. Sometimes asking is all that is necessary, sometimes not. In this battle it absolutely is not. Just as when Israel did not possess Canaan, and also when Jerusalem missed a visitation from Heaven in Christ's day, God's will alone will not decide this election (Hebrews 3:18-19; Luke 19:44). In 1963 we forfeited God's will by removing His influence from our schools; in 1973 we missed God's will by allowing abortion to be legalized. And make no mistake about it, our lack of action at this point in time can cause us to miss God's will and send us spiraling downward again.

We must move into spiritual warfare now as never before. There is a persistence that must be exercised, striking the ground until complete victory is assured (2 Kings 13:14-19). By those who understand the principles of spiritual warfare, there is a kingdom force that must be employed in the spirit until the powers of darkness yield to the forces of light (Daniel 10:12-14; Matthew 11:12; Ephesians 6:12). There is a binding and loosing that must occur until confusion reigns in the enemy's camp (Matthew 16:18-19). The kingdom rule and will of God must be released in intercession and declaration until Heaven's desires prevail on earth (Matthew 6:10).

Don't let up. The next 3 days will determine the fate of America for decades—maybe forever. Also, I believe the purposes of God in many nations are at stake, not the least of which is a great harvest of souls around the world.

Take some radical steps. I am changing my schedule and going to Washington DC for the next 3 days in order to pray in the way I believe the Lord is leading me. Though this is not practical for most of you, here are some suggestions for the final 3 days leading up to this election:

1. Fast. Some are already fasting; I am asking for thousands more to join them. Ask God to lead you as to what kind of fast, and use wisdom concerning medical factors.

2. Join together in prayer meetings and prayer services: the prayer of agreement is powerful—use it.

3. Get up earlier than usual and pray before beginning other activities.

4. If possible, do a night watch—get up through the night and pray; or pull an “all nighter” if you feel the strength to do so.

5. Pray Isaiah 22:22!

6. Send this prayer alert to every praying Christian that you know. Please give it to your pastor far enough in advance of Sunday’s services so that he can plan.

Finally, this is not a partisan issue; it is simply a righteousness issue. God must have a man in office who seeks His face. If all of us do our part, we will prevail in this election and see America take another turn toward righteousness and revival.

For His Cause,

Dutch Sheets

Contending For The Airwaves
Patricia King

The Lord is going to launch many of His people into strategic positions that will capture the airwaves. The influence of television, movies, radio and other forms of visual media have often been used by the enemy to poison and pervert the mindsets of society. This is going to increase and the enemy has a plan to raise the level of demonic influence through the airwaves. The airwaves must be contended for. They belong to the Lord and He desires to use them as one of His most valuable tools during the season of harvest.

Many Christians will be called to take great steps of faith in the coming days. Some will be called to lay some of their ministry mandates down in order to enter these new avenues of Kingdom influence. The battle will be great and many intercessors and financial supporters will be called to the fight. Entire prayer movements will be raised up specifically to birth the new level of anointing that will be released through the airwaves as a righteous standard. This coming move that will release the army of God's "air traffic controllers" will be a move of great camaraderie amongst believers. The media industry that is propelled by the world system is governed by a predominant self-exalting and idolatrous spirit that is anchored in greed and desire for fame. God's company of believers will move in an opposite spirit – one of humility and servanthood – those who are jealous for the glory of God.

There will be a demonstration of team amongst those who are called to partner in this season of contending for the air waves. Many will sacrifice much in order to see a historical breakthrough at this time.

A further thrust of believers will be launched to conquer the airwaves and to influence media around the time when Mel Gibson's movie, The Passion of The Christ launches in the theatres.
(Please pray for Mel Gibson and for the movie to have great favor and impact in the harvest.)

Breakthrough And Breakout
Patricia King

February 2004
The Lord is calling His people to experience great breakthrough in the coming months. There will be increased pressures and resistance in the spirit realm and natural circumstances will press hard against many…BUT, the Lord will give GREAT VICTORIES. He is taking His people to another level of experiential victory.

The Word of God will carry a sharpened edge on it for those who will meditate on the Word and stand on its authority. All the promises of God are yeah and amen to His people. Days of breakthrough and breakout await those who will war with the promises of God. Tenacity is a value the Holy Spirit will call for amongst the people of God in these coming months. Contend for the breakthroughs you need. Do not grow weary in the battle. Stand on the Word and you will breakout with the testimony of the Lord on every side. Financial miracles in particular will be awaiting those who fight the good fight.

Enlarged Ears
Patricia King

"Enlarged Ears for Greater Depth and Accuracy"

Over the last year, I have seen a recurring vision of ears enlarging. Sometimes I see the vision over individuals that I am praying for and sometimes for the general Body of Christ. The vision is in regards to an increased ability that is coming to God's people enabling them to hear the word of the Lord with greater depth and accuracy. He desires our prophetic revelation to increase. "He who has ears, let him hear what the spirit is saying to the church."

Hearing from Him Directly

I believe He is clearly saying, "Do not lean to your own understanding but in all your ways acknowledge Him." It is possible to hear from our own mind, thoughts, and doctrinal/theological interpretation rather than from His heart directly, but the Lord is calling us to a new level of submitted posture in His presence. The fear of the Lord is going to come to the people of God concerning the receiving and delivering of prophetic revelation. It will be EXTREMELY IMPORTANT to hear the accurate word of the Lord in the coming days – lives will depend on it. The Lord spoke three things to my heart that are essential for growth in our ability to hear.

A Call to Purity

1. The Lord is calling for purity of heart and lifestyle. Compromise will clog the ear and make it difficult to hear with accuracy.

A Call for Your Time

2. Spend time with Him. Only in His presence shall we be able to separate the voice of distraction and the stranger from His true voice. The Lord spoke concerning the false prophets in Jeremiah 23:22 "But if they had stood in My council, then they would have announced My words to My people and would have turned them back from their evil way and from the evil of their deeds." Because they did not stand in the council of the Lord but spoke from their own heart, they led the people into deception. If we stand in His council we will hear the word that will deliver lives and bring forth fruit.

A Call to Faithful Obedience

3. Obedience to what the Lord speaks. The Lord will entrust His people with more insights concerning the mysteries of the Kingdom as we walk in faithful obedience to what He reveals to us.

The following scripture came to me concerning David's posture of inquiry before the Lord:

Psalm 27:4 One thing I have asked from the Lord, that I shall seek: That I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, To behold the beauty of the Lord and to inquire in His temple.

Prayer directives:

1. Pray for the Holy Spirit to release conviction concerning compromise in our lives.
2. Pray for believers to be drawn to spend time in the Lord's presence and for all distractions to be removed.
3. Pray for an increased ability to hear the voice of God in every believer.
4. Pray for a large company of prophets to be raised up who are hearing the accurate word of the Lord. Believe for them to proclaim with boldness.
5. Pray for obedient hearts that will respond to the word of the Lord.

DEAD PROMISES COME ALIVE IN 2005!
~Wake Up to Old Promises ~
2 Kings 4:32-36 NKJV
When Elisha came into the house, there was the child, lying dead on his bed. He went in therefore, shut the door behind the two of them, and prayed to the LORD. And he went up and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands; and he stretched himself out on the child, and the flesh of the child became warm. He returned and walked back and forth in the house, and again went up and stretched himself out on him; then the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. And he called Gehazi and said, "Call this Shunammite woman." So he called her. And when she came in to him, he said, "Pick up your son."

There are many of you, like this Shunammite lady, who have been given specific divine promises you never asked for. After the Lord gave you these promises, you lived through a time when you were really stretched and trusted Him for these promises. Your faith for such was planted and well watered with confirmations from Him, only to see the promise die. If you bring these dead seeds before Him, the Lord is going to resurrect them with life. This will happen in a season of suddenlys. The process shall unfold before your very eyes, in a series of waxing warm until you finally embrace the promise that is fully alive in clear sight.

The Key: Bring the lifeless seed of God's promise and place it before Him.

FROZEN HEARTS COME ALIVE IN 2005!
~ Hopeless Hearts and Souls Will Melt in Degrees ~

Ps 147:18 NIV
He sends his word and melts them; He stirs up his breezes, and the waters flow.

Many have become numb in their hearts to protect themselves from the pain of old wounds. This has caused them to be unable to feel the Presence of God, to experience the passion of worship, to have hope for a blessed future, have meaningful relationships, and experience the joy of living His abundant life. These old wounds are soul giants that are locked within a frozen encasing unable to be drawn out for healing. The Lord will bring circumstances into these lives to warm the emotions and melt them back to life once again. This will take a lengthy season. This process started in 2004, of which about one fourth of the ice melted. The year 2005 will see additional warming of these layers. As emotions melt, this will be a pendulum of both joys and sorrows. As hope is rekindled and laughter returns, old wounds will also surface. When they do, it is time to cry out to the Lord to be released from the pain of old infections and be set free. He wants to bring healing to the wounded souls so that as a result physical bodies may be healed. It is also time to yield the emotions for Him to consecrate so they may be used for Him.

3 John 2-3 NKJV
Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers.

The Key: As the emotions come alive, give them to God to consecrate. Keep your focus on Him as the joys and the sorrows surface.

JOB'S RESTORATION COME ALIVE IN 2005!
~ Job Prays for His Friends ~
Job 42:10 NKJV
And the LORD restored Job's losses when he prayed for his friends. Indeed the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.

Since 1989, in various degrees, there have been some chosen ones like Job, who have gone through some serious testings. They were brought before the throne room and accused by the enemy. They were given over to a lengthy season of great suffering for which few had understanding. These chosen ones have maintained their integrity and their faith in God as Sovereign, in spite of their circumstances. Many of these faithful ones have been reduced to a life of prayer simply because that is all they could do. They are already functioning in their awesome gift of authority to release others who are not innocent. These praying ones are moving on in 2005 to begin the double fold restoration of all they lost. Others will awaken to the authority in their prayers and they will be fueled to pray more and more for others and this will be seed planted for their own release and restoration.

Job 22:27-30 NKJV
You will make your prayer to Him, He will hear you, and you will pay your vows. You will also declare a thing, and it will be established for you; So light will shine on your ways. When they cast you down, and you say, 'Exaltation will come!' Then He will save the humble person. He will even deliver one who is not innocent; Yes, he will be delivered by the purity of your hands."

The Key: Pray, pray, pray.

JOSEPH COME ALIVE IN 2005!
~ Joseph's Test Is Over and His Vision Comes Alive ~

Ps 105:15-20 NKJV
Saying, "Do not touch My anointed ones, and do My prophets no harm." Moreover He called for a famine in the land; He destroyed all the provision of bread. He sent a man before them -- Joseph -- who was sold as a slave. They hurt his feet with fetters, He was laid in irons. Until the time that his word came to pass, the word of the LORD tested him. The king sent and released him, the ruler of the people let him go free.

Leaders of great authority have gone through lifelong testings and preparations to be prepared for end time positioning. They have lived through divine setups of God's Sovereignty and lived to tell about it on the other side. Their zeal, ambition, servanthood, humility, integrity and leadership skills have been purged and prepared to walk into becoming provisions for the body of Christ. Many of these Josephs shall reign in the business community as sources to release provision for jobs and income. Other Josephs shall impart spiritual provision of bread for the hungry souls. Other Josephs shall be released to literally provide for the homeless and the poor. Other Josephs shall move forward into deliverance ministries where they will free the famined souls. In the year 2005 the vision and plan for implementation shall come alive. These Josephs shall be supernaturally protected, favored and set up by the King of kings to begin to build their places ordained by God.

The Key: Use the character testings of your past as memorial stones to build your place that is foreordained by God.

JEWELS COME ALIVE IN 2005!

Mal 3:14-18 NLT
"You have said, `What's the use of serving God? What have we gained by obeying his commands or by trying to show the LORD Almighty that we are sorry for our sins? From now on we will say, "Blessed are the arrogant." For those who do evil get rich, and those who dare God to punish them go free of harm.' " Then those who feared the LORD spoke with each other, and the LORD listened to what they said. In his presence, a scroll of remembrance was written to record the names of those who feared him and loved to think about him. "They will be my people," says the LORD Almighty. "On the day when I act, they will be my own special treasure. I will spare them as a father spares an obedient and dutiful child. Then you will again see the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between those who serve God and those who do not."

There is a remnant within Christianity who yet mourn the compromising of God's grace in all the areas of society, church and government. They have chosen to remain steadfast in obedience to the Lord. This year, a line of distinction between the righteous and the unrighteous will become more clear as judgments upon carnal living become more and more evident. Having been deluged by the darkness around them, this remnant of God's people are like buried treasures in the sands of time. He will draw them up, dust them off and mark them with His favor and distinction. His favor will shine and make them come alive in 2005. It will be their prayers that spiritually and physically save the unrighteous from reaping the folly of their wicked deeds.

The Key: Live in holy obedience resisting the carnal compromise of the world.

VISION TO REBUILD, COME ALIVE IN 2005!

Acts 15:15-17 NKJV
And with this the words of the prophets agree, just as it is written: 'After! this I will return And will rebuild the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down; I will rebuild its ruins, And I will set it up; So that the rest of mankind may seek the LORD, even all the Gentiles who are called by My name, says the LORD who does all these things.'

Lost in years of hopeless decay and being the tail and not the head, the church has fallen and become the object of scorn and ridicule. Without a vision, the people perish and the Lord is going to give you a vision, a hope, a plan, a road map, an idea, a mindset, a perspective, a clear view of HOW TO COME OUT OF CAPTIVITY. He is answering years of prayers where you have cried out over the losses and captivities in your personal lives, families, churches, businesses, finances, relationships, health, schools, government, military, towns, etc. He is going to give you a future and a hope. He is going to enlighten the hearts and minds of His people and give them the grace to plan a plan that can be implemented and built upon in the coming years. Gentlemen, we shall rebuild. GLORY!

The Key: Ask Him for your personal plan, the way out of captivity and into prosperity.

NEW FRESH GROWTH, COME ALIVE IN 2005!
~ The Color Green ~
Isa 43:18-19 NKJV
Do not remember the former things, nor consider the things of old. Behold, I will do a new thing, now it shall spring forth; Shall you not know it? I will even make a road in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

The color green will be highlighted and quickened this year. Green represents new growth, fresh start, prosperity, financial provision and preparation for fruit yet to come. This will be likened unto the fresh green growth on the tips of evergreen trees in the spring, along with the buds on all trees after a long winter's hibernation. It will represent new beginnings and hope when things come alive once again, bringing with it great anticipation for a future and a hope.

The Key: When you see the color green this year, let it remind you of His awesome promise to rebuild your life with new beginnings and a fresh start.

Mentoring Between Generations
Sandy Warner

Sep 29, 2004
The doorway to bonded, nurturing relationships between generations is now open. I AM calling and commissioning the hearts of many to accept the assignment of teaming with those of a different generation. I will bring many wonderful benefits to those who receive this special joy. They shall partner with Me and with one another to hear My Word and release it for kingdom business. They shall receive the joy of increased fellowship but that is not all. This will form tandem relationships where the joining of such will increase the yield for all. The mystery of My multiplication factor is that it will require less effort and will be a lighter load, but it will produce a huge crop.

"Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD: And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse." (Mal 4:5-6 KJV)

Created For Relationship
Sandy Warner

Sep 27, 2004
Like the radiant sun on a cold day, I have been silently shining My face upon you. You have often wondered why I would touch you in such a way. This has been My love language melting your mask. Yes I know your pain, dear one. You may have hidden it from yourself, but you have not hidden it from Me.

I created you for relationship. I planted this need so deep that even you do not understand its depth. The enemy has known this, and has plotted to steal relationship from you. His plot has been to so thwart these blessings that you would feel alone and isolated even among a full house or a crowd.

You have suffered the bitter coldness of thwarted expectations. Trying so hard, longing to be loved for who you are, and proving yourself worthy for the fellowship that you were created to have… Life has not gone the way you hoped or planned. You have also faced the gripping truth of a masked world full of facades: those who would extend their hand, when they only want what is in yours. This final blow sent you into an isolation of soul whose only safe place was barricaded with ice. How well I know and understand your attempts to numb yourself from these things.

I too know this pain. I have suffered this in heaven and on earth - My very creation seeking My face for what I can give them, not for Who I AM. Their love for their Father stands second to their lust for power, dominion and pleasure. They put all aside to pursue their kingdoms, yet they do not understand there is nothing more important in all of heaven or on earth … than relationship.

Yes, I have been mostly silent as I have warmed your layers. Your numbness has even kept Me at bay, even though that has not been your desire. I brought you through this time, dear one, and now you know My heart more because of it. I have wanted loving fellowship just like you. And I want you. Yes, dear one it's over, and your ice has melted. You are adopted and chosen as My own. You belong to Me.

Rev 3:20 KJV
Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

A Mother's Love The Power To Keep
Sandy Warner

Oct 3, 2004

Let my life be poured with sacrificial love.
A sweetened fragrance through Your gentle dove.
Your keeping power is what I've been given.
For these my children I have striven.
My life is not my own, to my children I belong.
Let the orchestra of heaven play my life's song.

As You have kept me, I do keep them.
So nothing is stolen by the one who condemns.
I'm about my Father's business when each day I wake.
I linger in His Presence for my children's sake.
As they go about their busy days
I long to be near them in every way.

I long to be with them and hold them in my arms.
And keep them from seduction, from the one who charms.
I am weak and know not how.
To the One Who is strong, to Him I do bow.
His keeping power is what I trust.
It's a walk of faith - that is a must.

Oh Lord - to touch their hearts, to touch their souls.
To bring them comfort, to make them whole.
Their sorrows are many, their pain is great.
Let me lighten their load, let me lighten their fate.
I yearn to touch them, I long to abide.
In fellowship and communion walking side by side.

A perfect circle of united trust.
Joined with the Father, the One Who is just.
We will know one another as He knows us.
Bonded in communion and holy trust.
No big I or little you.
Only servants for Him that are humble too.

We stand united across the land
As our sons grow up into a man.
To rule and reign on earth below.
As it is in heaven what's bestowed.

> John 17: 20-22
> I am praying not only for these disciples but also for all who will ever believe in me because of their testimony. My prayer for all of them is that they will be one, just as you and I are one, Father--that just as you are in me and I am in you, so they will be in us, and the world will believe you sent me. I have given them the glory you gave me, so that they may be one, as we are-- I in them and you in me, all being perfected into one.

Awakened!
Sandy Warner

Sep 26, 2004

AWAKENED!
In the early morning hours when time is not yet stirring,
I AM there beside you, like a gentle purring.
I whisper My secrets into your ears for My hope of your coming years.

I await with anticipation that I will be your first greeting, that you would call on Me, for our joyful meeting.
If you listen for My voice
I will answer your wish and your choice.

Listen My child, to My song.
I sing with joy over you all day long.
Hope once was lost, but now is kindling
A brighter day is here, a beautiful tomorrow is shining.

I am planting My dream into your heart
And promises for a shining future right from the start.
Let My joy settle in and put a bounce back into your step.
Let the sobers be gone, for you are divinely kept.

I love your smile, I love your humor.
I love all of you and that's no rumor.
I AM your Friend, as we walk our road,
One step at a time, we enlarge our abode.

Humble beginnings, not yet known.
Turn to radical outpouring of world renown.
Each step of enlargement is for your progress
There will be no turning back, no regress.

You are adopted, My jewel, My child!
No longer alone, your way is bought and won.
The price for you can not be measured
Your worth to Me is My deepest treasure.

From a rich heritage your future will spring
Your horizons are glorious, the angels do sing.
Armed with family and friend's commitment,
You will never, never, give up.

Your business will be their business, as you build My kingdom here.
Since you don't know when, at least you'll know where.
You are My torch to push back the dark.
Great weight you will bear because you are marked.

You shall wade in My river, My power you shall know.
You shall be My builder because I trust you so.
You keep your focus on what matters most.
Now that you are awakened, your grand opening I do toast!

You have a great big beautiful tomorrow shining in your day,
There's a great big beautiful tomorrow that's not just a dream away.
Live it out each moment with your faith, mind and heart,
We will walk together in this brand new start.

> Jer 29:11-14 NKJV
> For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the LORD, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope. Then you will call upon Me and go and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart.

Psalm 57 and Psalm 64 = 5764; Revelation 5, 7, 6, and 4 = 5764

PSALM 57
[2] Be gracious unto me, O God, be gracious unto me, for in Thee hath my soul taken refuge; yea, in the shadow of Thy wings will I take refuge, until calamities be overpast.
[3] I will cry unto God Most high; unto God that accomplisheth it for me.
[4] He will send from heaven, and save me, when he that would swallow me up taunteth; Selah; God shall send forth His mercy and His truth.
[5] My soul is among lions, I do lie down among them that are aflame; even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.
[7] They have prepared a net for my steps, my soul is bowed down; they have digged a pit before me, they are fallen into the midst thereof themselves. Selah

[8] My heart is stedfast, O God, my heart is stedfast; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises.
[9] Awake, my glory; awake, psaltery and harp; I will awake the dawn.
[10] I will give thanks unto Thee, O L-rd, among the peoples; I will sing praises unto Thee among the nations.

Psalm 64
[1] Hear my voice, God, in my complaint. Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
[2] Hide me from the conspiracy of the wicked, from the noisy crowd of the ones doing evil;
[3] who sharpen their tongue like a sword, and aim their arrows, deadly words,
[4] to shoot innocent men from ambushes. They shoot at him suddenly and fearlessly.
[5] They encourage themselves in evil plans. They talk about laying snares secretly. They say, “Who will see them?”
[6] They plot injustice, saying, “We have made a perfect plan!” Surely man’s mind and heart are cunning.
[7] But God will shoot at them. They will be suddenly struck down with an arrow.
[9] All mankind shall be afraid. They shall declare the work of God, and shall wisely ponder what he has done.
[10] The righteous shall be glad in Yahweh, and shall take refuge in him. All the upright in heart shall praise him!

Revelation 5
[1] I saw, in the right hand of him who sat on the throne, a book written inside and outside, sealed shut with seven seals.
[2] I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the book, and to break its seals?"
[3] No one in heaven above, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book, or to look in it.
[5] One of the elders said to me, "Don't weep. Behold, the Lion who is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome; he who opens the book and its seven seals."
[6] I saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth.
[8] Now when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.
[9] They sang a new song, saying, "You are worthy to take the book, and to open its seals: for you were killed, and bought us for God with your blood, out of every tribe, language, people, and nation,
[10] and made them kings and priests to our God, and they reign on earth."
[11] I saw, and I heard something like a voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousands of ten thousands, and thousands of thousands;
[12] saying with a loud voice, "Worthy is the Lamb who has been killed to receive the power, wealth, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, and blessing!"
[13] I heard every created thing which is in heaven, on the earth, under the earth, on the sea, and everything in them, saying, "To him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb be the blessing, the honor, the glory, and the dominion, forever and ever! Amen!" [1]

Revelation 7

[1] After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, so that no wind would blow on the earth, or on the sea, or on any tree.
[2] I saw another angel ascend from the sunrise, having the seal of the living God. He cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to harm the earth and the sea,
[3] saying, "Don't harm the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the bondservants of our God on their foreheads!"
[4] I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children of Israel:
[5] of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand, of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand, of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand,
[6] of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand, of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand,
[7] of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand, of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand, of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand,
[8] of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand, of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand, of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.
[9] After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number, out of every nation and of all tribes, peoples, and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands.
[10] They cried with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation be to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!"
[11] All the angels were standing around the throne, the elders, and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before his throne, and worshiped God,
[12] saying, "Amen! Blessing, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honor, power, and might, be to our God forever and ever! Amen."
[13] One of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are arrayed in white robes, who are they, and from where did they come?"
[14] I told him, "My lord, you know." He said to me, "These are those who came out of the great tribulation. They washed their robes, and made them white in the Lamb's blood.
[15] Therefore they are before the throne of God, they serve him day and night in his temple. He who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them.
[16] They will never be hungry, neither thirsty any more; neither will the sun beat on them, nor any heat;
[17] for the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne shepherds them, and leads them to springs of waters of life. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Revelation 6

[1] I saw that the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a voice of thunder, "Come and see!"
[2] And behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow. A crown was given to him, and he came forth conquering, and to conquer.
[3] When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come!"
[4] Another came forth, a red horse. To him who sat on it was given power to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another. There was given to him a great sword.
[5] When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come and see!" And behold, a black horse, and he who sat on it had a balance in his hand.
[6] I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A choenix [1] of wheat for a denarius, and three choenix of barley for a denarius! Don't damage the oil and the wine!"
[7] When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living creature saying, "Come and see!"
[8] And behold, a pale horse, and he who sat on it, his name was Death. Hades followed with him. Authority over one fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword, with famine, with death, and by the wild animals of the earth was given to him.
[9] When he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been killed for the Word of God, and for the testimony of the Lamb which they had.

[10] They cried with a loud voice, saying, "How long, Master, the holy and true, until you judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?"
[11] A long white robe was given to each of them. They were told that they should rest yet for a while, until their fellow servants and their brothers, [2] who would also be killed even as they were, should complete their course.
[12] I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became as blood.
[13] The stars of the sky fell to the earth, like a fig tree dropping its unripe figs when it is shaken by a great wind.
[14] The sky was removed like a scroll when it is rolled up. Every mountain and island were moved out of their places.
[15] The kings of the earth, the princes, the commanding officers, the rich, the strong, and every slave and free person, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains.
[16] They told the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb,
[17] for the great day of his wrath has come; and who is able to stand?"

Footnotes: [1] 6:6 A choenix is a dry volume measure that is a little more than a litre (a little more than a quart).

Revelation 4

[1] After these things I looked and saw a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, like a trumpet speaking with me, was one saying, "Come up here, and I will show you the things which must happen after this."
[2] Immediately I was in the Spirit. Behold, there was a throne set in heaven, and one sitting on the throne
[3] that looked like a jasper stone and a sardius. There was a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald to look at.
[4] Around the throne were twenty-four thrones. On the thrones were twenty-four elders sitting, dressed in white garments, with crowns of gold on their heads.
[5] Out of the throne proceed lightnings, sounds, and thunders. There were seven lamps of fire burning before his throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.
[6] Before the throne was something like a sea of glass, similar to crystal. In the midst of the throne, and around the throne were four living creatures full of eyes before and behind.
[7] The first creature was like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face like a man, and the fourth was like a flying eagle.
[8] The four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes around about and within. They have no rest day and night, saying, "Holy, holy, holy [1] is the Lord God, the Almighty, who was and who is and who is to come!"[9] When the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to him who sits on the throne, to him who lives forever and ever,
[10] the twenty-four elders fall down before him who sits on the throne, and worship him who lives forever and ever, and throw their crowns before the throne, saying,
[11] "Worthy are you, our Lord and God, the Holy One, [2] to receive the glory, the honor, and the power, for you created all things, and because of your desire they existed, and were created!"

Footnotes: [1] 4:8 Hodges/Farstad MT reads holy 9 times instead of 3.

Psalm 46

4 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy place where the Most High dwells. 5 God is within her, she will not fall; God will help her at break of day. 6 Nations are in uproar, kingdoms fall; he lifts his voice, the earth melts. 7 The LORD Almighty is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress.

[10] The righteous shall be glad in Yahweh, and shall take refuge in him. All the upright in heart shall praise him!

Revelation 5
[1] I saw, in the right hand of him who sat on the throne, a book written inside and outside, sealed shut with seven seals.
[2] I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the book, and to break its seals?"
[3] No one in heaven above, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book, or to look in it.
[5] One of the elders said to me, "Don't weep. Behold, the Lion who is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome; he who opens the book and its seven seals."
[6] I saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth.

[8] Now when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.
[9] They sang a new song, saying, "You are worthy to take the book, and to open its seals: for you were killed, and bought us for God with your blood, out of every tribe, language, people, and nation,
[10] and made them kings and priests to our God, and they reign on earth."
[11] I saw, and I heard something like a voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousands of ten thousands, and thousands of thousands;
[12] saying with a loud voice, "Worthy is the Lamb who has been killed to receive the power, wealth, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, and blessing!"
[13] I heard every created thing which is in heaven, on the earth, under the earth, on the sea, and everything in them, saying, "To him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb be the blessing, the honor, the glory, and the dominion, forever and ever! Amen!" [1]

Revelation 7

[1] After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, so that no wind would blow on the earth, or on the sea, or on any tree.
[2] I saw another angel ascend from the sunrise, having the seal of the living God. He cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to harm the earth and the sea,
[3] saying, "Don't harm the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the bondservants of our God on their foreheads!"
[4] I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children of Israel:
[5] of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand, of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand, of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand,
[6] of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand, of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand,
[7] of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand, of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand, of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand,
[8] of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand, of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand, of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.
[9] After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number, out of every nation and of all tribes, peoples, and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands.
[10] They cried with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation be to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!"
[11] All the angels were standing around the throne, the elders, and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before his throne, and worshiped God,
[12] saying, "Amen! Blessing, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honor, power, and might, be to our God forever and ever! Amen."
[13] One of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are arrayed in white robes, who are they, and from where did they come?"
[14] I told him, "My lord, you know." He said to me, "These are those who came out of the great tribulation. They washed their robes, and made them white in the Lamb's blood.
[15] Therefore they are before the throne of God, they serve him day and night in his temple. He who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them.
[16] They will never be hungry, neither thirsty any more; neither will the sun beat on them, nor any heat;
[17] for the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne shepherds them, and leads them to springs of waters of life. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Revelation 6

[1] I saw that the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a voice of thunder, "Come and see!"
[2] And behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow. A crown was given to him, and he came forth conquering, and to conquer.
[3] When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come!"
[4] Another came forth, a red horse. To him who sat on it was given power to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another. There was given to him a great sword.
[5] When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come and see!" And behold, a black horse, and he who sat on it had a balance in his hand.
[6] I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A choenix [1] of wheat for a denarius, and three choenix of barley for a denarius! Don't damage the oil and the wine!"
[7] When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living creature saying, "Come and see!"
[8] And behold, a pale horse, and he who sat on it, his name was Death. Hades followed with him. Authority over one fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword, with famine, with death, and by the wild animals of the earth was given to him.
[9] When he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been killed for the Word of God, and for the testimony of the Lamb which they had.
[10] They cried with a loud voice, saying, "How long, Master, the holy and true, until you judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?"
[11] A long white robe was given to each of them. They were told that they should rest yet for a while, until their fellow servants and their brothers, [2] who would also be killed even as they were, should complete their course.
[12] I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became as blood.
[13] The stars of the sky fell to the earth, like a fig tree dropping its unripe figs when it is shaken by a great wind.
[14] The sky was removed like a scroll when it is rolled up. Every mountain and island were moved out of their places.
[15] The kings of the earth, the princes, the commanding officers, the rich, the strong, and every slave and free person, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains.
[16] They told the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb,
[17] for the great day of his wrath has come; and who is able to stand?"

Footnotes: [1] 6:6 A choenix is a dry volume measure that is a little more than a litre (a little more than a quart).

Revelation 4

[1] After these things I looked and saw a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, like a trumpet speaking with me, was one saying, "Come up here, and I will show you the things which must happen after this."
[2] Immediately I was in the Spirit. Behold, there was a throne set in heaven, and one sitting on the throne
[3] that looked like a jasper stone and a sardius. There was a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald to look at.
[4] Around the throne were twenty-four thrones. On the thrones were twenty-four elders sitting, dressed in white garments, with crowns of gold on their heads.
[5] Out of the throne proceed lightnings, sounds, and thunders. There were seven lamps of fire burning before his throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.
[6] Before the throne was something like a sea of glass, similar to crystal. In the midst of the throne, and around the throne were four living creatures full of eyes before and behind.
[7] The first creature was like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face like a man, and the fourth was like a flying eagle.

[8] The four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes around about and within. They have no rest day and night, saying, "Holy, holy, holy [1] is the Lord God, the Almighty, who was and who is and who is to come!"[9] When the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to him who sits on the throne, to him who lives forever and ever,
[10] the twenty-four elders fall down before him who sits on the throne, and worship him who lives forever and ever, and throw their crowns before the throne, saying,
[11] "Worthy are you, our Lord and God, the Holy One, [2] to receive the glory, the honor, and the power, for you created all things, and because of your desire they existed, and were created!"

Psalm 46

4 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy place where the Most High dwells. 5 God is within her, she will not fall; God will help her at break of day. 6 Nations are in uproar, kingdoms fall; he lifts his voice, the earth melts. 7 The LORD Almighty is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress.

Canada Ablaze!
Todd Bentley

Fresh Fire Ministries - Revivalist Todd Bentley Jan 30, 2004

O Canada, O Canada! I see the nation of Canada Ablaze! I see revival fires burning from sea to sea!

A special message from the desk of Revivalist Todd Bentley: Friday, January 30, 2004

Dear friends,

Please take just a few seconds to read this prophetic message prayerfully. Ask the Lord if this is what you have been waiting for in North America? I'll start with a prophetic word the Lord gave me followed by words from other ministers about an imminent visitation of God.

Then the LORD answered me and said: "Write the vision and make it plain on tablets, that he may run who reads it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time; but at the end it will speak, and it will not lie. Though it tarries, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry. (Habakkuk 2:2,3)

O Canada, O Canada! I see the nation of Canada Ablaze! I see revival fires burning from sea to sea. The Spirit of God has been burning within me. A new passion for our nation has been birthed within my spirit in recent days. Canada, it is time to launch out into the deep with the Gospel of Jesus!

Recently, I have received many prophetic words about how God wants us to strengthen our focus on the nation of Canada. It is time to put things straight and to preach the gospel in the streets of this great nation! We have taken the gospel into more than twenty five nations with major crusades, and outreaches in the last year. God has given us a great harvest of over 140,000 souls for the Kingdom of Heaven.

The Lord has been speaking to my heart, impressing upon me the need to invest time, money and ministry into Canada. God has promised us at Fresh Fire that there is a time of great favor and provision coming to Canada in a mighty way. This new season will open the hearts of people to hear the gospel. Well, I would like to proclaim that this time has come-God is releasing the grace and favor to evangelize Canada now!

Canada's emblem is the maple leaf. It has been prophesied that the emblem represents the leaves of healing from Revelation 22:2: "The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations." We have traveled around the entire world seeing God move in a mighty way, experiencing miracles, signs and wonders. In every nation we have traveled to, the Lord has demonstrated His healing power with a great number of healings.

Now it is time for a mighty move of the Holy Spirit to flow through to the country of Canada too! Take just a minute to look at these powerful words prophesied over the nation of Canada.

Dr. Rodney Howard-Browne

Recently in Abbotsford, British Columbia, Dr. Rodney Howard-Browne, of Revival Ministries International, spoke this powerful word over the land of Canada. He was ministering at The Secret Place conference when Holy Spirit moved upon him to release this prophetic proclamation.

"I see a wave sweeping across this land. For in days gone by there have been moves of the Spirit that have been limited within the local churches, but this next wave shall go far beyond the walls of the church. It shall go into the market places; it shall go into the schools; it shall go into the universities; it shall go into places of business; it shall go into the prison systems; it shall go into the government. Ha, Ha!

Get ready, get ready! Get ready, get ready, get ready, get ready! I see Canada on fire; I see Canada ablaze! I see Canada burning with the glory of God! Get ready, get ready, get ready, get ready!

This move of the Spirit of God shall come from Heaven. Now, there will be those within the religious sector because it did not happen the way they thought it should, and because they could not control it, and because they could not put their finger upon it-they will oppose it. But do not fear nor be dismayed, for the wind of heaven shall blow upon this land and the fire of God shall fall. A great harvest shall be reaped and there shall be whole regions shaken by the fire and the glory of heaven! Get ready, get ready, get ready, get ready, get ready, get ready! Hallelujah!

The plan of the enemy will be stayed. for a season. The plan of the wicked one will be thwarted-get ready, get ready, get ready-for He has saved the best wine for last! Hallelujah, glory to God!

Paul Cain

"God is not done in the city of Toronto and Canada! There is a second wave of revival coming, both to Toronto, Canada and the world. The renewal in 1994 was only the beginning. There is still another wave coming. Just as the tide goes out, it must also come back in due season."

Bobby Connors

(January 8, 1997) In this prophetic experience Bobby was told this: "It's coming down the track and around the bend! The volcanic activity near Bend will announce one of the greatest healing revivals in history. This healing revival will start around Hamilton, Ontario and then blaze across Canada to Vancouver. From there it will turn down the north-west coast of the United States and across the Pacific to the Far East. The Lord then said that this local area in the North West was a seed bed of the healing anointing like that which was upon John G. Lake. The Lord is turning up the heat; it will bring about a refining, and purifying of His people so He can release healing in the Earth in an unprecedented way."

Fresh Fire Launches Canada Ablaze

I am pleased to announce that Fresh Fire Ministries will be launching four evangelistic Crusades in the great nation of Canada this year! Since receiving the prophetic words about the revival destiny of Canada, we at FFM, have felt strongly directed of the Lord to help prepare our nation for what is upon us.

Each of the Canada Ablaze Signs and Wonders Crusades will focus on salvation, outreach, and healing ministry. Fresh fire will host these crusades in numerous cities. Our ministry teams will partner with local churches and ministries that have a heart to see Canada Ablaze with the fire of revival, that have a desire to see God break out with miracles signs and wonders in the streets of our cities! We are looking for people that have a passion to see whole cities and regions shaken with the power and glory of God!

These Ablaze Crusades will include training and equipping seminars. There will be training, teaching, and impartation by myself and many other evangelists like Rodney Howard-Browne and Keith Miller, just to name a few. We will employ all forms of evangelistic outreaches with the demonstration of God's Powers to heal the sick bodies and broken lives today.

These massive city-wide outreaches and crusades will require months of planning prior to each series of meetings. We plan to canvas entire regions with mass media advertising including television, radio, newspaper, and billboard advertising. There is a mighty wave coming to North America!

CANADA A Nation After God
Shirley Lise

I will expose the lies and bring back order in the land. I will house the poor, open doors to the needy. I will no longer let the world dictate policy, but I will bring My counsel to the people. I will enter the doors of homes throughout the nation and walk My living epistles in!

I have a way of opening doors. I have a way to reach the hearts of those within homes across the nation. This is the day when I shall move My pawns in to take the land. I have designated those of My choosing as a healing balm to the nation of Canada. I have fully-equipped My holy warriors to storm the gates of hell. I have given them anointing oil that will flow from their hands unto those in need. Watch Me rearrange things. Watch Me line things up with My will and purpose. The doors will fling wide open as I move My chosen ones into position.

A transition will bridge the gap and make a way for the chosen of the Lord to enter homes and businesses. Watch Me make the transition. Watch Me take those who have been fully-equipped in the presence of the Lord into the homes and households of multitudes.

This is the day when I shall release My power in the midst of those who have followed Me into the harvest fields. I am aligning My Own, positioning them to take their place on the wall, and readying them for action. Commit your ways unto Me and I will lead you out and on and into the highways and byways, into places of darkness to bring the light. Be ready to go, for I am sending you. You will go across the land as a witness of My glory and resurrection power.

I Will Bombard The Enemy
Shirley Lise

I Will Bombard The Enemy From Inside The Gate
riverpub@sgci.com
January 29, 2004

Watch and you will see that I am giving detail after detail of the new move of My Spirit. You can see that I have opened a door you did not expect, and ushered you in. I will take you into places of My choosing to be a light and I will gift and equip you with the goods so that doors of opportunity will open before you. Be ready to be marched into places of darkness to bring the light. Just as you have been "invited in" to paint, clean, and re-orchestrate affairs in the natural realm, you will do so in the spiritual realm, for the spiritual and natural go hand and hand. What you are assigned to do in the natural, you are also commissioned to do in the spiritual.

I will equip you with expertise, skill, stamina, and ability to perform the tasks set before you. This is the new movement of My spirit, out into the highways and byways, into the homes of those who need help.

Watch what I do to encourage those I send you to. I shall move in amongst them to put the house in order. I will inspire them to open their hearts and lives up to the scrutiny of My Spirit. I want to heal and forgive. I want to bless and release. I want to give hope and purpose. This is what I am doing. I shall come with fury to dispel lies, to break strongholds, to disassemble what has been put in place by the enemy, and I shall indeed, set the captives free. And they shall come, and they shall bow down and worship Me, says the Lord. And I shall bring them into the full inheritance of the Saints.

This is the new move of My Spirit, to reach across borders, over boundaries set, to nullify the work of the enemy, and to raise up a standard of holiness in the lives of the people. I will bombard the enemy from inside the gate. I have opened the door for you to move in and exercise authority. Love never fails. Love and servanthood are the two qualities I am using to outsmart the enemy. Love will conquer all. True love will dissolve walls of resentment and bring joy to the captives.

Watch me come in like a flood to dismantle hierarchies that war against Me. I will have the upper hand, says the Lord, for I have declared freedom to the captives, sight to the blind, and the crippled shall walk again. This is the day of revival in the midst of your offspring. This is the day when your sons and your daughters shall run with the mandate to evangelize nations. I am bringing them into their inheritance, into the full measure of My spirit and into the full revelation of Christ. This is the day when I shall slay the enemy at the gate and break his power to seduce. This is the day when I shall come through on promises made to set your children free.

Rise Up
Shirley Lise

Rise Up, Come Up Onto Higher Ground!

Fathom My riches. Watch My hand move. Watch Me take down walls and build bridges. Watch Me intercept the fiery darts of the enemy and override his attempts to slow progress.

I am moving My army forward. Yes, it is a battle, but remember that I am the victor, that I will fight for you and declare your victory. I have imparted much into you, and you will carry it forward out and into the places I would take you. Do not fear or be intimidated by those around you or by your circumstances. Have I not called you to rise above circumstances and not be affected by them? Haven’t I called you to a higher calling? You will move on in the call as you rise above those things of the Earth.

I have given you sight. I have opened your eyes to a higher level of maturity in Me. You need not be bogged down and arrested in your tracks by circumstances. You will see Heaven's floodgates open and a display of My splendor. You will look on and see and know that you are not of the world and its ways, that you are not affected by negative circumstances, that they do not dictate to you, but you are able to rise above them. This is the sight I am giving to My Beloved in this day, the ability to rise above what you see in the natural realm and to see in the realm of My Spirit. Those things you see and hear in this level will be what influences your moves and decisions, and you will not be touched by those things transpiring in the natural realm.

I have, indeed, called you to the higher calling, so rise up and take your place on higher ground. What you will see, those of long ago desired to see. You will see the movement of an army moving across the land conquering every enemy in its midst. You will see victory over every evil thing that comes your way, and you will walk in holiness, untainted by the affairs of the world.

Rise up, come up onto higher ground, and you will walk in victory over the enemy. The battle rages, but My army of warriors is able to defeat every foe. Call forth those things in the Spirit. Call them forth as if they be, for soon the realm of My Spirit will be more real to you than the natural realm. Soon you will see things through My eyes. Soon you will live and move and have your being in Me, unaffected by those things that take place round about you.

This is the day of your rising, of being taken up into Heavenly realms and eating at My table, for the banquet has begun! Rise up, My precious ones. Do not look down, but look up! I am moving things forward. I am putting into place all those things I promised. I am lining things up in the Heavens and soon you will move out into those things assigned to you by your Heavenly Father. Do not look to the natural realm but rise up into the realm of My Spirit, and move ahead. Great are My ways, high above the ways of men, high above the Earthly realm!

Candle In The Wind

Terri Derocher

May 22, 2004
Jesus is not a candle in the wind....HE IS THE LIGHT of the World! John 8:12 Right now as the wind picks up tremendous force in the spiritual and in the natural (here in the Northwest we had a tornado yesterday) I see us standing....STANDING in the face of this onslaught of debris flying by and it is because we are hid.....HID....hiding right behind Christ. He is taking the full brunt of this wind!

(Webster's-- orig. a heavy blow or attack 2. the shock (of an attack) or impact (of a blow) 3. the heaviest or hardest part to bear, the brunt of /the blame!)
He is taking the full force that has been aimed against YOU! ...but you are invisible to the enemy!

Pastors, Ministry Leaders, Cell Group Leaders, Street Preachers, Homeless caretakers, Presidents & Kings.....Stand and PROCLAIM the truth the Lord has given you! I hear the Lord say "Did I tell you stop proclaiming the truth? Is the battle too big for me? Have I not given you strength to stand! You can do ALL things through Me!"
The water is rising in this storm....The Lord has never said what the outcome would be for many of the things He has called you to do....and you have done them in obedience. That is all He desires of you.... is your obedience.

I hear ..."BUTTON Down the HATCHES!" I asked my husband, the old Navy man about that, and he confirmed ...water cannot get in and SINK the ship! So the Lord would say....."Get ready.....BUTTON DOWN THE HATCHES.... and get ready to ride this storm out with me!"

"When you pass through the waters, I will be with you: and when you pass through the rivers, they will not sweep over you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not set you ablaze." for I am the Lord, your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior;....Isaiah 43: 2&3

Prepare, prepare the way.....for the King is coming and He is beautiful, and glory filled (just full of miracles and SPLENDOR), and full of wisdom and strength and truth and..... He carries the keys to the kingdom to give to YOU!

May you and your family be blessed in Jesus' name--Terri Derocher

Carnival Atmosphere

Bob Jones

The Danger of Allowing a "Carnival Atmosphere"

A Vision from Bob Jones

A few weeks ago, Bob was given a unique vision that displayed a portion of the enemy strategies to entice and lure young people away from the destiny prepared for them. This is a different day than any prior generation. There has been a supernatural impartation released from heaven into a body of people who hunger for the reality of Christ. No imitation or substitute will suffice.

Only the Lord Jesus revealing Himself in every expression we find depicted in the Bible will satisfy this hungry company. It is something of an "all are nothing" mentality. If they cannot discover the "real" in Church, then the enemy will provide enticements outside of the Church with false hope and counterfeit spirituality.

In his vision, Bob was shown a Church and its surrounding grounds. This Church was called to bring the revelation of Jesus to their area. However, on the grounds a carnival or fair had been erected. On the surface, the carnival seemed harmless enough with various activities and amusement rides. However, below the surface all manner of evil lurked. It was a demonic enticement to distract and entrap young people into a false spiritual atmosphere. It seemed to incorporate things that young people desired. In reality, it brought death and darkness in lieu of life.

Hidden Spirits of Apathy and Lethargy

In the spirit, prophetic eyes were allowed to see that hidden pentagrams and other demonic symbolism were employed to release the spirit of apathy and lethargy. Likewise, the enemy hoped to steal from the people devotion to Christ and introduce carnality veiled as spirituality in its place. It was actually a play on words. The "carnival" was a trap to release greater measures of "carnality" in the Church.

"For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, nor indeed can be." Romans 8:6-7

This was being exposed so that we could counter the assault through prayer and intercession. Bringing the adversary out of darkness into light is the first step in victory. Satan had carefully orchestrated the carnival so that it appeared innocent enough with veiled spiritual activities. However, at the heart it was the thief.

The Warning

The vision was emphasizing a warning against allowing carnality to flourish in the Church. This was represented by a carnival atmosphere that is often allowed. The Scripture warns that jealousies, envying and divisions were the signs and fruit of carnality. They are the attributes of being unspiritual and under the administration of fleshly impulses. The apostle Paul stated,

"for you are still carnal. For where there are envy, strife, and divisions among you, are you not carnal and behaving like mere men?" 1 Corinthians 3:3

When Bob first shared this vision in a local Church, there was an individual present who knew of a radio program entitled "Carnival." The program employed as an emblem for its sponsorship the pentagram. This seemed to be an affirmation and timeliness of this message.

The essence of the message is an admonition to carefully pursue and embrace only the spiritual life we see depicted in the Scriptures. Specifically, we are called to live and experience the Apostolic Church revealed in the book of Acts. That is the spiritual atmosphere that is to be realized in this day. It is the only impartation of life that will satisfy the hunger and thirst of a needy generation.

Our quest is the infilling of the Holy Spirit that was made real to the early Apostles and available to us in this day. According to the Scripture,

"you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be My witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and even to the remotest part of the earth." Acts 1:8

That is Church administration as God intended it. Any other activities, programs and worldly enticements would only be an empty substitute. The people want the reality of Christ, especially the young.

Come And See

Cindy Allen

Come And See! Come And Know!

Jun 10, 2004

At present, the Holy Spirit is moving to position the Church to possess a new level of authority. Before we can possess new and greater authority, we must know the accountability and responsibility of walking in that level of power and anointing. The five fold expressions of the Ministry of Christ begins being revealed to us at a foundational level where and when we begin abiding in a prophetic lifestyle of accepting accountability. This accountability teaches us how to stand the ground we've been given as we are being transformed into one who can possess the land through the word of our testimony.

These ministries of Christ are received into our lifestyle as we are given discernment in where and how to yield ourselves so that we may receive of these expressions and functions (Ministries) in Christ. This discernment is given by the Holy Spirit.

It should be understood that the five fold ministries of Christ have functions that are released within the anointing and purpose of the Holy Spirit. The ministry of Christ (singular) will always serve to gather, to heal and to bring to restoration.

The presence of this Life (Ministries) of Christ within our testimony launches us into greater levels of faith; a faith that is purposed to catapult us deeper into the presence of God. The members of the Body of Christ are being gathered to "come and see". Translated, "come and see" means to come and intimately KNOW what it is to become so interwoven in the essence of God, you no longer know where you end and He begins.

THE FAITHFULNESS OF GOD TO HEAL

In preparation for us to be made ready for this transition, the Holy Spirit reveals to us any areas of our life that are in need of healing. The Holy Spirit works with us privately in a manner that allows us to intimately identify His personal inner witness. It is through our personal relationship with the Holy Spirit's inner witness that we begin to see God's character so that Christ may be formed within us. Christ is the rock on which we stand. The teaching and counsel of the Holy Spirit will always be towards showing us and leading us into greater standards of Christ. These standards of Christ become goals for us to walk towards and reach so that He may be manifest in us and our lives. Through abiding in Christ in this way, we experience the anointing. It is within the anointing that we begin seeing the patterns of Christ and boundaries that we are to walk in so that we are mindful to protect the anointing. As our relationship with Christ is strengthened in this way, we begin discerning Him more in others. Through this discernment, we identify Christ in others to cause us to become more mindful of protecting and nurturing the anointing of Christ in them as well.

Where Christ is manifest in two or more, fellowship will become a manifestation where God's glory is seen and experienced. True fellowship in Christ will always produce an overflow. We are being led to these experiences of Christ to cause us to forsake and abandon everything that has disallowed Him to be made known through the mindsets and traditions that we've held onto in the past.

John 15:1 "I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener. 2 He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit, while every branch that does bear fruit he prunes so that it will be even more fruitful. 3 You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. 4 Remain in me, and I will remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me. NIV

We alone are personally accountable to walk in the standard of Christ that is being revealed to us. This faith in Christ can only be revealed to others through the witness that becomes present through the application of this word being demonstrated in our own lives. Thus begins the unveiling of the principal (of application) of the two witnesses.

Where the word of our testimony is balanced with the works of our testimony, Christ is formed in us and His manifestation can be clearly seen by others.

Where two (or more) are gathered in the name of Jesus, the sonship of Christ that these walk in independently will become one witness. The Holy Spirit will then move as the second witness through the overflow of anointing to reveal the fruitfulness of Christ as another witness is being gathered.

God the Father honors His Word with His Word. Just as Christ became the Word made flesh, we become living Epistles through abiding in His sonship. The patterns of the Life of Christ will always produce this same Life through multiplication and increase to prosper those whom the anointing is drawing.

Once we have made Jesus Lord over everything in our lives, we then move into a dimension of reigning with the one we have given Lordship over all things. This is our place of rest in Him. We are continually strengthened and refreshed in His rest because we abide in Him.

As we depend only on God's spirit, we have no faith in our own strength or power. There IS understanding and knowledge in God's spirit and He freely gives of Himself. We are abiding in Him and resting, even when it appears we are in warfare. God delights in showing us His power and will continually honor us through His fellowship with us.

In His Love,

Cindy Allen

Come Boldly To The Throne Of Grace

Connie Giordano

Sep 08, 2004
Thomas Manton - "Mercy is an ocean that is ever full and ever flowing." George Barlow - "Grace is what all need, what none can merit, and what God alone can give."

Hebrews 4:16 - "Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need."

It is absolutely amazing to think that God Almighty - the Creator and Governor of this universe - would petition us as frail creatures to come to Him in our time of need.

Matthew 11:28 - Yet, the invitation is out - "Come unto Me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." Isaiah 1:18 - "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow..." James 4:8 - "Draw nigh to God, and He will draw nigh to you..."

Hebrews 4:16 tells us - "Let us therefore come..." God is petitioning us to come to Him, and all because we have such a Great High Priest Who is touched with the feeling of our infirmities - Jesus, the Son of God - Who is able to save to the uttermost all those who come unto God by Him, seeing He ever lives to make intercession for them
Consequently, the writer of Hebrews encourages all believers to approach God, and to approach Him boldly. The way has been made into the Holy of Holies.

Hebrews 10:19 says that we have "boldness to enter into the Holiest by the Blood of Jesus." Ephesians 3:12 says that in Jesus we have access and boldness with confidence. Ephesians 1:6 - Because of Who Jesus is and what He accomplished on Calvary's Cross, we can come to God without reservation, openly, frankly, without ambiguity, free and fearless, and with total confidence. We are now "accepted in the Beloved." We are no longer outcasts, foreigners, or strangers. We will not be cast out or rejected.

Come.

Come unto God.

Come boldly.

Jesus made a way.

It's the new and living way.

PRAISE HIS HOLY NAME!

When we come, let us remember that we are approaching "the throne of grace." It could very well be the throne of judgment. But because of our Great High Priest and His atoning Blood sprinkled on the Mercy Seat in the Holy of Holies in heaven as well as in our hearts, God's throne becomes a "throne of grace" for us. Here is where we lay hold of all of the Lord's favor, good will, and loving kindnesses towards us.

The writer of Hebrews designates two main reasons why we should ascend to this throne of grace - to obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

A man by the name of Thomas Manton said - "Mercy is an ocean that is ever full and ever flowing." So we never need to fear that the supply of the Lord's much needed mercy will ever run dry.

Ephesians 2:4 tells us that God is "rich in mercy." 2 Corinthians 1:3 refers to God as the "Father of mercies." Psalm 100:5 says - "For the LORD is good; His mercy is everlasting..." Numbers 14:18 says - "The LORD is longsuffering, and of great mercy..."

Oh, Christian, let us obtain mercy. Let us lay hold of it...make it our own...claim it...and receive it. There is a plentiful supply. Let it be our first humble cry. Lord, have mercy on us! Lord, show Your kindness and good will to us in our misery and affliction and come and help us.

Let us always remember one thing as F.B. Meyer so aptly points out - "Always distinguish between the words "attain" and "obtain." We can never attain or earn God's gracious help by prayer or service, but we can obtain, appropriate, and take it."

Hebrews 4:16 - "Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy... "

Besides obtaining mercy, we are instructed to approach the throne of grace for grace itself.

Andrew Murray said - "Grace in God is His compassion on the unworthy." George Barlow said - "Grace is what all need, what none can merit, and what God alone can give." Richard Sibbes said - "Grace is above all conditions." J.C. Ryle said - "Grace is stronger than circumstances."

While in this world, we definitely need something that is above all our conditions and stronger than our circumstances. God has given it to us in His grace.

Hebrews 12:28 - Most importantly, we need God's enabling grace in order to serve Him "acceptably with reverence and godly fear." In order to do that, we must have some form of strength, help, support, and direction to keep us from temptation and sin. He has made provision through His grace.

Thomas Brooks once said - "The life of grace is the death of sin, and the growth of grace the decay of sin." He also said - "As heat is opposed to cold, and light to darkness, so grace is opposed to sin. Fire and water may as well agree in the same vessel as grace and sin in the same heart."

The Apostle Paul stated in Romans 5:20 - "...But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound." OH, HALLELUJAH! What comforting words! God has made provision for us to live above sin - free from its shackles and chains. His provision is His grace.

No more do we need to feel downcast or discouraged.

No more do we need to struggle against the temptations of sin.

The Holy Spirit invites us to come to the throne of grace.

Come boldly.

Here we will obtain mercy.

Here we will find grace.

All because of Jesus - our Great High Priest.

Praise His Holy Name!
May God Bless His Word.

Contemptuous Brothers & Five Smooth Stones
Jim Dierickx

Yesterday while waking up from a dream that had to deal with how David's brothers treated him at the front-line. This is when Goliath was taunting the Israelites, and after reading the account of David Vs Goliath in 1 Samuel Chapter 17, something just happened and I came into a new revelation of the power of the five smooth stones and how the enemy is trying to dissuade us from using them. I believe I am supposed to share this with other leaders and the body of Christ as well. Since it deals with the Five-Fold Ministry Model that God is trying to restore to the entire church at this time.

The first thing that was in the dream was the enemy using David's own brother to try and cause him not to fulfill the vision and calling that God had for him, to not get to the point in his walk to even need the Apostolic Stones as weapons, to not go forward and take hold of the Five-Fold Ministry Gifts that were needed to take down the enemy Giant in The Land.. This happened in my dream where 3 voices of the past spoke to me and basically said, "how dare you believe what God has in store for you, if you cant take care of the small things how dare you expect God to move in and do major miracles." From an earlier verse David's father sent him to check up on his brothers and to bring them and their commander some extra provision in the form of roasted grain, bread, and cheese. 13 Jesse's three oldest sons had followed Saul to the war: The firstborn was Eliab; the second, Abinadab; and the third, Shammah. 14 David was the youngest. The three oldest followed Saul, 15 but David went back and forth from Saul to tend his father's sheep at Bethlehem. And just like in the passage there are 3 voices of dissent and contempt from the 3 oldest brothers of David.

They despised him for his lack of fear and wanting to take down the Giant that had everyone else walking in fear and not faith and trust in the Lord. These men needed someone like David to come in, and stir up the water to be an overcomer and not look at the natural circumstances of life, and basically trust God for what He says. Then to justify their own insecurities they always distort the true meaning of why these overcomers are sent into their midst in the first place. Here again David's oldest brother says this to him, "I know how conceited you are and how wicked your heart is; you came down only to watch the battle." They not only try and stop them through talk of unbelief but then they try to shut up the voice of the Apostolic and Prophetic from effecting others. These older brothers are this way because they don't want to hear the true voice of God but rather they want hear a candy coated message of peace, peace where there is no peace, like in Jeremiah's day. They only want the prophetic if they have to have it, when they can control the person giving the message. And as far as a true five ministry model they always want to distort this as well.

But as you can see in Christendom Today, as in Jesus' day, and in the time of David almost whenever someone comes in; on fire and truly believing that they can take the hill, and believe God for miracles. The old system that represents David's more mature brothers raise their heads and speak unbelief and contempt towards people committed in walking what God has for them. Trying to always keep them down, and are mad like Saul later is at David because God is with the David's, and not with many of the older brothers who have grown old and stiff necked to the leading of the Holy Spirit. The older brothers want a outer covering of what appears as right living and are even talking spiritual warfare but they really don't believe it, and their trust is not in the Lord or they would have charged ahead at first at Goliath like the servant David did when he arrived on the scene.

Now these older brothers have a way of trying to shut up the true prophetic voices of God, through major control and intimidation. But as we see in the scriptural account of David someone will hear the true message of faith and overcoming and tell the people who are truly in spiritual authority, and then the person of spiritual authority will validate them and recognize them as truly being sent by the Lord. This is what is written in I Samuel 17 verse 29 "Now what have I done?" said David. "Can't I even speak?" 30 He then turned away to someone else and brought up the same matter, and the men answered him as before. 31 What David said was overheard and reported to Saul, and Saul sent for him. So even when they try and stop the move of God, if it is truly ordained by the Lord and the vessel that is being used does not falter or cower down to their intimidation then the true message and vision for that time, can't be shut up the true move of God will prevail.

But as we see as David is questioned by Saul as to his spiritual fitness he is testifying to the measure of miracles that he has moved in . David had killed the lion and the bear, in hidden times when nobody else was watching and he overcame. These smaller victories had qualified him to take on the spiritual giant that Goliath had represented. But as he is getting ready the old move of God that was established as the authority for that season wanted him to put on their mantle and armor. "38 Then Saul dressed David in his own tunic. He put a coat of armor on him and a bronze helmet on his head. 39 David fastened on his sword over the tunic and tried walking around, because he was not used to them. "I cannot go in these," he said to Saul, "because I am not used to them." So he took them off." But as one can see that was not the mantle and anointing that God had for the forerunner of the next move of God , for he had him do things way different than the Saul movement would have done it. So David says, "I cannot go in these," he said to Saul, "because I am not used to them." So he took them off.."

Then David goes into the spiritual battle the way God want's him to with only a Staff, sling, bag, and five smooth stones*. "40 Then he took his staff in his hand, chose five smooth stones from the stream, put them in the pouch of his shepherd's bag and, with his sling in his hand, approached the Philistine."* As I was reading this passage of scripture it occurred to me that at this time by walking in faith that David was promoted from his priestly shepherd calling that he had turned over to someone else before he went to the battlefield, to the office of an Apostle with the five fold ministry giftings at his disposal. I am going to say something here that I believe is true, and that a true Apostle can work at times work in all of the other four giftings, such as a Pastor, Prophet, Evangelist, and Teacher. So I believe the Staff Represented his Rod of Authority like Moses had & it also represents the Apostolic Authority to take out the giants and principalities in an area that God had decreed him to do. The sling was the weapon that God gave him to accomplish defeating Goliath. And the five smooth stones in the stream represent the true gifts of Apostle, Prophet, Evangelist, Pastor, and Teacher. The key is the smooth stones in the stream that have been washed in the river of life for a very long time to wash away the rough edges that cause us to be ineffective in ministry. But these gifts were in fact perfected by the River Of Life and ready for David to use to take out Goliath.

I in fact think that Goliath had a disadvantage and that was David brought five times the needed weapons to fight and defeat him in battle. Now one might be thinking right about now that this is nonsense but think a minute here is the crux of the matter. That was revealed to me that every gifting ahs the power and authority to take down the enemy when properly employed in God's kingdom. Here is the narrative again, 42 He looked David over and saw that he was only a boy, ruddy and handsome, and he despised him. 43 He said to David, "Am I a dog, that you come at me with sticks?" And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. 44 "Come here," he said, "and I'll give your flesh to the birds of the air and the beasts of the field!" 45 David said to the Philistine, "You come against me with sword and spear and javelin, but I come against you in the name of the LORD Almighty, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. 46 This day the LORD will hand you over to me, and I'll strike you down and cut off your head.." As one can see whenever we confront the forces of darkness they always will rail false curses at us and try to convince us of their power over the situation, and they will always threaten us with some form of loss and or physical death.

That is why in Revelation John said, "Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ. For the accuser of our brothers, who accuses them before our God day and night, has been hurled down. 11They overcame him, by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony; they did not love their lives so much as to shrink from death. We must be like this unafraid of death, and ready to face whatever the enemy is trying to throw at us if we are going to effective, we must have this much trust in the Lord to trust him with our lives like the early church did to be a testimony even unto death. The reason that the enemy giant tries this tactic of hurling insults, curses, division, fear, etc., is to try and get us of the task at hand, which is to take him out and have the faith to believe that God will intervene when we stand on His word. As the scripture says Goliath despised David, cures him by his gods, and tried to make David turn and look at his self by calling him a dog and making fun of his apparent obsolete weapons. The enemy uses these tactics because he knows that when we have trust and faith in the power and authority that God has given us believers that he has to admit to the truth that God is in control, and God alone has the power to let him stay or force him to leave.

If we would grasp the disparity of the kingdom of God being in control, versus the limited weakened power of the Devil we would all walk more victorious lives here right now, myself included. One time I had a vision where the church I was attending had a ministering angel assigned to it and this church was in the country and had around 30 or so acres of grass & hay land around the church building. In this vision the Angel of the Lord was around 300-500 ft tall and had his hand on the church building , and this wolf-like black dog was trying to approach the church property to cause division and trouble, and the voice of the angel said, “ you cannot pass through these grounds, and this sent the dog running scared. When the black dog got close it had to leave and walk many miles away around the church property, and it was deathly afraid of the Angel stepping on it and crushing it like we would a bug on the ground or kicking it around sending the black dog hurling for many miles. This vision showed me that the devil and his fallen angels are on a tight leash and that he is very limited on what he can do and they know that God is waiting for us to advance His Kingdom and subdue the earth and restore that which was lost, in Jesus name. And when we do, Satan loses and spiritual authority is set in place the way God want’s it.

Getting back the I Samuel 17 story we are at the confrontation line and David takes on Goliath, and as I said before, “David has five times the needed firepower to take out the Giant in the land.” Here is what is written, “49 Reaching into his bag and taking out a stone, he slung it and struck the Philistine on the forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell facedown on the ground” Here is what is so amazing about this it occurred to me that the stone sunk into his forehead and then he fell face-first towards David. The stone sank in and the Devil was faced with the truth of God that pierced the lies that this power believed the true power of God made it surrender. This shocked and awed the fallen power into acknowledging it was subject to the Spiritual Authority of God. Goliath had to bow down and pay God homage just like the impotent god Dagon had to when the Philistine people stole the Arc of The Covenant, they put it in the same temple as their god, and in the morning their god was bowing facedown towards the Arc, and the next day his arms and head were broken off and the idol was still bowing facedown towards the Arc. The important thing to remember once the truth is inevitable the enemy has to acknowledge God sovereignty and in fact the enemy must submit and bow the knee to the true God. And when this was going on David walked up and took Goliath’s own sword and used his own weapon against him and this totally destroyed the enemy. “51 David ran and stood over him. He took hold of the Philistine's sword and drew it from the scabbard. After he killed him, he cut off his head with the sword. When the Philistines saw that their hero was dead, they turned and ran. 52 Then the men of Israel and Judah surged forward with a shout and pursued the Philistines to the entrance of Gath ” So once the power of the principality or spiritual giant is broken a flood of faith will fill an area, and people who were moments earlier filled with fear and unbelief see the true overwhelming power of God, and they cannot help but advance the Kingdom of God, and the work for a season is effortless.

The reason that I said that David had a fivefold advantage was any of the fivefold gifting when used right could have taken out Goliath. For instance I feel that if it were an Apostolic Stone that David flung it would have had the wisdom and timing to be effective when using the authority of God in the stone, so the Authority of God would have sunk in and pierced the skull of the enemy. If it had been a Prophetic Stone it would have had some revelatory gifting that the stone, that would have had spoken truth about God’s mysteries and hidden things it also would have sunk in and rendered the giant bowing. If it had been an Evangelistic Stone the truth about Jesus and God goodness would have sunk in and brought him bowing down. If it had been a Pastoral Stone the truth of covenant of David being circumcised would have brought the giant bowing down before the Lord. And if it had been a Teaching Stone the truth about God’s written word would have sunk in and brought the Giant down. And when you have five offensive weapons that all work in a powerful team and are directed and trained by being in the River of Life for a long time, you for sure can take out the giants of the land in God’s perfect plan.

In closing sometimes when in you are going into a battle that God has ordained, many will try and talk you out of your destiny test, and when you overcome that onslaught of doubt and unbelief, a bigger one will occur when you have the attained five-fold ministry gift, because the enemy will try and get you to look at the situation and try to get you to walk in fear, but when you stand firm the truth of the matter will pierce the enemy and he will have to bow a knew to God and then we will have the ability to kill him with his own weapon. Sounds good to me lets take the hill with the Lords will.

Come Back America

Judith Grobelny

(Vision and intercession)

Today I can feel a strange tug and pull, a yearning in my heart towards America.
It is how one feels when a child is far away, and you long for them to be kept safe until they return home.
It seems this is the Lord's heart in this time.
Way beyond who will be President, and what the elections will bring, I feel the Lord's longing, His call for America to return home.
There has been so much grace.
There has been so much time given.
There has been such a stretching away from the original path that I see a person walking far over on the left of my vision, almost out of sight.
The call is so strong now – "Come back".

I cannot think of a nation the Lord has blessed more than the United States of America, or one that He has used more to bless other nations.
He has given me a great love for the nation and the people – I have had an American flag hanging in my office for years.
But right now, I sense that the focus on which of two men will win the election has taken away from the focus that God is OVER the nation.
Neither Bush nor Kerry will be the saviour of the nation, and the Lord is yearning for the hearts that once were His alone but have turned off to the side.

As I look at the lone figure afar off, I know that if that person goes any further they will fall right out of the picture.
I sense that they have pushed so far out only one of two things can happen – they will fall out of sight, or the Lord will erect a wall to stop them going further – either of these is a frightening prospect.

My prayer and the great weight in my heart today is "Come back" – come back to the One source of safety and protection, come back to the centre of the path.
I pray for the Christians in the United States that today they will seek FIRST the Kingdom of God, and all else will fall into place.

Christ Comes

2 Cor 3:16-18

16 Nevertheless when one turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. 17 Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. 18 But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord. NKJV

As we continue to experience God's glory increasing through our fellowship in Christ, it causes me to continually think on the Ark of the Covenant. Presently, I'm most drawn to the cherubim of glory because of what is taking place.

3 and behind the second veil, the part of the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of All, 4 which had the golden censer and the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which were the golden pot that had the manna, Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant; 5 and above it were the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat. Of these things we cannot now speak in detail. NKJV

Before I ever began having prophetic experiences of crossing the Jordan River, I spent a great deal of time studying the Ark of the Covenant. I read all I could find, and my studies only caused a hunger for something that I had no understanding of to end up driving me into the face of what God was calling me into. I would like to expound a little on what it means to prophetically cross the Jordan. First of all, the Holy Spirit is performing the Word in our life to cause us to become living Epistles through our sonship in Christ. I've shared that when I first began experiencing God's glory, it immediately identified my flesh and was terribly uncomfortable. As soon as these areas are brought under subjection to the Lord, God's fire becomes very desirable to dwell in because it causes us to be extremely conscious of Him. Abiding in the realm of the spirit, we desire to stay within the fire of God and His fire begins manifesting into His glory. Soon God's glory begins pulling those we are in relationship with into this fire to accomplish the same purposes and to sanctify our relationships. This sanctification in our relationships allows Koinonea to begin taking place.

The Holy Spirit began revealing the Jordan River to me when I found myself in fellowship with laws, traditions, or patterns that were outside of covenant relationship to God. The Holy Spirit would always reveal God's will so that I could cross over and align myself in covenant relationship with God. As soon as this would happen, I would immediately be increased in my vision, perception and understanding of the things that the Holy Spirit was showing me. The wrong things I found myself being in fellowship with, began with traditions revealed in relationships that were in place in my home, extended family and then in my church family.

The reason the Holy Spirit prophetically uses the Jordan River is because we can only cross over through applying the cross to our own lives. The cross causes us alone to be accountable for our own spiritual healing. Crossing these darks waters stops the flow and releases a fresh flow of grace from the Throne of God to reveal Christ to those who were once kept within these boundaries. Where the standard of Christ is raised, veils are removed....which takes us back to 2 Cor 3:16. 2 Cor 3:16- Nevertheless when one turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away.

Now, through grace...., 2 Cor 3: 17 Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. 18 But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord. NKJV

Again, back to sharing how Koinonea is causing God's glory to increase in order to reveal how this is taking place. With our faces unveiled, the glory is reflected from one to another so that we are continually transformed through discerning Christ in those we fellowship with. We know Christ in ourselves, but fellowshipping with HIM in others produces a synergy within God's glory that causes each one to be catapulted deeper into God's presence where greater faith is activated.

Christ comes in His glory through this fellowship so that we are immediately transformed in God's unveiled presence. Although God's glory keeps us continually broken, there is no judgment and very few words when the glory is manifest. We do not usually experience the glory transforming us during fellowship with each other. This usually takes place separately and privately when we are alone in God's presence. When we are broken in the presence of God's glory, we are immediately re-created into the vessel that will hold the glory that is being imparted to us. This brokenness is very different than the brokenness we are accustomed to when we are decreasing so that Christ may increase. When Christ comes through Koinonea, we increase; but the experience of increasing in Him is extremely humbling.

Be blessed when you sense that the Holy Spirit is preparing you to step into the waters of the Jordan in order to stop the flow of tradition. When these waters are stopped, the veils that cover the faces of people are removed. Old boundaries are removed as Christ is revealed through a new flow of grace.

Blessings to all,

Cindy

Cultural Change Must Come Before Political Change

Don Walker

For Christians, our hope is not in politics but in the power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Political systems do not change men fundamentally, though we do have a name for those systems that believe they can change men—totalitarianisms. Marxist political regimes believed they could inculcate virtue, creating "the new man" (a term they took from the Bible). The aims of Christian democracies founded on Christian truths are more modest—chiefly protecting life, liberty, and property. Because our ultimate hope is not in politics, we should lower our political goals and heighten our cultural goals. We should work for cultural transformation by means of preaching the Gospel and making disciples who are applying God's truth in all areas of life; only then will a "Christianized" political order come about incrementally, over the course of time. We should think of working from the bottom up rather than the top down.

This means, among other things, that if we want to change the slate of candidates with whom the two major parties confront us, we must change the culture. Politics are only a reflection of the culture. If we want to elect some one president who both understands and faithfully stands by Biblical principles of government, we'll need to change the culture so a rather wide consensus supports such candidates. Culture is the dog that wags the tail of politics. If you don't like the look of the tail, don't try to cut it off; get a new dog.

In other words: We can't get a new president until we get a new culture. We must be willing to vote for less than ideal candidates while working zealously for pervasive Christian influence in popular music, education, technology, media, movies, and elsewhere in the culture.

Harriet Beecher Stowe, through her novel, Uncle Tom's Cabin, influenced the national conscience concerning the issue of slavery in her day. Today its not the novelist, but the film maker (unless the novel is made in to a movie) who wields the greatest influence. Take note of the influence exercised by people like Steven Speilberg, Michael Moore, or Mel Gibson. If believers captured the Hollywood movie industry we would have little trouble capturing Washington, D.C.

Undoubtedly talk radio has emerged as an influential force in our nation. The overwhelming number of the prominent talk show hosts are on the conservative side of the political spectrum. While they often exalt "family values," imagine if they were responding to the national problems with explicit Biblical answers. Imagine if they even began to call our nation to repentance.

What would happen if the overwhelming number of journalists in our nation were Christians with a Biblical worldview? What would happen if the major educational institutions were once again Christian in their worldview? What would happen if the Christian recording artists began to "crowd out" the vulgar ones? What if the leading businessmen and economists were all using the Scriptures as their textbook?

Once the culture begins to reflect the values of God's Word electing a president with a consistent Biblical worldview will be easy. Until then, we must either work faithfully with the historical options God has granted us, or support third-party candidates that may more consistently adhere to God's prescription for civil government, but are not going to get elected. He has not placed us in a historical situation that permits us to vote for the ideal "electable" candidate. So, God expects us to vote responsibly, thoughtfully, and prayerfully for the candidate that most accurately reflects Christian convictions.

Evangelical Schizophrenia

Don Walker

Probably the most amazing phenomena of recent Christian publishing history has been the remarkable success of Tim LaHaye and Jerry Jenkins' Left Behind book series. These novels have been outselling all other Christian literature, with the possible exception of the Bible itself.

It isn't all that difficult to understand the popularity of this series. We live in uncertain times, a time of rapid change and considerable chaos. The Left Behind novels tap into the curiosity that many have about what the future holds, and what forces are controlling the course of world events. They present an apocalyptic worldview that many Christians have been indoctrinated in due to the influence of what is known as "dispensationalism." Thirty years ago it was Hal Lindsey with his book, The Late Great Planet Earth, brought dispensational theology with its view of the events surrounding the Second Coming, to the top of The New York Times bestsellers list.

Essentially, this theological position holds to the idea that the whole world is going down the toilet as Satan runs amuck on earth to the point that, very soon, an evil global leader will arise and inaugurate an unparalleled reign of terror. Basically, this view is dominated by the future being one of doom and gloom, catastrophe and failure. The world is inevitably going to grow worse and worse until Jesus rescues us in the rapture just before things get really bad. (As the currently predominate view among evangelicals, you can find this perspective expressed in nonfictional works by LaHaye, and many others as well: John Haggee, Jack van Impe, Hal Lindsey, etc.) From this perspective every gross manifestation of evil is seen as increasing evidence of "the soon coming of Christ."

Meanwhile, there has been another growing trend taking place in American Christianity without so much as a mental reference to the first: Involvement in politics and cultural issues. We find evangelical Christians marching against abortion, lobbying against gay marriage, protesting over the idea of U.N. monitored elections. They decry pornography and filth in the entertainment industry. They run for office, start radio programs, magazines, organizations, etc.—all to change society for the better. They do all this by day, and read Armageddon by night. The irony of it all is that they do it without recognizing the dissonance in these two positions. Hence, the title of this edition – "Evangelical Schizophrenia."

If the world is rapidly going to hell in a hand basket, why bother? Why are we polishing the brass on U.S.S. America if its inevitable demise will hasten the return of Christ? Why vote? Why fight gay marriage? Polygamy and bestiality are just around the corner. After all, if things get worse, won't Christ just come back that much sooner? If we concede to U.N. authority and oversight during this upcoming election, won't that just hasten a One World Order, which means a quick rapture? Even if we don't hasten the end, what sense does it make to fight the inevitable decline?

If we were consistent with our doctrine, we would all retreat into our church ghettos, or better yet head into the wilderness, close our eyes and ears to the world, and wait for Jesus to come back.

Perhaps instead, we should go back and restudy our Bibles. Maybe the Church is not destined to go down in defeat, but to be victorious, through the power of the Holy Spirit, here on the earth.

Here are the questions we must ask ourselves:

Do we believe in the triumph of Christ over the Devil at the Cross? (Heb. 2:14)

Do we believe that the Church will overcome the "gates of Hell?" (Matt. 16:18)

Do we believe that the weapons that have been given the Church are powerful enough to bring down Islam and the New Age movement? (II Cor. 10:3-5)

Do we believe that Christ is praying for His Church and that His prayers are effective? (Heb. 7:25)

Do we believe that through the Church, Christ will reveal His manifold wisdom to the demonic powers? (Ephes. 3:10)

Do we believe that Christ will remain seated at the right hand of the Father until all of His enemies are made a "footstool for His feet"? (Ps.110: 1-2)

The faith of the Church fathers and the Reformers was victorious with a triumphant Christ revealed in His Church. This victory was indeed the hope of the Church. Their hope was in the power of Christ to transform individuals and thus transform the world in which they lived. Their hope was in a gospel that would go out into the entire world and which would find its culmination and inevitable conclusion in Jesus' glorious appearing.Website and archive of past "Arrows of Truth": www.basileiaministries.org

Calling Evil Good
Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,

From today's news I learned that Florida was hit by two tropical storms. Interestingly just a week ago on CNN, in an interview on the Presidential Elections, the leader of one of the largest homosexual communities in the United States was asked which candidate their community was supporting. It just so happens that this community is situated in the Florida Keys. But, of course, this is not the only place where the so-called alternative-life-style individuals reside. Even here, in the "Holy Land" and in the "holy city", homosexual parades are being held with the full consent of municipal and national leaders.

If we have learned anything from history, then we should realize that there are always two signs that accompany the decline and eventual extinction of a civilization. One is homosexuality, and the other the sacrificing or killing of babies (abortion). These two manifestations of sin in our society have become the standard norm. Nevertheless, YHVH does not have to engage Himself in judging these matters as He has already built their resultant effect into the laws that govern sin. One does not have to be a prophet of doom and gloom to recognize that the curses enumerated in Deuteronomy 28 will be the automatic consequence if there is not repentance or a turning away from these, and other, iniquities. Thankfully the Most High God, by His love and mercy, many times restrains the results of sin. But when a society comes to the point of calling evil good, and good evil, it is evident there is a major deception at work. The Prophet Isaiah described this attitude in one of his warnings.

"Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight! Therefore as the fire devours the stubble, and the flame consumes the chaff, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the Torah of YHVH of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel" (Isaiah 5:20-24).

As we know sin is sin no matter what form it takes. The burden on my heart is not the homosexual or the abortion issue. It is the divisiveness in the body of Messiah. The apostle Paul focused on this particular sin in his letters to the Corinthian believers.

"Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord [or Master] Yeshua the Messiah, that you all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that you be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment" (1 Corinthians 1:10). Paul identifies this problem again when he writes:

"And I, brethren, could not speak to you as to spiritual people but as to carnal, as to babes in Messiah. I fed you with milk and not with solid food; for until now you were not able to receive it, and even now you are still not able; for you are still carnal. For where there are envy, strife, and divisions among you, are you not carnal and behaving like mere men?" (1 Corinthians 3:1-3).
According to Paul the solution to this problem of strife and division may be found in one expression; the death of Messiah on the execution stake. Why does the apostle point to the Messiah's death? Please note his grasp of this truth in the midst of fellowshipping with the believers: "And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of Elohim. For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Yeshua the Messiah, and him crucified” (1Corinthians 2:1-2).

By faith Paul viewed the believers as being dead on the execution stake, but alive in Yeshua because of the indwelling Spirit of Holiness (ref 2 Cor. 5:14-17). If our fellowship and unity are based on some other premise, the result will be strife, contention and division. Failure to fully embrace YHVH’s accomplishment through Messiah’s death, burial and resurrection constitutes unbelief, rebellion and disobedience. Paul wrote that there was no other foundation: “For no other foundation can anyone lay than that which is laid, which is Yeshua the Messiah” (1 Cor. 3:11). It should not matter whether we walk into a fellowship meeting dressed as a Baptist preacher or a Jewish Rabbi. If it is not the Messiah’s presence in us, and Him being our personal reality, which is “love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, self-control”, etc., then we have missed the whole point of gathering together in His Name.

Let us determine to know nothing when we are in one another’s presence save Yeshua and Him crucified. The powers of hell understand only one thing when it comes to their defeat, Yeshua’s death and all of humanity in Him. There are many of us who are gathering together to celebrate the Festival of Succot. This is known as a time of ingathering, that is of inclusion and not exclusion. But there can be no true unity at these gatherings without apprehending what the Day of Atonement (a mere few days beforehand) is all about. Yeshua was the atoning sacrifice, and the goat called “Azazel” was sent to the dry places. That goat is a figure of our flesh (Adamic nature) with Satan’s entire demonic realm attached to it.

Let us examine ourselves, therefore, to see if we are in the faith; for we must know this about ourselves, that it is Yeshua the Messiah who is in us and that whatever is not of Him does not belong in this “succah” (our being) - the dwelling place of the Holy One of Israel (ref. 2 Cor 13:5). Let us not call evil (sin) good, and good evil. We have been given the gift of discernment and the power of His life to cast out and destroy the "power of sin" that is, the works of the Devil. Strife, contention, jealousy, envy, you name it and if you can’t name it just read about it in the apostles’ writings, are not difficult to detect. We are not to tolerate in these temples of the Holy One the presence of any spiritual entity or nature which is not of our Heavenly Father.

A quick personal note: This will be my last Friday letter until after we return, on October 13th , from our trip to the United States and Canada. We want to thank you in advance for your prayers, as it seems that we are going to be on the run. We hope to see some of you along the journey. We will be leaving in two weeks, on the 29th of August, after that date and until October 13 we will not have E-mail contact.

Shabbat Shalom and have a very meaningful time during the fall feasts.

Close Encounters of the Third Day

Kluane Spake

spake@mindspring.com

The Life-Light blazed out of the darkness; the darkness couldn't put it out. (Jn. 1:5 MSG)

The movie classic "Close Encounters of the Third Kind" was an enormously successful blockbuster. The opening scenes consisted of several seemingly unconnected events, which through music, images, and dialogue provided clues which ultimately (and surprisingly) culminated at the end of the film. Most of the film's posters declared: "We are not alone."

Science fiction and space enthusiasts as well as space scientists have long dreamed of having routine access to the unknown. We, as the emerging Third Day church, now make preparation to make astonishing and impressive discoveries. We strategize how to launch spiritual rockets toward the future and into "Deep Space" in an attempt to learn about the kingdom and the best way to apostolically maneuver the Mother-ship (church) to get into apostolic positioning for the New Day.

But how do we meet the challenges of connecting our energies and imaginations into what God is actually saying in the vast unknown of this New Day. So far, we've been trying to "get it" from our earthly vantage point. We've tried to figure out the Third Day from putting together the clues that remain. We've traveled from conference to conference -- waiting in lines for hours – just to have a good seat for another emotional experience. We seem to "need" just one more super prophecy. Usually, what we want is all about US, our OURS... rather than about Him. But, there's one thing for sure, we're not alone!

Like gravity, these negative forces of the religion (carnality) have continually pulled our thoughts into a place of ineffectiveness and defeat. Perhaps you're like me and wonder how can we break free from these old ways of having church, going to church, and being church? How does our mission avoid further inordinate waits before finding these new discoveries?

Take a moment and consider...what would life be like if you could break through to find the immediacy of God? What would your life be like if you knew the answers to your problems? What if you could break through to an understanding of God's timing? What if you knew the precise "time" of prophetic release? What would it be like to discover your destiny and break through to courage? What would it be like to have final break through and be healed of past hurts and disappointments?

Several hundred years ago, Isaac Newton taught us that if we exceed a certain velocity, then the gravity force of the earth cannot hold us. That's it! Spiritual "lift off" – is what we need. We need to find that certain velocity (of spiritual energy) that will bring us to the breakthrough point -- and into the entry of the Kingdom. We need to obtain a lift-off that gets us to the place where we don't have to struggle just to keep away from sin. We must find that place where our mind can totally reject the lure of tradition, religious thinking, old mindsets, ineffective ritual, self-interest, and victimization from control.

In order for us to have a "close encounter," we must make a decision to achieve "lift off." This velocity is the incisive issue, my friend. We must decide to reach new heights in our inheritance. But remember, lift off won't take us "up there" somewhere – but it will enable us with an ability to SEE spiritually RIGHT HERE. We find it only when we disengage from those weighty and enticing religious and carnal influences that weigh us down.

POSITION YOURSELF FOR LIFT-OFF.

1. Connect to the desire to see and hear new vistas.

2. Deal with the fear of going to unknown places (ideas and concepts).

3. Detach (like a rocket from the booster) and cut the umbilical cord of past mindsets. Decide to no longer live the same way.

4. Learn the laws of living in the realm of spiritual reality and a brand new order.

5. Learn what it will take to get "there." We're all different. Different people require different amounts of force (energy) to "take off"… and to find displacement from the gravitational PULL of the familiar.

Our decision to "lift off," will bring us to the breakthrough. Each time we accelerate, we grow closer to full RELEASE from this WORLD (and it's fallen systems).

Once we've blasted off and passed through the barriers and boundaries of besetting old mindsets, we achieve that place of weightlessness. What a relief to be rid of those encumbering matters. Now, we can begin to look out the window. SEE. You're not alone! God is right here. Right now!

As we achieve "warp speed" beyond our past limitations, we discover that the spiritual realm seems to overlap this temporal one. By this, I mean that we can easily connect to it… it's not way over there, or up somewhere. We don't have to struggle to find God's presence.

Jesus, in His human life, exemplified a life completely yielded and in constant communion with the Father. He continually maintained full access to the supernatural realm. Jesus could synchronize His mind and will with heaven's intention and become the very DOOR-way (entry) for Divine power and reality to come into this temporal realm.

And, the more dislodgment of unnecessary cargo (RELIGION, the WORLD, and our own carnal agendas, our own illusions, and our own issues) occurs, the deeper we can ascend and the more accurately we can access the functional reality of the uncharted spiritual realms. We soon find that the more we employ an operative jurisdiction over our temporal circumstances, the more we advance into our intended dominion.

Our role as Mission Engineers involves us in nearly all aspects of the project. We can indeed play a meaningful role in a thrilling excursion that allows us to probe the vaster intentions of the Scriptures without predetermined and often incorrect restrictions. Swift propulsion permits faster access to important and fascinating destinations beyond the solar system of our lives.

Many onlookers may not approve of the expenditures or the risk of these new adventures. There will be many who deny our discoveries and protest against new conclusions. But, be assured my fellow traveler, other bystanders are also watching – because you and I are "...Made a spectacle unto the world, both to men and angels" (1 Cor. 4:9). Can you see there's another crowd… of witnesses cheering us onward? (Heb. 11-12).

The technological payload of our discoveries will be rigorously examined so that later seekers of Truth will be able to confidently build from our findings. We forerunners in this bold mission take risks so that future missions do not have to.

Assuredly, more and more believers will have opportunities to understand the REALITY of SPIRITUAL dimension. Jesus told Nathaniel that from the day of their meeting forward, he would see even greater power than he had realized before. That promise endures for us as well. Jesus added (Jn. 1:50), "I tell you the truth, you shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

The supernatural seems to connect right here. Remember how Jacob dreamed of a ladder (Gen. 28:12) that connected heaven and earth where the angels could ascend and descend? These portals of en-LIGHT-en-ment allow us to perceive unknown spiritual Truths and then be able to "translate" these revelations into an accessible, precise, applicable, everyday language of life – not into lofty language of religion.

The Kingdom of Heaven exists right here with us. Heaven isn't just something to sing about or a place to look forward to someday. Heaven is wherever God is. Translating this divine reality into the human realm is shown by our living optimally on earth -- as it is in heaven. HERE and NOW. This manifestation requires the establishment of holy concepts beyond that which we can now define. Residing in Heaven must become a conscious total embracing of the awareness of the reality of God's presence and miraculous power in our midst.

By apprehending redemptive thinking, we move closer and closer to SEEING the way things really are. Nothing else needs to be added to the finished work. Our old thought patterns must be broken and ex-changed for right thinking. We discover new stratospheres of enjoying eternal life with God.

The Third Day mentality receives full acceptance in the Beloved (Eph. 1:6), knowing that our identification is only In Christ (Phil. 1:21; Phil. 3:9). Because of our adoption as full grown sons (Gal. 4:5; Rom. 8:15), we have already been given an incorruptible inheritance (I Pet.1:4; Heb.9:15). His incorruptible seed (I Pet. 1:23) has grown within us and causes us to be stand blameless (Col. 1:22; I Thess. 5:23) and irreproachable (Col. 1:22) in His sight. Therefore, we press into the present truth of having full access to the Father (Eph. 2:13-18).

We have completely exchanged our old life for His (Gal. 2:20). We accept the work of the cross that has purchased our righteousness (I Cor. 1:30; II Cor. 5:21) and full forgiveness from all trespasses (Col. 2:13). We are guiltless and without condemnation (Rom. 8:1). Christ has delivered us from this evil age - Gal.1:4 and fully disarmed Satan (Col. 2:15).

We are blessed with All Spiritual Blessings (Eph. 1:3), boldly standing (Heb.10:19) as already justified (Rom. 4:25; 5:9) in His gracious liberty (II Cor. 3:17; Gal. 5:1; Rom. 8:21). We are the "called" (Rom. 8:30), the chosen or elect (Eph. 1:4; Col. 3:12) who are complete in Him (Col. 2:10). We walk with light in our hearts (II Cor. 4:6) because we are already a new creation (II Cor. 5:17) that reflects His Divine nature (II Pet. 1:4).

Our eternal life with God begins NOW, here on earth (Rom. 6:23; I John 5: 11,12,20) and we are secure in this salvation (I Pet. 1:5; John 10:28). We live to express the love of God (Gal. 5:22; Rom. 8:39; II Tim. 1:7) and manifest our lives as sons of God (Rom. 8:14). CHRIST LIVES and EXPRESSES HIS LIFE IN and THROUGH US. He lives in us and is our only life (Gal. 2:20, Phil. 1:21, I John 5: 10, 11; Rom. 5:10). His finished work of grace shows forth from us as we express His glory.

Glory = the manifestation and invasion of God's LIKENESS into this temporal realm.

Glory = the inward nature of God expressed outwardly in our lives.

"Man fully alive is the glory of God" – Irenaeus.

This progress to a greater spiritual reality makes our lives functionally effective at a higher level. This is how heaven manifests on earth – by us demonstrating it right here. And remember, this new vantage point has to be maintained. Know this... every rocket that escapes the gravitational pull of where it came from, will encounter eminent disaster if it loses its velocity, forward thrust, and momentum.

This is an excerpt from author's upcoming new book, "Apprehending Spiritual Realities."

Christianity And Islam

Marie-France Smith

CHRISTIANITY AND ISLAM! Are the Differences Unbridgeable?
January 10, 2004

Islam teaches that the gulf between man and G-d is unbridgeable; this is the basic difference in Christianity and Islam. Christianity teaches that it has been bridged in Yeshua haMashiach/Messiah Jesus. Yeshua/ Jesus was called "Immanuel" which means (as you may know) "G-d is with us." (Matthew 1:23). For Muslims this is the height of blasphemy because they believe that Christians are trying to usurp the supremacy of G-d.

Muslims DO NOT BELIEVE in the deity of Yeshua/Jesus Christ. To them, this means that G-d and Miryam (Mary) had sexual relations. Unthinkable!!! Christianity very clearly denies that any sexual relations occurred in Yeshua's (Jesus') conception and that it was the Ruach haKodesh (Holy Spirit) who impregnated Miryam (Mary) (Luke 1:35).

From Qur'an ..."G-d begetteth not, Nor is he begotten" (surrah 112:3) This unequivocally denies that Yeshua (Jesus) is G-d, or the Son of G-d. This is written inside the Dome of the Rock on the Temple Mount in Yerushalayim (Jerusalem) .... god has no son ... Muslims do respect Yeshua only as a man.

Yet another difference is that in Islam, Muslims believe that Yeshua (Jesus) was a prophet sent by G-d, but unbelievers attempted to thwart G-d's plan. When Judas betrayed Yeshua (Jesus), according to their interpretation, G-d transformed Judas to look like Yeshua, and that Judas was the one nailed to the tree to die. Yeshua, according to their version, was then taken to heaven unharmed (no required shedding of blood for atonement as we believe).

Muslims further believe that at the 'end of the world' Yeshua (Jesus) will return to earth, slay ALL who do not accept Islam, reign for 40 years, die and be buried next to Mohammed in Medina.

Other differences...Muslims follow the path of "jihad" and this is mistranslated as "holy war". It actually means "striving" in the cause for G-d. Muslims are taught that wrong can be addressed with the sword. If is is impossible to use the sword effectively, then Muslims can use their words in the fight against evil (EVIL = that mean us, the infidels, specifically Jews and Christians). If even speech is too dangerous, then they can resist in their hearts. But armed struggle in the fight against "evil" is a most viable option.

Yeshua/Jesus however refused to use the sword against his enemies... (Matthew. 26:52-53). Yeshua's path to VICTORY in Yerushalayim/Jerusalem, was the way of the cross (stake, tree). The scripture (Holy Bible) speaks of no other than Yeshua/Jesus who has power over all things. (John 13:3). Yet, what was his first act of power? He set aside his garments like a mere slave and washed His companions feet. Jesus used His power for service. By deeds of love he conquered others. He is our example.

Further, Muslims believe that Islam is the FINAL revelation. The Bible, a far more ancient compilation of writings, is the final authoritative WORD for Christian believers with hundreds of fulfilled prophecies about Yeshua/Jesus as Mashiach/Messiah/Savior, G-d's Son sent into this world!

Also, as a Muslim, one may NEVER convert from Islam, EVER. Disassociation is the least of the penalties and DEATH is often the one received in other countries. This death by stoning or beheading is common. Women who leave Islam many times loose their children, and are tortured.

In the view of Islam, one is given the opportunity to "see and accept" Islamic truth. If one rejects Islam, then they are seen as an infidel who has denied truth. This is a religion of violence and destruction and death. Allah is not the same as the G-d that we serve. Our G-d is the TRUE Living G-d, the G-d of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the Holy One of Israel.

Take time and study about Mohammed, and the beginnings of Islam. He was illiterate, could not write or read, and the Qur'an (Koran) was dictated to one of his friends from an angel. (In my study, I believe this to be a demonic god -- little "g"). The beginnings of this religion straight away is violence and murder and destruction.

The "goal, bottom line" of Islam, (which means "submission", not Peace as purported), is to conquer the whole world. One gets an opportunity to submit. If a person does not deny their faith/belief system and convert, Muslims are not only allowed to chop off your head/slaughter you with their sword, they are obligated to do so in the name of Allah.

Like Christianity, Islam is a religion of missionaries. To Muslims the Book is most important, and to us Yeshua, G-d's only begotten Son, is most important. We preach Jesus, because in Him "all the fulness of Deity dwells in bodily form, and in Him you have been made complete." (Col. 2:9-10).

Muslims also preach the example of Mohammed and Christian Believers preach the Torah/Bible....but primary emphasis for Muslims is the Book revealed, and for us the Son revealed.

Another point is that the Koran that many Muslims pass out in this country to those that they are indoctrinating, is NOT Qur'an (Koran). Most Muslims believe it is untranslatable from Arabic and memorize it in Arabic even though many do not know what they are reciting, memorizing and praying, only vain repetitions.

The most favored translation and commentary is from Yusuf Ail. My personal study of Qur'an began in the late '70s; I have read Ali's rendering about 5 times, it is a beautiful literary work. IT IS NOT TRUTH about G-d ~ El Elyon !!!

In Islam, and generally my experience in the Arab world, the end justifies the means. In Westernized thinking, we are brought up to value honesty, hard work, etc. as characteristics to be honored. Fanatical Islam can and will do whatever it takes to bring about their goals. We need to understand Islam from Islamic perception, not from a Christian/Westernized perspective. This is where we fall into misunderstanding and ignorance.

Those who murder Americans on American soil are venerated and esteemed in most of the world. We are a fast track to destruction! Westerners and particularly Christians had better awaken from their deep lazy sleep and get on with the job that Yeshua/Jesus left us to do.

We MUST share the GREAT NEWS that Yeti haMashiach/Messiah Jesus has already paid the price for us, with the shedding of His very own precious blood. We have a Father, G-d, in heaven who loves us so much that he sent His only son to die in our place (John 3:16).

I believe that ---Yeshua/Jesus was born of a virgin as prophecy declared. That blood atonement is required with G-d, and that ONLY the blood of Yeshua/Jesus will satisfy this requirement (not ours).

I believe that ALL people need atonement, need the work of Jesus to SAVE them, and make them right with the Father again, in right standing to receive the abundant life the Father wishes us to receive. All have sinned and come short of the glory of G-d. We are saved by exercising a receptive belief, and personalized faith in Yeshua haMashiach (Jesus the Messiah) and it is by G-d's grace. I believe that we must ALL repent (turn away from sin) and be born again. I believe that Yeshua/Jesus did die from the beatings, the hanging on a stake on Golgotha, Calvary's hill, and that he rose bodily and physically as had been foretold. I believe in the resurrection and judgment of mankind. I believe that Yeshua/Jesus will return to earth both bodily and physically. I believe that the fruit (singular) of love is the evidence of salvation and of the baptism in the Holy Spirit. I believe that with our transition to heaven, it is only the beginning of all the beauty, knowledge and love that G-d has in store for us.

Please share G-d's love letter to humanity, the Holy Bible, with those you love, with your enemies and most particularly with Muslim people. Muslims are a people loved by Adonai, He died for them, lives for them, and comes soon. They are a people who need our love, prayers and words of truth so that they may receive forgiveness of their sins and salvation, G-d's redemption through the Son Yeshua/Jesus.

Some deceivers in the world today accuse believers/Christians of being intolerant. I confess, YES, I am intolerant of lies from hell. I am intolerant of evil that has deceived Muslim people who truly want to honor god, and die for him. (Small g and small h intended). I am intolerant of the deception that is filling the earth. The Bible tells us that '...we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places,

(Eph. 6:12). I stand up as a believer of Yeshua ha Mashiach (Messiah Jesus of Nazareth), Jesus the Christ, the Only begotten Son of G-d, and say, this is TRUTH. He declared that "I am the truth, the way and the life". Yeshua/Jesus did not say a way...but CLEARLY said "THE WAY".

Pray for Muslims, pray for Jewish people, pray for Christians, pray for ALL PEOPLE COVERING OUR GLOBE, FROM EVERY TRIBE AND TONGUE AND NATION, EVERY ISLAND IN THE SEAS, AND DESERT DWELLERS ON THE CONTINENTS, AND THOSE IN THE NORTH AND SOUTH AND EAST AND WEST. Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem as G-d commands in Psalm 122! Pray that billions and billions and billions of people will find salvation in Yeshua haMashiach SOON!

Romans 6:23 For the wages of sin [is] death; but the gift of God [is] eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Adonai, we ask that you strengthen and empower us, your own, to love you, worship, reverence, and adore you, and to walk in ALL of your ways! Abba, we ask that you give all people who are without knowledge of your completed work of redemption, revelation and wisdom, that they may turn to Yeshua haMashiach and receive salvation, and TRUTH will set them FREE! In the AUTHORITY of the name of Yeshua/Jesus and in the POWER of HIS BLOOD we pray, AMEN!!!

1 John 5:13 These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

1John 5:20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, [even] in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

Jude 1:21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.
John 17:3 And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

Chaos Is A Prelude To Victory
June Sanders

Jun 25, 2004
"Divine Release will increase.
I decree that evils cease to commandeer My joy and cheer and steal My servants peace.
The release I decree for and through you brings liberty.
A change of mind and soul My child that sets the captives free.

Chaos that surrounds you is a prelude to victory.
Speak release to circumstance. Then from your prison cell walk free.
Your comfort zones are prisons when seen from My point of view.
My Spirit dwelling in you Knows We Should BE Breaking Through!

The familiar shall not hold you nor bind you to the past.
I decree a moving on into changes that are vast;
connecting you with those I chose to show My Glory through.
Examples To All mankind What Belief IN ME Can Do.

Everlasting life and joy will be yours as you Employ My Word as your Daily Theme that outwits the enemies scheme:
to shroud The Cloud of My Presence that radiates through you, obscuring Joy and Gladness that I died to give to you.

My Resurrection Power that dwells within you each day
IS Sufficient to Radiate and Reinstate My Way.
Those opposing and deposing are fighting only Me.
Let ME Decree. Then Realize My Child that YOU ARE FREE."

PSALMS 138: 2, 3, 6, 7, 8
I will worship toward Your holy temple, and praise Your name for Your loving-kindness and for Your truth and faithfulness; for You have exalted above all else Your name and Your word, and You have magnified Your word above all Your name! In the day when I called, You answered me, and strengthened me with strength (might and inflexibility) [to temptation] in my inner self. For though the Lord is high, yet has He respect to the lowly [bringing them into fellowship with Him]; but the proud and haughty He knows and recognizes [only] at a distance. Though I walk in the midst of trouble, You will revive me; You will stretch forth Your hand against the wrath of my enemies, and Your right hand will save me. The Lord will perfect that which concerns me; Your mercy and loving-kindness, O Lord, endure for ever; forsake not the works of Your own hands.

Dear Lord, in the Midst of CHAOS WE DECREE that WE ARE FREE!

Shalom, Love, Joy, Enduring Strength and Freedom IN Christ To ALL, Your Overcomer's Crown

June Sanders

Jun 13, 2004
"You must give thanks and praise for My keeping that has brought you to this time of reaping.
For each step you have touched with the soles of your feet has walked out the enemies defeat.

Words foot printed will be echoed through the mouths of those who have walked My road.
In the wilderness a table laid was proof that your enemies would be repaid.

The radiation of their deeds and hate,
My power will transcend and dissipate.
The chaotic energy beamed your way will be intercepted, annulled this day.

Chants and curses will never defame or bring to confusion those bearing My name.
You have walked a hard road. Now limp on through.
Your Overcomer's Crown is now IN View.

Emerge from the smoke without trace or hint,
for the fragrance you bear is Heaven Sent.
Infusing life on the shades of the dead.

Encouraging ALL to Be Spirit Led..
Resurrected this day into My Plan.
The restoration of the soul of man.
Shalom My Child IS your inherent peace.
That Rests IN Me and Obtains Your Release."

My Rest Is Upon You
June Sanders

Jun 22, 2004
"My Rest is upon you in this Season of Change.
You must resist all striving and think it not strange;
When My Good is misunderstood. Rejoice with Me!
Each day you are living More Supernaturally.
Those who misunderstand you walk not in My Realm.
Stand fast in My Liberty as I overwhelm;
The forces of evil that quench My Divine Plan.
They speak not My Promises and are thus other than:
The Redeemed of the Lord, set apart for My Work;
Who avoid the voice of strangers, but Mine will not shirk.
The Mandate I utter coming straight from My Throne;
Decrees all is well, as you allow Me to hone;
My Gifts to manifest in Miraculous Ways:
To Rescue and Feed My Sheep through difficult days.
Outlasting deceit through discerning ears that hear.
You will Reap Great Harvest's of Good this very year."

Thank You Dear Lord for encouraging Words and enduring Strength.

Church History And The Abortion Issue

Don Walker

Abortion is not an issue unique to our times. It was a common practice in the Roman Empire, necessitating the early church fathers to voice God's opposition to this wicked sin. Throughout the history of the Church, believers have been compelled to speak out against the murder of the unborn. I have collected a number of quotes on this issue.

"You shall not kill an unborn child or murder a newborn infant." - Didache.

"You shall love your neighbor more than your own life. You shall not slay the child by abortion." - Barnabas [c. 70-138], Epistles.

"For us [Christians], murder is once and for all forbidden; so even the child in womb, while yet the Mother's blood is still being drawn on to form the human being, it is not lawful for us to destroy. To forbid birth is only quicker murder...He is a man, who is to be a man; the fruit is always present in the seed." - Tertullian, 197, Apologeticus.

"Those women who use drugs to bring about an abortion commit murder and will have to give an account to God for their abortion." - Athenagoras of Athens, letter to Marcus Aurelius in 177, Legatio pro Christianis [Supplication for the Christians].

"There are women who, by use of medicinal potions, destroy the unborn life in their wombs, and murder the child before they bring it forth. These practices undoubtedly are derived from a custom established by your gods; Saturn. Though he did not expose his sons, certainly devoured them." - Minucius Felix, theologian [c. 200-225] Octavius.

"If we would not kill off the human race born and developing according to God's plan, then our whole lives would be lived according to nature. Women who make use of some sort of deadly abortion drug kill not only the embryo but, together with it, all human kindness." - Clement of Alexandria, priest and the "Father of Theologians" [c. 150-220]. Christ the educator.

"Sometimes this lustful cruelty or cruel lust goes so far as to seek to procure a baneful sterility, and if this fails the fetus conceived in the womb is in one way or another smothered or evacuated, in the desire to destroy the offspring before it has life, or if it already lives in the womb, to kill it before it is born." - St. Augustine, Bishop of Hippo [354 to 430], De Nuptius et Concupiscus [On Marriage and Concupiscence).

"Some virgins [unmarried women], when they learn they are with child through sin, practice abortion by the use of drugs, frequently they die themselves and are brought before the ruler of lower world guilty of three crimes: suicide, adultery against Christ, and murder of an unborn child." - St. Jerome [c. 340-

420], Letter to Eustochium.

"The hairsplitting difference between formed and unformed makes no difference to us. Whoever deliberately commits abortion is subject to the penalty for homicide." - St. Basil the Great [329- 379], "First Canonical Letter," Three Canonical Letters.

"Those who give drugs for procuring abortion, and those who receive poisons to kill the fetus, are subjected to the penalty for murder." - Trullian Quinisext Council (692), Canons.

Throughout the centuries, Roman Catholic leaders have consistently upheld the sanctity of human life. Likewise, Protestant reformer John Calvin followed both the Scriptures and the historical position of the church when he affirmed:

"The fetus, though enclosed in the womb of its mother, is already a human being, and it is a most monstrous crime to rob it of the life, which it has not yet begun to enjoy. If it seems more horrible to kill a man in his own house than in a field, because a man's house is his place of most secure refuge, it ought surely to be deemed more atrocious to destroy a fetus in the womb before it has come to light."

Modern theologians with a biblical orientation toward this issue agree that abortion is the killing of a child. Dietrich Bonhoeffer, who lost his life standing up against the murder of the innocent in Germany, argued that abortion is "nothing but murder."

Karl Barth stated, "The unborn child is from the very first a child... it is a man and not a thing, not a mere part of the mother's body... Those who live by mercy will always be disposed to practice mercy, especially to a human being which is so dependent on the mercy of others as the unborn child."

The Church today must stand with those who have gone before us and not be silent on this issue.

Cherish Vision

Catherine Brown

15 JUNE 2004

> "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weaknesses." Therefore I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ's power may rest on me. That is why, for Christ's sake, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong. 2 Cor 12:9,10

The 'cherish vision' was received during an extremely intense time of enemy opposition in my life, when I was simultaneously seeking hard after God. I was physically tired and feeling a bit "beat up" if truth to be told! The Lord met me in my weariness, brought peace to my soul, restored my joy and my vision and lifted me tenderly into a place of breakthrough in his strength. I pray that these words will encourage, comfort and edify you. In this vision, when the Lord speaks to me he is not speaking to me alone but is also addressing every believer.

"CHOSEN"

I was sitting on a rock beside Jesus. There was a little cleft in the rock that fitted me just perfectly. I was comfortable here. Neither Jesus nor I were saying anything. We were simply enjoying being together. Then the Lord broke the silence by lifting his hand and as he did so, he pulled a back a curtain on time. I saw the hand of God reach out through dense darkness and watched in wonder as lightning bolts began to strike my mother's womb. I saw a tiny heart begin to beat and the word 'CHOSEN' was inscribed on it. This was my heart! It was the moment that I was conceived. I had known previously that God had knitted me together in my mother's womb (Ps 139:13), but how incredible to actually witness the sovereign action of God in my creation.

To choose something is to pick it out as being the best of perhaps two or more alternatives. Jesus chooses us and lifts us out of darkness into his Love and Light and resurrection Life.

"CHERISHED"

Whilst I was still sitting on the rock, Jesus turned to me and put a string of beautiful pearls around my neck. They were exquisite. He reminded me that the Kingdom of God is a pearl of great price (Mt 13:45, 46) and then said, "Child, you are chosen to be part of my Kingdom and you are cherished by your heavenly Father."

Angels came and surrounded us, each one of them smiling warmly. Jesus took a garland of blossoms and wrapped them around me. A beautiful fragrance enveloped me and I was immediately comforted, experiencing a warm rush of the Lord's joy in my heart. He said that the blossoms were his grace. "Remember my child how much I cherish the heart that I choose. My grace is sufficient for all your needs"

Cherish means protect and care for lovingly. It also means nurture. God's grace is gentle and embraces all our needs, nurturing us in discipleship. God's grace enables us to live and breath for him and to rise above any circumstance in his strength. The apostle Paul understood this divine principle of truth. (2 Cor 12:9, 10)

"CHILD OF GOD"

Jesus then proclaimed, "Child of God!" His words of proclamation carried authority and impact. Next, I was dressed in a pure white garment with many ribbons attached to it. The ribbons had words inscribed on them, which included 'innocence', 'virtue', 'faith' and 'worship'. I felt most precious to the Lord. Precious means to be greatly loved or treasured by someone. Whilst wrapped in God's grace, faith stirred afresh in my heart to worship Jesus with my entire life and to fulfil all that he has purposed and planned for my life to bring him glory. God calls every one of his children 'precious.'

My name, Catherine, means 'pure one'. The Lord is purifying his Bride, each one of us is being prepared and made ready for our glorious King. As the Lord looked at me with love, I felt his resolve strengthen my feeble human frame. In the depths of my being my heart swelled with security at being declared his child.

"CHOOSE"

After being adorned by the white robe, two paths appeared before me. One was bright and full of light and marked with the word 'sonship'. Angels were positioned along this pathway and carried huge banners bearing the words 'acceptance', 'affirmation', and 'forgiveness'. The other path was dark and bore different markings. These were 'condemnation', 'criticism' and 'bitterness.' The dark path way was strewn with jagged stones that would have torn delicate flesh that walked along it.

Somewhat perplexed I said, "But Lord, who would walk that path?"

Jesus looked at me with a depth of love in his eyes and responded, "The one who forgets they are a chosen, cherished, child of God."

"Remember my righteousness. Take hold of my grace and walk before me and be blameless. Remember the pearl of great price. I have counted the cost and paid the price, now consider the call. Remember the cleft in the rock and the covering of my glory. For I am with you even unto the ends of the age."

WHAT WILL YOU CHOOSE – SLAVERY OR SONSHIP?

The question before us all is an important one. What will we choose –slavery or sonship? As believers we are adopted into God's family through Holy Spirit. As such, we are no longer slaves but sons and daughters of the most high God! (Gal 3:26, 4:6-7). Why is it then that we struggle to walk in the full liberty Jesus has purchased for us by his blood? Why do we sometimes remain in the outer courts of God's presence as though we had no place at the King's table? Our Dad delights in us all the time and calls us into the inner courts to his wonderful banquet table, where his banner over us is love!

Perhaps there are a number of reasons why we sometimes dally in the outer courts, but for now I think Holy Spirit is highlighting one in particular, which is simply this: We sometimes forget we are chosen by God, cherished by God and that we are his children and heirs!

We sometimes allow our circumstances to overwhelm us to such an extent that we respond to them in a soulish way rather that in our spirit. Instead of seeking a hiding place in Jesus' presence (the cleft in the rock) sometimes we stumble about as though we are in a dark place, momentarily forgetting the incredible truth of our Father's love and our inheritance in Christ. We sometimes become ensnared in thoughts of condemnation, we bow to criticism, and we sometimes become bitter. These are not God's best for his beloved! They cause darkness in our souls and we need to lay such things at the feet of Jesus and ask his forgiveness. The truth is that we are accepted, affirmed and forgiven in Christ. We are justified (put right) with God, we are redeemed (bought back) from sin and slavery to sin and we are sanctified (made holy and set apart) by Jesus (Ro 6:11). We have every reason to be joyful. We each have a destiny in God, which Holy Spirit will out work in his grace in our surrendered hearts.

God wants to remind all his children today about his wonderful grace. God's grace calls us to the altar of faith (Eph 2:8). God's grace is for always! It isn't just for the precious moment of salvation but for our entire lifetime. It keeps us safe in God's ways and embraces us in his love. Father, wants to pour out tenderness on his Bride TODAY, that we might know the hope of our calling in Christ and the wonderful enveloping presence of Jesus by his Holy Spirit.

May you know a fresh outpouring of God's love on your life today. Heaven declares, "You are a chosen, cherished, child of God."… not just sometimes but always! Hallelujah!

Chambers Of Preparation

Joyce Derrick

Hearken unto the Lord thy God and speak what I tell you to speak. Listen as I tell you what to write. Be ever mindful of My willingness to speak and My desire for you to hear/listen. Be ready always for My voice to pierce the silence. Be ready! I have so longed for My bride to come into the chambers of preparation. To be anointed with oils that are a sweet savor before Me. I long for you My dear ones. I long for that quiet time alone with you that I might lay out My plans before you. To complete the processes that I have begun in you. Being ready to carry My sword to the world.

I have Words for you to speak, but you must be willing to listen/hear. Little is known of what is coming and how it (My glory) will come. Just know that My glory is coming and covering this earth. Be ready! Let Me prepare you. I long for you MY previous ones. I long for you. My heart is breaking for those who refuse to listen and have hardened their hearts. I am ready for you my precious one. I am ready. Are you ready? My dears ones I am calling to you. Now listen to the Master. Jesus.

Conformed Into An Image

Revelation 13:15

Speak to my heart
Holy Savior
Let Your Word impart
Divine favor
That I might perceive
Your grace that sets men free
Released from the night
To live holy in Your sight
Where they gladly lift their voice
And praise You.

You are the voice of our salvation
The truth that speaks forth liberty
You cry out a holy proclamation
That Jesus obtained our victory.

Speak forth truth
Lord on high
Let a yield be produced
From the vine
So all men might say
You are the keeper of the way
Remove unruly weeds
So the cluster lives and breathes
As You pour out
Healing waters from above.

You are the voice of our salvation
The breath of life to those who hear the call
No image raised in hope of touching heaven
Was used to lead us to Your eternal throne.

> “And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.” Revelation 13:15
> “For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled, because there was no shepherd.” Zechariah 10:2

The Lord Jesus Christ is the eternal and true Light of the world, who sits at the right hand of God, having been granted authority to rule and reign with God over all of creation. Jesus Christ, who “being the brightness of His glory” expresses perfectly to mankind the nature and desires of the Lord Most High. Those who perceive the testimony of the Father and the Son to be true will find that the glory, which exists in the heavens, will arise in victory, purpose and revelation upon their heart and mind.

Jesus Christ, the Son of righteousness, the brilliance of God’s perfect nature, will shine within a man’s life in resurrection power, as the Spirit of God’s holiness is established upon his heart and mind.

Jesus Christ, who purged our sins as He shed His precious blood upon the cross, has now been granted authority to sit at the right hand of God, upon a man's heart. A man's heart and mind represent each man's own personal throne, where all his thoughts and beliefs are held in high esteem. Jesus Christ, whose authority God has declared is established in the heavens, has now, in these last days, been granted entrance through the Spirit, to establish God's kingdom rule and reign upon a man's heart and mind.

So that a man can clearly hear the message of God's goodness toward man, the disquieting voices of doubt, confusion, hatred and rebellion will be brought out into the open to be consumed by the holiness of God. A man who turns toward Jesus Christ, who calls upon Him in sincere faith, will find that his thoughts that were conceived in the realm of unbelief, "darkness", will gain God's perspective in what is truth, and what is pleasing in His sight. As darkness is exposed to the Light of God's glory, through the sanctifying presence of the Holy Spirit, revelation of the nature, plans and purposes of God will be revealed.

When Jesus Christ appears, through the Holy Spirit, to establish His kingdom rule within a man's life, the rebelliousness, which has had great influence upon his heart and mind, will be cast down to the pit from where it finds its origin. So that man is able to live at peace with God, able to appreciate the gift of life that God has bestowed upon him, the Light will move in power within a man's life, speaking the truth of God's love for him, so that unbelief will lose its deadly, crippling hold upon the man. The Father, who has the power to create life, has given to Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son, the power and authority to establish His righteousness within the life of man.

> "But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deed; and have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him: where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all." Colossians 3:8-11

When through the Holy Spirit, Jesus Christ appears within a man's life, bearing the glory and righteousness of God, the things of God, the glory and mystery of God's love and purposes toward man, will be made manifest. That which was hidden because darkness could not perceive the truth, will be understood as the Son shares with man the things He received from the Father. So that man will understand the "unsearchable riches of Christ", the power that God has made available through Christ, so that man is released from his captivity to "darkness", the Spirit will speak into the inner recesses of a man's heart and mind of God's great love and purpose toward the man.

And as truth, God's voice of holiness, righteousness, mercy and love, speaks to the heart and mind of man; the "old man", the nature that was dependent upon thoughts and behaviors that were birthed within the realm of unbelief, "darkness", will be assaulted. As God's voice speaks of holiness, righteousness, love and mercy to the heart and mind of man, his thoughts that were birthed in the realm and region of unbelief, darkness, will begin to be shaken loose from its position of authority over a man's life. The Spirit speaks forth God's good purpose toward man, so that a man will be transformed into the image of the One who has purposed his birth into righteousness.

So that man is able to rise up with the mind of Christ, perceiving accurately God's voice speaking to them in the wind, in the rain, in the deepest valley and upon the highest mountaintop, all vain imaginations that "exalts itself against the knowledge of God" must be cast down. God releases His Spirit upon a man's heart and mind to bear witness to His majesty and power, so that unbelief, vanity, and pride lose power to dictate in authority over a man's thoughts and emotions. Man then exhibits the power and authority of Jesus Christ moving upon his life, as he demonstrates by his actions, the truth of the love he has received. As vain imaginations, which were formed in the realm of darkness, are replaced with the truth of God's mercy, love and wisdom, man will also walk as Jesus Christ walks, exchanging hatred for love, unforgiveness for forgiveness, and receiving peace where there once was strife.

> "Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord." 2 Corinthians 3:17-18

A man who knows God, as he himself realizes he is known of God, will be changed by the Lord according to His majesty and His glory. Man, who all his life, lived in bondage to the darkness of unbelief, will arise and shine, as the brightness of the glory of God moves in resurrection power upon his life. The Light, the Son of God, who reflects the brilliance of God, now sits at the right hand of God, upon the throne of a man's heart, establishing God's kingdom authority upon his life. Jesus Christ is the express image of God, the perfect reflection of God's glory, and it is Jesus Christ, who now, through the infilling of the Holy Spirit, makes His home upon a man's heart.

It is Jesus Christ, who will lead man from glory to glory. It is Jesus Christ, who will mature the thoughts of a man so that he lives in agreement with the nature, intent and desires of God. When Jesus Christ speaks with authority and power from the throne of a man's heart, a man will be trained in the ways of God, so that he grows up as a mature man of God, fully appreciative of the authority, goodness and power of God.

Each man begins his journey with Christ as a babe. As a newborn babe in Christ, his thirsty soul will be thankful to drink the rich, nourishing milk that the Word provides. It is the Word which provides the nourishment that will strengthen his bones, so that he can stand up and walk the course that is prepared for each child called of God's holy name. And as he walks his course, he will gain greater strength to handle with longsuffering the tests and trials that he is sure to encounter. To be able to wield the sword of the Lord in the righteousness worthy of the King, strength will be required.

A man prepared of God will gain strength to bear the armor of the Lord into battle. He will find that his armor is not burdensome, but is light, because he now understands it represents the righteousness of God. The armor will protect his heart and mind, so that he is able to look upon the world through God's eyes of longsuffering and compassion. The armor of God's righteousness will keep his heart and mind at peace, so that he walks in wisdom, understanding that the Lord goes before him into all battles. He will bear his armor with honor, knowing that all soldiers who are to gain the victory in battle must live in honor of the King who has called them to service.

All soldiers called of God will be adorned with strength, wisdom and the armor of God's righteousness, so they are well equipped in battle. All the enemies of doubt, confusion and accusation that would rise up to challenge their faith in the goodness, and the perfect nature of the Lord their God, will be put underfoot as the voice of God continues to encourage them onward. They will be used of God to speak to others lost in the whirlwind of confusion that has been stirred up by the voices that lurk within the darkness. With the peace of God guarding their hearts, they will be able to bear long with others. They will remain steadfast in their declaration that God's love, which leveled their mountains of unbelief and prejudice, will be able to perform the same mighty work within the lives of others.

> "For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. But after that the kindness and love of God our Savior toward man appeared, not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior; that being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life." Titus 3:3-7

Jesus Christ, who bears the "express image" of God, who sits at God's right hand, expressing the same power and authority as God, is filled with the same compassion and love as God, toward those called of God's holy name. His compassion and love moves beyond man's limited understanding of power and righteousness. God has given Him the authority to tear down walls that have long separated man from receiving and appreciating the riches that exist in His abundant, limitless, mercy and love. No man, of natural understanding, can comprehend the riches that exist within His comforting arms of compassion and righteousness. A man, who has not been birthed into God's eternal kingdom through the Spirit, cannot understand how God's Spirit is able to lead man to places where he will find rest for his soul; how through the Spirit, man is able to commune with God, and drink deeply from God's flowing streams of living water, so that his soul continues to be renewed, restored and refreshed.

Children who walk in "darkness", their understanding veiled from the goodness of God, do not understand that God has provided a way of escape out of the unrighteous suffering they encounter. Their souls hunger for purpose; but their ears are not able to hear the message God desires to share with them. Until the "kindness and love of God our Savior" arises in power within their lives, bringing revelation and understanding, they will live void of eternal perspective. But those who, according to God's mercy and grace, move beyond an understanding that Jesus Christ was a man who once walked upon the earth bearing the message of the kingdom, and into a personal, born again, Spirit filled relationship, will be delivered from their bondage to the darkness. They will be set free from the accuser who speaks lies that distort the good intentions and purposes of God.

The "Light," which God commanded, "to shine out of darkness," has now been given power and authority by God, to shine in a man's heart. The Light that is sent down from heaven, to shine in a man's heart, is able to pierce through the darkness of his unbelief, so that a man will be able to perceive and understand the mercy and love that God has toward them. A man filled with light, with God's Spirit of love, through their faith in Jesus Christ, will come to understand that he is the earthen vessel that God created to contain the treasure of great worth, God's Holy Spirit. He will also understand that it was not of any righteous act that he performed while walking in darkness, which caused God to shine the Light of eternal truth upon his heart, but that it was according to God's grace. For it is "by grace ye are saved."

By grace, a man is saved from continuing on the path that leads to eternal destruction. By grace, a man is saved from out of the darkness of unbelief, so that he lives his life in appreciation of the mercy, longsuffering and love of God. Through the righteousness of grace, a man is "conformed to the image of His Son," so that he lives at peace with God and others. And according to God's grace, a man will be used of God to exhibit the mercy and love of God, so that others will see a living demonstration of God's power within a man's life.

> "Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them." Acts 20:28-30

Apostle Paul, whose life was a demonstration of the power of God to lead a man from out of the darkness into the light, shared the message of salvation according to faith. He did not desire or cause man to bow down in reverence of himself; he led men to God. He guided their attention to the Holy Shepherd, Jesus Christ. He taught of the power and majesty of receiving the Holy Spirit, not according to the law, but according to faith in Jesus Christ. He taught of behavior that was becoming to one adorned with the righteousness of God. His desire was that man would be conformed into the image of God's Son, so that they could experience, if possible, the riches that he himself found existed in personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

As Apostle Paul walked under the covering of grace, he spoke wisdom to those present and to those to come. He taught that while many would be used of God in helping others obtain salvation according to faith, sadly, others would rise up whose desires would be polluted by their own vain imaginations. Apostle Paul taught that men would profess themselves wise, but their fruit, their words and actions, would not line up with the message of Jesus Christ.

The "grievous wolves" would not speak words that would cause a man to give glory to what God had accomplished through His Son, but instead would draw man's attention toward men's accomplishments. These grievous wolves, false shepherds, would not lead man into the freedom that is found in Jesus Christ, which is freedom from sin, from darkness, or unrighteous suffering. The false shepherds would look upon others not as a flock that is to be led to God, so that they could be led of God, but would instead encourage the flock to follow after them and their understanding.

> "While they promise them liberty, they themselves are slaves of corruption: for by whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage." 2 Peter 2:19
> "And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and because that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed." Revelation 13:15

The beast, who rises up from the earth performing miracles in the sight of men, does not perform miracles so that God is given the glory. No. Instead he draws men's attention toward himself. His pride has become his downfall. His desire is not turned toward reverencing and worshipping God, but instead, it is toward himself. This attitude will cause him to desire that others worship and honor his presence, thoughts and accomplishments.

The beast has partaken of the serpent's lie, which speaks that man can be as God. And because of his pride and vanity, he believes he can be as God in determining what is right or wrong, good or evil. His darkened, vain imagination, has decided that he is endowed with power and authority, so that he is able to take the law into his own hands, and dictate how others are to live their lives. As he walks deceived by his own pride, the words he speaks out, the miracles he performs, will take others captive to his own darkened deception of reality.

While he promises freedom to those who honor and seek after the miracles he is able to perform in the sight of men, he will instead lead them into captivity. He speaks words that proclaim life and liberty will be obtained through the understanding he exalts, while ignoring the message that salvation is obtained only through faith in Jesus Christ. His thoughts and actions have become wedded to the law. So he finds it natural to cause men to reverence the ideas expressed by the beast who rises up from the sea, by making an image unto the beast. He makes an image unto the beast who wears the ten crowns of authority, which declares salvation is according to the law, and not through faith in Jesus Christ alone; thereby he acknowledges with his actions what he believes.

Instead of speaking the truth, that God desires man to be conformed through the sanctifying presence of the Holy Spirit into the nature and image of Jesus Christ, the beast teaches men to worship images that mirror the nature of the law. Instead of worshipping the creator in Spirit and in truth, men are taught to worship images, idols that are conceived in the vanity of a man's darkened imagination. Instead of leading men to the Word and to the Holy Spirit, the beast leads men to rules, rituals, and the worshipping of idols, so that men's bones become brittle, and they can no longer stand up and proclaim with a sincere heart, that God is good.

The images speak vanity, proclaiming that salvation is according to the law, and not through faith. The images that mirror the nature of the beast, who proclaims salvation is according to the law, and not through faith, speak lies that cannot deliver a man from out of the terror of the night. The images, since they mirror the nature of the law, can vary in accordance to the desires of the one who creates them. There are boundless possibilities as to what shape or design the images can be fashioned into. But, whatever images the beast who rises up from the earth, bearing the earthly, carnal nature, creates and designs, one understanding will hold true: that whoever denies the power and authority of the ordinances, statutes, idols, or instruments, should be killed, [will not gain entrance into heaven].

That is, the beast who speaks as a dragon, who has not only declared that he is greater than God, worthy to be praised above God, by the words he speaks, and the actions he partakes of, now declares that it is in his power to decide who will live and who will not. He has decided that anyone should be killed [will not gain entrance into heaven], who does not adhere to his doctrine of salvation, and who does not bow down and honor the image he has created, which mirrors the law.

As a result, the beast who speaks as a dragon, has succeeded in turning God’s truth into a lie. Accordingly, he declares that anyone who does not bow down and reverence the image, which his vain imagination has created, is to be ostracized, hated, condemned, and turned away from. Yet the message this image speaks denies that the power of God, the breath of God, the Holy Spirit, who God has determined is able to give eternal life to man. God declares that it is through faith in Jesus Christ that eternal life is given, and that it is the Holy Spirit, God’s breath who is able to give life to man. It is not in worshipping and reverencing an image that man will gain salvation, but through faith in Jesus Christ, will man receive the salvation of his soul, the Holy Spirit. Yet, the beast continues to proclaim life is obtained through worshipping, being obedient to rules, regulations, and vain imaginations that mirror the law.

Those who love the Lord, Jesus Christ, having received the Spirit of life and truth, have been taught of God to expect persecution. God has spoken that His faithful soldiers are to expect that they will be hated for His name’s sake. When God’s precious children proclaim that eternal life is obtained through faith in Jesus Christ, and in receiving the Holy Spirit, the beast will proclaim that it is the sound of an abomination that is being trumpeted. His natural instinct and desire will be to kill what he cannot understand or control. His pride has caused him to fall away from the truth, and in his darkened, unstable frame of mind, his desire is to bring many with him.

> “And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? And one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.” Matthew 10:28-31

Church In Crisis

My Word For A Church In Crisis"
Feb. 5 evening, 2004

1PE 4:12 Dear friends, do not be surprised at the painful trial you are suffering, as though something strange were happening to you. [13] But rejoice that you participate in the sufferings of Christ, so that you may be overjoyed when his glory is revealed. [14] If you are insulted because of the name of Christ, you are blessed, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. [15] If you suffer, it should not be as a murderer or thief or any other kind of criminal, or even as a meddler. [16] However, if you suffer as a Christian, do not be ashamed, but praise God that you bear that name. [17] For it is time for judgment to begin with the family of God; and if it begins with us, what will the outcome be for those who do not obey the gospel of God?

1TH 5:1 Now, brothers, about times and dates we do not need to write to you, [2] for you know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. [3] While people are saying, "Peace and safety," destruction will come on them suddenly, as labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

"This year will be quite a year for believers, for they will be tested beyond what they may think that they can endure. For there will be testings in the world that will go beyond what you normally would see. For smoke and rain, fire and ice, are but a taste of those things. There will be signs in the heavens and signs in the earth below. There will be signs in the political arena. You think that things are going to go as expected, but I tell you that a new frontier is on the horizon. For it is not the frontier as you might expect. Much will happen in politics over this next year. You have had your taste of this administration, but a new liberal agenda is arising. No more will war be something that is pursued, but a brief time of peace will usher in a "false hope." And in a short time this "false peace" will usher in a world leader. Remember that I told you that these things are coming. Many think that the church will not go through times like these. They think that wonderful programs and seminars would somehow keep my prophetic time table from happening. I tell you that these things are decreed. I tell you that many false words and prophecies are going out around the world. Many speak of great world churches and revivals. Surely, many will be saved. Surely, the church will go on and will be strengthened. But I tell you, that not without much suffering. Do you think that you are exempt from my suffering? Do you think that life as a Christian does not have its rewards? Truly, there are rewards, and one of these rewards is that you will walk as I have walked. What is preached in your churches about these things? What is said concerning these things that lie ahead? Are you prepared or are you walking as blind men? Are your eyes on Me or are they on your leaders? I tell you that many will fall in this hour, but many also, will come into a deeper relationship with Me. "

Things That Are To Come And A Promise
Stephen Hanson

Feb. 21, 2004

AM 3:7 Surely the Sovereign LORD does nothing without revealing his plan to his servants the prophets.

"From the depths of my Spirit I am sending forth my messages in this hour. From time immortal I have dwelt and have wanted to have a relationship with mankind. My messages have gone out in the earth in this hour. They have come forth from my throne room. I tell you that my words will take on a different intensity because the hour is getting later. My messages will speak more of specific times and places. For I tell you the enemy is planning his schemes, but he will not prevail. For I am equipping my prophets to know his schemes.

But even as important as that, my people need to be warned about specific things that are soon to come. So what is it that I want you to know? I want you to know of a deep and ever-lasting love that I have for you. I want you to know that you can triumph over the enemy in every situation. And specifically I want you to know about certain events. It will come at a certain time that you America, will be at war. That war will be greater than any war that you have been in so far. You will have the enemy enter your borders. I tell you that this war will be with China. I ask you to enter into prayer about these things.

Judgment will come and it will come swiftly at that time. These things will be happening after you have a new man in office. After this time that figure of the anti-christ will be taking his place among the world powers. I don't say these things to frighten or alarm but that you would be made ready.

Church Is Going Forth

Annette Ammarell

My Church is going forth into the Streets
November 22,03 Ammarell@prodigy.net

God is going to show His glory forth-through our weaknesses- He WILL be glorified!! and lifted up. He WILL be exalted!! not a man lifted up, BUT the Lord Jesus Christ - through an army of believers- the young and the old- the hurt, the wounded, the rejected sheep's- those whom He's prepared for such a time. Those whom he's placed for such a time- in strategic places- the unknowns- those that need to rely on him to stand, to speak, to sing, to go forth.... whom He's prepared- to STAND!!.. to follow His lead and not be persuaded by man or religion.

IT'S HERE!
The ARMY IS arisen!
ALL to HIS glory-
Praise HIS name. Praise him! Praise him!

It's those who don't feel capable but KNOW God CAN!! The reliance is on HIM and not on any of fleshes ability- but through HIM- whom we have our being and life!! LIFE SHALL spring forth, readily- speedily!! The banks over flood with more of him. HIS Spirit flowing freely..., and flooding out into the streets, overtaking cites- bringing LIFE!!! LIFE more abundantly!!

LIFE- I speak forth LIFE- I call you forth! Rivers overflow!! Yes, Have your way Lord.

"CALL FORTH LIFE! CALL FORTH LIFE! CALL FORTH LIFE!!

I am overflowing the banks of the churches-into the streets it shall flow. And wherever it goes, life SHALL flourish! And fruit SHALL abound. My hearts cry SHALL be heard. My people are taking the land. MOVE forward! It's time! Time to take the land. The harvest is plentiful.

REJOICE! REJOICE! REJOICE for great is your reward.

The light is going- even now- it's penetrating the darkness. It's making a path before you. See it now- It's right there. Follow it and I'll go before you making a way. Look not to the right of what was- Look not to the left of what is now.. Look not behind you at what was...but look before you ... to what is to come. Go forward to what is to become, because it is I. It is now. The doors are open. I've made it clear before you, as long as you rely on me. Keep your eyes on me. Follow me. I will be the plower- the door opener- for have not I ALREADY opened the door. IT'S OPEN! It's before you, but many are distracted and led astray by the cares of today, and of the worries of tomorrow... and stuck in the hurts of yesterday... to move forward... that cloud comes up from within of darkness that obscures the Son.. I said MY SON.. from shining brightly, and blocks the clear view of the horizon- of what I am doing. Look even now- on the horizon- the SON HAS Risen!!

Your things I have ordained of you, are mine to bring to pass-just do what I ask- when I ask- don't worry about yesterday. Don't worry about tomorrow of the what-if's or who may be offended because your stepping out. Look to the SON that HAS Risen upon you. Don't worry about How it will ALL be accomplished... know that I WILL do it- as you step in obedience. There are angels sent forth.. way ahead of you in time... they are in the time before you, making a way... walk ye in it. They are way ahead of you... preparing a way- preparing a people. What is needed WILL be there at that time.

Money will come forth as needed. You won't need to beg, borrow, or plead- only share your heart- My heart. And I have the money!! As needed... as needed... things WILL be supplied to you, even before a need comes- or an area I want you to branch out into... It WILL be there. I WILL be THERE... as long as you walk in obedience to my voice.

There is much to come forth. You won't have to force it.. cry to me and I will, and already have dispatched angels. I AM! And I ALWAYS SHALL BE! LOOK UPON ME. There's a place- there's a place.. I have prepared for you. Rejoice for I AM! and I AM BEFORE you.

It's not a name- It's not a church. It's me. My name WILL be lifted up and exalted. The fruit is abounding -my fruit- good fruit. Do not worry. Do not fear. Stay focused on Me.

There are many people I have prepared even today- I say to you as you step out- in love! Love is the key!-just reflect my love.. Don't worry because NOT all will accept you, some are going to reject you, and even come against you... because your going against the grain of religion... but know I have those who you now know and some you have not yet met. I am calling out the obscure- and I will bring those that are equipped to teach and help...and those who WILL grow rapidly into their gifts. There are connection already made in heaven that are yet to come- It will not all be on your shoulders(as individuals), but your team of many, and it WILL grow. There will be College students. They will be young... of all ages...the young and old.. this isn't about age, but it's about hearts. Those that desire me- to know me. They'll be ALL ages- as they are all my children, and many have only needed a safe place to heal, and gifts pulled out, to be encouraged. And there are those that I have took through the wilderness and have prepared them to move forward and take the land- to take my people deeper into the promise land.

You'll, (when I say you- I mean ministries- team members and those that will come out of you-My people), You will be breakers. It's not one- it's many. I'll be brought into the schools- into colleges, I'm going to the streets through you- There is a release bursting forth now- coming down upon you- your streets- my people- that have been strategically placed. There are others through-out the U.S. and the world-wherever you live- this is a word for you) small fires, that shall grow to raging fires!! Where you- (my willing people) step, little fires will break out and there grow lots of separate fires... that SHALL shoot forth fireballs- but all from the same flame. ALL one!

WATCH OUT! BE ready in season and out. Look upon me. Keep your eyes upon me. LET me increase in you and through you.

I SHALL consume churches and break forth- I AM breaking out of the confines placed upon me. There is healing in my wings- a mighty deliverance for my people. There is not one leader but many, many called out ones- some will come through you... It will be of every nation and tongue, and of every denomination... Be Prepared! Raise up others to go forth.. the multiplication process of disciples.

Raise them- bless them. release them.

Raise them- bless them- release them.

Raise them- bless them- release them.

When they go out from among you.. bless them- release them.

If they talk badly of you... bless them- release them- move on, because this won't be a small thing. They'll be braches off of branches.. each separate but a part of the whole- the whole of MY picture! Again I say MY picture. It won't always be what you think it should be. It's MY masterpiece. ONLY do what I put before you. I will bless you. I will multiply you. I will equip, and I WILL send out... so more fires can spread.

I am well pleased with you. You may think your small and feel small in my army but I will use you in your weakness- as you dwell in me. You will flow in me- as your head is upon my breast- you will stay in beat with my heart beat. I am branching you out, only rely on me. Don't worry about funds- just lean on me. Rest at my feet. It will be in that place as you rest at my feet- worshiping only me, as Mary- from there...

I WILL flow through you. Rest in me.
It will be a natural overflow. Rest in me!
It will be an outflow of my love- through you. Rest in me!!"
Rest in me.

Combat In The Higher Realms

Spiritual Warfare 204

At this point, if you have been following David's Song, the concept that people have of "SPIRITUAL WARFARE" should be altered. David's whole position is based on his relationship with his GOD. It is based on revelation knowledge, there were no do it yourself books or charismatic conferences for David to "pick up" on. David learned it in the fields with THE SHEEP. He lived it with lions, bears, and giants. Then he wound up in the CAVES. There he began to grow into what he would become. A Captain of MEN OF VALOR....and KING of JUDAH and all ISRAEL. Personal valor and ability in Military Skills does not teach a shepherd boy to be a KING. But revelation knowledge can. So back to Psalm 18..... 25 With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful; with an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright;

For years we have been taught that Christianity is based upon a "personal relationship" with JESUS...GOD...sometimes throw in THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT. Seldom does man expound upon where you go from there. The overall assumption is that if you hang around with GOD everything is "O-K". But Paul teaches about changing from our corruptible reference into DIVINE PERFECTION. JESUS made it simple. PICK up your cross and to follow HIM. Paul says we are crucified...reread Galatians and actually study what Paul tries to teach. Few teach it today.

David declares that GOD shows mercy to those who give it. David was a WARRIOR KING...killed Philistines...and that is as far as it goes for most church goers. To bad they forget where David started...in the fields. Taking care of helpless LAMBS teaches a young man responsibility...and compassion. The aspects of MERCY can be manifest to one's understanding. Now David knew what upright meant, two verses earlier we saw it. Did he "get" it from reading Deuteronomy or Leviticus? Or did he pick it up from the family examples he had...great-Grandpa Boaz...and the pagan wife he redeemed. Or maybe Grandpa Obed who understood the "public shame" his Dad accepted at doing his duty.

Never heard about any of this? Shame on your pastors, preachers, and teachers.

David knew what being upright required.

26 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt shew thyself froward.

So David understood HOLINESS to a degree....PURE... and he addresses the "froward". In the KJV it is the same term. In Hebrew it is actually two. The FIRST is 6141(ik-kashe') which means to be "distorted", "false", "crooked", "forward", and "perverse". Basically the opposite of being upright. So it makes sense not to ascribe unto a HOLY GOD such "attributes". So when David speaks of GOD he uses a completely different term, 6617(paw-thal'). Dr Strong say it means "to struggle", "to twine", "to be (morally) tortuous, "to be unsavory"..."to wrestle". GOD will STRUGGLE against perverse men. Imagine a "perverse and distorted" man trying to sing Psalm 34....and the taste of PRAISE and WORSHIP in TRUTH has in his mouth.

27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down high looks.

Again revelation knowledge. The afflicted will cry out....what if it is THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT afflicting sinners with CONVICTION? Publicans walk away with forgiveness. The Arrogant...the Proud...the Pharisee...walks away unchanged. His reward is in this world and he is happy with that. But he has no revelation so desires no relationship with GOD. He is a Pharisee...RELIGIOUSLY ASTUTE. In utter darkness, but will never know because of his spiritual blindness.

28 For thou wilt light my candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.

David knows where THE LIGHT COMES FROM....and because of that he changes from kid with the sheep and outlaw hiding in the caves to....

29 For by thee I have run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

A MIGHTY MAN OF VALOR. In GOD'S STRENGTH David can go beyond the limits of flesh and blood. All the GABOREM had it to some degree...Caleb and the GIANTS, Shamgar and 600 Philistines...Sampson...before he wallowed into sin... so much for the LIE about ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED.

30 As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.

Gee David, you were just getting good at how GOD used you. Why stop telling about your great victories...because David "KNEW" that it had nothing to do with David... anointed and beloved....IT WAS GOD...IS GOD...AND ALWAYS WILL BE GOD. David knew it, so few church goers have ever "got" it. So look at verse 30 again.

30 As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.

One verse, but three separate phrases and each one is revelatory.

HIS WAY IS PERFECT....

John 14 5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? 6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. 7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

Here we are at the LAST SUPPER. Except for ol' Pete none of the boys had any revelation knowledge of who they had spent 3 years with. Now Pete was with James and John at THE MOUNT OF TRANSFIGURATION. Yet nothing sank in. James and John still were jockeying for places in HIS KINGDOM...and Pete was about to cut off an ear and then betray his Rebbe...his TEACHER... the MIRACLE WORKING MESSIAH....even with RHEMA...Pete was still struggling till the THIRD DAY.... THE WORD OF THE LORD IS TRIED....

Psalm 12 5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the LORD; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him. 6 The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. 7 Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.

John 1 1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 The same was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. 4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men. 5 And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

John 5 23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him. 24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. 25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

There is absolutely nothing I can add to what JESUS HIMSELF SAID.... HE IS A BUCKLER/SHIELD for all who put their TRUST/FAITH in HIM...

Ephesians 6 16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

And once again we find ourselves in Ephesians 6. Simple...GOD'S ways are all Straight and FIT TOGETHER....because in HIS KINGDOM everything has PURPOSE. So David is walking in REVELATION KNOWLEDGE. IS a man after GOD'S OWN HEART. All that means is that he is a sinner saved by grace...and knows it...lives it.

So David can sing... 31 For who is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God? Honest question. Solid declaration. 32 It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

David knew that it is nothing to do with the kid watching the SHEEP or the kid killing GOLIATH the SON of ANAK. Gr-Gr-Gr-Gr-Gr----grandpappy/granduncle Caleb chased them out of HEBRON so David could impress fallen KING SAUL and THE ARMY OF ISRAEL.... In his own strength and skill, David was no match for a full grown lion, or bear, or GIANT. David knew it and acted BECAUSE of his relationship with SOMEONE WHO COULD DO IT...and infinitely more. So here we see the GIANT KILLER....who knows the only way to struggle with GIANTS is to HAVE OUTSIDE HELP.

For years the cult of spiritual warfare has been out there. People writing books about someone else in some other part of the world. How that person HEARD GOD... GOT DIVINE DIRECTIONS...and WON GREAT BATTLES. How many times have we heard about APPROPRIATING and UTILIZING "stuff" under the guise of "SPIRITUAL WARFARE", but never hear about foundational relationship with ABBA, or THE LAMB. Granted, it is all assumed....anyone who goes to see some "big gun" in the "spiritual warfare" camp has been called by GOD to do so. Or did they just go with friends because they were bored. Or maybe they liked the companionship of the men/women in their congregation that were the top of the pecking order. Or where they "pecked" into it?

Now there has been a battle "in the heavenlies" for centuries. It started in Genesis 3. It ends in Rev 19. Now Paul tells us what we are up against...

12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

But Paul had to deal with some issues before he could get to the nitty-gritty.

1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. 2 Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise; 3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth. 4 And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

These first 4 verses deal with our relationships in our own households. Our parents and our children....to live as GOD desires for us there are promises...blessings....coming our way. Study Deuteronomy 28 very seriously. But after verse 5 it changes to a spiritual realm. Most never see it because they think Paul was teaching the EPHESIANS of the FIRST CENTURY.... people who lived when and where slavery was an acceptable practice and being a "servant" was as butler, cook, gardener, upstairs maid.... It is easy to ignore the RED LETTERS of Matthew 18 if you enjoy being served.

5 Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;

Simple...be obedient to "natural" authority. Be single-minded to your boss or supervisor as you would unto CHRIST HIMSELF....

Now comes the shift.... 6 Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

Paul is saying not to just go through the motions in order to "please" humans...he wants us to be "real"...in all aspects of our existence. Somehow Paul sees that how our hearts are towards our GOD is how we will be seen....both by GOD and by THE WORLD. That is our daily WITNESS of THE GOOD NEWS OF THE KINGDOM.

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

Whatsoever you do to the least of these....really means something to JESUS. So what can be seen as all natural works/service/action has a definitively SPIRITUAL BEARING.

8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

Storing up your TREASURES in HEAVEN ignores one's background, one's diplomas or references. All is EQUAL OPPORTUNITY in HIS KINGDOM.

9 And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him.

Here we have "the rub" as Shakespeare called it. How can anyone "dead" in CHRIST desire to be served? How can anyone with any level of relationship with GOD/DEITY/HIS PRESENCE dare to LORD OVER anyone else...manipulate, coerce, control, exploit any one else. Especially SHEEP, CHILDREN, and SERVANTS? That is a conundrum...

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

Paul says...my brethren...my brothers and sisters...those united with him in SERVICE to CHRIST JESUS. But to whom are we to be strong in THE LORD and in THE POWER OF HIS MIGHT? Verse 12 of course. But there is someone/something else out there. First shows up in Genesis 3:14... the SEED OF THE SERPENT....

Galatians 2 3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised: 4 And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: 5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

Matthew 23 29"Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You build tombs for the prophets and decorate the graves of the righteous. 30And you say, 'If we had lived in the days of our forefathers, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.' 31So you testify against yourselves that you are the descendants of those who murdered the prophets. 32Fill up, then, the measure of the sin of your forefathers! 33"You snakes! You brood of vipers! How will you escape being condemned to hell? 34 Therefore I am sending you prophets and wise men and teachers. Some of them you will kill and crucify; others you will flog in your synagogues and pursue from town to town.

The Matthew 23 I took from the NIV...in KJV it is basically the same...look at v33:

33 Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

Brood...Generation...Seed...of THE SERPENT. They are the ones going to make war on THE TRUE SAINTS...THE TRUE BRETHREN. And THE CHURCH will be targeted....and a lot of "so called saints" have not taken any of the warnings seriously. In fact, they have been taught false gospels and lies that tickle their ears and make them feel """SO GOOD""".... call it collateral damage...

Another Milestone
Bob Neumann

A number of years ago I had an excellent vision of a steer being torn apart....literally before my eyes. Since that time when things occur in the natural world people would ask "where are we...". When dealing with spiritual imagery there are rare occurrences in the physical realm that validate what we are shown in the SPIRIT. Yesterday we came close, but the "markets" pulled back. But at the close today Silver closed above $8.00/once. Here are the #'s for today’s closing as supplied by the TULVING COMPANY. This is not an advertisement....just that on the WWW there are companies giving information out freely. Closing Bullion Prices For Friday, December 3, 2004 Change From Previous Day Gold $455.50 +5.00 Silver $8.01 +.09 Platinum $875.00 -9.00 Palladium $205.00 - 2.00

Gold increased $5.00....more than 1%.... Silver increased 9 cents....also more than 1%.... at the same time "THE MARKETS" are "on the RISE".... what is plummeting is the VALUE OF THE DOLLAR.

Back in 2000 Gold was down to $230. For almost 10 years Silver stayed below $5....usually well below. In the last 12 months Silver passed $5 and climbed to now $8. In the last 6 months Gold has increased almost $100. We all know crude oil is staying around $47 a barrel.

Am I saying to go out and buy OIL, GOLD, or SILVER.... NO, what I am saying is we have reached a MILESTONE.

James 5 1 Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you. 2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. 3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days. 4 Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth. 5 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter. 6 Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you. 7 Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.

Actually all of JAMES 5 is applicable in the days and weeks ahead. Forget months and years children....TROUBLE is at the door....not still far off as some wish.

I will share with you an astute section of prophetic scripture...most have taught that ALAS BABYLON is all about that ONE DAY....actually they miss a few important points....please study.... 4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. 5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. 6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double. 7 How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow. 8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her. 9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning, 10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come. 11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more: 12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble, 13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men. 14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all. 15 The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, 16 And saying, Alas, alas that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls! 17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, 18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city!

Verses 4-7 has been the call THE TRUE SERVANTS have been sounding over and over for years. Verse 8 SPEAKS of THE DAY...Historically the US of A has a number of DAYS....we remember...BLACK TUESDAY... DECEMBER 7th....and 9/11....actually Tuesday has had a few negative things about it. 1929....2001... As bad as we perceive BLACK TUESDAY Sept 11th 2001... 1929 was something else. It is remembered as Tuesday Oct 29th...but it started on Oct 21....that the market dropped...and on Oct 24 dropped again....and all the "king's horses" and all the "king's men" could not prevent Oct 29th. So there were really TWO BLACK TUESDAYS and a BLACK THURSDAY all in one week of time.

But you have to understand was that BLACK TUESDAY was merely the beginning of a downward spiral that did not hit bottom till JULY 1932....about 3 1/2 years.

Babylon had "plagues"....and she will burn a long, long time. Lots of people will witness it...be aware of it....but no where does it say that it will bring about a HUMONGOUS END TIME REVIVAL....too many people upset at loosing all that they had fought and killed for....true misery...just no repentance.

So we hit a bump in the road... things can only get better will be heard once things start. But people tend to want to hear LIES when the TRUTH HURTS. Selah

The Humongous End Time Revival
Bob Neumann

Dear Stephen and the WPA, What I meant about THE HUMONGOUS END TIME REVIVAL was the much hyped idea that certain television and radio ministries have that "just before JESUS comes" all the sinners "out there" will suddenly "see the LIGHT" and turn on the TV. And there they will be...because your "support" will buy them the TV TIME..... Scripture does say that at "the end"...times will be perilous...STUDY 2 Timothy 3... Scripture also says that GOD will "turn them over".... STUDY THE END OF ROMANS 1........ STUDY THE BOOK OF JUDE....

Now we are talking about general society....and the "opposition"....they ARE NOT part of ABBA'S HOUSE. Yet we are told by JESUS HIMSELF that there are EVIL SERVANTS...WICKED SERVANTS...LAZY SERVANTS... we are also told a PARABLE in MATTHEW, MARK, and LUKE about "husbandmen". Here is how DR LUKE TELLS IT....

9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time. 10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty. 11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty. 12 And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out. 13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him. 14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours. 15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them? 16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid. 17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

STUDY WHAT PRECEDED THIS PARABLE....

HEBREW 6 asks us what if a SERVANT turns ROGUE... please STUDY IT...

Personally...I like what is taught in REV 6 about THE END TIME HARVEST...it just is not quite what the MEDIA MIGHTY SEE AHEAD... 9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: 10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? 11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled. 12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood; 13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind. 14 And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. 15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; 16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: 17 For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand? Just take verses 16&17...NO REPENTANCE....

STUDY REV 14....and REMEMBER that all will be SEALED. EITHER EZEKIEL 9 SEALING...or REV 13&14...

NOW THERE IS ONLY ONE BIG-TIME HARVEST IN THE END.... and it does not come from AMERICAN TELEVANGELISTS...

10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.

Does not line up with anybody hitting people up for the LAST BIG REVIVAL SHOW...

Being Under The Altar Bob Neumann

Sometimes things sneak in unexpected. For years men have interpreted the possibilities of the GREAT MULTITUDE...in REV 7... 9 After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; 10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. 11 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen. 13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? 14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. 15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. 16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. 17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

These CAME OUT OF...THE GREAT TRIBULATION.... they are not the same as REV 6... 9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: 10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? 11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled. Now 6 precedes 7....so early in the END TIMES we see those UNDER THE ALTER...who ARE GIVEN WHITE ROBES. they did not have to wash their own robes.... YET....why when I read REV 6&7 I always seem to "look back" to Ezekiel 9?

THE PARTY CAN NOT BEGIN TILL GOD GETS HIS.... sort of like MALACHI 3:16&17&18....

so ever "see yourself" UNDER THE ALTER?

it is an interesting place for viewing what will be...

sort of exclusive ringside seats....

Now you really have to ask yourself about whether you are ready to anti up the PRICE OF ADMISSION.

strange image for END TIMES DISCUSSION? maybe not

Church Moves Into A Bar

Alan Senecal

Over the past several months my family and I have been helping some folks about two hours drive from our home. They had been meeting in their home for quite some time. They began to notice two things; they were outgrowing their living room and more unsaved people began coming.

After a little while the husband approached a local bar, that's right a bar. He shared with the owners about Jesus eating and drinking with publicans and sinners, about church in the market place.

Amazingly the owners loved the idea and our friends started meeting there, in the bar, on Sunday evenings (at no cost). What followed is still amazing all of us. On any given Sunday night there are between 60-120 people showing up. The average number of non-Christians is around 30 with approximately 20-30 people being born again within the past 3-4 months.

I, for one, have always believed that the church should be in the "market place". It's just great to see and experience it like this, IN A BAR!

Christian Martyrs in the Last Days

Introduction to this Series of dreams:

These dreams were compiled together from different dreams that I had in which God gave to me to show different events in the end time events and events in my life that pertain to Christians being Martyrs in the last days. It is also a series with a two fold prophecy that shows my growth in what I was called to do and how I had to listen to God to do his will.

Back in 1998, my mentor and ministry advisor for our hip hop rap group, Jamison a.k.a. Eleazar tha Last testament told me something that disturbed me. It actually had me not wanting to be a Christian anymore. He said that some Christians in the end time were going to be martyred. That they would die for the sake of the gospel. I had only been saved for one year and I was only 16. God had used me a lot in my high school to preach and witness to people. I was the Youth for Christ President and was responsible for bible study at school. I had put on many gospel rap concerts at my school that caused many students to repent after hearing the gospel in the rap lyrics. But I had never thought that I might have to die for the sake of the gospel. I got sad. I thought, “God, why would I have to die if I believe in you?”

And gradually over a couple of months, Jamison had encouraged me to research about the tribulation period and the end times so that I could be more aware of the signs and seasons. See I grew up in a Baptist church that rarely taught anything other than hollering stories at you and tithes and offerings. They talked about hell and following the rules, living Christian lives, but their was no spirit of love there. They rejected gospel rap and almost anything that was for the youth but told us that the children in the growth of the church. Hypocrites, gossipers, and lust-driving men all clothed behind the robes, big loud hats and suits, and the pulpits. I believe that I heard once that we were being raptured out of here one day before everything got bad and that if “Jesus tarries” we should live holy (not wearing makeup and pants for women, along with no tattoos and ear rings for men) ; all types of outside holiness but no emphasize made for getting the inner-man right with God. Only church traditions. Not once did I hear what to do if we were still here doing the tribulation and how to help others.

So when Jamison told me that he believed that the saints were going to be present on earth during the tribulation and that no rapture was to take place until the second coming of Christ, after the tribulation. The only thing that I could say was, “Well, if the pre-tribulation rapture is a mislead or misinterpreted doctrine, then I still hope for a rapture out of here before everything gets worse, and if the rapture comes in the middle of the tribulation, I still hope to be raptured then, but if we do not leave and are present on earth while things are at its worst, then I want to be the best Christian I can be so that I am right with God no matter what occurs on earth. So, while I was depressed that I would have to die for Jesus if it came to that point, I begin to study over the years and had a change in my point of view. I saw what Jamison was talking about and my dreams conformed a post tribulation rapture and saints being present on earth during the reign of the Anti-Christ. Yes, I was scared to kill my flesh daily and take up the cross of Jesus. I was selfish in thinking that Christ would die for me and that I wouldn’t have to die for him. And then God’s love came to me and I saw in the bible that “To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.” My thinking changed a lot and I was not as afraid. I was still thinking, “If someone tries to take my life, I will use self defense and kill them. I will shoot them and kill them with the sword. No New World Order personnel will take me without me fighting!” Then the spirit of the Lord came to me in this series of the dream to correct my thinking. It literally took a year for me to see God's point of view. He was also showing me that "Those who live by the sword will die by the sword" and that "Vengeance is mine saith the Lord."

This series of dreams are visions of the end times and a parallel of myself becoming a martyr for my beliefs. When the final dream was over, I saw myself anew and knew my calling was confirmed. These dreams helped me to realize my potential in Christ and how it can help others in the end times, by following God's voice and will and dieing to self and what self wants. It is also to serve as a vision to those who God has called to be martyred for their faith. This series of dreams are also visions of to come and what will happen in the end times. God revealed it to me through the dreams and I must say that we must all be right with the Lord and repent for our sins because the day will come when we either stand up and preach the gospel or receive the mark of the beast.

The Word of God:

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. (Matthew 5:10)

And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved. (Matthew 10:22)

Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake. (Matthew 24:9)

And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, (Luke 18:29)

For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh. (2 Corinthians 4:11)

For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake; (Philippians 1:29)

But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled; (1 Peter 3:14)

And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. (Matthew 10:28)

Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city: (Matthew 23:34)

And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. (Luke 12:4)

A Few Passages from the Bible that I thought about during this series of dreams:

The Cry of the Martyrs

When He opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the testimony which they held. And they cried with a loud voice, saying, "How long, O Lord, holy and true, until You judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" Then a white robe was given to each of them; and it was said to them that they should rest a little while longer, until both the number of their fellow servants and their brethren, who would be killed as they were, was completed. (Revelation 6:9-11)

A Multitude from the Great Tribulation

(9) After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;
(10) And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.
(11) And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,
(12) Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.
(13) And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?
(14) And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.
(15) Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them.
(16) They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.
(17) For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. (Revelation 7:9-17)

Slain Prophets and Saints from the History of the Earth

And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth. (Revelation 18:24)

Dream One: The Demon Beast

A big, big Demon-beast appeared in a vision while I was asleep with my former Black Muslim husband along with my cat. I keep saying in Jesus name I rebuke you and then the sky opened up and was a dark purple color. I told my husband about the beast but he kept saying something about letting him sleep. A think that the beast and me wrestled for a long time but it went away, caught up in the air and I thought in my dream that it would come back. Then I woke up, went back to sleep and the vision continued. It was in color.

Dream Two: The End is Near

The sky was purple and I looked up and saw the whole galaxy, our solar system and stars, sun, everything. I was on my balcony and was as I were looking through my telescope but I could see everything without it, in full view. I felt in my spirit that the world was about to end. So I came inside and I was suddenly at another house where my two cousins were. They were extremely younger than me in the dream although we are the same age in reality. We were locking doors and windows and being careful in the shadows. We began to try to box up food and personal belongings to go to my dad house to be with family before everything went crazy on earth. Then I woke up again, went back to sleep and the dream continued.

Dream Three: The Christian Infiltrates

The scene was my aunt's house, the sky was still purple and I look out of the window to make sure that no one was out there and I kept telling my cousins who were like toddlers now in my dreams not to turn on the lights because it was dark outside and it would bring attention to us. McDonalds food chain was out there and gave us food to survive through a window. Then the scene changed and some others and I were together getting ready to infiltrate the antichrist movement but we had got captured, I do believe some got killed but some remained locked up and one of the ladies on the antichrist side was nice and helped me. She was a Christian who had not received the mark but was apart of the government some how. Then I woke up. These three dreams happened all on the same night/morning at 3am, 4 am and 6 am.

Visions & Dreams

Today I had a dream that I was in the bathroom with my fiancée and Melissa, a girl from Houston Baptist University where I attend college. Then the scene changed and I was at my grandma's house but it had scenes from my other aunt's house at the same time. My Aunt Bonnie and the other women in my family were cooking and then we started to watch television. There was a gay parade in New York City and they were running over people, beating them up and a lot of them were dressed as clowns, laughing. There were a lot of them there. The clowns were the gay people but at the same time they were demons of homosexuality. They were marching on New York in sinful pride and saying "We are here and you can't do anything about it." They reminded me of the demons that were in the hordes that Rick Joyner saw in his book "The Final Quest". They were marching together for that cause and were united but at the same time fighting each other in discord.

Then we were at the dinner table and Benny Hinn was on another television across the room and I started to prophecy and got bread and my other aunt took a piece of tuna sandwich (bread) and we put it on my other aunt's head. It was done to my Aunt Karen and then I started laying hands and speaking in tongues and it was causing people to fall down over there chair.

(My grandma died of cancer in 1996, a godly women and is she is usually representing in my dreams as wisdom or when I need an urgent message.) Here in this dream my grandma then entered it and said to me "Don't let them see you or they'll kill you or take you to jail." Then she told me to pack my stuff and head out before night falls and then I was packing and was trying to get my two cousins packed with me. Then I woke up. I did not know who she was talking about seeing me heal people. I thought that maybe she was referring to the demons we saw on television. They looked like the clown on Stephen King's movie "IT".

I do know that God has called me to heal the sick and raise the dead, cast out demons and prophesy. In most of my dreams dealing with bread, fruit or any other biblical symbols, I know that it means exactly what it means, the anointing of God, the bread of life, the fruit of the spirit. God said that if the tree does not bear good fruit, cut it down. In the last days, we must operate in God's anointing and be wise and bold when it is the right season so that many people come to God and we don't get caught in pride or self-righteousness and die before it is time.

The False Prophet, Worship of the Image and God's Protection

Visions & Dreams
Spring 2003

thapinkprophetess@yahoo.com

We were at school in my dream and were taking a class with this lady and she was telling us to pay attention and was showing us how to do stuff when the last days came and all of a sudden a voice in the wind was heard and many people turned and looked.

She told us to stay away from the windows and not to get too close but some did and they began to follow the voice and it got louder and louder and was far off. Those who took heed to her warning did not follow the voice. I was there and my fiancée. Then the sky suddenly turned purple and the voice was in Latin or some other language like it. There were thousands of people worshiping the voice and bowing down to it. And I saw off in the far an image and the image was big and they were worshipping the image with the voice and the voice sounded like the Pope of the Roman Church.

When I saw this I told my fiancée, Robert to come with me and go to my mentor Jamison's house but as we were about to leave, a big wave of water came from the hallway and was trying to flood us, those who were not worshipping the image or the false prophet and the few of us left got on top of tables. Then the water ceased and the lady told us to go left and right and then right again up the stairs and to follow those instructions and not to deviate from it. There was a set of stairs that she directed us to so we went. The stairs had a right and a left way to get up the same way but she told us to take the left one. I wanted to see what was on the right but Robert pulled me from going to far and then when we got to the top of that stairway I woke up and I realized that the lady teaching us was an Angel of God sent to help us stay alive during the tribulation to help others come to Christ.

She was helping and giving us directions and instructions as God gave them to her. And at first we were not listening and we were doing other things in class and the tribulation was sudden. So those who were not prepared followed the voice and began to worship the image. It is very important to hear God and know His voice.

I was dreaming that I was on a bus full of people that were going to a concentration camp. We were Christians. A couple of us, including me pissed off the bus driver off along with a worker on the bus and so they decided to stop the bus in front of a big house. Then they proceeded to throw our stuff down on the ground and told a few of us to get off.

I knew that they were about to kill us as soon as we turned our backs so that they could make an example of us to the other Christians to keep them in fear of them.

Then the dream paused!!!!!!!!! I suddenly heard the Lord say to me "Those who kill by the gun die by the gun" and I paused to think of what I was going to do and then I grabbed and wrestled for the gun. I was able to get it and started shooting the worker lady with it. Then a guy came up to me and said

"Stop shooting, we will all make peace!". So I gradually gave him the gun but as soon as he got it he was trying to shoot me and so I wrestled with him for a while and then he left with a bitter attitude. Nether of us had the gun however. It had disappeared.

I noticed that the worker and the guy were just pawns in Satan's game and were former Christians who were now persecuting us. They have accepted the mark of the beast because everything they taught and knew about Christ and the 2nd coming was wrong, so they got bitter and in return began to pursue us Christians. We were on our way to a concentration camp.

God told me not to shoot while giving me a choice and I paused and then I did what I wanted to do. I did not obey. God wanted me to become a martyr to build the faith of the Christians who were about to be killed like Stephen in the Book of Acts but I choose to shoot the gun so that I could stay alive. I was asleep at work and then my boss woke me up saying that it was 7 o'clock three times. 7 is the number of completion. 3 is the number of the Trinity, God the father, Jesus Christ the son and The Holy Spirit.

My hip hop rap group "Secta 7" was rapping at an event with some secular artists. I remember that Lil' Kim was one of them and then their were some local performers as well. The scene changed from the concert and then we all had got captured by the Russians and were forced to walk in the desert along some mountains and hills.

Then some helicopters came and began to shoot at people in the long line of prisoners. The helicopters had the numbers 2, 11, 13, and 26 on them. (These are also the television stations in Houston that report the news). Channel 2 is NBC, Channel 11 is CBS, and Channel 13 is ABC and Channel 26 is FOX). But I do not know if the helicopters represented this. Please pray for the interpretation.

Then two other helicopters came and shot down 2 of the other helicopters.

Then we were inside of the Russian camp and they divided all of us into groups and I remember a military lady saying to the Germans to get in a certain corner so that they wouldn't get hit.

And then some of the people in our group and I remember my fiancée was one of them, were told to stand behind this curtain. And I saw that in front of the curtain, the soldiers were playing a baseball game and the batters were the prisoners and the pitcher threw many balls and the balls were hitting the batters and some of the balls were coming behind the curtain and hitting us. The balls left like bullets and were small like bullets, so I ran and went to the corner with the Germans, but the lady pulled me back and I was getting hit still.

Then my fiancée went up to bat and I was scared but still mad so when the pitcher began throwing the balls, I ran up to home base and we took the bats and began to throw the balls back. Some of the bats broke and the Russians got hurt a little. After taking hits from many balls, we all went back to our quarters.

I went to the Russian general's office because of what I did earlier with helping the prisoners out and he said that by the end of the day we all would be dead. So I told him wait and he tried to flirt with me so I told him to let us go and he said maybe, only if I flirted back. So I said maybe later (although I did not plan on ever flirting with him) and he let me go. So I was going to tell the others what the Russian general said when the local performers from the scene before came up to me and wanted to talk. One of them left and only one remained and he started to talk to me and then tried to rape me but I got him off and when I looked at myself I had on a white robe. Then I woke up.

I was in China as a Christian monk with some Chinese people. We were praying in a cave because like in the Book of Daniel, the king told Daniel that he would be killed if they continued to pray to god. This also happened in China. So we stopped praying, we only stopped so they would leave and we could go to the jungle and pray some more.

So we left the cave and went to the jungle to pray and the Chinese officers followed us and started shooting guns. We fled and hid, some fought back behind rocks, etc. I don't remember if I was shooting back but I was behind a big, big rock but I was still getting shot with bullets and I remember having many bullet holes. Then they left and the Chinese people who were with me came and saw me and I got up from behind the rock and was hot. The bullets burned and it felt so real, like it was not a dream, like I was awake.

I saw that I was bleeding and that I was shot twice in my neck and all over my body. They carried me to a room and I was talking to them about heaven and Jesus and how when we die Angels come to take us up to heaven and that we will see Jesus come.

And all of a sudden my breath begin to slow and I felt hot and I felt Jesus there in the room and I told the Chinese Christians in my shortness of breath that the presence of the Lord was there and I fell on my face and started to worship until I turned around and I saw Jesus.

I was so happy and Jesus helped me up since I was dying and short of breath, ready to give up the ghost. As soon as Jesus touched me, I felt no more pain, no more flesh, no more hurt, no more anything, no more bullets or blood. I was free. I was dead, but free and Jesus himself came to get me!!!!!!!! It happened in a millisecond, not even a millisecond or a nanosecond, it was an instant change.

I didn't see heaven, I was just walking with Jesus and we went somewhere and I saw my 5 cats. Jesus told me, “It is time for these 2 cats to come with us.” And I said what about the others, and Jesus said, “It is not their time.” And then I took the 2 cats and we left the other 3 cats and then I woke up.

I woke up and was unhappy because to be with God was love and happiness. I was happy even though I was dead. I never died in my dreams. My dreams have build up to the exact moment of seeing Christ. The first dreams that I had years ago was helping people in the last days and what was going to happen, then the dreams began to show me escaping the Antichrist and helping Christians like the underground railroad. Then in my dreams I got caught and was helped. Then I got caught was about to die. Now finally I died in my dreams and saw Jesus!!!!!!!!!!! He was showing me what was to occur in the end times and at the same time, show me that I do not need guns or swords in the end times, that no matter what happens, He is there and He will get me. I am a martyr, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, what a wonderful feeling. It is good news to me. To die a martyr means the receiving of a wonderful crown, a white robe and to be able to sit on the thrones next to Jesus. Rick Joyner has seen these thrones in his vision of Heaven.

Introduction: My History in Relation to My Dreams

I am 23 years old this year 2004, I was born in August 1981. I got saved in 1997 when I was 15 years old by watching Gospel rap music on television. I called the prayer number and talked with the person who later became my mentor. His name is Jamison Smith. Jamison Smith got saved when He was 22 years old. He is 45 this year. He grew up in Chicago and was an ex-pimp, hustler and gang member. Due to a hit out on his life, he traveled from place to place until God had him in Houston, Texas. Nobody wanted to preach to him at first because he was still very thuggish and mean. He smoked and drank heavily but one person Kirk Miller took him into his home and every night played the word on reel to reel. The demons in Jamison slowly started to come out. There, He got saved viewing a Gospel Tract from Chick tracts named "This was your Life." And it is very amazing that before Jamison got saved, he could not read well. When He got saved, God showed him how to read by only reading the bible and gospel tracts. The Click tract had pictures like comics and very few wording in them with scripture at the bottom.

Ever since then, Jamison and Kirk would go out on the streets after praying and studying the word all day, with no other church, and preach to the gays and lesbians and homeless. They were bold like John the Baptist. One day while preaching in the middle of a heavily gay populated street, Jamison was praying and walking back and forth. Kirk and other friends were preaching and witnessing but Jamison told God that He did not want to say anything until God told him to, for He knew deep down that something would happen that night, but He did not know what. And then all of a sudden, fire arose in his belly and He started to proclaim, "Thus said the Lord…" and He witnessed to everyone on the street so loud that Kirk and his friends thought that He went crazy. They were used to people witnessing like they do in church. But Jamison was like John the Baptist. And it was three people listening and then it turned into 20 people and when the Spirit of the Lord finished speaking through Jamison, all of the people who were around were on their knees in repentance.

This occurred when Jamison was only in his 20's. I am in my 20's and like, father, like son, mentor and mentee. Jamison is like a father to me and I have inherited His ways. Episodes like this happened all of the time when Jamison was young. There was even a time when someone died in an accident and Kirk and Jamison stopped to see what was going on, and they prayed over the person, for he had just died. And then all of a sudden, Kirk rebuked death and told the man to wake up. And the man arose and was no longer dead. They did not stay and enjoy the thank you and praise, they simply went on to San Antonio like planned. They had to go minister to people there. Jamison has had dreams and visions since then as well. He has seen Russia and China attacking our shores and well as many other end time prophecies listed in the bible.

He was one of the original gospel rap artist and started a television show called "Ministerz of tha Underground". It is currently on Trinity Broadcast Network (TBN's) JC-TV and the web. It originally aired on Houston area's Channel 22 KLTJ (Keep Looking To Jesus), but when Daystar bought the television station, they took all youth programs off. We are apart of a hip hop rap group called "Secta 7". I rap and write poetry. God is calling the youth today to do wonders and prophecy just like he did the prophet Jeremiah.

(Jeremiah 1:5-10) Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations. (6) Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child. (7) But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak. (8) Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD. (9) Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth. (10) See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

(Joel 2:28-32) And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: (29) And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit. (30) And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. (31) The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come. (32) And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

Jamison's mentor was Brother Eldred Thomas. Brother Thomas owned KLTJ along with other television stations and radio shows. He authored books like, "The Tribulation, Daniel's 70th week", along with a book about the different bible versions. Brother Thomas was 80 years old when he died. He was friends with Pat Robertson, Brother Schembock, and John Osteen. He loved Smith Wigglesworth and some of the great charismatic thinkers of the past. Brother Thomas also mentored and approved of Bob Larson, Mary Baxter, and Irvin Baxter Jr. Brother Thomas, Jamison, myself and our Gospel rap and ministry believe that we are living in the end time. We believe that the saints will go through the tribulation and that God still gives us visions and dreams and the ability to heal the sick, raise the dead and operate in the wholeness of the 5-fold ministry. Jamison is considered an Elder. All of the youth call Him "The High priest Elder" and He laughs.

He asked God a long time ago to give Him a double anointing of John the Baptist. And He received it that same night. Something like a bright light star came from the sky and descended until the ground were He was standing and praying that night. His ministry has received his anointing, the anointing of John the Baptist and the prophet Elijah.

We preach an unpopular message through our songs and ministry in a time where churches are preaching the prosperity teaching. We now that it is today that we were born. We are here for since a time as this. We must fight, we must prophecy, we must do what God tells us to, for the time is short. Jesus will not tarry any longer. The birth pangs of the earth are about to produce something in the atmosphere that no one has every seen before and we will be here for it. Some will be martyrs, some will receive the mark of the beast. This is what we believe. This is where I stand and God has shown me through studying His word, my own dreams and visions and through others like Dumitru Duduman and tons of others online and in books that we are all on the same page.

This series of dreams are the first ones that I ever had. These dreams served as a message for me in helping me grow in Christ and opening my eyes to see the spiritual world of warfare- the vast world of angels, demons, and God. I believe that if more Christians started to think with there spirit eyes, they would see that demons are what cause division, not their husbands, not the kids, not the boss. They would see that spirits are over certain cities causing havoc. They will see that "Doctrines of Demons" have been in the Church since the beginning and that demons are over these doctrines to keep true Christians from operating in the full power God has given to all of those who believe in him. This series of dream show my mind frame and how it grew in Christ and understanding. I hope that it blesses you like it did me. God let me see the outskirts of heaven, an eagle, demons, Satan and how God protects His people. He also gave me a little wake up call in a dream when I was studying Islam and Christianity, where I did not know if I was going to Hell or Heaven. That time in my life was havoc because I had just gotten to college, "the time of experimenting" and had discovered the Nation of Islam and Black Muslim beliefs. I thought that I had found myself in those beliefs but in fact, they are not enough to convince me to leave Jesus, so I just merged both beliefs into one. And instead of being at peace, it only confused me because one taught hell and the other did not. God came and gave me a wake up call.

Before I got saved I had a vision while I was sleep. I saw myself rise up out of my body while I was still asleep on my dad's couch. My spirit descended on to the floor and began to walk towards the hallway door. I opened the hallway room and on the other side of the door was a funeral. I did not know who died but recently my great-grandfather died and I thought that maybe I was viewing his funeral, but on the inside of me, I just felt that it was not him. Later on that year, I got saved and I do believe now that it was me in that grave, a spiritual grave because I was dead. Everyone is dead spiritually if they do not have Christ.

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. (John 14:6)

I had a dream while I was on my dad's couch asleep. Actually I thought that I was sleep but it seemed as though I was out of my body because I saw myself sleep. And then a dark figure came to me and it kept me from talking and waking up. I didn't know what to do because I couldn't move but the only thing that the inside of me was saying was "Say Psalms 23" and when I did, the dark figure went away and I woke up. Later that night it happened again and whenever this happened, I could see my body laying there and my spirit was moving sometimes but I could never talk. Later on in my years being saved, I learned what to do when these dark spirits came. It is for our inner-man to raise up and conquer it in the spirit with the word of God and with a word of rebuke to Satan and his demonic forces.

Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from
you. (James 4:7)

Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases. (Luke 9:1)

I was taken up into the outskirts of heaven. I was flying through the air and clouds which were golden, a pure gold never seen before, bright in God's glory. I felt peace and time was not present there, eternity was. Then I woke up. After a few years of being saved and having this dream, God revealed to me that the way I was able to fly was because I was on the back of an eagle, one of the prophets of old.

(Revelation 21:10-23)

(10) And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,
(11) Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;
(12) And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:
(13) On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.
(14) And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.
(15) And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.
(16) And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.
(17) And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.
(18) And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.
(19) And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;
(20) The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.
(21) And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.
(22) And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.
(23) And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

Dream One: Flood of Lava

I was playing basketball in a dream and looked up at the sky and the basketball goal grew taller and the sky did too, it looked like it was going to rain so I went inside, as I turned to go inside a line of people were lining up to enter, my house became a haven from the rain. And just like the wizard of oz and the flood of Noah, my house was on top of water or lava and I could see through the window, demons and witches on top of houses, water or lava almost to the top of the houses.

Dream Two: God Protects His people

I was in my room in my dream and got up. I saw a small and skinny demon and then it ran to avoid me so I chased it. It went through the door to my aunt's room and I followed it in there, it ran out and went outside so I chased it and as soon as I went outside, everything was desolate, blood or lava was up to the top of houses, people drowned but I walked on top of it all. The demon ran and looked back at me and stopped. Then he came running towards me. I looked back and behind me was an army of people from God. As the demon ran towards me an invisible hand from above came down and as it did it made impact with the demon like a blow from a fist. However the hand went threw the demon like a ghost and when it did the demon broke up into ashes and blew away. Then I woke up. I used this dream as an inspiration in one of my rap songs.

O Israel, trust thou in the LORD: he is their help and their shield. (Psalm 115:9)

Thou art my hiding place and my shield: I hope in thy word. (Psalm 119:114)

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. (Psalm 46:1)

In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God. (Psalm 62:7)

But the LORD is my defence; and my God is the rock of my refuge. (Psalm 94:22)

(Psalms 91:1-7)

(1) He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
(2) I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.
(3) Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.
(4) He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.
(5) Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;
(6) Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.
(7) A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

I was in my bed and I saw Satan as a beautiful man/creature. I can't really describe him because he was so pretty yet deceptive at the same time that it is totally confusing as to describing him. He was speaking an unknown language to me but I understood it somehow. He was accusing me of a lot of things like blaming me for things that happen in my aunt's house but I kept rebuking him in Jesus name. He followed me into my aunt's room but I keep calling him a liar and a deceiver, that is all that I remember.

And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. (Revelation 12:10)

And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

I had a dream that it was 15 minutes till the world ended and I saw a lot of people from my University, Houston Baptist University. I was trying to call my family and my dad because satellites and everything was going to end first before the world ended, but I could get through because at the time my best friend Lanier a.k.a. “dredz” was on the phone line, every time I kept picking the phone up. I was trying to call my dad because I wasn’t for sure that he was saved. That was also one of the most dreadful feelings on earth because I did not know where I was going when the world ended its existence. (At the time I was studying Islam and Christianity). The dream ended as a few minutes till and I woke up crying. I was so distraught because I really thought that the dream was real.

Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? (2 Cornithians 6:14)

No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. (Matthew 6:24)

So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue (vomit) thee out of my mouth.
(Revelation 3:16)

However, I few weeks went by and I still kept studying Islam and Christianity and gradually found myself being pulled back in the way of Black Islam. I became racist towards white people, I began to distrust the government and started to believe that a mother-ship would save us.

I remember that the week earlier before I had the last dream, I created the Nation of Islam flag and the Nation of the Gods and Earth (5%ers) flag. I put them on the wall, both facing my bed so when I went to sleep, I could see it. I had slavery themes on the wall. I was watching the movie Malcolm X thirty times every two days. I was feeding myself Black Supremacy everyday.

Then I got sick, I got bit by a spider and had hives all over my face and body. I was so distraught, crying and my eyes puffed up. This happened about two weeks after my dream. I was still a little confused on God and was mad that I was sick. I remember praying in Arabic, the Muslim prayer at night and then saying a prayer to Jesus. And that night I cried out to God and said, “If Jesus is real and He is the way I am to go, send me peace tonight so that I could sleep”. And that night I slept well. The best I slept in days and when I woke up, I took the two Islam flags down and threw them in the trash can. I stayed in Islam about two years after that and married a Black Muslim, but I eventually came back. Every time I would study Islam, God would put that dream back into my heart and memory. I even tried to run away from it like Jonah did. But one day while I was waiting for my now, ex-husband, to get out of service at the mosque, I saw something that I had not seen before. I watched the men walk around and the women walking and all of a sudden I had a vision. They were walking slowly in this vision, slow motion. I saw demons of slavery on them. They were holding them down to a doctrine that really did not help them. They were alive on the outside but dead inside, like zombies, depression, racism, sadness and all and then I heard God say loud and clear to me, “If you turn away from my Son, then I will destroy you along side of my enemies.” I had never heard God say anything to me or had a open vision like that before. This time I took it seriously. I went home that day and contemplated on what I should do. And that night, I was randomly looking through the bible for something to read and the page I landed on was the same time that God told me earlier in the vision. I had never heard or read this passage before.

(Isaiah 1:18-21) Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. (19) If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land: (20) But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it. (21) How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

With me turning back to God an my husband still in the Nation of Islam, I left. It has been almost three years now. I have never been happier. I was depressed at first because I knew that God does not like divorce, but I became well again in my spirit and I remember the passage that said:

And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, (Luke 18:29)

But thanks to God giving me dreams and visions and a wonderful set of friends and my Mentor, Jamison Smith, I came back to the real God, Yahweh, whose son, Jesus died for me and my sins. Praise God for this dream. Jamison had a dream that I was studying Islam and asked me about it and I acted like I was okay. He said that God told me not to be harsh with me because I would come back. God told him to love me and show be kindness. Others that I knew wanted to drop me from the face of the earth because I was studying Islam. Jamison took the wisdom from God in dealing with me and every time we debated or talked, I slowly came back. From my experiences in dealing with youth, since I am a little older now, we should be kind and gentle to them. The Word says that a kind word brings us back to God. And it does. When the elders and their generation are mean to the youth because of their “young rebellious ways” and self righteous kicks in saying “Do not wear tattoos and no nose ear rings!”. Instead of telling them not to wear baggy pants and that they need Jesus, show them Jesus, tell them about Jesus and love them as they are. Jesus did and He had a lot of youth followers. Youth are revolution but that is a part of being young. Paul said that as He got older, he put away the childish nature. That will occur with the youth, but we should not shun them, that makes them not want Jesus at all and start to find something else where, and Islam will take them. They are targeting the youth now, in music, and in culture. Pray for the youth.

Character Made Perfect

Many of My children are being tested to see what kind of character that they have at this time of their life. How do you know what you are made of unless you are tested? Many are failing the test but at the same time many are beginning to see that there are major adjustments that need to be made in their character and makeup.

Unless you are tested you don't know what kind of faith that you have. Is it true faith based on the character and fruit of My Son, or is it faith based on head knowledge only? Once you begin to see where you are lacking, you need to repent and begin to dive into My word even deeper to get My word really grounded in your heart so that nothing by any means can shake you.

Some fall asleep in peace like Jesus in the bough of the ship while the disciples cried out for their lives. They didn't follow the example of their Lord and lie down in peace knowing that I was in complete control and that they would be safe. Why would their Lord lead them out to sea knowing that a dangerous storm was out there to destroy them?

Let the Lord lead you and guide you into all truth. And at the same time allow Him to crucify your flesh so that you would only rejoice in time of trial being content with all that you have. Always remember there are others facing trials that far exceed that which you face. For I know that which you are able to bear, and all that I allow works together for your good to conform you into the image of My Son. Each trial will bring you closer to the mark that you will need to bear. Each trial through the fire of My love will purge your heart of all that is not of Me.

I am trying you like fire that purified pure gold. Like silver tried in the oven seven times My word is. And My word will also purify you in the fire of My love. So when you find yourself facing uncomfortable situations, allow My Spirit to take you through the test in victory. Know what is ahead of you when you overcome. The only way I overcame what was ahead of Me was knowing the fact that My glory would rule and reign over all the power of the evil one. My death would bring life to multitudes, and My resurrection would crush the enemy. It both takes the death and resurrection to bring the victory in your own life..........the death to the flesh and life everlasting in Me.

So know this day that what you manifest as you are being tested is the fruit that you behold. Is it fruit of the flesh bringing forth death or fruit of My Spirit bringing forth life? Allow My Spirit do its perfect work in you. Choose life this day, and believe that what you face is for your good. It is all in the attitude of your heart. The choice is yours to bear.

From One Whose Been Through It

Blessings to all! I want to share an experience that came out of having gone through the hurricane these last two weeks. I want to share an experience but not to point fingers at individuals. Lets consider that our fellowship through the Internet takes a lot of wisdom and discernment and at times we do let our guard down. To share what came out of being without electricity for two weeks I wasn't able to get on my computer. During this time the Lord was using the storm to clear some debris out of my life.

To give you a little background of what I'm talking about. I had been seeking the Lord for His will concerning partaking of my biblical roots concerning the Sabbath and the feasts, etc. So I came across a list on this topic. During this time on the list I had the opportunity to help out with the pastor's website. I read through the messages on his list and updated his site according to the different sections. I prayed over the site daily adding music, art, links, anything I felt led to add to beautify and to bless God's people (The Jews). I was really enjoying making the pastor happy because it was drawing a lot more traffic to his site. I believed to be able to add fifty photos of the members on the list to an album I created, and I got the fifty! I know it is a first on the Internet. So usually I spent between three to four hours daily working on this project which I thought was of the Lord.

I know the Lord has allowed these storms in our lives to clear out the debris and to get us back on track. During this period of time, close to a year, I had some bad experience with communication from the leadership that was blowing my mind. So many bad fruit was coming forth that I started to get convicted of having been yoked together with this ministry. I started to back off for a time of rest and prayer seeking the Lord for His will if I was to stop serving this ministry.

Then the hurricane came and wiped out my electricity. During this period of time I was accused of avoiding the leadership of the ministry and was unsubscribed from their mailing list and everything that had to do with me or At The Father's Feet Ministry was completely wiped off the site. That is including my name and picture. And I was assigned chief in staff, staff editor, webmaster, etc. What authority I had to be completely wiped out of the ministry!

Now that is what I had been yoked together for close to a year. Instead of leadership praying for my family through this terrible storm, they had given into the fruit of the enemy and accused me of harm. So I share this to you that you beware of wolves in sheep's clothing, pastors who literally scatter the flock when you are in need.

You can tell them by their fruit. We can overlook it for a period of time, but it comes to the point where we need to do something about it. The bible says not to be yoked together with unbelievers, but also those who call themselves by the name of Christ and live by the fruit of the enemy.

One moment you can be presented with an awesome message and then the next moment works of the enemy. We need to be consistently allowing the Lord to crucify the flesh as we serve on the Internet, not giving into pride, competition, deception and lies, jealousy, control, manipulation, and list goes on. Many have been wounded through the Internet church and it should not be. Many have falsely submitted to leadership that they should never have. To tell the truth we don't know each other from Adam over the Internet and still need to use our discernment.

I pray peace and protection over all over you, and wisdom and discernment. I didn't handle this matter in a godly matter. I was under a lot of stress with my own home matters and the hurricane, but still is no excuse to give into the flesh and lash back at the leadership of that ministry. So I pray that you will lift me up and this situation. Pray against any word curses that may have gone forth. And pray that my life will progress in the perfect will of the Lord.

You have the choice to stay with my ministry or to leave. I live by the word that you can tell them by their fruit. I wanted you to hear this message through me before any of you hear it from others. I believe to be open and honest and never give an impression of something that is not true.

Thank you for your prayers and support. Love in Christ, Yolanda

Look up unto ME....Look up....For I am holy and call for a holy people.
Do not think it a strange thing that you have endured and gone through the fire. Many are called but few are chosen.

I call you ....I choose you....this day.

For I have called you qualified and I have called you commissioned.

Whom shall I send? What shall I then hear? No, Lord not yet. No, Lord not now. No, Lord I cant. Whom shall I send? I have prepared the way before you and NOW is the time. You can because I AM with you. Whom shall I send? Will you come? Will you go? Has your faith increased in ME that I might send you to the ends of the earth able to stand because it is I that you stand on? I AM your rock.

I AM your source. I AM the strength that brings you to your feet each day and gives you the breath to breathe; to fulfill all that I have for you.

I AM releasing you into your destiny that I have purposed for your life.

I AM drawing you now...as an arrow pulled back in a bow (as you stood waiting for the release, pulled back and set apart not knowing why or when or how)...and SUDDENLY.. you will be thrust forward directly for the place I have predestined for you. Something I can only accomplish through you. Something I have specifically and uniquely done in you that will reveal who I AM unto many. You will not sound the same or look the same or speak the same or move the same. For I will move through you; for I am in you and You in Me and We will go together. We will be as One as I am with my Father. Things will not be as though they appear to your natural sight for I AM working things in relation to something above anything you can think; for My thoughts are Higher than your thoughts.
For now I am repositioning and realigning.

Prepare to take the place that has your name on it and none other.

Awake, Awake, for I am seeking a holy people , purged, purified, prepared, purposed , and positioned for greatness.

Who can ascend unto My holy hill? He with clean hands and a pure heart.
Come out, Come up , and Look unto Me. I have much for you...

Meet Me At The Well
Jeannette Rodgers

Yes daughter, Yes son, Yes Friend, You have been seeking and asking and looking for the Way, looking for the answer, looking for acceptance, looking for love, looking for healing, looking with expectation.

This day, I say to you ..Meet ME at the Well. For I have much for you to drink...enough water that you may draw and draw from the depths of My well and you will never thirst again.

I see you are dry and your tears have been your food day and night. This day I say unto you my precious children whom I love with everlasting love, Drink, Drink from the well that will never run dry. Look to the water that is crystal clear, that heals , that loves, that is filled with compassion; for it is of ME. Many will say drink here or drink there but I say to you drink from Me alone. When you are offered a drink; look at it and you will know by MY spirit within you if it is of ME. My water will not be tainted, MY water will not have particles in it, MY water will be given freely in abundance, MY water will be Life. You will know My water for it will refresh, it will restore, it will revive, it will love, it will deliver, it will be clear, it will saturate your spirit because it is of ME, the water I give is pure.

Meet ME at the well, where I will heal your heart and I will heal the wounds , and I will love you, and I will feed you, I will surely give you water that you need. I will give water of Life, of Liberty, of righteousness and of peace. I will give water filled with joy and gladness and water that will cleanse and fill up every empty place.

The water from My well, will wash off the stains of blood from the wounds of the world. My water will fill you with all that cannot come from a man. My water, My word, is true. Meet ME at the well. I will fill you up and overflowing as you have so desired. I will always be here for you, I will never leave you. For I died for you and brought you back Life in abundance. I have this for you NOW. If you have been searching, if you have been wounded, if you have been tired, if you have been weary, if you have been looking, lift up your eyes and look ahead and Meet ME at the Well. Your soul will be refreshed. Come and Drink....Meet ME at the Well. I am One, who will never leave you, I am One who loves you without condition, I am One who will never fail you, I am One who weeps with you and rejoices with you, I am One who remains faithful, I am One who causes you to stand when on your own you would have fallen, I am One who provides, I am One knows where you are all the time, I am One who never loses sight of you, I am One who knows your thoughts and sees your heart, I am One whose arms are always open for you, to comfort you and hold you. I am One who gives you breath and gives you purpose and gives you Life. I am One with you as I am with My Father.

Come and drink, Meet ME at the Well... Take with you My Living water and pour out upon others all that I have given you and will give you that you might all walk as One in Me in Life in Fullness, in Peace, in Gentleness, and in Love.

Seal the Cracks
Jeannette Rodgers

February 26, 2004

Blessings to you in the name of Jesus Christ. Blessings of Strength, Wisdom, Peace and Joy in Him.

I submitted this word back on 9/26/02. The Holy Spirit has brought this word back to my remembrance for the body of Christ. We must rise up as One body and One voice (Ephesians 4:1-6) and know this is all for Him and in Him and about Him. Our Lord, Our King, Our salvation, Our strength is Jesus Christ. We live because He lives in us. We breath because He gives us breath. We are to be One body letting His love and all that He is within us reach out to each other and beyond into the world. I implore you today....to Seal the Cracks in the wall. Let us work together that Jesus Christ would accomplish all things through us here and that we would see realms of Heaven while we are here in the earth.

Yes, the Lord is placing the spirit of Nehemiah into those who have been calling out for unity and restoration of the Body of Christ. A people who are ready to take action and build up, restore, renew and rise up. We are His body. He uses our mouth to proclaim “good news” He uses our hands to do the work of His business and to heal, He uses our legs to move wherever He sees He is needed, He uses our feet to walk in peace and to stand up in strength, He uses our heart to comfort with compassion, He uses our arms to hug the lonely and hold up the weak and hurting, He needs our BODY to be who HE IS through us. Nehemiah wept over the condition of the walls of Jerusalem and took action. Let us come together and be His body. Let us together…

Seal the cracks in the wall !!

September 26, 2002

Today, I humbly come to you my brothers and sisters in Christ.

In the Spirit; the Lord has shown me a great wall that was built to keep the enemy out. The body of Christ, His children were all gathered as one in a tremendous circle. He has shown me that we are suppose to be standing so close together so that nothing (no darkness, no division, no strife etc.) could break through , so that nothing could come in against us, but there were cracks in the wall of this circle. The enemy has been seeping in through those very cracks.

He said, IF My people, who ARE called my name will humble themselves and PRAY...and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways(distractions, idols ,religion, sin, traditions, motives, time constraints, strife, control, jealousy, and.......THEN............I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land. 2 Chronicles 7:14.

Today, I am making a call out to all of us ....We must pray hard!!! We must seal the cracks in NOW!! Please take just One day to fast and pray solely for our leaders. Those who have given their lives for us . Those who the enemy will go after first because they have chosen to lay themselves down for us. Please pray for your pastor, for the preachers and teachers (five-fold ministry) that you so dearly love and draw from all the time that they would be refreshed, revived, healed and strengthened. Pray , Pray , Pray, ...As they have been called and chosen to bring the Life and Love of Jesus Christ to you, they must continue to receive Life and Love and strength through our prayers for them unto God.

In Joel 1:14, It says; DECLARE A HOLY FAST, CALL A SACRED ASSEMBLY. Summon the elders and ALL who live in the land to the house of the Lord your God, and CRY OUT TO THE LORD.....! ! !

Joel 2:21- Be not afraid, O land; be glad and rejoice. Surely the Lord has done great things!!

(He is doing greater now and is about to do even more)

SEAL THE CRACKS IN THE WALL !!!! Praise Him like never before and worship Him before His holy Throne. He is so worthy. We must stand together in Unity in our God to fight. It is time to get mad at the enemy for everything he has taken and everything he trying to do because he knows his time is short and coming to an eternal end. We must fight and cry out to God for He is listening . It is time to take a stand and fight in the name of the Lord. It is time to walk in victory and stop feeling defeated. No more defeat, No more discouragement, no more division.

Seal the Cracks!!

If you have been in the boxing ring with the enemy and its the 11th round and your tired; its time to draw from Jesus and come in with that left hook and knock that devil out. The Champions belt of honor and victory already has your name on it..... We have won !!!! We have Jesus Christ. We have an eternal promise.

We have been given His strength to fight this good fight. We must use our swords and our armour for this battle. It is time to pray like we have never prayed before. It is time to stop looking at all the distractions in this world and at your job, and in your home and look to Jesus. Greater is He that is in me than he that is in the world. If we continue to look at those things the enemy is using to distract us we will lose focus on the Great I AM. That is his job to get our eyes from looking to Our strength. Today we must make a decision to take our eyes and lift them up to Jesus. We must remember to fight in the spirit and not flesh and blood. Lift up your brother and your sister and do not beat them down. Love, Love, Love…then watch God move. Its not about you , its all about Him. We are all on One team.

Know that God has called each one of us old and young . It is high time to awake and cry out to Him with a shout and loud cry and the enemy and his armies will flee in the name of Jesus. Every injustice WILL bow to the name of Jesus Christ

The Praise you have in you is a great weapon.

Pray for your leaders , pray for your elders, pray for the preachers, pray for your wife, pray for your husband, pray for your family, pray for the lost, the hurting. So that their will be no cracks in the wall and circle of Life God has placed around us. Pray. Pray. However you pray, just pray. When you walk into the house of the Lord ...think about simply walking into the room where Jesus is on His throne and imagine there is no one else there but you standing before His throne. When you begin to praise Him for who He is and worship Him in spirit and in truth; you will find Life, and strength and healing like you have never seen before. Walk into His sanctuary with this one thing in your mind, in your heart and in your vision; Jesus Christ. Be a living sanctuary. If we all understand we are coming before His holy throne and we seek His face individually we will see a move of God corporately and a humbling and a unity. There will be an explosive move of the Lord. We must seal the cracks in the wall.

I believe we will see the Glory of God. Bow before Him , Trust Him , Don’t hold back from God...Seek revival within your self and surely there will be a great corporate revival in this land . If we will let Him do it in us ...it will come together. He is saying Now, Now, Now is the appointed time ......COME, COME, COME....NOW IS THE TIME .....SEAL THE CRACKS IN THE WALL.........SEAL THEM WITH PRAYER, SEAL THEM WITH PRAISE, AND SEAL THEM WITH WORSHIP UNTO OUR GOD WHO REIGNS IN BEAUTY, WISDOM, STRENGTH , AND GLORY AND HONOR!!!

Get out your spirit filled caulking guns (prayer, praise, worship, love, peace, wisdom) and begin to seal the cracks so that nothing can come in to divide the body. We are all One in Him. We must fight together.

Mighty is the army of the Lord. Joel 2.

Seal the cracks in relationships, seal the cracks in the church, seal the cracks in your life so that it is just you and Jesus. Glory.

In the power and glory and blood of Jesus Christ ...Amen and Amen...

Living For Him who died for us. One for All and All (The Body) for One

Chain Of Events

Kim Clement

March 11 - Beginning of an unusual chain of events

A few months ago, the Spirit awakened me during the early hours of the morning. I looked at my clock and it read 3:11 AM. I tried to go back to sleep but felt the breath of the Spirit and I realized that it was time to pray. During the next few hours, I prayed, walking the streets of our neighborhood. The Spirit said to me, “Take note of the digits on your clock when you first awakened.” An unfolding of many thoughts came to me after I heard this. I know these thoughts were for the purpose of me entering into a greater level of prayer and intercession. God told me that March 11, 2004 would be the beginning of an unusual chain of events in the Kingdom of God. He spoke about that day being the unveiling of mysteries and revelations that would affect the following areas over a period of time:

- Political events that will bring a period of peace for the USA
- Hidden agendas exposed and a shaking of terrorist activities in a big way
- Unusual access into secular arenas for the purpose of evangelism
- Medical discoveries that will affect the following diseases: Alzheimer’s, Diabetes, Parkinson’s, a lung disease, and a rare bone disease
- Unusual spiritual manifestations in spiritually uninhabited places with mass responses due to media coverage of these events
- Kingdom appearances in church meetings

(Instead of regular revival meetings, churches that are hungry for fresh things from God will "tarry" until these Kingdom manifestations actually take place. To "tarry” means to remain in one place, spiritually and geographically, while doing whatever needs to be done in your daily activities, especially placing a demand on prayer. This will bring about unity so that the people are in “one accord” regarding the vision, and specifically about what to expect. This will demand prophetic revelation from the leaders. God will give insight to His leaders in the church regarding what will unfold in the years to come, aside from the second return of Christ.

Regarding "Kingdom appearances,” I was taken to Matthew 17:2-3. Jesus transfigured before them and they saw Him in an appearance that they had never seen before. I believe that these appearances will carry the church into a period of prophetic revelation which will not only unleash ideas, strategies, and inventions, but an overwhelming outpouring of miracles which will manifest without man's command. When Moses and Elijah appeared with Jesus, you will note that before Peter could invent a portable sanctuary for this eternal exposure, God interrupted with these words, "Hear Him.” In other words, this was the same "beloved son" in a different appearance. Don't fathom it out, contain it, or sanctum it where it is free from intrusion, but rather "hear" and reveal it at a later time. Jesus said, "Tell the vision to no one until the Son of Man is risen from the dead.” I believe that these “Kingdom appearances” will release an array of heavenly visions upon the leaders and at the appropriate time, they will manifest these and impart them upon the people.

- March 11 will begin disclosures in political circles, and the President will have to use a firm hand against internal enemies
- Cain will be exposed

Ministries that attempted to "destroy and kill” their brothers because of jealousy, accusation, and hatred, will be banished for a season until they are humble again. Then they will bring forth an "Enoch" move of the Spirit. These "Cain" type leaders will love their sons in the Kingdom and even build huge works honoring them, leaving them an inheritance for future generations.

Genesis 4:16-17, “Then Cain went out from the presence of the Lord, and dwelt in the land of Nod on the east of Eden. And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch. And Cain built a city, and called the name of the city after the name of his son - ENOCH.”

Even though the "Abels" were destroyed because of these jealous, hateful “Cains” of the church, God will restore and place an even greater anointing upon the newborn generation. This generation will come in the stead of Abel and they will give birth to a spiritual movement, unprecedented, like no other, having no previous example but the Bible. Then men will begin to call on the name of the Lord throughout the earth.

Genesis 4:25-26 “And Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son and named him Seth, for God has appointed another seed for me instead of Abel, whom Cain killed. And as for Seth, to him also a son was born, and he named him Enos. THEN MEN BEGAN TO CALL ON THE NAME OF THE LORD."

Finally, I saw March 11 as the “beginning of the end” of major terrorist leaders and movements. God will bring them out and will display them before the world. Even though there will always be terror, hatred, aversion, and attacks against Christian Nations, there will be a reluctance to use modern methods of attack in such a violent way against this generation of believers and leaders. However, God has a plan to demote them, but that will be revealed later on.

Crossing Over In Storms

Kluane Spake

Storms in life... There seem to be too many -- and so we ask to understand, why are there storms? We know that the Scriptures say, "First the natural and then the spiritual."

The word for WIND is also the word for "Spirit and also breath." "Pneuma" deals with the person and work of Holy Spirit. And sometimes we find out that the Sweet Heavenly Dove has a stormy side – a time of turbulence when things get precarious and our boat rocks.

The Lord sends His word to those who may be hurting right now -- may the vision of God beat in your heart today. You've heard it before but let it become reality at this moment. Surely, you "Can do all things through Christ which strengthens" you (Phil. 4:13).

Looking back over the storms in life, it is clear that OVERCOMING storms provides a concealed history of being dealt with by God – a life that produces the potency of brokenness, the essential reality for readiness, and the demands for realness and authenticity.

"Lightning and hail, snow and clouds, stormy winds that do HIS bidding" (Ps. 148:8 NIV).

STORMS IN LIFE:

Going under with storms, circumstances, and accidents.
Jonah got caught in a boat in a storm. He was OUT of the will of God.
Paul was caught in a boat in a storm. He was IN the will of God.
Jesus slept in the boat in a storm. He IS the will of God.

* Jonah overcame the storm.
* Paul endured storm and used it.
* Jesus taught us to take dominion over storm.

We don't need to worry about the storm – we need to worry about which boat we are in!

When Paul was shipwreck, what did he do? He said, "So take courage! For I believe God! It will be just as he said!" (Acts 27:25 TLB). Hey, Paul looked around the boat and tossed the excess junk overboard.

OUR STORM:

Numerous times, we stood on the shore and commanded the fierce storms to turn away. But, one day, the Lord clearly said to us that this next storm would not turn away. And a super-storm came into our midst. It was named "Typhoon Holiness." So convincing was the Word, that many of our congregation bought generators, expecting a super-typhoon in the natural – and as it came we began to understand what this spiritual typhoon would mean.

This was a wind of personal purification. There would be no way to escape, because it blew into every hidden place -- even into our attics fixed with dust and into our hidden boxes of rummage and clandestine secrets. Many died in the merciless gale – never to be seen again. Only the survivors knew how to brace themselves -- standing with outstretched arms and facing straight into the blasting winds. The storm requires a death to all that we are. That leads us to the other side, where we deal with those things that keep us from being all that we can be and to finally know God. This process takes awhile.

We presumed to understand the fierceness of this purging, but the intensity surprised us as we barely hung on to the anchor of hope. The wind of the Holy Spirit relentlessly blew at our own imagined desire to be significant. The gale howled loudly for repentance. Our human plans crashed against the coral, as the lessons of humility were written into our hearts. By letting that storm cleanse every area, we rediscovered the calm pools of sanctification and transformation that prepared for the future encounter.

With our windblown hair all matted in disarray, we clutched onto the second part of the promise with great gratitude. The back part of the storm would be the blast of God's presence -- of love, glory, and power – filling our lives with His Shekinah glory. This very gale enables the purified believer to surf the very crest of what the Lord guarantees for this hour.

Those that will trust the blowing of the Spirit during a storm will successfully cross us over into the destination.

The Bible tells about a lot of different storms: The Lord has His way in the whirlwind (Nah. 1:3), Elijah went into heaven in a whirlwind (2 Kings 2:11), God spoke to Job in a whirlwind (Job 38:1). Are you listening? Peace centers within the storm where God dwells. God lives in storms. If the cyclone of life intensifies, we must go deeper into the tranquil center of Him.

Ezekiel describes the appearance and the likeness of the Glory of the Lord (1:28). He speaks of wind, clouds, and fire. Prophets compared the day of the Lord to a storm. Meteorologists refer to the center of the storm as the "eye." Jesus told us to be single-eyed, "If the eye is clear, the whole body will be full of light" (Matt. 6:22-23). No matter what turbulence surrounds them, vanguard believers race to the center, where all roads converge and focus. Without focus everything blurs and we lose direction. When we become single-eyed, we move into clarity.

Get into the center of the storm, to the place of calm. Find that REST. THE ONLY PLACE OF REST IS IN THE EYE OF THE STORM.

Ezekiel depicts a whirlwind (Ruwach the Spirit) where the wheel within the wheel enfolds inwardly into itself, while moving forward. This represents the cooperative church moving together as one (Ezekiel 1:12). This living creature (the church), "… went straight forward; they went wherever the spirit wanted to go, and they did not turn when they went." Each part joined as one and moved straight forward. The word Straight (#2266 Strongs) comes from the root word "to cross over" which can also be rendered "crossing with straight and unchanging purpose." Reading further, indescribable storm-like creature wondrously shimmers as amber electrons flash-forth in greatest splendor.

Psalms 29:3 says that in stormy conditions, God's voice thunders over turbulent water, shaking the wilderness, and causing the deer to give birth (vs.6-9). His voice commissions you to give birth to the Word, and in response your heart leaps in expectation.

Along the way, there's always another storm to cross over with unchanging purpose. But, we ride in His boat -- the vehicle of form provided for our safety. Remember too, that all the disciples climbed into that one boat together. Peter didn't have his little boat, and John another. We cross over in a corporate boat, and in the process, our individual agendas meld into one. He leads us upon His holy waters -- from where we are to where He wants us to go; from the known to the wonderfully unfamiliar places of the unknown.

Like the exhausted followers upon that stormy lake, we wearied of contending with the dark waves of adversity. The One Who calms every storm teaches us to persevere. The waves may be over our head, but as with the ebb and flow of good times and bad, storms eventually end. Wind and waves can't move us from our course. Through it all, His authority perfects itself as we yield to His dealings.

Keep in mind, the worst storms always come just before the biggest opposition. There's always something bigger waiting on the other side. Even the disciples were ill prepared for what they found in the morning light. The exhausted travelers were finally able to SEE – and it was a steep cliff. "Uck!" you can almost hear their complaints, "well, it's too high, too cold, too far…" oh it sounds so familiar. What's that? You're getting the picture? It's not tranquil over here either.

Yes, the Gadarene waits -- the worst growler-packing, demonically depressed person that had ever been described. The whole city feared this lunatic with a legion of demons. Suddenly, that violent storm brought Jesus to intersect and heal that hopelessly insane man.

And more difficult still, the once terrified townspeople furiously demanded that Jesus leave town. It didn't make any sense, but they didn't like the results. Why? This region raised pigs. Their livelihood just ran over the cliff! The destruction of their whole economic base caused them to forget the miracle -- this was serious. The result of that great miracle was that once again, the disciples were hated -- and we should expect the same dislike. God's game plan often opposes what others want. Are you ready to withstand storms of ostracism and rejection, especially from other Christians? Are you willing to be of no reputation?

But the final realization is the real shocker. I'm the disciple in the boat AND I'm the Gadarene. The hopeless Gadarene, the chained person living in the tomb… is me! Storms bring me to an encounter with dying things that need to change in me. Somehow, I thought I was okay – but the habits of the spirit of death lingered, causing me to want to keep on dying. Inside that mausoleum, long held and mistaken philosophies silently breathe as nearby worms and spiders creep around my face. Within my un-dealt with carnal soul clings the spirit of death, crawling with legions of fear that entrap me in webs. The ghosts of religious ideas and long held superstitions hauntingly hold me transfixed.

But suddenly, He journeys with me through the storm and out from that isolated cemetery to a place of greater self-discovery. How did He know how much I needed that Him to bring me though that storm? He brought me here to set me free from old mentalities. I'm not dead anymore. He rolled away my tomb stone of ineffectiveness! I knew about the resurrection but was not fully living IN IT. The storm brings me to the Third day -- a place of LIFE.

The typhoon called "Holiness" completes its work. And I, stepping into the brightest daylight, watch as the veils of blindness drop from my eyelids, like the weighty cob-webs once strewn in the musty corners of my shrine – they detach and fall forever. Understanding of the finished work pulses a new strong cadence, and I can hear the bride now sing, "Winter is past and gone…" Extending His hand, the Lord says, "Come away with me into the dawn of the NEW DAY."

The reasons are clear now; He caused me to go through the storms in order to fully deliver me from the narrow minded crypt of my own making. I walk out to find that the road winds up from here among the hills to that great city. Without regret, I leave the known script of yesterday and advance into the vibrant yellow-green day. Life explodes with fulfillment, moving full-tilt into divine destiny.

THE "BOAT" IS OUR VISIBLE MEANS OF SUPPORT:
The boat is the vehicle of transition
My boat may be rocked, but it is His bedchamber.

The CHURCH IS THE INSTRUMENT (vehicle) OF THE MOVEMENT OF God.
We need to hang onto it, because it will take us to shore.
Though it has broken apart (and will continue to break), we can only get to shore on the pieces.
We need those pieces of the ship (the old church system) to build a FIRE.
The fire reveals the viper.
We shake the viper off the hand (5-fold).

JESUS SLEEPS UNTIL OUR BOAT ROCKS ENOUGH TO MOVE US:
Our boat rocks in contrary winds allowing our words to betray our heart.
Why are we more concerned about self preservation that command of God?
God's power is released as we die to our paralyzing preoccupation with SELF
We only want the shore of comfort.

RESURRECTION is asleep in our ship, waiting for us to know the security of being IN HIM.
RESURRECTION POWER comes to bring ORDER TO CHAOS when we get to the OTHER SIDE.

"GADARENE" MEANS "THE REWARD IS AT THE END:"

We must soon face the legion of torments that have NOT been dealt with in us. That happens when we survive the storm and get to the other side.

God moves at DUSK:
When we can't see, God asks us to move to a new place.
God's day begins at night.
We die to the dependency for natural light.
We learn to not move by the light of outer court.
We go by the light of the lamb in the most holy place.

STORMS LIE BETWEEN US AND OUR DESTINATION.

GOD LIVES IN THE STORM – AND HE RULES THERE:

"The LORD hath HIS WAY IN THE WHIRLWIND AND IN THE STORM, and the clouds are the dust of his feet "(Nah. 1:3).

"They see the works of the LORD, and His wonders in the deep" (Ps. 107:24 NKJ).

"For HE COMMANDS and raises the stormy wind, which lifts up the waves of the sea" (Ps. 107:25 NKJ).

"Our God shall come, and shall not keep silent; a fire shall devour before Him, and it shall be very TEMPESTUOUS ALL AROUND HIM" (Ps. 50:3 NKJ).

"He COMES WITH THE NOISE OF THUNDER, surrounded by devastating fire; A GREAT STORM RAGES AROUND HIM" (Ps. 50:3 TLB).

"He mounted the cherubim and flew; he soared on the wings of the wind" (Ps. 18:10 NIV).

GOD IS CLOTHED IN GARMENT OF STORMS -- "He made darkness his covering, his canopy around him-- the dark rain clouds of the sky." HE LIVES IN THE STORM. "Out of the brightness of his presence clouds advanced, with hailstones and bolts of lightning… He shot his arrows and scattered, great bolts of lightning and routed them" (Ps. 18, 11-12, 14 NIV).

Exodus 9:23 Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven: and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground; and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt (Ex. 9:23 KJV).

"Is it not wheat harvest today? I will call unto the LORD, and he shall send thunder and rain; THAT YOU MAY PERCEIVE AND SEE THAT YOUR WICKEDNESS IS GREAT(1 Sam. 12:17 KJV).

"The LORD thundered from heaven; the voice of the Most High resounded" (Ps. 18:13 NIV).

UNEXPECTED INCIDENTS:

Mark 6:48 "And he saw them TOILING in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them. (KJV) Toiling = torture or torment of their own human effort --enslaved in galleys of the sweat of Adam.

The disciples saw Jesus walk on water– but they could only SEE (with their natural brain) limitedly. "It's a ghost," they cried out in fear" (Matt. 14:23-33 NIV). Even though they had traveled with Jesus for quite awhile now, they still didn't recognize Him. In fact, they literally screamed out in fear RIGHT IN HIS FACE. Many of us are like them. Whenever the wind comes, we make rash judgments and form opinions that are incorrect.

Peter asked to come out and he actually walked on the water – that is until HE SAW THE WIND. Then Peter began to sink. Jesus said told Peter, "You of little faith." Seeing the wind was doubt.

WE'RE CALLED TO A LIFE OF CONFLICT – we will have to overcome many STORMY TIMES when EUROCLYDON EAST WIND DASH OVER our lives. ARE WE READY?

THE WORLD HATED JESUS.
Jesus was REJECTED – yet WE WANT RESPECT.
He was RADICAL – and yet WE WANT to be REASONABLE.
He didn't care about the PRAISE OF MAN – yet WE THRIVE ON IT.

John the Baptist was beheaded. Why? What if HEROD were your king? Would you change or adjust your message for him? Just to accommodate his lifestyle and adulterous marriage? Just because it was culturally acceptable at the time?

Stephen was stoned (Acts 7:54-59). His dying prayer is what touched the heart of the Christian killer named Saul. Later Paul was PERSECUTED. Both of them PREACHED A CONFRONTATIONAL GOSPEL. OPPOSITION AROSE. THREATS. They SEALED their convictions with death. They were killed because they opposed the storm of others and stood for what was right.

God knows the why of storms, especially when we don't. A NEW POWER IS IN OPERATION. THE SPIRIT OF LIFE IN CHRIST. A strong wind magnificently clears the air and frees us from a fated lifetime of brutal tyranny at the hands of sin and death.

"The wind blows where it wishes, you hear the sound, but can not tell where it comes from or where it goes– so is everyone who is born of the Spirit" (Jn. 3:8).

REST:
"Then they are glad because they are quiet (at rest); so He guides them to their desired haven" (Ps. 107:30 NKJ)

"But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt" (Is. 57:20 KJV).

We cannot run without a message. Our message is that God is there in every storm and we can rest in them all. "He calms the storm, so that its waves are still" (Ps. 107:29 NKJ).

Come hell or high water we must hold onto faith & conscience. Jesus promised, "Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you" (Heb. 13:5 NIV).

"Timothy, my son, I give you this instruction in keeping with the prophecies once made about you, so that by following them you may fight the good fight, holding on to faith and a good conscience. Some have rejected these and so have SHIPWRECKED THEIR FAITH. (1 Tim 1:18-19NIV).

HOPE IS THE ANCHOR:

"We have this hope as an ANCHOR for the SOUL, firm and secure. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain, where Jesus, who went before us, has entered on our behalf." (Heb. 6:19-20 NIV).

Be of good cheer, you will have tribulation

"For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast unto the end" (Heb. 3:13:14).

Peace reigns as king when you find REST in the CENTER of the storm.

Speak to your heart, "Peace be still."

God knows what to do.
He knows where you are.
He is right beside you and will take you THROUGH this next storm too.

Celebration Of Jesus

James Moore

Dream Of The Celebration Of Jesus

Both of these dreams happened on the same night, one right after the other. It is my belief that they represent the increase of both darkness and light to be released on the earth.

The first dream:

A few of us were traveling towards the Southern part of the State of Oregon. We stopped at a rest stop park through which a river flowed. We stopped and got out of the car, and the sky had become very dark, cloudy and foreboding. The river that ran through the park and it was in severe flood stage, and the rapids were violent. The brown floodwater had overflowed into the parking area and some of the surrounding grassy areas were immersed as well. We felt a sense of danger and hurried along. We heard a noise and turned around just in time to see a huge wave coming down the river towards us. We turned to escape but were almost immediately hit in the back by the rolling wave. I looked and saw a small tree in front of me and thought if I could grab a hold of it I could hold on and not be swept away. I was just able to grab the very end of a branch and hold on.

The second dream:

I found myself in a white building that resembled a home. However, the living room area was oblong shaped and as large as a vast auditorium.

There was on the wall of this auditorium, what looked like a large plasma screen upon which Christian music videos, worship music, and scenes about the life of Jesus were playing. Everyone in the auditorium was rejoicing with singing and dancing. It could only be described as a massive celebration of the person and life of Jesus. There were many Christians present worshiping the Lord, but there were also a number of people from many other religions celebrating as well. At first that seemed a little odd to me, but the unmistakable presence of the Lord Jesus was there and it was wonderful!

Then I looked up at the screen and saw what appeared to be four orthodox Jews. They were dressed in black with flat round hats and curly sideburns and they were rocking back and forth as they worshiped and prayed. I knew they were present with us in the room and so I turned around and saw them standing far in the back.

Just then the music on the screen took on a Hebrew flavor to it and the song was about the Messiah. This change of music really excited the four Jewish worshipers and they started to sing and to dance. As they did I found myself kneeling in the center of the room just below the screen and one of them came and began to dance in a circle around me. My heart became so moved with compassion and love for these people, that I began to weep for them almost uncontrollably. As I did, I awoke and found that I had been actually crying.

The interpretation:

Without being too complicated, I believe the two dreams indicate two harvests that are coming upon the earth. As the end of the age approaches, the harvest of all that has been sowed through the ages will come to fruition. The first dream is the increase of darkness that will continue along side of the approaching light. It can be sudden, powerful and destructive. "When the enemy shall come in like a flood." Isaiah 59:19.

These two harvests are illustrated in Isaiah 60:2,

For behold, darkness shall cover the earth and gross darkness the people:

This will be a time of great difficulty, but the grace of God will be by far greater than any difficulties that will arise. The tree is the cross, which as long as we hold on to, we will be safe and the darkness cannot overpower us. The second harvest is witnessed to in the second half of this verse:

But the Lord shall arise upon thee, and His glory shall be seen upon thee.

In the second dream, The house was the household of God. The diversity of people is testimony to God's grace reaching to all kinds of people, and even through strongholds of religion, to touch hearts with the beauty of the life of Jesus. The power of the sacrifice of the cross will ultimately prevail over humanity. The testimony of Jesus' love through His suffering will eventually overcome all obstacles. This was a celebration of Jesus but this does not mean that everyone there was saved. It was however an indication of a sudden shift in the perspective of many concerning the Lord. A breaking down of some ancient walls of deception brought on partly by injustices done in the name of the Lord.

This includes especially the Jewish race. There is a celebration coming! There will be pockets of fierce opposition, but there will also be a great change of heart and attitude among the Jewish nation concerning the person of Jesus. This is a precursor to the ultimate embracing of Jesus as the Messiah of Israel. God is about to awaken the deep burden of the Lord for the people of Israel in the hearts of the church. This is not going to be a temporary, emotional thing, but an ongoing and increasing level of true godly love. When this true love from the bride for Israel happens, then God will make of the ".twain, one new man, so making peace." Ephesians 2:15.

I cannot help thinking of the screen on the wall and the upcoming film, " The Passion of the Christ". I am not sure that the one represents the other, however, I do believe that this movie can be a catalyst, a match, for what is on the horizon. Whatever the case, a sudden radical shift is coming and it will be increasingly important to be connected to the heart of God for the Nation of Israel.

God spoke to me recently about the person of Boaz. Boaz is a type of Christ as the kinsman redeemer. He is also a picture of The Lord of the Harvest. His name has no meaning that you can look up in the Hebrew dictionary. That is because the Lord allowed Him to establish by his life and character, the definition of his own name. The promises of the church are interwoven together with the promises of Israel. Where we are going, we are going together.

Colorful Letters

Mary Clark

In a vision, I saw the word “yesterday” typed on a computer screen in very bright and colorful, striped letters. The word was misspelled, but I knew that it was supposed to be the word “yesterday.” Why did You show this to me, Lord?

I want My beloved to see something clearly. I want you to know that the work that I do is ongoing. I want you to know that I have not halted in any of My plans for you. Everything is going along according to My schedule. Rejoice in this amazing fact – the fact that the living God never skips a beat in His preparation for tomorrow.

Now many of My children are still looking at yesterday with a longing. They are still glancing over their shoulders, looking at the works that I performed yesterday. Those were lovely works. Yes, indeed they were, beloved, but I want you looking to Me to complete a work in you – a glorious new work. I want you to know that a bright and colorful future lies ahead of you. So focus on Me, beloved, looking to My forthcoming plans with much anticipation.

I am calling you into a new avenue of faith in Me, beloved. It is not a dismal place. It is a place ALIVE with activity. It is a delightful place to be. So stop looking behind you. Stop lamenting the day that was, and focus on your future in Me.

Let Me say this, dear child: The things of the past do not hold a candle to what I am about to bring forth – not a candle! So rejoice, beloved, in what I am about to do. Come to Me, rejoicing with a thankful heart, and know that yesterday was nice. Yes. It was bright and colorful, but tomorrow – oh, tomorrow – gleams brightly with a promise of the age, and that promise is a certain fulfillment for which your heart has longed – a certain fulfillment that will cause you to gaze into My eyes with a light of wonder surrounding your being. That is My plan for you, beloved. That is My plan for your tomorrows. Focus on what is to come, knowing that all will come by My hand as My beloved rests in My arms of love, focusing on Me, and looking to that place in My heart for which your heart yearns as your final destination. That is My advice to you this night. Take it to heart, dear child. Take it to heart!!!

The Cap is Coming Off!

Mary Clark

The cap is about to come OFF, beloved, children, and when this occurs you will know something without a doubt: Your God has taken the cap off to reveal some mighty happenings. In seasons past, you have seen a trickle here, and a trickle there, of My mighty work in your midst. You hear this, and you read this, and you see a little. Right? Well, that is all about to stop, because you are about to see firsthand the mighty hand of your God in your midst like NEVER before.

Get ready. I am about to take the cap off, and pour forth a mighty torrent of wonder into your midst, and know, dear child of the living God, that it is ALL coming forth to My delight – to My sheer delight!!!

Commissioned To Go Forth

Sandy Warner

Feb 4, 2004

Caught in an ocean of hopelessness, your faith has become wobbly with each wave. I have heard the desperation in your heart's cry, dear one! Face the shore line and paddle. I AM working with you to deliver your soul from this engulfment. I have strung a curtain behind you. It is like a crash guard. When the enemy sends reinforced lines of demonic despair, they will crash against this curtain and it shall break the impact of this force. As the waves crash against the curtain, you may feel the pressure against your back, but know that you are covered as you make your way towards shore. Put your back to the waves of wavering and move forward towards firm ground.

A great effectual door has been opened to you this day. Do you have the courage to walk through and be My witness? I have called you to send My Word. I have anointed your lips to communicate. You shall teach and point the way to relationship with Me. Share the ways I have touched your life and I will breathe My creative wind upon all you say. My Spirit shall flow powerfully and you will be blessed coming in and blessed going out.

The beautiful garden of your life is springing forth. Are you willing to share its sweet essence? Be My salt and light and I shall teach you what you shall say.

"So the LORD said to him, "Who has made man's mouth? Or who makes the mute, the deaf, the seeing, or the blind? Have not I, the LORD? Now therefore, go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what you shall say." (Exodus 4:11-12 NKJV)

Tag Team

Sandy Warner

Feb 6, 2004
I opened the door of revelation for one split instant. What you saw will never be removed from you. Revelation is like that, once My truth is revealed, it can not be denied. So, dearest, you may try to retreat back into your mountain cave, but I say, "Be thou removed." You have safe passage to be My clarion whistle.

I have set you aside to be on a tag team to minister and flow in My Spirit. You shall receive great joy as I unfold these things and enjoy sweet fellowship. Your milk is sweet, your walls are mature and ready. Continue to say no to the world. Yes it will be a balancing act in many applications. I will go with you and train you with joy.

"One day as these men were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Dedicate Barnabas and Saul for the special work I have for them." So after more fasting and prayer, the men laid their hands on them and sent them on their way." (Acts 13:2,3 NLT)

Faithful Cooks

Sandy Warner

Feb 2, 2004
All those cooks in the back room. Something smells good! I see you faithfully gathering what I send. I see your hot foreheads as you bend over the hot stoves compiling and stirring different dishes while carefully watching the food incubating in the ovens. I see you groaning as you lift the pots heavy and swollen. Week after week you produce with perfection. Week after week you package delicious food, which paves the way by strengthening others. Thank you faithful cooks! As you have abided in Me and I in you, we have fed many in nations, one mouthful at a time.

"And I will give you shepherds according to My heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding." (Jeremiah 3:15 NKJV)

Growing Antennas And Wings
Sandy Warner

Feb 3, 2004
Inside its cocoon, the caterpillar (transforming into a Monarch butterfly) has been separated away from sight and quietly changing. It is now growing antennas and wings.

GRANDMA ANNA RHEMA
HEARD: Butterflies. This place for change. Going to sprout antennas and fly. It's a lovely place. A place of whirring of wings.

DREAM: I appeared to be a leader or instructor to a group of people. I was instructing them on how we are to turn into butterflies.

"First", I said, "You grow antennas out of your forehead, like this!" Antennas immediately grew long and tall out of my forehead. (It was as though I was somewhere outside my body looking at the antennas.)

"Then you fly!" I flew around - fluttering, swooping, and soaring.

SANDY PARABLE: Tonight we took my Sonshine and his friends cosmic bowling. It was dark inside with neon and strobe lights, plus loud disco music. I immediately found my ear plugs and stuck them in. All the kids thought that was very funny. I caught some of them staring at my ears then looking away when I caught them staring. I finally discovered the ear plugs were brilliant fluorescent orange under the black lights. I thought the parable very funny, that my ears were glowing in the dark. It also reminded me of the children’s song, "Glow little glow worm, glimmer, glimmer. Shine little glow worm, shimmer, shimmer." We are growing ears (antennas) to hear the Lord and those ears will glow in the midst of a dark world.

GRANDMA ANNA RHEMA
HEARD: That's what's called double portion ears. Lots of rain coming. A wet summer. I've a song in My heart today. Double portion ears are here to stay. Double portion ears aren't going away. Hooray!

SANDY RHEMA
VISION: I saw a pair of hands come up and cup underneath a pair of ears. Then I saw an amphitheater that was built for surround sound.

CONCLUSION

{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER SURROUNDED BY MY VOICE
Wrapped tightly inside the blanket of your cocoon, you may not be able to see a thing. But listen, for I AM speaking to you every day, in every way. I AM teaching you the many ways to hear My voice. Through this process, you are sprouting spiritual ears to hear. Your wings of faith will not develop until you hear My voice. One step at a time as you hear My Words, it not only grows your ears to hear Me, but also boosts your faith.

I AM bringing a double portion of hearing ears to My people, along with the rain of My Spirit. They will so love My voice and be tuned to its vibration, that their very beings will resonate with My Words, just like being in an amphitheater with surround sound. These ears will be rare treasures in the midst of a dark world. I will use them as brilliant beacons in strange places.

Mark 4:23-25 NKJ
If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear." Then He said to them, "Take heed what you hear. With the same measure you use, it will be measured to you; and to you who hear, more will be given. For whoever has, to him more will be given; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him."

Increasingly Transparent
Sandy Warner

Feb 5, 2004
Towards the end of the metamorphous of the caterpillar into a butterfly, its hiding place (the pupa or cocoon) changes and resembles a waxy, jade vase. This shell of a womb has become increasingly transparent. The caterpillar completes the miraculous transformation into a beautiful adult butterfly and is finally prepared for life outside the darkened tomb.

SANDY RHEMA
HEARD: Transparent. Witness. Stand. Transparent, a generation. Do you know what transparency means? Nothing to hide. Pure. Clear. Protected. Transparent.

PARABLE: As I was reading the following scripture it was quickened to me as a parable of being transparent and vulnerable with nothing to hide while being a witness to what the Lord has said.

Ex 34:31-35 NLT
But Moses called to them and asked Aaron and the community leaders to come over and talk with him. Then all the people came, and Moses gave them the instructions the LORD had given him on Mount Sinai. When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil over his face. But whenever he went into the Tent of Meeting to speak with the LORD, he removed the veil until he came out again. Then he would give the people whatever instructions the LORD had given him, and the people would see his face aglow. Afterward he would put the veil on again until he returned to speak with the LORD.

QUICKENED QUOTES FROM THE FINAL QUEST
By Rick Joyner
http://www.morningstarministries.org/

"…He already knew all that there was to know about me. It was all for my sake… to bring me out of hiding… to bring me out of the darkness and into the light."

"…His judgments set me free. Opening ourselves to God and to each other, becoming genuinely transparent. As we behold the glory of the Lord with an unveiled face then we are changed into His image. The veils are caused by our hiding."

"…Walking in the light is being true and it is being free from the compulsion to hide."

SANDY RHEMA
HEARD: Publish privacy. You can edit what you want. Transparent. As you wish. I am blessed. I love you. It's not about what you do, but about who you are. In Me.

VISION: I saw the flash of an angel's light. HEARD: Establish you. Angel. Hug. Genuine effort to come out of hiding. My beloved, thank you. That's My girl. I love her. Mine for all eternity.

CONCLUSION

{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER COMING OUT OF HIDING
Thank you, dear one, for giving so graciously to others what I give to you. You share your testimony, your relationship with Me, and your life in a transparent manner due to the nature of My calling upon your life and I would have you no other way than to be genuine and real. I know this has cost you your privacy and I want to reassure you.

I have made you My transparent vessel, so that My children will see the beauty of genuine realness. I have made you bold, able to publish your life, and come out of hiding so that others may see your worship of Me and be set free to be transparent themselves. The beauty of your transparency goes deeper than the mind, straight into the heart. Thank you, dear one, it is true worship as you lay yourself bare, without shame, before My Presence. Always remember, that you are at complete liberty to share or withhold anything you choose. To share out of your private life is a sacrifice and I receive it as a sweet smelling savor.

"For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." (Heb 4:12-13 KJV)

Come Out My Mourning Prophet
Sandy Warner

Nov 19, 2004
My dear Friend, the one who weeps and mourns over the condition of My people! Thank you so very much for sacrificing and sharing My burdens all these years. I know you have suffered so much at the hands of men and the enemy, and yet you have carried My heart so faithfully. I AM bringing you the glory of My Presence, like a brilliant rope to pull you up and out of your circumstances. Look up, for there is light at the end of your tunnel. Even now I AM standing over the pits of past despair and calling your name. I am encircling you with My glory to draw you up. Now set your heart upon Me and My joy over you. Your time of favor and great joy is coming. All your mourning shall be turned to joy as you witness the answers to years of prayers and heart felt cries.

"Then they drew Jeremiah up by the ropes and pulled him out of the cistern. And Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard." (Jeremiah 38:13 NRS)

"You have turned my mourning into dancing; you have taken off my sackcloth and clothed me with joy," (Psalm 30:11 NRS)

Hunting For Bitter Roots
Sandy Warner

Nov 16, 2004
There is coming a season when I will be searching and drawing old wounds to the surface to be washed and cleansed. These are places that have been so deeply buried that the awareness of such has grown numb through layers of doubt and isolation.

Among the deepest of wounds are bitter roots that I must excise with intricate surgery. With branches and fibers, these roots embedded their way into hearts, as lives have continued on, struggling through time to make a way past the pain they once knew. How I long to warm and embrace these hearts! How I long to hold these cold, isolated and numbed ones as they trudge through their days of existence, not knowing My abundance and not knowing how to find it. I see and know their pain, even when they can no longer feel it.

It is time to begin the process of excising out the bitter roots of My loved ones. These must be purged up and out, lest the festering infections from such pour out to others when My anointing causes them to erupt from their shells. When you find yourself repeating a very similar pattern from an old past wound, partner with Me and yield every bit of the experience to Me as you walk through it this time. I will reveal to you how to overcome this and triumph over your past. I will keep you from falling, dear ones, merely trust Me to restore your life to wholeness.

Heb 12:14-16 NKJV

Pursue peace with all people, and holiness, without which no one will see the Lord: looking carefully lest anyone fall short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up cause trouble, and by this many become defiled.

The Pain Of Silence
Sandy Warner

Nov 15, 2004
POEM: OVERCOMING THE PAIN OF SILENCE

As I collect my focus to You this day, my heart finds its peace away from the fray. I have learned a lesson I will never forget, that fellowship tasted, is joy deeply met.

How deep Your pain is when we come and go, in and out of Your life, as our ebbs do flow. How can You live with touch and go - except that Your grip is much deeper than we know? So hold on tight as I wince and wane. Keep me from running as I face the flame. Turn my pain into passion and light my way, as I yield to You and to what You say.

Let love remain firm and in its place, as communion without Words deepens before Your face. In times of silence, in times of despair, help me always to know You are there. Reaching beyond the distant miles, bowels of intercession bridge me for awhile. Carry me through this, Lord I pray. Open the windows of heaven to us this day. Let the silence be broken, as we receive Your token. That we can hear, as You draw near.

Abba, thank You.

Ps 28:1-2 NKJV
To You I will cry, O LORD my Rock: Do not be silent to me, lest, if You are silent to me, I become like those who go down to the pit. Hear the voice of my supplications when I cry to You.

To Sow The Wounds
Sandy Warner

Nov 21, 2004

Come Holy Spirit, be my Guide. Come quickly and be by my side. I let it all go, I wash it all out. I pray for Your help, during the fall out. It's not my will, but Yours be done. As I yearn and I groan that we would be one. Oh Holy God, have Your own way. Take this matter and do what You say. Please yearn and groan that the pain would just leave. I pray for refreshing, I pray for reprieve. Help me My God as I suffer in silence. Destroy the wicked plan, destroy his violence. My joy is withering, my heart is sad. Touch me with Your Presence that I might be glad.

What is my agreement with the plan of Your heart? Let me make sure that I get the right start. Self denial, it's the way of the cross. To leave it all there, to leave it as loss. What really matters is that You multiply Your Word. As I look at the circumstances and say this is absurd. Lord help me recover and restore me to whole. Put back the pieces and heal my soul.

My beloved is transparent, modeled so pure and right. Even your mistakes are holy in My sight. For you have trusted My Word in your life. Oh how you touch Me, My precious, My yearning wife! Hold not back the washing of your soul. Release it all to Me and let Me make you whole. I mend fences and repair broken arms. I heal wounds from damage and from harm. I come quickly to hold you and keep you by My side. I give you My Word, that we may abide. It's OK My love, to cry as you need. Sometimes tears are healthy as I plant them as seed. Watered in the grounds of death, fertile is your soil. Let the striving and the flesh be gone, as you release all your toil.

So come My wife, My heavenly bride, take it all in stride. Let the pain and the shame be gone this day, as the forces do collide. It's up into new heights, new places in Me. As your rewards do come, your benefits to see. Wings all around, do marvel at your faith. To know so much and see so little, to believe what you say. The angels are watching and waiting in earnest. As you come out of the fire, that burning furnace.

I am there with you, I've never left your side. I took the beating and the stripping, I bore the enemy's lies. I bore your pain, I bore your sorrow. That your joy would return, for all your tomorrows. Hell has had her day of fury. There shall be no more defeat, no more worry. I shall take you away from this court case. And give you your visions, and give you your place. You were faithful to Me as I spoke My Word. You've yielded it all up and let Me be Lord. Let's fly away for a much better day. To go to your reward, to go to your pay.

Gal 6:7-10 NKJV
Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap.8 For he who sows to his flesh will of the flesh reap corruption, but he who sows to the Spirit will of the Spirit reap everlasting life.9 And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart.10 Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all, especially to those who are of the household of faith.

Communion

Sandy Warner

Jul 16, 2004
My love, how I long for our fellowship and communion! I await our quiet times when all else is set aside. For now it must be at night time for that is your training to hear My voice. I live within you and also along side of you. As you toss and turn from one side to the other of your bed, I am there on either side! Smile dear one, I love to bring you good cheer and speak My Words to comfort and strength into your being. There is coming a day fast approaching where you will be at such rest in Me that you will be able to hear My still small voice even during the busiest of days. All shall grow out of our intimate times of communion.

John 16:7-15 NKJ "Nevertheless I tell you the truth. It is to your advantage that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but if I depart, I will send Him to you. And when He has come, He will convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: of sin, because they do not believe in Me; of righteousness, because I go to My Father and you see Me no more; of judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged. I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come. He will glorify Me, for He will take of what is Mine and declare it to you. All things that the Father has are Mine. Therefore I said that He will take of Mine and declare it to you.

Crossing Over

Sandy Warner

Jul 14, 2004
The demonic floods have risen in the lives of My people. These have broken through boundaries like a swelling river of mud. Some of My people have fled the demonic raging, some have become engulfed and carried away, and some have stood and taken the brunt of the onslaught. It is enough says the Lord.

Even now, I AM calling the remaining priests to take their rightful intercessory place for the safety of their loved ones and STAND. I AM not calling you to aggression, I AM calling you to stand and believe. In unity, you shall stand in faith against these floods and see My mighty blast of wind blow back these demonic floods.

In one massive unit across the great divide, I will bring My people safely to the other side. As My people walk through this great Jordan porthole of time, I will reveal to them their heritage which has been covered by the floods. This inheritance has not been fully known since the day of Adam.

So do not grow faint in your journeys, dear ones. I have promised you new beginnings. I will renew your hope and your calling. I will open your eyes to witness your God of miracles Who will roll back the floods on your behalf. Yield all to Me and I will bring you safely across to the other side.

Josh 3:14-16 NKJV

So it was, when the people set out from their camp to cross over the Jordan, with the priests bearing the ark of the covenant before the people, and as those who bore the ark came to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests who bore the ark dipped in the edge of the water (for the Jordan overflows all its banks during the whole time of harvest), that the waters which came down from upstream stood still, and rose in a heap very far away at Adam…

Enter Into Our Joy
Sandy Warner

Jul 19, 2004
Precious one, how often you have needlessly opened the door to persecution because of your disobedience to My voice. As you learn to close the door to ways and comforts of the world, you also close the door to the demonic world. I know this hurts for you to learn this through experience, but you would not heed the voice of the prophetic warnings about the eye and ear gates into the demonic world. I needed to convince you - and you do know My love, that I always win.

And now as you are learning to obey Me through asking yourself, "What would Jesus do?" you are learning to make healthy and holy choices and follow My voice into a holy walk. My door of glory opens for you to enjoy My manifest Presence and you shall be surrounded day and night in this union of our glorious abode. How I long to reveal Myself to you and how I long for our fellowship! Come dear one and enter the joy of Your Lord.

Ps 16:11 NLT
You will show me the way of life, granting me the joy of your presence and the pleasures of living with you forever.

Prophetic Door Opened To The White House
Sandy Warner

Jul 12, 2004
I have opened a prophetic door to the White House. Even as David played the harp strings for his king in the days of old, so I will play the hearts of the prophetic like an old violin, never outdated, but growing more beautiful in time.

The prognosticators have plundered this door and had their say. I AM moving the voice of My prophets into that door. I AM requiring two criteria from the prophetic voice for them to have a continuing access through this door. As long as you are looking upon the Lord of Hosts, the ear of the President will stand before you. As long as the message of My cross stands in the doorway of your mouth, I will anoint your song to meet the ear of the chief. And so it shall be, at My command and none other. Stay faithful prophetic ones, prophesy and pray over the white house!

Prov 21:1 NLT
The king's heart is like a stream of water directed by the LORD; he turns it wherever he pleases.

The Real Test Is The Real Rest
Sandy Warner

Jul 21, 2004
Warriors, I AM calling you to stand. Don't back down and don't retreat. Do not give into intimidation. Your real test is putting into practice what you have already learned about standing, then adding what you have more recently learned about resting in Me. Yes, be on the alert, body, soul and spirit, although rest is the process while you continue to lean on Me as your Source. Your body and soul will be at rest when you apply courage to what I have already confirmed in your life. My river is beginning to pick up speed which is causing alarm in the enemy camp. Be willing to stand against contempt and reprove when I say. Again I say, stand your ground, do not retreat. What you have proclaimed, be willing to stand for it.

Josh 1:9 KJV
Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

Compassion

Priscilla van Sutphin

Compassion & Travail: The Ministry of the Lord's Heart
Jan 26th, 2004

You know I've got a bible outline type study on my site on Compassion?
But I have not expounded on it and taken the time to writing on it much. But after listening to Jill Austin talk about the experience of someone else who could SEE with her eyes a place God was taking her in the spirit realm, then realizing HE had brought me there without seeing, but only experiencing it, I thought perhaps I need to expound on this.

She talked of a woman who was asked to come, and taken through a very dark area, into a dark room, and there in the chair sitting, looking out a window was the Lord. She looked to see what He was looking at, and He was watching children being beaten, abused, starving and neglected, and numerous situations around the world involving children hurting that broke His heart, and as she did look, she began to feel His heart and weep and cry. This is what He called the crying room. There was a door that led out, but you had to be small to go there she said. You couldn't have too much pride, or be too great in your own estimation. And if you got smaller you could go there and you would receive strategies.

I know that one of the great lacks in the church has been compassion.

Compassion is NOT sympathy. Sympathy is what the world gives, or what I would call the worldly counterfeit of compassion, and is short lived for the most part. There is no empathy to it. Empathos is one of the Greek words for compassion, and it has to do with experiencing what others feel. There is another word in the Greek for this called 'splanchnizomai' which has to do with a gripping in your innards. Another biblical word would be TRAVAIL.

During the renewal, I was soaking in the presence of the Lord many nights a week at church and in my home, and going through a lot of physical pain and suffering myself so when I would sometimes take the hand of another in greeting, I would suddenly be catapulted into a place of travail in my spirit for the woundedness of that individual. This was a new experience for me, and I would hide it till I got away and then begin to pray for them in the fullness of what I knew God wanted me to do. It was hard to get quickly to a place where I would not be embarrassed by my tears.

This is not the kind of ministry that people crave or want to receive, or ask for , at least for the most part that is true. But I have asked over and over and over again for HIS HEART…so He has given me a portion of that.

While at a women's conference a couple years ago, Michelle Rizzo had a prophetic word and she said, " I have called you to pray for the Muslims, and the Hindu's. They are killing each other" That 's the part I remember, because suddenly I was gripped in my stomach/gut, and screaming at the top of my lungs, like an Italian mother who had just found out her son had been killed! I couldn't stop it…it just sprang forth from my spirit. For months a couple months after that, nothing, then suddenly every time I would worship, I would start out and the Holy Spirit would hit me, and I would be screaming. I honestly did not understand. I had experienced the crying room, but not to this depth.

I remember that when I went to India it manifested in a couple situations.
One was a pastor's wife who I am very fond of, as they are a worshipping church and when you enter it, you know it. And it was a pastor's conference, and I was ministering prophetically to them and praying for them in couples.
As I went to pray for her…I suddenly was gripped the same and began to scream. She suddenly fell back under the power, when this happened. 2 months later, the mother I think of the pastor died and I was told. It's as if the Lord knew what was coming, and I was travailing for that time, that they would be comforted by the Lord and go through. At least that is the sense I got.

Before this Iraqi war, that was all I was doing in my prayer time. I would worship as I normally do to enter in, and suddenly the screaming would start.
Tears, and tears, and tears. Death was coming. God knew, and I felt it. I was weeping for it. This is not to brag, this is because during this time, some good intentioned people found fault and told me I needed healing and I began navel gazing thinking it was NOT the Lord, and was a demon. So by doing that I gave place to something…demonic. It was so confusing then, and I shy'd away from going to the place of weeping. I didn't want to worship, because then I would weep and scream. And everyone in churches thought I was just so demonized, that I needed deliverance, so I began to entertain those thoughts too!

The thing is…you are NOT supposed to focus on demons. You are NOT supposed to entertain them at all. And they were getting a lot of pleasure from this torment. No one had an explanation for me it seemed, and my intimacy with God was stolen out of it…obviously not good fruit. I would put on the music, but I could not dance. I would put on the worship and just lay there. I would try to pray, but couldn't form words, so I would just pray in tongues. I would try to read my bible, but it was not alive to me. I didn't realize, though I'd experienced it before, I was under condemnation and a religious spirit from those who had judged me.

So THIS is why I am writing. This is just too amazing, that I barely had time to go to the conference, but the one thing I got to hear in the car was Jill Austin talking about this…I had repented before for avoiding the worship, but now everything made sense of my experience…and I was weeping because I had left HIS side. So I repented for that, and refuse to give place to the gutless, mindless misunderstanding anymore. I just don't care anymore about being thought a fool. I refuse to apologize about such a precious gift He has given me anymore.

I long to see others gain HIS heart. Compassion is the essence of POWER in the heart of God. Unless a prophet is stirred by HIS compassion and sense of JUSTICE, then they are not yet a true prophet. For more on this, read Lars Widerberg's article:
http://upstream.homestead.com/prophetswob.html

So what is compassion? The Hebrew word is besed…

Compassion: Mercy
Hebrew : besed, kindness
Greek : eleos, compassion
"Mercy is a form of love determined by the state or condition of its objects. Their state is one of suffering and need, while they may be unworthy or undeserving. Mercy is at once the disposition of love respecting such, and the kindly ministry of love for their relief."
The expression " I will have mercy and not sacrifice," indicates that God is pleased with the exercise of mercy rather than with the offering of sacrifices, though sin has made the latter necessary (1 Sam 15:22, Micah 6:6-8).Mercy is a Christian grace, and is very strongly urged toward all men (Matt. 5:7, 23:23; James 3:17, etc.). (Taken from Vines Expository Dictionary)

Greek definitions of words for compassion
A) To Bear (in the sense of carrying, supporting)
1) bastazo - bastazw - signifies to bear as a burden. It is used with the meaning
a) to take up, as in picking up anything, stones (John 10:31)
b) to carry something, (Matthew 3:11, Mark 14:13, Luke 7:14, 22:10) to carry on one's person (Luke 10:4 Carry neither money bag, sack, not sandals; and greet no one along the road , Galatians 6:17- From now on let no one trouble me, for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus) to carry in one's body (Luke 11:27)
Luke 11:27 Amp Now it occurred that as He was saying these things, a certain woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, Blessed (happy and to be envied) is the womb that bore You and the breasts that You sucked! to bear a name in testimony (Acts 9:15- But the Lord said to him, "Go, for he is a chosen vessel of Mine to bear My name before Gentiles, kings, and the children of Israel. For I will show him how many things he must SUFFER for My name's sake."

Metaphorically of a root bearing branches (Romans 11:18)

Now in the same way a woman bears a baby is important, because TRAVAIL has to do with that. So the Spirit puts the burden inside your spirit to bring to birth, the desired justice or outcome for the situation. So bastazo, to bear a burden is to spiritually pick up that burden and then give it back to Him, through prayer, tears, travail, worship. That is what intercessors do.
Jesus is the model intercessor. He bore our burdens on the cross. We have been told to pick up our cross, and to bear one another's burdens.

c) to bear a burden, whether physically, as of the cross
(John19:17)
metaphorically in respect of sufferings endured in the cause of Christ Rev.2:3- " and you have persevered and have patience, and have labored for My name's sake and have not become weary.)
it is of sufferings borne on behalf of others. (Matt 8:17-that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying: "He Himself took our infirmities and bore our sicknesses.
Ref. 1 Peter 2:24) Also see Colossians 1:24 NKJ, Romans 15:1
We then who are strong ought to bear with the scruples of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Galatians 6:2 NKJV Bear one another's burdens and SO FULFILL THE LAW of Christ.
· of spiritual truths not able to be borne (John 16:12)
· of the refusal to endure evil men (Rev 2:2)
· of religious regulations imposed on others (Acts 15:10)
· of the burden of the sentence of God to be executed in due time
(Galatians 5:10)
· of the effect at the Judgment seat of Christ, to be borne by the believer for failure in the matter of discharging the obligations of discipleship. (Galatians 6:5)

2) Hupophero - literally to bear up under, is best rendered by "endure" (1 Cor 10:13 No temptation has overtaken you except such as is common to man; but God is faithful, Who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make the way of escape, that you may be able to bear it.)
of enduring temptations, or persecutions (2 Tim 3:11), enduring grief (1 Peter 2:19)
Christ bearing away the sins of the world (John 1:29)
3) Airo - to take away what is attached to anything, to remove. Also, not the nature of atonement is in view, but its effect in the believer's life. (1 John 3:5 -)

Now we come to the next part of the compassion complex of definitions, and the first is
B) Compassion
1) Oikteiro - oikteirw - to have pity, a feeling of distress through the ills of others, is used of God's compassion
Romans 9:15 For He says to Moses, " I will have mercy on whomever I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whomever I will have compassion."
This scripture is a good one, as it is most important for intercessors. Sometimes intercessors with this mercy gift, get feeling guilty when they do NOT feel compassion. Now sometimes, that is because our own emotions are have not been repented of, if we've been slighted or hurt in some way and are holding any grudges, it will keep us from feeling the heart of God. We need to get straight and repent if we want to keep this precious gift.

And sometimes it is because God is not aiming His compassion at that situation. It can be because we are tired and neglecting ourselves…or a myriad of other reasons. But if God is not in it…then neither should we have unsanctified mercy.

I’ll give you an example that is quite vivid in my mind. Some years back I was on AFDC, because I was so sick with CFIDS and fibromyalgia and I had just gotten my food stamps and was on my way to the grocery store. It is a big market here in California, and out in front of it was a woman, obviously homeless, unkempt, dirty, very tall, dark haired, and no shoes, but a long wool poncho covering her. She was standing by the garbage bin outside the store and when I saw her, since I often tried to minister to the homeless, or those in lines, or at doctors offices. I was going to slip her $20 bill so she could eat for a couple days, but she had turned her head away so I tapped her on the shoulder, and there was an instant power encounter! IMMEDIATELY she threw her pop she was drinking out of in my face and uttered “ Who told you you could touch me_____?!!” and proceeded to pull cans and bottles out of the garbage can to throw at me , as I ran off into the store! Oh MY! Well once inside, the managers had called the cops, and what I wanted to do in secret, turned out to be a big attraction to all around. As I quieted myself, I heard the LORD so clearly say to me, “ DID I ASK YOU TO GIVE HER SOME MONEY? “ and I meekly answered, “no”. And the point was made. HE will have compassion on whom He will have compassion! It is not our call. We must only be OBEDIENT.

I considered myself as a nurse to have a lot of compassion, there were times when I fought with doctors for patient care, or for family's rights to be with dying relatives, even before I was out of nursing school . And I continued to pour myself into my work and push (drive) myself to do more. But all of that is filthy rags, compared to the compassion that comes from a heart that is obedient to the Father and sensitive to the Holy Spirit, and dependent on what He tells you to do, as Francis Frangipane says, " What we become is more consequential than all we will ever DO for him"(my emphasis)

A good father gives good gifts to his children and our heavenly Father is loaded with good gifts. David was said to be a man after God's own heart, so early after being saved, I told the Lord, I wanted to have a heart like David; a heart like HIS heart for others and He has been faithful to take me through the process of continually emptying my heart of all the filth and garbage accumulated through years of abuse and self-abuse. (Something that is a continual process of sanctification)

2) Splanchnizomai - splancnizomai- to be moved in one's inwards (splanchna), to be moved with compassion, to yearn with compassion, is frequently recorded of Christ toward the multitude and towards individual sufferers, (Matthew 9:36, 14:14, 15:32, 18:27, 20:34, Mark 1:41, 6:34, 8:2, 9:22) of the appeal of a father for a demon possessed son; (Luke 7:13, 10:33) of the father in the parable of the prodigal son (Luke 15:20)

It was a common thing for a while that so many in the church would come up to the intercessors in the church and tell them to stop crying, that they were too emotional. Often even the pastors would do this. Praise the Lord, his strength is seen in weakness. I remember the first time I experienced what is known as birthing pangs. I was in a prayer meeting and I had an urge to hold my legs like a woman in labor. [I was an OB-Peds nurse for many years]. I thought this bizarre, but was moving in the Spirit and a couple other women, praise the Lord, WERE familiar with it…again it felt like something gripping my stomach. Another time was when Stacey Campbell came to the Vineyard with the entourage of Canadians that brought renewal there. She came up before the sermon and began to give a prophecy, and as she did, and the power of God hit her, it also gripped the intercessors, many of whom I knew who were in the room. I felt this pull to the floor and was grabbing my stomach while wailing again, as if someone died. It happened to all the intercessors.

I have this problem with the assignment of the name intercessor in a way yet. Perhaps God, will show me otherwise, but it seems to me that intercession should NOT be for the few, but is the heart of His ministry.
He is the ultimate intercessor. His heart was gripped,[splanchnizomai] so many times. The experience in the garden of Gethsemane is one I wish to use as there are so many misunderstandings spoken about this scripture. And I believe the Lord has given me some insight on this.

Luke 22:42-44 AMP
42 Saying, Father, if You are willing, remove this cup from Me; yet not My will, but [always] Yours be done. 43 And there appeared to Him an angel from heaven, strengthening Him in spirit.
44 And being in an agony [of mind], He prayed [all the] more earnestly and intently, and His sweat became like great clots of blood dropping down upon the ground.

Luke 22:42-44 NKJV
42 saying, "Father, if it is Your will, take this cup away from Me; nevertheless not My will, but Yours, be done." 43 Then an angel appeared to Him from heaven, strengthening Him. 44 And being in agony, He prayed more earnestly. Then His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

I have read this over and over and it does NOT say his sweat became blood.
It says his sweat became LIKE drops of blood. There is a difference. Blood flows readily, speedily out of the body, as the heart pumping makes it do so.
But it was His sweat that was profusely dripping as if like blood. THIS is a common experience since renewal for me, that when the FIRE of God comes with great power, I sweat “like a pig” we used to say when the summer sun was hot. I’m talking my clothes get all wet, as if the same conditions existed when the don’t. Times of burning prayer, I call them. It happened distinctly I remember when I visited a Korean pastor and his family/elders in their home with a friend. We started to worship and the FIRE of God came, and I was filled with the Spirit of prophecy, and began to prophesy over his sister, and the sweat was running in my eyes, and down my legs so bad, I felt somewhat embarrassed. But it wasn’t because of the weather or heat in the home. It was after worship and prayer began and the room literally got hot.

As I continued to prophesy over everyone, it just kept pouring out, and if it were blood, man, they would have had to take me to the hospital! But that is how it poured out from me…just oozing. I needed a wipe towel to throw over my shoulder. Wearing makeup would have been ridiculous. This will be more common as awakening happens. I’m sure it has happened to many as the Lord apprehends them with His heart. The Lord was gripped with the weight of the world on His shoulders. As He deposits His heart for the nations in you, you will receive the Spirit of travail and you will experience great gripping in intercession. May He take you to this place in the Spirit that nations will come forth from the womb of intercession.

3) Sumpatheo - to suffer with another (sun; with, pascho; To suffer) to be affected similarly (English-sympathy) to have compassion upon (Heb. 10:34) of compassionating those in prison is translated " be touched with" in (Heb 4:15), of Christ as the High Priest.

4) Eleeo - to have mercy (eleos; mercy) to show kindness, by beneficience, or assistance, is translated "Have compassion" in (Matt. 18:33, Mark 5:19, and Jude 22)

Matt 18:33 Amp And should you not have had pity and mercy on your fellow attendent, as I had pity and mercy on you?

Mark 5:19 (re Gaderene demoniac) But Jesus refused to permit him, but said to him, Go home to your own [family and relatives and friends] and bring back word to them of how much the Lord has done for you, and [how he has] had sympathy for you and mercy on you. (Amplified version)

Jude 21-23 Amp Guard and keep yourselves in the love of God; expect and patiently wait for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ (the Messiah) [which will bring you] unto life eternal. And refute [so as to] convict some who dispute with you, and on some have mercy who waver and doubt. [Strive to] save others, snatching [them] out of [the] fire; on others take pity [but] with fear, loathing even the garment spotted by the flesh and polluted by their sensuality.

5) Metriopatheo - is rendered "have compassion" in Heb 5:2
Heb.5:1-2 NKJV For every high priest taken from among men is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. He can have COMPASSION on those who are ignorant and going astray, since he himself is also beset by weakness.

It means to treat with mildness, or moderation, to bear gently with [metrios; moderate & pascho; to suffer] the idea is that of not being unduly disturbed by the faults and ignorance of others; or rather perhaps of feeling in some measure in contrast to the full feeling with, expressed in the verb sumpatheo in Heb 4:15.

6) Makrothumeo - to be long tempered (macros; long, thumos; temper) " is long suffering over " see ; patient, suffer.

In our flesh, we have a tendency to be short tempered, and impatient. But, in HIM, we can learn to be undisturbed by the faults and ignorance of others. We can leart to be patient, as HE is SO PATIENT with us. Part of the key is in the verse of Jude to keep our hearts in the love of God. If I am tired and spent, I will not have as much love and patience for others. Every parent knows this, or at least learns it quickly. Parenting can be very tiring and at the end of the day, you do not have as much patience as at the beginning. Flesh begins to wear out. If I don't spend the time with the Lord that I need, getting His love for me, then I cannot give it out to others.

This is a principle in the natural, and in the spiritual. A mother who does not receive the love from her companions, husband, family and gives birth to her baby worn out from neglect and lack of love, does not have the love to give to her child. I have seen it many times in OB. And it is a proven scientific fact, from many studies. A woman who has been abused and neglected and is unhealed, will also tend to abuse her infant and misread his behavior as rejection.

So it is vital that if we want to have LOVE to give to our families, our neighbors, coworkers and those in the world, that we must first be a lover of God. A husband or wife who are not connected to the Lord in this manner, cannot give the proper unconditional love to their partner. Instead of apologizing, they will defend themselves and be filled with pride. That is the nature of our flesh. And if your job is to love an unbeliever, or a wounded soul, then you so need to be in the presence of God daily to get your strength to tackle all the schemes of the enemy, and to be able to pour out love HIS way. Our union and communion with the lover of our souls is paramount to obtaining His heart. Only getting His heart on matters of importance to us daily, can we see with His eyes and hear with His ears.

We are all imperfect compared to Him, so we are all being sanctified to become more like Him.

Charity 1 Cor 13 is rendered love; agape (strongs 26) comes from the verb agapao which means to love in a social or moral sense; including the judgment and deliberate assent of the will as a matter of principle, duty and propriety; a matter of the heart versus the head, compared to phileo. Agape is described as love, ie affection or benevolence; spec. a love-feast: (feast of) charity ([ably]), dear, love.

Now you can see that compassion covers a lot of ground. I want to say again that there is a large difference between the inward compassion of the soul compared to the compassion that God gives via the Holy Spirit through our spirits. I was deeply abused/wounded as a child, especially the first 7 years of my life, and as an adult wanted to do something for the Lord to give back and took up a nursing career. And right from the beginning even as a nurse's aide, before I had started nurse's training in college, patients would open up to me they would share deep secrets they would tell no one else. I was raised Catholic, so was not walking in the spirit. But even then, God had His hand on me training me.

When we lack compassion there may be a number of reasons.
1) It is not our gift ie...there are varying gifts. mercy, gifts of healings, giving, etc.
2) We have had a relatively easy life and are insensitive to the needs of others (we have nothing to compare to; no life experience to make us emote empathy with others so instead we have sympathy.)
3) We have had a really painful life and we try to be compassionate in our own strength, but fall way short because of lack of healing and unforgiveness, and selfishness which (Loving self more than God) sometimes people who've been hurt will cry from their own pain still needing healing...but not God's compassion
4) We have some sin in our life which is keeping us from intimacy with God. ie bitterness, hardness of heart, judgments, opinions
5) No one ever trained us how to be kind and loving (modeled it).

When we lack compassion we CAN call upon GOD, Who is the resource of everything we need. Another example....I had a friend who had a daughter who was raised in a "Christian" home albeit dad had been an alcoholic; thereby accruing some pain and not being healed, she married an Persian man who was unsaved , a Moslem, and she ended up being discontented, and following some inherited, sinful patterns got into a relationship with someone at work, while husband was out on oil rig. She had two children. This person at work was a hard-core drug addict, and her mom started calling me and asking me to pray with her daily.

Well to make this short. I ran out of compassion after some weeks and when she called me one morning and asked me to pray for her daughter, I said "NO!" I was probably tired at the time, as I had chronic fatigue with a depressed immune system. { I should say, that because of my prophetic gifting, somehow she thought the prayers would be answered more if I prayed.} So I said, I will let YOU pray, and I will agree with you as I don't have any compassion right now. Well just admitting that to her, and in front of God, within a few sentences of prayer, I was overcome with compassion for the young woman and tears were flowing, from the heart of God - NOT MY HEART- but His heart through mine. God wants us to be honest and humble.

Apart from HIM we can do nothing and I mean nothing! Apart from His grace I am just a sinner like everyone else. Then I had to repent of any judgments I made towards her daughter. This story ended sadly for the daughter and I haven't heard, or even know where this friend is right now but the husband, after finding out, was brought to my apartment via my friend, and the Lord had so worked on his heart, that when I spoke to him about giving his life to Christ, he did and we had a very holy time of intercession, and he never stopped. He was a Muslim before, yet, He went on to take responsibility for the children and continued to attend church and get discipled. And I have no doubt God will, if He hasn't already, restore the daughter, because God's promises are true, but HE is also SOVEREIGN! He will have compassion on whom He will have compassion.

I realize more than ever that when we think we are something we are nothing! Scripture says that. If you think you are a great intercessor and are SO spiritual, and yet have not the Father's heart, you are nothing. HE IS EVERYTHING! HE IS the One Who gives you the grace in the first place to DO intercession, to seek His face. Without His grace we can't do anything and I mean ANYTHING. If you think you can do anything in your own strength without HIS enabling , you need to think again. It is a great deception! And He will bring that exalted sense of self to it's death.

I remember Joyce Meyers telling this story how her husband when they were younger would sit on the floor and play with the kids, and she would be busy, busy, busy and be complaining cause he wasn't DOING something. Yet He would hear from God and she complained she could not that often, until God showed her she needed to chill. She did not know how to have fun, nor did she know God wanted us to have some fun sometimes. I'm sure that when Jesus spent time with the apostles it was not all striving. All striving is related to RELIGIOUS spirits. God is not a harsh taskmaster and neither should we be. We tend as a society to be driven and performance oriented. Yet God says. "Take My yoke upon you and learn of Me, for my yoke is easy and My burden is LIGHT!"

Face it, we cannot BE anything, including compassionate, without God having given us the gift, or making us able. So let HIM get all the glory and return to the bastion of Hope; to Jesus, our Defender and Redeemer. And give others some slack! Be forebearing; not being unduly disturbed by their faults and sins, or by the annoying habits of others, and just LOVE them to Christ! JESUS was the model for intercession; something we are ALL called to do. There is no gift in Corinthians or elsewhere called the gift of intercession. Intercession is talking to God, being intimate with Him and His compassion , His love is what makes miracles...Love those who don't love you, as well as those who do love you, and then you will be fulfilling His laws. He is calling us to love the unlovely, the different "fish" in the seas of life, and we must lay down all judgment and criticism, impatience, intolerance, and frustration to do that. He is working on us and He will accomplish His goal.

The major key, & true prophets, have been warning of this is to get your own healing at the feet of Jesus so you can be emptied of self and all that comes with it, and be a vessel of gold for His glory. This is very hard when He withdraws the grace. Imagine how hard it is for others who live in countries that are oppressed and not free like ours has been. We must cry out in desperation for MORE of Him. He will answer. He always does. All of us have some religion in our hearts to deal with; some deception, as we are all sinners. So we need to be more honest with ourselves. If the prodigals are to return home what will they come to? Will they come to a church full of love and grace like God gives to us ; full of FAITH? Or will they come to a church who is still sick and unhealed, undelivered and unloving, uncompassionate, self-serving? Self promotion and self-glorying are abundant these days due to the pride in our hearts.

God has an admonishment for us all for the youth and others are about to come into much grace and the idols will fall. Every idol in our hearts will fall, and we will be confronted like never before by this younger generation and by those who have been through the fire. Most of us have failed again and again, and God has been so gracious to us, so patient with us. I pray we will not be like the ungrateful servant who was forgiven and his burden lifted, then he became a harsh taskmaster to another. His love is unfathomable! He has endured so much of our own weaknesses. We need to endure those of others, yet being caring enough to confront in love, not with anger and impatience. This is all PROCESS...This is what he is taking us to: to love as HE LOVED; To love others as He has loved us! May the Holy Spirit direct all our hearts into the love of God and the patience of Christ!

11th Hour of Power

11th Hour of Power Priscilla van Sutphin Jan 27th, 2004 11:11 pm

I have chosen for Myself a most peculiar army for this hour. They are peculiarly precious unto Me, and I will make them My jewels! I am gathering and I am scattering. I am winnowing and I am perfecting. I am really pleased with My work you see. I can see that My children are really getting to know the depth of My love for them. Little by little and grace by grace, more is being deposited, and they will come forth with a sweet fragrance in them, that will capture the hearts of all around them.

Just as Esther soaked in myrrh, then perfumes for six months, being rubbed and rubbed, and rubbed daily with perfumes, I am rubbing my goodness into you. I am rubbing in HOPE. I am rubbing in LOVE. I am rubbing in PEACE. I am rubbing in Patience and PERSERVERANCE, that you may go higher in your faith and not turn back again. I have so many gifts to bestow on My Bride!

I am making her like My strong horse in battle, and she will not turn away from the fight of the ages. She will go forward in a CONFIDENCE in who she is and I will fight along side her. Nothing can separate us. I am looking forward to this battle, My love! Aren't you? Those in heaven are awaiting it and have been interceding for it. My angels are at attention. They are waiting for orders and many have already been sent down to engage the enemy's forces.

I have given you many tools of war My Bride and I am not going to leave you alone in the battle. Remember how Gehazi saw that those with them were more than those against them? KNOW that I have a plan to make a spectacle of the enemy! Just when he thinks he has the upper hand, is when he is in for a fall. His rage will be stirred, when he sees the fullness of My plan. so I am telling you ahead of time, that I have all planned out in advance, so that even then, MY love, YOU WILL BE HELD IN THE PALM OF MY HAND! Restrain yourselves from giving in to FEAR! For I have not given you a spirit of fear, but of POWER, and LOVE, and a sound mind!

I AM FAITHFUL AND TRUE. I will not forsake you in the darkest hour My love. Keep your eyes in My Word, for I am pouring out revelation for these times, so you will know what is ahead before it happens. I do nothing lest I tell my servants, My prophets! So EXPECT to see more than you have seen. Expect Me to show you great and mighty things that lie ahead. EXPECT to receive a greater portion of My love and My power, and authority! For I am coming to your side, just as a Bridegroom does, and I will execute vengeance on Our enemies! And I will use you to do it! I will put MY WORDS in your mouth and you will use it like a SWORD. I will give you wisdom for each and every situation , that you will know what is happening. I will increase the seven fold Spirit in My Bride, that she will do GREAT EXPLOITS in My Name! Glory upon glory, and grace upon grace will be poured out. Look to Me, for I AM the LOVER of your soul, and I am releasing and stirring up the hearts of the young.

A little child shall lead them. One will set a thousand to flight and two will set 10,000 to flight. I am releasing groanings and utterances and travail will bring forth great passion and compassion that will loose the prisoners from their bonds. I will increase the FIRE of INTERCESSION, even in the little ones of My flock, so do not be afraid! Do not hinder what I do in them! I will use their innocent hearts to set thousands to flight. Agree with their prayers and groanings. Ask them what I am doing and I will show them what to say to you. You will find yourself learning from them! For I don't use those mighty in their own opinions. I use the meek! I use the WEAK to confound the strong!

My army will walk in HUMILITY and FORGIVENESS and will have MY COMPASSION and STRENGTH. I will do mighty miracles through old and young alike. I will use those, no one expects to be used. I am not a God of partiality, or exclusivity! I bring beauty for ashes, and the oil of joy for mourning. I work in the opposites to the ways of this world. So expect to be dazzled! Expect to see things you have NEVER seen. Expect to see wonders! Expect also to see counterfeits rise up, but know that they have already begun with their mechanical means to imitate what I do through various devices and tricks. YOU WILL SEE THROUGH IT MY BRIDE.

Believe Me when I say that I LOVE YOU and have passionately been waiting for this day when I would make you My jewels in My crown! I will do a mighty and remarkable thing, that man may not take credit for! GET ready to be suddenly surprised! I delight in surprises and you will too when you receive them!

Your biggest surprise will be the suddenness with which I do this marvelous work. And it will happen all over the world. It will not be like before. I will also stir up the youth of the nations like a battering RAM, and they will enter into the battle with fervor and zeal, such as not been seen in many generations. Do you have a daughter or son who is awol? PROCLAIM OVER THEM what I have said about them! Stop begging and start PROCLAIMING! Speak the truth of the Word over them. Speak it out loud! Speak it loud and clear to the enemy of your soul. For MY righteous indignation BURNS at what he has done to them through his many strategies. But I am telling you that they will be UNDONE. IN A MOMENT, they will be TRANSFORMED. In a MOMENT! That is all it takes for ME to change them! Stop worrying, stop fretting about the one who is caught by the enemy in all kinds of sin, in drinking and in smoking, and in drugs. FOR IT IS NOTHING FOR ME TO TOUCH THEM. I WILL DO IT! TRUST ME AND SEE WHAT I WILL DO IN THIS GENERATION CALLED X.. HAHAHA.

I AM THE LORD AND THERE IS NO OTHER! AND THEY WILL KNOW IT. I HAVE ORDAINED THE TIMES. I HAVE ORDAINED THE HOUR. I AM COMING LIKE A MIGHTY ROARING WIND! THEY WILL BE CHANGED IN A MOMENT! IN THE TWINKLING OF AN EYE!

In the Heat of the Night
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Jan 31st, 2004

I heard " In the heat of the night". "So what do You have to say about that Father?", I asked.

I AM the all consuming FIRE, and I am pouring out a river of My fire, to burn off all the dross My beloveds! There are many strongholds still in your life that need My FIRE. I will not leave you nor forsake you. I will do all I have promised to free you from every evil thing that has tormented you.
I will BURN AND BURN AND BURN until you emerge shining with the light of My glory. You will come forth as GOLD refined in the fire of My love and power. I will sanctify you with My glory, and you will never be the same again. Mercy and truth have kissed each other.

It is the night hour My beloveds and I am striking the tuning fork to see if you are in harmony with My will and My plans. Will you listen for Me? Will you listen for the still small voice? I want to pour into you the fullness of My GRACE and the fullness of My LOVE, that you can go forth with power and change the climate of your cities, of nations and peoples. You have said, Lord, give us the nations for our inheritance. And the nations I will give you!

Glory is coming and nothing can stop what is coming. I have had a timing for all of this and My timing is perfect and will come exactly as I have planned.
It will not be late in it's execution. Patiently wait for the HARVEST is coming and when it does, it will be like a flood upon dry ground. The vats will be FULL with souls. Many workers are needed, so I am gathering them up and transforming them to set in place the necessary elements for what I want. Preparation of your hearts is the MAIN CONCERN. Provision is easy, compared to what needs to happen in your hearts.

I want them coming to a LIVE and vibrant church, that is full of FAITH and HOPE, and LOVE. FRUIT and character is more important than how you look to people. What people want is relationship and real friendship, not pretense. How much do you care about your brother? For you are your brother's keeper, unless you WANT to be like Cain. I want gentle shepherds for my new lambs and sheep, not hirelings and thieves, who will steal the glory! Check your hearts for any selfishness in nature. Ask ME to transform your heart, and I will do it. I am FAITHFUL and TRUE. I will answer such prayers. Humble yourselves that you may be healed. For many are blind, naked, wretched and poor and do not realize your condition.

Those of you who have been through fires and are more advanced in your healing need to pray the rest of them along, that they will be saved from the wrath to come! Have compassion on those in need even if they have hurt you. Even if they have ignored you. Lift them up and I will lift you up. Pray against the strongholds of pretense in the body of Christ. Pray the eyes will be opened!

My Justice Will Prevail
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Jan 26th , 2004

I am the Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End, the Son of God, Prince of Peace, Lalalalaa…heard this song I remember singing some time ago.

In My names are keys of HOPE. My names are like PROMISES to you of My character! I AM FAITHFUL and TRUE. I AM the Beginning and the End. And I know the beginning from the ending in all your lives, My beloveds! There is nothing hidden from Me in all the earth. There is nothing hidden from my eyes.

I love you SO much, and there is nothing I will not do for you. I am a loving Father, and I give good gifts to My children. I am the Divine Justice, and I weigh in the balances all who come before Me. I am the JUDGE. There is no other! It is I Who rides on the wings of the wind. It is I Who holds you in the palm of My hand. My hand is ever stretched out still before you.

I want you to KNOW the depth of My love for MANKIND who are made in My image. The height of witchcraft that is running rampant is a disdain for life. It disdains what I have created and ever works to destroy it's relationship with ME. Your enemy is rabid with desire to keep you from ME in whatever way He can. SO RESIST HIM, and HE WILL FLEE! I want you to love what I love. I want you to feel what I feel. I want you to die to yourself as My Son had to die to Himself in order to accomplish what I sent Him for!

There is life in the cross, RESURRECTION LIFE. The crucible of suffering and pain is the birthing place of My power. I have said, that he who suffers with ME, will share in My glory. And that day of glory is almost upon you.
Know that you are in MY HEART ALL THE TIME. There is never a moment I forget about you. I don't dismiss your prayers. I don't dismiss you when you want to talk to Me. I don't dismiss your presence ever, or your needs. But I am your loving Father, and I know what is best for you and what makes you more like ME. I will work all things for the good, for those who are called according to My purposes. I am listening to your every thought. I am listening to your every concern, whether expressed or just in groanings and feelings. I hear your intercessions. And I am not growing weary of you. I am not impatient or intolerant of you. I am not surprised when you fail. Each failure leads to a victory if you will give it to Me.

I know you inside and out. I speak to you in parables at times, so that you will search out a matter.

Those who search out a matter are teachers, and exhorters. I was a teacher , and everyone who disciples another is a teacher. It is not a great mystery, but a great truth, that to whom much is forgiven , much is required. Those who are forgiven much, love much and have much to give to others.

I am turning up the heat. I am turning up the power. I am turning over the tables of the money-changers. I am giving it into the hands of the money givers. I am giving it to those I can trust to use it for establishing JUSTICE and LOVE. My love is not a concept. It is not weak and impoverished. It is great and extravagant. I am pouring out MY LOVE that the gates of hell will NOT prevail in My church. I have seen all the pride. I have seen all the arrogance. I have seen all the presumption and lack of self-denial. I have seen the injustices and all the unrighteousness in My house. So I am coming quickly to right every wrong. I am coming in POWER to uproot all that has stolen and robbed from My people. I am coming to reset the weights and balances so that JUSTICE WILL PREVAIL ONCE AGAIN.

NOTHING will stop it! MY WILL will PREVAIL!

2 Chron 16:9 NKJV For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show Himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is loyal to Him. In this you have done foolishly; therefore from now on you shall have wars."

Jer 5:1 NKJV The Justice of God's Judgment
"Run to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem; See now and know; and seek in her open places if you can find a man, if there is anyone who executes judgment, Who seeks the truth, and I will pardon her.

Isa 1:16-17 NKJV "Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean; put away the evil of your doings from before My eyes. Cease to do evil, 17 Learn to do good; seek justice, rebuke the oppressor; defend the fatherless, plead for the widow.

Mic 6:8 NKJV He has shown you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?

Jer 13:17 NKJV But if you will not hear it, My soul will weep in secret for your pride; My eyes will weep bitterly and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock has been taken captive.

2 Chron 7:15-17 NKJV Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to prayer made in this place. 16 For now I have chosen and sanctified this house, that My name may be there forever; and My eyes and My heart will be there perpetually.

The New Birth
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Jan 30th, 2004
John 12:24-26 NIV
24 I tell you the truth, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds. 25 The man who loves his life will lose it, while the man who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. 26 Whoever serves me must follow me; and where I am, my servant also will be. My Father will honor the one who serves me.

Zech 8:12 NKJV 'For the seed shall be prosperous, The vine shall give its fruit, The ground shall give her increase, And the heavens shall give their dew — I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these.

There is a new life coming to My church. And I want to make you to understand that this new life is not in the form of religion, but in the hearts of those who love Me. It doesn't matter what form you choose, as much as HOW YOU LIVE YOUR LIFE! I AM the MERCY SEAT! I AM the GLORIOUS ONE. I AM THE ONE WHO IS TO BE THE OBJECT OF WORSHIP! NOT THE BUILDING, NOT THE HOME, NOT THE LEADERS, NOT THE WORSHIP FORM, NOT THE STYLE, NOT THE DENOMINATION!

What is being birthed is new life in ME; Christ in you, the Hope of glory.
This is a new life you have not known in fullness, till now when it will take place. JESUS is entering into the church in a way, demonstrating His love and glory, that every shackle will be broken on those who are willing to receive Him. But like when He came the first time, people rejected the form, there will be those who in this age also reject the form, and in doing so will reject the KING OF GLORY!

Which will you be? Pharisee, or lover? Choose you this day whom you will serve, man or Creator! I AM the Lord GOD of Elijah! I am restoring all things, and it will come at a cost and with great birth pangs. Will you find yourself in the place of the Judge of the earth, or will you be under HIS covering? For see, when you step outside His covering and mantle of humility and forgiveness, then you are not under His authority, but that of the evil one. He is the HEAD from which all things proceed. And HE ALONE will receive all the GLORY. NO MAN can boast! For ALL have sinned and fallen short of the glory! Who are you to judge your brother? Who are you that you know what is in the heart of a man? God alone knows what is in the hearts of men, so it is NOT for you to judge oh man!

I will have mercy on whom I'll have mercy! I will choose on whom I pour out My glory, and in whatever measure I choose! It is not YOU who establishes prophets and apostles! IT IS I! The church is built on the blood of the prophets and apostles. So which of you who claim to be apostles is willing to LAY DOWN YOUR LIVES? There are more apostles in CHINA than in this nation, because they have been willing to suffer with ME! They have forsaken all that is of this world to live FOR ME, and to die for ME! And they do not boast of themselves! When will you humble yourselves and see that it is in death that you will have TRUE LIFE?

I alone am God and I will not be mocked! I AM the DIVINE JUSTICE.
I alone am the Author and Finisher of your faith! I alone am the FAITHFUL and TRUE ONE! SINCE WHEN IS ANY OF YOU FAITHFUL?
SINCE WHEN ARE ANY OF YOU CAPABLE TO BE ALL THINGS TO MEN? Yet you boast in your arrogance and don't realize the pain in My heart when you do this, because then you come out from My true authority.
There are many who have attained authority in the world system of Christianity who have NO authority in ME. It was the same when I sent My Son the first time! Many more would be used in mighty ways, if they will only HUMBLE themselves to receive the healing and deliverance they need.

Will you listen to Me when I say, that I mean to remove all arrogance and pride from those who call themselves "My church "? Humble yourselves in the sight of the LORD and HE will lift you up. Humble yourselves now My children, for then you will be able to stand in this day of restored HOLINESS. Make no more excuses! Make no more rationalizations! Ask for all deception to be removed! For I am FAITHFUL to remove your pride the easy way. But if you choose the hard way…it will be more painful and embarrassing! Ask me to remove all bitterness and judgmentalism and I will! Ask ME for MORE OF MY LOVE, for it is love that uproots the fear that is behind the control and pride. Ask and you shall receive, ask and it will be given to you!

Matt 13:23 NKJV
23 But he who received seed on the good ground is he who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and produces: some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty."

1 Peter 1:23-25 NKJV 23 having been born again, not of corruptible seed but incorruptible, through the word of God which lives and abides forever, 24 because "All flesh is as grass, And all the glory of man as the flower of the grass. The grass withers, And its flower falls away, 25 But the word of the LORD endures forever."

Compassion

Chimezie Onyebilanma

Revelation chapter 6:1-7 (like much of Revelation) speaks of the judgment of God being unleashed on this present world – a spirit of conquest (the modern struggle for world dominion), bloodshed and war, famine, and disasters that will result in ruin and pain. There is no doubt that these things are inevitable. Things are going to get worse despite all the progress of science. Suffering is going to increase if prophecy is to be fulfilled.

There is the temptation just here (the fact that prophecy must be fulfilled) to feel that we as Christians would only be standing in the way of God if we try to bring relief to the pains of this dying world. But this is not true. In Obadiah, Esau (the people of Edom) was rebuked because “on the day (of God afflicted pains on Israel) they stood aloof” (Obadiah 11).

What then must be our reactions as Christians as we see God’s judgment coming on the world? Compassion. Love is the hallmark of the Christian life. Just because God is judging people does not mean we are called to become God and judge them too. Our work is to love them.

We need to know love as a reality. The ability not to judge people because of their sins. The grace not to be like the Pharisees. In this time of worldwide crisis, we cannot afford to stand aloof. We must act.

Our goal this year 2004 in our work in this part of Africa, is to do more to relieve the pains of the people we seek to reach with the gospel. Perhaps you can find a channel to express your compassion here. What about adopting one of our street children? What of helping us provide fertilizers for farmers? What of helping us with the AIDS-awareness campaigns we are planning for several villages? What of helping a missionary reach more Muslims? What of providing a well for a village?

We must not label and judge others because they are different. We must love men. And this love will move us to seek to help men know the Savoir.

Bread of Life

Chimezie Onyebilanma

John 6:48-49 “Your fathers ate manna in the desert yet they died”
We can be blessed materially by God and yet die spiritually. The life of a man does not consist in the abundance of things that he has, not even if those things were gifts from God. The manna was a first-class miracle – food dropping from heaven, yet it was powerless in giving life. We must not measure our “aliveness” by how much of God’s miracles or provisions we are seeing. We must not measure it by how much of breakthroughs or God-sent results we are getting in our life or ministry. We must measure it only by how much we are “alive to God” in our hidden man. How much we are hungering for his likeness and how much we are changing into his likeness.

“If any one eats of this bread he will live forever” (v.51) Jesus is the source of this life. It is in coming to him that we are feed and it is in believing that we drink. We must eat of him to live. Yet it is not a once-for-all experience, this eating and drinking of Jesus. We need to learn to eat him daily.

PLEASE are you born again? It is not enough to believe in the existence of God, to go to church, or be interested in spiritual things. Jesus said "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me" (John 14:6). Jesus died to deliver you from sin so that you can come to God. (John 3:16) If you ask him to forgive you and give you a new heart he will. (Acts 2:38; Romans 10:9-11).Try it. I'd love to hear from you @ caprotogo@laposte.tg

Compete With The Horses

Chuck Pierce

This will be a year that you will begin to compete with the horses and run the race with new strength
"Even in this coming week, there will be an acceleration, there will be a turn"
by Chuck D. Pierce
04/30/2004
web: http://www.glory-of-zion.org/

"Have I not said to you that this will be a year that you will break out of that which wearied you? This will be a year that you will begin to compete with the horses and run the race with new strength. I will give you strategies to overthrow the enemy that has surrounded you. These will be new strategies. You will have insight that you have never had before. Be still and receive revelation from Me. I am beginning to accelerate events and relationships around you. The enemy would love for you to remain with your feet deep within the mire that has stopped you from moving forward. The enemy would love for you to remain eating from the pig trough instead of sitting at Father's table. However, I am calling you to leave that place of lack and enter into a banquet mentality.

I am calling you to shake the mud of the past from your feet and allow Me to cause you to rise up in a new way. I am causing your feet to be liberated. I'm causing you to be able to run in a new way, for even in this coming week there will be an acceleration; there will be a turn. You will begin to see the finish line of the race that you have been in. Finish that race! But do not remove yourself from the competition. Take a deep breath and get ready to run again. This is a time where you need to breathe, receive and move forward quickly. Receive My Spirit and My breath. Allow Me to refresh you. Let the Holy Spirit manifest in you in a new way. Allow His gifts to be activated in a new way to give you new insight to run.

Removing the Hurdles

Allow Me to remove things from your path. Do not stop running because you see obstacles you do not believe you can hurdle. Those hurdles will be removed if you keep moving. I am ready to do a new thing.

Let go of your past this week! Let go of your past this week! Let go of your past this week!

Do not look back but look forward to the next race and assignment. Even though you feel weary, I will burst forth within you and you will accelerate into the suddenlies I have prepared for you. Accelerate past the strategy of death that the enemy has put on your path. Do not allow the enemy to convince you that you cannot reach the finish line and run again. Break past and into that which is forming new and fresh for you. Watch the heavens shift and new windows or portals form over you. These portals will pour grace and strength from heaven for what is ahead. Declare the heavens above you to shift, so you are connected in the Throne Room in a new way.

Going Past the Confusion

Be not deceived. The enemy will attempt to counterfeit the 'real' that is forming before you. Worship in Spirit and in truth and you will discern fully the right door to go through. I am releasing a new measure of discernment. Be willing to step out into a new place of faith and watch me turn water into wine. Some of you will even rise above your circumstance and walk out on water and, instead of sinking, you will remain buoyant because of a new faith level that is beginning to work in you.

Even though much confusion is around you, and you do not seem to see clearly the enemy's plan or even the finish line that I have set before you from the beginning of this adventure and season, keep moving, and I will see to it that you go past the confusion.

The enemy would love to remove you from the wall. Find your place on the wall new and fresh. Review your assignment. Don't be afraid to get on the edge. For though you feel like you are falling over, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand. Watch your new doors forming. Do not attempt to go back for you have attained a level of victory that you are not fully aware of. I have formed a beach head from your obedience so do not go backwards and be captured in an old season by the enemy.

Come Up!

Rise up! The higher you rise, the farther the horizon line will be extended for your future. This will give you a new measure and sphere of authority. Your boundaries are changing for your future. I am giving you a new scope to pinpoint the way the enemy will move. Do not fear the movement of your enemy for you will see him in ways you have never seen him before. Remember, one small Word will fail him. Come up! Draw near to Me for I have a new seat of authority I have formed for you. Come up and receive your new mantle for this next season. Come up. I am waiting for you. Come up and receive the strength to move forward.

I hope this word encourages you. Even though you perhaps are in a time of transition, you can move from one phase of transition into the next phase. This is similar to moving from a place of shutting doors into one where the new doors are forming on your behalf. Let me remind you that transition has three phases:

1. Loss or death. In order to go through transition, we must die to the old. If we have fear of death, we cannot submit to God in transition. Fear of death will capture our emotions unless we let the perfect love of God remove this fear. We must learn to walk through death with the fragrance of life on us.

2. Confusion. When new revelation comes into your environment, it becomes confused. You must be covered and connected or Satan will try to do you in. It will seem like a whirlwind. You can speak a word which will keep you from being sucked in. When we get into a place where we do not know what to do, God will bring us to a place of communion which tests our faith so He can reveal Himself to us in a new way.

3. Crossing Over or Entering into the New Place. God has a garden for each of us to cultivate and fill with the glory of God. He will increase our boundaries as they fill with the glory of God.

Blessings,

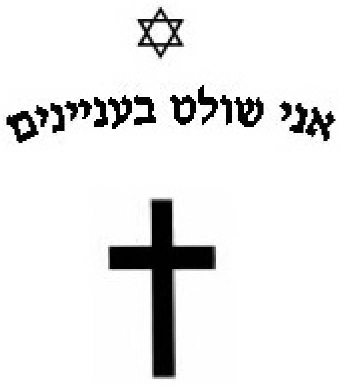
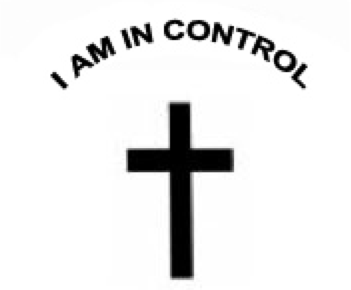
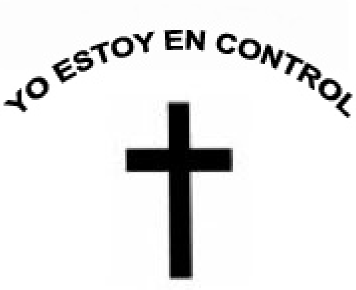
I AM In Control - III

Celia R. Okhuysen (USA)







"Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."
(Mat. 11:28)

In May 1999 I posted a dream, I AM IN CONTROL, with no planned follow-up. However, three years later, Lord Jesus began prompting me through Holy Spirit to format a graph illustrating an identical display of a message He gave me in that dream as He hung crucified on the cross. At that same time, I received strong prompting to also format a Hebrew version of the graph. After prayer and confirmation I posted those graphs in I AM IN CONTROL - II in January 2003. (Their links are listed at the end of this file.)

Again, in the fall of 2003, I began to receive further prompting to format another graph in Spanish and post it together with the ones posted earlier in the year. This time I fully hesitated, unsure it really was Holy Spirit's prompting. However, at the beginning of 2004 the urging became quite strong in my spirit. I then told the Lord in prayer that if I was hearing Him correctly, Bill Somers, host of this Web site, END TIME PROPHETIC VISION, http://www.etpv.org/, would not only have to be willing to post this file, but that He would also have to bring me the correct translation in Spanish from someone else. After prayer, I e-mailed Bill and expressed my thoughts about the graphs to him. He promptly replied, "Of course I'll post them." Furthermore, without even asking him, at the same time he also offered to contact several Hispanic viewers of this Web site and seek their help on a correct translation in Spanish. THEN I knew that this truly was the Lord! I also know now that this I AM IN CONTROL graph file has "a life of its own."

I received several translations shortly thereafter confirming the exact phrase I had discovered after searching a Spanish Bible and Spanish dictionary. I formatted the graph and sent it to Bill. He then reformatted it with the previously posted English and Hebrew graphs. I was delighted with his results as posted above. Each graph is approximately 1½" x 2" in size.

Lord Jesus has called me to format and post these graphs. They now serve as a visual testimony of His message to His Church. Any future I AM IN CONTROL graphs (should Lord Jesus call again about others) now belong to the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. They can be used in ministry work for God's Kingdom and His Glory in whichever way each Saint of God as well as Church related ministries are lead by Holy Spirit. The graphs' links are listed at the end of this document.

Should interest arise in posting these graphs on the Web for Lord Jesus' ministry work, one may do so. However, these I AM IN CONTROL graphs are not to be used for profit making, fundraising, or promotional use of any kind anywhere outside of spiritual ministry work. They are not for commercial use by anyone anywhere. It is strictly prohibited. These graphs can also be used in personal ministry work such as witnessing, visiting the infirmed, grief stricken, etc., as well as for personal use.

I RETAIN ALL COPYRIGHTS. PROPER CREDIT FOR "I AM IN CONTROL" GRAPHS SHOULD BE ACKNOWLEDGED AS: COPYRIGHT 1999 Celia R. Okhuysen

These I AM IN CONTROL graphs are to be shared with the worldwide Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. They will comfort and assure Her that no matter what Her needs may be, and whatever threatening circumstances lie ahead, Lord Jesus Christ is in control SOVEREIGN over His Beloved's spiritual welfare, needs, and security in these increasingly perilous and evil times we are now living in.

"I WILL NEVER LEAVE YOU NOR FORSAKE YOU."
(Heb. 13:5)

Much has been reported in media and journalistic format, written in books, and posted on the Web as well as correctly taught by some well-versed Bible teachers about the prophetic end times we are now living in. Today, through local judicial rulings the Lord's Church in America is witnessing the tragic removal of God's Ten Commandments from display in public places along with concerted judicial efforts to also ban Bible reading and prayer in the workplace. A ban on prayer in schools has been in effect since a ruling was handed down from the Supreme Court in the 1960's. Yet, She continues to hear the repetitive singing of "GOD BLESS AMERICA" throughout the nation. Witnessing the accelerating spiritual corruption occurring in every level of society in this nation, w*hy should God bless America?* Read on…

The Lord's Church in America now witnesses conduct unbecoming a nation that was birthed by Almighty God. She was founded upon a firm foundation of deep faith in God with the highest honor and abiding reverence for His Word the Holy Bible while guided by the Ten Commandments as her moral foundation. However, the nation is now on a downhill race with the rapid and alarming breakdown of spiritual and moral values, truth, integrity, honor, trust, civility, respect, decency, modesty, the slow eroding foundation of marriage with a possible and threatening collapse of the family institution. The demonstrations by abortionists to uphold the validity (another Supreme Court ruling) of butchering unborn infants in the womb, continues to become more and more fierce and impassioned. God bless America? These are the days spoken of in the Bible when evil will be called good, and good will be called evil.

> WOE to those who call evil good, and good evil*; who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!*
> WOE to those who are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!

> WOE to men mighty at drinking wine,
> WOE to men valiant for mixing intoxicating drink, who justify the wicked for a bribe, and take away justice from the righteous man!
> Therefore, as the fire devours the stubble, and the flame consumes the chaff, so their root will be as rottenness, and their blossom will ascend like dust; because THEY HAVE REJECTED THE LAW OF THE LORD OF HOSTS, AND DESPISED THE WORD OF THE HOLY ONE OF ISRAEL (Isaiah 5:20-24 NKJV).

["WOE" definition*: used to express grief, regret, or distress; a condition of deep suffering from misfortune, affliction, or grief; ruinous trouble; calamity, affliction, sorrow. Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary]

[Continuing] Also, increase of divorces and apostasy in the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth; shocking statistics of clergy addiction to Web pornography; the Supreme Court's ruling on the legality of homosexuality in this nation in 2003; homosexual and lesbian wedding ceremonies increasingly taking place in some mainline denomination churches as well as their legally adopting children; ordination of homosexual priests, and lately a bishop; a horrifying increase in adult and child pornography; corrupt left wing media bias; corrupt, slick politics and judicial decisions which are DANGEROUSLY AFFECTING THE SPIRITUAL WELFARE OF THIS NATION, and becoming worse and worse to the point of becoming an unbearable stench in the nostrils of God; open and insulting expressions of base and vulgar obscenities, and blasphemous language ranging from adults down to teenagers and even some children as well as in comedians' satires without restraints; shocking display of sexual behavior on television, in movies and on stage; shocking numbers of preteen children and teenagers performing oral sex (a former president's legacy to America's youth); obscene lyrics in hard rock music, and much more.

WORLDWIDE: "Jacob's [Israel's] troubles" are now at hand as well as increasing anti-Semitism and increased persecution of Christians throughout the world. The world now faces growing threats of nuclear wars among nations; climatic changes with extreme temperatures and unusual storms out of season; famines and plagues; increasing earthquakes and erupting volcanoes; global warming; increasing numbers of wars; global terrorism, and so much, much more.

Lord Jesus is revealing Himself worldwide in increasing ways to His Church today, calling Her to separate Herself from compromising with the world's lifestyles and standards through confessing hidden sins to Him, repentance (turning away from sin), humility, brokenness, obedience, faithfulness, holy living, and witnessing Him before all men in the midst of a worldwide perverse generation that is rotting from deep depravity of the heart, mind and soul.

> Do not be UNEQUALLY YOKED TOGETHER with unbelievers [socializing with pagans and idolators]. *For what fellowship has righteousness with lawlessness? >
> Therefore gird up [equip] the loins [depths] of your mind, be sober [equipped with the Word of God], and rest your hope fully upon the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation [appearance in the clouds] of Jesus Christ; as obedient children, not conforming yourselves to the former lusts, as in your ignorance; but as He who called you is holy, YOU ALSO BE HOLY IN ALL YOUR CONDUCT, because it is written, "BE HOLY, FOR I AM HOLY" (1Pet. 1:13-16).
> Pursue peace with all men, and HOLINESS, without which NO ONE will see the Lord… (Heb. 12:14).
> "Whoever desires to come after Me, let him DENY himself*, and take up his cross, and follow Me. For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life* [dies to self and is alive in Christ Gal. 2:20] FOR MY SAKE AND THE GOSPEL'S will save it. For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world [position, fame, applause, wealth, influence], and loses his own soul?
> "For WHOEVER IS ASHAMED OF ME AND MY WORDS in this adulterous and sinful generation, OF HIM THE SON OF MAN ALSO WILL BE ASHAMED when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels" (Mark 8:34-38).

Building up within my spirit for sometime has been a subtle deep sound of a beating kettledrum. As of late, the sound has been growing louder with increased tempo, building up into what I now discern will climax soon with a crescendo that will unleash unheard of calamities through God's imminent worldwide judgments as spelled out in the Bible Book of Revelation, Chapters 6, 8, 9, 11:15-19, and 16. I now understand that this increased beating drum sound within my spirit lines up with Holy Spirit's promptings to format and post these graphs with its Sovereign declaration to the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth as She now faces the end of this age.

I would like to once again thank Bill Somers for his faithfulness when called by Lord Jesus to serve by beautifully formatting the graphs and posting them with their links for the Lord's Church. His willingness to participate in this call has been a great blessing to me and to the Church. (Thank you, Bill, and God richly bless you.)

I would also like to thank those Saints who assisted me with the proper Hebrew and Spanish translations. (Thank you so very much, Beloved, and God bless you.)

Finally, and most significantly: your focus should remain on the message as declared above the cross of our Holy Savior and Lord, Jesus Christ, and on the Word of God not on the messenger.

God bless you.

Contentment With God
David Scudder

Earlier articles:

Contentment with God (Pt.3 To the Church of Laodicea.)

Having wrote the last two articles in concern about the effects of the Materialistic world on the Western Church, I am finding it necessary to now approach the other side of the issue. Poverty is not virtuous.

I know that after reading my other articles, it might seem I am in love with having nothing. Hardly. My heart is to not identify with riches or a consumer based life, but with obedience to Christ in our possessions. I actually look at the incredible bounty of riches in awe of Gods faithfulness. As long as we possess our possessions, and not the other way around, I find them a blessing. And I find that poverty can be a blessing if in it, you are thankful. But by no means does poverty make us "Godly". It is just a condition of finances which gives us an opportunity to display a godly contentment or an ungodly enviousness.

The best way to nail any sin to the cross is to walk in the exact opposite of that sin. If you are rich, and your possessions possess you, give them away. i.e. rich young ruler.

If you are without, and find yourself bitter and envious of others who have more, do the exact opposite. Give what little you have away, and start thanking God for His mighty love and faithfulness. (Giving your material blessings away is as important for the poor as well as the rich. It breaks the hold of envy over us.)

One of the great saints living today that I will leave unnamed due to his desire for such, is a man who while a multi millionaire gave away everything to follow after Christ. Since doing so, he now has 7 yachts (He might have even more since I have not seen him for awhile. God keeps on blessing his life with more possessions because none of them have a hold on his life) that he uses to distribute food around the world while also preaching to the recipients. One of his yachts goes back and forth from Russia taking the Jewish people to Israel. The whole time they are on their way to Israel they hear the gospel.

My former pastor went on a trip with him and noticed he slept on the floor. So Rob went out and bought him a mattress. Next time he sees him, he is still sleeping on the floor. Why? Because whenever he sees a need, he gives what he has away to someone so that the love of Christ is displayed. It also reminds him never to be enslaved to riches again. Could I do this? Heavens, no! (I write these articles for me too.) By his sleeping on the floor, it keeps him centered and it keeps him from ever going back to slavery to riches. Therefore his riches are not a stone of offense in his life sinking him down to his past.

Not everyone has to do this. For some who have a poverty mentality, it would be good to sleep on a first class mattress and allow for some joyful blessings into their lives. Those types believe it is sin to enjoy the good things in life. (Modern Asceticism.) They flagellate themselves in an attempt to rid themselves of something only God can deal with. Our flesh.

When you get the chance, study I Tim.6. Here Paul deals with the slave and the rich. The servant and the master. Look at the whole chapter in context. It is summed up in vs 6. But godliness with contentment is great gain.

Council of the Lord

Jill Austin

Standing in the Council of the Lord to Know the Times and the Seasons

Jeremiah 23:16, 18, 22 - This is what the LORD Almighty says: 'Do not listen to what the prophets are prophesying to you; they fill you with false hopes. They speak visions from their own minds, not from the mouth of the LORD... but which of them has stood in the council of the LORD to see or to hear his word? Who has listened and heard his word ... but if they had stood in my council, they would have proclaimed my words to my people and would have turned them from their evil ways and from their evil deeds.'

Since 9-11 we are dealing with the fear that at any moment another city in America, or maybe our city, could have limited nuclear or biological or chemical warfare. Do you ever wonder what buses are safe for your children to ride, which malls to shop at, which airplanes to take or even if it's safe to open your mail? It's essential that we hear God in these perilous times.

In addition to terrorism, there is renewed fear of financial shaking, a stock market collapse, unemployment, fuel shortages and the terrible concerns of seeing our sons and daughters on the front lines of a raging war. It is feasible that in the next decade America could move into martial law, one world government, one world religion, and one world financial systems. We might trade our personal and national freedoms for global peace as the fear of evil alliances and the anti-Christ loom in the future.

When another city in America is attacked - and it surely will be - great fear will sweep our nation again. It's no longer business as usual and we are moving into a season of war. It will be the best of times and the worst of times as we move closer to the end of time. Judgments are coming to the nations as the Lord shakes everything that hinders love for Him. It will be the greatest harvest of souls, accompanied with signs and wonders, yet it will be the greatest time of catastrophic bloodshed and loss.

Beloved, it is not enough to just be on the prophetic emails lists, to regurgitate other prophet's words, and to be an echo - not a voice. Rather than just relying on gleaning information from newspapers, God wants you to be able to turn to Him to know what is going on in the world! We must be a people who stand in the counsels of the Lord, who know the hour and the season that we live in, and prophecy the true word of the Lord!

Prayer: Lord, make me an Issachar prophet who would know the hour and the seasons that we live in! I don't want to have to read a newspaper to know what is going on, I want to hear You, know You, and declare Your heart to Your people.

What are you trying to tell me Lord?

For those of My faithful ones who have given up all for Me, for those who have not erred in their vision of their High Calling in Me, I HAVE A CORNUCOPIA OF BLESSINGS IN STORE FOR THEM! Do not think I have not seen the cost; the loss of friends and in some cases family? The loss of many comforts, yea some have even lost their homes. You have laid these all aside for you counted Me as more precious.

You have been tried and tested in the furnace of affliction; the motives of your hearts have been exposed. Those who have let Me set aright that which was in error can now expect a CORNUCOPIA of blessings. You have done the death and dying to self well, and now you can receive My blessings, which accompanies the resurrected life in My Son.

You have proved yourselves good stewards of all I have placed in your heart. You have proved yourselves good stewards of MY HEART. It is now My delight to pour out upon you My blessings. Cry out to Me for a heart to receive all I have for you, for you have been in a season of lack for so long that you cannot perceive of abundance any longer.

You will be a conduit of My blessings, both the spiritual and in the natural. How else will the world see you as My favored ones, My Beloved? You will walk in the blessings of Abraham for you have offered up your Isaacs for Me. Much dross has been consumed upon My altar of fire and now I am ready to send you forth, a people called by My Name.

It is My great delight My Beloved to shower blessings of abundance upon you. You will go forth and minister to the spiritual AND NATURAL NEEDS of the harvest. I AM the creator of the spiritual (unseen) realm as well as of the natural (seen) realm and IT IS MY PLEASURE TO PROVIDE FOR THE LACK IN THE WORLD IN BOTH THESE REALMS. All of My creation will see My goodness, My benevolent mighty hand to a lost and dying world. I will use this as a tool to redeem back to Myself all that rightfully belongs to Me until all is under the rulership of My Son, as ordained since before the beginning of time.

Open your hearts and minds to receive all that I have for you in this hour and I will pour out BOTH NATURAL AND SPIRITUAL BLESSINGS IN ABUNDANCE, SAITH THE LORD MOST HIGH, THAT I MAY BE GLORIFIED UPON THE FACE OF THE EARTH.

Coming Storm

Jim Clapper

(jclapper@techteam.com)

Do not be concerned about the storm that is at hand. I am able to calm the storm. Keep your eyes on Me and you will not be washed away. Hear My voice and pay heed to My word. Seek Me and obey and all will be made well.

I desire a people that will follow Me in spite of their circumstances, not just because of them. I desire a people that will serve Me in season and out. Heed My word, I know how to take care of that which is Mine. Though this world may cause you trouble, pay it no heed for it troubled those that have gone before you and will always seek to trouble those that love Me, but I am greater than this world and know what you have need of.

Hear Me, My people, I desire you to come unto Me, learn of Me and do My will. Allow Me to perform the work I would do in you. Do not expect the world to rejoice over the change that I will make in you as it will not be pleased, but know that you are Mine and I am pleased in your obedience to Me. I desire My people to serve Me out of love for Me; do not be afraid to come to Me for I love you and want what is best for you at all times. You are precious to Me.

Though this world may despise you and use you, I am able to sustain you and lead you through it. Trust in Me, not your circumstances. Hear My voice and heed the call I have placed upon you. I have paid the price for you. I will lead you in the path you are to take, but you must trust Me. Open yourself to Me and receive that which I have for you. See the good things I give to those that love Me and obey My commands. Let My Spirit wash over you and renew you.

Do not fear this world for it no longer has power over you. You are in this world for a short time. Use that time in My service. Turn your cares from the problems of this world into caring for the things I have given you and placed in your trust.

Convergence of the Ages
Jim Goll

The Convergence of the Ages: "When Jesus Serves the Best for Last"

1. Convergence Defined
The Holy Spirit is highlighting the word "Converge" in these days. It will be a current word that will appear in both the business community and the church world. It is a Kingdom word for our times. It is the time of the Divine Convergence! It is the bringing together of different components to where the sum of the parts brought together is greater in value than as separate individual pieces or perspectives.

Converge: to bend, incline; to move toward one point together; to come together and unite in interest or focus.

Convergence: to act of moving toward union; movement of two eyes resulting in impingement of a point on corresponding retinal areas.

The are three stages to this: 1) Inflow 2) Convergence and 3) Outflow. The Holy Spirit orchestrates a flow of different gifts and views flowing towards a common goal. Then a convergence occurs where the elements are brought into focus and purpose. After this transpires, there is often a period of shifting again where the control issue is tested and parts are disassembled for the divine purposes of scattering the seed and creating an outflow of the resources.

2. The New Wine Will Be Found In The Cluster
A fresh understanding of covenant relationships and community will be birthed as this generation arises out of self-centered individualistic ministry and seeks the common good of the Body of Christ. Divine Alliances will be formed resulting in greater progress being accomplished. The fresh work of the Holy Spirit will occur as the "cluster anointing" comes to pass.

Isaiah 65:8 - Thus says the Lord, "As the new wine is found in the cluster - and one says, 'Do not destroy it for there is benefit in it.'"

3. Ten Characteristics of the Coming Prophetic Convergence
1) Joining and Honoring the Generations
The wisdom of the older, the resources of the middle, and the zeal of the younger cooperating together.

2) Partnering of the Genders with Ethnic Diversity
Men and women and people of all backgrounds leading and ministering together.

3) Developing Character and Wisdom to Carry the Gift
The fruit, wisdom and gifts of the Spirit all working together.

4) Cultivating God's Heart for Israel and the Nations
Keeping the Apple of God's Eye Central in our Hearts and Prophetic Perspective

5) Valuing Team Ministry and Community
Relational not just functional - All 5-Fold Gifts Serving One Another!

6) Embracing the Variety of Prophetic Expressions
The Seer and the Prophet; The Congregation and the Market Place; The Church Gathered and the Church Scattered.

7) Merging the Prophetic and Intercessory Streams
Calling forth the Purposes of God by Praying the Prophetic Promises into Being!

8) Ushering in God's Presence through Prophetic Worship and the Arts
Modeling Creative Displays of Lavish Affection to Jesus - the lover of our Soul.

9) Activating the Unique Prophetic Grace of Each Believer
Stirring up the Prophetic Gift to Fulfill our Part of Jesus' Great Commission.

10) Cultivating God's Heart of Justice for the Poor
Channeling Marketplace Resources towards Orphans, Widows and the Oppressed.

4. Things to Come - Look For These Signs

- The merging of the divergent streams of authentic faith and the manifested presence to create the next wave of creative miracles.
- Living the Book of James - where works match our faith.
- The Battle of the Blue and the Grey - when eventually the Hebraic heart wins out over the Greek mind set in the church world and truly the School of the Spirit and the Word work together.
- When the Healing Streams of scientific research, nutritional components, physical exercise, sabbatical rest and healing gifts flow together so a people can get healed and stay healed!
- The time when the Marketplace Sphere, the Artisan Influence and the Congregational ingrown Church get over being infatuated with themselves and admit, and function like, we need one another.
- When we love not our lives unto death and overcome evil one in our day. When we realize we have a license from God to die to self and live unto God.
- When God again fills His House as in 2 Chronicles 5:11-14 when the Levites were in place and the revelation is decreed, "The Lord is good and His loving kindness is everlasting."
- When the Shadow of the Almighty falls in that hour and the Favor of the Lord is Released!

Created Things

Chris Mahon

Hebrews 12.26,27 “At that time His voice shook the earth, but now He has promised, ‘Once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heavens. The words ‘once more’ indicate the removing of what can be shaken – that is, created things – so that what cannot be shaken may remain.” (NIV)

Besides being the year of the door, 2004 is the year of the ‘jackhammer’. In the spirit I saw a large jackhammer coming down from heaven and at the same time I saw before me what appeared to be a massive piece of concrete that was: immovable, indestructible and permanent. As I watched, the jackhammer touched the concrete and in a brief moment the concrete began to heave, crumble and disintegrate. Then I heard this word from the Lord as I gazed in the Spirit at what just happened. ‘That which has been created by men will be destroyed by God and that which has been birthed by the Spirit will remain’.

Some of the most seemingly immovable, indestructible and permanent structures of the church will begin to crumble this year; programs and institutions that survived in the past will pass away in an instant. There will be bewilderment and pause for a moment but then what has been birthed by the Spirit will become apparent.

Crossing Over

Sandy Warner

May 8, 2004
[Highlighting Prophetic Time Table]

NOTE: We are on the threshold of crossing over into our promises. The intercessory priests have been standing in the river Jordan forming a shield against the demonic floods for all to crossover safely into their land of promise. They have been doing this for several years, gathering strength in numbers and unity and so that the tide is turning and the floods are rolling back. With the crossing over of so many fatherly mantles this last year (like Kenneth Hagin, etc) this has been our sign that it is now approaching the time to cross over.

HEARD [2/16/04]: Go down to the cross and follow Me team.

VISION: I saw Jesus take His cross down to the river.
HEARD: Follow Him across the river. Unity. Faith. That's one of My most favorite parts. The flood rolled back. Headed for Gilgal. Repent.

NOTE: For further information on Gilgal, click on the button called, "Prophetic Theme Files" at my website. There is a large file titled, "Preparation for Glory: Circumcision." [www.thequickenedword.com]

HEARD [1/05/04]: It's appropriate, the door. Released, the open door. Chains, broken, gone. Follow the plan inscribed in your heart. To be with Me.

HEARD: I AM also talking about the Jordan river. About to cross over on dry land. Things that they stood for. They feel quite small.

VISION: I saw a small figure standing and holding a rod that stood on the ground then went up passed his shoulders. Behind him was a flood of waters that were being held back and they were towering above his shoulders.

Then ye shall let your children know, saying, Israel came over this Jordan on dry land. For the LORD your God dried up the waters of Jordan from before you, until ye were passed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red sea, which he dried up from before us, until we were gone over: That all the people of the earth might know the hand of the LORD, that it is mighty: that ye might fear the LORD your God for ever. (Joshua 4: 21-24)

HEARD: Soon they will pass. Everyone wants to know what it means. Surgery.

QUOTE FROM ARTICLE: HANGING IN THE BALANCE
4/23/99

"… We are now standing at the thresholds of history, ready to cross over the river Jordan into the land of new beginnings. Like the standard of righteousness the Lord raises when the enemy comes in like a flood, the priests go before the people and stand in the gap against this flood. (Isaiah 59:19) Together the priests stand united, forming a bridge and making a safe place for all to cross over on dry ground. When they take their place, the waters of Jordan roll all the way back to Adam. (Joshua 3:16, 17) We are crossing over into a new land where all that Adam lost will be restored to us. This is no small bridge…"

QUOTE FROM ARTICLE: SAFE PASSAGE TO GILGAL
1/4/00

"… [At Gilgal, we will experience:
1. The circumcision of the flesh of the spiritual children, as bought and paid for by Christ Jesus. (Josh 5:7 & Col 2: 11-15)
2. Abiding until all recover. (Joshua 5:8)
3. The rolling away of the shame and guilt caused by generational and personal sins —and the rolling away of the reproach and condemnation from our enemies. (Josh 5:9)
4. Finishing the last of the old bread. Old prophesies of God's future promises will have become old bread. God's children will have become manifest to the world, and will be walking in signs and wonders… as He rains His Spirit upon all flesh. (Josh 5:12, Joel 2:28, Rom 8:18,19)
5. New promises, new food in a new land will be gathered and eaten.
6. Preparations for war - moving out to encircle Jericho, and the returning to Gilgal each day. (Josh 6:11)
7. The first conquest in warfare as the walls of Jericho fall and a return to Gilgal.
8. Gilgal is the headquarters for war (Josh 9:3, 10:6, 10:15, 14:6) until the move to Shiloh (Josh 18:1)

QUOTE BOB JONES
www.bobjones.org

"…We are getting ready to cross Jordan. I don't know if you know it or not, but the Jordan baptism means the baptism of repentance. We are going to cross Jordan and that means death to self. The next step is Gilgal. Rolling away the sins of our past. Circumcision of mind, joined again with Him. Circumcised to righteousness..."

UPDATE CONFIRMATION: I noticed that Elijah List posted a Word from Chuck Pierce on 3/19/04 called Crossing Over.

CONCLUSION
{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER: CROSSING OVER
The demonic floods have risen in the lives of My people. These have broken through boundaries like a swelling river of mud. Some of My people have fled the demonic raging, some have become engulfed and carried away, and some have stood and taken the brunt of the onslaught. It is enough says the Lord.

Even now, I AM calling the remaining priests to take their rightful intercessory place for the safety of their loved ones and STAND. I AM not calling you to aggression, I AM calling you to stand and believe. In unity, you shall stand in faith against these floods and see My mighty blast of wind blow back these demonic floods.

In one massive unit across the great divide, I will bring My people safely to the other side. As My people walk through this great Jordan porthole of time, I will reveal to them their heritage which has been covered by the floods. This inheritance has not been fully known since the day of Adam.

So do not grow faint in your journeys, dear ones. I have promised you new beginnings. I will renew your hope and your calling. I will open your eyes to witness your God of miracles Who will roll back the floods on your behalf. Yield all to Me and I will bring you safely across to the other side.

Josh 3:14-16 NKJV
So it was, when the people set out from their camp to cross over the Jordan, with the priests bearing the ark of the covenant before the people, and as those who bore the ark came to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests who bore the ark dipped in the edge of the water (for the Jordan overflows all its banks during the whole time of harvest), that the waters which came down from upstream stood still, and rose in a heap very far away at Adam…

In And Through The Fire
Sandy Warner

May 3, 2004
In the book of Daniel, when Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego were in the fiery furnace, I did not forsake them. I was so close that not even the smell of smoke tainted their clothing. When the fire purifies the silver, the Goldsmith never leaves the process. He sits before the fire keeping careful watch until He sees His reflection in the shining pool of precious metal. When it is heated to the exact temperature, His reflection shines and then He draws it out.

The firing of precious metal is a process of separation. The dross separates and comes to the surface, and that which remains is pure and precious. This is the hour of the great harvest, when wheat and tares are separated, good is separated from evil, precious metal from dross … all are separated for My glory.

When you see the dross ooze out of the pores of your heart, do not run away from Me! When you witness the weeds in your soul coming into fruition, cry out to Me for harvest. I will send My angels to pluck out by the roots and separate that which does not belong to Me. Forever it will be uprooted to never torment you again!

You are the harvest of many generations of seeds. All that you suffer is coming to fruition from much more than your own life. So, dear ones, fulfill your intercessory roles and cry out to your Master Goldsmith, your Father Husbandman and allow Me to separate the pure from the impure and bring My glorious reflection into all that you are. This is not a work of your flesh, but it is only through your yielding and relying upon Me that this glory can come to pass in your life. You think that you have failed Me, but nothing could be further from the truth. It is in this very hour as you cry out to Me - in your deepest weakness and inability - that I shine the most in your life.

Mal 3:2-3 NKJV
But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire and like launderers' soap. He will sit as a refiner and a purifier of silver; He will purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer to the LORD an offering in righteousness.

Lay Low In My River

Sandy Warner

May 7, 2004
The Presence of My Spirit comes upon those who are lowly in heart. They seek Me without an agenda. They have confessed and left their sins behind. They continue to walk in the fear of their Lord, lest they be cut off and left in the dark.

Watch the flow of My river and see that it touches the lowly and downcast. Those who walk in pride, who judge others and worse yet, who judge the river of God will miss My refreshing touch. Those who scorn the lowly as they leap into My river, I too will scorn. Confess your sins and prepare your heart to experience My river. Remember My river flows and moves, be willing to travel to get to the river, then don't hold yourself back from its flow. Jump in, dear one, jump in.

Acts 3:19 NKJV
Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord…

Ps 36:7-10 NKJV
How precious is Your lovingkindness, O God! Therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of Your wings. They are abundantly satisfied with the fullness of Your house, and You give them drink from the river of Your pleasures. For with You is the fountain of life; In Your light we see light. Oh, continue Your lovingkindness to those who know You, and Your righteousness to the upright in heart.

Crossing Over

This is a season of crossing over for those that have stood on My word believing that all that I have spoken to their hearts would be fulfilled. There has been what seems a long season of trying and testing the hearts of My people. They have believed My word to them regardless of the fact that their circumstances looked impossible. But, I am the God of the impossible and in this season of crossing over I will manifest Myself in impossible circumstances and situations.

The carnal mind is enmity against Me for I do not manifest Myself through knowledge but I manifest Myself through the realm of the unseen. And during this time of waiting for the fulfillment of the promises often My own have tried to discern with their minds how I would do all that I had promised to them and they will be surprised and in awe of how I will deliver the promises that I have made. The logical mind can never discern the wondrous ways in which I work.

I am about to manifest Myself in what looked like hopeless situations and the hearts of My people will soar as I rescue them from what seemed like that which had come to destroy and devastate their lives. Ah this is the season of crossing over, saith the Lord God.

Crusades

Victoria Boyson

"The President, the Crusades, and the War on Terror"

December 18, 2004

Recently, the Lord has been reminding me of the crusades (1099-1300 AD), in which our Christian forefathers warred against the Muslims and Jews, in the name of the church, to take control of the Holy Sepulcher and Jerusalem. Everywhere I went I would see or hear something about the crusades.

Since my previous word to you about the dream I had of a possible attack on our president, I have been seeking the Lord for wisdom. So many of you have been so faithful to respond to this word with loving prayer for our beloved president. I thank you for your response in faithfulness to him; may God richly bless you.

As I became more and more intrigued by the history of the crusades, I began to feel there was a connection between the crusades and my dream about the president and the war on terror. This was primarily because we had been attacked by Muslims on 9/11 and Christians had attacked Muslims during the crusades.

As the Lord continued to speak to me about the connection between them, I came across Rick Joyner's book, "Epic Battle of the Last Days."
In it, Rick gives a fairly detailed description of some of the events that happened during the crusades. He tells an account of the crusaders, fighting in the name of our Savior, taking the holy city of Jerusalem on January 13th of 1099 with an army of 600,000 soldiers.

WE MUST REPENT AND TURN THE TIDE

As the holy city fell into the hands of the crusaders, the Muslims and Jews residing in the city sought amnesty under the Christian banner, which had been promised to them. As they were surrounded by the crusaders, the Muslims and Jews were slaughtered by them. Many of them fled to the synagogue of the city for refuge, but the crusaders then set fire to it, killing everyone inside.

When I read this account of the massacre of Muslims and Jews, in my mind I saw the Twin Towers ablaze in New York City -- I saw the two incidents as being connected. I felt the Lord say, "What men reap they will sow!" In the last days, all that has been sown in the name of Christ, will be reaped.

As the church of Christ, we are to reveal salvation to the world! However, to the Muslims of Jerusalem in the aforementioned account, we were not salvation, but destruction. We did not sow salvation, but destruction. We must end the cycle of destruction by repenting for the sins of our forefathers. We must repent of it and turn the tide; we must become the ambassadors of salvation to the world.

THE IMPORTANCE OF PRAYING FOR OUR PRESIDENT

I believe that is what President George W. Bush is doing. He has waged a war on terror to deliver those caught in its grip. His goal is not to take over Iraq and declare it a province of the United States, but to liberate it, stabilize it, and gradually pull out, allowing them to stand on their own. This was his established goal.

The media has really been horrible in its depiction of the war on terror. But, if you talk to the service men over there, they tell a different story. They tell us that good has been done and the majority of the Iraqis see the U.S. as its deliverer. Most of them see President Bush as the "good guy" and they are thankful to him and us for our sacrifice.

I believe that what was tragically committed against the Muslims in 1099 and throughout history by the church has been, to a degree, "undone" by the actions of our president in the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan. His actions there are breaking strongholds over that region that will have an eternal effect.

By doing this, the president has become a huge target for the enemy. This is why our prayers for him are so important!

GOD IS BREAKING STRONGHOLDS!

After the recent elections, there was a great spiritual backlash against him and his administration; the enemy is terrified of George W. Bush and will do anything to keep him from completing his task in Iraq and with the Muslims. Satan is terrified and knows that after centuries of sowing hatred and divisions between Christians and Muslims, he is now actually losing his grip on their hearts and minds.

Many of them are beginning to see clearly the real reason for Christ's coming: to save, not to destroy. God is breaking strongholds of centuries of demonic occupation over that region and the light of Christ is beginning to shine through. Hallelujah!

All of these occurrences are happening because the church is realizing its true calling of love and prayer -- it is determined to turn the tide. However, the focus of the enemy's assault is not necessarily on the body of Christ at large, but primarily is being focused on one man: George W. Bush. The enemy knows if he can take him out, he may stop the current progress of the kingdom of Light, or at least slow it down.

THE PRESIDENT, THE CRUSADES, & THE WAR ON TERROR CONNECTION

So, we come to the connection between the crusades and President Bush.

You and I did not attack the Muslims -- we did not wheel the swords or start the fires, but our spiritual ancestors did, and if these sins are not repented of, we will be affected by them. Our spiritual forefather sowed seeds of destruction in the lives of the Muslims and Jews, thereby giving hell access to drive a wedge between Christians and the Muslims and Jews.

A stronghold was created and it must come down, and we, the church, are the only ones who can accomplish this task. We must humble ourselves and repent for the sins or our spiritual forefathers. We must soberly and sincerely disarm the powers of darkness with the powers of forgiveness, repentance, and humility. This is not the time for excuses or pride, but humility and love.

We are not at war against the Muslims, but our battle is with the powers of darkness that hold them in bondage. Our weapons are not the weapons of our enemy, but they are infinitely superior; they are the weapons of repentance, forgiveness, and mercy.

The war in Iraq needs to come to an end, but we cannot pull out prematurely or we will just have to go back again in another ten years. Our work there must be completed soon and the strongholds of that region broken!

THE "TUG-O-WAR" IN THE SPIRIT REALM MUST STOP

Of course, darkness and light are not represented by religious stance. Many professing Christians have been deceived and are actually praying and prophesying against the president and the war in Iraq. The power of these words and prayers act as curses and, combined with the curses of others, be they Muslim extremists, or Satanists, make up a great deal of the battle we face in the supernatural realm.

As both sides of this battle curse or pray for the president, a sort of "tug-o-war" affect is created in the supernatural realm. Our prayers are far more effective than the enemy's, and as we prevail in prayer, we see a great victory in the natural, but as we back off our prayer vigil, the enemy advances.

This tug-o-war in the spirit realm must stop; we must have a decisive victory -- for the Iraqis as well as our beloved President.

Many things are hidden in the natural that must come to light. But first we must uncover the sins that are still active in the spirit realm, that have not been uncovered and repented of.

This can only be done through humility. If we repent for the sins of our spiritual forefathers, we will see a great stronghold come down. But we must not stop there...we must also truly forgive the Muslim nation as a whole for their acts of terror against us, in the past and the present. Not that we do not hold our attackers accountable, but through the power of forgiveness we can break the curse that hangs over them.

HOW WE CAN DEFEAT THE WAR OF DESTRUCTION AND OPEN THE WAY TO SALVATION

The war of destruction must stop and it must end by our act of humility and mercy. So, dear saints, what I am asking you to do is:

1. Repent for the sins of Christians against Muslims.

2. Forgive the Muslims for their sins against us, past and present.

3. Repent on behalf of Americans who are speaking against our president.

4. Target the words of accusation and condemnation against our president, the war on terror, this nation, and the church that have been released into the spirit realm. Rebuke those words and strip them of their power to be affective. Through your prayers and blessings, build a wall of protection around the President, his staff, the White House, America, our soldiers in Iraq, and Afghanistan and the people of that region.

Thank you church, God is proud of you -- you are His beloved bride, His army of love, His soldiers of Light. May God bless your efforts to target the enemy and tear down the strongholds of darkness.

Capturing The Airwaves
Patricia King

"God Wants us to Re-Capture the Airwaves" plus Breakthrough and Break Out!

by Patricia King (Pat Coking) February 2004

The Lord is going to launch many of His people into strategic positions that will capture the airwaves. The influence of television, movies, radio and other forms of visual media have often been used by the enemy to poison and pervert the mindsets of society. This is going to increase and the enemy has a plan to raise the level of demonic influence through the airwaves. The airwaves must be contended for. They belong to the Lord and He desires to use them as one of His most valuable tools during the season of harvest.

Many Christians will be called to take great steps of faith in the coming days. Some will be called to lay some of their ministry mandates down in order to enter these new avenues of Kingdom influence. The battle will be great and many intercessors and financial supporters will be called to the fight. Entire prayer movements will be raised up specifically to birth the new level of anointing that will be released through the airwaves as a righteous standard. This coming move that will release the army of God's "air traffic controllers" will be a move of great camaraderie amongst believers. The media industry that is propelled by the world system is governed by a predominant self-exalting and idolatrous spirit that is anchored in greed and desire for fame. God's company of believers will move in an opposite spirit - one of humility and servanthood - those who are jealous for the glory of God.

There will be a demonstration of team amongst those who are called to partner in this season of contending for the air waves. Many will sacrifice much in order to see a historical breakthrough at this time. A further thrust of believers will be launched to conquer the airwaves and to influence media around the time when Mel Gibson's movie, The Passion of Christ launches in the theatres.

Breakthrough and Break Out!
Patricia King (Pat Coking)

February 2004

The Lord is calling His people to experience great breakthrough in the coming months. There will be increased pressures and resistance in the spirit realm and natural circumstances will press hard against many...BUT, the Lord will give GREAT VICTORIES. He is taking His people to another level of experiential victory.

The Word of God will carry a sharpened edge on it for those who will meditate on the Word and stand on its authority. All the promises of God are yeah and amen to His people. Days of breakthrough and breakout await those who will war with the promises of God. Tenacity is a value the Holy Spirit will call for amongst the people of God in these coming months. Contend for the breakthroughs you need. Do not grow weary in the battle. Stand on the Word and you will breakout with the testimony of the Lord on every side. Financial miracles in particular will be awaiting those who fight the good fight.

"And breath entered them, they came to life, stood up on their feet - an exceedingly great army"
Ezekiel 37:10

Why does God ask a question that only He can answer? When God asked Ezekiel whether those dry bones could live He was underlining how impossible it was without His supernatural intervention - the breath of God.

I have been meditating on a couple chapters in Ezekiel over the last couple of months. I began to see some parallels between the process of the Church coming together in unity in the city and the promises in Ezekiel 36 & 37.

In chapter 36 the Lord promises Israel deliverance from captivity, idolatry and desolation. He promises to settle them in their own land and bring restoration. He makes it clear it's for His sake not theirs. Then chapter 37 is the famous picture of the valley of dry bones. God prophesies His promises about the land being restored to them then He shows Him His plan for the dry bones? He makes a connection between the land being restored and ruins rebuilt with a New Man arising full of life and breathe!

Have you ever looked at the corporate Church in your city and it seemed like a pile of dry bones! We have been on a journey the last several years, pursuing Jesus and unity for His purposes. We are in the process of God bringing the New Man, His Body, His Bride into unity and identity so He can fulfill His purposes and promises on the earth for His glory.

It's interesting in that passage that the Lord asks the question "can these bones live?" What a challenge for hope! God is connecting His Body. Have you heard the "rattling" as bones have begun to come together? Then the ligaments, (connective points) and muscle (movement) are added? Then of course the skin, the protective covering is added. But still the Lord comments that "there is no breath" in the New Man, he is just laying there.

But He promised Ezekiel that there WOULD be breath! His promise to us is that He will breathe on this New Man and when He does He declares in verse 10 that this New Man will "live, stand upon their feet and become an exceedingly great army". Amen! That's good news!

In many cities a corporate expression of the Body has been formed. But unity isn't the goal, being connected isn't the point. It's being in unity and then allowing God to breathe on us! It's His breathe that brings life!

The final verse makes the Lord's motivation clear: "I will put My Spirit in you and you shall live and I will place you in your own land. Then you shall know that I the Lord have spoken it and performed it says the Lord"

This is ALL about His glory and His name sake. He has an inheritance in our cities!

Revival and transformation will never be accomplished with clever methods or strategies. We need His Spirit to breathe on us. Without the breath of God we will be a connected Body maybe even moving a bit but we cannot give life to our cities if we haven't had God "breathe" on His Church.

The Lord is building His house in cities on the earth. Revival is imminent and transformation a real hope. But He will do it His way, in His timing and according to His agenda.

People are beginning to cry out for God to breathe on their congregations and citywide efforts. There is a turning from methodology to seeking His presence. We are becoming more desperate for Jesus and the life He brings.

May the Holy Spirit breathe on you again in a fresh way, on your life, your family, your ministry. May He breathe fresh Life into you!

Changing The Guard
Bill Burns

I am changing the guard, says the Lord. The watchman's eyes have grown dim, and many can only see the darkness of these times. But I say, "Arise, shine; for your light has come! And the glory of the Lord is risen upon you. For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and deep darkness the people; but the Lord will arise over you, and His gory will be seen upon you. The Gentiles shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising." (Isaiah 60:1-3)
You are children of light, My people. Do not dwell on the darkness that prevails in the land. "For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of the light." (Ephesians 5:8)

The watchman's eyes have grown weary of the sin in the land, and so they prophesy judgment. But, I say, "Where sin abounded, grace abounded much more." (Romans 5:20) These are the days of great opportunity to bring in the harvest. It is true that judgment must come, but I say: "In that day the Branch of the Lord shall be beautiful and glorious; and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and appealing for those of Israel who have escaped. And it shall come to pass that he who is left in Zion and he who remains in Jerusalem will be called holy -- everyone who is recorded among the living in Jerusalem. When the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and purged the blood of Jerusalem from her midst, by the spirit of judgment and the spirit of burning, then the Lord will create above every dwelling place of Mount Zion, and above her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day and the shining of a flaming fire by night. For over all the glory there will be a covering. And there will be a tabernacle for shade in the daytime from the heat, for a place of refuge, and for a shelter from storm and rain." (Isaiah 4:2-6)

Can you see, My children, that my judgment is just, and it produces My glory? And, My glory establishes the safe habitation of My presence. So, do not fret when those who are weary declare judgment from the bitterness of their own soul.

I am raising up a new order in these days, says the Lord. These young eagles will not declare that which establishes a curse in the land. They will declare the kingdom of God is at hand. They will reveal the light and the glory of this day. These are the coming ones -- the Elijah's of this Day. These are those who are filled with the Spirit of the Living Christ who will say, "The Spirit and the bride say, 'Come!' And let him who hears say, 'Come!' And let him who thirsts come. And whoever desires, let him take the water of life freely." (Revelation 22:17)

These will not be prophets of doom and gloom, for their hope is in Jesus Christ, the Son of the Almighty God. These have vision of the coming Kingdom, and their message is one of victory! These are those who follow the Lamb wherever He leads them, and they will reveal the glory of the times and seasons in which you live. Rejoice, My people, and listen for a new proclamation in the land -- one of grace and hope, for the kingdoms of this world are about to become the kingdom of your Lord and of His Christ!

I will bring amazing clarity if you will only rise above the emotional intensity of your circumstances into the spiritual reality of My plans and purposes, says the Lord. Do not be afraid of the changes that are coming forth at this time. Have you forgotten that all things work together for good for those who love Me and are called according to My purposes? Compassion - The Jesus Response

Compassion - The Jesus Response

"The Lord is gracious and full of compassion." Psalm 111:4

New Testament Compassion

4697 - splagchnizomai - splangkh-nid-zom-ahee mid voice from 4698; to have the bowels yearn; ie. Fig feel sympathy, to pity - have (be moved with) compassion

4698 - splagchnon - splangkh-non probl. Strengthened from spen (the spleen); an intenstine (plure); fig pity or sympathy - bowels, inward affection + tender mercy

I believe with all my heart that Christ's compassion is a key to unlock the end-time harvest! The Lord is releasing His compassion to His Bride and through His Bride, from which many powerful miracles will flow to the glory of His name. But just what is compassion? Is it love? Yes, it is love but one can love a person or group of people, without necessarily taking any action on their behalf. Compassion is God's love in action on behalf of the poor, the suffering, the weak, and the afflicted.

Compassion - What Is It?

Compassion may be described as God's deepest yearnings for the poor and the afflicted and, flowing from these yearnings, compassion is the release of God's power to transform lives and situations that look otherwise impossible to change. God's compassion is love and truth in action. Passivity has no place in compassion. Compassion gives all for the sake of another. It has no thought of self-interest, but is completely servant-hearted. Compassion is stronger than sympathy (a feeling of pity or sorrow for others) and more enduring than empathy (a deeper place of identification, where we share and understand the feelings and/or pain of another person).

As we engage our hearts with the needs of others, Jesus marries us to His heartbeat, and our human sympathetic and empathetic responses to the poor and afflicted prepare a landing strip in our hearts for God's compassion to flow. Yet, when we flow in God's compassion, it is much more than an emotional response. If we were to respond to situations only in our emotions, we would quickly become overwhelmed and exhausted. Rather God calls us to a deeper place of identification and asks us to choose to open our hearts and engage in His compassion, which breaks the chains of injustice and bondage. God's compassion is unending.

Compassion Is A Spiritual Reality That Flows From The Father Heart Of God

Jesus said that streams of living water will flow within us (John 7:37-39). In like manner, compassion is an eternal, never-ending flow from Father. We don't need to strive to produce compassion, we simply flow in it by faith. Whilst compassion is not firstly an intellectual response, the Lord will increasingly use the intellect of many Kingdom market place entrepreneurs and philanthropists and anoint them with His compassion to release strategy and resource in, to, and through compassion-based ministries.

Endurance - Gethsemane's Gift To Jesus From Father

It would be wrong not to acknowledge the costliness of compassion. When we look upon heart breaking circumstances, we cannot sustain ourselves in such situations without the gift of endurance from Father. When Jesus faced Gethsemane, Father God released a most beautiful gift to enable his son to be obedient, even unto death. Father released the gift of endurance, which enabled Jesus to go to the Cross and which, today, enables us to be obedient through Grace to God's will. Endurance enables us to show stamina in the face of adversity and resolve in the midst of difficult trials. If we are to move in compassion, we need to ask Father for the gift of endurance. Compassion and endurance are two most exquisite strands of God's destiny tapestry for His bride.

Jesus calls us to identify with His heart for the poor and afflicted and to pour our lives out as a love offering on their behalf. Surely, this is a precious part of the destiny of every child of God - to walk in the footsteps of our beloved Messiah, who showed compassion continually to the multitudes.

"One of His disciples, whom Jesus loved (whom He esteemed and delighted in) was reclining (next to Him) on Jesus' bosom." John 13:23

I have spoken of perilous times that are now closer than anyone can think or imagine. I have spoken to My own of cleaning their house in full repentance of what they see and choosing to walk fully in the holiness I have asked of you. Sadly, many still do not see, to these I will only say that if you could see what is 'about' to spring on the world it would shake you so, that you would be on your face before Me.

My Faithful Ones, you do see for you only long to lay your head upon My chest and listen to My heartbeat. My Beloved, even so, many of you are concerned of what will happen to you. You have been in a desperate situation and for a long period of time - emotionally, financially and even spiritually at times. You have tasted the desperation that many of My children are living in and have lived in for most of their lives. You have experienced their every heartfelt cry. You have experienced the desire to give up. You have experienced the feeling of going under. You have experienced the fear that you would miss Me or My direction. Now that you "know" of the impending events on the horizon, you wonder where does that leave you because nothing seems to be changing and the time is so short. It would appear that financially you must be doomed. It would appear that you never will be healed. It would appear to you that you are not in the geographical spot that I have ordained for you. It would appear that with precious little time remaining that My promises to you are not in place. It would appear that all might be lost for surely there is not enough time remaining for all this to come about .....BUT .... trust the I AM for truly NOTHING IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR YOUR GOD! I can tear down and I can RAISE UP all in one day! It's all in MY PLAN and you will not miss what I have called you to accomplish!

You have brought to My remembrances My many words and promises. I have seen your frustrations and I have heard every question. Beloved, I AM bound by My Word. Know this, I have been paving the way. I have been preparing you to walk the path I have destined for you. Yes, this path was prepared for you but you will never walk it alone for the I AM is ALWAYS with you and you are learning that you are My chosen vessels of light but to live in the light, you have to let go of any demands or expectations of how life 'should' be for you. LET GO! Flow with the way that your life is and how life may become. In doing this, fear and uneasiness lose their power!!!

The hand of your Almighty God has gone before you, My child. You have taken up your cross to follow Me and yes, the load has been extremely heavy but I AM your portion and your help... and yes, perilous times are coming and approaching quickly, but you are yoked to Me through all the many trials you have experienced. FEAR NOT! I AM about to manifest Myself in your life in a very big way to bring about the changes which are necessary for you and those like you to fulfill your destinies in the troubled times ahead.

For any who are called to be with you, it shall be done and I shall supply all that is needed to accomplish My will. Continue to lean on My bosom ..... continue to listen to My heartbeat... FEAR NOT for all shall be made clear in these closing days. Perilous days on the horizon? YES, but I have spoken words of life to you, words of truth, words of revelation and words of instruction. Even now, your heart cries out to Me, "Will I hear your words at this most crucial of times?" I say to you that you WILL hear My Words because you have chosen to follow Me with all that is in you. You Will hear My words and you Will see all come to pass. You will meet your Teacher in a few days hence and you will minister to many, be prepared to go! - It is all arranged. When you go to bed at night go with the knowing that when you awake all is in motion. Everything you have been shown, everything that you have waited for, everything that you have hoped for, everything that you have clung to me for happens in what now is a very short span of time. My children of faith, let your faith soar - the day of promise is nigh, continue to rest in Me and to listen to My heartbeat!

Climbing The Mountain

Robert Foster

A Dream - June2, 2004

I was in a beautiful country. I had the impression that it was Europe or Turkey. The town was simple, clean and old looking with paving stones. I had been traveling and enjoying the sights, but I knew I needed to start heading home. However, there was one thing left that I wanted to do. There was a large mountain on the edge of town that I wanted to climb. It was very tall and wide with a lot of trees and some clear patches of grass in places. I don't ever remember seeing the top of the mountain. Either it was flat or it was hidden by the clouds.

The main reason I wanted to climb the mountain was because I knew that Moses and Noah had climbed it and I wanted to try as well.

I suddenly found myself on a train that was circling the mountain. It had a lot of people on it and I had an understanding that all of us on the train had a similar desire to go to the mountain, but we were somehow prevented from doing so. The local government had provided this train as a tour so the people could view the mountain. This was helpful, but it was this same governments laws that prevented us from actually climbing the mountain. I reached out with my hand to touch the inside wall of the train and found that it was very old and brittle. I easily broke through the wall with the intention of stepping off the train.

I found myself outside the train, standing at the foot of the mountain looking up at it's rising slope. There seemed to be less light here, more shadows and grayness, which was interesting to me because the town had been so green and beautiful. As I headed up, I soon discovered snow. Even it appeared gray from the lack of true light. There were small flocks of sheep, here and there, on the hillside. Each flock had it's own shepherd and each shepherd worked to keep his own flock from getting too close to any of the others. As I walked past some of the shepherds, I could see that their eyes were full of fear. This explained why they never let anyone get close to them.

After walking a little further, I came to the bottom of a building that had a set of stairs leading up to a doorway. I went up the stairs, opened the door and walked in. The room was well lit, warm and full of color. The walls were wood with a clear coat on them. There were a few good natured, happy people sitting on some couches. This was the first of several levels in this building. As I walked from level to level, steadily going higher and higher, I found that each level had a room with it's own challenges and attractions.

The attractions were either the beauty of the room, the fellowship of the people, the comfort of the couches, the good food, or some combination of all of these. The challenge was to keep moving and not stay at each level. It would have been very easy to just stop and stay a while and forget to climb the next set of stairs.

On some of the levels, I saw people I recognized. They were quite happy and felt there was no need to try and climb higher, so I soon gave up my attempts to convince them otherwise. At one level, I saw a woman that I knew I had seen on a lower level. I was surprised and happy to see her so I went to talk to her. I tried to encourage her to keep going and she responded by saying, "This is nothing. I travel between levels three and six on a regular basis!" This statement made me depressed and saddened that she had become deceived into staying where she was.

I resumed my climb and soon I reached a room where I had a vision concerning the next level. The next room was plain looking. It was rough, unfinished wood and appeared to be more like a storage room. It had several sets of stairs that all climbed to a dead end. They were there to make people believe that there was no way out. The true way out was hidden. It was a set of stairs that went down to a lower level (only about 8 or 9 feet down) then came back up into a new room. This was guarded by an old man with a large stick and you had to fight him to get through.

As I entered the room with the dead end stairs, I ignored them and went directly to the hidden exit. I found a stick that was about 10 feet long leaning against the wall. I grabbed it since I knew I would need it to fight the old man. Just then, he appeared and started swinging. We fought for about 30 or 40 seconds when he hit so hard that my stick broke in two. I threw one of the pieces at him causing him to swing to the side. I used the other piece to hit his hand as hard as I could. This made him drop his stick and run. I ran after him, determined to finish him off, when he disappeared right in front of me.

I left that room through the exit I saw in the vision and came up into a hallway that led to a new room. It was filled with all sorts of pictures, board games, sporting goods, and other stuff meant for entertainment. There I met a man I know and I spoke with him about climbing higher. He told me how much of mistake that would be. He slid a box across the floor that had a set of arrows in it. They had barbed tips and as he spoke, he shook them at me. He told me how foolish it was for me to want to do this and if I tried to continue, he would be forced to stick me with the arrows "for my own good". I reached out with my hand, grabbed all the arrows by the tips and broke them off, leaving the ends splintered and broken. This angered him and he grabbed more arrows and started throwing them at me.

This room was actually two rooms, separated by double doors. I took cover behind one of the doors. For the next minute or so, we threw arrows at each other, never really hitting either. Then I looked behind me and saw that my wife, Kathy, had found the exit going up to the next level. I didn't want to be left behind so started grabbing whole handfuls of arrows and throwing them. This made the guy flee. He headed for the door leading back to the room we just came from. I threw one arrow as hard as I could which stuck in his back just behind his left shoulder. He went down in pain and I threw another arrow to finish him off. The second arrow never reached him as he disappeared just like the old man. This made me realize that he wasn't the man I thought he was. He was actually the old man with the stick that I fought earlier. It was a test. I quickly turned and left, determined to catch up to my wife Kathy.

Climbing The Ministry Ladder

Danny Korakas

Nov 25, 2004

I would like to encourage you to consider and hold to the truth and pattern of ministry that Christ exhibited as you read the following article. I find it tremendously enjoyable to be a part of equipping the saints through encouragement and the love of God with what the Lord inspires me to write. However, we are in a season of repentance and transition (The key to genuine revival) and I sense a necessity to bringing some foundational understanding of prophetic ministry concerning how it relates to the church and to the world in this spiritual season. Our love for the destiny of the church (the people of God) is what makes confrontation at times and seasons necessary as we move toward the soon return of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I pray that you will not be too quick to judge this word, but that you will allow yourself a time to seek truth and what the Lord would speak to you. With the prophetic revelation of transition and change comes the responsibility to not only speak, but to act.

"I don't receive glory from men, but I know you, that you do not have God's love in yourselves. I have come in My Father's name, and you don't receive Me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. How can you believe, who receive glory from one another, and you don't seek the glory that comes from the only God?" (John 5:41-44)

Jesus said "that if another comes in his own name, you will receive him." I certainly do not believe that the Lord was referring to this in a complimentary way. It seems that men who come in "their own name" are still attracting large crowds of men-worshipers who are ever increasingly reliant upon THEM for a word from God. It seems that many will travel half-way across the globe for a "word" from the "man of God' who comes in his own name.

The Lord is beginning to confront the "users" of HIS gifts and ministries that have been plagiarized or stolen by the NAMES and AGENDAS of man. The carnal man loves to see his name attached to what he perceives he has accomplished. Fleshly man by nature loves to see his name shining in lights for all to see. These men (ministries) are naturally attracted to one another and feed off of each others compliments of how well they doing to justify their approach to ministry. Likewise, the people who follow these ministries love to be identified with them for the purpose of recognition and acceptance.

First of all, why do we desire to associate "OUR" name with a ministry that the Lord has so graciously blessed and entrusted us with? (The first thought of "Danny Korakas Ministries" to another is a ministry that I have founded rather than Christ) This reveals a motive of possession, self-promotion and sufficiency that cannot possibly bring the fullness of God's glory back to Himself. The Bible says that John the Baptist was the greatest of all men. When asked, John said, "I did not come in my own name ... I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness." John was consumed with elevating the name of Christ and not his own.

"Preach the Word! Be ready in season and out of season. Convince, rebuke, exhort, with all longsuffering and teaching. For a time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but wanting to have their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers in accordance to their own desires; and will turn away their ears from the truth, and will turn aside to fables." (2 Timothy 4:2-4)

I am saddened when I go to sites of well-known prophetic ministries to read half of the material lifting up themselves and their accomplishments. They will weave a few scripture verses in, along with a little revelation, to make it justifiable. Beloved, this is not the heart of Christ for anointed ministry to bring PERMANENT change in people's lives and what He has entrusted to us. We must be honest and come to terms with our human nature to desire recognition and admiration. By nature, we love to be rewarded by recognition of what WE have accomplished. The taking up of our cross is the crucifying of our need for recognition. When we FOLLOW Jesus, only He is seen as we become a shadow in His leading. True and authentic ministry requires and demands a dying to ones SELF so that Christ will be glorified.

Paul said in Galatians 1:10, "For if I were still pleasing men, I wouldn't be a servant of Christ." If the favor and acceptance of man is our focus, we will never truly desire to decrease that Christ may increase. Not one miracle was ever connected to John the Baptist. Yet, Jesus said that he was the greatest of all men. Why? Because he desired to decrease so that Christ would increase. It seems that many equate greatness and validity with the miracles and visions they hear and read others claim under "THEIR" ministry as well as the circle of friends they keep ... rather than Biblical substance.

The Lord has shared with us in His Word the truth of storing up eternal treasure in heaven. I believe that the formula for storing eternal treasure and wealth is very simple: Anything that glorifies Christ on earth will be rewarded in heaven and anything that glorifies "MY" name on earth will stay here on earth. "For I say unto you, you have received your reward." Jesus also said, "How can you believe, who receive glory from one another?" The naming of ministries after ourselves and highlighting our achievements for others to see and read is the worship of an idol called "MINISTRY."

Many of today's ministry leaders like us to believe that there is a "new wineskin" being constructed in the body of Christ. The truth is that all of these movements named by MAN, whatever you would prefer to call them (Third Day, Third Wave, Apostolic-Prophetic, Last Days, etc.), have the same religious hierarchal order that resembles the world system and a Greco-Roman form of government. How do I know this? Simply, by the observation of the "leaders" of these ministerial networks taking on the names or giving themselves the title of "apostle" and "prophet" along with "set-men" and "apostolic covering." The controlling spirit behind these "new" movements is still the same "old" religious system under a new guise. The demand of tithing, submission, attendance, and accountability to "man" is in the forefront of such leadership's focus for the purpose of holding onto power, position and a reliant following.

I am not saying that all of these issues are not needed in the lives of God's people. They certainly are and should be expected of ourselves. The problem is when these responses become a primary FOCUS of the local church. The result that is produced is man-centered rather than Christ-centered ministry. The focus becomes the religion of man rather than the relationship with Christ. Ministry leadership moves into error when a man's spiritual value and maturity is based on attendance, tithing, and the covering of man, rather than the covering of Christ's blood. It was this religious mind-set of the Pharisees that Jesus so vigorously confronted. As a matter of fact, it was the only thing I can find in scripture that He really hated. What we are finding today is nothing more than new NAMES and faces put on old systems and wineskins. The environment that man-centered religion produces is the manipulation (witchcraft) of false submission. Man-centered systems create an atmosphere of using submission and money to gain spiritual promotion rather than a genuine anointing from God. In other words, it no longer becomes the fruit and integrity of a man's life, but how much a man is willing to submit and approve of a "leader's" agenda. Of course, anything that is contrary to the agenda is considered "rebellion."

The call to prophesy comfort, encouragement, and edification is for all of us who have faith to proclaim and to receive of its benefits. This is vital to the health and life of the church. However, the primary call of the "prophet" has always been to proclaim REPENTANCE in a spirit of love when man corrupts what God has ordained. It seems that the church is content and comfortable with the gift of prophesy, but has an aversion and resistance to the words of the prophet. Those who are NAMING or calling their ministries "prophetic," but refuse to confront sin and "religion" in the church are the creations of man ... for they seek man's approval. Prophetic ministry is one of the few things in life that we must "have both ways." We readily take the message that edifies and encourages. However, we also must take the message that confronts and calls for repentance.

The fruit of authentic prophetic ministry is that it speaks to the issues of one's soul and life. It penetrates past the walls of rejection, rebellion and denial. It comes from the heart of God to reveal TRUTH to one's life for the purpose of conforming that person to the image and mind of Christ. In other words, as thousands of souls have literally passed through the gates of hell this very hour, do you really believe that our Lord is wasting time on fanciful stories and "revelations" that entertain us and have absolutely no application to the everyday issues of people's lives? I am amazed at the number of articles that are posted on "prophetic" sites that have absolutely no Biblical basis or value to the needs of the church and a lost and dying world.

Many are saying that the church has lost its relevance to a lost and dying world. I have to agree with this statement. We have created institutions that tickle the ears with comfortable words, rather than equipping and challenging people to fulfill their destiny as soul-winners and disciple-makers in their particular gifting. Many ministers are afraid to "cross the line" and truly challenge the people they are called to minister to because they pay their light bill. This is why the Lord is raising up a Davidic order of leadership. They see and understand the wisdom of Paul's self-supporting approach to ministry in that it cannot be "bought" by a deacon board and the wealthy religious elite. How can it not be a conflict of interest to have the people pay the person who is preaching to them? You want to know why the church is lukewarm? This is one of primary reasons.

"For you see your calling, brethren, that not many wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called. But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to put to shame the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world to put to shame the things that are mighty; and the base things of the world and the things which are despised God has chosen..." (1Corinthians 1:16-28)

Some might think that if Christ had desired His message to have impact, He could have easily promoted His popularity more effectively. Modern thinking would suggest that Jesus should have done everything possible to promote His fame and tone down the controversies that arose out of His teachings. I suppose that many today would have counseled Jesus to employ strategies to maximize the crowds around Him to validate His ministry. However, Jesus did just the opposite. Instead of taking the popular route to enhance his acceptance, Jesus began to stress even more the very things that made His messages controversial.

Jesus went on to preach a message so confronting and offensive that the multitudes left, leaving only a handful of devoted men and women. Among those who stayed were the twelve disciples whom Jesus had personally chosen and appointed to REPRESENT His ministry. They were ordinary men and Jesus' strategy for advancing His kingdom and church hinged on these twelve ordinary men — not than the multitude who came for the purpose of what they could get out of it rather than what they were willing to give to it. The very Son of God came and dwelt among men and mankind just wanted what they could get out of Him. Times surely have not changed.

Jesus chose to build His church and ministry through a few un-exceptional, ordinary and fallible men. Jesus sought this over military might, personal popularity, education, and a good comfortable sales pitch to win a following. The future of the church would literally hinge upon the faithfulness and humility of a handful of men who loved and embraced the TRUTH of Jesus' ministry. The choosing of these twelve (handful) was a judgment against the institution of religion that man had created. Jesus didn't choose a single Scribe, Pharisee, or Sadducee. He didn't choose a single man to lead his church who was "theologically trained." He chose fisherman and even a repentant tax collector who counted themselves as no reputation for the glory of Jesus Christ.

You are not reading this by accident. Christ has chosen you to continue building His church through your faithfulness and love for the truth — just like a handful of men chosen 2000 years ago. I am convinced that the Lord is calling us back to the model of love and ministry that He gave us through His Word. The Lord is calling us back to a prophetic ministry that meets and heals people in a real and genuine way. The last days harvest and genuine revival hinges on our coming back to our roots and sharing the heart of God with others in a real and personal way. This will come quickly when the name and works of Jesus become the focus rather than ours. I realize that this message may be hard and even offensive for some. For others, it will be confirmation of what they already know.

The purpose of this message is not to criticize any particular individual or ministry in any way. All of us, including the unbeliever, are deeply loved by our Father. Because He does love us, He has given us the gift of prophecy and prophetic ministry to touch people's lives in a very special way. What is so special about prophetic ministry is that it builds deep and meaningful relationships in our care for another. It shows those who are searching for life's answers that there is a God and He loves them very much — so much that He died for them.

So, my question, dear friend, is "how are you stewarding the gifts and ministry that He has given you?" And most importantly, "how are you affecting the people He has brought into your life that these gifts were created for?"

Seasons Of Whither
Danny Korakas

Nov 27, 2004
Medical records prove that the holiday season is the time that depression and suicide mark a sharp increase in proportion to the rest of the year. The root of these manifestations is an emotional make-up that many people experience -- but few really understand the affects of "loneliness."

Not only do we contend with natural loneliness, but also spiritual loneliness. Natural loneliness is the product of unhealed rejection. Spiritual loneliness is the product of having nobody to share, equip, and understand the vision that the Lord has given and called us to. Both of these emotions can be very dangerous to our natural and spiritual health if not surrendered to the healing touch of the Lord. It is likewise critically important that we recognize others who are lonely and be the instrument of Christ's love they so desperately need and deserve. (Especially in this season)

I believe the greatest pain that we suffer in life is the pain of rejection. The power of rejection is so strong that it will affect and ravish generations if left unhealed and delivered. We see this in Abraham's rejection of Ishmael. The rejection of Ishmael from all that he knew as his home and future would have tremendous consequences upon his life. Ishmael would never seek God for the healing of this pain, and since this time (well over 3000 years ago) his descendants (The Middle Eastern Arabs of today) would suffer through the result of unhealed rejection – REBELLION and an orphan mentality. Ishmael would never truly understand the fullness of "Sonship." It wasn't long ago over the sink doing dishes, that the Lord spoke clearly to me saying, "Danny, you will never be the father (naturally and spiritually) that I would have you be, until you learn to become a "son." This is why the Muslim cannot comprehend or regard their "god" as a loving father.

The first stages of rejection become apparent to us in our desire to escape reality. From the time of childhood, those who suffer from rejection will escape into sexual fantasy at an age that defies explanation. It is not long before the escape moves into music. There is a corrupt spiritual draw to the rejected soul toward music. Youth will begin to escape into it at such a degree, that they will actually believe that they are the musicians themselves performing the songs. The need of affirmation and acceptance is so strong that kids and even adults will escape into the spiritual medium of sound (music) to create an environment of identity and popularity. (The rejected individual will seek the admiration and praise of man)

Escapism through rejection in most men will lead to pornographic material for the purpose of escaping into sexual encounters that are not real. (Young women will gravitate toward young men to meet their need to be loved, leading to premarital sex) The SPIRITUAL PAIN of rejection is perceived to be covered by PHYSICAL PLEASURE to the carnal man. Carnal or fleshly man will always use the feeling of "pleasure" to cover or hide his pain. Physical pleasure or LUST can become a very addictive narcotic to a rejected individual. At this time in life (teen years) the deception of "fantasy" has become second nature.

It is not long before the soul is craving the acceptance and affirmation that only Jesus Christ can provide. The problem is that the rejection has moved into elements of rebellion and the voice of God is drowned in a sea of emotional turmoil. The rejected soul will begin to VISUALIZE or fantasize about those whom they love "watching" them (although they are not there or present in reality) as they do something of value or merit. An example would be a person just out of high school or college starting their first job. Now in their late teens or early twenties, they begin visualizing someone (who is not really there) watching them doing something well to somehow earn their love and adoration. The performance based emotional make-up of rejection will soon lead to chronic lying and manipulation. It is important to note that the lying becomes so ingrained that the person lying will escape into believing his or her own lies.(DECEPTION) The desire and need of affirmation and acceptance is so overwhelming, that these individuals create a false reality to meet their emotional needs. Sadly, this will move well into adult life unless healed and delivered by the Lord.

All of us have suffered rejection in one way or another in our lives. Some have been healed more than others and some are literally struggling for their lives. This should be a sobering fact to all of us. Especially knowing that most suicides are young adults with so much life yet to live and offer humanity. I believe the Lord desires that we all realize how much He loves us and that He bore the greatest rejection and humiliation of all when He was crucified by those who he loved and came to save.

I believe there are some who know they are firmly planted as an oak by the waters. But yet you have felt the cool winds of the fall season. The nights became cold and lonely and the days have seemed to become shorter. You have missed the warmth of the Son and the sounds of life that nested in your branches. Everything of value seems to be leaving and the even in the daytime you feel alone. You noticed that what was once green, growing, and full of life is slowly becoming a shade of rust and brown. The winter winds have now become cold and no life seems to be around you. You watch as your leaves slowly sway to the ground. Your tears have watered the ground, but yet, the leaves and the ground did not come to life. You've watched the leaves move down the waters, knowing that the current, their path, and their end was out of your control. The winter rains and snows have come and are oh so cold. You feel exposed and so alone as there seems to be nobody nor covering to warm and protect you. You rewind through the landscape of your life and wonder why and where the years have gone. The sunny days of innocence and youthful joy seem like yesterday, but yet, so far away.

Even though the winter season in the natural has just begun, the SON and warmth of God's love is shining upon you this day. This word from the Lord is just for you. Yes, you are my beloved and I care deeply for you. I have never left your side and have always been there...You just never looked for Me. I am pleased that this message has made it to you. My dear child, the leaves that you thought had died, are for the healing of the nations. Everything must fall to ground and die before it can grow and bear fruit. Your tears were not shed in vain and will water the hopes of others through your testimony of My love for all men. It was when you lost control that the leaves of healing moved by the current of My Spirit and made it back to glorify Me. The times of your exposure, although lonely and seemingly cold has strengthened you and added rings of humility and grace to your life. I am warming you with the light of My love and thoughts for you. You are very precious to Me and I have a purpose and a destiny that I need you to fulfill in building My kingdom. You no longer have to look toward man for your approval...I approve of you just who you are. I only ask that you trust and allow Me to lead and guide you through My Word. Spend time with Me, and I will show you the reality of your value in My kingdom. You will soon hear the sounds of life in your branches and the abundance of life in your fruit. You will enjoy the sounds of life and the warmth of My Son. Yes, my dear child, people will come and find shade and comfort under the arms of your love. You will look back on this fall and winter season and realize how much you have truly grown.

Father, may all who are lonely, both natural and spiritually know how much you love and value them. May they know that they are a one of a kind and nobody will ever replace them with what you have created them to do for others. Lord, I pray that you would reveal to them their purpose and destiny in some way to give them a hope and a future. Father, I pray for lonely spouses. I pray that marriages would be rekindled and that your love would consume their thoughts and commitment to one another in covenant. Lord, I pray for those who have lost a loved one and must endure our lack sensitivity as the church in meeting their needs. Father, please heal and restore those who lonely and searching because of divorce. Lord protect and guard their hearts with the care and love of your people. Father, bless those who are young and single. Heal them of any rejection and draw them by your Spirit into your loving arms. Jesus, may you be the gift in this season that they so desperately need. Father, I pray that you would touch and heal others of rejection as you did me. Thank you Lord.

In Jesus' name. Amen.

Climb The Mountain
Marc Pranger

Climb the mountain, sleep in the cave, stand for the Lord and see His power.
…. But how do you return?

1Kings 19:11-13.
Then He said, "Go out, and stand on the mountain before the LORD." And behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind tore into the mountains and broke the rocks in pieces before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire a still small voice. So it was, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood in the entrance of the cave. Suddenly a voice came to him, and said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

Elijah had done a mighty work for the Lord of Hosts; showed clearly that there was and is only One God, One Creator.
He made Jezebel so angry and mad that she sent him a message: "I am going to kill you no matter what."
And Elijah fled in the desert. He lost his faith and told God, "Let me die, please."
(In saying that, he told a lie of course. Because if he truly had a death wish he would have stayed close to Jezebel and she would have been more than willing to help him a bit!)
However Creator – Adonai showed more patience than many of us would have given Elijah.
The Lord sent an angel to him calling him to a meeting place on mount Horeb.
Creator – Adonai did not meet him right away; he had to travel to the Lord first, strengthened by a strength that was not his but the Lord's…. He had a time of fasting and running. Then Elijah had to spend a night in a cave before the Lord showed up.

I think many of us recognize this pattern; victory for the Lord and losing courage are almost partners it seems. But the Lord calls out to you also; "Come, meet me, and run to me through prayer and fasting… come." He shows us mercy when we deserve rebuke; He listens to our heart more than to our words. Many of us could learn from Him in that area! How is our attitude towards our brothers and sisters, our fellow pilgrims on the Way? Do we not push and rebuke them to not complain and keep on going? Do we not even accuse them sometimes, and call them sinners because of losing courage? I think our call is more that of the angel's: feed them, give them to drink and call them than to run to the Lord.

Bur where I want to go to in this article is the moment where the Lord calls Elijah to step out of the cave… because I believe that we find there an other lesson and warning.

What happens first is that Elijah is called to wake up. He had to wake up so that he could see what was happening in front of his cave, standing in the entrance so that he could see what Creator – Adonai was going to do. This is the attitude we too need; "All right, Lord, here I am. Do what you want. I have no answers anymore; I can only say, 'Here I am.'" This is all we need to say if the Lord calls us to stand for Him. We see this attitude in the lives of Abraham, Samuel and many others. "Here I am, Lord…"

The first thing that happened was that the Lord passed by in a great and strong wind;
And behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind tore into the mountains and broke the rocks in pieces before the LORD,

Maybe we can recognize the Ruach wind of the Holy Spirit in this event. I think that what happens first when we finally wake up is that what we will see quite often is the crushing power of the Wind. And then we start to think WOW now I know Creator – Adonai again. This is what I need--a mighty Holy Spirit power. So we run out of our caves and down the mountain back into our lives and calling. Telling everyone; what we need is the Ruach Wind; the wind that uproots mountains and breaks rocks in pieces--that is what we need! And shortly after people run after the wind trying to catch the wind and they get something but lack even more. We have seen a glimpse of His power but have not truly seen Him. We have heard His voice as says in the first part of Psalm 29

but the LORD was not in the wind;

Some stay till after the wind and wait to see what happens next:

and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake;

It is like the word of the Lord that shakes the earth and shakes our lives. Maybe we can see this in a prophetic word, speaking into our lives and shaking the things of us that hinder us, a wake up call. We shake and tremble hearing the word of the Lord as Moses did; Acts 7:32 "saying, 'I am the God of your fathers——the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' And Moses trembled and dared not look. So we run out of our caves and down the mountain back into our lives and calling. Telling everyone, "What we need is the Lord shaking our lives. It changed me and it can change you. It does shake you and make you tremble but it is good!" And shortly after people become seekers of that shaking experience. They get something but lack even more. We have seen a glimpse of His power but have not truly seen Him.

but the LORD was not in the earthquake.

Some wait after the earthquake to see what happens next:

and after the earthquake a fire

This is the fire of testing, the fire as written in 1 Peter 4: 12 Beloved, do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you; and in 1 Corinthians 3: 13 each one's work will become clear; for the Day will declare it, because it will be revealed by fire; and the fire will test each one's work, of what sort it is.
14 If anyone's work which he has built on it endures, he will receive a reward.
15 If anyone's work is burned, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire.
So we run out of our caves and down the mountain back into our lives and calling. Telling everyone, "I know what we need now! We need the refining and cleansing fire of the Lord in our lives and in our midst. This is the answer we need." And soon people jump in the fire as the experience they need the most, again seekers of an experience. They get something but lack even more. We have seen a glimpse of His power, but have not truly seen Him.

but the LORD was not in the fire.

Let's take a break here, because if we review these three things, these are the things that many people, especially Evangelical people, seek. They seek the Ruach Wind, the shaking of their lives, the cleansing fire, things that come from Creator – Adonai but are expressions of His being. They are not Him. Many of us became seekers of experiences; whole movements are build upon experiences. Do we not need experiences then, you might ask? Surely, we do need these experiences. If we take these verses about Elijah as an example, as looking into the mirror of revelation then we can say and see that he went though all the experiences, but he did not run off with them. He did not build a Movement, a Fellowship, or Church around them. He kept standing before the Lord and not for nothing as we will see next!

If you belong to the ones still standing and waiting then there is a reward waiting around the corner for you; and after the fire a still small voice.

This is our reward. We hear the still small voice of our Daddy who loves us and who wants to have fellowship with us. This still small voice of grace silences every other voice around and in us and He asks us as He asked Elijah; "What are you doing here?"

We who have experienced His power are humbled and hide our face and share with Him what hinders us, our pain, worries, sorrows, and the things we are afraid of. We have found a place to have communion and communication with our Maker. We speak not only to Him but we speak with Him.

And you know what happened with Elijah after that: 1Kings 19: 15 Then the LORD said to him: "Go,.. Elijah received crystal clear instruction as to what to do and who to train for ministry, who would carry his torch. He did not run off with an experience, proclaiming an experience. No, he returned from the mountain knowing what to do. The Lord had spoken with that still small voice of grace. Are we are willing to wait till we hear that still small voice or do we run off again with all our experiences???

I believe that what we need most these days are people who can wait till they hear that small still voice. It could well be that would have a greater impact on Churches, Fellowships and even the world than all the experiences we could encounter….

O Boy They Prophecy
Marc Pranger

'Make room for us in your hearts. We have wronged no-one, we have corrupted no-one, we have exploited no-one'.
(2 Cor. 7:2 NIV)

It may seem strange to begin an article with this, especially when some well-meaning people are convinced that I have a prophetic calling. The tree is known by its fruit, I hope. It is true that the Creator, Adonai literally caused me to be anointed for this ministry eight years ago, by a group of three elders who didn't know what had come over them. But since that time I have very consciously distanced myself from the title prophet or from claiming to have a prophetic ministry. At first I thought it was cool and wanted to be seen in that light. Or was it just that I wanted to be seen?

Yet the more I got to know this little world of the prophetic, especially in evangelical circles, the more I wanted to distance myself from it. I don't mean the calling, which came from the Creator, Adonai; that is still real right up to this day.

What I don't like is the way the title 'prophet' is used, or the manner in which people handle the prophetic. It seems like one big show from people who are oh so spiritual. People come with words which they say are from God, and that could sometimes be the case, but they are then interpreted in accordance with the particular preference or colour of the particular church, ministry, hobby-horse or denomination. Within the content there is so much rubbish; peoples own wishes or the wishes of the leaders rather than the undiluted word of God.

We seem often to be in a world in which criticism of the word of a prophet, or someone in a prophetic calling, isn't allowed because it is then God who is being criticised. Come on! We all know that our prophecies are imperfect and need to be tested; and if it wasn't for God's mercy we would all have to be stoned in accordance with the laws of the Old Testament because words weren't fulfilled, or they contained mistakes, or there was just that bit too much flesh, or spirit by the Spirit.

How often have people been ruined by prophetic words, how often exploited! How often has there been injustice because of high-flown prophetic promises that weren't fulfilled? Just look as these two 'examples':

- 'Ladies and gentlemen, God, yes God Himself has spoken. We must build a bigger building. We haven't got the money yet but you have the honour, yes the honour to give so much more than your tithe in order to achieve this wonderful and anointed plan that comes straight from the throne of God.'
- 'I see a wonderful future for you! All your struggles will be over and you will fly super-spiritually like a bird over the motorway of life.'

This appears very cynical but isn’t it often the way it is?

Have I never, to a greater or lesser degree fallen for these temptations? Alas, yes.

Shouldn’t we then long for revelations from God? Doesn’t His word say to us:
‘Therefore, my brothers, be eager to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues (1 Cor 14:39).’ And ‘ Follow the way of love and eagerly desire spiritual gifts, especially the gift of prophecy (1 Cor 14:1).’

Of course we should long for this. Certainly there will be people who function under a prophetic anointing and certainly there will be people who hold the office of prophet.
Are there then pointers and tips that can help us to discern between true and false? Of course I realise I’m now skating on thin ice. There are bookcases full of books written on this subject and I have the silly idea to summarise it in twelve points. Forgive me, but I’m just trying to understand what God is saying. Okay, so here we go:

1. A slogan to begin with: prophecy is more than foretelling the future, more than visions and dreams. It is God’s word for today and the revelation about His word, the Bible, given by Him.
2. A prophet who knows he is a prophet trusts that it is the prophetic fruit of his ministry which will show who he or she is, and not the name on the door, the visiting card or the website. He knows he is only a tool in the hands of the Carpenter.
3. A prophet isn’t interested in being popular with people and if this does happen he will be suspicious and ask himself if this will make him popular with God. His relationship with God is more precious to him than being seen and honoured by man.
4. The prophet is not primarily concerned with the individual, local church, city, land or world. He is concerned that the Kingdom of God be established on the earth. He certainly isn’t concerned about his own honour or ministry.
5. His spiritual relationship with God is number one on his agenda because he knows the danger of being in too close a relationship with a person. Why? If someone has a very strong ‘soul relationship’ with another, especially a leader (e.g. putting him on a pedestal, fear of the person or other strong emotional ties) then the prophet will become, in the spiritual world, the receiver of the ‘radio signals’ from the soul of the leader, his wishes, desires etc., and bring these forward as prophecy, because this soul relationship overshadows the spiritual relationship with God. This happened in the Bible with a large group of prophets; there was only one who prophesied what God wanted. Why? His spiritual relationship with God was much stronger than the soul relationship with the leader, and it therefore overshadowed that soul relationship so that he was able to receive the ‘radio signals’ from Creator Adonai. Let this be a lesson for every prophet.

   > Jeremiah 14:14 says, ‘Then the Lord said to me, ”The prophets are prophesying lies in my name. I have not sent them or anointed them or spoken to them. They are prophesying visions, divinations, idolatries and the delusions of their own minds.”

6. A prophet is not a representative of one church, but of the church. Unity despite differences will be very important to him. Why? Jesus said, ‘that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me.’ (John 17: 21) He is therefore not so much ‘I’ centred as ‘we’ centred.
7. A prophet is very conscious of his own weakness and the necessity for that. Why? ‘For we do not preach ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus’ sake. For God, who said, “Let light shine out of darkness, made his light shine in our hearts to give us the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ. But we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us.’ (2 Cor. 4: 5-7) His words will not, for the most part, be a mirror of his own weak, stumbling walk as a pilgrim on the Way, but a reflection of the Power of the Holy Spirit, the never ending source.
8. The prophetic word will, for the most part, be a mirror of the Word, without being The Word; just as Creator Adonai said in Hosea 12:10, ‘ I spoke to the prophets, gave them many visions and told parables through them.’ The prophet shall surprise himself more than anybody over how multifaceted and creative God can be in putting His message across.
9. A prophet feels the love of Yeshua for His people and for the lost and is prepared to take risks in order to stand between them and the Creator. Why? Love, the love that made Jeremiah pray, 'O Lord, we acknowledge our wickedness and the guilt of our fathers; we have indeed sinned against you. For the sake of your name do not despise us; do not dishonour your glorious throne. Remember your covenant with us and do not break it. Do any of the worthless idols of the nations bring rain? Do the skies themselves send down showers? No, it is you, O Lord our God. Therefore our hope is in you, for you are the one who does all this.' A prophet will gladly stand in the gap for the sake of the truth but also for love's sake even if he ends up between a rock and a hard place because of it, because people often don't understand this. Therefore he frequently ends up stuck between the harbour wall and the ship!

10. A prophet will be very reticent about taking a particular viewpoint when it comes to theological positions and differences, but will point to the Word. This is what Jesus did in his conflict with satan, 'it is written', and look at the way he answers his nephew, John the Baptist when he was in prison and questioning whether Yeshua really was the Messiah. A prophet will have a thorough knowledge of the Word, not so much quotations but the principals and truths contained in them. Not a lesson learned in the head but a knowledge flowing out of the heart.
11. A prophet will be very reticent about saying, 'Thus says the Lord' over a word but will be more inclined to say, 'I have the impression that…' A prophet knows his own weakness and therefore expects his words to be tested.
12. A prophet is thoroughly aware that his calling is difficult to explain and above everything else he needs to be obedient to God; freedom in the Spirit not in order to sin but to obey. He knows very well that there is no straightforward answer concerning what, where and how to speak. He is therefore not so much a man of prayer as a man who relates to and communicates with Creator Adonai – this goes further than prayer can. This in order that he can do what he must do, 'Then the Lord reached out his hand and touched my mouth and said to me, "Now I have put my words in your mouth. See, today I appoint you over nations and kingdoms to uproot and tear down, to destroy and overthrow, to build and to plant."(Jeremiah 1: 9-10) How He will do this is His concern. What He says here to Jeremiah is for every prophet but the how and what will be a very individual task for the individual prophet. A prophet will then take his position on the Way and take on the adventure with God, from God and for God.

Christ The Object Of Our Desire

Chip Brogden

Jul 9, 2004
"...thy desire shall be to thy Husband, and He shall rule over thee (Genesis 3:16b)."

"Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee (Psalms 73:25)."

In the beginning God ordained that the Bride of Christ, the Church, should have its desire only for Christ. Our desires are very powerful. Men are pulled in many different directions and tossed about by many wants, perceived needs, desires, and influences. Initially our desires are sinful.

"And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually (Genesis 6:5)."

God affirms throughout Scripture that the desire of man is evil and wicked from his youth (Genesis 8:21; Job 5:7, 14:1, et. al.) It is natural for us to think that once we become Christians that our spiritual desires are now good and holy, proper and pure, and that we are well pleasing to God (Luke 18:11). Nevertheless we soon discover that something prevents us from performing the good which we intend.

"For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do (Romans 7:19)."

And we also learn that our "righteousness" is often misguided.

"And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did? But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of (Luke 9:54, 55)."

We may find ourselves in competition with our brothers and sisters, attempting to be the most spiritual, or the most mature, or the most knowledgeable about the things of God. We privately, and sometimes publicly, compare ourselves with one another and estimate ourselves to be most advanced, when the truth of the matter is we are most fleshly.

"And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest (Luke 22:24)."

"They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory (Mark 10:37)."

Thank God for the cross of Jesus Christ! For it is there that my sins are forgiven; it is there that the "old man" died. Yet is is also true that there is something as wicked, if not more wicked, than sin, and that is Self. It is true that every sin is rooted in Self. As we must initially accept His death for sin, so we must daily accept our death to Self. As we are once crucified with Him for the remission of sins, so we must daily take up the cross, deny our Self, and follow Him. We walk in the narrow Way just as we entered the narrow Gate - by way of the cross. "As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him (Colossians 2:6)."

MANY SPIRITUAL DESIRES ARE SELFISH

The disciples of the Lord desire many things. Some desire power over the enemy, or power to work miracles in the Name of Jesus. Others desire freedom from sickness or oppression. Many desire blessing upon the work of their hands, their ministry, or their finances. Some desire wisdom and understanding in spiritual matters.

How surprising it is then for the child of God to learn that the Lord does not necessarily approve of these many desires, even though they seem undeniably good and proper at first. Why? Because Self remains enthroned and enshrined in the sanctuary of our heart. Why do we desire power? That we may glory and others may take notice. Why do we desire freedom from sickness and oppression? Because we are ready to reign with Christ, but are not prepared to suffer with Him. Why do we desire the blessing upon our labor? That we may appear successful before men. Why do we desire wisdom in spiritual affairs? That others may count us wise and seek us out for our opinion and counsel. When we do not know what spirit we are of, Self is most definitely the root of all our asking and praying.

"Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not. Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts (James 4:2,3)."

Verse two of James chapter four speaks of how man goes about to secure his sinful desire. Verse three speaks of how man goes about to secure his spiritual desire. In the first case we try to get by taking from others. In the second place we try to get by asking from God. We know it is wrong to lust, kill, and fight for what we want. This is sin. But many of us do not yet know that to ask God for what WE want is sin also - the sin of Self. This is why we do not receive what we ask for, because we desire to please ourselves. We "ask amiss."

Jesus never pleased Himself.

"Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done (Luke 22:42)."

"I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me (John 5:30)".

For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me (John 6:38)."

How much of our prayers, intercessions, asking, knocking, seeking, searching, and hoping is done with a view towards getting God to do what WE want Him to do? I am afraid that we take this approach with God: we careful analyze the situation, determine what we want to see come to pass, look up the appropriate Bible verses, go to God and tell Him exactly what we want to happen and by when, and then become anxious if He fails to answer us according to our own thought.

Brothers and sisters, this is not the way we approach the Lord. Many are the instances in which mere humans tried to instruct the Lord Jesus, rebuked Him, found fault with His way of doing and saying things, questioned His methods, and argued with Him. Let us not fall into the same trap. For the Lord knows His business, and does not need to be instructed by us. Instead, we must follow His instruction and allow Him to become our only Desire. Then our praying and asking amiss will cease.

How do we deny Self and have the appropriate desire? The solution is quite simple, but it is not simplistic. It is profound, but not complicated. God has ordained that our "desire shall be to [our] Husband, and He shall rule over Thee." God in Christ fills all in all (Ephesians 4:6). Jesus is the only legitimate desire a Christian can have (Psalms 73:25). If He is the center and focus then all other things will take their proper place (Matthew 6:33). If we are satisfied in God, we cannot be dissatisfied. If our need is fully met in Christ, we cannot experience lack.

"Because the Lord is my shepherd, I have everything I need! (Psalms 23:1, Living Bible)."

This is a difficult truth to pass along. I find myself inadequate to explain how it works in the life of a believer. So let us look to the Scriptures for light, and may we learn to have Christ as the object of our desire.

THE "SINFUL WOMAN" AND THE PHARISEE

Luke 7:36-50 records the story of a "certain woman" who washed the feet of Jesus with her tears, wiped them off with her hair, kissed them, and anointed them with precious ointment. Please read the entire passage of Scripture and see how broken and honest was her adoration of Christ.

Now observe the thought of the Pharisee who sat at meat with Jesus. As this spirit and truth worship unfolds before his very eyes he has but one thought: if this Man were a prophet, He would know that this woman is a sinner. In other words, Jesus should not allow this sinful woman to touch Him and pour forth so much love upon Him. The Pharisee judged that Jesus was not worthy of such love and was offended at this outpouring of affection.

MARY AND MARTHA

In Luke 10:38-42 we find the story of Mary and her sister Martha. Martha invited Jesus to her home and commenced to make preparations for dinner. But instead of helping her sister, Mary sat at the feet of Jesus and listened to His Word. Upon seeing this, Martha expresses her irritation at Mary for not helping, and at Jesus for not telling her to help.

She says, "Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? Bid her therefore that she help me (verse 40)." Not only is Mary wrong, but Jesus is wrong to permit this situation. Such is Martha's thinking.

MARY AND JUDAS ISCARIOT

Mark 14:1-9 as well as John 12:1-9 recalls a crucial episode in the earthly ministry of Christ the week before His death and resurrection. From piecing together both records of the same event we have a complete account of all that happened. Again there is a supper. Again Martha is serving. But her sister Mary does a strange thing: she pours expensive perfume on the feet of Christ and wipes them with her hair, then pours some of it on His Head. The perfume is very costly, at least several month's worth of wages. Everyone there expressed indignation at this apparent waste of resources - the guests as well as the disciples agreed this was a foolish thing to be done. It wasn't "good stewardship." As the one in charge of the money bag, Judas Iscariot rebuked Mary and wondered aloud why she didn't instead sell the ointment and give the money to the poor.

THREE ILLUSTRATIONS, ONE LESSON

The Spirit has now given us three separate events in the life of Jesus in order to teach us something - may we have ears to hear it. What says the Spirit? Simply this: many are they who will sit at meat with Jesus, commune and dine with Him, discuss spiritual things with Him. But they cannot and will not lower themselves to wash His feet. They will not humble themselves to the ground and listen, they would rather be "much serving". They will not give up their "ministry to the poor" in order to "waste" themselves on "just ministering" to Jesus. They long to be seen fellowshipping with the Lord, but they are loath to pour out too much of themselves for Christ.

Note well that in all three cases there is food and drink - this speaks of fellowship. In all three cases the action is centered around the feet of Christ - this speaks of submission. Christ deems submission to be greater than fellowship. In all three cases, the one who made Christ their only desire was criticized as being too sinful, too lazy, or too wasteful. In all three cases they not only found fault with the worshipper but found fault with Christ. In all three cases Christ rebuked the rebukers; the Pharisee, for not loving Him enough; Martha, for being too anxious over the details; Judas and the disciples, for not having their priorities straight (and we discover that Judas is a thief and didn't care about the poor anyway).

Let is also note that at no time was this worship spoiled with a request or a prayer of petition. Self is completely swallowed up in worship. Indeed, no word is spoken, there is only acquiescence to Christ. There is no unmet desire, for the desire has been replaced with Christ. Having Him, they are content. Their humility is not found in despising Self, but in not looking at Self at all. The focus is outward, onto Christ, and thus there is not room left for considering Self. Therefore, there is nothing more to be said, no defense to offer the critics, nothing more to be done. Jesus instead points out that "only one thing is needful". Out of the "many things" that Martha was busy doing for the Lord, she was not praised for her work. Instead, Mary was deemed to have chosen "that good part." Was it wrong to be much serving the Lord? No, but the "good part" was to be with Him, not to work for Him, and the "good part" of sitting at His feet was not to be forsaken in favor of the work.

Finally, all three instances involve women as a type of the Bride of Christ, the overcoming Church, whose desire is for her Husband, who has submitted to His rule.

FORSAKE THE WRONG AND CRUCIFY THE "RIGHT"

We know we must leave sin because we can appreciate how horrible it is. We do not so quickly leave "our righteousness" because we think somehow it has been "purified". Mark well however that God does not fix the old man, but destroys it. He does not tell us to clean up our life, but to lay down our life. It is not enough to forsake the wrong: we must allow Him to crucify the right. That is, we must learn to hate our thoughts that we may have His mind. We must give up our "spiritual" desires in order to have Christ as All.

We must allow our Husband to rule, and our desire must only be for Him. Some people want a "Prenuptial Agreement" with their Husband. That is, they are willing to come to Jesus, but they are not willing to bring all they have to Him, to have everything put in His Name, to forsake all others until death do they part. They are foolish virgins. They want the benefits of the bed chamber without the responsibilities of the bride. They say, "I will follow You wherever You go," but at the last minute they want to "go back and say goodbye" to those in their house.

The Pharisee thought it was enough to have Jesus over for dinner and talk about God. Martha thought it was enough to be much serving and preparing. The disciples thought it was enough to use a little perfume on Jesus but save the rest of it for the poor. On the surface it would seem they are correct, but Jesus shows us a more excellent way. We must deny ourselves, but we must never deny Him. With Him, we can never say, "Enough." He is worthy of all, nay more than all, more than we have: so He should receive all that we have, all that we are.

Ought Not This Woman Be Loosed
Chip Brogden

Jul 5, 2004"Ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom satan has bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from her bond on the Sabbath day?" (Luke 13:16)

Permit me to paint a picture for you.

Jesus is speaking to a packed assembly in one of the local synagogues. The people are listening closely as He talks to them about the Kingdom of Heaven and His Father's plan for them.

In the middle of His teaching, Jesus notices a woman there in the group. She cannot stand upright, but is bent over at the waist, face down to the ground. Without anyone telling Him so, Jesus perceived that she had been this way for eighteen years.

Jesus senses His Father moving, stirring within Him. His words trail off and He lapses into silence, appearing to be lost in thought as He fixes His eyes on her.

The people are waiting. What is He looking at? They all look at one another and then follow Jesus' gaze towards the back of the long hall.

There is the woman, hunched over and face down to the ground, oblivious to the attention she has generated, but wondering why it has grown so quiet.

Now Jesus calls her to come to Him! What? Yes, dear woman, you are the one. Follow the sound of My Voice and come here to Me.

Slowly and with great difficulty she walks towards the source of this gentle but powerful Voice, still bent over at the waist, trembling with fear.

What is He going to do?

"Woman, you are loosed from your infirmity!"

Cradling her face in His hands, He gently begins to raise her up so He can look her in the eye. And, for the first time in eighteen years, she stands up straight!

"I am healed!" she whispers. Then, as the reality of the moment sinks in, she finds within herself a voice she never knew she had, and begins to cry out, hesitatingly at first, then louder and louder:

"G-G-Glory to... the God of Israel! Hosanna... to the S-S-Son of David! Blessed be the Name of the Lord!! Praise the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob!!!!"

But the celebration is short-lived.

The ruler of the synagogue (the man who invited Jesus to speak) gets up from his seat, glares at Jesus, and then looks at the people. "There are six days for working," he hisses to the crowd. "Come back some other day to be healed. No work is to be done on the Sabbath day, not even a miraculous work!"

There is an uncomfortable silence. The woman who was healed begins to bow herself down again in shame, as if she has been punched in the stomach. But Jesus catches her, shakes His head "No," and with a smile encourages her to stand up straight and tall, which she does. He puts an arm around her to indicate that she should remain there with Him.

Then He turns to face the ruler of the synagogue.

The look on Jesus' face is indescribable, but I will try to describe it: He has the appearance of a Good Shepherd Who discovers a wolf in the act of devouring one of His little sheep. His eyes are passionate, penetrating, piercing, and determined, "like a flame of fire".

"You hypocrite!" Jesus says to the man in charge. "Don't each of you loose your ox or your donkey and lead them away to be watered on the Sabbath day? Then ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham, whom satan has bound for eighteen years, be loosed from her bond on the Sabbath day?" (Luke 13:15,16).

The leader opens his mouth to protest, but he can't utter a sound. The blood rushes to his face and he clenches his fists in frustration, yet he can't make a move. He can only take his seat again, silently hating himself for ever allowing Jesus to speak to his congregation, and vowing never to have Him back again.

"And when He had said these things, all His adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by Him" (Luke 13:17).

This is not just a miracle. It is a sign, and it is present truth for this day, this time, and this season.

We see that the Lord Jesus is on the side of liberty, freedom, deliverance, healing, setting free, releasing, and restoring that which is bound.

Religion, on the other hand, is on the side of bondage, tradition, conformity, uniformity, control, and manipulation.

This woman was indeed a "daughter of Abraham", a child of the covenant, and entitled to a rich spiritual inheritance in Christ! But eighteen years of "Sabbath day religion" had left her unchanged. She attended the services, she sang, she gave, she listened to the sermons, but she left out of there each week the same way she came in - hunched over.

What kept her bound? What exactly was this "spirit of infirmity"?

Some would automatically say she had a demon that needed to be cast out, and THAT was the spirit of infirmity.

Perhaps...

But things aren't always as they appear.

In most cases Jesus rebukes the demon and then sets the captive free. In this case, He sets the captive free and then rebukes the demon. Why?

I submit to you that though the woman was indeed bound by satan for eighteen years, the spirit that kept her bound was not living in HER, but was living in the religious ruler who wanted to keep her in her place.

It was the ruler of the synagogue who had the demon - not the woman.

All the people rejoiced - but their spiritual leader was indignant! The spirit behind him is clearly revealed in his attempt to regain control of the people, dampen their newly discovered joy, make the healed woman feel guilty for being healed, and even rebuke the Lord Himself - all the while hiding behind something religious, "the Sabbath", as his excuse.

Only satan enjoys keeping people in bondage. Only an evil spirit resents it when they are set free. Only a religious demon hates to see someone stand upright and look them square in the eye. So it resists and fears anything that it cannot control, working feverishly to maintain its own preeminence in the eyes of the people.

At work here is something more than just a physical healing. There is a spiritual confrontation taking place also.

So when the demon within the religious ruler protested that she should not be set free, Jesus spoke to its willing host directly:

"You hypocrite! Ought not this woman be loosed?"

Not only loosed from the thing that controlled her body, but the thing that controlled her spirit and her soul with its religious hypocrisy, demonic manipulation, and desire that she be kept "down".

"Ought not this woman be loosed?" To Jesus, anything less was unacceptable. She must not be bound! She must not be oppressed any longer! She must not be hunched over! Eighteen years of bondage is long enough! Loose her, and let her go free!

And in ten seconds, Jesus did something that eighteen years of religion had been unable and unwilling to do.

As I travel about I see many in the Body of Christ who are "bent over" with this same malady, held captive by that "spirit of infirmity" which prevents them from being able to stand upright, all because they are bound by religion and kept in place by the traditions of men, by their own "spiritual leadership".

But I also see Jesus calling to multitudes of hunched over people, calling them to Himself (just as He called that woman), that they may be set free from the things which have had them bound for so long.

How difficult it must have been to hear the voice of the Lord and then defy the leadership and go directly to Jesus, knowing that it would bring instant condemnation and criticism from that spirit of Antichrist. Had she "checked with the leadership" first, she would still be hunched over, because they would have told her it's illegal for Jesus to heal people on the Sabbath day.

Her first act of rebellion was to take those baby steps towards Jesus and away from religion and man-worship. But in taking that first step, she threw off the shackles that had bound her for nearly two decades. When she responded to the call of the Lord, He set her free from her bondage - spiritually as well as physically.

But SHE had to take that first step, however halting, however painful, and however uncomfortable it must have been.

I am glad she found freedom in Christ. I am sad that the religious ruler went home still bound.

This is the word of the Lord to us individually, and it is also the word of the Lord to the Bride of Christ. We hear Him saying to us:

"Ought not this woman - My Bride - be loosed?"

And we say, "YES!"

May it be so, and may all His adversaries be ashamed. www.watchman.net

Mary Ellen Gilliland

July 5, 2004
Come unto Me, come unto Me and I will give you rest. That is where rest is found, in Christ. Now go forward in peace and rest because by My cross I have neutralized the power of the destroyer to destroy. Nothing can in any way harm you because he has no ground, no foothold, no authority and no legal right. Even evil works out to joyous, eternal good for you. NOTHING can in any way harm you. It is spoken and established. "Fear not" is given teeth by this understanding. At all times, in every way, I am with you. So fear not and fret not. God is a very present help in time of trouble. I am WITH you.

Go into the battle, go into the shaking of the heaven and the earth with the true and sure knowledge that your God is in control. Your God reigns! Be assured and tremble not as the earth shakes, for your God is steady and strong within you.

Cities Under God’s Glory

Charlie Robinson & Kevin Paterson

God is a God of cities. Throughout scripture, it is obvious that He places great emphasis on cities. After the exodus from Egypt , when the Israelites were about to move into the Promised Land, God commanded them to invade and occupy the heathen cities one by one. The apostle Paul writes a number of his letters to the churches—such as the Corinthians or Ephesians—according to the cities in which the people lived. When God speaks to the seven churches in the book of Revelation, He addresses them by the names of cities they lived in. For instance: “the church of Philadelphia ” or “the church of Laodicea ”. Even in heaven, as described in scripture, God has built a “city” called the New Jerusalem.

Just as God loves cities or, more specifically, the people within cities, He wants us to cultivate a heart for them too. In the same way that He emphasizes cities in His plans, so too, God wants us to reach the lost with His city-taking strategies. I believe that God wants His people to realize that the city they live in belongs to the Lord. According to Psalm 24:1, “The earth is the Lord's and everything in it.” Many of us have read good books about taking our cities for God and others have been actively involved in spiritually mapping their city. Yet the success stories seem to be few and far between.

However, I believe that we are on the verge of seeing whole cities affected by the power of God. In order to encourage you and give you vision for your city, I want to share some of the mighty things the Lord has done in our city and province over the last few years as we have prepared to see the glory of God fill our streets.

Believing God for your City

When God first began to speak to me about my city, I was unaware that he was even interested in it. Of course, I knew he loved people, but cities? Then I thought about how much he agonized over Jerusalem for not recognizing its hour of visitation. He wanted to gather them (the city and the people within it) to himself, as a hen gathers her chicks to itself. I believe that the Holy Spirit literally wants to come and settle down over my city. I believe he wants to "cover them with his feathers" as it were. I am firmly convinced that we will eventually see whole cities come to Christ. However, such dramatic awakening will only happen when we begin to believe what he has to say about cities.

For many years the Spirit has spoken to me saying I would see “the glory of the Lord in the land of the living”. I didn't know, until years later, that these words were in the Bible. David said, "I would have lost heart unless I had believed that I would see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living." (Ps.27:13) That Hebrew word "goodness" is the same word used when God promised to show Moses his glory. So, in effect, the word goodness means the glory of God. In my ministry, God is asking me to believe Him for ONE THING—the glory of the Lord in the land of the living. I'm to believe for His glory to be revealed now, not just when we get to heaven. God's glory is not just for Christians, it's for everyone to see. According to Isaiah 60, when the world sees the glory of God upon the church, the lost will come to its rising. God has shown me that if I will believe him, He will give His people the wisdom to work with Him to see the glory manifest. So, over the years, I have learned to believe God for the promise of His glory.

The Bible tells us that "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted unto him as righteousness" (Rom. 4:3). As Christians, we all know that when we believe God's promises, we reap tremendous results. The problem is, we don't know HOW to believe. We strive, we try to keep our confession right, we battle unbelief, and when we don't see the desired results, we feel condemned and give up. I don't know everything there is to know about faith and believing God, but I do know one thing. True faith is not found in striving, the number of prayers you pray or the amount of noise you make. True faith and belief in God is found in resting. In Hebrews 3 we are told that "He who enters into his rest ceases from his own labors." This was a key I found, unfortunately, after much unnecessary perspiration.

In the early eighties, God spoke to me about a powerful move of His Spirit that would occur in Abbotsford. He gave me angelic visitations, visions and powerful heavenly experiences over a period of about eighteen months. During this time, God showed me a mighty wave of his Spirit that would crash upon our city and touch every soul. I saw an army of youth hitting the streets with signs and wonders happening everywhere. I saw gigantic revival centers where Christians were being sent to the nations to bring this flood of his glory to the ends of the earth. I was so moved and transformed by these supernatural experiences that I immediately began to preach everywhere about the coming revival that would hit our city.

My wife and I started a home group and we saw God visit us in a powerful way. We brought in speakers and had meetings. We saw God touch many people - and yet the whole city was not impacted by the power of God like he had shown me. I began to wonder if there was more I could do. So I began to read books and listen to tapes about city taking. One day, after reading a book about bringing down the demonic principalities over cities, I decided to walk the streets and command these principalities to "come down and leave my city". I didn't know it, but this exercise was about to change my life and destiny - but not the way that I thought it would.

An Encounter with God's Wisdom

As I walked the streets of Abbotsford, I prayed earnestly for my city. I looked up and shouted out at the principalities over my city to "come down immediately". I bound, I loosed, I yelled and I pounded my feet. I even shook my fist. This city belonged to God, I thought to myself, therefore I have a right to demand that the devil take his hand off it. Right then and there, the Lord spoke loudly and clearly to me. He said four words that changed my life. "WHAT ARE YOU DOING?" You know you're in trouble when God doesn't even know what you're doing. My shoulders slumped and I remember feeling embarrassed. "But I'm taking the city for you, Lord. I'm breaking the enemy's power over this region, just like I read in the book." Then God had mercy on me. He showed me that what I had been doing was completely based on human zeal and that I was actually doing more harm than good. Without any wisdom whatsoever, I had engaged the enemy from a carnal mind and not with the mind of Christ.

Then the Lord began to give me His wisdom for city taking. He showed me that when a civilized army goes to war against another army, they do not start by bombing the schools, the day care centers and hospitals. He told me that my kind of "scatter shot" prayers were like bombs landing indiscriminatingly on everything—without any planning, my spiritual assaults were doing more harm than good. No, when a civilized army goes to war, they strike military targets. They zero in on the enemy's strongholds and send in pinpoint missiles to destroy them.

Bombing Strategy from God

Then he asked me what I was praying for. I replied that I was praying for the city. He told me to be more specific and tell him what I wanted most to see changed in this city. I told him I wanted to see him touch the youth in our city. He asked me what I thought was the number one military instillation that affected our youth. Then it just came out of my belly. The arcades! I want to see the arcades closed down! We had three arcades in our city. They were like snake pits. They were dark and dreary and all three of them were known drug dens. Then the Lord said this to me: You pray and I will close all three down. It was that simple. I knew, the moment he spoke those words, it was done. All I had to do was keep up my end of the deal and we would witness a miracle.

Understanding the power of agreement, I asked three other people to pray and agree with me. At the end of the first week I was on my way to church when I noticed one of the arcades had been emptied of its' machines. I stopped and walked up to it. A crude sign was taped to the front door. It read: CLOSED BY POLICE BECAUSE OF DRUGS. The following week the biggest of the arcades was closed down permanently. Again, we found out about the closing when we drove by and saw all the machines removed. It took another two weeks and the last arcade was closed for good. All three arcades were closed in less than a month! Why? Because God loves our cities and desires to see real change come.

Unfortunately, we get in the way of this transformation process—we often operate out of human reasoning. We take the Bible and then try to apply human wisdom to see promises fulfilled and to get the job done. But any wisdom that does not come from God is "earthly, sensual and demonic"(James 3:15). This is why it is imperative that we walk only in the wisdom of God. If we do, we will begin to actually see good fruit in our lives and ministries and then we will finally see God move powerfully in our cities. "But the wisdom that is from above is... full of mercy and good fruits"(James 3:17).

The Power of God's Manifold Wisdom

It takes the wisdom of God, and then ACTING on that wisdom, to destroy the strongholds of demonic principalities over your city. How do I know that? Ephesians 3:9-11 says that the Father, "…created all things through Jesus Christ; to the intent that now the manifold wisdom of God might be made known by the church to the principalities and powers in the heavenly places according to the eternal purpose which he accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord." God has an "eternal purpose" for your city—that purpose is established when you receive part of the "manifold wisdom" of God for your city and then act on that wisdom.

Acting upon that wisdom will defeat the enemy in that particular arena of conflict. Every time! You will notice that in this scripture it uses the word "manifold" or "many folded" to describe this kind of wisdom. This wisdom is like an accordion filing system. It looks like a big manila envelope until you open it up and it springs wide open, revealing many hidden pockets. To the casual Christian God's manifold wisdom looks like two dimensional words on a page. But to the one who seeks and desires it, His wisdom takes on a third dimension—a spiritual dimension, not only of truth, but of POWER able to change the world you live in.

Let me speak one word of caution for all the lone rangers out there who may be tempted to go off on their own and "win their city for Jesus" by themselves. There is safety in numbers. Surround yourself with good men and women who love God and have a kingdom vision. You are not the only Christian in your city and neither is your church the only church. There are a lot of Christians in churches in Abbotsford who may not like everything I do or even believe everything the way I believe it. But they love Jesus and many of them may have paid a greater price than I have to see God revive this city. A body has many parts and just because we have had some great experiences or more revelations than others, does not mean that other believer's roles in our city is any less significant than ours. In fact, those Christians from “other streams” may just have the missing keys that you need for the transformation of your city.

Hail, Hail, Lion of Judah

Let me share a powerful example of what can happen to a city when God speaks one word of his manifold wisdom to our hearts. A number of years ago, while working with Patricia King's ministry, Kevin Paterson and myself lead a youth tour across Canada . We had a tremendous time, seeing the Lord move in power through these young people wherever we went. One of our stops was at the Toronto Airport Church , where I ended up on the floor, roaring like a lion. As I lay there, my hands felt like lion's paws and I could see a vision of a map of Canada with veils hanging over each province. In intercession, as I began to tear at these veils in the spirit, I could literally feel the lion of Judah tearing the veils of religion that held each province in captivity. After some time the experience waned but I was left with a real expectancy that God was about to do something earth shaking. Upon leaving Toronto , we headed west again, back to B.C. On the way to one of the last cities we were to visit on our tour, some of the young people began to pray and travail. As they did, the power of God hit both Kevin and I. I immediately began roaring like a lion as the Spirit of God rose up with a great cry from my inner man. Suddenly the Lord spoke to me. He told me that there was a spirit of religion over that city we were entering and that the demon power's headquarters was in the church we were going to! I thought, “Great, what do we do about that?!”

Then the Lord dropped a word of wisdom into my spirit. He told me that we were called to bring that spirit of religion down from over the city and then He gave me a strategy. I was to forget all the messages I had planned to preach at this church and I was to preach on "Having a Form of Godliness but Denying its Power" (2 Tim. 3:5). He told me that I was to look at the people when I preached but that my words would go straight up into the heavenlies and the power of his word would bring this stronghold down. I was about to tell Kevin what the Lord had just told me to do when he looked at me and said that the Lord had just showed him that we would have to deal with a religious spirit over this church.

The following day I was motoring along, preaching what the Lord gave me, looking at the people, but knowing that my words were going straight up. Later I found out that two of the intercessors traveling with us on the trip had been doing a prayer walk around the church when they felt that something broke in the heavenly realm. They came back in during my message. Then, in the middle of that afternoon session, it happened!! A great storm began to shake the area, the sky opened up and hail fell from heaven. Boy did it come down. Now, we're not talking cute little white puffs of hail here. We're talking hail the size of ice cubes and bigger, landing in a three city-block area of the church, with us in the middle.

The hail came down with such violence that it broke both the side mirrors and sky light on our van. The cars in the parking lot looked like someone had tipped them sideways and driven hundreds of golf balls into them. The huge church skylight was broken and water was pouring into the main sanctuary through the light fixtures in the ceiling. Unfortunately, there were three car dealership lots within a three block radius of the church. A month after this incident the provincial auto insurance company reported three million dollars in insurance claims as a result of this incident.

It was an incredible, awe-inspiring sight. Outside the church the hail was piled up everywhere and we knew that something had broken in the heavenly realm, but we weren't quite sure just what it was, yet. Right at that moment a fire truck, sirens blazing and lights flashing, came racing into the driveway. The firemen jumped out and told us that they had been informed that the church was on fire! At first, when they saw our Catch Fire t-shirts, they thought we were playing a joke on them. Well, after the firemen discovered no physical fire was in the building, we had a team picture taken with the firemen while we stood around the fire truck with hail on the ground. And this powerful event took place in the middle of August! Later, the Lord began to reveal scriptures to us that spoke of God judging His enemies with hail, lightening and fire! All, I could think about was the song “Hail, Hail, Lion of Judah!”

City-Changing Prophetic Decrees

The next morning I felt very impressed to ask the youth pastor, a fine man of character, if he felt there was a spirit of religion holding back the Spirit of God in his church. When I asked him my question, he began to cry and told me this story: he said that for fourteen years their church had never had one soul come to Christ at any of their services (and this was a fair-sized church). He told me that his pastor would not allow anyone to call him pastor because he didn't have a college degree. He said that over the last fourteen years, every time the Spirit would begin to move in power in the church, the pastor would stop it immediately. On top of that, the young man was thinking of stepping down as youth pastor because the church wouldn't pay him much because he lacked the credentials they required. I told him that both Kevin and I felt that God was going to do something significant in the service that night.

At the end of the evening service we went to pray for the youth pastor. As I stepped forward I felt like I walked right into the Spirit of God. I looked at this man and told him that three things were about to happen. First, I told him that within a month an outside youth ministry would come, asking him to take some leadership and that they would pay him a partial salary. God wanted him to take this position because it would allow him to remain at the church because God was about to do something there. Next, I told him that God was going to remove his pastor from the church and He was going to do it fast. Then I turned around and pointed up into the top of the a-frame church and said, "You foul spirit of religion that has been harassing and mocking these people all these years, come under this man's feet!" I pointed at the youth pastor's feet because I believed God wanted to put that spirit under his feet. When I said that, the youth pastor went down under the power of God—you could feel the victory in the spiritual atmosphere.

About eight months after this event, Kevin and I were contemplating another youth trip across the province. We thought it would be good to visit this church again so we gave the youth pastor a call. He told me that he was about to call me and let me know what had happened since we had ministered to him. He said that within one month of our visit, Young Life youth ministry approached him about coming on part-time staff, so he took the position knowing it was a part of God's plan. Not only that, within a short time of our visit there, the church board held an emergency meeting and voted to let the senior pastor go after fourteen years as pastor. The Sunday after the vote, for the first time in fourteen years, somebody gave their heart to the Lord during the morning service.

However, the most amazing thing, he said, was that just the week before my call the organist of the church came to talk to him privately. She said that for eight months she had held onto some information, not telling anyone because she thought that people would think she was weird. Eventually she decided to tell this youth pastor because he was the only person she figured might understand. She went on to say that for fourteen years she had played the organ during worship in that church and that every single Sunday, as the people would begin to sing, she would feel two evil eyes staring down from the top of the church and mocking them. She said that although she felt the same thing every single Sunday for fourteen years, the experience stopped the Sunday following the meetings with our youth team. And the evil demonic eyes had not come back since then! After this heaven and earth-shaking encounter the city experienced a mighty move of God among the youth. Youth from a variety of churches were getting together and a harvest of souls began to come in. Praise the Lord!

Just as He shook this small Canadian city, God wants to invade cities all over the earth. He is looking for people who love their city and who will stand in the gap until his glory fills its borders. Is your city wicked? Remember that Abraham pleaded with God for mercy on a very wicked city. In the same way, God is looking for people who will wait on him and receive the wisdom they need to change their city. It's time to shout with praise, because the Lord has given you the city. In "Cities Under God's Glory" part two, I will share with you the amazing things that God has done to prepare us for a great deluge of his power!

PART II

By Charlie Robinson

God has a great plan for your city. As mentioned in the previous article, God's ultimate desire is to fill your city with the His glory and touch the hearts of every living being within its borders. The enemy has set up camp and has done everything he can to oppose this end. There is nothing you can do in the natural realm to bring God's will to bear in your city and change the atmosphere in and around it. However, if you understand two things, you will be on your way to seeing the destiny of your city changed, and the destiny of the people within it transformed. First—you don't know what to do. Second—God does.

Although simple, few people understand the power of embracing these two spiritual facts. Most of the time, we read a good book or listen to a good tape; then we start out in battle with a handful of principles and someone else's experiences. When we don't see the revival move of God begin to happen as we had planned, discouragement sets in and we begin to doubt God's abilities. Too many times we have faced the enemy with a doctrine and a principle without hearing the voice of the Lord for strategy specifically for our city or situation.

Look at the life of Jehoshaphat in 2 Chronicles; his entire nation was under siege and he was faced with a battle he could not possibly win. After proclaiming a fast, and with the whole nation standing before him, he came to this conclusion : "O our God, will you not judge them? For we have no power against this great multitude that is coming against us; nor do we know what to do, but our eyes are upon You" (2 Chron. 20:12) Basically, he was saying, "God, we don't know what to do, but you do." Look what happened immediately after this declaration from the lips of the king. The prophet spoke and delivered the prophetic word for the hour! The wisdom of God, from heaven, was made known to God's people. As a result, later in the story the Lord himself wiped out the armies of the enemy and saved an entire nation from destruction.

However, the people needed to obey one more admonition from the king before winning the battle: "…Believe in the Lord your God, and you shall be established; believe his prophets, and you shall prosper" (2 Chron. 20:20). The king knew that nothing would take place without believing the word of the Lord. Churches need to admit to God that they don't have the answer to the problems of their city, and only the manifold wisdom of God can show them how to see their city transformed by the glory of God. It took the wisdom of God to win the battle. The victory manifested only after the nation humbled itself and admitted it was powerless without God. Let me share with you some victories that God has given us in our city after we listened to the word of the Lord.

DREAMS AND VISIONS

In 1984 and 1985 I received a series of visitations concerning a coming move of God in my city, Abbotsford , British Columbia , Canada . These visitations lasted for a period of about 18 months. The first one happened in March of 1984. I was working at a dump truck manufacturing company in Langley , B.C., a town about twenty miles from Abbotsford. The business owner, a wonderful Christian man, was on the board of directors of Kenneth Copeland Ministries. During that month I had three very vivid dreams. In each dream, Kenneth Hagin would visit me and talk to me for about two hours concerning the move of God. In each dream, after Kenneth finished talking to me, I would fall out under the power of God. Then I would wake from the dream bathed in the most wonderful presence of God. For quite some time, I never told anyone about these dreams. A few weeks after these dreams, a co-worker informed me that Kenneth Hagin had phoned the company's owner to tell him that he was praying for his business and his employees during the month of March!

During this time, God showed me visions of how he would begin the revival in our city. He would begin with young people and move with great power in their lives. He told me that unlike the adults, who were stuck in their religious ruts and traditions, the youth would come together when God poured out His Spirit, regardless of their church background. He showed me the intensity on their faces and their great zeal for God. In one vision I saw the contorted face of a young man and I thought for sure he had a demon. But when I looked closely at this face, I realized it was the intensity of the Holy Spirit working through him. In those days, the Lord told me to be very careful how I judge what I see happening in the church in the years to come because He was going to move on people in a way that the church was not comfortable with.

Over the years, I have prayed earnestly and done many things to try to bring revival to our city. But it seemed the more I tried to do, the more I heard God calling me to simply believe what he told me. Revival will come to your city. Yet, the more time passed, the more impatient I would get. I wanted to see it happen NOW! So I would start doing stuff, with little success. Then God would come to me and tell me that the battle wasn't mine, it was His and the only fight I was to fight was the good fight of faith. He told me that I was to believe what he told me would come to pass. Period! Just believe Him and act only on what He told me to do. I began to understand Hebrews 6:12 , which tells us that we receive the promises of God through faith AND patience. I learned how to stand in faith daily, believing God to bring a visitation to my city. Then the miracles began to happen…

A NEW NAME

Our city was not always called Abbotsford. In fact, not that long ago, it was called Matsqui, a native word meaning “high place”. (You may remember what God commanded the Israelites to do to high places.) Abbotsford was actually a very small part of Matsqui. One day the Lord spoke to me and said, “I want to change the name of the city.” He told me He wanted to change the name of the entire city to Abbotsford, and I was to pray to that end. I remember going to my friend, Kevin Paterson, and saying “God wants to change the name of our city! Let's get together and believe God for it.” He told me that he felt it was God, so we began to pray. Can you imagine asking God to change the name of your city?! We did it because we were absolutely convinced that God had spoken. Well, lo and behold, in the midst of our praying, the surrounding towns (three in all) decided to amalgamate. Then came a public referendum to decide the new name of the city. And what name do you people voted as the new name? You guessed it—Abbotsford. Later, we actually did a study of the meaning of that name. The word Abbot, in the Gage Canadian Student Dictionary, comes from the Hebrew word Abba, which means Father. The word ford means to cross over a river. I believe the Lord has shown us that Abbotsford is destined to be a forerunner for the apostolic move of God and to help the body of Christ cross over to the promised land of revival. I believe that God is calling this city to be a place which reestablishes the Fatherhood of God in the church and allows His love to flow freely to the world.

THE SIGN

Several years ago I was working in a classroom at a local school, making calendars for a special needs classroom. I used to work as an artist, so I was often called upon to make posters or signs for classes and teachers. This particular day I was putting the finishing touches on the month of November. For every month I had made a different symbol with a date of the month on each one. For the month of November I made thirty little white clouds, with a blue outline around each one, and a yellow lightning bolt coming out of it. As I was finishing this, I began to think about the promises that God had given me concerning my city. I thought about the young people He would raise up—those who would shake the earth for God.

As I sat there, I began to pray and go over in my mind all these wonderful things. Then I said, “Lord, tell me just one more time that I'll be there. Tell me one more time that when the great explosion of Your power hits the earth, I will be there.” Immediately the word of God exploded loudly within me. “WHEN IT STRIKES, YOU WILL BE THERE!” Instantly I began to weep, completely forgetting the fact that I was in the corner of a classroom with a bunch of other people in it. All I could do was look down at these thirty white clouds, with blue outlines and yellow lightning bolts and think: “Thank You Lord. When it strikes, I will be there!

When the class finished I packed up and headed home. On the way I stopped at the Mohawk Gas station on McCallum Road . As I walked into the store, I froze in my tracks. In front of me was a big Lotto sign hanging on the wall—on it was a picture of a giant cloud with a blue outline on it. It had a big yellow lightning bolt coming out of the cloud. Underneath the picture, I read: “WHEN IT STRIKES, YOU WILL BE THERE!” I stood there for minutes, just looking at this thing. Standing there, I realized how serious God was about visiting our city with power. And the best part about it was – I was going to be there to see it!

THE LIGHTNING STRIKES

Never would I have guessed the sign God was about to give as further confirmation. It happened at Patricia King's house. I have had the privilege of ministering with Patricia on a number of occasions. In fact, her and her husband Ron lived about ten minutes from us for many years. They have a wonderful family and international ministry. One day, I received a phone call from Patricia, asking me if I wanted to join her and a few others for prayer at their house that night. She said she felt very impressed to gather a few people together and seek God. I was about to say yes when I remembered that I was going to a renewal meeting that night with a few friends. She asked me who I was going with, so I told her it was Kevin Paterson, who had also worked with Patricia's ministry, as well as a young guy that Kevin was working with in a small youth ministry. I asked her if we could bring him along to the prayer meeting. She said we could, and so all three of us all ended up at her place.

While we were worshipping the Lord, this young guy cries out, “I just got hit by lightning!” After a few minutes he asks, “Did you see that? There's lightning in the room, I just got hit again!” Then I realized it – THE LIGHTNING! It's here! But I didn't see it at all. Patricia saw it. The young guy saw it. But I didn't see a thing. Still, I knew it was happening and that we were being visited by the lightning of God. Afterwards I complained to the Lord that I didn't see it and others did. He told me that He never told me I would see it, only that I would be there when it struck!! Not long after this experience, the young man was invited by Patricia to a woman's meeting on Mother's Day. At the meeting he was released into full time ministry and is now touching the world with the gospel of Jesus Christ. You may have heard of him—his name is Todd Bentley.

GOD USES PEOPLE

God uses ordinary people for extra-ordinary purposes. When you pray for revival, always be prepared for God to use you. In fact, EXPECT God to use you and be available to work the miraculous on His behalf. But you also need to realize that God will use others as well. The problem we have in most cities is that every church is doing their own thing and we don't recognize others in our city who God has also called to bring His glory to our area. Remember this important fact: when God releases His glory in a city, He will use a man or woman. Are you praying for the glory of God to fill and impact your city? Then look for those who are carrying the anointing to get the job done.

I believe there have been countless men and women whom God has raised up to lead cities into revival that have either been rejected by the church or not recognized for who they were. Even Jesus lamented the fact that Jerusalem did not recognize its redeemer and had missed its hour of visitation. How many other cities around the world have missed their hour of visitation and rejected the anointed men and women of God sent to bring His blessing. Many times these people are not accepted because of the package they come in, the way they minister or because they are not a part of particular groups. “There's no way God could use them to bring about the purposes of God!” some may think. As Jesus said, “Beware the leaven of the Pharisees!”

In 1 Kings 8:16 we find out how God looks at bringing His presence into a city: “Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I have chosen no city from any tribe of Israel in which to build a house, that My name might be there, but I chose David…” When we pray for our city, God sends us a man. What does this man have to do? He has only to do what's in his heart. Verse 17 says, “Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a house for the name of the Lord God of Israel .” Too often we stand around waiting for God to do something. Many times He is waiting for us to do what's in our hearts. God is looking for men who will live out of the abundance that's already on the inside of them. (The kingdom of God is within you!) God is raising up an army of such people—people who will bring life and vision back to the church because they simply live out what is already within them, placed there by the Spirit of God. God is giving us gifts in the form of anointed men of God who will not only proclaim, but demonstrate His glory in the earth.

PART III

By Charlie Robinson & Kevin Paterson

In the first two parts of Cities Under God's Glory we talked about God's heart for cities and how we can believe God for wisdom and strategy for seeing our cities transformed for His glory. In this final part, we will examine some practical steps in preparing your city for revival and we will also talk about some keys that some people miss in their battle plans for their city. My friend, Kevin Paterson, has co-written the last two parts of this article with me—he has worked together with me in ministry for years and has been part of some of the city impacting events I've already described. He was also involved in the beginnings of Fresh Fire.

During the last 20 years or so, we have seen God release powerful teaching and revelation to His people about how to impact their cities and prepare them for revival. Many Christians have read the powerful book Taking Our Cities For God by John Dawson or other similar books, including writings, like those by George Otis Jr., Peter C. Wagner and Cindy Jacobs about spiritual mapping of cities.

First, I (Kevin) would like to give a brief overview of some of these teachings, then Charlie and I will discuss some principles that are often forgotten in city-taking efforts. Here's a brief summary of some of the powerful revelations teachers on city-taking have brought to believers to help them bring revival to their cities:

1. Redemptive Calls Over Cities: John Dawson, in Taking Our Cities For God , explains how the Lord has placed a redemptive call on each city. However, in every case, the enemy tries to pervert that call. For instance, Los Angeles (The Angels), named after God's messengers, is called to bring God's pure message to the world. Yet, the enemy has perverted the call so that this city spews the impure, godless message of Hollywood around the world. Another city, Salt Lake City , Utah , had a role in providing provisions and blessing for the pioneer's before their wagons rolled west. However the enemy has perverted this call through false religion. God wants to restore these redemptive calls on cities.

2. Gates of Cities: as already mentioned in previous parts of this article, every city has gates or entry places for spiritual influences. Gates can include sins committed in the city, religious practices, political decisions made (good and bad) and traumas to the city like some type of natural or man-made disaster. By studying the history of the city, Christians can repent for past sins in the city and prayerfully break strongholds.

3. Territorial Spirits: The scripture talks about principalities and powers (Eph. 1:15), demonic forces which have authority over certain regions or cities. Each territorial spirit assigned to a place is responsible for enforcing a specific evil agenda in that area such as materialism, lust, fear, violence or unbelief. Scripture tells us about Daniel who prayed for 21 days before two angels overcame the demonic prince of Persia and brought the answer (Dan. 10). These same kinds of demonic forces oppose God's will and hinder revival in regions throughout the world today. New York City is in bondage to a spirit of mammon, Chicago is controlled by a spirit of violence and the nation of South Africa is oppressed by disunity and separation (through the apartheid system). As God's people begin to discern the nature of the attack in their city or region, they are more equipped to overcome in prayer and get strategy for action.

4. Spiritual Mapping: As already mentioned, through Spirit-led study, believers can spiritually map a city, find out the nature of demonic strongholds and pinpoint geographic locations of sin needing cleansing. This method allows Christians to strategize and, through prayer walks, praise and intercession, prepare their city for revival.

5. Unity: As teachers on strategic prayer warfare emphasize, unity among believers is very important in preparing a city for the invasion of God's glory. Usually, the more widespread the unity among lay people, intercessors and leaders, the better. As religious/denominational walls come down and as offenses are dealt with, Christians in a city gain the authority necessary to fully empower their prayers and actions.

6. Worship: Just as Jehoshaphat in scripture routed the enemy by sending the worshippers ahead of the army into battle, so too, Christians today can destroy strongholds through worship. As we worship in faith, the Lord's forces begin to route the enemy over areas. There are many stories of impacting strategic worship in places like the red light district of London, the desert of Mongolia and an island in the South Pacific. Such worship has led to the exposure and judgement of sin, the breaking of curses and the salvation of thousands of souls.

7. Wisdom/Waiting: In getting strategy from the Lord for taking cities, it is vital to spend time waiting on the Lord for wisdom. First we should get wisdom from heaven, confirmed in the mouths of many, before acting on it. City-taking principles are not enough—we need to clearly hear from God how and when to apply them

8. Identificational Repentance: Just as Daniel, as a righteous man, identified with his people and asked the Lord for forgiveness on their behalf, so too we can ask for forgiveness from the sins affecting our cities. Such repentance allows the Lord to spiritually cleanse the land and remove demonic strongholds which bar the way to revival.

9. Overcoming Evil with Good: This principle is based on Paul's teaching which says, “Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good” (Rom. 8:1). Jesus' also taught us to love our enemies and to do good to those who hate us. In our cities we can activate this truth by walking in humility when the predominate spirit is pride; by living with zeal when the enemy has enslaved people with apathy; or, by cultivating vital relationships when the prevailing spirit is isolation. As we to live in these ways, we begin to weaken and defeat strongholds of the enemy.

10. Covenants with God: As we know from scripture, God is a God of covenant—He always honors covenants and keeps His promises to His people. In the book of Genesis, God made a covenant with Abraham and his descendants which continues to be fulfilled today. Today, we can also make covenants with God for revival and salvation in our cities because He truly does want the people of our cities to be saved. Just like Isaiah, God wants us to say, “For Zion's sake I will not hold My peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her righteousness goes forth as brightness, and her salvation as a lamp that burns” (Isaiah 62:1).

11. The Power of Travail & Intercession: Certainly the power of fervent, unified prayer and fasting must be one of the most powerful aspects of preparing a city for a visitation of God's glory. Jesus teaches about the power of tenacious prayer with the stories of the persistent widow and the importunate neighbor. God is looking for those, who like Daniel and Nehemiah, will stand before God on behalf of their city, until the victory has been won.

Throughout the years, while ministering in different churches, we have talked with many Christians who have heard or read these teachings on city taking we have just summarized. They told us how they had eagerly implemented these principles yet had seen little or limited fruit. In fact, many of them had suffered great spiritual attack on their lives, family and churches. Some had experienced spiritual burnout, while others had left their churches as a result of a church split. We have come to see that believers often try to use the principles in books or the strategies that various revivalists or city/nation shakers, both past and present, have used—most often with little success. We have begun to ask the Lord, "What are Christians missing? And "What do they need to know to see breakthroughs in their cities?"

In recent years we have begun to recognize some vital keys that many believers tend to overlook:

Loving Unity

"And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love." (1 Cor. 13:13)

"And the glory which You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one… that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them as You have loved Me." (John 17:22, 23)

Scripture is very clear—love must be the motivation of everything we do and it is only when we are unified, one in love, that the world and our cities will be invaded with the Glory of God. Many Christians pray for revival or fight spiritual battles for their cities, yet their prayers are not fueled by love.

Years ago I (Kevin) was in a meeting with a group of Christian leaders—we were all asking questions of a well-known Argentinean revivalist. Charlie and I had been in a season of getting strategy from the Lord for our city and doing some strategic intercession and spiritual mapping. So I decided to ask the revivalist this question: "What is the most important word of advice you could give to people who are praying and believing for revival in their city?" I expected him to talk about prayer and fasting or to give some advice regarding strategic warfare. His answer surprised me. He said something like this: "If you want to see revival come to your city, the most important thing is that you first have a deep love for your city; that you weep for your city. Your prayer and strategic warfare will be ineffective without this burning love of God in your heart for the place you live."

Today, these words still ring in my heart. I believe this passionate love for the people of our cities is often missing when we pray for revival. Many Christians pray for all kinds of reasons other than love—because they've read a good book; because they want to see change; because they want to look like a powerful Christian; because it seems like a good thing to do; because they are around others who are doing it … or a multitude of other reasons. Not all these motives are necessarily wrong—they're just not the primary heart motive necessary to get the job done. The bible tells us that all things are possible for those who believe (Mark 9:23). However, scripture also tells us that faith (or belief) works through LOVE (Gal. 5:6). We must have love for mountain-moving, city-taking faith and prayer to work.

About two years ago, while I was working one day, the following phrase continued to go round and round in my mind: "Make love your greatest aim." I knew God was speaking to me—these words continued tumbling through my mind for hours. Eventually I said Him: "Lord, I've got the message already! I am trying to make love one of my goals in all I do." The Lord's response to me was quick and straightforward. "Kevin, I don't want you to make love one of your goals. I want it to be your greatest aim, your highest priority. Love should be the motive of everything you do."

For weeks and months after this, God began to reveal to me the motives for many things that I did. He showed me how, for years, truth was my greatest aim. I wanted to have my doctrine correct, to know scripture well, to understand all the scriptural principles for Christian living and to grasp the full gospel that the Spirit was speaking to the church. During another season of my life, power was my greatest goal. I wanted to learn about and walk in God's supernatural power. I wanted book of Acts Christianity restored to my life and the church. At another time of my life, revival was my greatest aim. I studied and read everything I could lay my hands on about revival—I prayed for it and I went everywhere I could where God was touching down powerfully. But now the Lord was saying that it wasn't truth, power, revival or prayer that was to be my priority—God wanted love to fuel and motivate everything I did. He began to shine His light on my motives in everything I did and said. As I began to recognize my bankruptcy in the area of love, I began to groan and cry out to the Lord to change me.

Then the Lord showed me how that every believer, movement and denomination had different aims or goals. Just like me, some built their world view, ministry and actions around truth or power or revival or evangelism or a multitude of other things. However, as this revelation began to drop into my heart, I began to realize that until God's people lined up their hearts with love, God's great priority, then none of our efforts to extend the kingdom would be fully effective in releasing the great harvest. I realized that motives are so subtle—many people may, at first, think their priority is love until the Spirit begins to illuminate the true motive of their hearts. The phrase continued to permeate my heart, yet I had not found it in any version of the bible. Then one day, Charlie and I were ministering in the U.S. when I stumbled upon a living bible and read, in 1 Corinthians 14:1, the phrase the Lord had been speaking to me for so long. I knew that God's message to “Make love your greatest aim” was a vital last days' message. When I shared this word with a prophetess overseeing the meeting, she was excited. She began to tell me about how that the Lord had told her that the last days move of God would begin with power but that it would be a move of “Transforming Love” that would usher in the great harvest throughout the world.

This message of transforming love began its workings even in the early days of Fresh Fire. I remember, many years ago, when a group of youth pastors and I began to pray for our city and its young people. For years we prayed regularly together for revival. When we started, our group consisted of about 30 youth pastors from various denominational backgrounds. Over the years, for various reasons, many of the pastors dropped out of these Youth Arise meetings, until finally, it was down to three of us who continued to meet for prayer. However, by this time, we were not as much concerned for revival as we were for each other. Yes, we were still praying for our city but we mostly just enjoyed coming together because we had begun to love each other. We were committed to each other even more than we were to our city. I realized later that the Lord was putting a love in our hearts for the youth of the city, but even more that that, He was loving our city through our love for one another. After standing and praying with each other over the years through many personal battles, we had become ONE in our love for each other and the city, we had begun to fulfill John 17:22, 23. And according to that scripture, the world was about to know that the Father had sent Jesus!

It was in that atmosphere of unified love that we decided to start some youth revival meetings called Fresh Fire. We agreed that we would believe for God to start a fire in our city that would impact many lives and then go to the nations. We started with a small group of on-fire youth. We would worship, preach and pray with a passion to see God touch the lives of youth in our city. Within a short time one of the youth pastors introduced to us a 22-year-old passionate street evangelist by the name of Todd Bentley. We asked him to give his testimony at one meeting and then had him preach another time. God visited so powerfully, that we decided to ask Todd to continue to minister in other Fresh Fire meetings.

Soon Todd embarked on a three-month soaking season with the Holy Spirit which involved various prophetic and angelic visitations. We continued to encourage Todd and pray for him as He grew in anointing and faith. He had many questions or even fears along the way, but we just continued to stand with him. We included Him in our loving community; now there were five of us. God amazed us at what He began to do through Todd. At our youth meetings, we had powerful visitations—the Holy Spirit would fall on everyone in the meeting with prophetic experiences, intercession, healing, joy and drunkenness in the Spirit. Within about five months Todd had an opportunity to speak at a meeting organized by a local prophetess. The Holy Spirit visited powerfully at that meeting too and the prophetess was led to publicly pray over Todd and release him into the ministry. Shortly afterward he began to get speaking invitations and was soon traveling to the nations with a powerful healing and prophetic anointing. Our local youth ministry, Fresh Fire, was launched to the world. The rest, as they say, is history.

Many people today still wonder, when they soak for hours and press into God in the same way as Todd did, why they don't find themselves having similar experiences, being launched to the nations or shaking cities. I do believe that God, in His sovereignty sometimes chooses certain people for specific tasks (to be discussed later). However, scripture also tells us that many are called but few are chosen. Not everyone responds to the call. However, most people don't understand the circumstances surrounding Todd's launch into ministry—I believe we can learn much from examining them. Remember, Todd's soaking and visitation season didn't take place in a vacuum, or while he was waiting on God on his own, in isolation. Years of loving, unified city prayer had prepared the way for this sign and wonder to be birthed. Not only had Todd served faithfully for years in his local church, where he was discipled, but he came into the ministry alongside a group of youth pastors who were walking in love, unity and faith for a revival that would go to the nations. God was faithful to answer our prayers; the answer just looked different than the way we initially thought it would. Our small local youth revival was eventually launched to the nations through a young man called Todd Bentley, under the banner of “Fresh Fire Ministries.”

PART IV

By Charlie Robinson & Kevin Paterson

In part three of Cities Under God's Glory we began to discuss some of the city-taking keys that Christians often overlook. Here are the final keys:

The Wisdom of God

“Wisdom is the principle thing, therefore get wisdom.” (Proverbs 4:7)

When it comes to seeing cities touched by the power of God, I (Charlie) believe that one of the greatest deficiencies is almost always in receiving the wisdom needed to get the job done. Another man's vision for his city is not the principle thing. Your fasting and prayer is not the principle thing. WISDOM is the principle thing (when received through a heart of love as described above). Sometimes we are so busy praying that we don't hear the Lord when he speaks. Sometimes we are so busy doing the stuff we have read about that we don't hear the Lord when he speaks. Study the prophets; they moved only when God spoke. The warfare over your city is not only incredibly powerful, it is incredibly complicated—to the human mind. But when God looks at what the devil is doing, He laughs! (Psalm 2:4) He knows exactly what it will take to win the victory—every time.

So what's the problem? We are the problem! If you and I operate by a list of principles, rather than the principle thing, wisdom, we will not accomplish the task we set out to complete. Oh, we might win a few skirmishes here and there, but in the end we lose the war because we don't wait on the Lord to hear his directives and initiate his strategies.

I had an amazing vision last year to illustrate this point: In this “interactive” vision, I was sitting alone in a dug-out, watching a baseball game. The score was nine to nine in the bottom of the ninth. Our best player was up to bat with a full count and the bases loaded. Suddenly the manager called time-out and told me to take our best player's place at the plate. Up to that time I was very content just to watch the game unfold as a spectator. Now I had to grab a bat and get in the game. When I got to the batting box, I suddenly realized that our team's name was called “The City Takers”. I also realized that we had never won a game. We had had some good innings, hit a few home runs and struck out a few opposing players, but we had never won a game—ever. It didn't matter how well we played during the game, we always found a way to lose in the end.

As I stood there facing the pitcher, I realized that he was the devil. He looked overpowering, with his huge muscles and a mean-looking smirk on his face. His piercing eyes glared down at me and my whole body felt like Jello. I suddenly realized that no city-taking team had ever beaten him. He had won every single game. His specialty pitches were the sinkerball, the screwball and the lowball. To make matters worse, with a full count on me, I knew I only had one chance to get the job done and drive in the winning run. I stepped away from the plate and contemplated what I would do. The word then came to me, “Swing for the fences…or bunt.” I thought to myself, I'll be the hero and hit a home run! But wait, if I bunt I might take them off guard and beat them by my craftiness. But if I miss—my name will be mud! Swing or bunt? I didn't know what to do and I wondered why the coach would take out our best player and put me in there in the first place.

Suddenly I had a revelation. If the coach put me in this position, He must believe that I was able to get the job done, even though I didn't believe it myself. So I got real quiet and ignored all the confusion in my mind. I figured that if God sent me up here, he had equipped me for the job. So I listened for that still small voice. Suddenly I knew what to do! I knew at that moment, we had won the game. Should I swing for the fences or bunt? I wasn't going to do either. In fact, I was not going to swing at all. I would stand there and watch the pitcher throw ball four and we win the game. Why? Because the still small voice of the Lord told me that the devil CAN'T THROW A STRIKE. Every single person he had struck out had swung at a bad pitch. The mightiest of them all were SURE they could hit his best pitch, but in the end they struck out because they leaned on their own understanding. Oh, the pitch looked good for a while, but in the end it always ended up in the dirt. He CANNOT throw a strike. The devil is the father of lies, he cannot tell the truth. He is counting on the church to continue in its' own wisdom and swing for the fences. But without God's wisdom, we swing at shadows. Without His word we are always guessing—and we ALWAYS guess wrong.

There's nothing like being the hero who wins the game by hitting the big homerun. What power! What amazing ability! If that won't work, what about the humble bunt? Perhaps this would be the strategy of the wise, crafty player who outsmarts the competition and takes them completely off guard.

But how much glory can a man get when he doesn't even swing the bat and wins the game anyway? Where is the glory in that? Exactly. God will not share his glory with anyone and we are certainly not going to defeat spiritual powers through our own plans. Remember…. “Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him. But God has revealed them to us through His Spirit. " (1 Cor. 2:9) Joshua, Gideon and Jehoshaphat all won victories when they followed God's unconventional wisdom in battle. The disciples, after fishing all night, drew in a large catch of fish when they obeyed the wisdom of Jesus to throw their net on the other side.

Are you tired of fishing all night and catching nothing? Maybe you're sick of striking out in the big game. You need to sit at the feet of Jesus and enter into his rest. You need to hear his voice, not only for the preparing your city for revival, but for your relationships, your finances and your own walk with him. That doesn't mean you stop reading good books or praying earnestly for revival, but you must hear the voice of God in these matters. Remember, wisdom is the principle thing, therefore get wisdom.

Individual Authority Limits

Every person is called by God to fulfill a divine purpose while they are on the earth. Each individual is uniquely fashioned by God and equipped to carry out his or her calling. We must, however, understand that there are offices and levels of ministry that not everyone will walk in. Some people think that because another person walked in a specific anointing that they can also lay claim to their anointing and duplicate their ministry. Although this duplication phenomenon does happen for some people from time to time, it won't be the norm for every person. The Word of God tells us to "eagerly desire spiritual gifts" but the outworking of those gifts will be unique to the individual.

I (Charlie) have had a number of people come up to me and say something like this: "I spent three months soaking in God's presence like Todd Bentley, I listened to all of Todd Bentley's tapes and I prayed that God would anoint and use me like him. Two years later I'm still not in the ministry; I don't see the miracles he does and I'm extremely discouraged. What is wrong with me?"

"The answer is easy,” I tell them. “You're not Todd Bentley. You are unique to God. You should soak in God's presence—it's awesome that you want to be anointed and used like Todd and see God do miracles through your hands. I want that too! But I'm not Todd Bentley either." As Todd's friend for a number of years, I know a few things about him that you may not know. For instance, I know the kind of price Todd paid for what he has. I used to hang out with him during his "soaking period." I remember going to revival meetings where he would sit there under the power of God listening to the speaker. He would be completely drunk in the Spirit and half slumped over. Every now and then he would raise up his head and say something that, half the time, I didn't understand. I knew God was doing something but there were times when I wondered what the heck was going on. I mean, how can a guy be completely overpowered by the Spirit day after day—come on! I have to admit that sometimes I wondered what people were thinking about me hanging out with this seemingly perpetually drunk person.

Remember, at that time, this was not Todd Bentley the international evangelist—no, this was Todd, the young guy who was always sloshed! But he didn't care! He was too in love with Jesus to even think about it. His hunger for more of God had overtaken him and God's hunger for more of Todd became unquenchable. Together they let the world pass by as their intimacy grew, until one day God just had to release him to the world so that we could get a glimpse of what it's like to touch God in the secret place. Do you have such a consuming hunger for God that you are willing to lose your dignity and find your entire fulfillment in God? Will you allow the Lord to fuel your heart with a love for him that is greater than a love for ministry? If so, you can begin to ask God to anoint you like Todd. You can also believe that your life, along with those you partner with, will be used to shake your workplace, neighborhood, city or nation.

As you already have the same Spirit that raised Christ from the dead living in you, you are off to a great start. Having said this, understand where you are at with Christ. If you are asking God to give you a worldwide evangelistic ministry with signs following—are you being a witness first to your friends, family and neighbors? Are you praying for the sick wherever you are? If you are asking God for a revival in your city, are you sowing seeds of revival in your home? Are you loving, praying and fasting for your family, coworkers and friends? Are you loving your wife and training up your children in the things of God? Those of you who are believing God for the wealth of the world to come into your hands… are you giving generously to the poor and those that faithfully minister the gospel? You will reap what you sow. When I first met Todd, he had been saved less than a year. Do you want to know what he did in his spare time, almost every day? He went to the skateboard park and witnessed to teenagers. After he was married, Todd, along with his wife, mother-in-law and another man spent the summer witnessing at Mill Lake in Abbotsford almost every week. He was doing the stuff whether anyone noticed him or not. He loved the lost.

This article is about winning your city for Christ. Therefore, it is vital that we realize that God chooses different people for different jobs. You need to recognize those whom God has called to lead in strategic spiritual ground-taking. There will be those who are gifted and released to bring others together to win cities. Unfortunately, I believe that many times these people are either taken out, distracted into other ministry or, more commonly, not received as a person that God would use to this end. Jesus said that Jerusalem missed her hour of visitation. Why? Because she failed to recognize the one God had sent. You need to pray that GOD would send HIS laborers into the harvest field.

Also, you need to realize, as I wrote earlier, that you are not going to do it on your own—you are part of a team. Get rid of the super-star attitude that commonly affects much of the charismatic church. Humility is at a premium here. How about esteeming OTHERS higher than yourself like the Bible says? Begin to pray that God will raise others up into their ministry—don't just pray for your own ministry. Understand the authority that you have in Christ AND the authority that you have in your city. Those two things are not the same! I know of a woman in a large city in Canada who is allowed into the mayor's office to pray almost any time she wants to. And the mayor is not even a Christian. If I tried to walk in there and pray they would throw me out on my ear. Why? I don't have the authority that she has received.

As Todd says, you may have as accurate a gift of prophecy as he does but you may never get invited anywhere to speak. Why? Because you don't have the platform and thus the authority and favor from God to minister in the places that he ministers. He is walking in an office and calling that opens doors for him. He has been given a PLATFORM to minister from. We need to understand our individual authority limits. Too many of us head out to build a tower and give up before the job gets done. Why? Because we failed to count the cost. Some people go out to war without taking into consideration the size of the army they are up against. The devil is not going to roll over and quit just because you read a good book. When the authority of the kingdom of God is brought to bear upon the enemy—then, and only then, will the enemy loose his hold. If you have a heart for your city, pray that God will send his mighty warriors, those he has prepared for the battle. Also, prepare yourself and ask God to use you. I believe this is the hour that God is raising up deliverers to bring his kingdom to earth. Don't be fearful, but don't be presumptuous, either. Follow the Spirit and be a part of what God is doing in the earth today.

Truly God is raising up an army of believers walking in loving unity, with the wisdom and mind of God, who know their place in the battle and who will be part of great city-taking efforts. These last days' spiritual campaigns will bring transformation and harvest to cities and nations throughout the world.

Busy at work, busy at play, Think there’d be more time in the day.

Life has become SO busy My beloveds, but I always take time to listen to you. I never turn a deaf ear to those who are Mine. When I call to you, do you listen ? I surely am worth listening to, am I not ?
Am I not the Source of all wisdom ?
Am I not the Source of all knowledge ?
Am I not the Source of all understanding ?
Am I not the Source of all you need ?
Is anything too impossible for ME ?
Test your faith My beloveds.
Is there anything I don’t care about in your life ?
Is there anything too small, or too big for Me to handle ? “

Isa 40:5-7, 9-18, 21-31 NKJV The glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken." 6 The voice said, "Cry out!" and he said, "What shall I cry?" "All flesh is grass, and all its loveliness is like the flower of the field. 7 The grass withers, the flower fades, because the breath of the LORD blows upon it; Surely the people are grass.
9 O Zion, You who bring good tidings, get up into the high mountain; O Jerusalem, you who bring good tidings, lift up your voice with strength, Lift it up, be not afraid; Say to the cities of Judah, "Behold your God!"
10 Behold, the Lord GOD shall come with a strong hand, and His arm shall rule for Him; Behold, His reward is with Him, and His work before Him. 11 He will feed His flock like a shepherd; He will gather the lambs with His arm, and carry them in His bosom, and gently lead those who are with young.
12 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of His hand, measured heaven with a span and calculated the dust of the earth in a measure? Weighed the mountains in scales and the hills in a balance? 13 Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD, or as His counselor has taught Him? 14 With whom did He take counsel, and who instructed Him, and taught Him in the path of justice? Who taught Him knowledge, and showed Him the way of understanding?
15 Behold, the nations are as a drop in a bucket, and are counted as the small dust on the scales; Look, He lifts up the isles as a very little thing. 16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor its beasts sufficient for a burnt offering. 17 All nations before Him are as nothing, and they are counted by Him less than nothing and worthless. 18 To whom then will you liken God? Or what likeness will you compare to Him?

21 Have you not known? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning? Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?
22 It is He who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers, Who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in.
23 He brings the princes to nothing; He makes the judges of the earth useless. 24 Scarcely shall they be planted, Scarcely shall they be sown, Scarcely shall their stock take root in the earth, When He will also blow on them, and they will wither, and the whirlwind will take them away like stubble.
25 "To whom then will you liken Me, or to whom shall I be equal?" says the Holy One. 26 Lift up your eyes on high, and see who has created these things, Who brings out their host by number; He calls them all by name, by the greatness of His might and the strength of His power; Not one is missing.
27 Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel: "My way is hidden from the LORD, and my just claim is passed over by my God"? 28 Have you not known? Have you not heard? The everlasting God, the LORD, The Creator of the ends of the earth, neither faints nor is weary. His understanding is unsearchable. 29 He gives power to the weak, and to those who have no might He increases strength.

30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall, 31 But those who wait on the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

“ You will run and not grow weary My beloveds. I am coming to TRANSFORM you. What you will experience will go beyond your reasoning. I am NOT a man that I should lie, nor a son of man that I should change My mind. There is nothing you care about, that I am not taking into consideration. YOU must change your expectations. For I am doing a NEW THING. NOW it SHALL SPRING FORTH. ALL things will be RENEWED. ALL things will be RESTORED in your lives if you have been willing to pay the price.

I am coming like a whirlwind on the land and nothing will be left untouched.
No one will be left out. All will have to make a decision for or against ME.
There will be no excuse. I am sending many of you to the far corners of the earth. There will be many ministries brought to the forefront as I merge the body into a living organism. Old dead organs and cells will be excised.
Like dead tissue that only makes the whole body ROT, I will excise those parts. Some will merge with others who have the same calling. There will be marriages of ministries, and marriages of individuals that are called to apostleship, that will signal a new day in My church. A day when the Bridegroom will cohabitate with the Bride that they may fight together this war. Did you think that I would leave you alone in this final battle. I didn’t leave you alone the first time I came. I took the blows for you. I paid the price.

I tell you, that what you have seen is NOTHING compared to what you will see. What you have heard is NOTHING compared to what you will hear !
What you know is NOTHING compared to what you WILL KNOW ! “

Dan 12:4 AMP But you, O Daniel, shut up the words and seal the Book until the time of the end. [Then] many shall run to and fro and search anxiously [through the Book], and knowledge [of God's purposes as revealed by His prophets] shall be increased and become great. [Amos 8:12.]

Dan 12:8-10 AMP And I heard, but I did not understand. Then I said, O my lord, what shall be the issue and final end of these things? 9 And he [the angel] said, Go your way, Daniel, for the words are shut up and sealed till the time of the end. 10 Many shall purify themselves and make themselves white and be tried, smelted, and refined, but the wicked shall do wickedly. And none of the wicked shall understand, but the teachers and those who are wise shall understand. [Dan 11:33-35.]

Dan 12:12 AMP Blessed, happy, fortunate, spiritually prosperous, and to be envied is he who waits expectantly and earnestly [who endures without wavering beyond the period of tribulation] and comes to the 1,335 days!

Isa 11:8-9 NKJV 8 The nursing child shall play by the cobra's hole,
And the weaned child shall put his hand in the viper's den. 9 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain, For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.

“ Come My beloveds…Come up HIGHER. I have SO much to tell you. So much if you will take the time to listen and to read My word. I will show you great and mighty things. I will reveal to you secrets.
Come and listen to My still small voice and know that I have a treasury of gifts to still pour out.
I have pearls of wisdom and rubies and sapphires and diamonds to give you.
I am making you the JEWELS in My crown ! “

Mal 3:17-18 AMP And they shall be Mine, says the Lord of hosts, in that day when I publicly recognize and openly declare them to be My jewels (My special possession, My peculiar treasure). And I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him. 18 Then shall you return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God and him who does not serve Him.

Days of Grace and Mercy

"My mercy endures forever for those who are willing to receive it.
My mercy triumphs over judgment.
My mercy is new every morning.
My mercy is always brought to the humble.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow you, all the days of your life says My word.
My grace is poured out in the midst of mercy.
My grace will sustain you through anything you go through.
Nothing is too difficult that My grace cannot get you through it !
Ask and you shall receive, knock and the door will be opened.
Behold I AM standing at the door, waiting. Listen for I am speaking if you will only quiet yourself enough to hear.

Days of great harvest are soon upon you, and I want you to remember the grace that I have given you. I want you to remember the times I have patiently waited for you to come to Me with your problems. I want you to remember how at first you stumbled, that you would have MERCY on the new souls who will come in. A bruised reed, I do not break, smoking flax, I do not quench. Be gracious, as I am gracious and have been to you.

Do not judge by the sight of your eyes those I bring to you. Only ask ME about them so I can tell you their pain and sorrow. Ask ME for the power to deliver them. I am eager to meet every need of MY sons and daughters.
I AM changing and rearranging as I've said. KNOW that what I have spoken to you about for some time is NOW going to be implemented. I have not forgotten My promises. Nor will I forget your hearts desires.

Come My beloveds, and listen to your father when you feel confused about what to do, or what to say. Just ask, and I'll show you what to do. Increase your dependency on ME. Decrease your dependency on what you've been taught by others and allow ME to order your steps. Learn of ME, for I am gently and lowly of heart. Come to ME, and I will teach you all you need to know.

My plans are not your plans always. My wisdom is greater than your wisdom.
I am on a search and destroy mission. I am out to destroy all the works of the enemy, all the lies of the enemy that have hindered My children. I am searching your hearts and searching your minds, and I will wash and wash, and cleanse, until you are perfected in your ability to completely obey ME.

What are you preoccupied with ? What are you thinking to accomplish with your own will power ? Nothing will be accomplished unless you abide in ME, and I abide in you. Give to ME all your problems…Come and let me lift all the weight off your backs. Only say YES to My plans, and I will bring forth all that is needed. There is much to be done in the days ahead, so prepare your hearts for a flood of many souls. Perilous times have come, and you must not relax your prayers or worship now. You must be diligent in the foundational disciplines to make it through these times. My Word is LIFE so eat of it and be filled with wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of ME as well as getting it from time in My presence. It is healing to your bones.

Taste and see that the Lord is GOOD, and His MERCY endures FOREVER !

Lawlessness
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Jan 23rd, 2004 11:13 pm PST

Rom 5:20-21 NKJV Moreover the law entered that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace abounded much more, 21 so that as sin reigned in death, even so grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Matt 7:22-23 NKJV Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' 23 And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!'

Matt 23:28 NKJV Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

Matt 24:12-14 NKJV And because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow cold. 13 But he who endures to the end shall be saved. 14 And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come.

2 Thess 2:6-12 NKJV For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only He who now restrains will do so until He is taken out of the way. 8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming. 9 The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, 10 and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 11 And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie, 12 that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

My beloveds, the lawless one is increasing his work in the earth, but I have said, that where sin abounds, GRACE does abound MORE. Even as he spews forth his venomous tactics, I will pour out MORE of My GRACE towards those who are lost and in his clutches to give them a chance to give their hearts to Me. So be not surprised at the rise in violence and destruction.
Remember also that MERCY triumphs over judgment as you look upon these whom are lost. Keep yourselves from lawlessness, that you may not be found wanting. I warned all that in the final hour, just because you say you are Mine, does not make you Mine. Those who love Me, OBEY ME ! So ask for the grace to obey and to avoid temptation, as the wickedness escalates My beloveds. Emerse yourself in My presence, that you can withstand the taunts of the evil one.

Hold on to the Word of life and use it as a sword to quench his every dart and to take every thought captive. Do not allow him an inroad, for he is ravenous in this hour to steal and to rob from you and to destroy you. He knows that I have something special planned. He knows the words of the book, but not the correct interpretation, for his kingdom runs on fear and confusion. Pay him NO heed ! Keep your eyes on ME.

Do only what My Father says. Adhere to His guidance, and you will not be steered in the wrong direction. Let me hold you in My arms My beloveds, for I can soothe all the fears with My love. I can drown out the noise of the cacophony of rebellion and mocking with My touch. Lay your head on My lap, and let me soothe your mind with My words and my comfort.

I am calling to My warriors to stir up your zeal ! Come into My presence with worship and song. Dance with Me and bring judgment on the enemy’s forces with your music and worship of Me ! The enemy will be routed as you sing and praise Me and dance upon injustice ! I am calling out RESTORATION in the midst of your praises. I am calling out for the breaking of chains with each refrain. So come, and spend time with ME, and I will give you the nations. I will give you the prodigals. I will break the chains that bind them and destroy the works of the enemy over their lives. Sing aloud on your beds at night, and I will sing a song over you.

I have songs of deliverance coming forth that will destroy strongholds and people will be freed of their bondages. I have prophetic songs to be sung, if you will listen for My voice in the midst of worship. Allow MY VOICE to come forth and watch the healing and deliverance that will take place. But you must ALLOW ME to be pre-eminent ! I am Your Warrior King. I know what each person needs, and what it takes to set them free. I will not only use your words to do it. I will break the neck of the enemy with just a touch, with just a song, with just a desire in your heart to see it done. I will do things you have never seen, if you will just trust ME and ask ME what to do.

I have a mighty work to do in this hour My beloveds. I will not waste any experience in your life. I have need of you. I have so much to pour into you.
As you reach out to others, I will reach out to you. Take My hand and let me fill it, that you may fill the hands of others, that you may heal the hearts of others, that you may extend yours to others.

Isa 59:19 NKJV So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west,
And His glory from the rising of the sun; When the enemy comes in like a flood, The Spirit of the LORD will lift up a standard against him.

Mal 1:11 NKJV For from the rising of the sun, even to its going down,
My name shall be great among the Gentiles; In every place incense shall be offered to My name, And a pure offering; For My name shall be great among the nations," Says the LORD of hosts.

Ps 50:1-4 NKJV God the Righteous Judge A Psalm of Asaph.
The Mighty One, God the LORD, Has spoken and called the earth
From the rising of the sun to its going down.
2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God will shine forth.
3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silent; A fire shall devour before Him, And it shall be very tempestuous all around Him.
4 He shall call to the heavens from above

Isa 45:6-8 NKJV That they may know from the rising of the sun to its setting That there is none besides Me. I am the LORD, and there is no other; 7 I form the light and create darkness, I make peace and create calamity; I, the LORD, do all these things.'
8 "Rain down, you heavens, from above, And let the skies pour down righteousness; Let the earth open, let them bring forth salvation, And let righteousness spring up together. I, the LORD, have created it.

Isa 45:9 NKJV "Woe to him who strives with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth! Shall the clay say to him who forms it, 'What are you making?' Or shall your handiwork say, 'He has no hands'?

Did I not say these things ? Did I not say that the knowledge of the Lord would cover the earth as the waters cover the sea ? Has that been done ?
Have all tribes and tongues had the gospel preached to them ? Is there not yet a mighty work to be done ? Without a preacher, I have said, how will they know ? I HAVE NEED OF YOU. LISTEN TO ME MY BELOVEDS for the need in this hour is for YOU to spend time in ME, that you will get your marching orders, like a good soldier who listens to the master commander, I want you to WAIT on ME and get your orders from MY HEADQUARTERS.
Then what you do will be done by the Spirit, not by might, nor your own power. I use My prophets to speak for ME, but will you listen ? Will you be like the mule or the camel in the desert, going in circles ? I AM accelerating the pace and I will also ACCELERATE WITHIN YOU the work I am doing, so that YOU will walk in My will. Some of this will be walking on WATER, in order to build your FAITH. That is how faith works…NOT by what is seen, but by what I say to do, then I will give you what you need to do it. COMMIT first, then I proceed with following up MY WORDS with the GRACE to do it. GET OUT OF THE BOAT children !!! When I say to walk on water, that means to walk in FAITH, NOT in what has been comfortable.

COME on an ADVENTURE with ME ! FAITH is such an adventure and it brings great surprises, and great rewards. So do not entertain FEAR, just get out of the boat, like Peter did and KEEP YOUR EYES ON ME ! FOR I AM WITH YOU and even if you read Me wrong or understand Me wrongly, I am big enough to help you through that. JUST JUMP ! TAKE a LEAP OF FAITH.

To many of you it is a leap of faith, just to talk to a stranger when I give you a word. For some of you it is a leap of faith to just speak My Word when the enemy taunts you. For others, it is a leap of faith to get through the day with the affliction and suffering you go through. KNOW that he or she who suffers with ME, will SHARE IN MY GLORY ! I am not remiss in My promises. CLING to ME beloveds for I love you with an everlasting love and My love never fails !

Rom 6:19 NKJV I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you presented your members as slaves of uncleanness, and of lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves of righteousness for holiness.

2 Cor 6:14-15 NKJV Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For what fellowship has righteousness with lawlessness? And what communion has light with darkness? 15 And what accord has Christ with Belial? Or what part has a believer with an unbeliever?

Heb 1:9 NKJV You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness;
Therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness more than Your companions."

1 John 3:4-6 AMP
4 Everyone who commits (practices) sin is guilty of lawlessness; for [that is what] sin is, lawlessness (the breaking, violating of God's law by transgression or neglect--being unrestrained and unregulated by His commands and His will).
5 You know that He appeared in visible form and became Man to take away [upon Himself] sins, and in Him there is no sin [essentially and forever].
6 No one who abides in Him [who lives and remains in communion with and in obedience to Him--deliberately, knowingly, and habitually] commits (practices) sin. No one who [habitually] sins has either seen or known Him [recognized, perceived, or understood Him, or has had an experiential acquaintance with Him].

1 John 3:7 AMP Boys (lads), let no one deceive and lead you astray. He who practices righteousness [who is upright, conforming to the divine will in purpose, thought, and action, living a consistently conscientious life] is righteous, even as He is righteous.
1 John 3:9-10 AMP No one born (begotten) of God [deliberately, knowingly, and habitually] practices sin, for God's nature abides in him [His principle of life, the divine sperm, remains permanently within him]; and he cannot practice sinning because he is born (begotten) of God.
10 By this it is made clear who take their nature from God and are His children and who take their nature from the devil and are his children: no one who does not practice righteousness [who does not conform to God's will in purpose, thought, and action] is of God; neither is anyone who does not love his brother (his fellow believer in Christ).

Lightning, Thunder, Mount Zion (night vision/Word)

> "For you have not come to the mountain that may be touched and that burned with fire, and to blackness and darkness and the tempest, and the sound of a trumpet and the voice of words, so that those who heard it begged that the word should not be spoken....(...And so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, 'I am exceedingly afraid and trembling.'). But you have come to Mount Zion and the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem....." ~ Heb. 12:18 - 22a

I had a short repeating dream/night vision. In the dream I was observing a large mountain somewhat in the distance. The mountain was dark and not distinct, more like I was only seeing the outline, the silhouette, for the sky was dark with storm cloud cover.....Then I heard thunder clap VERY loud .... and then I saw a huge lightning bolt - many forked.... but the main big bolt was aiming for a direct hit on the upper 1/3 (approx.) area of this mountain.

This lightening shot crosswise, across the sky at about mountain top level. But instead of "striking" the mountain, the lightening did not connect to "ground" but swirled around, dividing up and going both directions the circumference of the top part of this mountain....even in the dream I knew this was so odd - not normal lightning, and then too this giant Fiery lightning bolt did not dissipate and was never spent, but kept on flowing across the sky and then around and around the top portion of the mountain.... repeatedly Thundering and lightening.....Booming, illuminating and fire swirling.... booming, fire swirling,,, repeating and repeating

As I would semi-wake I continued to see this same scene repeating, with my eyes open. The Lord made it clear that He was showing me in part this; During a storm, there is a space of time between the lightning strike and then the clap of thunder...& that this time space 'length' was in relation to how close the storm is to the person that is seeing and hearing (In a natural storm). Still in awe, as I record this repeating night-vision HE reveals more to me,,,and speaks,

"Look and see. When My Voice thunders forth from My Mouth there is a space of time before the Lightning's of God show forth to you, in My paths appointed... A space of time, before you see the reality and truth of My power Word when I send it forth..... When I speak both My Lightening bolts and Thundering flow out in unison. This 'time space' you see and hear, child, are only in direct relation to how close you find yourself to my Throne Presence where My lightning's and thundering's are of origin.

Come now to My mountain and be engulfed and encircled. .....do not stand afar off gazing, for this is where My heart is, this is where I AM, this is where My power and authority are to be transposed to you fully .... come righteously with My blood covering child, for you know that there is no other way to safely approach My Glory of the Heights.

This is the hour to trek forward and upward...... not looking on in fear from a distance, but stepping lively, even as ones who walk bravely with feet ignited of Fire in My Spirit ...on wings of My Holy coals of enabling, in determined haste to the goal .... I AM your goal, and the time and Our appointment is very soon now....for indeed My Word has thundered forth from My Mouth....and My Voice of power will never be spent and will never dissipate, but flows forth eternally.....

Come to the mountain and pitch your tent of dwelling in the High Places, And I will meet with you there and We will tabernacle together ....This is My desire and this I have decreed from the times of old.....Hear Me now,.... Look and see, ...and then come to the Mountain top ...."

God's Throne,,… "And from the throne proceeded lightnings, thunderings, and voices….." ~ Rev. 4:5a

 after: We humans often hear His Word firstly, but only see the reality later.... The human 'time space' we experience in our reality....and God was speaking to me that in actuality they flow forth from Him in unison.... thunder / lightning power Word / Acts of our Creator and Lord.

One partial quote from a Prophet friend I shared this with: "......calling us closer to the throne room (Most Holy Place, Most Holy Faith).. The closer we come to the center of His will and purpose it will be like the birthpangs, coming closer together; the Lightning and the Thunder, until all is one.. That's what I see in this,"

"The voice of the LORD is powerful;
The voice of the LORD is full of majesty.
The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars, Yes, the LORD splinters the cedars of Lebanon. He makes them also skip like a calf, Lebanon and Sirion like a young wild ox.
The voice of the LORD divides the flames of fire. (v. 7, Lightning bolts, NLT)
The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness; The LORD shakes the Wilderness of Kadesh.
The voice of the LORD makes the deer give birth, And strips the forests bare;
And in His temple everyone says, 'Glory!'" - Psalm 29:4-9 dream, 5-14-'04

I was standing outside on some sort of patio with The Lord. We were holding hands, sipping red wine that tasted like honey to me; We were watching a beautiful golden sunset together.

Then we came inside and sat in two big leather chairs in front of a pleasant, warm fire / fireplace. The Lord and I drank coffee and ate honey cakes.

Then The Lord spoke to me,
“Ask me anything on your heart about My Kingdom and I will answer you.”

I then asked,
“What about Enoch?”

The Lord responded,
“I had close communion with Enoch. We walked and talked together. Enoch told me everything he had upon his heart. We were friends.
One day, I decided to keep my friend Enoch with Me.”

After this, I’m not sure if I continued sound asleep. I feel I was somewhere in that in-between state of waking & sleeping as the Lord continued to speak to me about other bible persons and characters and Truths …. .
Of course, when I was fully awake I felt wonderful after this dream/experience I had with The Lord.

Can We Pray For Terrorists

Jan Markell

Oct 10, 2004

Can we pray for terrorists? Of course. Yes, they are despicable. They slaughter innocents everywhere. They delight in cutting off heads, filming it, and showing it wherever they can get an audience. They have devil-inspired pride in their evil deeds. They have loyalty to the lowliest of men, and they follow a bible that knows nothing of love, only hatred and death. They praise Allah while committing atrocities. They loathe Jews and Christians the most, and they spit on our Bible and worse. They blow up planes and trains, fly airplanes into buildings, desecrate Jewish holy days by exploding themselves among elderly Passover observers, or teens on a beach in Tel Aviv. It would seem they were born without a heart.

If there is a city in this world that could spit upon a terrorist it would be in Beslan, Russia. A month ago Chechan Islamic terrorists (not "activists", "insurgents", or "rebels") killed 338 people, many of them children. All were killed in cold blood. The conditions under which they were kept for three days were deplorable. As the children ran for water, they were gunned down. This comes close to being unforgivable.

Yuri Sipko is president of the Baptist-run Union of Evangelical Christians in Russia. In a story reported in "Christianity Today" he states, "After her son was killed, I saw Irina praying for that terrorist. We prayed that God would surround the community despite the thirst for revenge in the air. This isn't an easy task but with God's strength, it can be done." Many of Beslan's evangelical Christians, grieving the loss of children, mothers, and fathers, prayed, comforted neighbors, and urged forgiveness instead of revenge even as they buried the dead.

Pastor Taymuraz Totiev, pastor of the largest evangelical Baptist church in Beslan, says in the same story, "It's not just by chance this happened. I think God wants to do a miracle here through the Christian community." This pastor and his brother lost six children in the school incident. At the funeral many in the crowd began cursing and calling for revenge. Totiev said, "We have an irreplaceable loss, but we cannot take revenge." Most in that community are not believers, yet they are looking to the Christians because they have hope and they are not filled with hatred. Quite a lesson here.

This does not mean we should turn the other cheek and let the evil ones attack us. But it shows that with God's help we don't have to be consumed with a hatred for the Jihadists that have so altered our life. Our faith is unique. Attorney General John Ashcroft said it well: "Islam is a religion whose God, Allah, asks sons to die for him. Christianity is a faith whose God sent His son to die for us."

These Russian believers put me to shame. I hang my head and admit it. I still see the flaming Twin Towers and I really want one thousand dead Islamic terrorists for every one who died in those buildings, in the Pentagon, and in the airplanes. I want ten thousand dead for the many Todd Beamer's who cried, "Let's roll" and spared our Capitol or the White House. I want revenge because everyone one in Todd's plane was vaporized. But I have concluded it is a lot healthier to fix my thoughts on that little Russian mother praying for the terrorists that murdered her child than to go into overdrive fixating on hate and getting even.

Let's do everything in our power to not let such an attack happen again, but let's also look to the simple believers in Beslan who are living out their faith in unimaginable ways. Yes, the Jihadists should be chased and hunted into the darkest caves in all the God-forsaken lands in which they take refuge and receive acclaim. But we can still pray for them. You never know how it might turn one of them from hate to love.

I talk to a remarkable former Muslim, now a believer, this weekend on air. Her name is Nonie Darwish and she is becoming quite well known. She grew up a Muslim in Egypt but moved to California a few years ago. She immediately visited a local Mosque but fled when she saw that American Muslims worshipping there hated America more than Egyptian Muslims. She ran to a nearby church and heard a message of love and was marvelously saved. She heads her own organization, "Arabs for Israel." (To better understand Islam, visit our "Islam & Arabs" topic category on the Web site. I also talk to Jed Babbin, author of "Inside the Asylum: Why the United Nations and Old Europe Are Worse Than You Think.") Jed was Undersecretary of Defense in the George H.W. Bush administration. What an eye-opener. America will throw $7 billion down the U.N. drain in 2004.

Contending With the Confusion of Babylon

Chuck Pierce

April 16, 2004
Hold your shields of FAITH high! We are in the last days of the prayer focus, "Contending with your Enemy". This next week is crucial in the war dimension. We received word from some of those that we are praying for in Iraq that much intense warfare will occur in the natural through April 23. The locals there are being intimidated by the insurgents. Pray against outside help from other nations that would come into Iraq for the aid of those who are overtaken by lawlessness. We must hold our shields high for those troops that are there on the land.

What we are seeing in the physical in Iraq is a picture of the spiritual. Pastor Dutch Sheets sent the following to me: "There is no doubt that much of what is happening currently in Iraq is spiritual in nature. Do not focus on the politics and do not expect our military to win this war on their own. We, the prayer army, will determine the outcome. Do not move on in your prayers and thinking. Let's break through this situation. The outcome will also greatly determine this year's elections and influence the courts for years, if not decades, to come."

While I was preparing this and listening to the news, the following was released: *"April 15: A new audio tape claims to be the voice of Osama B*n Laden offering a truce to European nations. CAIRO, Egypt - In a recording broadcast on Arab satellite networks Thursday, a man who identified himself as Osama b*n Laden offered a 'truce' to European countries that withdraw from Muslim countries. Britain, Germany and Italy quickly spurned what appeared to be an attempt to drive a wedge between Europe and America…The tape, which ran more than seven minutes, also vowed revenge against America for the Israeli assassination of a militant Palestinian leader and denounced the United States as using the Iraq war for corporate profiteering….'I announce a truce with the European countries that do not attack Muslim countries,' the taped message said as the stations showed an old, still picture of al-Qaida leader…'The door to a truce is open for three months.' This time frame, the voice said, could be extended. 'The truce will begin when the last soldier leaves our countries," the speaker said without elaborating.'"*

I find this so interesting since I wrote about the three month intervals that the Lord showed me when He visited me in December of 2003. The real issue here seems to be that the enemy of God's covenant plan in the earth is offering a truce if we quit moving forward to liberate and free people and nations from his grip.

Jean Steffenson, who has worked with Native American leaders for years over broken covenants and land issues in our nation, wrote the following*: "Iraq has not been constantly in my spiritual radar. I have been in intense prayer regarding Iraq. I keep crying out for the Lord's intervention. There are less than 100 days until the time President Bush has said that America will pull out of Iraq. This of course could change. However I sense a real urgency from God for His army to close some ancient gates and advance on the kingdom of darkness.*

The land of Iraq is soaked with blood and some of it with the blood of the martyrs. I saw hoards of hell coming from the underworld going through a conduit and forming a dark covering over the land. As you well know this is a horrific spiritual battle and it has been intensifying. I keep thinking that this is the year for secrets and mysteries to be revealed. There are some things that God wants in place and established in this window of time. There must be a shift now to create a clear sound. God made it very clear to me that this is a governmental issue. It is not just the government that America wants, the Shiites or any others in Iraq. It is God's intended government for Iraq, which will take the involvement of His Kingdom people.

Will you please make this a matter of prayer to see if you are to call the Body of Christ to concerted prayer for God's Kingdom purposes to be established in Iraq? It has been a long time since I have seen a national call to prayer for Iraq. Intercessors for America mention it along with other topics of prayer. What happens in Iraq over the next 90 days or so will have a definite effect on the elections and the very heart of America with so many families involved. 'Ask of me and I will make the nations your inheritance, the ends of the earth your possession. You will rule them with an iron scepter' (Psalm 2:8). Iraq is the inheritance of Christ, and we as joint heirs have entered into His inheritance".

BABYLON: A Biblical Understanding

To better understand this issue from a spiritual standpoint we need to look biblically at Babylon. Babylon, one of the oldest cities in the ancient world, was an ancient city-state in the plain of Shinar. The name is derived by the Hebrews from the root Balal which means "to confound". We can reference this area to the confusion of tongues at the Tower of Babel (Gen 11:9*). "God came down to see what they were building and did not like it all."* Therefore, God does not honor any of the confusion that is there, resisting His purpose.
The biblical account ascribes the founding of the ancient prehistoric city of Babylon to the descendants of Cush and the followers of Nimrod (10:8-10). The beginnings of the city of Babylon are unknown to us except for the biblical passage mentioned in Gen 10:10. Babylon was situated along the Euphrates River about 485 kilometers (300 miles) northwest of the Persian Gulf and about 49 kilometers (30 miles) southwest of modern Baghdad in Iraq. According to Babylonian tradition, it was built by the god Marduk.

Daniel 4:30 explains the ancient exalting power that surrounds this area: "Is this not Babylon the great, which I myself have built as a royal residence by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty?" Everyone that comes into power in this area seems to be overtaken by this ancient root of self-exaltation. This is what creates wars. We also find in Luke 21:24 and Rev. 6:16: in this area is great "confusion" into which the whole social order of the world has fallen under Gentile world domination.
In Isaiah 11 we find a Divine Order: Israel, in her own land, as the center of divine government of the world and the medium of the divine blessing, and God calling forth a remnant from all other nations. We are contending for that remnant to come forth. Anything else is politically "Babel" (confusion). This area is so deceptive spiritually because it has a political and religious structure that has formed a handshake to attempt to thwart God's redemptive plan for this age in the earth (Rev 17:5-18, Rev 16:19; 18:2-21). That is why we are contending.

We are contending for a major transference of freedom, salvation, wealth, and political liberty. Babylon also means "the gate of god." This area was known as a "holy place of the gods" and ancient etymologists explained it as meaning "place of the seat of life". Some even thought this was "Paradise". The Garden of Eden was located here. Its great god, Merodach, became the head of the Babylonian pantheon, partly through the influence of Babylon as capital, and partly because the city was the center of his worship.
I believe this is why there is so much confusion in the area. We have not understood the spiritual dynamic that we have come up against. We do not war with flesh and blood; in this are principalities and powers. The Church must rise to a new level of power. Other important passages to read are: Rev 14:8; 16:19; 17:5; and 18:2, 10, 21.

This is a year of mysteries. Babylon is one of the major mysteries to understand in the Bible. The characteristics ascribed to this Babylon can apply to many other places in the earth:

(a) as ruling over the kings of the earth (Rev 17:18);
(b) as sitting on seven mountains (17:9);
(c) as the center of the world's merchandise 3,11-13);
(d) as the corrupter of the nations (17:2; 18:3; 19:2);
(e) as the persecutor of the saints (17:6).

In many areas, Rome and New York are both likened to Babylon. Rome was thought by both Jews and Christians as being antagonistic to the Kingdom of God, and its downfall was confidently expected.

I declare that all of the confusion from this situation in Babylon break from around your thinking. This confusion is producing political chaos in the earth. I pray that our President remain focused to get to the end of this season. I pray that we hold our shields high and contend. In Matthew 16: 13-20 the Lord promised us that the gates of Hell would not prevail against those who had revelation of Him. We need "strength at the GATES!" Read Isaiah 28:6. I pray that our troops have a spiritual alertness like never before to hear "a word from behind them telling them which way to GO".

We are approaching a time where we see a transference of wealth into the Kingdom of God. Keep contending with your enemy, remove the tempter's covering, and possess the spoils to advance the Kingdom of God. Stand against confusion that would allow a surprise attack.

We must not draw back from our enemy at this time in the history of the church, nor in the history of this nation. Moses told the children of Israel in Deuteronomy 2:24, "Rise ye up, take your journey, and pass over the river Arnon: behold, I have given into thine hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land: begin to possess it, and contend with him in battle." The time has come to cross over and battle for the inheritance of this land.

This is a season to contend for our faith. Religious spirits will arise to stop our faith from increasing. Contend means to vie with a rival and bring to close a point of contention. This word is linked with struggling for victory. Another word very closely related to contend is "wrestle". Eph 6:12 says, "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." Wrestle comes from the word pallo, which means to vibrate or shake. Shake your enemy off of your back. This word also means a contest between two in which each endeavors to throw the other to the ground. The victor is decided when the opponent is held down and the victor's foot is put upon the opponent's neck. This is linked with the Christian's struggle with the power of evil.

Do not be afraid to contend this season! Satan knows that we are on the verge of breakthrough! The enemy has heard of the anointing that is being released. Consequently, he must counterattack by releasing a horde of seducing spirits now!

We are nearing the last 10 days of the 40-day prayer focus, "Contending with Your Enemy, Removing the Tempter's Covering, and Possessing Your Spoils". This is a crucial time when we must continue to contend with the enemy to see the Lord's purposes accomplished. For your reference, I will copy the final 15 days below. (The entire prayer focus can be found at www.glory-of-zion.org.)

Day 26: Read Ps. 37. Be sure your desires are aligned correctly. Temptation is linked to desires that are not within God's boundaries.

Day 27: Read Mt. 4. Resist Satan's temptation in your wilderness. Remember, the Spirit of God led Jesus into the wilderness. Stop in the midst of your hard situation and see the Spirit's leading.

Day 28: Read Luke 10:25. Don't be drawn into the enemy's trap. I like to say it this way: don't swing at curve balls. The enemy will try to say things that will make you respond in a wrong way.

Day 29: Read the Lord's Prayer from Luke 11. Ask the Lord to deliver you from temptation.

Day 30: Read Genesis 22. Temptation is linked to our testing. See how God tested Abraham's faith and revealed Himself to Abraham as Jehovah Jireh.

Day 31: Read Genesis 14 and 15. God revealed Himself to Abraham as the 'Possessor of Heaven and Earth'. This was in the context of war. Abraham gave to Melchizedek. Then notice the covenant God made with Abraham. Ask God to reaffirm your covenant with Him.

Day 32: Read Deut. 20. Read Deut 32:30. One can put 1,000 to flight, but two can put 10,000 to flight. This is a valuable principle of multiplication. Ask the Lord for an increase in strength.

Day 33: Read 1 Sam. 30. This is a transition chapter. The activities in this chapter released David into his next level of anointing. Especially notice verses 24-25. Receive new strength. Pursue and retrieve all!

Day 34: Read Is. 9:3. The division of the spoil was a joyous feast for the people. Rejoice!

Day 35: Read Esther 3 and 8. Let God develop your strategy to take back what the enemy has plotted to take from you.

Day 36: Read Deut. 8, especially verses 18-20. Increase is a harvest principle. Increase rises through faith and follows deeds that are linked with faith. Increase comes through supernatural Kingdom connections so we can all enter into a multiplied, synergistic corporate measure of increase. Increase is also a reward for obedience. A fundamental question we need to ask ourselves is: What is wealth? There are several ways to look at wealth in the Bible. Power means vigor, strength, force, or capacity-whether physical, mental, or spiritual. Wealth means material substance, strength, and the spoils of war necessary to accomplish God's plan on earth.

Day 37: Read Luke 19. Ask God what you have and how to multiply it.

Day 38: Read Ps. 115:14-16 and 2 Chron. 20. Ask God for increase. Ask Him to give you a mind for increase. Ask Him to open your heart to any prophetic word that will bring you success and cause you to be able to rake in the spoils that the enemy is holding.

Day 39: Read Ps. 82:4. Declare deliverance from the hand of the wicked who has tied up any of your wealth.

Day 40: Read Mal. 3 and 2 Cor. 10:3-6. Declare that the generational curse of “GOD ROBBING” will be broken out of your bloodline. This is one of the four major generational curses. Tear down mindsets of poverty. Poverty has a voice which says, “God is not able.” There are philosophies in your life that have developed wrong mindsets over wealth. Dismantle unbelief over provision. “Prove Me NOW” says the Lord! Look up and see the windows of blessings that He wants to open up. Watch Him overcome your devourer.

Do not be afraid to contend in this hour. Loose a SHOUT OF VICTORY that Babylon will let go and come under the subjection of God’s Kingdom plan!

Blessings,
Chuck D. Pierce

Destiny 2005

Todd Bentley

November 30, 2004
This past Day of Atonement, during Fresh Fire's Miracles, Signs & Wonders Conference*, three members of the ministry's apostolic team decided to wait on the Lord: Todd Bentley, Charlie Robinson (a seer prophet and itinerate minister with Fresh Fire), and Kevin Paterson (prophetic teacher and scribe/editor for Fresh Fire books and articles). God was faithful to release some profound revelation for the body of Christ.*

For the understanding of our readers: the Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur), since the time of Moses, has been recognized by the Jews as one of the most important sacred days of the Biblical year. This day takes place at the end of the 10 Days of Awe, which are set aside for repentance and restitution, starting on the first day of the Jewish civic New Year and ending on the tenth day (The Day of Atonement).

In Leviticus, the Lord instituted this day for the atoning of sin (on the tenth day of the seventh month) saying, "This shall be an everlasting statute for you, to make atonement for the children of Israel, for all their sins, once a year" (Leviticus 16:34). The Jews have observed that day ever since the Lord instituted it.

This article will outline the insights recently received from the Lord on this day and then establish their scriptural foundation. Much of the Truth of these words, like natural seed, needs time to develop and mature. These revelations apply to 2005 and to subsequent years. We believe that future revelations will provide greater clarity to those you read here. Although we have drawn out some of the meaning of the visions and experiences described, we have left room for you as the reader to seek the Lord for complete understanding and for the application in your life.

NATURAL TREASURES FOR THE FINDING

Through the parable of the field the Lord is also speaking about the field of the earth. We believe He is saying that He is about to unearth treasures He has hidden in the earth. In this experience, Todd kept seeing the word "resources." God is going to uncover hidden treasures of resources that are in the earth, such as gold, coal, and oil. Somehow there will be a connection between gold and coal. The Lord will also give favor to Christians for striking oil. Todd saw that some people had oil right under their feet on their property. These resources are going to be strategic for the release of funds to the church. Business ideas and witty inventions will also be given to God's people. The Lord also said He was going to uncover archeological digs and artifacts that have been buried for thousands of years. These discoveries are also connected to the spirit of wisdom and revelation -- they will strengthen and confirm the faith of the church.

THE RELEASE OF SILVER AND GOLD

On the Day of Atonement, the Lord also began to speak to Charlie about the finances He was about to release to His people, starting this year. Knowing that the root word in Hebrew for gold and for glory are the same, Charlie has prayed for years for the release of the gold (the finances) for the Body of Christ. The Lord revealed to him that He wanted to bless the Church with great wealth to fund the great harvest to come. Hand in hand with this outpouring of wealth and harvest would come the glory of God. On September 24th, 2004, the day before the Day of Atonement, Charlie felt the Lord prompting him to pray aggressively for the gold that He was about to release in the earth. So, on this day, with a great sense of destiny, he again began to pray fervently for the release of gold.

The Lord spoke to him that the church would walk through the 2 Chronicles 5 pattern in restoring God's glory to His church, the glory which would usher in a great harvest of souls. In this chapter, after the preparation of the temple was complete, Solomon brought the silver and gold into the treasury and then the glory of the Lord filled the house of God. The church today is about to follow those same steps: preparation, silver and gold and then, finally, God's glory.

The evening after he prayed for the release of finances, on September 25th, the Day of Atonement, Charlie was listening to Mahesh Chavda speak at the Fresh Fire Miracles, Signs and Wonders Conference. Mahesh was speaking about Yom Kippur and a lamb for the redemption of every household, when the Lord spoke to Charlie to look at Mahesh's temple. He was seated close to Mahesh, so when he looked, he clearly saw, right above Mahesh's ear, the appearance of a complete silver coin (the size of a quarter or larger). As Charlie looked at this coin, the Lord reminded him of his two previous visitations to the treasury of the Lord. In the treasury hung large shields -- about three or four feet across -- which looked like big gold coins. (Scripture actually speaks about a king appointing a goldsmith to make many of these shields [1 Kings 10:16,17].) In the vision, the shields had inscriptions on them; they were like large coins in the treasury of heaven. Coins today actually look like the shields in the heavenly vision.

When Charlie saw the coin on Mahesh's temple, the Lord said to Him: "I want you to pray for the silver coins to be released!"
Charlie responded, "God, I'm praying for the gold."
Then the Lord said, "That's the problem. You are praying for the gold, but my word says the silver and the gold are mine. The problem with my body is they want the gold, they want the glory, but they are rejecting the silver and the silver represents (the redeemed) the vessels of the Lord." He said, "When I begin to bring forth my glory and the silver vessels come forth, they are rejected because of what they look like, because of their outward appearance and because you are looking for the gold...but the glory comes in the silver vessels!"

GOD IS ABOUT TO RELEASE THE SILVER AND GOLD IN TWO DIFFERENT ARENAS:

The Lord then reminded him of a scripture which compares "A word fitly spoken" to "apples of gold in pictures (or settings) of silver" (Proverbs 25:11). The word actually says that the pictures or settings of silver hold the apples of gold, which are the word of God or the glory of the Lord.

The Lord then began to unfold the interpretation; He made it clear that both the silver and the gold are His (Haggai 2:8) and that He is about to release both the silver and the gold in two different arenas.

1. In the financial arena God is about to release finances to His people, the gold and silver, to fund the harvest. However, He is saying not to despise the silver (small beginnings) or the initial, smaller, first-fruit financial blessings. He will begin with the silver, the smaller financial releases, this year. The Lord will bless His people as they are faithful with their finances now and honor Him with the smaller financial blessings He gives them first. The Lord is also cleansing His people so they can receive the wealth; He is coming back for a glorious bride.

2. Along with the financial blessings, God is also going to release His glory. But He is calling us to receive the silver vessels or settings (His servants) that His glory comes in. These vessels, these ministers of God, may even have cracks. But when we receive the silver, we receive the gold (the glory) within them. It is also significant to note that another version of Proverbs 25:11 reads: "apples of gold in network of silver." (ASV) We believe the Lord is raising up His silver vessels (His people) this year to carry His glory. He is also networking and connecting His body in strong, loving relationships and ministry networks which can house His glory.

THE SILVER FIRST

In 2005, as the Lord begins to release the silver financial blessings and the silver vessels (His ministers of Glory), He is looking for faithfulness. Those who are faithful will receive the gold, the larger financial blessings (and, greatest of all, the outpouring of His glory). The financial economy in the U.S. was tied to a gold standard for many years until President Nixon took it off this standard; this act has disrupted the gold economy until now. However, God is about to rectify the system and redistribute the wealth -- gold will soon find its way into the hands of God's people.

Twenty-one years ago, when God spoke to Charlie the first time about finances for harvest, God's words were so powerful that he fell off his chair onto the floor. "I'm about to bring you into the wealth of Solomon," the Lord said. Recently, when God began speaking to Charlie again about the finances, it was to refocus His prayers to pray for (and expect) the silver first: the smaller financial blessings and the settings, the servants of God that contain the glory.

The highest thing that we can have in the kingdom of God is to behold His glory and see Him as He is (2 Corinthians 3:18); the highest thing in the realm of the world's wealth is gold. However, silver is also precious, and if we reject it and pursue the gold only, we will miss what we seek. The Lord is saying that the silver is first, then the gold. The servants, the silver vessels of the Lord, must be fully received and honored first before we will receive the glory. The church has rejected the vessels the Lord has sent throughout the years; that's why we don't get the glory. Jesus came and they rejected Him, the vessel; He carried the glory and the Pharisees rejected the very vessel that was carrying the glory because they didn't like the way He looked or the things He did.

FOUNDATION FOR THE GLORY

The Lord also spoke to Charlie from scripture about a foundation that He was laying, right now: "Nevertheless the solid foundation of God stands, having this seal: 'The Lord knows those who are His,' and, 'Let everyone who names the name of Christ depart from iniquity'" (2 Timothy 2:19). God is preparing the church today, through a season of purification, to be His vessels that will carry the glory. The Lord also said He was bringing a fulfillment to Haggai 2:8,9: "'The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine,' says the LORD of hosts. 'The glory of this latter temple shall be greater than the former,' says the LORD of hosts. 'And in this place I will give peace,' says the LORD of hosts.'" God is saying again: Don't neglect the silver; don't neglect the smaller; don't neglect the humble. However, after the Lord promises peace in that verse, in the rest of the chapter He gives prophetic words and promises.

Very significantly, the rest of the prophetic chapter was delivered to Haggai on the 24th day of the 9th month. Well, when the Lord began to give us these prophetic insights concerning 2005, it also happened to be the 24th day of the 9th month on our modern Gregorian calendar (September 24th). This date also happened to fall on Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement (which seldom takes place on that date). In Haggai 2:18,19 the prophet speaks of the foundation of the Lord's temple being laid on that same day: "Consider now from this day forward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid consider it: Is the seed still in the barn? As yet the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not yielded fruit. But from this day I will bless you."

So, on our 9th month (September) on the 24th day, 2004, we believe, the Lord also began to lay a foundation -- a spiritual one. Not only does this foundation mean the release of the silver and the gold, it means that something changed in the spirit in preparation for what the Lord wants to do in 2005. As a result of this laying of the foundation, we believe the Lord is also saying that, from that day on, He is sending judgments on our enemies because the foundation is going to be laid.

It is interesting to note that, in the Bible, the treasure was part of the temple. Before the dedication of Solomon's temple they brought the gold and silver into the treasury. Jesus also spoke from the treasure in the temple (John 8:19,20), where no one was able to lay hands on Him. Yes, we are protected in the treasury, the place where, by faith, we lay up our treasures in the kingdom of heaven, according to Jesus (Matthew 6:20).

APOSTOLIC MINISTRY AND FINANCES

On the same weekend as that foundation was laid for 2005, Fresh Fire Ministries held a service for the launching of its apostolic center. That night, prophet Dave Hubert, said that something had changed in the spirit in Canada which is tied to the apostolic anointing. Because scripture speaks of the apostles and the prophets as being the foundation of the church (Ephesians 2:20), we believe that a new apostolic anointing and release of apostles-in-waiting will take place this year. The foundation of the temple has been laid, apostles will grow in prominence, and the beginning of the release of finances (silver) will take place.

A foundation has been laid to receive our inheritance of the silver and the gold and also the glory of God (in both the natural and the supernatural realms). In Chronicles the temple was completed and the wealth (natural gold and silver) was brought in before the glory came. We believe the pattern will be the same today. And the glory of this latter house will be greater than the first one (Haggai 2:9)! Now, in this glory, the apostolic will come to maturity. However, the completion of this spiritual foundation is bigger than just one apostolic center; it is the releasing of apostolic men and apostolic counsel throughout the Body of Christ. This apostolic counsel will receive revelation of things in the heavens and make proclamations that will bring things out of heaven into the earth.

In scripture, when the apostles were walking in their authority, the people came and laid gold at their feet. They sold lands and brought the proceeds. The Lord is showing Charlie that, as the apostolic ministry grows (even this year), God's people will be increasingly freed to give in great measure without anyone asking. It's good to have offerings but, according to the apostolic Biblical principle, people came freely; they were not asked. The early church understood more than just the principle of sowing and reaping; their hearts were motivated by love first. They gave out of love for God, His kingdom, His people, and the lost.

The apostolic creates a climate in which Christians are really looking to God to provide rather than people. As that climate grows this year, we will see a corporate receiving of harvest finances, the finances that are part of our inheritance as individual believers.

"DO NOT DESPISE THE DAY OF SMALL BEGINNINGS"

In a vision, Charlie also saw all the gold and silver released to the church on earth. The Lord showed him that the finances came out of the enemy's trophy room. Shortly after receiving these insights, another international speaker and prophet shared a confirming vision he also had of treasure locked away in the devil's trophy room. We believe the Devil has stolen our gold and silver; that's why we need not beg God for the harvest finances. We are to battle in prayer to take back in the heavenly realm that which has been stolen. Through unbelief, sin, and wrong beliefs, we have allowed the enemy to steal what is ours. But this is the year to begin to call it back.

We believe the Lord wants us to prepare ourselves in faith and purity; He also wants us to repent of despising the day of the small beginnings. Many of us have despised the small financial blessings, wanting the greater blessings. We have despised the silver and just prayed for the gold. In like manner, we have despised men and women of God (the silver) -- people who love God, hear from God, and live simple lives -- we don't receive them. There are many vessels, people who seem like pennies in the kingdom; we don't want to listen to them. But we are to honor those ones just as much as the prominent or well-know Christian ministers. Each has value; each type of vessel is just as much a carrier of God's glory. By honoring and praying for the silver vessels, we are hastening the day of the release of the glory and the gold.

Then, as we tithe and give with active faith for breakthrough, the Lord will open the heavens up and rebuke the devourer that is holding back the gold and glory. God wants us to learn to be faithful with money (gold) before He gives us the glory. As Jesus asked, "...if you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?" (Luke 16:11)

CORPORATE FAITH FOR FINANCES

The Lord showed Charlie that the release of the finances and the glory is not only dependent on individual prayer and faithfulness -- it is even more dependent on corporate faith for the release of our inheritance. Sometimes the personal blessings don't come because of the state of the body in the area that we live. But the corporate release is coming in 2005.

If God's people don't have the gold needed for harvest and blessing, then we need to ask, says Charlie, "Where the gold is going?" It's going to people who shouldn't have it; people living in the enemy's kingdom. People are getting rich and wealthy with the gold that belongs to the righteous. We have to remove the legal rights for the enemy to steal our inheritance. The first stronghold to defeat is unbelief. It's also going to take the double portion of Elijah to get the job done, because the Jezebel spirit (manipulation, control, domination, and immorality) or the Babylonian spirit (the ungodly monetary system) has a stranglehold on the world's finances. Other evil spirits are also assigned to withhold from the church.

We need to realize that, as Christians, our Day of Atonement took place the day we were born again. Atonement brought us from the curse into the blessings of Abraham, which includes finances (Galatians 3:14). However, this year the Lord is calling us into a corporate receiving of atonement; together we are to pray and receive by faith, believing for each other's blessing. When Israel observed the first Passover in Egypt, it received corporate salvation and atonement; the principle was "a lamb for each household." After the Israelites were delivered from the angel of death, the Egyptians gave them their gold and their silver. A corporate, atoning faith destroyed the enemy that was withholding the gold. They plundered their enemies, left Egypt, and went into the desert as a wealthy nation. This year as the church comes together corporately and in humility, recognizing the financial protection of the blood of Jesus Christ, the first fruits of the silver and gold will be ours for the harvest.

 Note!! A powerful "first-fruits" prophetic fulfillment of Charlie's word about the silver and gold came about just weeks after the Lord gave him the Day of Atonement word. On a ministry trip in California (the Golden State), at a number of meetings, people began to throw gold and silver into the offering. In one meeting the ushers counted 24 rare gold coins and 40 rare silver coins. In other meetings, small bars of gold and silver were actually received in the offering. Immediately after one meeting, the Lord confirmed that this was a first fruit of the financial release that He was bringing -- Charlie turned on the TV and immediately, on the screen flashed a photo of a 1881 Morgan Silver dollar, identical to one of the coins just received in the offering.

THE BOAZ ANOINTING

The Lord also spoke to Todd about financial blessing and His release of the anointing of Boaz this year. Boaz gave greater gleanings from the harvest and special favor to Ruth. In the same way, the Lord of the Harvest is going to give greater gleanings to His church, His bride to be. So there is definitely a connection between the gleaning of the harvest and the reaping of a greater harvest of souls for the church.

In the book of Ruth, Boaz is often seen as a Christ-figure while Ruth is seen as a type of the church. Boaz becomes the kinsman redeemer, the one who protected and provided for the widow of a relative. He protected Ruth from the men who were reaping, gave her water and bread, as well as grain that would purposely be dropped from the bundles for her -- grain that she didn't have to work to reap. Boaz also bought and redeemed Ruth's mother-in-law's land so she wouldn't have to sell it, in her poverty, to provide for herself and Ruth. Finally, Boaz married Ruth and gave her a child to rescue her from the reproach of her widowhood and barrenness.

We believe that this year the Lord is pouring out that same Boaz anointing upon the body of Christ. Jesus, our kinsman redeemer and Lord of the harvest, will provide special protection to His church that has been devastated by loss and poverty. For those who go out to the harvest, He will also give great safety, favor, and harvest that will not need great labor. The harvest will come with ease -- an increase of a harvest of souls will be coming this year to God's people as they go out. For those in His body who go to the field of the world, the Lord will provide physically and financially for them as well. Many Christians have battled with financial lack and debt for years. But those who trust the Lord of the Harvest this year will begin receiving their redemption from that oppression of poverty. He will begin to pour out the finances needed for the harvest, the provision the prophets have spoken of for years. The church will also experience greater intimacy with Jesus this year as the Boaz anointing is released.

RESTORATION OF BROKEN VESSELS

In another prophetic experience (a dream) Todd was taken into the ocean of God's heart of love. In the ocean, at the bottom of God's heart, lay cracked, sunken vessels. These vessels had come to the forefront of God's mind and He was planning to fulfill redemptive promises over them. He wants to fulfill promises that some people have carried in their hearts for 20 or 30 years, especially promises that God has given to ministries that have lost their way. These vessels had become cracked vessels which had sunk to the miry pits of the world -- God is searching them out again to take them, like a master potter, and mold them again. In the vision, the Lord began to turn these cracked vessels into vessels of honor and glory.

The vessels represented ministries or ministers, like pastors, evangelists, and teachers, or prophetic and apostolic ministries that had lost their way 20 or even 50 years ago. They had been overcome by witchcraft, adultery, accusations, reproach, financial mishaps, or burn out. However, this year the Lord is beginning to restore all that was lost. This restoration applies, not just to ministries, but to any place where God had spoken prophetic promises for churches, cities, regions, and even nations. These promises still wait in heaven but, in many cases, long gone are the prophets who delivered the word; long gone are the pastors who were at the helm of the church; long gone are the men and woman who were supposed to be instrumental in bringing the word to pass.

Today, many Christians are disillusioned and left wondering about seeming unfulfilled prophetic words: "I thought we were going to be a healing center and now you are telling me that you are going to shut the church? What about all the words from the prophets?" Discouraged Christians are asking these questions about unfulfilled promises for their cities, churches, and land. But God is about to redeem these words, resurrecting dreams, broken ministries, and new ministries to see His promises fulfilled.

REDEEMING DESTINIES AND PROMISES

In the dream, Todd saw the color silver, a color which represents redemption. There was a strong sense that God is about to roll back reproaches -- this is a key theme for the year. The Lord will restore destinies and promises, in some cases, through different people, different ministries of a different generation. Even though people may have faltered or ministries fallen, the redemptive plan will continue in believer's lives as well as through key churches, cities, and countries.

One present-day example of such a redemption process is taking place today in North Carolina. Rick Joyner's Morning Star Ministries, along with another Christian organization, has taken over the original Heritage USA grounds of the former PTL ministry (which closed its doors years ago after scandal over moral failure). These grounds, originally operated as a retreat center, will now be converted to a school and a conference center. It's not the old vision but God is redeeming promises through a new vision and another ministry. Recently, before his new TV show, Jim Baker, founder of PTL and Heritage USA, called Joyner a prophet and said the plan to build a school and conference center was a "resurrection" of Heritage USA.
"Rick Joyner is a restorer," Baker said. "He mainly restores people, but right now he's going to restore the old grounds...I believe Heritage USA belongs to the church world." 1

This new development in the Christian world, we believe, is a first fruit of many more lives, ministries, and promises that will be redeemed. This next year will be one of great restoration -- God will see that destinies will be fulfilled. In some cases, as in the redemption of the Heritage USA grounds, the process may involve, over time, the removal of reproach connected to it. God will even restore people or ministries brought down by sexual sin and financial wrongdoing (although the consequence of the sin will still need to be walked out). Many of the coming restoration projects will not be completed without a battle. But God will see to it that the sunken vessels are raised and restored.

In the vision, however, Todd had a sense that not all the vessels had cracked or sunk because of sin. In many cases, disillusionment, disappointment, and attacks from the spirit of Jezebel had caused vessels to lose their way or to suffer casualty. Some ministry vessels, or people, became blinded or suffered financial mishaps, sickness, and news of terminal illness. But God is searching out these broken ones right now; these are the ones that are in God's heart for 2005.

THE CORNELIUS ANOINTING

The Lord also revealed to Todd that the Cornelius anointing would be released this year to bring salvation for households. God showed His heart to save entire households in Egypt by protecting families from the death angel when His people put the blood of a lamb over their doors. The Lord also reminded Todd of His strategy for households by directing Him to the New Testament description of Cornelius. Scripture says that he was a man of prayer who gave charitable gifts to the poor and was on a four-day fast when the Lord commissioned Peter to bring the gospel to his household. We believe that God is promising salvation to households; He is giving His people the strategy of prayer for their families, combined with a four-day fast. God's plan, as in the Exodus 12 Passover, was "a lamb for the salvation of every household"; a sacrifice that would atone for sin and protect families. The Jewish holy day, the Day of Atonement, instituted in Leviticus 23:26, 27, was a time to make burnt offerings to the Lord, to fast and afflict the soul in order to atone for sins of the past year.

AWESOME FACE-TO-FACE-ENCOUNTERS

In another spiritual encounter, Todd saw the Lord face-to-face; He was three inches away. The Lord looked like a 30- or 32-year-old Jewish man who could be living in Israel today. It wasn't the face of the King of Glory. The face seemed to represent the humanity of Jesus. His eyes were blue and penetrating, looking through the soul. His eyes were set; they were fixed. But love flowed from his deep blue eyes (blue speaks of revelation). Jesus held Todd's gaze even when he tried to turn away to the left or the right. It was as if His eyes just penetrated deep inside the soul. A scripture came to mind: "The eye is the lamp of the body. So if your eye is sound, your entire body will be full of light" (Matthew 6:22 AMP). Then he heard the Lord say, "It's time for me to have face-to-face encounters with My people." The Lord was saying He wanted to fill His body with light, as they gazed into His face. This year God is delivering a special call and grace for His people to gaze on Him and be changed by His glory: "But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord" (2 Corinthians 3:18). As His people gaze in His face they will become like Him: "...but we know that when He is revealed, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is" (1 John 3:2).

In the vision, said Todd, he would try to turn away from the Lord's gaze because he felt unworthy. Then, suddenly, from his eyes, ears, mouth, and entire body came a flash of light and he went through some kind of transformation. Instantly he thought of the glory coming as on the mount of transfiguration when Jesus' face became as bright as the sun. The same kind of transformation seemed to take place in Todd. As Jesus breathed on Todd, He said, "The Spirit of the fear of the Lord." As he breathed in "the Spirit of the fear of the Lord," white beams of light shot from his fingers. Then Jesus explained that the Spirit of the fear of the Lord is what manages the spirit of wisdom, revelation, might, counsel, and knowledge. Having a fear of God is what allows the Lord to entrust His people with a greater mantle of wisdom, revelation, and knowledge (Isaiah 11). Isaiah 11:2 speaks of the spirit of the fear of the Lord before verse three speaks of delighting in the fear of the Lord.

It's the connection with the fear of the Lord and the wisdom that is crying out in the streets in Proverbs. So, delighting ourselves in the fear of the Lord is a real key to being entrusted with greater wisdom and revelation knowledge, might, and counsel. Wisdom and revelation will also come out of intimacy -- God is looking right now to have face-to-face encounters with His people like He did with Moses. God wants to shine His light on the conscience of His people and bring cleansing: "The eye is the lamp of the body so if the eye is sound, your entire body will be full of light, but if your eye is unsound your whole body will be full of darkness, if then the very light that is in you, your conscience is darkened, how dense is that darkness" (Matthew 6:22-23). This verse speaks of the light and soundness the Lord will be bringing to the body this coming year.

WITH INTIMACY COMES HEALING POWER

The Lord has also been speaking to Kevin in recent years about intimacy with Him through a repeated prophetic experience. Often, at strategic times, the presence of the Lord comes as a thick weight and rests on him, causing his face, hands, and even feet, to burn with the fire of God. After inquiring of the Lord, Kevin sensed the Lord saying that the fire on his face was a sign and a call to face-to-face intimacy with Him -- this calling is going out to God's people. As His people live in face to face intimacy with Him, God's fire and His healing power will be released from their hands and their lives -- then they will take His love and power to the nations.

The day before Yom Kippur, Bob Jones gave Todd a powerful scriptural confirmation of this call to intimacy from Habakkuk 3:3b-5: "...His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of His praise. His brightness was like the light; He had rays flashing from His hand, and there His power was hidden. Before Him went pestilence, and fever followed at His feet." Take note of this: "His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was filled with His praise" -- this verse speaks of intimacy. As Jesus came in glory, He shone like a bright light; then His healing presence was released through His hands like lightening -- His power was hidden in His hands. At His presence sickness was driven out and all sickness came under His dominion.

THE SONSHIP ANOINTING

The fire of intimacy Kevin experienced is also prophetic of the Elijah anointing, the anointing of fire, which the Lord is releasing in great measure this year. As the prophet Malachi said, "Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD. And he will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse."

As the Lord sends the spirit of Elijah to His church, a great refining process will take place (Malachi 3) followed by a restoration of relationships between spiritual or natural fathers and their children. Elijah can be considered a prophet who fathered a spiritual son, Elisha, to follow in his footsteps. Elisha, as Elijah was taken into heaven in a chariot of fire, cried out, "My father, my father..." Elisha knew that his spiritual father was leaving a spiritual inheritance to him, a mantle of anointing for him to take up. He immediately picked up Elijah's mantle, which had fallen, struck the Jordan river and parted it.

In the same way, we believe that a great season has begun for restoring relationships with fathers and for spiritual mantles being passed on to spiritual children who have waited for years for their calling to begin. We are entering into a season of great grace for Fathering of spiritual sons and daughters. Because only sons (or daughters) receive inheritance, it is vital that this fathering process increases in the church. As fathering increases, sons and daughters will increasingly come into their inheritance of intimacy with Abba, of a new sense of calling and destiny, as well as power for service. Also, this year, the message of the Father's love, as well as the message of our authority as sons and daughters, will begin to be widely preached. The revelation of sonship goes hand in hand with the apostolic movement as apostles, true spiritual fathers, are raised up.

APOSTOLIC HARVEST

In a deeply impacting dream, a Canadian evangelist came to visit Todd, representing a mass miracle, mass harvest mantle for crusade evangelism. This particular evangelist is known today to preach to crowds of 100s of thousands with signs and wonders. In the dream, the evangelist asked, "Todd, when will this begin in North America?" Todd knew he was talking about mass crusades in stadiums for evangelism and healing. At first Todd began to say, "I don't know," until the Holy Spirit spoke a word of wisdom and Todd found himself saying, "When the generation yet unborn is born!" He realized this meant that within 9 to 12 months, this mass evangelism anointing would be birthed, but it would take a generation to mature (about 20 years). The dream came to Todd in Canada and he was visited by a Canadian evangelist. The Lord seemed to be saying that Canada would be a leading nation in the new thrust of mass evangelism -- Canada would truly fulfill its destiny, as declared by the prophets, of taking healing to the nations. In the dream, Todd sensed that North America would again see massive Woodstock-type gatherings -- this time for the purpose of harvest festivals. The Lord gave him a scripture: "But when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were weary and scattered, like sheep having no shepherd. Then He said to His disciples, 'The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest'" (Matthew 9:35-10:1).

Jesus saw the multitude, was moved with compassion, and then turned to His disciples and basically asked them: "Do you want this? Do you want the multitudes?" This passage seems to be an open invitation to Christ's followers to receive a mantle for the multitudes, for mass crusades! Right after this offer of souls for the kingdom, Jesus gives the disciples power over sickness, disease, and demons. Today, Jesus is also opening the door to the multitudes, to those who will walk through it by faith. Todd believes we have now entered a new season of favor for mass evangelism and miracles. The Lord is about to anoint more T.L. Osbornes and Reinhard Bonnkes; He is looking for people that He can mantle for the masses. Many are asking for multitudes and wondering whether it will ever happen for them. These believers need to realize that the Lord is offering the mantle NOW, to those who will take it. "Who wants multitudes?" He's asking.

In this passage, we have examined Jesus' followers are ordinary disciples in Matthew 10:1, but by the very next verse, these ordinary men have become apostles, people "sent with a mission." This year, in the same way, the Lord will transform His people overnight -- He will transform ordinary people into miracle healing harvesters. The Lord will mantle people like He did in Acts when they were scattered everywhere and took the gospel throughout the world. The ones who take up this call will go to places no one has ever gone before; God will also use them to ignite spontaneous open air crusades by performing one significant miracle which draws a great crowd (like the healing of the crippled man in Acts 14). Get ready! In this next year, God is about to raise up mighty healing evangelists and send them to the nations.

SUMMARY

In summary, God is about to do many marvelous works through His people this year. It will be a year of great favor for harvest, for household salvation, for sonship, for the release of finances, for the restoration of dreams, and also hidden treasures of revelation. The Lord will release significant moves of His Spirit in Australia, Indonesia, and Iraq. He is also about to place His people on the fast lane of Holiness so they can reach their destiny with great acceleration. This year it is time to rise up in faith and receive the grace and favor God is pouring out on His people for the great things He is about to do in the nations. The time is NOW!!

Devotion to Christ
Mary Clark

August 14, 2004
Simplicity and Purity of Devotion to Christ 2 Corinthians 11:3

I am calling My dear children into a new and lively arena. It is based on your simplicity and purity of devotion to Me. I want you to know that I am definitely taking the helm of your ship and steering you into a new place in Me. I am definitely doing some maneuvering, directing you into a place alive with activity where you will see the goodness of your God firsthand, and your devotion to Me will increase exponentially.

I want My beloved children to grow strong in Me. I want you to advance into this new place of wonder. I want you to see the goodness of your God from a front-row seat. I don't want you stagnant. Oh, no! I want you refreshed in the realization of Who I am, and what I wish to perform in and through you.

Listen to My voice, dear beloved child. I have some interesting news for you. Tired of waiting? Are you, beloved, tired of waiting for Me to make that final move that will bolster you into this new place in Me? If you are, these words are for you: Wait no longer, for I am about to make My MOVE. Let Me say it again, beloved, in all sincerity: I am about to make My MOVE, and when I do, I want you to take action. I want you to take that step which I am calling you to make. I want you to take it with confidence in Me and Who I am to you, and then I want you to give a SHOUT of victory! For your Beloved has seen fit to move you UP the rung of that ladder of success in Him, and no more will you be down looking up, you will be UP looking down, beloved. That is the place where I want you to be in order for you to grow stronger, and see the replenishment of My love serving to all who will receive the grandeur of knowing and walking with the beloved King of glory.

Get ready for a MOVE, beloved. Get ready for a MOVE UP the rung of the ladder, and into My vicinity of great hope. And know, dear child of the living God, that the time for advancement is surely upon you, and is taking you into a realm of order and peace for which your precious heart has longed.

That is My plan. So be it! So BE it!!!

Fearless Warriors Of Worship
Mary Clark

August 4, 2004

Today I was driving down the road, singing and worshipping the Lord, when I saw Him stand up from His throne. I could sense that He was pleased with the worshipping that was coming up to Him. Here is what He has to tell us about this action on His part:

I am the Beloved God Who delights in the worship of His chosen. Yes, yes, yes, it does delight My heart when one sings forth praises to Me. It does certainly delight My heart.

Let Me tell you something else, beloved, that may be of interest to you. Let Me open your eyes to this wonderful truth: I do stand up when I hear praises ascending to My throne. I do stand up for a very good reason, and it is this: I am so pleased that I cannot contain Myself. I am eager to rise and look on that one who is displaying his love to Me. I am also eager to bless that one with My loving presence.

In this day, I am seeing many come into a strong realization of My presence. I am seeing them excited about this hour, and eager to follow My course of action. This pleases Me greatly. It also pleases Me to know that even though you, My beloved, have not seen Me with your natural eyes, you are worshipping Me with your whole heart. You are calling out words of loving devotion to Me. You are seeking My will predominantly in your life. Yes, this certainly thrills Me, but know this also: The Eternal One is opening a new hour for My worshippers when they will behold My beauty – when they will look on My goodness, and make strong declarations to Me of their love and trust. They will stand fast in the face of the enemy's rituals of hate. They will not flinch, but will be strong, stalwart children of the living God, going about their Father's business in earnest.

I want you to know that this thrills Me deeply. It is exciting to Me to see the display that I am now seeing among My chosen. It thrills Me deep within.

So know this: An hour of wonder is on the way. An hour of greatness and truth is coming UP on the horizon, and you, My beloved, will take center stage in My name, and display the wonders of your risen Lord with an expertise you never dreamed possible. Yes, give yourself totally to Me, and see My divine will played out in your life. Know the wonder of the hour when your God will touch you deeply within, displaying His goodness to you, and lighting your path into the most extreme place of His will shining forth. Yes! The hour of wonder is upon you, beloved children. It is certainly upon you, and you will have a walk of much substance. You will see startling sights, but you will rest in the knowledge of My will for you. You will take steps of faith that you never dreamed were possible.

This is a declaration that I am making to you this night. I have risen from My throne and I am looking at each of you with a soft expression of love on My face – an expression that will melt your heart, beloved – melt your precious heart. I am declaring to you, My beloved, that I am advancing you into a new state of My most pronounced glory. You are certainly on the way. You are about to start walking in a new day in Me, and you will applaud the greatness of what I am doing in you and through you. For just as surely as I have spoken words of loving devotion to you, I am opening an hour of faith that will enable you to take steps into this wondrous hour without flinching – without so much as batting an eye – without so much as a flicker of fear. THIS, beloved, is where I am taking My fearless warriors of worship. This is certainly where you are headed!!!

So be of good cheer. I am opening a new haven of My divine love. It is portrayed to you with much interest in your well-being. For in so doing, you are entering a new place of wonder where you will see – know in advance – things that are about to occur in your midst. You are going to walk with a knowing that you have never enjoyed. Be of good cheer! The hour of advancement is upon you, beloved. The hour of wondrous advancement is surely upon you, My beloved, worshipping, warriors of love!!!

Frolicking Lambs
Mary Clark

barnabessie@earthlink.net

August 10, 2004

frolic – play, leap, skip, cavort, dance around, frisk, kick up your heels, let down your hair.

While driving home last week, the Lord called my attention to the clouds. I could see a little white lamb in the clouds, with its ears blowing. Then I heard the Lord say, "My frolicking lambs." Here is what He has to tell us about His frolicking lambs.

I am sincere when I say these words to My beloved children – most sincere. I want you to know that I take MUCH delight in you, and I want YOU to take delight in ME. I want you dancing freely and bounding about in the goodness of your God, kicking your heels up high. I want you to know that I take such a delight in seeing you, My dear ones, happy in Me. I am delighted to see you advancing in the territory of My all-pervading goodness. I am delighted to see you take a stance against the lies of the enemy. I am delighted to hear your words of acceptance of My work in you and in the world. I want you to be delighted when I tell you these words tonight – so delighted that you will frolic like young lambs on a grassy knoll. Hear Me now as I explain Myself to you:

Many have looked on the living God as staid and unfriendly. Believe Me when I tell you that I am friendly – very friendly. I am so friendly that I chose to give you the seal of My Spirit within your very own body. Yes! You might think on that awhile, beloved. Think on the awesomeness of that wonderful gift.

Let Me tell you something else that will make you take a leap into the air and click your heels together: I have called you to perform My will in this hour. I have called you to be alive in Me, demonstrating My will to the masses. You ask how this is to be done. Let Me just say, beloved, that word gets around. Word gets around, and when it does, mankind will make much effort to get in the vicinity of one of My very own vessels – one who is demonstrating My power and goodness on the face of the earth. Yes! You won't be able to contain all that will be coming your way. All will want to see a LIVE performance of the Almighty God as He portrays His goodness though His chosen vessels. That is certainly something to SHOUT and DANCE about.

Let Me tell you this, too, beloved: The work that I am bringing forth will astound even the most critical eye. Even the most stubborn will not be able to mistake the wondrous work that I am about to do through My chosen vessels.

So get ready, My little frolicking lambs. Get ready to put on a show that will draw the masses. Get ready to be portrayers of My goodness. I intend to demonstrate Myself through you, beloved. I intend to demonstrate things through you that even you, My vessel, will find difficult to believe. But believe it you will, beloved. Believe it you will, and when you see the mysteries that are about to unfold, will you do Me a small favor? Please say: "Thank You, Father, for using Me for Your glory?" Will you do that for Me, beloved? Will you kindly do that for Me?

You will? Then let the fun begin. Let the fun begin when My children will romp and play in My presence, and present the will of the Father to the onlookers of the world. Yes! Let the fun begin!!!

The Perfect Servant
Mary Clark

August 11, 2004

I am the Perfect Servant. I gave Myself that you might walk in newness of life. I spared no expense. I gave My all for you. I looked on you with an eye to bless and bless you I did!

In this day, I am calling to MY servants, and asking something vital of you. I want you to walk seeking My face. For it is in walking, seeking the face of the Perfect Servant, that you will be changed.

I want you, My beloved, to be strong for My cause. In being strong for My cause, you will see developments in your life that will be pleasing to you. You will see vistas open that you never imagined. You will know mysteries that you have longed to know, and, beloved, you will walk in a protected place – a place of honor – a place of wonder.

I, the Perfect Servant, am calling to you, My beloved – My servants, asking that you follow after My heart, seek Me above all else. Walk in that place of close communion with Me. If you will do this you will see My majesty unfold in your life, and you will dwell in a place out of harm's way.

I am seeking those who will lay aside their own agendas and seek Me. I am seeking those who will comply with My wishes. If you say "yes" to Me, you will not be disappointed, dear one. You will be thrilled deep within your heart, and you will pronounce to others a truth that bears repeating time and time again: The Beloved died – gave His life – for each inhabitant on earth, and He is calling all who will come into a place of His rich favor being bestowed in measure beyond ALL comprehension.

Lead others to this fountain that never runs dry. Lead others into this place of sweet, holy communion. You will know some things to tell them that you did not know before. I will give you opportunity, upon opportunity to display My goodness, if you will follow after My heart in obedience. This is a calling that the most high God is bestowing on all who will receive. Come close and know Me. Come close and reveal Me to others. Come close and rest in that closeness, reassured and safe, for that I where I am taking you, My beloved servant. That is certainly where you belong!!!

Dream About George Bush

Clo DiPilato

Dearest Friends in Jesus,

Pass this one on, as you are led to do so.

I had a dream last night about George Bush, both junior and senior. In my dream, they got onto a ship, and it seemed there was an arm of this ship that was dangling out over the ocean. There were many people also with them in the arm of this ship that extended over the water. (It reminded me of the arm of a crane, and a ferry boat all mixed into one, something I do not know if even exists, but it was wide and long, consisting of a deck able to hold many people.)

Something happened that shook this arm , causing them (George Bush Jr. and Sr.) to be flung out to the far end of this ship to the very edge of the arm, and the arm bounced, as if it was done deliberately to throw them out into the water. But they caught the ledge, and were not thrown overboard.

I believe George Bush, Sr. represents people on George W. Bush's staff/team/cabinet who also worked in previous administrations, who are vital to the strength and wisdom of his presidency.

This dream also makes me wonder if there is an "enemy within" who is going to shake things up within the next few days. And the fact that it was an arm, extending far out into the water, etc........makes me wonder if this has to do with some foreign policy issue.

Please pray about this, that the end result.........he stayed IN the ship, even if "hanging on for dear life", be prophetic of what will be the outcome of this election.

I have not been reading or viewing any of the words coming forth from well-known prophets (or not so "well-known" ones, whom I would definitely respect as having the word of the Lord) at this time to know what others are saying on the matter, and am just simply giving a dream I had which I believe have been from the Lord, and I am telling it as a dream. It's up to the Lord's people to discern if it is coming forth with the validity of a true prophetic word. Time will tell.

May the true word of the Lord stand in this matter. He rules in the heavens above, and in the affairs of men below.

All glory to Jesus, and in His Love,

Clo DiPilato

Dream About George Bush

Becky McLendon

I had a dream about sitting at a table with George W. Bush and a whole group of other people. Somehow everyone there had a zip lock bag full of medications to show him. All they could talk about was their health condition and the medications they had to take. He listened intently, nodding his head, but then he turned to me. I had no zip lock bag nor any medications. I said, "I don't take any of that stuff, nor do I need it." He had a most tender look on his face, and he reached out his left hand to take my right. (I was sitting immediately to his left). He held my hand for the rest of the meeting.

I got up to do something and they were all pouring red wine. When it came to where I was sitting I held up my hand and said no thank you. Again he looked at me with tenderness and smiled.

The whole thing seemed to be focused on the control the medical/health care industry has on people. part of it is an evil spirit controlling America's dependency on medications. Also the pills in ziplock bags are showing that people are taking things to "mask" symptoms...i.e. cover up their SIN. They were showing him all these things and of course their concern was the COST of it. Covering up sin IS EXPENSIVE. We are essentially an UNREPENTANT nation. We are very RELIGIOUS, with our many pretty church houses and huge congregations and mega ministry corporations, but we are still basically unrepentant.

We have pills, pills, but the LORD is saying how many different forms of medication there are. When we think of medication, we also have that going on in so many churches. They are being soothed in their spirits by entertainment that takes the place of true worship. That's about all they are getting for their tithes: religious medication. Entertainment is just medication. "Easy grace" is just medication. It is like David playing for Saul to soothe the violence in his heart. We have over eating, we have addiction to TV, addiction to sex, addiction to gambling, any kind of "escape" that we can take on to cover up the misery we have lived in in our sin. Bush KNOWS the difference between the true SPIRIT of God and the spirit of the world. His "job" dictates that he has to listen intently to all the carnality of the world. But when the spirit of God speaks, He attends to it with profound love and agreement.

However, God has a praying remnant. Our prayers will help Bush. The golden censers have prayers stored in them that have seen his need. The golden censor holds prayers for these times. Bush's administration will be more overshadowed than any others have ever been.

God did this with me during his first election. That is where I went in spirit to the inaugural place and saw an assassin in a window with a high powered rifle...set to kill him. I re arranged the whole room and told them someone was over there. A plot to kill him either politically OR in reality was stopped at that time. THEN we saw the mess that last election was with all the controversy about votes . The Lord then gave the word that Bush IS His man for this season. That He would give a prophetic mantle and Bush would do a "Josiah" work in America, causing a massive turning to the Word of God for our guidance rather than evil laws. Wicked men will hate him and his life is in constant danger. (I have had several "assassination" dreams of powerful intercession.)

He is going to more covered than ever. God has a plan for America. Regardless of the evil in government, Bush has been raised up for such a time as this. And this is the term where that will come to the forefront!!! Regardless of things in the man, George Bush, that we might not agree with or things about the nature of his political position, God has placed him in office for such a time as this, and he will carry out what God has for him to do. We are commanded to pray for him and the office of authority that he holds. Amen and Amen.

Becky

What Then IS Faith
Becky Mclendon

Faith is not going by the sight of the eye or hearing of the ear, hut by quick understanding. Full faith is a full ear of corn ready for harvest. The carnal doesn't have an ear for the new corn. There is no place to put it. We have to spend a lot of time alone with the Lord and to follow His plan. His plan works without compromise.

We come to the place where we tell the Lord, “If You have the time I have the time,” and then we wait on Him in quietness and confidence. We wait for the promise of the Father, and there is no shadow of turning. The Lord’s plan is like a loaf of bread, the accuser will knead it down to almost nothing. But give it time it will come back bigger than ever.

We enjoy the Lord and his presence so much. Think of the emptiness that would be without the Lord, even with this world’s goods. To the saint the emptiness would be torment. They put on a big show, but these empty people can't be happy.

We cannot add to the Lord's plan or take from it. Never the less not my will, but thy will be done. The Lord's plan abolishes death and brings life and immortality to light by his presence. If we look back we are blind. We do not have eyes in the back of our head. His plan quickens and makes alive our mortal bodies. This is not in the likeness of his resurrection; this is the same resurrection. For He has said the same spirit that raised Christ from the dead dwells in us. This is not a copy
This is the same Jesus doing the greater works in us. It is not a type of a resurrection; it is resurrection. Jesus says I am the resurrection and the life.

The devil has nothing to do with measuring our trials. He may think he has a plan to throw another monkey wrench in the gears of progress in the kingdom. It is the Lord that measures the trials. What He has predestinated us to get through, we will get through. Trials are the tests that come before promotions. So, excuse me, please, but in Jesus’ Name, in spite of the terrible stumbling and faltering you have seen me fall victim to; in spite of all the mistakes and the weakness you have seen me have, I am going through, and no devil in hell can stop it.

Amen and shalom.

Dance With The King

Joni Ames and Bob Jones

Dear Friends,

A friend sent me a note, informing me that on April 04, 2004, an interesting mathematical event will occur.

If the date is written as is common within the United States, it will be 04/04/04.

If you are up early that morning, and see the clock at 4:04 am, it will be 04/04/04 04:04!

Additionally, I thought it was interesting that all of these events occur surrounding April 4, 2004:

(1) PASSOVER
A time to celebrate the passing by of the death angel, and the sparing of the lives of those who believe. This holiday commemorates the departure of the nation of Israel from Egypt. (Begins at sundown on April 5, and ends at nightfall on April 13, 2004.)

(2) THE START OF DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME
Occurs 4/4/04. Bringing more light to our days during this season; conserving energy.
Isaiah 60:1 & 2 - "(1) Arise, shine; For your light has come! And the glory of the Lord is risen upon you. (2) For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, And deep darkness the people; But the Lord will arise over you, And His glory will be seen upon you."

(3) PALM SUNDAY
Occurs 4/4/04. A time when the palms that used to be used to worship foreign gods were laid beneath the feet of Jesus, and even the feet of His donkey - symbolic of being beneath our feet as well, as His "burden bearers."

THE NUMBER FOUR (4)
Prophetically, the number four (4) can represent the number of earth; creation; world; four gospels; four winds; four seasons; four corners of the earth.

Additionally, the word QUADRENNIAL jumped out at me. It means:
(1) happening every four years
(2) lasting four years

Everyone can seek for their own prophetic OR pathetic conclusions about this...I thought it was really interesting, considering the fact that we are in a LEAP YEAR, which only occurs ever FOUR years!

The Lord has been speaking to me via prophetic parallel that we are about to LEAP this year into what He has for us. It occurs once every four years, and in leap year, we CATCH UP ON LOST TIME.

Additionally, the word LEAP means: sudden transition, jump, spring, bound, eagerly accept something offered, bound or spring over a cavern or valley!

And the term QUANTUM LEAP means "a transfer/transition of energy from one source to the next in atomic proportions!" - Reminds me of the raw power of God!

BOB JONES AND QUADURAIN ("QUAD-YOU-RAIN"}

I was at church recently, and Bob Jones told me that he woke up with a word running through his head that he didn't know the meaning of. It was "QUADURAIN." (Pronounced "QUAD-YOU-RAIN). He said that when he looked it up, the closest word to it was QUADRANGLE, which the dictionary describes as (1) a figure with FOUR angles and FOUR sides, (2) an area surrounded on FOUR sides by buildings. Bob said it reminded him of the City of God.

He also said the Lord gave him Matthew 10:8, which speaks of the FOUR things Jesus commanded

His disciples to do:
(1) Heal the sick
(2) Cleanse the lepers
(3) Cast demons out
(4) Raise the dead

Bob then said, "But I don't have all of it, papa told me someone else here would have more, so why don't you see what He shows you during worship?"

When I returned to my seat, the Lord showed me several things:

QUAD

Quad = Four (4) - And as we already said: Prophetically, the number four (4) can represent the number of earth; creation; world; four gospels; four winds; four seasons; four corners of the earth.

SQUARE: FOURSQUARE

I've learned that when things seem to "jump out at me," "get highlighted" or catch my attention, to PAY ATTENTION TO THEM. (i.e.., HEAR what the Spirit says about them!) A few different words jumped out at me when Bob spoke.

When he spoke of something being four sided, SQUARE and FOURSQUARE leapt out to me.

SQUARE

When I looked up "SQUARE" in my Bible concordance, it led me to three things:

(1) The Altar (Ex. 27:1), "You shall make an altar of acacia wood, five cubits long and five cubits wide--the altar shall be square--and its height shall be three cubits.

Through that, I believe the Lord said He is calling us to make an alter to Him, and more spend time at it in this season.

(2) The Breastplate (Ex. 39: 8& 9), "(8) And he made the breastplate, artistically woven like the workmanship of the ephod, of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and of fine woven linen. (9) They made the breastplate square by doubling it; a span was its length and a span its width when doubled."

Through this, I believe He is saying that He is calling us to a priestly walk of holiness and for us to walk in the breastplate of righteousness. It's time to get rid of the hindrances so that we can walk in the light and truth (urim and thummin) of the direction of His Word and Spirit.

(3) City of God (Rev. 21:16), "The city is laid out as a square; its length is as great as its breadth. And he measured the city with the reed: twelve thousand furlongs. Its length, breadth, and height are equal." and Heb. 11:10, " And he (Abraham) waited for the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God."

I believe the Lord is saying that He is looking for those who are looking to become the city HE has founded and made, NOT religion or religiosity, but LOVE. He IS love!

FOURSQUARE

FOURSQUARE reminded me of Aimee Semple McPherson's FOURSQUARE GOSPEL CHURCH, which was founded on (1) Salvation, (2) Baptism with the Holy Ghost, (3) Divine healing, and (4) The second coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. She once said, "To be foursquare means facing an issue directly, preaching the truth in an unflinching way. It means that we shall never be lopsided." (http://www.foursquare.org/files/foursquare_sermon.pdf)

I believe the Lord is raising up such a Church in the Body again today - one that will not flinch or compromise, but be completely uncompromising in their faith and doctrine.

QUADRENNIAL

Regarding the word QUADRENNIAL that I came acrooss (which meant (1) happening every four years and (2) lasting four years) Bob felt that the move of God we are coming into will last for a four year period. In it, it will be a time of plowing up the stumbling stones (sin) out of our lives, and preparing the way for the King. The "Highway of Holiness."

Quadran Pavane: Dance With A King

Lastly, but not leastly, there is a dance, called the Quadran Pavane.

The Quadran Pavane is a renaissance dance, often used to dance with kings. It is a very simple pattern dance that is described in Inns of Court manuscripts as a dance that apparently doesn't go anywhere. It's steps are: 2 sideways singles left, forward a double left, 2 sideways singles right, back a double right. Pavanes are basically processional dances, and when the music stops, it means that the procession has arrived.

Many of us feel as if we are "going nowhere fast," but I believe the Lord used this "object lesson" to say to those who feel this way that you ARE, in fact, a part of HIS processional, prophetically preparing the world for His return. He reminded me of the song, "I HOPE YOU DANCE."

I hope YOU Dance With The King On April 4th, and ALWAYS!

Blessings,
Joni Ames

It's Time To Dance With The King
Joni Ames

Its time to dance with the King
Engaged to never part
Embrace Him closely, face to face,
And dance now, heart to heart

Its time to dance with the King
And never look away
In love forever, with a love
That's gaze will never stray

We've danced with the world
And stepped to it's tune
But no one else can love like Him
And cause our heart to swoon

Guard your heart from all but Him
His love is all complete
Dance in His everlasting arms
And let Him guide your feet

Allow His Love to light your path
And lead you in your ways
For only He knows of the road
To lead you from your maze

I see Him reaching out to you
His scepter for this dance
As He says, "Will you dance with me
Inside each circumstance?"

"I'll teach to you the steps and moves
And give you favor, sure,
And promise MY love will not leave
But evermore endure."
"So will you let me take your hand? -

Let me, your life, embrace? -
Let me, the lifter of your head,
Make all your pain erase?"

"Just follow close now, let ME lead -
Just rest secure from harm
And from this desert I'll lead you
As you lean on My Arm."

"I'll take away the heavy load
That you cannot endure
As I sweep you from evil's grasp
Into My arms, secure."

It's time to dance now, with your King -
The King and Lord of all
Reach out and take His hand today,
Responding to His call.

Its time to dance now with the King
Engaged to never part
Embrace Him closely, face to face,
Dance with Him, heart to heart

Its time to dance with the King
And never look away
In love forever, with a love
That's never more will stray

Dash Them To Pieces
Jonathan Laird

You Shall Dash Them To Pieces As A Potter’s Vessel

Northern Territory Australia
lairdsonline@dodo.com.au
28 December 03

My children, I know the arrogance and contempt of the wicked. I know their schemes and whilst they may appear to have the ascendancy in these last days, know that they are reserved for destruction in the coming Day of wrath. I am the King of Kings and The Lord of Lords and I roar from heaven on behalf of My flock.

None but none shall snatch the least of these out of My hand. Yes, some of You, My Royal Priesthood are appointed unto martyrdom but the mystery behind this lies only with Our Father.

I desire you to know your proper place in this final hour. You are My Warriors, My mighty ones. The children of Thunder.

Remember how I dealt with the soldiers that presumptuously approached Elijah? How the guards became as dead men when I arose in glory? Joshua prayed that the sun would stand still and so it did. It was a mortal man such as yourself that was My instrument in the parting of the Red Sea.

Samson in his final hour was no more sanctified than yourself. Those with whom I lived at Nazareth tried to throw Me off the cliff and I merely “passed through their midst” and continued on My way. Jonathan triggered a rout of the Philistines by attacking them saying “perhaps The Lord will deliver them into our hands” accompanied only by a boy. I said that “greater works than these you shall do in My Name” and I say to you that greater than all of the above you shall do in My Name. Only those who are mature and have been broken and delivered from “the pride of life” will be able to be instruments of such mighty works but do not say “that’s not me”.

Am I a respecter of persons? What if I desire you to work such mighty acts in My Name? Are you available or need I look elsewhere? You know My children, that I desire above all else, that You be My instruments of love to this dying world; I came to save life and not to destroy it. I am however The Lion of the Tribe of Judah as well as the lamb. The Father desires that the world be placed under my rule and subjection and so it shall be. I shall rule over the nations “with a rod of iron”, I shall rebuke strong nations afar off. I shall withhold the dew of heaven from those who refuse to honour Me. If this be the nature of My Kingdom can’t I use you to perform My mighty works within the earth?

I poured out My Life unto death so that you could inherit all and be named “Children of the Most High God”. Shake off those limiting thoughts My Mighty Army. Sharpen that gaze. You are My appointed instrument to destroy the works of the enemy.

The harvest field is white and creation cries out to be liberated from the curse. Reveille is sounding through the camp.

Dream About The Election

Russell Yoder

I had this dream Saturday October 23, 2004

It was like a two part dream and I don’t remember much about the first part because I didn’t write it down but it was about President Bush. In this dream we were in the same house… what I remember is that he was like a father figure in relationship to me or maybe it represented a connection between him and the common people, or even the church. The second part I remember real well. The President (Bush) and his wife were standing in my computer room in the basement of my house (I was sitting back away watching). He had a notebook or papers on the counter and he was practicing a speech pertaining to the election. He looked resolute, sounded strong and in fairly good spirits. Then his wife either noticed or he showed his hand to her… around the entire edge of the little finger was a deep reddish purple sore or infection. Just seeing that made me want to pray for him. I said "Mr. President, I would consider it a privilege if I could pray for you." He seemed genuinely grateful for the offer and to pray. I began in pray for him for wisdom and strength and help in preparation of this speech. I felt power in the praying and he did too, and nodded in appreciation. I woke up as I was praying for him in the dream and continued praying in the natural… about the sending and ministry of angels for him. Then I wondered what that was all about.

I didn’t really have time to think a lot about it or write it down that morning. I had stuff around the house to do and made an 11:00 O’clock appointment at the healing room at church. Anyway after a good day and the late service at church Saturday night I went home ate supper and went to bed. I woke up during the night when I looked at the time of the digital clock light shinning on the ceiling… the time was 3:33. Reminded me about what Pastor Anita was saying about Jeremiah 33:3. I just was thinking over all the neat stuff over the past couple weeks (I could write 10 pages!). Then I remembered the dream about the election… and I wondered what the President’s sore finger was all about… almost immediately I realized the finger nail represented the President’s lead in the election, or his hold of the office. The infected nail could easily be pulled off or even fall off if the infection got worse. My thought was this is a call to the church to pray for ‘healing’ of the circumstances causing this infection.

For your discernment,

David Versus Eliab

Victoria Boyson

Aug 2, 2004

As David went to the battlefield to see how he could help his brothers, he was appalled at Goliath's words against his people; he wanted to do something about it. But before David could fight against the giant, he had to overcome the accusations of his own brother Eliab.
"When Eliab, David's oldest brother, heard him speaking with the men, he burned with anger at him and asked, 'Why have you come down here? And with whom did you leave those few sheep in the desert? I know how conceited you are and how wicked your heart is; you came down only to watch the battle.'
"'Now what have I done?' said David. 'Can't I even speak?' He then turned away to someone else and brought up the same matter" (1 Samuel 17:28-30).

When I read the title of this chapter to my son Cole, he very kindly informed me that I was incorrect. "No, Mom," he said, "it's David and Goliath!" We have all read or heard about the story of David killing the giant Goliath, but shortly before he killed the giant, his brother attacked him verbally. And before David could face off with Goliath, he had to overcome the heated accusation of his oldest brother Eliab.

David trusted in God's power, but his brother did not. Eliab thought the doubts he had about David's character were really wisdom. He misunderstood the accusations in his heart toward David to be a gift of discernment into his brother's life. He thought he understood his youngest brother. He had known David his whole life; he had probably helped to raise him, but could not see David's heart for what it was.

Eliab misinterpreted David's confidence in God to be arrogance and conceit. He thought David was just "talking big" for the boys, and it angered him. He had lived with David his whole life and just saw a little brother who was only good enough to tend the sheep in their father's pasture. Eliab did not know that while David was in the position of the lowly shepherd boy, God was training him to be a giant killer.

"But David said to Saul, 'Your servant has been keeping his father's sheep. When a lion or a bear came and carried off a sheep from the flock, I went after it, struck it and rescued the sheep from its mouth. When it turned on me, I seized it by its hair, struck it and killed it. Your servant has killed both the lion and the bear; this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, because he has defied the armies of the living God. The Lord who delivered me from the paw of the lion and the paw of the bear will deliver me from the hand of the Philistine' " (1 Samuel 17:34-37).

While no one was paying attention to David, God was training him to be a mighty man of faith - someone who would not rely on his own strength or wisdom, but on God's. God taught David how to fight His way and not the ways of other men. God taught David to use faith and a sling. When the fighting men of the day tried to train David to fight with armor and a sword, it was uncomfortable for him because he was not used to it (see 1 Samuel 17:39).

God Wants to Train Us

If we are willing, God himself will teach us and train us to walk in His ways. Many times God uses the experiences of other men to train us, but there comes a time when He desires to get one-on-one with us (see John 16:13). He desires to take us through our trials Himself, step by step, and the more we learn from Him, the greater our capacity to be taught by Him.

Eliab fashioned himself after the warriors of the day, and I am sure in their eyes he ranked very high. He was certain that he knew what it took to fight; he was sure David did not have what it took. After all, Eliab was the one that Samuel thought would be God's choice for the next king of Israel. The Lord told Samuel to disregard Eliab's appearance and his height, because He'd rejected him. "The Lord does not look at the things man looks at. Man looks at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks after the heart" (1 Samuel 16:7).

Eliab was furious with David for even thinking he, a shepherd, could fight the giant Goliath. Eliab thought David was conceited for talking with such great faith. Eliab reasoned that since he, the oldest and biggest of his brothers, would not even consider fighting with Goliath, how could his "baby brother" have the gall to think he could fight him. He was positive that David's talk was just conceit and that his intentions were wicked. Eliab was focusing on Goliath and thought he was too big for anyone to fight, but David's focus was on his God. Eliab thought that David was thinking too highly of himself, but actually it was Eliab who thought too little of God.

Turn Away from the Accuser

Have you ever been in David's position? Your intentions are honorable and your heart is pure, but those around you misinterpret your actions. They point at your confidence in God and assume it is pride, so they decide that they need to remind you of your smallness, as Eliab did when he reminded David he was only a shepherd. "And with whom did you leave those few sheep in the desert?" (1 Samuel 17:29).

People like Eliab allow their mouths to be used by doubt and unbelief. They will point out every reason why you could not possibly fulfill the call of God on your life. They are positive you could never have the things God has promised to you. Eliab felt he knew David, and he was sure there was nothing special about him. However, Eliab was not there in the fields with the sheep when God was fashioning David's heart after His own and building up his faith in Him.

It was at this time that David made one of the most important decisions of his life: he turned away from Eliab and started talking to someone else.

The enemy will find those people in our lives that regard us as inferior and unsuitable for ministry, and speak through them to devour our destiny. He will use them to point out our inadequacies and remind us of all the reasons why we could not possibly do anything of significance.

But God also has a voice! He can see into our future and the motives of our heart. We need to tune our ears into Him and He will encourage us to do all that He asks us to do. He wants us to break free from the person we have previously been and see ourselves walking in our destiny in God.

You are a Giant Killer

Beloved, God sees you as a giant killer. He sees you as victorious; He pushes you to try. Close your ears to the enemy's lies and see yourself as God sees you. God wishes to use your uniqueness to enrich the body of Christ.

God has been trying to convince you that your destiny is very great, indeed. But at the same time, those around you see you as insignificant. They may view you as anointed, but cannot possibly envision what God has planned for you. It simply is not possible for them to see your destiny. Don't expect them to; it is between you and God. He desires it to be that way until He releases you into your destiny in Him.

If David had listened to his brother Eliab, he would not have killed the giant, and he may never have become king. While anticipating the birth of our destiny, we must endeavor to turn away from the opinions of man and heed the voice of God. God promised David the crown of Israel, but he was virtually unknown until he fought and killed Goliath. It was through this step of faith that God made his name known. God gave him a platform by which he would eventually be made king and fulfill his destiny. Every step of faith and every act of obedience to God will get us one step closer to our destiny in Him. If David had not stepped out in faith here, he might not have sat on the throne of Israel.

What is the Goliath in your life today? What is God asking you to do? No matter what it is, be ready for the voice of the accuser to say you cannot do it. He wants to stop your destiny. Don't let him do it! When the enemy tries to discourage you, be encouraged by it. He would not waste his time trying to discourage you unless he actually thought you would fulfill your destiny in God.

Please pray this with me:

Dear Father, Help me to hear Your voice and not the voice of the accuser. Change my vision. Help me see myself the way You do. Allow me to see others in light of Your grace, and help me see Your destiny in people everywhere I look!

Day Of Deliverance
Musa Opiyo

May 22, 2004

For surely the Lord would say that this is the year that I am delivering My people out of fears that have gripped and robbed them of My peace for many years. For there is a shaking occurring in the heavens that shall even manifest itself on the earth, of the strongholds that have long prevailed over My precious people. No longer shall My people walk in fear of the attacks and the onslaughts of the enemy but rather they shall arise in holy boldness and take the battle to the gates. No longer shall the gates of hell prevail against My Holy Remnant, for they shall come to a new understanding of the victory that was won on the cross and they themselves shall arise in My power and strength, clothed with My love and mercy, and they shall defeat the enemy on every side.

Many in this day are discouraged, defeated and downcast because they do not have a full revelation of who they are in Me or what I did on the cross, but I am opening the eyes of their understanding, that they may know the victory accomplished by Me and they would live in the abundance I made so available to them. Rise up bold warriors. The enemy is desperately trying to nullify and destroy what I am doing amongst My people. He fights a losing battle. He knows his end is near. You know his end is near and so fear not, so arise and war with Passions Fire. Declare that this is the season of Jubilee, of recompense of all that was stolen by the enemy. Continue to speak My praises and worship for no stronghold of Satan can remain when My words and My praises proceed from the mouth of My Holy People.

Blessings,

Return To Your First Ministry
Musa Opiyo

May 23, 2004

I hear the Lord asking many to return to their first ministry: intimacy and true relationship with His Son Jesus Christ.

Many people, especially ministers the Lord says, have become so engrossed and involved in their own ministries and all that entails it that they have forgotten their first and foremost ministry; intimacy with their Lord and Saviour. Because of this they have experienced frustrations and problems to which have dialed 911 to Heaven's throne asking what is going on.

I hear the Lord replying: "Many have forsaken drawing from the well that is found in My presence that by the time you go and minister to My children you are dry because you cannot give what you yourself have not received. Lean on Me. I am the one who anointed and gifted you in your area of ministry and service to My children. I will equip you and I will give you the tools and resources you need. When you give time devoted to Me, I will extend time as I did with My servant Joshua so that you can and will accomplish that which I have sent and commissioned you to do."

"And yet there are some of My children who have forsaken the ministry because of discouragement and weariness brought on from the enemy. When you said yes for Me to use you I did not promise you a smooth road. In fact, if anything I promised that you would have tribulation moments where your faith would be tested and tried. It would be the enemy's delight to see you throw in the towel and give up, yet I say give him no quarter. Pick up again your mantle and go forth knowing that the I AM who called and anointed you shall go forth accompanying your words with signs and wonders. I AM with you."

Philippian 1:6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.

Child of God, the Almighty has not given up on you. Dont give up on him. What he has spoken shall come to pass for his word shall not return void.

Blessings,
Musa Opiyo

Double Blessing

Steven Brooks

Recently the Lord has been speaking very clearly to my wife and I that "The Double Is In." Just over two weeks ago I traveled to Irvine, California. to minister at The Eagle's Nest, which is a great church pastored by Dr. Gary Greenwald. While there Pastor Gary blessed me with a new and very expensive laptop computer, which he had just purchased on a ministry trip in Malaysia. We were in great need of a new computer because our office computer crashed two months earlier due to severe computer viruses. A friend with computer repair skills was able to save our important documents before the computer completely shut down, but the problem was so severe that after four hours of work on it he still couldn't fix it. I had given this computer up for dead and due to the fact that it was already six years old, had decided that it was non-repairable. Because of this my wife and I were reduced to carrying ministry paperwork, notes, and other office products to the local library everyday in order to use their computers to complete our work. We thanked God for the public library, while at the same time it was a difficult task to do this on a daily basis. The very day that Pastor Gary gave me the new laptop computer, I received a phone call from a good friend who had taken my old, non-working office computer to a friend he knew that was a computer technician. He called me to let me know that my computer had been completely repaired and that it was now better then new. Not only was it repaired and running great but also it had all of the new software installed on it. Now I have two outstanding computers, one for my office and one for when I'm on the go. The Lord blessed me with double.

Two days later following this experience with the computers, I was ministering in Whittier, CA. at a Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International dinner banquet. After sharing my testimony I prayed and prophesied over everyone present in the meeting. After I completed this time of ministry, a Senior Pastor was quickened by the Spirit and he looked at me and said, "You have asked God for a certain amount of money, God said He is going to double it!" In my heart I was aware of the sincere request that I had made to God regarding a specific financial petition. After these meetings my wife, daughter, and myself returned to our home in Henderson, Nevada, where we live and pastor a new and growing church called, "The City of Lights Church." Once back home I began to pray and ask God if I was correctly hearing from Him regarding the prophetic declaration that, "The Double Is In."

I set aside time to pray and seek God, however all I could sense was disappointment. It seemed as if the enemy was trying to steal my hope in an effort to convince me that the previous events with the two computers that were given to me, and the receiving of a prophetic word, were just mere coincidences. As I continued to pray in tongues the discouragement seemed to increase even more than before. As a Believer I know we are not supposed to be led by our feelings, but rather we are to be led by the Word of God and the Holy Spirit. After three hours of praying in tongues I felt as if I had gotten nowhere with God. At that time I simply said, "Lord, I have some other business that I must attend to now, I have to leave for now." As I began to rise up from my position of kneeling in prayer, I thought I would make one more attempt to connect with God. Although I was still greatly discouraged, I took hold of my Bible and placed it before me. I said, "Lord, I don't even know where to look, or what I'm looking for," and having said that I sat my Bible down and got ready to leave to catch an appointment. However, when I sat my Bible down it fell open and a specific verse seemed to lift off the page and grab my eyes. The verse said:

“For your shame you shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them.” (Isaiah 61:7)

Well, as you can imagine that living verse of scripture put me over the top and I know in my heart that, “The Double Is In.”

Yesterday my wife Kelly and I met one of our church married couples for lunch at the mall. We were there to celebrate the husband’s birthday. Before lunch my wife spent some time walking around the mall and noticed there were big, huge signs hung all around the mall that said, “The Double Is In.” Each large sign was advertising the need to purchase either two pairs of shoes, or hats, scarves, and other types of products. Kelly came back to the lunch table to have me come and see these large signs. They were all over the mall. The Lord is clearly speaking through secular advertising to bring confirmation to His directives.

Some reading this may be wanting more than just double. You may be thinking in terms of exponential increase. I believe great increase is at hand for the body of Christ, but we must not despise the day of small beginnings. The double will actually carry us into the greater purpose and destiny that God has for us. For instance, Paul the apostle sailed from the island of Malta to his ultimate destination of standing before Caesar in Rome. He made this journey towards destiny aboard an Alexandrian ship that had a carved Gemini for its figurehead: “the Heavenly Twins.” (Acts 28:11) Here we see the double revealed through the two twin brothers named Castor and Pollux. I believe God is saying that “the double” is our means of transportation towards the greater purposes of God.

As you receive this word into your heart, be looking for and expecting “the double” to come to you in many forms, such as:
Double Blessings, Double Finances
Double Healings, Double Salvations
And Double the Goodness of God!

Be Doubly Blessed in your walk with Him,
Steven Brooks

D-Day Wreckage
Marie-France McDowell-Smith

WRECKAGE, WRECKAGE, WRECKAGE:
Listen, I speak into your spirit! Wreckage, wreckage, wreckage --- a trail of terror from Day One in the garden until now ... wrecked plans, dreams, hopes, lives, countries, continents, destinies of people, wreckage near and far...wreckage. (An accompanying vision will be shared at a later time).

DEFINITION OF WRECKAGE:
Wreckage: NOUN: 1. The act of wrecking or the state of being wrecked. 2. Something wrecked. 3. The debris of something wrecked. "Well, Lord that is straight forward enough. So, why are you speaking wreckage over and over again?"

TODAYS DATE AND NUMBERS:
The Holy Spirit (Ruach) directed, "Look at the date? What is today's date?" Could it be written as:

6-6-2004 = 18 = 1+ 8 = 9 (divine completion; Fruit of the Spirit)

~and~

2004 = 2+0+0+4 = 6

~or~

6-6-6 = 666 (the number of man, the number of the Mark of the Beast)

And again, 6-6-6 = 18 = 1 + 8 = 9 (Fruit of the Spirit; divine completion).

AN ACCIDENT? A SHIFT IN DATE FOR INVASION:
Ruach (the Holy Spirit) reminded me of a well known fact that the original date set for the invasion was June 5, 1944; however, due to weather conditions (an act of God), it was delayed until the next day, June 6th. "Do my people think that this was an accident? Do they not understand that there are no coincidences of any kind! Do they fear that I am a feeble God, unable to show you a mere 60 years later a matter of strategy for My end time generals, captains, and sgt.'s? These strategies need to be revealed with all the prophetic significance involved in D-day. A day that signaled the beginning of the end for the enemy. The determining factor in the turning of tide in the defeat of the Nazi's and their evil plans to rule the entire world. That same one who has always wanted to be worshipped as god, to rule My creation, pride ousted him from heaven. Do you now SEE what I am revealing?

THE MEMORIAL OF D-DAY:
Now, these sixty-years later -- June 6, 2004, marks the Allied Invasion against the Nazi's (abbreviation for the National Socialist German Workers' Party) on the Normandy Coast of France in the name of Liberty to a fully occupied country! Today, German Chancellor Schroeder was the first German leader invited to this event in all its 60-years of commemoration, a mark of reconciliation unprecedented.

A STRONG ENEMY AND HIS DEFEAT:
By * 1944, the Nazi's had tumbled over cities and countries like a skillfully released bowling ball speedily sliding down an alley headed for hell at top speed, no holds barred. The enemy had to be stopped. This effort could well have been the last chance for freedom in the West; the British Isles were next on their agenda. The West was given privilege for God's destined purposes, and with that prosperity and privilege came responsibility to go tell the nations the GOOD NEWS!(Gospel) and to defend FREEDOM both in the natural as well as spiritually! No one country or force would be able to stop the enemy is his tracks. Not one country alone, only a combined force! [* 1944 = 1+9+4+4 = 18 = 1+ 8 = 9 = divine completion; Fruit of the Spirit].

WHO WERE THESE COUNTRIES? WHAT IS DEFINITION OF D-DAY?
Twelve nations supplied troops and matèriel for the Allied Expeditionary Force (AEF). The AEF consisted of: Australia, Belgium, Canada, Czechoslovakia, France (Free France-FFI), Greece, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Poland, the United Kingdom, and the United States. Of these countries, the D-Day assault divisions (paratroopers, gliders, navy, infantry, mechanized) were composed of British, Canadian and American units. Much preparation work was achieved especially by the RAF Gliders pilots, air pilots, the Free French Interior (Resistance and their use of Verlaine's beautiful poem "CHANSON D'AUTOMNE" to signal the nation that the Invasion was underway), and many civilians from a number of countries. As I inquired the definition of the name of this greatest assault the world has ever seen, D-day, some responded 'D' for doom, devastation, or destruction day. In retrospect, it was all of these. Yet, its original usage was a military term, 'D' represents Day, thus D[ay]-Day ; as the term 'H-hour' with the 'H' meaning hour.

MORE BASIC HISTORY:
The Allied Expeditionary Force (AEF) under the command of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower combining effort with Sir Winston Churchill, Prime Minister of Britain, and other world leaders, brought together an allied force on land, air and sea, in what became known as the largest invasion force in human history. The operation, given the codename OVERLORD, [Fortitude: The shadow operation conceived to conceal Overlord] delivered five naval assault divisions to the beaches of Normandy, France. The beaches were given the codenames UTAH, OMAHA, GOLD, JUNO and SWORD. Fighting by the brave soldiers, sailors and airmen of the allied forces western front and Russian forces on the eastern front led to the focused defeat of German Nazi forces, along with their two partners Italy and Japan, known as the axis powers. On May 7, 1945, German General Alfred Jodl signed an unconditional surrender at Reims, France. Routing the enemy entrenched in France continued until September 1944.

WHY THE HISTORY LESSON?
God is revealing information perhaps not seen before through a variety of methods and to many people, never just one person. HE has reason for showing us, teaching us and directing us in new areas of understanding. Much of which we may only know much later as is necessary to utilize. Sometimes, God teaches us on a 'need to know basis'. His loving care for us is HIS precise direction, and all about timing. When HE speaks to HIS people and they fail to obey, HE moves to the next, for ALL THINGS are accomplished by HIS Mighty Right Hand. As an orchestra's symphony conductor to an intricately choreographed and supremely-timed ballet. Our Abba is forever preparing HIS children, developing our needed skills for VICTORY! We are the winners, HIS champions, we are overcomers as Yeshua overcame all obstacles in this world. Our obedience and duty to co-operate with the Holy Spirit as God promises to conform us to the likeness of HIS Son unto that coming day. So, we prepare and learn all that we can at the direction of our master teacher, Ruach haKodesh (the Holy Spirit of God). HE leads and guides us into all things. When children, we question the validity of some things taught. I can remember saying, "Why must I memorize these silly element tables, I will never use these in real life!" Hang on to your hats folks, famous last words for all of us. In earnest, the adventure of all adventures is about to begin.

WHY HE COMES!
I AM and I have always had a plan! There are no surprises to Your God. I COME TO REVERSE, RESURRECT AND RECONCILE ALL THE WRECKAGE OF ALL TIME AND HISTORY; NO PLAN TOO LARGE FOR ME! I AM THE ALEPH AND THE TAV; I AM OMNISCIENT, OMNIPRESENT, I AM THAT I AM. I COME QUICKLY!

A WARNING ~ TOUCH NOT MY OWN!!!
All that has been seemingly wrecked by my enemies and those vile complicitors joining in their evil plans, will face ME. Better had they faced D-day, for WHEN THEY STAND BEFORE ME, AS THEY ALL WILL, their doomsday, their devastation will be MY JUSTICE in love for you! YOU are My Beloved, a people sacrificially loved, blood bought, the one-new man in Yeshua. For these are the ones who know Me, their Adonai Elohim, their Abba, and observe and walk in My ways. They follow the Lamb wherever HE goes!!! Stand alongside My precious Beloved, Isra'el, never leave her side, NEVER! All that you do and speak for her is recorded as done unto me....but a cup of water for the least of these, My brothers. All those who have harmed or harassed you and her, even to a tiny fraction of a degree will face My justice, loss of reward and possible punishment in outer darkness their due....touch NOT MY OWN!!! Beloved, You are mine and I AM Yours! Nothing can ever separate you from the Love of Your God, absolutely nothing!

THIS GREAT DAY FOR MY BELOVED!
ALL IN MY KINGDOM WILL BE RESURRECTED, both the living and the dead, in but a twinkling of an eye. This GREAT DAY will come in but a nano-second of time, barely negligible. ALL followers of the Lamb will be ushered into My magnificent dwelling-place where Your God resides. Yerushalayim, my choice from before the beginning, My heart!

TROPHIES OF GRACE DISPLAYED:
WARRIOR-BRIDE, Yeshua's gift from ME, Your Abba; I SEE YOU arrayed in splendor, shining and sparkling trophies of grace displayed. HIS army prepared to ride upon the wind, return and defeat the enemy and his entourage for all time and eternity. The GREAT I AM will toss them into the prepared place, the pit of hell, created for their isolated containment. My government to establish for the healing of the nations. My Son, Yeshua will rule and reign from the City of Your God, that Golden City, the city called by My name!

SEND FORTH MY LOVE:
YOU, My Beloved, shall be escorted upon Clouds of Glory and accompanied by mercy and compassion; aptly transported by Grace and Justice, forever to live with ME in My Abba's house, a place of refuge for you prepared. But, only a little while longer and I come. SEND FORTH MY LOVE, Blow the Shofar, Ruach calls and woos humanity today.

A CONFIRMATION AND SIGN OF THE DAY IN WHICH YOU NOW WALK:
Today, I give you a sign of your time, the date of D-Day .... move forward, advance for My Kingdom's sake, no time to waste...nothing is as usual, the time to pluck them from the fires of hell is NOW. That time is TODAY!

Doors, Doors And More Doors

Sandy Warner

Feb 24, 2004
[A Year of Closing and Opening Doors]

Hi Loved Ones,
This year 2004, the Lord has clearly said to many prophetic people that it is the year of doors. After the Day of Atonement last fall I have seen several doors which brought me to the conclusion that He was highlighting a theme on doors.

If I were to highlight perhaps just one main door among many, I believe it would be called the Door of Opportunity. I have just walked through several months of doors of opportunity and have come to the conclusion that this door is two fold. There is an "in" door and there is an "out" door. There are doors opening to the Lord, doors opening to the enemy; doors the Lord wants us to walk through, doors the Lord wants us to shut, doors the enemy wants us to walk through and doors the enemy wants us to miss.

My life has been so consumed with doors the past few months that it has almost been like a revolving door. To say it clearly, "Stop the world and let me off!" Now the Lord does not want us to be walking in circles and merry-go-rounds, neither does He want us walking out the in door and in the out door. His earnest desire for us is to pray and listen; then choose and walk the right path.

If I could say it even more clearly, I believe we are at a crossroads and the doors we choose will determine our future. It is true that each day the Lord places us at a crossroad and every decision we make determines our future. However this year we are being presented some wonderful opportunities to get off our merry-go-rounds and forever walk away and move forward into our promises.

As you can guess, the upcoming series will be about doors. In order to make the right decisions that are being presented to us, we need to be persistent in prayer until we clearly hear from the Lord about each issue. The first 3 posts are about persistence. After that, the following posts on specific doors will be posted in pairs. The first post of the week will be about a door to close, and the last post of the week will be the door to open in its stead. Toward the end of the series in late April / May, they are all about open doors. (Praise Him!)

QUICKENED THOUGHT: In every opportunity is a choice. In every choice is a test. In every test there is a destiny.

"For a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries." (1 Cor 16:9 NKJV)

UPDATE NOTE: After I wrote this upcoming series on doors, I received confirmations from 3 other ministries that are preaching about doors right now. The Holy Spirit is really highlighting this message. Here is a 4th confirmation I received this week:

QUOTE MAHESH:
Mahesh's Website: http://www.watchofthelord.com

On the way home from church I had a Mahesh tape on in the car. Here is his quote: "I saw many of you like a mansion, a beautiful house. I saw many doors to this beautiful house. When I was praying, I saw angels of God. You know when you check the doors at night? They were checking the doors. Some of your doors need to be locked and secure. If not, the thief comes in through those doors that are not locked or slightly opened. You've got to lock those doors. Don't let the enemy in."

John 10:10 NLT
The thief's purpose is to steal and kill and destroy. My purpose is to give life in all its fullness.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKING
Sometimes you will be offered opportunities in your life, and you may start to walk through the door, but I will place a deep unrest in your soul. Listen to your level of peace. For I am walking in you, and My peace abides with you as you please the Father. When you have lost your peace, stop and reconsider your direction. Sometimes doors open so you can get a tiny taste of something different merely to confirm and replant the way you are already going. Sometimes a new door is a temptation to stray and let go of what you have.

If you think that you might be able to handle both the direction you are taking now, and also the opportunity presented, reconsider. For both are in their infant stage and you can not hold and nurture two babies at once. Either you will neglect the one while you give to the other, or you will become distracted and give neither the time they deserve. Do not be disheartened by small beginnings, for I delight in growing and multiplying them.

"You will show me the path of life; In Your presence is fullness of joy; At Your right hand are pleasures forevermore." (Ps 16:11 NKJV)

Knock, Knock, Knock, Knock

[Persistence In Prayer Opens Doors]

One night as I was ready to go to sleep I kept asking the Lord if He had anything to say to me. I heard nothing. Then I asked again. Finally, I wasn't being very adult, and was really begging Him like a kid would do. One more time, I said, "PLLLLEEEEESE Lord?"

VISION: I saw the lines in a frownie face. The lines were being redrawn from the lips going down, to upwards in a smile. I laughed out loud and said Goodnight!

WORD TO PONDER: I WILL TURN YOUR FROWNS UP
Those frownie faces that do not become you shall one day be turned up into delighted smiles!

"The full soul loatheth an honeycomb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet." (Prov 27:7 KJV)

SANDY RHEMA
[Lord, it's me again. Please forgive me for nagging You so much, but I really want to hear from You.]

HEARD: Words in My mouth.
[Lord, You mean it's not nagging?] HEARD: Exactly the opposite. I am drawing you.

NOTE: In hindsight, I think this next entry is quite humorous; it was before I was given a writing ministry.

EXPERIENCE: After hearing so little of late, I have grown very hungry and have been knocking continually for several days. Upon waking from another blank night, I asked the Lord what was going on. I thought of many possibilities, but nothing was planted in my heart. Then when I was getting ready for the day I heard the Lord say, "Encouragement." That was it.

I left for errands and then received the strangest Word. I was at the grocery store and heard the phrase, "Maybe she ought to know." I had the distinct feeling that either the Lord or some angels were speaking something about me. At that exact moment, a bakery lady with a giant clear plastic sack of fresh bread walked past me, carrying the bread over her shoulder. This was really quickened to me but I did not know why. Then later as I was driving home, I drove behind an "oversized load" truck on the freeway. I kept thinking about that oversize bread sack the lady was carrying and wondering what I was supposed to know. Well I haven't heard Him in days, I guess He is trying to send me encouragement.

GRANDMA ANNA RHEMA

HEARD: I heard two knocks in the Spirit. HEARD: Behold I stand at the door and knock. If any man hear My voice and open the door, I will come in to him and will sup with him and he with Me.

HEARD: Fear not little ones. It's the Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Yes, it's a pearl of great price and you have the pearl encircled with your hands. The Kingdom of God suffers violence and you have taken it by force. Your importunity shall bring forth that which was otherwise impossible. You knocked, and knocked, and knocked. Finally the door opens. Be ye not troubled neither be ye afraid. Only believe.

HEARD: Importunity. Declare delivered. Make merry and be glad. Up and out. Through. Finished. The end. Amen. Blessed ones. Waiting for God. Thank you.

BOB JONES QUOTE - ENTERING IN
http://www.bobjones.org

BOB JONES QUOTE - ENTERING IN
"…Don't talk to Him with the religious jargon. Just talk to Him with the truth, He already knows what's in your heart. If you had a bummer day, tell Him about it. If you are having problems, tell Him about it. You enter into the Presence of the Lord with faith, truth and inner honesty. These are 3 things that get you in there. First faith, then truth and be totally honest. And you are going to come into the Presence of the Lord. But I like to cultivate it. Through the years. It took me a while to get into it. But I believed and I kept seeking until I found. If you seek you will find. If you knock, the door will be opened to you. And sometimes my greatest knocking was silence. Shutting this off. (head) And you can, and listen. When it first starts, all these other phones in your mind are ringing all the time. And sometimes you don't hear until about 3 oclock at night when all the other phones have gone off. At 3 o clock at night this mind of yours is not doing the last day's work anymore and it hasn't started doing the next day's work. And your flesh has already rested from the last day. And it isn't hurting so bad you couldn't hear. Then is when you begin to get the light impressions. Then is when you need to listen. At first you need to write them down…"

CONCLUSION
{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER: SEEK ME
I can hear you knocking, dear one. I told you that you shall find Me if you seek Me. So why do you frown? Do you think I am lost? Smile, precious! I am not lost, but I do hide Myself. I draw your heart to earnestly seek Me with all your heart, so that you would know Me in all My ways. How I love to reveal My heart to those who are truly hungry for Me. Do not feel guilty about your tendency to nag until I answer. I am drawing you and developing within you the habit of searching for Me, so that you will learn to abide in Me, and not stray from My side. I know that once you "catch" Me, you will never let go!

Luke 11:9-13 NLT
"And so I tell you, keep on asking, and you will be given what you ask for. Keep on looking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened. For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And the door is opened to everyone who knocks. "You fathers--if your children ask for a fish, do you give them a snake instead? Or if they ask for an egg, do you give them a scorpion? Of course not! If you sinful people know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him."

First Flight

Sandy Warner

Feb 25, 2004

Through your learning to wait upon Me as your Source, I have taught you how to flap your wings and hover over your nest. Yes, My love, it is also Me Who has also pulled all the feathers out of your nest. Because you have learned to trust Me and let go of your comfort zone, I have released you to take your first flight. How precious you are to trust Me for your courage and to trust in My power to carry you. Take flight, My dear one, take flight! All heaven cheers you on as we see you fly to the nearest branch. Many years have been in the making for this solo flight. How proud we are to witness your trust in the winds of My Spirit to take you where you need to go. Don't worry about a thing. Each step is divinely planned in your training.

"Does the eagle mount up at your command, and make its nest on high?" (Job 39:27 NKJV)

My Kingdom Within

Sandy Warner

Feb 27, 2004
I AM planting My government within you. This is My reign and kingship within your life. As you yield to Me a step at a time, I bring you up My holy mountain. It is not enough that I walk beside you in this journey. It is only through My living in and through you that we can accomplish the steep grade. However I will bring My Kingdom to your life in little tiny steps, so tiny that you won't even notice - until you look back to your beginnings! (Smile) In the end you will fully function in your calling and My Kingdom shall be established within your life. I will manifest this in supernatural ways through My anointing upon your life.

Destiny and Discipleship

Shirley Baskett

"My sheep hear my voice...." and what do these sheep hear and do? "Follow Jesus." Jn 10 v 27

When we hear the voice of Jesus we hear the call to discipleship. But many other voices have changed this call to say that as a Christian our call is to find our 'destiny'. Destiny has replaced discipleship.......

We weren't originally called to 'find our destiny' - we were called to learn discipleship - pretty basic and humble as a call........ to learn to follow and become intimate with the voice of the shepherd.

One call has its focus on us and our greatness and the other has its focus on him.

Defining Days

Bill Burns

Bill Burns:
These are defining days in which you will have defining moments. There will be vanishing points if you do not receive the turning points that I am giving in this season. If you choose not to seek after Me and listen to Me, the opportunities that I am giving you in My Church to arise will vanish, for your part in that will be lost, and you will not fulfill your destiny. My people, rise up and hear and believe that this is a defining moment. I am revealing Myself, for I have scattered the ashes of your sacrifice across this place signifying that I have received your sacrifice of praise.

You can no longer drink of the cup of the devil and the cup of the Lord. You can no longer associate with the dead and still be part of the living. How long will you halt between two opinions? This is a defining day, and it is a time in which the opportunities of your commissioning will either vanish, or you will turn to Me and serve Me with all of your heart. No longer can you be found in the camp of the enemy and in My camp, says the Lord.

I am bringing forth the power of new beginnings and release the celebration of My presence. Celebrate, for I have come and walked among the candlesticks and released My light among you that you may see that which is hidden in darkness. No longer hide your light under a basket. Remove the old limitations and restrictions and allow My light to shine through you. I am the Lord of Glory touching you, healing you, setting you free. Fulfill your destiny!

Bill Burns
May 15, 2004
You are My chosen generation of royal priests, called after the order of Melchizedek. I call you into your kingdom position to fight the good fight of faith. I call you to war a good warfare. I call you to act as kings. I call you to wear the crown of life. I call you to speak forth out of divine decree and to proclaim the victory. I call you to walk with Me. I come to you to strengthen you and prepare you for the war that is ahead and to equip you and cause you to be strong. Arise! When you hear the sound of the trumpet, run to the battle, and I say, run with joy. My glory shall be your covering in all that I send you to do. In the power of My glory and My light the enemy shall fall. In the power of My presence you shall know Me. The sound of the wind does blow across the land, and the cry of the Spirit comes forth. The earth itself is in travail calling forth the manifestation of the sons of God. You are My sons and daughters. You are the first-born generation of the third day. I call you to arise to the war and to be the warriors of the Spirit this day.

Marsha Burns May 3, 2004
I speak to those who have overlooked the obvious because you have had preconceived ideas and desires that have obscured your vision. Remove the veil of flesh, and you will be able to see with perfect clarity. Adjustments are necessary in places where old goals have not produced the fruit that you desired or expected. There has been a misunderstanding of the promise and timing. Re-evaluate in light of new information and greater spiritual discernment. The light of My Spirit will reveal those things that have been hidden in darkness. Do not charge ahead into the unknown without the witness of My Spirit, says the Lord.

Old places of bondage are now being broken, and you will be released into a new level of liberty in every area of life. Those situations and circumstances that brought oppression and darkness are now being rearranged to allow you to move forward in freedom and power. I speak to many who will make decisions now that will change the course of destiny. Seek Me for wisdom and guidance, says the Lord, and do not be afraid!

Marsha Burns May 10, 2004

: Beloved, as opportunities are presented to you be careful to approach these occasions with your spiritual eyes wide open. Go forth exercising great discernment. Things are not what they seem on the surface. Go into new situations with caution, and remove presumption far from you. This is not a time to allow false hope and blind optimism to lead you. Allow enough time to prove the truth before making a deep commitment in untried positions.

Marsha Burns May 11, 2004

Multitudes are in the valley of decision. This is not an easy place to be because your instinct is to make a quick judgment to relieve the discomfort of walking through this valley, but you have found that a quick solution will not meet the requirements of the situation. This valley is for the express purpose of revealing the pride of independent action. Refuse to allow fear and presumption to rule through your emotions, for that would mean certain disaster. Now is the time when you must walk with Me and allow Me to show you the way, says the Lord. You have not faced life from this perspective before, so you must trust Me to bring the necessary wisdom and to direct your steps. I am with you and I will show you the way, but this is going to be a process and not just a quick fix. The real work being accomplished here is in your attitude.

Marsha Burns May 12, 2004

I speak to many whose lives have seemingly been on hold. Issues have loomed before you that cry out for resolution, and yet as much as you have tried to find solutions and bring resolve there has been no effective change. But, I tell you, now this process of settlement and conclusion has begun. Yet, it won't be a sudden release; rather it will be a continual unraveling until you can see clearly the cause of the complication. Do not be afraid to look at your part in the problem and be willing to take responsibility and change your mind and method of operation. I will lead you through this process as you yield without resistance or pride.

Marsha Burns May 13, 2004

I see the torment that comes with indecision. I hear your cries, "What must I do, Lord?" But, instead of waiting quietly until you receive an answer, you are frantically trying to figure it out by trying on different solutions in your imagination. This only creates more confusion. You will save yourself a lot of grief if you will wait for the right answer and the right moment when you have received the witness of the Spirit to your spirit. Do not allow fear or dread to rule in your heart. Trust Me to make a way that will benefit all concerned. My ways are higher than your ways, says the Lord.

Marsha Burns May 14, 2004

Fortify yourselves mightily. The enemy has launched an attack against you to weaken you on every front -- spirit, soul, and body. Rise up and resist this onslaught. To give in will bring serious weakness and a sense of discouragement and defeat. Let My strength be made perfect in your weakness. This battle will be won in the exercise of your will. Forgive and bless those who have cursed you with their attitudes, motivations, and words. And, break those demonic assignments against you with the power of the blood and the authority of My name, says the Lord.

Deliberate Force
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Sept 29th, 2004

The Holy Spirit spoke “ deliberate force”. What do You want to say Father?

Ezek 34:4-10 NKJV
4 The weak you have not strengthened, nor have you healed those who were sick, nor bound up the broken, nor brought back what was driven away, nor sought what was lost; but with force and cruelty you have ruled them. 5 So they were scattered because there was no shepherd; and they became food for all the beasts of the field when they were scattered. 6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill; yes, My flock was scattered over the whole face of the earth, and no one was seeking or searching for them." 7 'Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: 8 "As I live," says the Lord GOD, "surely because My flock became a prey, and My flock became food for every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, nor did My shepherds search for My flock, but the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed My flock" — 9 therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of the LORD! 10 Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will require My flock at their hand; I will cause them to cease feeding the sheep, and the shepherds shall feed themselves no more; for I will deliver My flock from their mouths, that they may no longer be food for them."

“ Changes are coming that will catapult the church into one of MY making, and of My heart towards men. So many have been building their own kingdoms, and competing for the place of influence. But I am turning over the tables of the money changers, and I will make a permanent change in the face of the church, till it reflects MY IMAGE, - My HEART! I want to spread My KINGDOM over the face of the earth. I cannot do that through pewsitters and comfortable shepherds who feed themselves and not the flock.

I am overturning the iconoclastic fervor within My church – the making idols of men will be arrested! The traditions of men will be abandoned by the true church that reflects My image, and there will be a greater dependency on allowing the pre-eminence to be in CHRIST JESUS, and not in the words of men. I will not entrust My precious broken ones to those who will treat them like flotsam and jetsom. I am a jealous God and MY heart is broken and weeping for those who have not been cared for, for those who have misunderstood My love, because they have not been dealt with in LOVE.

There is such a propensity in the flesh to be impatient, intolerant, and easily frustrated with others. And too many rely on flesh rather than on seeking My face for how to relate to those who are difficult to deal with. Come to ME, and apprehend what it means to love unconditionally. Apprehend what GRACE is about! I am truly going to change so many things quickly, that it will throw some off kilter if you do not rely on intimacy with ME. You must know when to say YES, and when to say NO! You cannot depend on your own best wisdom, but only on MY WISDOM, for deception abounds in this present world and it is getting stronger.

The unholy one is coming. The terrible one who will manifest the worst kind of violence ever seen on this earth. So I say to you…
“And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force.” Matt 11:12 NKJV
I am strengthening your spiritual backbone, that you might be able to STAND when many will bend. The Kingdom WILL ADVANCE despite the violence and bloodshed that will ensue from his vengeance, for I have My own plans. Earnestly seek MY FACE for what Your role is to be! Earnestly seek My face daily as one who is My BRIDE, looking for her lover.

Ask ME for the GRACE to endure, to stand, and more than that, to TAKE THE KINGDOM BY VIOLENT FORCE! I WILL SHOW YOU THE KEYS TO THE KINGDOM AND GIVE YOU MY STRATEGIES IF YOU WILL SEEK ME FOR THEM. The days that are coming will truly test who is truly for ME, and who has only been pretending. The falling away has begun. But like in Gideon’s time, many more will succumb due to FEAR. Total surrender to Me is the ONLY way that you will overcome in the days to come. Ask for the grace to die to self. Ask for the grace to endure. Ask for UNION with ME.

Be ready to receive all that your heart has yearned for.”

Life as We Know It
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Sept 30th, 2004
“I have been warning and warning of changes and trying to get you to take seriously the hour that you live in. If you knew you only had one year to live, how would you live your life? If you knew you only had 3 years to live, how would you spend the last three years?

You who are Christian are only strangers here. This is not your HOME! So when you hear these questions, I pray you will begin to think upon them, and begin to live your life to the fullest and also yielded fully to ME. For when you stand before ME, I will not judge you by how many hours you worked in your lifetime. I will not judge you for what kind of car you drive, or how big a house you have, or even for many of the things you think. I will look at the times you loved another – the times you listened to Me and obeyed Me.

I came to demonstrate LOVE ON EARTH. THAT is what I want you to learn how to do. To love others, you must truly love ME, and truly love yourself.
If you do not maintain love for ME, you lose touch, and walk away, and your conscience becomes weakened. Grace becomes less apparent, and you fall into sin more easily. I will keep him in perfect peace whose MIND IS STAYED ON ME. Keeping your mind STAYED on ME, is essential to living IN ME.

Otherwise your love for Me and others becomes rote and mechanical. It becomes DOING THINGS to please ME, rather than being in relationship with ME in a real and loving way…only doing what I ask you to do. Of course if you never listen to what I ask, or yield to how I am leading you…how will you obey me? You MUST walk by the Spirit and not by your flesh. There is no condemnation for those who walk ACCORDING TO THE SPIRIT. But you will fall under condemnation if you walk according to the flesh! Oh yes, I know you have heard different. But what does it say?

Rom 8:1 NKJV Free from Indwelling Sin
There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.
So it is essential to STAY abiding in ME, that you can walk according to the Spirit and NOT your flesh!

John 15:4-7 AMP
4 Dwell in Me, and I will dwell in you. [Live in Me, and I will live in you.] Just as no branch can bear fruit of itself without abiding in (being vitally united to) the vine, neither can you bear fruit unless you abide in Me.
5 I am the Vine; you are the branches. Whoever lives in Me and I in him bears much (abundant) fruit. However, apart from Me [cut off from vital union with Me] you can do nothing.
6 If a person does not dwell in Me, he is thrown out like a [broken-off] branch, and withers; such branches are gathered up and thrown into the fire, and they are burned. 7 If you live in Me [abide vitally united to Me] and My words remain in you and continue to live in your hearts, ask whatever you will, and it shall be done for you.

Make room in your hearts My beloveds for the KING OF KINGS. Open up the doors of your heart and let the KING of GLORY come in! Let me shine My light into every crevice of your being and illuminate any darkness still resident in you. For if that light that is in you is darkness, then how can it not pollute the streams that issue forth from your soul?

Luke 11:34-36 AMP
Your eye is the lamp of your body; when your eye (your conscience) is sound and fulfilling its office, your whole body is full of light; but when it is not sound and is not fulfilling its office, your body is full of darkness.
Be careful, therefore, that the light that is in you is not darkness. If then your entire body is illuminated, having no part dark, it will be wholly bright [with light], as when a lamp with its bright rays gives you light.

If any part is dark, it means there is a stronghold of the enemy there. If there is a stronghold, there is oppression and there can be a skewing of information received, because the unholy one wants you to be diverted from your devotion to ME. He wants you to keep from UNION with ME. He will try to mislead. He will try to pollute the stream of living water coming from your mouth. It is time to come past the outer court and into the inner court. It is time for HOLINESS to hallmark your relationship with ME. No part dark means NO DECEPTIONS. NO COMPROMISE. It means leaning on ME, not on your own opinions. Being willing to lay down your own opinions, and do MY WILL, not your own.
YIELDEDNESS TO ME FULLY, ONLY COMES WITH COMPLETENESS OF HEALING AND DELIVERANCE -SANCTIFICATION!
A soul cannot yield fully to ME, if it has squatters. The enemy is like a land squatter. He comes in through you believing lies and misconceptions, and takes part of the land [your soul] so that he can occupy and take more land.
If you swallow his lie, he has a right to enter. But he has no real rights when you fully surrender to ME. He is only lying to keep his land so that he can hope to disqualify you. But since he is a liar and squatter he can be evicted. And that is what I am busy trying to do. I am evicting all the intruders, the little beings walking around your soul that have come through lies and deceptions, allowing you to compromise your walk with me. And they also have tried to steal the worship, and steal the union and communion with ME. They are trying to limit you from receiving the fullness of glory. They want to stop this apostolic move of MY SPIRIT…hoping to keep you from your destiny.

So I am again telling you to come to ME. SIT WITH ME. LIE WITH ME.
Be still and know that I AM GOD. In QUIETNESS and REST you will be RESTORED! It is only in quietness and resting that your soul will be still enough to hear My voice, to see more clearly. Surely the days are coming that will try men’s souls. You will need a pure heart and confidence in My ability to do ANYTHING in the days ahead. Offer up a SACRIFICE of praise and worship to Me. Come into My courts with thanksgiving, come into MY PRESENCE with praise and dancing, extolling Your GOD Who loves you so! Even if you can only mouth the words because you are afflicted and worn, come! I long to hold you in MY arms My beloveds!

I will illuminate the darkness and spy out every stronghold, and eliminate all the lies. The time for pretense is OVER! You cannot pretend to be ok in My presence. I know you inside and out. I know everything. Pretense itself is a LIE. Do not resist Me any longer, I adjure you to come and buy gold refined in the fire.

Put on the garments of PRAISE for the spirit of heaviness that has been prowling around. Give ME MORE of your time, and I will do all that is necessary. Quiet yourself before Me after you come into My presence and listen for the still small voice. I am speaking to you. You only have to come, and LET ME LOVE YOU!
Isa 30:15 NKJV For thus says the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel:
"In returning and rest you shall be saved; In quietness and confidence shall be your strength." But you would not,

Divine (Financial) Strategies
Andrew Bullians

Mar 10, 2004

Dear List Members [Lighthouse Prophecy],

As with Andrew's article from his Injesus site, we too are seeing Divine Financial Strategies released in our area of real estate. Just this morning, before reading Andrew's article, the Lord spoke to me in just such terms:

"I will show you where to invest your time and money, but you must be sensitive to my Spirit to truly understand. Do not use worldly intelligence to decide these matters."

I believe there are those on this list to whom these words also apply. We are indeed beginning to see some substantial wealth transfers taking place in our area...Clay.

Divine Strategies
Andrew Bullians (andrew@fourwindsfinancial.net) Mar 10, 2004

The Lord is saying: "I am releasing 'Divine Strategies' for the transfer of wealth to start occurring in this season."

In the last two weeks we have had a number of specific strategies revealed to our Members, concerning the global economic markets and how God wants us to take advantage of this information. This is very exciting for us as a group, as it helps us to understand the ways in which God wants to partner through us, to transfer wealth from the world's system to His Kingdom. Earlier this year we had started a currency trading account and although we were up almost 42% in two weeks, we soon fell into the trap of trying to figure out the markets from "conventional" wisdom, and now we are up only marginally. God told us to stop, as we had been studying the charts, the economic data, political maneuvering, and we had gotten away from His wisdom. The lesson here is that if we do not listen and wait for the Lord's instructions in every situation, we run the risk of relying on our own talents and missing the mark.

When dealing with the financial markets, they are probably the most analyzed and watched markets in the world. Commodities, currencies, stocks and bonds, all play an integral part in the global economic picture, and the "world system" is very adept at analyzing past price movements and forecasting future possibilities. While all these modern technologies have a place in financial analysis and strategies, the message of the world is: "God is not needed when there are computer models for every possible scenario." And that is part of our challenge.

If we really think about it, the challenge that God is giving us is to put away the childish things (wisdom of the world), and rely completely on Him for His detailed "Divine Strategies". There is great peace in trusting the Lord Jesus Christ to not only tell us the strategy, but also the timing, and to provide the resources needed for us to accomplish the strategies. In this way He gets the glory, and we get to praise Him for His faithfulness in using us for His glory. Meditate of these wonderful truths:

Ps 84:10 "For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand outside." Ps 127:1 "Unless the Lord builds the house, they labor in vain who build it;"

When counseling Entrepreneurs, one of the first questions I ask is: "Where is God in your venture?" Most look at me in surprise as they declare that God is in everything that they do for Him. And they explain that they have been called to their venture and God will bless their hands. In a way that is true, but there is a higher level of partnering that God wants to accomplish through us in these new days.

My concern is always that if we assume that we have the talent and ability to accomplish our venture, and then God will step back and allow us to do just that. Because we are His children, He will bless us and watch out for us, but from a distance.

But, is that all we need from Him? We desire God to be the architect of all of our ventures and thus, must wait on Him to reveal His plans, which are far too big for us to accomplish. We then step aside and allow Him to work through us, as bondservants, being obedient to do what He says, nothing more, nothing less. To those who have paid the price to die to self (selfish motives and goals), God is revealing His strategies to accomplish His goals. His main goal is to find us faithful to pray, listen and obey, and to follow His direction.

I once heard that it will only take a few hours a day to make the decisions that will transfer billions into the Kingdom, and I understand that now. When we are drawn into His chambers (see Perspective "The Beauty of our King") He delights in giving us the information necessary to place the orders in the markets and see the profits multiply.

Recently, two of our Members received the same scenario within days of each other. One received the words "to the power of" and the other, "multiplication." As you know, 3x3x3 = 27 or 3 to the power of 3. No longer will the returns be by addition; 3+3+3=9, but the law of multiplication will prevail. I am always aware of the returns God promises for the seed that is planted in good (prepared) soil, 30 fold, 60 fold, and 100 fold. This represents 3000%, 6000% and 10000% returns on investment. When Jesus multiplied the 5 loaves and 2 fishes to feed 5000 men, plus women and children, in Matthew 14:17-20, what return was that? Also 7 loaves and a few small fishes fed 4000 men, besides women and children (Matthew 15:34-37), and 7 baskets were left over.

God is now revealing His strategies that will return "to the power of" from the investment (seed) that is sown (invested). It is important to understand the Biblical truth that God reveals in Genesis 1:11, "Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth, and it was so." The words "after his kind" occur 10 times, which is significant as the number 10 denotes "ordinal perfection". When we plant financial seed we must expect to receive "after its kind", or a financial harvest. This financial harvest will not be according to our past expectations, but the new law of multiplication, or "to the power of". Another way of looking at this phrase "to the power of" is to recognize that the "power" that is working in us to accomplish God's will is His power – His Holy Spirit.

We must ask God to remove all limitations from ourselves, and allow Him to flow freely through us to be the financial vessels of honor He has called us to be. Let's agree in prayer:

Father, I offer myself as a living sacrifice before you today. I ask you to burn up any selfish motive or goal still within me, so that the power of Your Holy Spirit can flow freely through me to transfer wealth from the world's system to Your Kingdom. Open my ears to hear and my eyes to see Your strategies, and give me the courage to obey Your every command. I pray with faith, seated at the right hand of God in Christ, and in the name of my Lord Jesus Christ. Amen

If this has been a blessing to you, please forward it to others. I would also be delighted to receive your feedback and comments.

Responses To Divine (Financial) Strategies
Clay Sikes

Mar 11, 2004
Dear List Members,

As many of you know, I have written very little about money on this site. However, this is about to change as I sense strongly that God is moving in the area of finances in the Body of Christ. Every vision requires provision and I sense God is raising up people to minister to the body financially.

Many in the Body of Christ have been through, and are going through a financial hell of sorts. I too have been through this experience and it is most difficult as the purging, love of money, and world's system ways are removed from our being. During my prayer time this morning, I felt the Holy Spirit lead me to Psalm 66:10-12. This powerful scripture is very prophetic for the times we now live in and, I think, prophetic for some on this list.

I am seeing some unprecedented things happen in the Body as many are beginning to pop out on the other side of debt, lack, financial hardship, etc., as new ideas, witty inventions and new direction begins to flow to God's people. The key to this great change! REST!

I am literally astounded at what God is doing financially in the lives of so many who have been through so much fire and tribulation in all areas, especially finances. To those who still suffer, take heart, God is moving. To those who are seeing the first rays of light, STAY IN GOD'S REST and do not let your emotions make decisions.

In Him,

Clay

wow- i can't believe this- i recently felt the Lord calling me into buying real estate property as rental property, and in the middle of all these real estate and investment e-mails was this letter. how timely indeed! i have been wanting to go into investment real estate for the last nine years, and have been waiting for God's timing in this, and His provision. i am believing God is about to do great things for His people in the area of their finances and resources in order to advance His work in the earth. i am still waiting on God for further direction in these matters. thank you for the wonderful and timely letter.
jessie

This is so timely. I want to thank you for sending it. The Lord has released the potential to earn almost unlimited income for the business He led me to 8 years ago. I do residential cleaning. Two years ago I received a contract from NY (I live in AZ) for Amer. Express to clean corporate apartments - weekly. I've just been doing this by myself as I did not want employees. A couple of weeks ago they offered me an extremely large contract and said I'd need 10 employees (500 moves a year). All I did was ask the Lord for a financial increase outside of the labor of my hands. This will take me out of the "working" of the business and put in the position of just running the business. Anyway, as I prayed about this new direction and release of potential wealth, I also requested He hand pick the employees. He has already given me two . . . I've also prayed about His direction for the money for multiplication purposes. I know a portion is to get me debit free. Hallelujah! This has been an extremely LONG season of waiting for His promises to manifest. But this is truly the season for some to come into their earthly inheritance from the Lord. I desire and am asking for the spiritual inheritance to increase right along with the financial. What a combination.

Blessings,
Gaylene

Damnable Heresies
John Martin

The following verses of scripture had little significance to me until the Lord illuminated them to me last week.
(2 Pet 2:1-3 KJV) But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. {2} And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. {3} And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.
It just happened to be original King James that I had picked up and opened randomly when this was highlighted to me so I present that version for consideration.

A false teacher is "a propagator of erroneous Christian doctrine", (Strong's concordance).
Privily means secretly. Damnable, means destructive. Heresies, can mean "hearsay"
(I heard it said by a reputable source so I will repeat it without checking it out in scripture first). For example, will somebody please tell me where scripture specifically says that the devil cannot read my thoughts? If he can put thoughts into my mind then why can he not also know what my thoughts are? I have read many accounts of Christian persons being taken to heavenly realms (including the second heaven) and reporting that all communication is without speech as we know it. When do we as Christians ever really question some of the things being said from the pulpit? This does not necessarily mean that satan is omniscient, but only that he is a spirit and it seems that all spirit life communicates on a higher level than humans.
Perhaps the reader can see that though this is a minor error, if minor errors can be introduced so easily then why cannot more significant and major errors be taught also.
Note the scripture says "privily or secretly"

"Denying" the Lord who bought them. The primary word used in Strong's is "contradicting". Is this not what the serpent did with Eve in the Garden?
Any teaching that contradicts the truth of God's word makes the teacher a "false teacher" who is literally "denying the Lord who died for them".
I think the reason I had never considered this scripture for our day was the idea that seems to be put forward here is of a teacher, pastor, evangelist, or missionary who would try to come into a church saying " I do not believe in Christ as the way to salvation so let me teach you a new truth". He or she would get the boot immediately. But many actually contradict the true teaching of scripture and get by with it because of their name or position. Some by intent and some do it ignorantly by passing on "hearsay". The result is the same. People do not read the Bible and pray for understanding for themselves therefore are subject to deception. Many have not been "born again" therefore cannot receive revelation anyway.

"Pernicious"; highly injurious or destructive in character. Because of their ways the "WAY OF TRUTH" will be "evil spoken of" ie: blasphemed, railed upon, reviled, to speak irreverently of, irreverence toward anything regarded as sacred.
Can you turn on your radio or television today and not hear almost constant blasphemous talk about God, Christians, Church, Pro Lifers, Extreme Right etc. ad infinitum ????
What used to be holy is now evil spoken of. Why? Because of the false teachings introduced so subtly that we've accepted them until there is no longer purity and holiness in the Church that demands respect. Hypocrisy will always bring scorn.
The world has not done this to us; we have done it to ourselves by delegating our personal responsibility to others.

"Covetousness": greed, avarice and extortion.

"Feigned": keyword "molded" meaning carefully crafted deceitful words, artificial and fictitious. This is for the purpose of obtaining something from the people.

"Merchandise": A market or emporium. This simply means they covet your finances and the prominence and position and fame it secures for them. Gullible Christians are a virtual market place of prosperity and prominence for those who would exploit them. How many ministries do you know of today that do not plead to their audience for support. How many conferences have you been to that are not crowded with tables of goods to be sold at inflated prices? How many ministers would be willing to consider it all DUNG for the Excellency of knowing Him?

Doctrinal truth must be brought back to the House of God but the people must be ready to receive it when it comes and I suspect they are not ready to deal with their false beliefs because many of these doctrines are literally "sacred cows".

To make my point I would like to present one actual example of erroneous teaching. I quote from a Christian book published in 1994 by a well known author whom you would know if I mentioned the name.

"When God made mankind he did not give us eternal life; He gave us immortal life. Immortality simply means we are destined to live somewhere forever. Where we will live will be our choice. In order to live with God, we have to choose to receive eternal life."

As I read this I immediately thought of several scriptures that say specifically that we are "MORTAL, NOT IMMORTAL"
(1 Cor 15:53-54 KJV) For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. {54} So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

Please note in the above scripture it says the mortal must put on immortality, not that he already has it.

(1 Tim 6:15-16 NKJV) which He will manifest in His own time, He who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings and Lord of lords, {16} who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light, whom no man has seen or can see, to whom be honor and everlasting power. Amen.

Some would try to make the argument that only our physical body is mortal but our spirit is immortal as this writer implies, however that is not even a possibility because that disputes the above scripture which says that God alone is immortal. Remember that God is spirit and God is the only immortal spirit, then you cannot be immortal until He makes you immortal. THEN DEATH WILL BE SWALLOWED UP IN VICTORY, AMEN.

Seeking and serving His kingdom,
John Martin

Diatribe

Priscilla Van Sutphin

Oct 26th, 2004
www.upstreamca.org

The Lord said to me, “diatribe”…so I looked it up.
di·a·tribe
Etymology: Latin diatriba, from Greek diatribE pastime, discourse, from diatribein to spend (time), wear away, from dia- + tribein to rub
1 archaic : a prolonged discourse
2 : a bitter and abusive speech or writing
3 : ironical or satirical criticism
Then the Lord said:
“There is much going around in the media that is nothing but a diatribe. It is a spirit of criticism and satirical thoughts and there is no foundation to it. I don’t want YOU caught up in this My beloveds. You are called to LOVE your enemies and to pray for those in leadership. Do not scoff, but rather PRAY because if you don’t you will be quite reticent to speak later. I need you now in the prayer closet and in WORSHIP. For much is afoot to try to conspire against all that I would do.

This nation hangs in the balance and I’m asking you to set aside more time corporately and individually to pray. This is not a time to get caught up in the abusiveness of what is going on. There is much vying for position and power in high places internationally, and the lawless one is soon to come to the forefront. If you are caught up in OPINIONS, instead of listening to My opinion, then how will you know what I think about any situation? Be My cheerleaders and raise your voices and speak the Word over this nation. Speak the word over your cities, and families. War NOT according to the flesh, but according to the SPIRIT! Cast all your anxieties on ME.”

Then I saw a vision of a man climbing a rope, like you used to have to do for gym class when I was in high school. And he was struggling to get up there, hand over hand inching up the rope.

And then the thought came, “if you give a man enough rope, he will hang himself!” Then I saw the man on the rope slide and fall down.
Then the Lord said:
“Pray that the wicked will fall into their own trap! Pray that those that conspire AGAINST this nation and Israel will fall to their knees and bow to Me. I have good plans for you. Though the mountains fall and the waves of the sea rage, I am with you till the end of all time, and I will sustain you for the purposes for which you were born. Desire TRUTH! Ask for TRUTH, and I will show you TRUTH! Do not ASSUME anything about My will.

Will you NOT just go back to business as usual, but will you reach out around you in love to those when I show you, and be ambassadors of LOVE to those who don’t know ME? This is the purpose for which I came, to reveal Myself, and thereby reveal the Father…and to atone for the sins of ALL MEN. I will show you if you ask, who is called, and who is reprobate in their hearts. But your imagination can be ensnared by your own opinions. Your words and your visions can be corrupted by unholy thoughts and desires coming from your flesh. Pride is rampant, and when pride is rampant, it perverts and twists the truth to serve SELF. Pride is what makes cults. Pride is what leads a man to fall. Do not act SURE of an opinion if it is not MY opinion. Come to ME and ask Me to show you what I think. Ask Me to show you MY OPINION.

James 3:15-18 NKJV This wisdom does not descend from above, but is earthly, sensual, demonic. 16 For where envy and self-seeking exist, confusion and every evil thing are there. 17 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy. 18 Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

I have much to accomplish in your hearts and I am longing for more relationship with you. That requires that your thoughts become as My thoughts – that you depend on Me and that you continue to grow in the WORD, so that your discernment will grow. You must feed yourself with the Word now, while you can and you must teach your children TRUTH. I will help you with setting priorities if you will come to Me and ask. I will help you with decisions and how to teach your children if you will ASK. LEAN on ME My beloveds. I will show you the way to walk. Quiet yourselves enough to hear, for I am longing to speak to you. I love you more than you can imagine, more than you understand. So know that I am NOT aloof to all that is going on. Only BELIEVE in My love for you. Cast away vain imaginations about my faithfulness that are not true. I am a FAITHFUL FATHER."

Mercy And Justice
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Hos 12:6 NKJV So you, by the help of your God, return; Observe mercy and justice, And wait on your God continually.

Hosea 2:19-21 NKJV "I will betroth you to Me forever; Yes, I will betroth you to Me In righteousness and justice, in lovingkindness and mercy; 20 I will betroth you to Me in faithfulness, and you shall know the LORD.
21 "It shall come to pass in that day that I will answer," says the LORD; "I will answer the heavens, and they shall answer the earth.

Matt 23:23-24 NKJV "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faith. These you ought to have done, without leaving the others undone. 24 Blind guides, who strain out a gnat and swallow a camel!

Mercy and Justice are the FOUNDATION of My throne! If that foundation is built on justice, then do you think I will overlook forever the injustices done to My people? Will I forever cast off? Will I turn My eyes from all that is wrong in the earth. Will there be FAITH when I return?
Day to day the people wend there way like sheep without a shepherd. This will NOT go on forever. I WILL change the order of things quickly. I will alter the face of this generation in a moment of time. YOU WILL know what I want. You will have My heart and walk in My love. I am coming for the spotless bride. Truth and JUSTICE will prevail in My church. Those in whom it does not prevail are not My church but belong to another gospel.

My people will KNOW My mercy and will offer it in RIGHTEOUSNESS and not in selfishness and competition. You will know the love of the Father as never before. I am not just pouring out power without changing your character! I will break the YOKE of the enemy so that you will be capable of walking in the love that I called you to! You will not go backward. You will move forward in the plans of Your Beloved with confidence and determined Holiness and you will be true ambassadors of My love. GET READY TO HAVE a heart transplant! For I will certainly give to those who have asked to be changed! I will do all to glorify MY NAME.

Some will resist this move and will find themselves quickly caught up in delusion. For if you war against ME in this, you will find yourself in a very bad place with the evil that is coming to this world.

Pray for your leaders to have a heart to change. Pray for the people who are on every high mountain, scattered and worn. Those who have suffered with Me will share in My glory! People in mental torment and various serious illnesses and crippling diseases will be healed instantly and miraculously! I will humble those who have mocked ME and disdained you! GET READY FOR GLORY! The glory train will be coming to you soon. Do not be too busy to seek My face, for My presence is your place of safety and rest. WORSHIP ME in the beauty of holiness. Worship Me in Spirit and in Truth.

Zech 7:8-12 NKJV "Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Execute true justice, Show mercy and compassion everyone to his brother. 10 Do not oppress the widow or the fatherless, The alien or the poor. Let none of you plan evil in his heart Against his brother.'
11 But they refused to heed, shrugged their shoulders, and stopped their ears so that they could not hear. 12 Yes, they made their hearts like flint, refusing to hear the law and the words which the LORD of hosts had sent by His Spirit through the former prophets. Thus great wrath came from the LORD of hosts.

Ps 89:14-18 NKJV Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne; Mercy and truth go before Your face. 15 Blessed are the people who know the joyful sound! They walk, O LORD, in the light of Your countenance. 16 In Your name they rejoice all day long, And in Your righteousness they are exalted.

Ps 101:1-4 NKJV Promised Faithfulness to the LORD A Psalm of David.
I will sing of mercy and justice; To You, O LORD, I will sing praises.
2 I will behave wisely in a perfect way. Oh, when will You come to me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

Isa 16:5 NKJV In mercy the throne will be established; And One will sit on it in truth, in the tabernacle of David, Judging and seeking justice and hastening righteousness."

Isaiah 30:18 NKJV God Will Be Gracious
Therefore the LORD will wait, that He may be gracious to you; And therefore He will be exalted, that He may have mercy on you. For the LORD is a God of justice; Blessed are all those who wait for Him.

Zephaniah 2:3-5 Amp
3 Her officials in the midst of her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones on the morrow, for nothing is left by morning. 4 Her prophets are light [lacking truth, gravity, and steadiness] and men of treachery; her priests have profaned the sanctuary; [defrauding God and man by pretending their own word is God's word] they have done violence to the law. [Jer 23:11; Ezek 22:26; Hos 9:7.] 5 The Lord in the midst of her is [uncompromisingly] righteous; He will not do iniquity. Every morning He brings His justice to light; He fails not, but the unjust [person] knows no shame.

The Battle of Fredericksburg
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Oct 30th, 2004
www.upstreamca.org

The Lord spoke to me " the Battle of Fredericksburg" and so I went to read about it since I was never very good at remembering history.
http://www.nps.gov/frsp/fredhist.htm
Reading was quite enlightening…I recommend you read it as well, though a bit Long…there is a parable contained within it .

Then the Lord said,

I do not want you to feel defeated in the unfolding of time’s circumstances and prophecy. I want you to understand, that MY perfect will is not the same as my permissive will. They may lead to the same place, but the latter leads there the hard way in that the person comes to the conclusion themselves that their own will was in the way and it was not wise to insist on his own will.

The victory I want for you is overcoming SIN, overcoming SELF, and the devil, and all the taunts of this world. THAT is MY main concern. And it should be yours. There are difficult lessons in this life. It is only the narrow path that leads to victory. And I told you that FEW find it! So do you want TRUTH My beloveds? Or do you want your own way? Do you want MY way, or your way? Father knows best what is good for you to develop trust, faith, hope, charity and kindness. He knows the best for you My loves! Our mercy endures forever. But times change and circumstances change. But not one WORD of My Word will be changed. It will happen as I have displayed it. It will now come forth in quicker measure.

Ready your hearts for many are still sleeping and need to be awakened. So,
SHOUT from the rooftops what I whisper in your ear! Do NOT be ashamed of the gospel of PEACE. DEMONSTRATE MY LOVE AND KINDNESS TO EVEN YOUR ENEMIES, AND I WILL BLESS YOU. But if you insist on going your own way, you will meet with opposition on every side. For great opposition ensues anyhow. The enemy has unleashed much opposition. You must be strong in the power of MY MIGHT, and FIGHT with the WORD of FAITH. DO NOT back down from what I have shown or told you.

I WILL fulfill My promises to you. Even if your perception of how is different…they will be fulfilled. You will have all you need to accomplish what I WANT. You will go forth in power and glory as never before has been seen. Come CLOSE TO ME, My beloveds. Be silent before Me. Let me whisper My secrets to you. Let me ready your hearts for habitation!

Rev 8:1-6 NKJV Seventh Seal: Prelude to the Seven Trumpets
When He opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. 2 And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and to them were given seven trumpets. 3 Then another angel, having a golden censer, came and stood at the altar. He was given much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. 4 And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, ascended before God from the angel's hand. 5 Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it to the earth. And there were noises, thunderings, lightnings, and an earthquake. 6 So the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

Divine Commissioning

Matt Sorger

The Lord is NOW Releasing a Divine Commissioning to This Generation"
We've Just Entered Another Season of Transition

Several years ago while attending a week of revival meetings the Lord moved upon my heart in a profound way for this younger generation. One afternoon I was standing in the foyer of the church when two young people approached me. From outward appearances they looked rough, with their spiked, blue hair and piercings. But when they opened their mouths they were full of love and had the fire of God burning in their hearts. Their passion for God struck me.

After talking with them for a few minutes I turned and walked into the sanctuary and suddenly my heart was rent with the heart of God. All I could do was weep as God's presence swept over me and as the Holy Spirit spoke to me about His plan for this younger generation.

International Youth Army

This is a revival generation. There is great destiny about to be unleashed in and through the lives of young people all across the world. This revival will not be limited to one nation. I see God raising up a holy, radical army of young people from among the nations of the world.

Recently we were ministering in Mexico with a team of about 65 young people from America and Canada. During the first night of the crusade, the power of God fell on our team of young people in an extraordinary way during the worship time. Many of them were knocked to the floor under the power of God, weeping, laughing, and shaking. It was an extraordinary visitation. One night in the crusade we had our team of young people pray over the Mexican young people and the same anointing and visitation came to them. We even had unsaved teenagers walk in off the street and get saved. God is shaking this younger generation with His presence and power, healing and restoring their hearts, refining them with His holy fire and anointing them to do the works He has destined them to do.

Radical Forerunners

God is raising up catalysts who will burn with a holy fire and will ignite a revival of holiness, passion for Jesus, and the demonstration power of signs and wonders in the earth. These forerunners will move in the spirit and power of Elijah like John the Baptist of old. They will be used to stir men's hearts and prepare the way for the coming of the Lord.
Whenever God is going to show up on the scene in a significant way He raises up prophetic voices to help prepare the way for His coming. He uses men and women who will co-labor with Him to see the Kingdom of God established on the earth in the hearts of people.

One thing I've learned is that God uses people. He could choose to fulfill His plan any way He wants to. But in His sovereignty He has chosen to use you and me in the process. He looks for those who will align their hearts and minds with His; humble vessels who seek only to do the will of their Heavenly Father.

Forerunners help prepare the way. They help awaken men's hearts by the power of the Holy Spirit. They carry a deep conviction and are motivated by a pure desire to see God glorified. Joseph was a forerunner like Elijah and John the Baptist. He was sent ahead of his brothers to prepare the way for their provision. I believe prophetically we are living in a season where God is releasing the Josephs who have been hidden away in preparation for their ultimate calling and destiny. Joseph had a vision and dream of greatness when he was only 17 years old. He caught a glimpse into the awesome future God had for him. But because of the jealousy and envy of his brothers, Joseph found himself moving in what looked like the opposite direction to what God had promised. Rather than rising to greatness he was cast into a pit, sold into slavery, falsely accused, his character defamed, put into prison for years, until one day he was released by the decree of Pharaoh. Not only was he released from prison but he was exalted into the very promise God had given him so many years before.

Positioned For Promotion

In one moment Joseph went from the bottom to the top as Pharaoh placed him in a position over all the land of Egypt. Joseph's promotion came at exactly the right time. Promotion was given because of the supernatural grace and favor of God that rested on him (Gen. 41:38). God's hand and anointing was on Joseph, and no matter how hard things got, nothing could stop the plan of God from being fulfilled.
In Genesis 41:41-42 it says:

"And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "See, I have set you over all the land of Egypt." Then Pharaoh took his signet ring off his hand and put it on Joseph's hand; and he clothed him in garments of fine linen and put a gold chain around his neck.

Joseph was bestowed with great power, authority and influence.
In verse 44 Pharaoh also said to Joseph "I am Pharaoh and without your consent no man may lift his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt."
Joseph was 30 years old at the time of his promotion (Gen 41:46). Prophetically this is very significant for us today. There is an army of young people that God is raising up in this hour to carry on the work of the gospel in the earth. There is a transition taking place in the Body of Christ as older generals are passing off the scene such as Derek Prince, Bill Bright and Kenneth Hagin. Like Moses and Joshua, mantles are being bestowed on the younger generation to equip and empower them to help lead the church in to the next millennium.

Through his late teens and 20's Joseph was being prepared by God to lead his nation. Through his times of testing God was actually positioning him for promotion. God was bringing him to the right place at the right time so that he could step into the very purpose God had for him. And that purpose was to bring a great deliverance to the people of Israel during a time of severe famine. God's favor promoted Joseph to a position of influence where his life would affect multitudes of other lives.

Joseph was 30 when this new season began in his life. Jesus was 30 when he was revealed to the earth as the Messiah. The priests in the Old Testament began their priestly duties at the age of 30. Thirty is a significant year and I believe this age marks a generation who will do mighty exploits for God, and like Joseph, help bring a great deliverance.

Catalysts For Revival

The Joseph's of this generation have been in a great season of hiddeness and preparation. But they are about to come on the scene. I believe we are going to see young people in their 20's and 30's arising and doing great exploits for the Kingdom of God. Evan Robert's was 27 years old when God used him as a catalyst for one of the greatest revivals in history.

The Welsh Revival was ignited 100 years ago in 1904. As we have entered 2004, the time has come again for a new awakening in this land. And not only in Wales but throughout the nations God wants to ignite revival fire. Before revival struck Wales, Evan Roberts said "I have reached out my hand and touched the flame. I am waiting for a sign."

Long before the fire of God swept through Wales, it was ignited in the hearts of young people like Evan Roberts, who became carriers of the flame when revival broke out. There are young people now, who have such a heart of desperation for God, that they will be carriers of that flame.

There will be several characteristics that will mark this new youth movement:

- Young people will have a radical passion and zeal for the pure manifested presence and glory of God expressed in a lifestyle of continuous prayer, worship and devotion.
- They will have an uncompromising spirit that will have no inward toleration for sin. They will forsake the pleasures of this world for the greatest pleasure of knowing God. The standard of purity and holiness will be raised up.
- There will be an outpouring of signs, wonders and miracles like they experienced in the early church.
- And they will carry a burden for souls that will mobilize and move the church beyond the four walls of a building out into the highways and byways reaching the lost not just with words, but with the love and real demonstration power of God.

The Oil Well For 2004: Mass Miracles, Mass Harvest

I recently had a vision of an underground oil well with "2004" written on it. It also had "Mass Miracles" and "Mass Harvest" written on its side. If we continue to press in through prayer, and dig, we will receive a fresh anointing for mass harvest and miracles.

I believe the world's greatest youth revival is upon us. For several years now in America we have been gathering thousands of both old and young alike for massive gatherings of prayer and fasting all across America. The Call, a revolution of prayer and fasting, first gathered 400,000 young people in the mall in Washington, DC, America's capital. Since then The Call has gathered multiplied thousands more all across America in Boston, New York, California, Kansas City, and Texas. The last one was held in 2003 in Texas.

We've just entered another season of transition where the Lord is NOW releasing a divine commissioning to this generation to begin to move forward in the power of the Spirit to see signs, wonders and miracles for the purpose of mass harvest. Revival is upon us! Hearts are being stirred and an army is rising up. Will you be a part of this revival generation? I pray you will hear the call and respond with fullness of heart.

Disappointments into Destiny
Deb Okereke

I pray that the Holy Spirit will minister to those that this prophetic word is intended for. - D. Okereke

"Disappointments into Destiny"

"Disappointments into Destiny. Though they were genuine, don't focus on the disappointments, focus on how each one of them had seeds of destiny within and something had to die so that new life could come forth. The tears you shed were not in vain for they cleansed your heart of defilement and they touched My heart. It wasn't My intention to cause you pain dear one, but to prepare you for a great work. Through the disappointments you encountered I have been fashioning you and molding you into My image. Surely you have learned much of My ways, surely you have been afforded opportunities to count the cost, for the cost to you personally has been very great. But yet through it all you have continued to choose Me, continued to walk in My footsteps even when the path has been darkened to your understanding or filled with shadows. You have done well and I am proud of you. Now focus not on what you have lost but what you have gained - not on those things and people which have been taken but upon those that remain. Not on opportunities squandered but on those which lie ahead. Nurture the seeds of destiny I have placed in you, let Me breathe life into them. They shall come forth at their appointed time. Examine the disappointments only to discern the seeds of destiny contained within. Let Me brood over them and impart life to them for the furtherance of My Kingdom."

Destined for Glory, DEB

Understanding That Timing
Deb Okereke

"Understand that timing is critical and preparation is vital. Many want to take shortcuts, shortcuts through the wilderness of preparation, yes your training is long and hard for I have a mighty work for you, and it is not for the faint of heart, it cannot be accomplished by works of your flesh but only by the unction of My Spirit. Intrinsically you know this but yet there are at times in you still, a striving of your flesh which yields no good fruit but simply exhausts you and wears you down. Take My Hand and rest in Me. Allow Me to sit always in the driving seat for I alone know the way and I will not get lost, I will not take you in the wrong direction but will surely transport you along the roads I have chosen and your destination is assured. Let Me be your Navigator - there will be a release of your frustration when you hand the reins over to Me. There will be a release of peace and satisfaction will be yours!"

Disarmed

Ronnie McMullen

The Dream The dream starts and I'm pushing a shopping cart through a warehouse store like Costco, or Sam's Club, or something. This is not unusual because I often shop at stores like these. While going down the aisle with my cart, my wife and a couple of close friends are with me. The setting is relaxed and peaceful. We seem to be putting in the cart an item here and an item there. It was almost as if the store was closing soon. All of a sudden, I looked beside me, and this yellow and black leopard is running down the aisle. It's not running fast, but almost bouncing. It stops, looks at me, and turns and goes to the end of the aisle. Never once growling, or looking fierce. Then this huge cat turns around and comes back by us. My wife and two friends (they were church women), think the cat is cute and harmless because of its frolic-like run. I tell them not to pay too much attention and to keep walking. I was not comfortable around this cat, and explained and reminded them of the nature and behavior of a leopard. This was not normal. Other people in the store were taken in by the behavior of the leopard, and smiled and clapped with joy.

We pushed our cart to the front of the store to check out, and did not see the cat for a while. Then, this huge cat walked down the center aisle and looked both ways, almost as if he were looking for something, or someone. He then proceeded to the manager's room where they saw him, greeted this cat, and let him in the room. The door all of a sudden shut. After the door was shut, we began to hear high pitched screams that would scare you to tears. I turned to look again, and the door opened and the cat walked out with a man's arm in it's jaws. The leopard walked to the center of the aisle, dropped the arm on the floor, and then proceeded to growl. The dream ended.

The Interpretation:

The store represents everyday life and economy. Matthew 24:38, "buying and selling". The leopard represents China-Asia, in the midst of our country, in the midst of our trade, in the midst of our military. Daniel 7:6. People were taken in, representing trade agreement and people's denial of China's army, which has risen to more than 200 million, Rev. 9:16. Their troops sit in Longbeach Naval Base, and no one is alarmed. The setting was relaxed and peaceful which is where our nation is. The leopard was running and jumping, non-threatening to the people. The people were convinced that the leopard was friendly. Going to the checkout and the store closing, represents time is almost out. Then the cat came down the center aisle and went into the manager's office. China-Asia will make no bones to hide their takeover of the United States. The manager's office represents the nation's leaders. I noticed the managers welcoming the leopard into their office. Our government is not resisting this takeover. (NWO?) The leopard goes in and attacks, ripping the arm off. China-Asia will attack and disarm the United States.

Dis-Combobulated

Vicki Camp

Dis-Combobulated body ?!,

vision/insight - Jan.,'04
Pre: T*his vision received, for "me" was concerning my own place and ministry in the Body of Christ (universal), & thus in my own understanding it was not speaking to any particular group or church or fellowship of Believers . I hope/trust it speaks to you also, in whatever way our Lord deems for "you"....*

Not too long ago, I was given a small simple vision;
I was shown a human body. Actually, the trunk of a human body would be more correct for the limbs and appendages were all shown as disconnected! This was no 'out of joint' nor broken body, nor was there any blood seen either – just disconnected flesh and muscle and sinew and bone -- arms and feet and toes, legs and fingers all in disconnect from this body trunk.

As I looked at this presently ugly human body, I saw as it were that someone (unseen to me) was then trying to connect an forearm from the elbow to the belly of this body trunk, and then a portion of foot and toes to one of the shoulder sockets…….. crazily this body was looking to me like a creation in progress of some mad scientist (ala' Dr. Frankenstein).

I knew right away that The Lord was showing me a picture of His' Body, as the N.T. analogy of Christ' Body being 'US' – although this particular viewing was a showing to me of when human-being man' miss-management comes into play - a discombobulation mess.

"How sad and aberrant, Lord", I sighed…… and I truly was sad,

Then HE began to speak to me. He said for me to now think of the smallest tiny micro macro portion of an atom, and then look up to the sky and the heavenly bodies; The plant life and water and the very dirt and rocks of the ground itself. I was to see and note that all these creations are 'in place', yet all are moving, flowing, ever changing……even as the stars shine and throw off Light…..nothing in HIS' Creation is static (unmoving, in one way or another.)

I was then pondering and wondering with Lord about our 'places' in HIS' Body, the whole and good Body of Christ, in this body analogy.

He reminded me then, "The life is in the blood." - Lev. 17:7
.......(the disconnected body of vis. shown me, had no blood showing or evident at all.)
This may seem also a simple understanding, but HE made me to know that at times even a body cell will be called out to 'Flow' into and via the blood through the body vessels and veins; Even so with HIS Life Blood, as we sometimes are called to flow into another place – as if from the foot to the belly/heart, or a knee-joint-cell to a hair follicle……whatever's (smile) - hope I'm making sense, and not being too esoteric here ?

In other words we, you and I, DO have our places and ministries and callings wherein we 'fit' in HIS' Body (universal), and this is of HIM. Our Lord is God of order and structure, as we witness in scripture and by just looking at creation, but all that HE touches, including you and I, are ever changing. We are not immobile or static, but flow out and along as called to do. You and I have our place given us of Jesus Christ in HIS' Body -- this will always be our strong suit placement of HIM, I believe, but there are often times = HIS', when we are 'moved around' for HIS' purposes, through HIS' Life paths (Holy Spirit blood vessels/channels) of JESUS BODY LIFE – via HIS' BLOOD.

He desires HIS' Body to be whole, fitly framed - we, you and I, are to rub shoulders with one another depositing and receiving wealth; That we be joined rightly of HIS Hands and Heart; Christ Body.
Out of relationship, first with HIM and with each other also, the world will know us by our love for one another. – amen?

Truth be told - I was a little excited about continuing and being able to do some Body travel (spiritually speaking :), rubbing shoulders and receiving with others in other placements….. for this was a new understanding for me, but then Lord whispered this to me: I was not to forget that I WAS like a set-in cell portion of HIS' Body – a cell having walls, even like a house with doors. He admonished me to have an open-door policy with my brothers and sisters, for one of them may also be sent along to me, desiring to gain entrance - one who may even be a portion of a protein cell, as it were (smile) – for my own nourishment and enlarging. Even an angel unawares, perhaps….

He said to me, "Vicki,,, remember your High School biology class 101 ? Remember when you learned about some of My miracles of your human body?"

"Yes I do, Lord,,, thank You", and I felt HIS very warm Smile then.

Exciting travel at times yes AND the good marvelous sitting to receive too - From HIM first and foremost, but also from each other.

"For as the body is one and has many members, but all the members of that one body, being many, are one body, so also is Christ.
For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body--whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free--and have all been made to drink into one Spirit.
For in fact the body is not one member but many.
If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I am not of the body," is it therefore not of the body? And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I am not of the body," is it therefore not of the body?
If the whole body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where would be the smelling? But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body just as He pleased." -Eph. 4:12-18

Discerning Opposition
Clay Sikes

October 3rd, 2004

The purpose of this article is not to down play the importance of spiritual warfare: its importance to the Body of Christ is well established. What is offered here is an understanding of the 'opposition' that we face. To that end, one of the most important attributes of those coming into their remnant calling is the ability to properly discern 'opposition.' Opposition in the context of this teaching is described as 'anything that opposes us,' to include but not limited to our plans, efforts, and activities, and occasionally our health.

As Christians, we have long traveled the road of traditional thought, which states that all opposition is demonically inspired. The Word of Faith movement taught us how to look for devils behind every bush, and assume that any hindrance to our well-laid plans must be of demonic origin. We gave little thought to the fact that God could be the originator of our opposition. Early on, we learned "our battle was not with flesh and blood, but with principalities, powers, rulers of the darkness of this world, and spiritual wickedness in high places" (Ephesians 6:12). The Word of Faith movement made a doctrine of this scripture, and with it, the false doctrine that ALL opposition is demonically inspired. Additionally, in one fell swoop, the devil also took away one of God's major sources of communication to His people - opposition.

God 'opposing us,' is by tradition, a foreign thought yet scripture reveals that "God resist the proud," "chastens those He loves," and many more biblical instances of God resisting His people. As we move into the essence of this teaching, which is properly discerning 'opposition' and hearing what God may be saying to us through it, we will break down old mindsets and move into new dimensions with God.

As the gift of discernment begins to operate on a higher more mature level, we come to recognize that God indeed closes doors. "For of Him, through Him, and to Him are ALL THINGS: To whom be glory forever. Amen" (Romans 11:36). It is interesting to note that the word "all things" is the same "all things" in Strong's Concordance found in Romans 8:28 - "And we know that ALL THINGS work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose." "All things" can and does include opposition in our lives, but are we (discerning enough) to understand God's communication to us through it? God permits in His wisdom what He could have prevented in His power. Perhaps we can begin to see that God allows opposition for our very own good. Romans 11:36 is worth meditating to grasp the fullness of the fact that "ALL THINGS" are "OF," "THROUGH," and "TO" God (including opposition in our lives).

Discernment is the God given gift (tool) that allows us the privilege of knowing if our opposition is demonic, and therefore something to be resisted, or if God is revealing direction and truth to us through His opposition. It is paramount for those "called" to be "more than conquerors," to know who is opposing in order to know what specific action to take. This revelation is the difference in a life of victory or a life of defeat – TRUTH making the difference!

Satan's job is to keep God's people contained with the lie that all opposition is of satanic origin. SATAN'S JOB IS CONTAINMENT, AND CONTAINMENT OPERATES IN THE MENTAL ARENA. If we are busy fighting devils OR PEOPLE when God has opposed us, we are contained. We have not learned to hear God through an important circumstance and consequently the lesson being revealed is not learned; and therefore must be repeated again. Scripture tells us that lessons not learned WILL BE REPEATED!

A poignant scripture that opens our eyes is found in Hosea 4:6 – "My people perish for lack of knowledge." You will note that God says here "My people…" which is a reference to Christians. The "lack of knowledge" mentioned is spiritual knowledge. Our spiritual ignorance is often ALL the containment the devil ever needs to keep us bound and incapable of moving into the higher things of God. While on the subject of spiritual ignorance, let us identify one of the strongest and most deceitful lies: a 'victim mentality' will contain a child of God like no other mind-set. When we take on the role of 'victim,' we have placed ourselves under the foot of the devil – we now believe the lie! "Woe me!" are words of containment.

To recognize God opposing us is to get a clearer interpretation of His direction. As an example, a major source of God's opposition to those called to the remnant Body of Christ is in the area of presumption. Our acts of presumption, even when they are aligned with 'good works,' will invoke God's opposition. This is hard for many to understand. What is God really saying to us by opposing our presumptive acts? Presumption is not being spirit led! "Those that are led by the Spirit of God ARE THE SONS OF GOD" (Romans 8:14). Presumption is the lowest form of human knowledge; much less having a Godly origin! The presumption that we once routinely operated in is no longer being tolerated as God is bringing us into true "Sonship." What once worked will work no more! If we do not recognize the source of the opposition, and why, we could easily take on a "woe me" mind-set and lose our effectiveness for God, by missing His intolerance for presumption.

Check the arenas of 'opposition' that you presently face, and ask God to reveal the source of the opposition. He will show you! You may be surprised when you begin to pray this way. Once you have been shown (Psalm 32:8), you will know what direction to take. To walk this way is to continuously walk in victory and move closer to becoming a powerful effective tool for God.

Did I Say Take Yourself Out

Terri Derocher

December 16, 2004

"Did I Say "Take Yourself Out Of The Game?"....And yet many of you have been doing just that!"

I heard and saw this message last week during a time of prayer and supplication before the Lord. I believe it is a corporate message and certainly not just for me alone, or for that ministry alone that I was interceding for.

As I was seeking wisdom from the Lord I saw a huge chess board and heard the word stand. I heard the words, "I am not telling you what chess piece you are. You will not know if you are a bishop, a knight, the king or a queen etc. What you are...is not your business but mine! Some of you will be sacrificed for the protection of others. But if you take yourself out of the game and run to distant places--(people less distant places where you imagine there is great peace and fishing etc.) You will be in disobedience! I have given each one of you territory! Do not run but instead spread out! (here I saw each one being stretched even further so that in the natural they looked to fall over as they stretched limbs out in each direction) I am preparing to make a BIG move and you must stand where I have placed you in the Holy Spirit. We will not lose what ground has been taken!"

The ground beneath your feet is shifting and moving where it feels as if you will topple. Some of you have lost dear friends in this time of testing and building and rearranging. I hear..."Did I not tell you I would NEVER leave you! You are my son, my precious daughter...my bride.....STAND Your ground though it seems to literally move beneath your feet!" I was lead to this psalm in regard to this ground moving. Psalm 18 verse 36....Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, that my feet do not slip..... I see the ground as molten lava....making the new with each inch it moves, bringing fire, bringing new life and even bringing renewal to the very ground which will be healed as even added nutrients arrive on the scene. I see YOU standing on pieces of solid ground that flow through this molten lava...so totally dependant on our Lord Jesus Christ for your safe deliverance. You thunder out the words to the Lord's ear.......GRACE Lord.....GRACE.....and He gives it! Because you stand your ground in this precarious position you now float (on the molten lava) to the NEW place where the captives have been waiting for deliverance.

I ask, because we are one in Christ Jesus, that you stand your ground. This is not some form of manipulation to get you to stay in a place or ministry you feel you are called to leave. We do not serve a God of confusion. In prayer and submission you will understand the spiritual territory you have been given that you are not to abandon. Much depends on the faithful obedience of the bride at this time.

(I love you and you are precious and unique and I want to know you more. I want to know what it is the Lord loves in you because you are different than me and stand in a place I am not called to stand.)

SHOUT it OUT you TRUTH bearers, fear NOT the faces of men & women! I hear...."My people PERISH for lack of vision. Do not keep them to yourself---- the tools I have given you! Wield them like a knife to cut away the lies and pride and putrid pus of the enemy so my people can recover and stand once again!" Love and Bless one another. God is SO good! He is so faithful! He has a plan and you are in it!

Submitted in the love of Jesus Christ for your prayerful discernment---Terri Derocher May you be built up and prepared for the purpose God created you for! Gardeners Come Forth!

Pray For The Peace of Jerusalem!

Daniel In The Lions' Den
Ron Wood

Three days in a row the Lord directed me in my early morning devotions to the story of Daniel in the lion's den. I didn't get it at first. In my season of life and ministry, I had been experiencing a year of peculiar and intense attack against me. I felt like I had been chewed up and spit out by a crafty enemy. The Lord had begun to instruct me regarding how to pray. Was this another lesson? What was God saying to me? Then I saw it and a light went off. Daniel never talked to the lions.

Jesus said we could take up serpents (Mark 16), but he never said what to do with lions. Lions are often pictured as enemies of prophets. "I was rescued out of the lion's mouth," Paul said. (2 Tim. 4:17) This referred to his intense spiritual battle with the idolatrous power behind Diana, a territorial spirit worshiped by the Ephesians (Acts 19). After this experience, Paul wrote about standing against evil powers in prayer. (Eph. 6:10-18)

The devil prowls about "like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour," Peter said. (1 Peter 5:8) Peter knew what it was like for Satan to desire to sift him and for his faith to be tested. (Luke 22:31) Have you ever been sifted? Has your faith ever been tested? These are references to our spiritual warfare. The devil is a roaring, devouring lion. That is still his fierce nature today.

A clear illustration of this otherwise invisible war occurred when the prophet Daniel was cast into a lion's den. The situation was not fair. He was mistreated simply because he maintained his integrity in praying to God. But God delivered him.

Daniel testified, "My God sent his angel and he shut the mouths of the lions. They have not hurt me, because I was innocent in his sight." (Daniel 6:22) Then the king put Daniel's accusers in with the lions. They were torn apart immediately. The lions hadn't lost their appetites. Their nature was still to devour and destroy. But they couldn't get to Daniel because of his angelic protection. Their jaws were kept shut.

A Picture of Prayer

I have had hanging in my place of prayer a lovely sepia print of a prized painting given me by my wife. It pictures Daniel in the den of lions. Every time I look at it, the Lord speaks to my heart of Daniel's noble character and effective intercession. He was a prophet and a statesman, a man who was blameless in his walk with God, faithful in his duties, respectful in his attitudes even toward heathen rulers.

He is a model for me. Daniel was a man who had dreams and visions and foretold the history of nations. He was a student of the Bible. He wrote what he saw. He prayed for Israel's restoration from captivity. In my painting, Daniel is gaunt from frequent fasting. His back is turned to the lions. The lions look puzzled and as they pace about behind him. It is as though when they look toward Daniel they can't really see him, but see something else that makes them wary of attacking. Daniel is oblivious to the lions. His face is turned toward heaven. He is standing with his hands clasped behind his back. He is in prayer.

In the Scriptures and in my painting, Daniel does not address the lions. As far as we are told, he never rebuked them, never confronted them, never commanded them, never bound them (except by prayers and praises to God), never took authority over them. Instead, he ignored their fearsome growls. He did not acknowledge their power over him. His attention was on the Lord. He went over the lions' heads to their Creator, to the source of all power in the universe.

Daniel was an ambassador of a higher kingdom. He was using weapons of a higher order, weapons of righteousness. His faith was manifest not in bravado, but in humility and the fear of God. There is a lesson here for us concerning spiritual warfare.

Most modern Americans were raised in a culture which disregards authority. We don't instantly become renewed in our thinking just because we are born again. The spirit of this age, from which we have drunk deeply, still affects our thought life.

This tendency can carry over into our prayer life. God is sometimes approached as though our will is superior to His, as though our prayers can tell Him something He doesn't already know. Instead of making supplication, we make suggestions. And sometimes we do things in the name of the Lord that are unwise, like assuming we - apart from God - can force Satan to do our bidding.

Some demons have greater power because they are closer to the source of evil. Jesus said this kind doesn’t go out except by fasting and prayer (Mt. 17:21). Demonic powers that promote homosexuality, abortion, idol worship, and false religion have great power to deceive.

Principalities and evil spirits were created by God with authority, albeit now perverted, misused, and doomed to hell. Even though Jesus has triumphed over them, they should be dealt with carefully. Angels know this. "But Michael the archangel when he disputed with the devil and argued about the body of Moses, did not dare pronounce against him a railing judgment, but said, 'The Lord rebuke you!'" (Jude 9)

Addressing the Father

To whom do you pray? Do you praise and entreat the Lord? Or do you spend your time rebuking the devil?

It is a subtle but serious heresy to treat Satan as equal in power with God, to give him more attention than he deserves. God alone is Creator and Redeemer. Satan and his fallen angels, though vested with authority until the final judgment, are trapped in this space-time world with mankind. We have a way of escape; the devil does not. Only the Lord God stands outside of and above time. He alone is Deity, worthy of worship. Gaze at God but only glance at the devil. Don't become distracted!

Focus your prayer time on God, not on your enemy. The more you see God on the throne, the more authority you will have to pray. God owns all authority. We have none, apart from Christ in us. We only have God's authority when He delegates it to us with a specific command that commissions us. Using authority casually can produce casualties.

There is a story in the Old Testament of a prophet sent to rebuke an idolatrous altar. This was a high-level power encounter. When the prophet rebuked the altar, it split in two. Yet that young prophet was now on dangerous ground. An older prophet tricked him into disobeying God. The young prophet, although successful in his mission, was eaten by a lion on his trip home. Why did he lose his protection? Disobedience!

There is a better way to do warfare. And it is not by shaking our fist at the devil. That's just shadow-boxing. It lands no body blows. When Jesus was tempted by the devil in the wilderness, he did not rail at him. (Luke 4) Instead, he quoted the written Word. He used the sword of the Spirit against his foe. Jesus went on to accomplish complete obedience to the Father and therefore was given all authority. (Phil. 2) Jesus succeeded by radical obedience. He stayed submitted to God, declared the gospel, drove out demons, and gave his life on the cross. His resurrection was the grand finale which proved he has all authority in every realm.

Based on Jesus' victory, we can petition God and win the battle, too. We can pray, "Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." We can be anointed to set captives free. This is the miracle of grace based on our union with Christ.

Daniel modeled intercessory prayer by repenting on behalf of his people. He prayed to God, not to principalities or demons. He stood his ground when the battle got fierce. Another model for this kind of prayer was Queen Esther.

A Queen Saves a Nation

Esther became Queen to King Ahasuerus in Persia about 460 BC. Esther was a Jew. A wicked plot was hatched by Haman to murder all the Jews. Moredecai enlisted Esther to entreat the King to abort the plot. After a 3-day fast and by God's divine intervention, the plot was thwarted and Haman was hanged on the very gallows intended for Mordecai.

In this episode, Esther never addressed Haman. She never rebuked him or accused him. She did not get angry and shake her fist at Haman. Instead, she humbled her soul, showed great respect for those in authority (even Haman) then entreated the King with her petition.

She approached him with proper protocol, trusting in his love, despite the danger inherent in her mission. The lesson here is: Who has the authority? If that person or that situation has power over your life, where did they get it? Who do you appeal to for help? Do you negotiate with the enemy? Or do you stand in your authority under God?

The Bible says we should turn to God's throne for help. (see Hebrews 4:16)

When Jesus stood before Pilate awaiting sentencing, he said, "You would have no authority over me if it were not given you from above." (John 19:11) He entrusted himself to his Father. He didn't panic and wonder how Pilate had gotten the upper hand.

(In my recent posting, "Interview with an Apostle," recall that the apostle Paul never admitted to being a prisoner of Rome, but only of Jesus!)

Do you have faith to believe that God knows what you are facing? What disaster are you staring at? What evil or what trial has attracted your gaze? Fight to win by fixing your gaze on the author of your faith, Jesus Christ! Matthew 28 says Jesus has "all authority." There is none higher!

True spiritual warfare is best accomplished when we lift up our eyes to Jesus and see the majesty of his kingdom, his power, and his glory. >From that place of humble worship, God's word in our mouth can make demons tremble, activate holy angels, move heaven and earth, and shape the destiny of nations.

Few women in history are as intriguing as Jeanne D'Arc, the French peasant girl born in 1412, who heard and obeyed heaven. To some she was a saint, to others a heretic, but history chronicles her as emerging from obscurity to become her nation's youngest military leader. In 15 months she changed the course of European history. Her eventual martyrdom was Satan's attempt to destroy her divine gift, but that same impartation can be inherited by today's "Joan of Arcs" through God's divine justice.

A Supernatural Voice

For her, the unlikely destiny began one summer afternoon at the age of 13. On that fateful day she saw a brilliant light and heard the audible voice of the Archangel Michael, leader of God's armies.

Michael addressed her as "Joan the Maid" with the added admonition to live a pure and virtuous life. He announced her destiny as a God-appointed deliverer to lead the army of France. Joan reported, "I recognized that it was the voice of an angel. This voice has always guarded me well, and I have always understood it; it instructed me to be good and to go to church often."

To Joan, the voices of God's spiritual messengers could be distinguished in the same fashion as one person communicates with another. She received audible expressions from the spiritual realm that charged her with the formidable task of uniting a fragmented army and altering the fate and leadership of her nation.

A Deliverer is Born

The extreme hardship of one hundred years of war with England preceded the appearance of Joan. The English occupied considerable portions of France, with plans of further expansion, until the prophetess shifted the momentum to the French.

The messengers of Heaven conveyed to her a twofold commission: First, to lead an army against the English in defense of Orleans, a crucial and strategic city for the French; and secondly, to restore the throne to its rightful heir, the Dauphin of France, a term used to identify the heir apparent who later became Charles VII. France had not had a crowned king since the death of Charles VI in 1422. Instead, the French crown had passed to the infant king Henry VI of England through a treaty signed by Charles VI.

This twofold mandate was an unthinkable task for an illiterate teenager living in the 15th century. Even so, the messengers from Heaven gave explicit directions. Joan possessed the uncanny willingness to risk life and limb in obedience to their instructions. She relinquished herself totally to the cause of Heaven that launched her into this supernatural arena.

The Mandate Established

To share this vision with the Dauphin of France, Joan journeyed over 300 miles through enemy territory for her first encounter with Charles VII. Charles actually staged a test to determine the authenticity of her revelations.

When Joan entered the huge meeting hall filled with over 300 guests, the Dauphin was not seated on his throne. Instead, he was dressed as a commoner and had mingled with the crowd. Led by her supernatural Council, Joan walked directly to Charles and addressed him as the imminent leader of France. Moreover, she also divulged divine insight involving his life known only to he and God. This validated for the eventual king that Joan of Arc was no ordinary maiden.

Subsequently, Charles and his councilmen embraced her vision and allowed her to lead 4,000 troops in support of the besieged city of Orleans on April 29, 1429. The victory was swift and sure!

Phenomenal Victories

After capturing smaller forts that bordered Orleans, Joan surrounded the occupied city and led the assault against the English. As she had earlier predicted, Joan was gravely wounded in the conflict. Nevertheless, by the end of the day, she returned to the battle. The mere sight of their courageous leader rallied the French army who promptly routed the remaining English forces. So moved were these hardened soldiers by Joan's anointing and heroism that they "gave up swearing and prostitutes and committed themselves to a virtuous life."

Joan insisted the men under her charge conduct themselves in a manner becoming professional soldiers. She allowed no swearing or lewd behavior and expected commendable character. The men willingly followed her leadership and affectionately bestowed on her the title "maid of Orleans."

In subsequent weeks, several other French cities enduring English occupation were liberated by Joan and her army. So convincing were the early victories that in one confrontation only three French soldiers perished compared to over 2,000 English casualties.

After accepting the surrender of Troyes, Joan persuaded Charles to return to Rheims for his royal coronation. In fulfillment of Joan's directive given by the Lord through Heavenly messengers, Charles VII was officially recognized as monarch of France.

Her Betrayal and Death

Despite her conquests, betrayal from French leaders led to Joan's capture; this too according to her own predictions. In embarrassment, English rulers determined to prove her success resulted from witchcraft and sorcery. They added to her charges heresy -- the act of challenging the authority of the Church. The representatives of the Church who tried her believed God spoke only to priests. It flew in the face of their belief system for God to communicate directly with individuals.

For nearly five months Joan of Arc was imprisoned, not in a facility for women, but with English soldiers. Nevertheless, strengthened by the Lord and His Heavenly messengers, she remained steadfast throughout the ordeal.

To validate the charge of heresy, the English employed clergyman and theologians who strenuously examined Joan with the malice intent of discrediting her testimony. Remarkably, her wise and skillful answers alleviated their entrapping questions. According to Joan, heavenly messengers regularly brought to her God's perfect council.

Ultimately, the tainted court rendered a guilty verdict and condemned Joan to be burned at the stake. At 9 am on May 30, 1431, the 19-year-old messenger of God was wrongfully executed. As the flames began to consume her body, a cross held before her eyes was Joan's sole request. Her final word was the name Jesus.

Five hundred years after being burned at the stake for heresy, Joan of Arc is declared a saint and revered by the country she saved.

A Call for Justice

The loving eyes of our Heavenly Judge sees and records every action of humanity. In this end-time generation the books of Heaven will be opened and restitution offered for injustices committed against God's covenant people.

As with Joan of Arc, Satan has battled the saints of God for millennia and seemingly prevailed. Nevertheless, God, as the Righteous Judge, will render a final verdict on behalf of the saints. Daniel recorded:

"I kept looking, and that horn was waging war with the saints and overpowering them until the Ancient of Days came and judgment was passed in favor of the saints of the Highest One, and the time arrived when the saints took possession of the kingdom". - Daniel 7:21,22

Divine justice, released in this age, will be a key to empower God's people. Joan of Arc's life was a prophetic model. There will be many who follow her standard with faithful and obedient hearts and commissioned in awesome ways. Every seemingly lost commission, anointing, and spiritual gift will be redeemed and released to willing candidates.

For thousands of years God's children have been martyred, persecuted, and plundered, but heavenly justice will decree that all be fully restored and compensated.

All things take place under the all-seeing eye of God, and He has promised to restore all that our adversary has ruined. Clearly, Joan, and others like her, received a martyr's reward in eternity. Moreover, they sowed spiritual seeds that will reap the most outstanding deposit of divine grace never before demonstrated.

I Will Restore

The Joel 2:25 promise of restoration is one of the paramount passages of this day. God pledges:

"I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the crawling locust, the consuming locust, and the chewing locust, My great army which I sent among you." - Joel 2:25

Joan of Arc was God's appointed representative during a crucial juncture in human history. Abuse of authority from corrupt political officials eradicated the heavenly deposit entrusted to her. God's just nature will mandate a manifold restoration of this and other lost anointing through faithful and obedient vessels prepared to apprehend and demonstrate this destiny and the Lord's redemptive virtues.

Dividing Line Set Forth
Gaylene Womack

March 11, 2004

Praise the Lord for HIS inheritance and that includes the reaping back of all that has been sown. This is the time for a reaping . . . some for good and some for evil. Yes, this is what the Lord says. Those that have sown discord amongst the brethren, they shall reap back evil for their evil! Those that have sown love amongst the brethren, they shall reap good for their good they have sown. The favor of the Lord is being poured out. Woe unto the unrighteous ones that proclaim the name of the Lord in vain. For the days of Ananias and Sapphira are closing in on those that so freely proclaim Christianity but do NOT walk within the realm of His Spirit and His Written Word. Those that are the light of the Lord shall be enhanced and those that proclaim unrighteously they are the light of the Lord, shall be ashamed! A day of the Lord is mighty and fearful and nigh among this nation. This is a season when I shall arise within My body and there will be a dividing line set forth. For the dross shall be shaken from Mine and they shall stand alone with Me. They shall no longer be amongst the dross, the tares that are sown within from the adversary. The eyes of Mine shall be opened and they shall hear the voice of the adversary as he speaks forth through the unrighteous. For Mine, they shall be easy to discern. Stand strong and be of courage, for the righteous shall begin to come forth in this day. Cast off the oppression that tries to come forth and envelop you. Stand strong within My Word and speak forth My proclamations! Speak BOLDLY to those adversaries of your soul and those that try to reign within your family! Take dominion within, speaking for My Word! The sword of the Spirit shall begin to reign! Where the Word didn't project my power in the past, now shall it bring forth the fruit! Speak boldly that that I proclaim within your hearts!

Dead Men Walking
Danny Korakas

Dec 3, 2004
"Pilate brought Jesus out and sat down on the judge's seat at a place known as The Stone Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha. Now it was the PREPARATION Day of the Passover, and about the sixth hour. And he said to the Jews, "Behold your King!" But they cried out, "Away with Him, away with Him! Crucify Him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar!" Then they delivered Him to them to be crucified. Then they took Jesus and led Him away. And He, bearing His cross?" (John 19:13-17)

"Then Jesus said to them all, "If anyone would come after Me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow Me." (Luke 9:23)

"I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me." (Galatians 2:20)

"The one who says he abides in Him ought himself to walk in the same manner as He WALKED." (1 John 2:6)

Many believers in our Lord Jesus Christ will walk the "Via Dolorosa" this holiday season as they visit the Holy Land. Actually, the Via Dolorosa that we have all come to understand through TRADITION does not date from the time of Christ, but from the time of the Turkish or Ottoman Empire. Most likely it was constructed as late as the 16th century when the Ottoman Turks ruled Jerusalem. In fact, the present route of the Via Dolorosa was not laid out for several hundred years after the crucifixion of Christ. Needless to say, Christians who WALK this route may not even be walking in the same DIRECTION as Jesus did when He took up and carried His cross. We certainly can assume that many will not even be WALKING on the same street that Jesus walked. I hope this isn't a disappointment for some. It is not the desire of the Lord that we aspire to walk WHERE He walked, but that we aspire to walk AS He walked.

"I, therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you to WALK worthy of the calling of which you were called." (Ephesians 4:1)

As a prophetic people and generation, what does it mean and require to "walk worthy of the calling" of which we have been called to walk?

THE COMMISSIONING WALK

As I stated earlier, the heart of God is that we walk AS Christ walked. Jesus completely shattered the paradigm of the religious community as He "ate and drank" with the sinners of the community.(See Luke 7:34) Jesus could not help but walk to those who needed to hear His message of repentance and salvation. Jesus' PRIMARY mission as "The Spirit of prophecy" was to redeem man to Himself. This was the reason and consuming fire of His ministry. I believe that this is one area that prophetic ministry has failed miserably. It seems that many of us have found a place of comfort prophesying to other prophetic or like-minded people, rather than prophesying to the lost and unsaved. It's time we take it to the streets. The Great Commission should be the foundation of prophetic ministry and not the exception. Jesus said, "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

"Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name to all nations."

Isaiah 53:3 says that "Jesus was a Man of sorrows and acquainted with grief." Does this imply that Jesus lived a mundane, miserable and religiously ascetic life? Was Jesus sorrowfully depressed? Well, of course not. I believe that Jesus reflected a ministry that exuded an abundance of joy and happiness in His love for people. To be Christ-like, a man or woman of sorrows and acquainted with grief, is to identify with the needs of humanity and their need of a Savior. The true prophet of God walks and is drawn to the unsaved. His or her heart burns with the same passion of Christ — the redemption of mankind and the inescapable reality of eternity. Jesus preached REPENTANCE first and foremost; yet people were still drawn to Him because of the love they felt radiating from His very being. Children were taken into His arms and He spoke eternal blessings over their lives. Jesus' purpose in ministry was the love of people's SOULS. Is this our walk?

THE WALK OF SACRIFICE

"Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus, who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men." (Philippians 2:5-7)

Jesus released the Spirit of prophecy in denying Himself for the sake of others. He gave up His divine rights as Lord and God for the purpose of humbling Himself in our likeness to SERVE us. Really think about that for a moment. Our Creator, the One who formed us in our mother's womb and breathed life into us, became a bondservant for you and I. Jesus willingly stepped down from His eternal majesty and glorious throne to live in what we could consider impoverished conditions for the purpose of serving and loving us in a real and tangible way.

It seems that the example of ministry that God Himself walked in is beneath the ministry example of many in today's church. Much of today's ministry example is exactly the opposite. The focus has become a handful of leaders desiring to have an entire congregation embrace their vision, rather than leaders embracing and encouraging the visions of those whom they have been called to serve.

If I were to take a painting canvas and paint a large stroke with a 12" paint roller and then take a fine line brush and paint a slight single stoke — which one would you choose as having the greatest value, volume and covering the most territory? From the natural perspective, it would be the paint roller. The paint roller or "large broad stroke" represents the vision of many church leadership structures. It is singular and usually one dimensional with the intent of having the masses embrace and follow. The single and slight stroke represents the individual vision of each member of a fellowship of believers. Each person in the body of Christ has a particular color of grace and gifting. As the world views the canvas and landscape of the church, what do they see? Do they see the broad stroke of religious tradition and submission to the vision of the elite few? Or do they see a portrait of vibrancy and multi-dimensional color? Why would anybody come to church just to experience their individual vision and color of grace left unused? When leadership begins to seriously take an interest in the visions of others before their own, the unsaved and lost will come to view a priceless masterpiece created by the passion and mind of Christ.

Submission has been perverted and corrupted in the church because leadership has demanded submission as a means of spiritual maturity without being willing to submit to those whom they have been called to SERVE. Leaders should expect the grace of submission in the body of Christ. As believers, we should expect it in all of our lives. The Bible says that we are to "submit to ONE ANOTHER in the fear of the Lord." One of the greatest virtues of true leadership and ministry is to exercise submission to the body of Christ. The word "Submission" means to submerge or to come under another's mission or vision.

"Be careful how you WALK ... be wise; make the most of every opportunity." (Ephesians 5:15-16) Our greatest opportunity in building the kingdom of God is not building or investing in million dollar facilities made with dead stones. It is investing in the destinies of "living stones" that truly builds the kingdom and rewards with eternal dividends. Is this how you walk?

DEAD MEN WALKING

"If anyone would come after Me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me." (Luke 9:23) It would seem that "our" Via Dolorosa is the road of denying ourselves for the sake of others.

If you are like me, I suppose that you have associated taking up your crosses as enduring the hardships, trials, and situations of life. Throughout the history of the church, many believers have even put themselves in situations of persecution so as to somehow identify with the sufferings of Christ. The truth is that if we are walking with Christ, we do not need to look for persecution. It will certainly come. I have given these examples as some of the ways people perceive taking up our cross and walking with Christ. However, when Jesus spoke these words, taking up our cross meant DEATH and dying to ourselves. Jesus was setting a principle for successful ministry — it was putting "SELF" in the place of death if we are to truly follow Christ and walk as He walked. I realize that this is uneasy and extreme to many. However, it was Jesus and not I who used the ultimate symbol of death (The Cross) in conveying this truth of discipleship and leadership.

Paul says through the Holy Spirit in Galatians 2:20, "I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me." It would seem to me that Paul was laying a foundational understanding of how he approached ministry to his family, the church, and the unsaved.

"Therefore we were buried with Him through baptism into death, that just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should WALK in newness of life." (Romans 6:4) To walk in an unselfish lifestyle and ministry begins by recognizing that the lure of our flesh (carnal desires that focus on "self") is constantly at war with our spirit-man. The Lord has always called the prophet and the believer to a lifestyle that is not characterized by the love of materialism (name it and claim it) or self indulgence. The lifestyle and ministry of Christ was one of SELF- DENIAL that yielded eternal glory and reward. As I just stated, the flesh will rationalize and war with this principle everyday of our lives. This is why Jesus said, "We must take up our cross DAILY." Taking up our cross daily and walking with Christ means to make a conscious choice every day of our life to turn from selfish and insecure desires and motives.

Gossip and talking about others behind their back is a "clinging on" to SELF at the expense of another. We only gossip about others for the sake of feeling better about ourselves in our selfish and insecure state. Hundreds of thousands of believers play or "gamble" with the Lottery. In honesty, what we are doing is looking for an EASY buck with no work ethic involved to satisfy our need and lust for money. When we take the ticket, we are saying, "God, you are not my provider. And I am not willing to give a fair days work for a fair day's wage." This is SELF-sufficiency and fleshly in the carnal mans quest for what is easy.

The "narrow road" will not be easy, but it will be full of reward and joy — bringing strength to our lives. Anything of value will cost and the greater the value the greater the cost. This is in stark contrast to the diluted and unbiblical teachings of easy prosperity messages behind many pulpits. Colossians 1:10-12 says, "WALK worthy of the Lord and please Him in every way; bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God, being strengthened so that you may have great endurance and patience, joyfully giving thanks to the Father." Many in this holiday season will WALK where Jesus walked, but neglect to walk AS Jesus walked. Are you ready to die to "self" and walk as Jesus did for the sake of others?

WALKING IN THE RESURRECTION

"For if we have been united together in the likeness of His death, certainly we also shall be in the likeness of His RESURRECTION, knowing this, that our old man was crucified with Him?" (Romans

6:5)

The essence of the resurrection is the POWER that raised Christ from the dead. The power and glory of God was made visibly manifest to mankind through the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The words of the prophets were confirmed and the power of God through His Holy Spirit would empower those who believe with the "same mighty power that raised Christ from the dead." This is astounding to think about! The same mighty power that raised Christ is the same power that works within us who believe. However, the prerequisite for a power-filled and anointed life is our willingness to be Christ-like. It is our willingness to freely offer our lives and experience death to our "self" that enables resurrection power to manifest in our lives.

It is interesting that the Bible states, "Over 500 people" saw Christ in His resurrection power and glory at one time. Of those 500, only 120 were willing to go all out for Christ and die to "their" agendas. I cannot help but wonder what distractions and earthly agendas could have kept the other 380 who had seen Christ in His glory from tarrying in the upper room. 120 obeyed the Words of Jesus and were baptized with the fire of God. These 120 souls would go on to change the course of history and be the instruments of the very hand of God in birthing His church.

The eternal HOPE of all mankind rested upon the foundation of a MAN who was willing to freely offer His life for their sake of others. This is the model of ministry and the lifestyle that the Lord has called us to as well. I realize that this is not the most popular message to share. Some may be thinking that this message would be better suited around the Passover season. But I really sense that this is an "in-season" word for all Christians. I believe that the Lord is speaking to us that there is no greater gift to give than the gift of ourselves to others. It is the giving of ourselves that makes Christ real in the life of another. It resurrects the faith, hope and love that this season represents. There are so many people in this fallen world who have had their dreams, visions and destinies killed by the selfish desires and sin of humanity. This is our mission as a prophetic voice — to offer our time, compassion and love in resurrecting broken lives.

To WALK as Christ will demand a commissioning mandate, self-sacrifice, and a dying to our "self." But the reward is eternal and a walk that has power in glorifying the Father!

Do Not Betray Innocent Trust

Sandy Warner

Dec 17, 2004
Dear ones, I am sending you as My representatives to those with child like hearts. These precious hearts will come in all ages and sizes, but they will have one thing in common. I will have placed within their spirits an innocent trust and faith that is pure and untarnished. I will give them dove eyes and dove hearts to hear and receive My Words through you. These, My precious gems, will hold their hearts in their hands and offer them to you to hold. Locked inside these jewel lined hearts are their life's stories, those things they hold most precious and dear; untold secrets of pain and joy, of history, vision and destiny. They have the keys and will openly bare themselves to you in the purest of offerings.

Always remember that in such an offering, there is naked, raw vulnerability in the form of open trust. As you hold their hearts, you will not have earned their trust, it simply will be given. Therein is the innocence. It is given, not only because I have imparted this innocence, but because they reach for My lifeline through you and because you will be representing Me, whom they trust. Do not take their offering to make yourself fat. Rather, give their treasures back to Me and pray over them as stewards of great wealth. I will multiply what they held as dear, along with your stewardship and bring forth a great harvest as they are released to fulfill their destinies.

My Battle Is Not Against My Brother

Sandy Warner

Dec 19, 2004

As I face the setting of the sun
Another week is yet to be won.
Let me not falter, keep me in Your halter
Let me not turn my back and run.

Oh Lord, have mercy on my soul!
The words of man have taken its toll.
I will run to You, the One Who speaks truth.
Trusting You to make me whole.

I am not able to heal the pain
My heart is weak, my soul is lame.
I will lean upon You, the One Who is true.
As I release my sorrow and defame.

For there is not a soul on earth
Who is innocent for sure.
We all have missed Your glorious mark
As we gaze upon Your face so pure.

Let us love one another and lay down our swords
Keep us from falling among the great hordes
Of demonic devices and perversions so gross
Let us win the battles with Your love so close.

United in purpose with hearts on fire

Leaning upon Your bosom, let us not grow tired.
We need one another to form a holy shield
To stand for our brother, to honor and to yield.

Let our words be kind and full of grace
As we respond in deed and a loving face.
Have mercy on us, we are sinners for sure
Pull out our tares and make our hearts pure.

Come Holy Spirit, breathe new life
Wash away the pain and cleanse all strife.
No more cold blasts from winter's harsh breath
Warm our souls, bring us back from death.

So once again as I face a new week
May the God of my battles, the God Whom I seek Bring peace to the storm and calm the winds
As I peer in the distance and look through His lens

At the glorious promise of double portion joy
With belly laughs and giggles and angels employed
To bring the harvest from our tears and our pain
Come quickly Oh Lord and bring us Your rain.

Acts 3:19-21 NKJV
Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that He may send Jesus Christ, who was preached to you before, whom heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, which God has spoken by the mouth of all His holy prophets since the world began.

Transparent Pain
Sandy Warner

Dec 15, 2004
Sometimes, I send you on assignments of transparency where you are placed in a vulnerable place. Yes, just like living in a glass house. I will uphold you as you witness misunderstandings whiz past you like boulders ready to shatter your fragile containers. Yes, it hurts sometimes as you seek the Truth and align yourself with such. Always remember there is a treasure at the bottom of the heap. It is up to you to press past your pain straight into the heart of the matter. It's all about love. When My love is your ruling motive, your life will always be a pure reflection.

2 Cor 3:18 NLT
And all of us have had that veil removed so that we can be mirrors that brightly reflect the glory of the Lord. And as the Spirit of the Lord works within us, we become more and more like him and reflect his glory even more.

Do Not Be Moved
Shirley Lise

Hide yourself in Me and let the storm pass over. I will lead you and direct you. I will give you garments of praise. I will sing My songs of love through you. Yes, many have vied for attention. Many have sought to undermine the work I have done in you, but to no avail! You will rise up triumphant over all your enemies and I shall move you on into higher levels of authority than you have known. I will take you to the heights. I will cause you to soar with Me in Heavenly places. I will override the attempts of the enemy to steal from you what rightfully belongs to you.

Do not be troubled by things that are spoken by those around you. You know that I am the Lord of Hosts, that I am in control, and that I will bring all things into order, into proper perspective, into alignment with My will and purposes. Do not let their idle words pull you down. I have counseled you and given you jurisdiction to counsel others.

This is the day when I shall move you forward and into the promises of My kingdom. It has been a long hard road, but do not waver, and you will stand when others are falling. Listen to My words. Take counsel from them. I am able to turn all things around to your benefit. I am able to take power out of the hands of one and put in into the hands of another. I am able to shift emphasis from one to another. I am able to displace and unsettle those things that seem firm. I am able to turn the tables on those who cleverly form their own plan.

I am working in the lives of those who have caused My loved ones to stumble. I shall cause their divided hearts to line up with My will and purpose. I shall take their eyes off the world and settle them on Me. I shall take their roaming eyes and turn them upward. How long it has been for the process to be completed, for a heart undivided to be formed within man! I have called out time and time again, but to no avail. Yet one last time, I shall bring correction and bring these to their knees.

So do not be moved by the antics of those around you and do not be swayed off track. I will raise you up and endue you with power from on high, and the power will manifest itself with signs and wonders. I will open doors that no man can close. I will triumph over injustice, so go in the way outlined to you and continue on the pathway laid out before you and do not be moved.

This Is The Day Of Freedom
Shirley Lise

Bask in My love. Come into My chambers with singing, into My courts with praise and thanksgiving. I will do it again! I will scatter all your enemies and walk My Own out onto center stage!

Watch as I remove the power to perform. Watch as I strip away defenses. No longer will man domineer and dictate policy. I will bring him to his knees. I will shut all the doors he tries to open and prevent him from moving forward. Once again I shall sweep in with My power to topple pedestals built by men and to put to nothing their prominence. I shall utterly destroy the platform that has been erected in the midst of the people. It shall be brought to nothing and I will not let the ruins be rebuilt. You will see that I am able to completely demolish those things built by men and to erect the work of the Spirit, the ministry of Christ, in its stead.

I shall select those of My choosing to be a light and a sign and a wonder amongst the congregation. You will stand in awe when I appoint My Elders. You will see that I have not left My Own, but that I have reserved a place for you amidst the assembly, that I have qualified you to ride the wave of My Spirit to the nations.

Get ready for the greatest outpouring of My Spirit that I have released. It is coming full force and will knock down those who stand by their own merit, but will raise up those who have continued to put their trust in Me, to believe for what looks impossible. Did I not say that I would do miracles on your behalf, that there is nothing too difficult for Me? Well, watch out for the miracles!

Your sons and your daughters shall be healed of every infirmity, for I am breaking the yokes put upon them by religious traditions of men and setting them free, and they shall rejoice in their new found freedom, and they shall understand that I have done this. I am coming in vengeance to break the power of the fleshman and to destroy his works, and the sons and daughters shall rejoice, for they shall be released into the fullness of joy.

Mark My words, the battle has just begun and you will see triumph after triumph as I deal with the power that has been at war with My Spirit within you and your offspring. I shall bring it into captivity and completely annihilate it.

This is the day of freedom. Shout it out loud. Declare it in the streets. Let your praises ring, and do not bow down to the deceiver. I have released you that you might release others. Declare My handiwork. Declare My praise. Boldly declare My name in the assembly and do not hold back, for you are taking ground from the enemy, usurping the power of man, and ushering in the power of the Lord to set the captives free. I am coming with fire and everything that is man-made will be burned to ashes. Mark My words, for the time is soon!

Lift HIM up to a dying and weary, wounded world. A lost world of humanity in confusion and conflict, barraged on every side and few seeing any way out, having no HOPE. Yeshua is our haTikva...HE IS OUR HOPE!

Many 'Big Names' are just catching up with what I have been doing in My 'hidden away ones' for many, many years. You are the head and NOT the tail. The circumstances that you find yourselves are nests of hatching. Do not despise the confines of your birthing situation, you will SOON emerge as fully mature Eagles, ready to fly in RESURRECTION LIFE.

As your gestation period is nearly complete, this causes stirrings, discomfort and attempts to stretch your wings. Stretch! Stretch! Stretch! Fear NOT for I have placed you in the nest upon high, safely sheltered beneath MY WINGS. Within your insulated embryonic sack of safety, nourishment and warmth...you go in circles wondering why you cannot see more, why you are feeling anxious and confined You are confined, BUT hatching time is near! BREAK THROUGH IS UPON YOU, your sharp beaks are breaking through with MY WORD OF JOY, AND GRATEFULNESS in your praises! True freedom is imminent.

Do you not yet understand? Continue to stretch, peep, and shout! Jump up and down for JOY, JOY, JOY... BREAKTHROUGH IS nearly here! There are many of you in this eaglet nest, more than you know...who will come forth in quick, quick, quick succession. This new birthing is like none other in time, a trophy of My great pleasure to display for more than all time. IT IS FOR ALL ETERNITY!!!

Nothing, but nothing, will contain nor dissuade MY PLANS FOR YOU! NOTHING is nothing! It is negative and NOT PART OF WHO I AM, AND CERTAINLY NOT THE FUTURE I HAVE PLANNED FOR YOU!!!

Let the entire world witness what I AM about to do in you and for you. I want them to see, those who made jest of you for following ME completely without compromise, and in integrity. I tell you, they will weep in their SIN. They will weep for what they have lost, and what you have gained My precious ones. They will see that their time is too late. Their salvation sure, but their gold not refined nor polished. You followed Me and shared in MY sufferings, developing eternal character. They will see and weep for their own loss in My Kingdom.

FLY, FLY, FLY and as you emerge, you will see that this birthing is a supernatural and quick birthing to IMMEDIATELY FLY. I AM the wind that will cause YOU TO SOAR, no time to rest now. Jump up and down with Joy, for today I have told you where you are, why I have placed you there, and that SOON, SOON, SOON MY precious little ones, MY protected protégés, you will emerge and FLY! Drop the WORD into their spirits, into the air, impregnate the atmosphere with MY LIVING WORD, WHERE GREAT BATTLE IS RAGING for the souls of ALL people.

Just a short moment in an expanse of eternity and out you will stumble--wet, new, and PEEPING YOUR LITTLE HEARTS OUT WITH MY JOY. Precisely because you are weak and vulnerable, this event will clearly proclaim ALL THAT I HAVE DONE IN AND THROUGH YOU. I encourage you, My precious trophies of GRACE, MERCY, and LOVE, hold on just a little while longer.

No more humiliation, no more holding back, no more hiding, for you will come forth clothed regally, in simplicity and splendor; sons and daughters of El Elyon. You will soar in dimensions beyond your wildest imaginings and comprehension. From tumbling eaglet chicks and in a twinkling of an eye by My touch to fully mature Eagles soaring with grace and glory.

See this occurring in your spirit? Remember this, wait for My Word. I AM a sovereign God. You have trained and practiced discipline, NOW sing, shout, dance, praise ME, for I AM Worthy! I AM WORTHY TO BE PRAISED...no matter what you see, live by faith and praise Me! I AM the true and living G-d, the Holy One of Israel.

Shout upon the house tops. Shout upon the waves of the sea. Shout upon lands diverse and far away. Shout in villages green. Shout in deserts barren and dry. Shout in places with amber waves of grain. Shout in places with mountains majestic and white. Shout upon the hills blanketed with meadow flowers. Stand up and shout, shout, shout with great JOY that has been presented you from My very throne room!

No more to bow down to the past. No more to bow down to shame from your childhood. No more to bow down to youthful sin. No more to bow down before middle aged pride. The evil one's number is up! You are forgiven, sanctified, redeemed---YOU ARE MINE!!!

Heat from the LAVA FLOW of MY LOVE now accelerates My loosing which comes quickly. This Lava Flow burns away all the superfluous and extraneous --- and has prepared you to reach out to a HURTING, HUNGERING AND THIRSTY WORLD. My Eaglet chicks are those entirely sold out to ME!!! Keep your eyes upon the one who regulates the intensity of this heat. SPEAK to the Lost for whom I suffered, bled and died, rose again; and to ALL OF WHOM I WILL COME AGAIN!!!

It is my new day now and for you who will FIRST BREAK THROUGH, remember patience, and demonstrate compassion for those still chained by religious spirits. They still travail with burning zeal but follow false teachings of men. I will call them, some will catch up. Reach out, they will not understand where or who you are...be ready to teach them and disciple them to observe and walk in ALL of My ways.

My love for you, and for lost souls is ALL that I desire to be your concern. PREPARE FOR YOUR BREAK THROUGH IS NEAR, RELEASE any worldly concerns as chaff upon My Winds of a powerful and magnificent revival. Can you feel the breeze? Come, stay with Me awhile, lay it all down at the cross before ME your loving KING! SOON you will have all that I have declared, and as MY JOY fills you, it will increase until the pressure expels you into the high heavens with me, then we shall fly!!!

DO NOT TURN BACK NOW, DO NOT LOOK BACK NOW---LOOK TO ME, SEE MY LOVING COUNTENANCE TURNED TOWARD YOU in these last few moments in time. Your very work and destined plan of MY choosing. A plan that will mock the evil one and all of his useless striving and conniving to overthrow MY plans for you. He gave it his 'best shot' and it is lacking in all ways. Shout VICTORY, for you are an overcomer! Your Lord and King has overcome the world!

Do Not Look Back Now, This is A New Season

September 13, 2004

For this is the hour to advance and take ground says the Lord. This is the time to put your hand to the plow and not to look back for I am doing a new work in the hearts of My people. I am releasing a great wave of faith to believe the impossible concerning the harvest, not just the harvest of souls, but also an individual harvest of the good seeds My people have sown.

This is the time to advance forward and not to look back at the past. Let bygones be bygones. For I am not doing things the same way I did them yesterday but indeed a new work. You are part of that new work and I call you now to surrender your life afresh and ask for a new outpouring of the Holy Spirit. What is stale cannot remain, so look to Me, the author and the finisher of your faith to fill your vessels with the fresh oil of the Holy Spirit to be equipped for what is ahead.

Determine Now Not To Go Backward

Mary Lindow

Feb 2, 2004
THIS IS A NEW DAY! PLANT YOUR FEET AND DETERMINE NOT TO GO BACKWARD. THE ENEMY WILL ASSAULT YOU TO PRESS YOU BACKWARDS. Have I not said, "Without a prophetic vision the people perish and go backwards.”? I am ready to revisit areas that have advanced my purposes but retreated at the day of battle.

THIS IS THE BEGINNING OF THE SHAKING OF GOVERNMENTS.
There must be a confrontation of governments. My government on earth is arising and causing entire regions to shake. I am restoring and raising up leaders.

IN THE PAST SEASON, MY GIFT WITHIN LEADERS COULD NOT FIND ITS PLACE IN MY GOVERNMENT. However, NOW I am causing governments and gifts to Divinely “find one another." To connect. This is creating great shakings from region to region throughout this land. This alignment is creating a shift in civil government. Today is a day of breaking off that which caused My leaders to retreat from the visitations of the past. Many advanced and then quit and retreated!

NOW IS A TIME TO ADVANCE!

I AM RESTORING MANY OF YOU TO LEAD THIS ADVANCE.
There will be great connections occurring in My Body in this Advance. This will be the beginning of confronting sorceries, astrology, and witchcraft which have produced control. I am sending you forth and releasing supernatural wisdom. This wisdom will cast down the sorcerers, astrologers, and those practicing witchcraft throughout regions.

LOVE AND CONFIDENCE IS ARISING IN MY BODY.
The past three years have been a time of restoring a level of worship, humility, meekness and purity in your calling and boldness in the choices you make!

FROM WORSHIP YOU WILL NOW MOVE INTO A NEW SUPERNATURAL DIMENSION.
Do not fear this call to the supernatural. The Baal systems of this nation will begin to strengthen to keep My new refreshing strategies from forming and advancing in your region. Do not fear these systems, but keep confronting through prayer the powers that have attached themselves to the structures of governments in your region.

I WILL MAKE YOU INTO A SUPERNATURAL PEOPLE WHO CAN RISE UP AND OVERTHROW THAT WHICH HAS CONTROLLED YOU IN THE PAST. My people are becoming a new, sharp threshing instrument. This threshing is producing shaking. This shaking is releasing Harvest. The Harvest will not rot in the fields of neglect or laziness.

THIS IS THE BEGINNING OF A POWERFUL CONSUMING FIRE. When these occult structures are overthrown, consuming fire will sweep through this nation. And you will set My name upon the high places! The Idols and temples of religious shame and control, will be addressed by My all-consuming light. I have given so many who call themselves “My anointed” much, much time to deal with the hidden sins in their marriages. Sins of competition, jealousy over who is used by me and harsh verbal words of shame used to control and break the will of another servant in My calling. Some have called themselves my servants but have only served their own purposes in a place of self-comfort and self-promotion, letting others do the labor in prayer. Deal with your weak and cowardly attempts at holiness through repentance and honesty of heart before Me and others whom you have walking in My house with you. The days of personal ambition and are numbered.

MY FIRE MUST BE IN YOUR HEART. The fear of the Divine supernatural is to be removed from you. Many have fallen into fear over the supernatural spirits that have surrounded them. Therefore, they have retreated in their prayer life and fallen into passivity. This is the beginning of a new day. Plant your feet. The window of opportunity for change is short and sweet. This will be a time that night watches are re-formed in your region, and I will revisit you in the night watch.

I WILL VISIT MY BRIDE AS I DESCRIBED IN SONG OF SOLOMON AND KNOCK UPON HER DOOR. THIS IS NOT A TIME FOR HESITATION. Night watches will spring forth across this land. Once again these watches will open the door to me, and I will come again. Therefore, I am calling watchmen to rise up and cry out day and night for my Bride to be positioned near the door of opportunity in these lands. Be positioned, ready to open the door of opportunity in this nation.

MY BRIDE MUST NOT HESITATE TO OPEN THE DOOR SINCE HARVEST IS WAITING TO COME THROUGH THE DOOR INTO THE STOREHOUSE OF MY KINGDOM. My will has been activated on earth. I am advancing. Advance with me. I will lead you into warfare. Many have grown fearful of confronting the enemy. I came to destroy the works of the enemy. I confronted both legalism and liberalism. I say rise up in worship that you might confront. Without confrontation, your enemy, the legalist, will gain much strength against you and narrow the boundaries of your freedom. If you will align yourselves properly and allow your gift to work within My government, I will guide you like a troop into warfare and make you victorious.

WORSHIP IS ARISING. FROM WORSHIP, YOU WILL WAR! FOR A SOUND OF WAR IS COMING INTO THE HEART OF MY PEOPLE. Do not go backwards.

TAKE OFF THE OLD GARMENTS THAT WOULD HINDER YOU. MY ADVANCE IS NOW IN THE EARTH.

YOU HAVE BEEN BLINDED FROM THE SUPPLY OF THE FUTURE. A new seer anointing is about to arise in My people. What you couldn't see in the past, you will now see. You've tried to connect and align with some, but now I will release a new anointing for connecting. You will see strategies of supply that have been hidden from you by occult powers.

THE SEER ANOINTING IS COMING BACK INTO YOUR REGION. MY PEOPLE'S EYES ARE ABOUT TO SEE THEIR SUPPLY. Advance is now in the earth. Open your eyes and advance with me!

YOU WILL KNOW ME AS THE GREAT PROVIDER.
YOU WILL KNOW ME AS THE GREAT HEALER.

YOU WILL SEE ME BRING FULFILLMENTS AND ANSWERS TO MY MANY PROMISES! YES!

YOU WILL NOW BEGIN TO RELEASE A MANIFESTATION OF MY JOY OF RELEASE FROM CAPTIVITY FROM REGION TO REGION THROUGHOUT THIS LAND AND IN ALL NATIONS CRYING OUT FOR MORE OF ME!

Draw Near With A True Heart
Ron McGatlin

There is a call from God in heaven piercing the hearts of those who truly love Him. The Father is calling for His people to draw near to Him with a true, sincere, undivided heart. God is calling to those who will love Him with all of their heart. There is a season now upon the earth when the call from God to draw near to Him and have intimate communion with Him is paramount.

Heb 10:22-24: Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful. And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works,

Now, in this time, God is seeking to train and empower His people for the next season that is to come. Only as we enter into oneness with Him and are guided and empowered from the spiritual realm will we be able to move through the seasons of adversity and judgment coming upon everything that lifts itself against God. We must walk in the supernatural power of the Holy Spirit to complete His plan and purpose. Only as we enter His presence with a pure heart and clean life can we maintain unwavering faith. Only as we are in love with Him will we have the love to really stir up love in one another,

Rev 4:1-2: After these things I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven. And the first voice which I heard was like a trumpet speaking with me, saying, "Come up here, and I will show you things which must take place after this." Immediately I was in the Spirit; and behold, a throne set in heaven, and One sat on the throne.

Many structures, systems, and relationships that we have counted on in the past for some of our substance, guidance and security are about to be shaken and many will crumble. The one relationship that we can completely depend upon is with God. The one structure that we can trust in is the throne of God. There will be no wavering of our faith as we continue in intimate relationship with Him. He IS FAITHFUL to keep His promises.

There is an emerging priesthood of God's people coming forth outside of manmade religious structures. The emerging priesthood will consistently abide in the love and power of the Holy Spirit in the presence of the Father.(Rev 5:10)

As true priest, our first priority must be to love God with our whole heart and intimately relate to Him in the Spirit. Our second priority is like unto the first, to "love your neighbor as yourself." (Mat 22:37-39) In Hebrews 10:24, we are admonished to consider one another in order to stir up love and good works. The Greek word translated "stir up" means to "incite or provoke".

As we walk in intimate love with God, the power of the Holy Spirit - the flow of God that spoke creation into being - that raised Christ Jesus from the dead, will empower and direct us to incite and provoke the reality of love and the works of love in one another.

As part of the emerging priesthood we are being transformed into the image of Christ in the presence of God. The Father's love melts away our pride and pain. We are emptied of self and filled with Him and become true sons of our Father. As priest and kings in the earth we manifest the works of God and the Holy Spirit flows the immeasurable power of God to change us and stir up His love in one another. This is the church.

Pursue love - it never fails.

Lots of love,
Ron McGatlin

Day Of Breakthrough

Musa Opiyo

Feb 25, 2004

Rise up for this is your season of BREAKTHROUGH. What was once impossible for you shall now become possible as I unveil My plan before you. You shall walk with renewed vision and hope, and as you praise Me in this season, My angels will be dispatched to bring that breakthrough. You are neither forsaken nor forgotten for you are a much needed tool and vessel whom I will implement to further My Kingdom. Rise up in renewed hope and joy and consider not the former things for I am doing a new thing. For I will give you double honour for your shame, for you shall experience My redemption power in ways you never thought possible.

Move forward with the assurance that I am with you to guide your steps and to make the crooked places straight. I am for you and not against you. My Son finished the work on the cross set before him and it is done, therefore come to My throne room of grace and receive My empowerment and strength.

You have been prepared in the furnace and heated seven times, and now is your hour of release, says the Lord Almighty. You have been tested and tried and your faith has been found to be true, and I am well pleased with you. The road you have traveled has not been easy but through it all you have had the 'walk on water' faith where you stepped out of the boat and have heeded My call to come forward even though the wind and the waves have told a different story. Sometimes while on the water you have began to sink due to doubt on your part of My everlasting power, but I was there to pick you up and place you on dry ground. Like a woman in labour you have cried out in your birthing season, and although it has been hard, you HAVE PUSHED THROUGH.

So watch now as I raise you higher and bring you to a higher realm. Your faith has been stretched. You have stood the test. Many more have cried out for more faith that they may endure the test before them, yet they never knew that their faith, though they might have seen it as small, was in no way small in My eyes, but was indeed the faith that moved their mountains and caused Me to work on their behalf. I tell you that for many of you this season is almost over, and you shall go forth rejoicing, and I shall give you feet like hinds feet to walk upon the high places. Then you shall know that it the Lord alone that has done this work in you, for those who declared that you weren't going to make it shall indeed change their opinion as they see you walking in My Divine Favor. They shall see a total transformation and complete turnaround and all glory and honour shall come to Me.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

May you prosper and be in health even as your souls prospers, for God is getting ready to move you into divine health. May your joy be made full because the Joy of the Lord shall be your Strength. For you shall go out empowered by His Blood and His Name upon your forehead. You shall be known as the favoured one, for he is raising up many in places of high influence in order to bring his righteous government upon the earth. No weapon formed against you shall prosper, for you are a called out one, separated from the world and holy unto Him.

Year 2004
Musa Opiyo

Feb 28, 2004

My children I am releasing you into a new season, for the year of 2004 shall be a year of greater works, greater anointing, greater empowerment and release into the areas of ministry that I have ordained for you. Know that with greater anointing comes greater sacrifice. I will require much more of YOU. You must decrease as I increase in your life. For in this season you will need to hear My voice and be sensitive to the Holy Spirit. Know that with greater increase comes greater attack from the enemy. Many of you have been in training and are going to be released. Keep your armor close by you;

...have the Sword of the Spirit, My Word, close by you and counter-speak all the lies of the evil one and to cut asunder and divide those things that have risen up against you,

...the shield of faith, for you will come to know indeed in the coming times that the just shall live by faith. Faith will come as you hear and take in My word and let it take root in your hearts,

...your helmet of salvation, knowing indeed that you are heirs to the promise of My son through his blood shed for you,

...the breastplate of righteousness, for you know that yours is as filthy rags, you have been justified freely through MY grace and righteousness,

...shod with the shoes of the gospel of peace, carrying My peace to all men and having the assurance that My peace which passes ALL understanding shall guard your hearts and minds.

Yes, this is a new season, a fresh season in which I am calling many to a greater intimacy with Me. Like with the example of Hosea, I am calling those of My own who have strayed after other lovers, that they may return and know their First Love. Yes this is a season of release. Do not let doubt and unbelief impede your progress, but being sensitive to My Spirit, moving FORWARD into all I have for you, says the Lord.

Daughters Of Destiny
Olivia Long

faithbuildersmins@sbcglobal.net
April 3, 2004

This is the time, this is the hour that I shall raise up My Daughters of Destiny. I have proclaimed you as My own, I have set you apart for Kingdom duties and you shall receive Kingdom blessings. Set your eyes and expectations high, far above all you could ask or think. Expect all that I have promised to come forth for it is being released to you and for you. Now you will begin to see and know that the time has come. I have been saying that we are approaching a new era - an era where I will do exceedingly abundantly above all you can ask or think. You will stand in awe when I begin this mighty move, 'in power' as you have never seen before.

I have made a solemn oath to you, My faithful daughters, and the words I have spoken to you and for you are true and are coming to past. The word has gone forth in the heavenlies and will manifest in a "twinkling of an eye." It is taking place in the natural even now as the I AM speaks. You have been hearing and I have been speaking 'suddenlies.' They are not in vain but for your benefit to be ready for that great and awesome time that is upon you. You have been hearing praise reports from others as their promises are coming forth, but I say unto you the praises raised unto Me have just begun!

You have heard My voice, you have answered My call. Now I AM raising you up and sending you forth. You will teach and share the awesomeness of your God. You will share experiences that only you can share. I have brought you through the most difficult of times but these times have given you wisdom and understanding of Me and who I AM. I have filled your mouth and heart with wealth untold. I have given you special gifts only for you and you have much to offer because you are sensitive to My voice. With My right arm I AM bringing you into the place that I have promised you along with blessings you will not be able to contain.

Truly My presence is upon you... Truly you are encompassed and enclosed with My love. Truly My Word is in your mouth and heart and you will go forth touching hearts and lives. My Words I have placed within you and My Word does not return to Me void but will accomplish what I intend. You will speak what I have placed within you... I AM HE Who is faithful and true and I AM alert and active watching over My Word to perform it, saith the Lord.

It is My Blood and My Name that set the captives free. It is the anointing that breaks the yokes. I have called you and I have placed upon you the anointing. I have given you the authority to use the Name above all names, the Name of Jesus to set the captives free. I AM sending you forth with a commission 'and' a mission to those who are in bondage and are blind that they might be free.

The enemy has "attempted" to destroy My plan and your credibility but I have protected you. I clothed you with My righteousness and My Love, therefore the enemy cannot bring an accusation that you are not righteous enough or love enough. For I have clothed you in My righteousness and My love. Areas in the past which have held you back, there has been a release and THEY WILL HOLD YOU NO LONGER.

It is with much love that I, your God, speak to you this day. I say, "O Weary soul arise! Arise and take your place." Behold, I AM with you.... Behold, My hand is upon you... Behold, I AM undergirding you with My mighty right arm.

You are going beyond what has been familiar to you. Beyond your expectations... Beyond your comprehensions... Beyond what you have even tried to figure out. You are going beyond those things for I have called for a vessel that has been broken and cleansed. A vessel that is willing to be resided in by ME, filled with My Spirit, filled with My Word and filled with My heart.

So many of you are weary from the trials of your life and circumstances. Beloved, My arm is not shortened that I cannot save and deliver My Daughters of Destiny, neither am I blind that I cannot see your trials, tribulations and sufferings as well as your rejoicings and blessings. Neither am I deaf that I cannot hear the cries of your heart for your brethren. I see, I hear and I feel all that you and your brethren are going through and I AM He who delivers you out of ALL your troubles. I AM He who has been with you in the fire. I AM HE who is with you in the valley of the shadow of death and My rod and My staff protect and guide you. I AM He who prepares a table before you 'in the presence' of your enemies. I AM He who leads you beside the still waters and into the green pastures. I AM He who restores your soul and I lead you in the paths of righteousness for My Name's sake and Surely ONLY MY goodness and MY mercy and MY unfailing love follows you all the days of your life.

My daughters, you are ever faithful to Me, even in the midst of the turmoil swirling round about you. I see your obedience and I say it is better than sacrifice, although you have sacrificed much to Me in your obedience - therefore you shall reap a hundred fold, saith the Lord.

This proclamation is going forth to My Daughters to arise and go forth to proclaim the words I have spoken to you. There is an outpouring of My Spirit for the great ingathering that is about to take place. There are many I AM sending forth - there are different messages but all for My Glory. As you await your emergence, speak and encourage those I have placed in your path because a part of them becomes a part of you. Your burdens for a hurting and dying world have intensified because those whose lives you have already touched have become a part of you. Because of that compassion and love you are prepared to touch others... No other gifts can replace true love and compassion, they are foremost in touching and winning souls and lives to Me. "Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels and have not love, I have become as sounding brass or a tingling cymbal" but My Daughters of Destiny will speak My Word to a lost and dying world with MY LOVE.

Remain focused on Me and do not waiver. As you make your plans, I will reveal My significant plans that I have in the spiritual realm. My Beloved, your calling is sure, do not allow man to deter you. I have called you for such a time as this. But, you say, look at my circumstances, I say ... Awaken, shake yourself from your slumber. Arise, it has begun! I will bless you and anoint you and give to you your inheritances. Prepare yourself to receive as never before. Fear not, for you have been well trained and mighty signs and wonders will follow you. Precious in My sight is the woman who puts her trust in the Lord. You have not trusted in vain - ALL is lining up, ALL is becoming a reality, ALL is coming into focus.

From every creed and ethnic group, from the Americas', Europe, Asia, Africa and Australia ... From every continent, from every land, My daughters will arise - Arising OUT of your circumstances and INTO your Destiny.

Do Not Fear

Lance Lambert

"It will not be long before there will come upon the world a time of unparalleled upheaval and turmoil. Do not fear for it is I the Lord who am shaking all things. I began this shaking with the first world war and I greatly increased it through the second world war. Since 1973 I have given it an even greater impetus. In the last stage, I plan to complete it with the shaking of the universe itself, with signs in sun and moon and stars. But before that point is reached, I will judge the nations and the time is near. It will not only be by war and civil war, by anarchy and terrorism, and by monetary collapses that I will judge the nations, but also by natural disasters: by earthquakes, by shortages and famines and by old and new plague diseases. I will also judge them by giving them over to their own ways, the lawlessness, to loveless selfishness, to delusion and to believing a lie; to false religion and an apostate church, even to a Christianity without me. Do not fear when these things begin to happen, for I disclose these things to you before they commence in order that you might be prepared, and that in the day of trouble and of evil you may stand firm and overcome. For I purpose that you may become the means of encouraging and strengthening many who love me but who are weak. I desire that through you many may become strong in me, and that multitudes of others might find my salvation through you.

"And hear this! Do not fear the power of the Kremlin, nor the power of the Islamic Revolution, for I plan to break both of them through Israel. I will bring down their pride and their arrogance, and shatter them because they have blasphemed my name. In that day I will avenge the blood of all the martyrs and of the innocent ones whom they have slaughtered. I will surely do this thing for they have thought that there was no one to judge them. But I have seen their ways and I have heard the cries of the oppressed and of the persecuted and I will break their power and make an end of them. Be ye therefore prepared for when all this comes to pass, to you will be given the great opportunity to preach the Gospel freely to all nations. In the midst of all the turmoil and shaking, and at the heart of everything, is My Church. In the heavenlies She is joined to Me in one Spirit and I have destined Her for the throne. You who are My beloved, whom I have redeemed and anointed - you are Mine. I will equip and empower you and you will rise up and do great things in My Name, even in the midst of darkness and evil. For I will reveal My power, and My grace and glory through you. Do not hold back nor question My ways with you for in all My dealings with you I have always in mind that you should be part of My Bride and reign with Me. Do not forget that this requires discipline and training. So yield to Me that I might do a work in you in the time which is left for I plan even during all this shaking the Bride will make Herself ready.

"For in the midst of these judgments multitudes upon multitudes will be saved from the nations. You will hardly know how to bring the harvest in, but my Spirit will equip you for the task. And to Israel, will I also turn in that day, and I will melt the hardening which has befallen her. I will turn their blindness into clear sight, and tear away the veil on their heart. Then shall they be redeemed with heart bursting joy, and it will become a fountain of new and resurrection life to the whole company of the redeemed.

"Do not fear for these days, for I have purposed that you shall stand with Me and serve Me in them. Fear not, for I love you and I will protect you and equip you. I, the Lord, will anoint you with a new anointing and you will work My works and fulfill My counsel. You shall stand before Me, the Lord of the whole earth and serve Me with understanding and with power and you shall reign with Me during these days. Above all, I call you to be intercessors."

Door Of Hope

Karen Frith

I keep on hearing God say a DOOR of HOPE will be opened in 2004.

Hosea 2:14-15 (NIV)
“Therefore I am now going to allure her, I will lead her into the desert and speak tenderly to her. There I will give her back her vineyards, and will make the Valley of Achor(meaning Trouble) a DOOR OF HOPE. There she will sing as in the days of her youth”

The NLT says:
“But then I will win her back once again. I will lead her out into the desert and speak tenderly to her there. I will return her vineyards to her and transform the Valley of Trouble into a GATEWAY of hope. She will give herself to me there, as she did long ago when she was young”

Days Of Slumber

Billy Humphrey

As I was walking and praying in the International House of Prayer [IHOP] in Kansas City last month I felt the Lord begin to impress to my heart the urgency of the days in which we live. I heard the phrase in my heart, "…the end of the days of slumber". Immediately my mind referred to Matthew 25 and the parable of the 10 virgins. I quickly flipped my Bible open and read the parable. In a moment I began to see facets of these verses that I had never seen before. The more that I meditated on the truths in this parable the greater an urgency began to build in my heart. The Lord shared with me several important truths that I want to share with you. Let's first take a look at the entire parable.

Matthew 25:1-13 "Then the kingdom of heaven shall be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. 2 "Now five of them were wise, and five were foolish. 3 "Those who were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them, 4 "but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. 5 But while the bridegroom was delayed, they all slumbered and slept. 6 "And at midnight a cry was heard: 'Behold, the bridegroom is coming; go out to meet him!' 7 "Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps. 8 "And the foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' 9 But the wise answered, saying, 'No, lest there should not be enough for us and you; but go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.' 10 "And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding; and the door was shut. 11 "Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us!' 12 "But he answered and said, 'Assuredly, I say to you, I do not know you.' 13 "Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming.

THE END OF THE AGE

The first thing that struck me about this parable is that it is a direct reference to the end of the age and the Second Coming of Jesus. It is specifically talking about the church adorned as a Bride and ready to meet the Bridegroom. Verse 13 makes it extremely clear that the parable is talking about the "hour in which the Son of Man is coming." The only way to get a clear picture of what this parable is teaching is to put it against the backdrop of the end of the age.

At the end of the age there will be those who are wise and those who are foolish. This is not talking about the difference between believers and unbelievers this is talking about wise and foolish virgins. Virgins represent those who have been cleansed by the blood of Jesus, Christians. Each group, the wise and the foolish, had gone out to meet the Bridegroom yet what differentiated them was the provisions that they brought. The wise had purchased oil and brought it with them. The foolish had not bought the costly oil; they had made no provision for a delay in the Bridegroom's coming. Consequently, those who did not bring the oil did not have fire in their lamps when it was the most essential. Their fire had gone out when it was time to meet the Bridegroom and they, in turn, did not make it into the wedding feast.

THE FALLING AWAY

For years I considered this scripture to be speaking of the great revival at the end of the age. I thought of it as teaching that 5 out 10 people would get saved and make it to heaven. However, it is speaking of 5 out of 10 virgins who are not prepared and subsequently do not make it. This is speaking of those in the church being unprepared and not making it in. It becomes painfully clear that it is speaking of a falling away. Half of those considered to be virgins did not actually make it in to the wedding feast. This is not to say that there is not a great revival coming, there most certainly is. However, the day of the Lord is both "great and very terrible" (Joel 2:11) The end of the age will be a time unprecedented glory and unprecedented terror.

II Thessalonians 2:3 "Let no one deceive you by any means; for that Day will not come unless the falling away comes first…"

ITim 4:1 "Now the Spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons."

Jesus explained in Matthew 24:12 that, “the love of many will grow cold.” It is clear that at the same time that there will be unparalleled revival that there will also be a great falling away.

THE OIL OF INTIMACY

The oil is the central issue to whether or not the virgins make it to the wedding feast. Those who have the oil make it in and those who do not have it do not make it. I believe that the oil speaks of true intimacy with Jesus. Compare the language of Matthew 25:11-12 with Matthew 7:22-23.

Mat 25:11 "Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us!' 12 "But he answered and said, 'Assuredly, I say to you, I do not know you.'

Matthew 7:22 "Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' 23 "And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!'

In each instance there are those who believe that they know the Lord and deserve to have entrance into His Kingdom yet in both instances He declares to them that He does not know them. Those who have intimacy with the Lord at the end of the age will have a sustaining fire in their heart that will guide them and see them through to the return of Jesus. Yet those who have not “paid” for the oil in costly love will burn out. When challenges and persecutions come to the church those who have given themselves intimately in an abandoned way will have strength in their inner man to sustain them. Those who have not bought the oil of intimacy will find themselves offended in the day of testing and trial. Perhaps that is why Paul prayed for the Philippian believers that they would be “sincere and without offense until the Day of Christ.”(Phil 1:10)

THE BRIDEGROOM IS COMING

Perhaps never before has there been such a consensus in the Body of Christ that we are in the season of the Lord’s return. Many will say that every generation in church history has stressed the soon return of the Lord. However, this is actually inaccurate. With the exception of the first century, the church throughout the ages has not had a majority agreement that it was in the generation of the Lord’s return. There have been small contingencies of believers throughout the centuries that believed the Lord was going to return in their lifetime, yet it was never the belief held by the majority. The generation in which we live is the first generation since the first century where there has been a consensus that those who are alive are living in the time of the Lord’s return. This fact is stunning especially when you consider it in light of Matthew 25. The parable is clear that there will be a cry heard at midnight, “Behold, the Bridegroom is coming.” Notice all of the virgins heard the cry; the foolish and the wise. Yet only one group was prepared. I believe that midnight speaks of the spiritual conditions of the generation the Lord returns. Here we are, living in perhaps the darkest spiritual generation the world has ever seen and a cry has gone out in the spirit to the church at large, BEHOLD THE BRIDEGROOM IS COMING. There is a strange awareness in our day that the days are short. The Cry is clear, He is coming and He is coming soon. This one phrase the Bridegroom is coming is a clear picture of what the church will look like at the end of the age. She will have an unmistakable revelation of her bridal identity. She will be a bride adorned in purity and passion for her Bridegroom. She will also be acutely aware of the nearness of His return. God is in this hour preparing the church to have a heart of intimacy with an awareness of His impending return.

THE END OF THE DAYS OF SLUMBER

While the Bridegroom was delayed all of the virgins slept. There has been a 2000 year delay in the coming of the Lord. If the nation of Israel had received Jesus as Messiah in mass numbers, it is possible that Jesus could have set up His earthly kingdom and begun to rule from Jerusalem in the 1st century. Yet because of the rejection of Messiah on the part of the Jews, there has been a delay until the time of the full number of gentiles get saved.(Rom 11:25) This is the delay. While the bridegroom was delayed all of the virgins slept. Yet they are awakened just prior to His coming. The word the Lord spoke clearly to my heart is that we are coming to the end of the days of slumber. If this is accurate then we are in a day of great consequence not only to our lives as Christians but also to this world. We must awaken to the urgency of this hour.

This is a day where we must ensure that our hearts are overflowing with the oil of intimacy so that when the time comes to arise and meet the Bridegroom our lamps are burning brightly and not burning out. Intimacy is the currency of the spirit in this day. It is the only sustainer of relationship with the Lord. If our hearts are energized in the knowledge of Him we will not be ashamed at His coming. We will be found faithful through every trial and all tribulation. It is in the knowledge of Jesus that we enter into the reward of the Gospel. If we know Him intimately we carry the reward of the Gospel inside of us. Our reward is not the western ideals of success, money, riches or fame. It is having a heart that is overflowing in love, alive in the spirit, completely confident before Him in intimacy. It is living lives truly strengthened with might in our inner man through the knowledge of His Love.

I want to encourage you to give yourself to Him in a fresh way in holy abandonment. Pursue the knowledge of the Lord. It is the knowledge of God that will lead you into the love of God. It is only in the revelation and experience of His love that your heart will be satisfied and confident in the days ahead. There is great blessing coming to the church and to the world, yet there is also great turmoil and trouble coming. Only a heart that is tenderized and equipped in love will be able to sustain the tension and challenges of the days to come.

It is essential that we recognize the days in which we live. I pray that we would be as the Sons of Issachar knowing the times and seasons. We are entering the End of the Days of Slumber. Beloved, It is time to heed Paul's admonition in Romans 13:11… knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep; for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed.

Atlanta's Redemptive Calling
Billy Humphrey

God has amazing plans for the city of Atlanta. He has strategically developed Atlanta to become an internationally powerful city. It is, perhaps, one of the world's top 10 most powerful cities. It is home to the busiest airport in the world and is a hub for international business and commerce. These are profound natural truths that point to Atlanta's redemptive gifting.

I believe that every geographical location has a redemptive plan set forth by the Lord. It is clear from the scripture that the Lord is interested in geographical locations and has plans for them by His treatment of the boundaries of the Nation of Israel. (Gen 12:1) Let's consider the history of the names of Atlanta in light of the truth that Atlanta indeed has a Sovereignly ordained redemptive calling.

Atlanta was originally named Terminus in the late 1800's. This name was given to it because it was the end of the eastern railroad. It was later changed to Marthasville after the daughter of the current governor. And then finally it was named Atlanta, primarily because of it's proximity to the Atlantic Ocean. Each of these names has significance as it relates to the plan and calling that God has for the city and the counter plan the enemy has for the city.

Terminus

Terminus is a Greek derivative of the word terminal which literally means fatal, lethal and deadly. While the city was named Terminus for the natural railroad, the word also dictates a spiritual reality that has been imposed upon the city. That spiritual reality is that there is a spirit of death upon the city. Throughout the 1990's and the early 2000's Atlanta has consistently ranked in the top 5 in the nation according to the FBI in homicides per capita per year. It is one of the most dangerous cities in which to live in the U.S. The murder rate is almost double the national average. I believe that this is a natural expression of the spiritual reality that there is a principality of death over the region.

Marthasville

The second name that Atlanta was given was Marthasville. Within this name is also insight into the nature of the spiritual climate over Atlanta. We know scripturally speaking that Martha was the sister of Mary and Lazarus of Bethany. (Luke 10:39-40) While Mary sat at the feet of Jesus, Martha was "distracted with much serving." I believe this is a picture of Atlanta. The pace literally steals from the church's devotion to Jesus. I have been in few cities where the pace is as frenzied and hectic as in Atlanta. I can sense the pace every time I leave Atlanta and then return. As soon as I get off the plane in the airport I can sense in the spirit the frenetic pace of Atlanta. There is a busy-ness about Atlanta that attempts to catch those who live here in it's hurried tempo.

New Beginnings

Finally, the name Atlanta literally means “New Beginnings”. Atlanta is called to be a place of new beginnings, a place of fruitfulness and salvation. Yet, much of this world class city’s fruitfulness in the spirit has been challenged and stolen by it’s rapid pace and the spirit of death upon the city.

The R&R

In March of this year I was in Dallas, TX praying for Atlanta. While I was in prayer I saw a picture in my spirit. I believe the Lord gave me this picture to give revelation regarding what the controlling principalities were over the city and what was giving them their strength. He brought back to my mind the name Terminus. He impressed upon me that it was the name of the spirit of death over the city. I saw an ‘X’ and an R&R like a railroad sign. In my heart I heard, “It’s the R&R that gives Terminus its strength.” I thought, “What is the R&R?” Immediately the answer came, “Racism and Religion.”

The Lord showed me that Racism and Religion, the R&R, are the controlling spirits over this region and that they empower Terminus to grip Atlanta with death and murder. Racism and Religion are two strongholds that are rooted in hatred and seek to murder. It is obvious that Racism is rooted in hatred but at first glance Religion seems different. Religion seems to be about tradition and ritual and not hatred. However, after a quick study of the scripture you will find that the Religious elders were so envious of Jesus that it drove them to murder him. (Mat 27:18) In fact those who were controlled by the religious spirit in the New Testament regularly sought to murder (Acts 7:59, 9:2). It is stunning to recognize that it was praying, fasting men who had Jesus murdered. They had grown robotic in their devotion to God and the outcome was their heart became cold and hardened to the move of God’s Spirit and the revelation of the Messiah.

The Lord showed me that in order for revival to come in Atlanta that Terminus must be brought down and that would only happen through defeating the R&R, Racism & Religion. I again saw the “X” of the R&R sign. I believe that the Lord showed me that His presence is going to strategically inhabit 5 different areas across the city. The locations will be Northeast, Northwest, Southeast, Southwest and Central in the shape of an “X”. After the Central location is in place Racism and Religion will be dislodged and Terminus will fall. Once that takes place true revival will break out across the entire metro area.

I was also strongly impressed that one of the key facets to bringing down the R&R over Atlanta is night and day intercession for justice. As the saints cry out to God for justice for Atlanta, to make the wrong things right and restore this cities’ redemptive calling that He will avenge them speedily (Luke 18:8).

Luke 18:7-8 "And shall God not avenge His own elect who cry out day and night to Him, though He bears long with them? 8 "I tell you that He will avenge them speedily…

There is a clear requirement for the speedy justice that God has promised. The Lord stated that He will avenge speedily those who cry out night and day. Many desire to see God move in Revival, yet we have yet to meet the requirement of night and day intercession. I believe that it is God’s desire and intention in this season to see 24 hour prayer and worship established in Atlanta so that He may break in with unprecedented power and true revival.

After I left that place of prayer in Dallas, I was riding in a car considering what I felt the Lord had shared with me. I thought to myself, “Did I make that up?” “Was that me or was that really the Lord?” I immediately asked the Lord to confirm it to my heart if it was in fact His Spirit speaking to me and not my own mind. The instant I prayed that simple little prayer I looked up and saw a railroad sign with the “X” and the R&R. The Holy Spirit witnessed to my heart that it was indeed the Lord speaking.

The Gate City

Here is the power of the redemptive gifting of Atlanta. Atlanta is historically known as the Gate City of the South. Once the heavens over Atlanta have been opened and the Glory of God has invaded the land, I believe that it will rip open the entire Southeast to the invasion of the Glory of God. When the Southeast opens the entire nation will be affected and when the nation is affected the world will be affected. God has commissioned Gatekeepers in the Gate City to open the Gates so that the King of Glory will come in.

As we saw earlier one of the redemptive callings of Atlanta is to be a city of New Beginnings. As the King of Glory invades Atlanta there will be dramatic numbers of salvations and great deliverance. Atlanta will truly become a place of New Beginnings for multitudes of people.

The Airport as a Sign

The scripture is clear that spiritual truths manifest first in the natural and then in the spirit.

1Cor 15:46 However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural, and afterward the spiritual.

I believe that the Atlanta airport is a natural sign of a spiritual truth. The spiritual truth is that Atlanta is called as a missions sending agency to the world. Just as the Atlanta airport sends people to the world more than any other airport in the world, so shall the church in Atlanta send multitudes to the nations. The greatest revival the world has ever seen will become the greatest missions movement the world has ever seen. The revival and the missions movement will become one reality. Atlanta is redemptively called by God to send missionaries burning with Holy passion and revival fire to the nations.

Further, just as the Atlanta airport gathers the world and operates as a hub of interchange, so Atlanta shall be an international gathering place for those seeking spiritual awakening. Atlanta will truly become a place of new beginnings for the nations. The spirit of death has tried to steal the Life of God from Atlanta's redemptive calling. But God is awakening His Bride in this hour to bring speedy justice. The redemptive calling of God on Atlanta will be restored! The power of God will flow to the world from this city. God's plans and purposes are truly great for this international city.

Beloved, this is an incredibly exciting time to live in Atlanta. God is raising up the Tabernacle of David, 24 hour prayer and worship, to ignite revival in the land. Let's agree together to see God move in power and might in this season in Atlanta, the Southeast, the Nation and the World.

The Gatekeeper Anointing

Billy Humphrey

In the year 2000, my wife and I were in our 9th year of ministry as youth pastors at our local church in Norcross, Ga. During this season we decided to rename and revamp our youth ministry. The previous name was tired and no longer reflected the values and vision of the ministry. The driving force of our ministry was an intense yearning to see revival break out in Gwinnett County to sweep 100,000 souls into the kingdom of God. Most of our preaching, teaching and discipleship were anchored around this cause and we wanted a name that reflected this. After many discussions and brain-storming sessions with our key staff we believed "we" had found a name that accurately portrayed our passion. In reality the Lord had directed us to a name that had far greater significance than we could have realized. The new name was 212. 212 was derived from the Fahrenheit temperature for the boiling point of water. The idea was that everything that we were about was to be boiling, on fire for God. 212 really seemed to fit.

I searched the scriptures diligently through every chapter 2 verse 12 to find a reference that supported our vision and values. Unfortunately, there was no chapter 2 verse 12 that seemed to work. I then turned to one of our theme scriptures Isaiah 64:1 and read it more thoroughly. To my surprise, it was right there before me:

Isa 64:1-2 Oh, that You would rend the heavens! That You would come down! That the mountains might shake at Your presence; 2 As fire burns brushwood, As fire causes water to boil; To make Your name known to Your adversaries, That the nations may tremble at Your presence!

The boiling point was compared to the visitation of God that Isaiah prayed would shake the nations. Isaiah's prayer in vs.1 had already become a theme scripture for us and now it was clearer than ever.

About a year later a good friend showed me an obscure scripture that caught my attention.

1Ch 9:22 All those chosen as gatekeepers were two hundred and twelve. They were recorded by their genealogy, in their villages. David and Samuel the seer had appointed them to their trusted office.

It was stunning to see 212 right there in the middle of the scripture. I thought that it was interesting, but honestly, I had no clue what a gatekeeper was. I had heard of gatekeepers, but I thought that it was one of those ethereal, prophetic teachings that did not really relate to everyday life (I have since learned differently). Further, I thought that if Gatekeepers were an important part of seeing revival come that I would have already known about it because I had spent, what I thought was, a lot of time studying revival. How little I really knew and how little I still know. Isn't it wonderful that God doesn't base his calling and anointing on our lives upon our lack of understanding or our barrenness but upon His plan and endowment of grace?

Throughout that year the Lord would periodically bring back that scripture to my mind, but I did not doing anything about it. Finally, I decided to study and find out what exactly a Gatekeeper was. As I began to look at the whole passage in I Chronicles 9 I recognized that there were powerful truths hidden in the symbolism of the duties of the Gatekeepers of old. Further, it became clear to me that there were modern day Gatekeepers who were commissioned in similar ways as the ancient Gatekeepers in the Tabernacle of David. The revelations that were within this once obscure scripture staggered me.

In this article I want to unfold the powerful symbolism that the Lord showed me regarding modern day Gatekeepers and their role as it relates to the great revival to come. Let's look at some of the key points of the whole passage together.

1Ch 9:22-33 22 All those chosen as gatekeepers were two hundred and twelve. They were recorded by their genealogy, in their villages. David and Samuel the seer had appointed them to their trusted office. 23 So they and their children were in charge of the gates of the house of the LORD, the house of the tabernacle, by assignment. 24 The gatekeepers were assigned to the four directions: the east, west, north, and south. 25 And their brethren in their villages had to come with them from time to time for seven days. 26 For in this trusted office were four chief gatekeepers; they were Levites. And they had charge over the chambers and treasuries of the house of God. 27 And they lodged all around the house of God because they had the responsibility, and they were in charge of opening it every morning. 28 Now some of them were in charge of the serving vessels, for they brought them in and took them out by count. 29 Some of them were appointed over the furnishings and over all the implements of the sanctuary, and over the fine flour and the wine and the oil and the incense and the spices. 30 And some of the sons of the priests made the ointment of the spices. 31 Mattithiah of the Levites, the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the trusted office over the things that were baked in the pans. 32 And some of their brethren of the sons of the Kohathites were in charge of preparing the showbread for every Sabbath. 33 These are the singers, heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites, who lodged in the chambers, and were free from other duties; for they were employed in that work day and night.

In Charge of the Gates

The first thing that I noticed was that the Gatekeepers were in charge of the Gates of the Tabernacle of the Lord. They were the ones who opened and closed the Gates to the presence of God. This was amazing to me because I knew that God had deeply wounded my heart with the desire for revival. I literally sensed a personal responsibility to "open the heavens" so that the Lord would come down in power. Now the Lord was defining my role as one who was "in charge of opening" the gates for the presence of God to come into the county and into the region. God had confirmed to me in the renaming of our ministry the very DNA that was already alive in my heart. We had been commissioned to open the gates to see the presence of God invade the region. In the same way modern day Gatekeepers are prophetic intercessors, another name is watchmen, who are commissioned by the Lord to open the gates over a region to see the King of Glory come in (Psalm 24:7)

This Trusted Office

The next point that struck me was that it was a "trusted office." In other words, there were literally people whom God was entrusting with the responsibility to fervently pray and intercede for the heavenly gates to open in geographical regions. The urgency of this responsibility gripped my heart with an even greater desire to see God come and break in with power in the region. The truth that He would entrust people in partnership with Him in regard to the manifestation of His Glory caused me to passionately set my heart towards the reality of His visitation and subsequent habitation. Modern Gatekeepers have been given a responsibility as forerunners to prepare places and people for the invasion of the glory of God.

They Lodge Around the House of God

The Gatekeepers literally lived in chambers around the House of God. The reason that they stayed there, so close to the Tabernacle, was because they had a revelation that it was their responsibility to open the gates (v. 27). I believe that as they began to serve in their ministry that they became captivated with the beauty of the Lord. Once their hearts were captivated by His beauty their natural commitment to serve became total surrender from a heart of voluntary love. This spoke so strongly to my heart of the difference in commitment that the Lord desires of His people compared to the way many believers seem to live today. Much of the church in the West has settled into complacency and casual Christianity. Yet God desires to see His bride alive with a heart that is smitten with the knowledge of His love, living lives of radical commitment to Him and His purposes. This truth needs to set in upon us. Once we get a true revelation of the reality of his love and His beauty, commitment to night and day intimacy with Him is natural.

Appointed over the furnishings

The furnishings of the Tabernacle included serving vessels, flour, wine, oil, incense, spices, anointing ointment and showbread. Each of these is full of revelation in its symbolism. Yet, for our purposes here we will focus on the flour, wine and oil. Throughout the Old Testament these three are used together. Flour or grain, new wine and oil are symbols of specific Kingdom realities. Jesus said look unto the fields for they are white unto harvest (John 4:35). The reason that the field where white was because it was covered with grain. So grain or flour is a symbol of souls. We are familiar with the symbol of wine as a symbol of the new move of the Holy Spirit which is to be held in a new wineskin (Mat 9:17). We are also familiar with oil as a type of the anointing and power of the Holy Spirit. (Isa 10:27) As we unveil the symbolism of the flour, wine and oil we see that Gatekeepers are directly involved with not only preparing for the new move of the Spirit of God which will see massive signs and wonders and salvations, but also furnishing these things or bringing them forth. The ministry of Gatekeepers is directly tied to entering into revival in a region.

These are the Singers

Finally, the scripture declares that some of the gatekeepers were singers who were free from other duties and they were employed in intercession and worship to the Lord day and night. God provided that the Gatekeepers could live lifestyles of prayer, worship and service night and day before Him. Comparable to this today is the prayer movement that God is raising up across the nations where people are supported as full-time prayer missionaries to pray in the great revival that is to come. God is recoiling in power at the prayers of these modern day Gatekeepers in order to explode in a blast of His power so stunning that the entire world will experience it (Acts 2:17). His Glory will visit and engulf the entire planet just as waters cover the sea. (Hab 2:14)

In my first contacts with these scriptures many of the truths did not strike me. God had not unlocked the power of their revelation to me. As the Lord began to deal with me about resigning our youth ministry and transitioning into the ministry of IHOP-ATL, the power of this scripture captured me in a brand new way. I had been stirred to understand that the revival to come and the prayer movement were one reality in God’s economy. They were not exclusive of each other but simply complimentary facets of the same purpose. I also realized that God had deposited a hunger and passion for revival in me that would not subside. It is still an itch that I cannot scratch. However, I had not realized when we renamed the youth ministry 212 that it directly related to Gatekeepers in the Tabernacle of David. When we finally studied the Tabernacle of David and realized that it was a ministry of 24/7 worship and intercession it was after God had begun to deal with us about transitioning our ministry to start IHOP-ATL. Honestly, we never put it together that the Gatekeepers were in a 24/7 prayer ministry until after God had begun to transition us into the same type of ministry. Two things are for sure: 1) His ways are perfect 2) We are much more dim than we think. When we finally got the revelation that God had given us the name 212 to point to a reality that He was calling us into in the days ahead we were shocked and radically blessed at the same time.

Now, every time that I see the number 212, it is a reminder to me that God has called me to be a Gatekeeper. And not only a Gatekeeper but a Gatekeeper in the modern day Tabernacle of David, living a life of 24/7 worship and intercession to see the gates open and the King of Glory come in.

I pray that this revelation will grip your heart as it has gripped mine. Perhaps you too, are a Gatekeeper, called to open the presence of God in your region. I believe that the Lord is raising up an army of Gatekeepers to open the Gates in these last days for the revival to come. It is overwhelming to consider that the Lord has given us the dignity of having intimate relationship and even further, partnership with Him. As people in partnership with the Un-Created God we need to leave the entrapments of this world and give ourselves in passion and recklessness to His purposes. It is those who live lives of lovesick abandonment who will enter in to the reality of complete commitment to Him and His purposes.

If you believe it’s possible that God has called you to be a Gatekeeper pray this prayer:
Heavenly Father, I pray that you would give me the spirit of wisdom and revelation that I may understand the truths and the calling of being a Gatekeeper. Tenderize my heart to serve you in night and day intercession to see your glory invade the land. Increase my faith to believe that my prayers and service will affect the spiritual climate of my region. I speak to the every Gate and say be open. King of Glory come in and have your way in this region, in Jesus’ Name, Amen.

YOUR FIERY BRIDEGROOM

Dream of The Suffering Bride and Groom
Mark Kaphaem

Last week I had an extremely clear and vivid dream that I feel led to share with the body of Christ. I believe this dream is connected to the upcoming release of "The Passion Of The Christ".

I pray Holy Spirit will bring this word to life as you read it now, and that it will pierce your heart, as it has mine.

mkap@insightbb.com

I dreamed of a great love story between a man and a women.

The dream took place in the house of the women.

The man loved the women greatly, and because of this great love, the women's only desire was to be pleasing to Him.

There came a time in the dream, when the man was asked to drink from a cup. After drinking from the cup, He entered into great suffering. He called to the women to drink from the cup also, so that they could remain one, but the cup was to much for the women to bear. She would not drink form the cup and pulled away from the man. To His heartache, she gave her heart to another.

This caused the Man great pain, but He remained faithful in His love to the women. He called out to her in His love, but she could not hear Him. She could no longer even see Him, for a scale of deception had covered her eyes and her heart for Him had grown cold.

This went on for a season.

Then in the dream, there was a divine intervention in the life of the women. That is the best way I can describe it. Something happened to the women that opened her eyes and she was able to see the suffering of the Man in His love for her. This deeply pierced her heart and removed the scales of deception that had blinded her. She deeply repented her decision not to join the Man in His sufferings, and longed to be one with Him once again.

The women returned to her home and cleansed it from top to bottom. Then she waited there in hopes that He would come to her.

The Man came to the home but could find no way to enter it. He called out to the women in His love for her. The women heard His cry and threw open the door to the house, and called out for Him to come to her.

I can not find words to describe the great joy that entered the heart of the Man, as the women opened the door and called out to Him. There was no memory of her betrayal. Only His over powering love for her and great joy that she had been restored to Him. There was even a sense of foreknowledge in the Man, that He knew the women would betray Him. But that in His forgiveness of her, their love would be deeper and sweeter than it had ever been before.

Hear the song of the Groom to His bride.

Bride, you are more beautiful to me then the morning,
More beautiful to me then the blanket of stars at night.
I come to you in the twilight and speak My words of Love.

Listen to Me, I know your heart suffers.
I know this My bride, for My heart suffers also.
My heart suffers My bride, to be one with you.
Is this the suffering of your heart, My bride?
To be one with me.

The enemy of our love comes to you.
he says you suffer in vain, that you are forgotten.
he seeks to steal your love away,
to turn your heart cold.

Look upon Me My bride,
Look upon My suffering Love for you,
Can you see that I could never forget you,
That My love burns for you night and day.

Return to purity in your suffering for me.
Let nothing satisfy you in your longing.
In the end, I shall be your reward, as you shall be mine, as we shall be one, in our love, forever.

This dream also cries out to the heart of Israel. Oh Israel,
Open your eyes and see the one who was pierced for you.
See the Lamb the was slain at your feet in your place.
Hear His cry of unending love for you.
Return to Him, He waits for you now.

Deception Of The Times

Bayo Omoyiola

scroll_of_david@yahoo.com

I write to warn you of the deception of the times. The spirit of seduction and lies, betrayal and self justification seem to be everywhere. We should be warned lest we fall into these things. Lets pray and cover ourselves with the blood of Jesus. Let us trust in its saving power and Jesus will save us.

The spirit of blasphemy is also everywhere and many have been deceived to think some have blasphemed against the Holy Spirit while they have not. The truth is that the people who have committed this sin can no longer feel God. They are cut away from God and cannot be restored. They have seared minds and are doomed for eternity being sons of perdition. This ones have sinned but those who still feel God’s conviction and repent have not committed that sin. Therefore do not be deceived. If a prophet sins and repents he shall be forgiven. His post shall be restored back unto him. Bur let us hold on truth lest we fall short of the mercy and the grace of God.

Now are the days of the end time nearer to us than we expected. Let us therefore seek God more. Watching and praying, guarding ourselves from the enemy who goes to and fro daily roaring like a wounded lion seeking whom he will devour. Let us rise up in faith and attack him with faith for its only with faith that we overcome the world. Therefore let the just live by faith just as it is written the just shall live by faith.

These are the days of the fullness of hell but these are also the days of the fullness of God’s power on the surface of the earth. Therefore let us seek God more than ever, desiring more of him daily and he will pour more of himself into us. Selah

Day Of The Vengeance

The Day Of The Vengeance Of God Has Come
riverpub@sgci.com
February 6, 2004

Break forth into joy. Rejoice unreservedly. Dance the dance of victory over the enemy of your soul. I have brought you through on dry ground. I have resisted the devil for your sake. I have triumphed over injustice. I have demonstrated My power within your midst and will continue to do so until your whole household lines up with My purposes.

Position yourself for great gain. Put in place those things in the Spirit realm that will facilitate the release of Kingdom authority into your midst. Invite the Spirit of the risen Lord to come. Welcome kingdom authority, for I have established Myself within you and I am parading forth in glory.

You will see the power of God in your midst to heal the sick and raise the dead. You will see that I have declared release to the captives, complete release from the works of darkness. I have triumphed over injustice and established My standard of holiness in your midst. Peace be unto you. My peace I give unto you, not as the world gives, but a peace that passes the test of understanding. Parade forth in glory. Walk in integrity and you will see unprecedented power released. Signs and wonders, healings and miracles will be the norm.

Get ready for an abundant outpouring of power in your midst, power to deliver. Reap the harvest. Take the sickle and go into the harvest fields to reap a great harvest of souls for the Kingdom of God.

You think that I cannot establish My rule in your midst, that I am subject to the powers that be, but I tell you that I am usurping the power of the wicked and setting up kingdom authority in your midst, and I shall, indeed, bring the whole house into order according to My principles. Flesh shall be powerless to rule. I will strip the flesh and bring to nothing its attempts to assert itself. You will see such a demonstration of My power to dismantle the hierarchical rule of the flesh man, that you will stand in awe. You will see its power smashed and its structure crumble.

This is the day when I shall smash the kingdoms of men and render them powerless. This is the day when I shall dethrone kings and put to nothing their rulership. This is the day when the works of the flesh will crumble and be counted as rubbish. Rejoice and sing, for the day of the vengeance of God has come and the captives shall be set free, prison doors shall be opened, and the blind shall see. Miracle after miracle shall be released and whole households shall come into holiness in this day.

Freedom reigns. Sing, "Holiness unto the Lord." Sing, "Hallelujah, bless the Lord God Almighty who was, and is, and is to come! Bless His holy name, forever, and ever!"

Household Salvation

This Is The Day Of Household Salvation

February 4, 2004

Great strides have been taken for My kingdom. I have moved My pawns into place. They will be the lightgivers. They will usher in the harvest of souls coming in at a rapid pace. They will be those whose hearts and lives line up with My will and purpose.

Never before has there been a day like it! I am stripping the haughty and bringing them to their knees. I am moving in an unprecedented way to line things up with My will and purpose. I am moving mightily to take down strongholds of the enemy over your household. Yes, I am at work setting the captives free, so rejoice, and do not let the enemy steal your joy. I am lifting the stigma off your household, lifting the ban, and you and your offspring shall walk in holiness.

There will be no power that is able to hold back what I am doing in this day. I shall take your children into the deep things of My Spirit. I shall gird them up and set their feet upon the Rock of Christ. This is the day of promises fulfilled. What I have promised, I will do, says the Lord your God. I shall set the whole house in order.

So rejoice and sing, for I have moved you into the miraculous. I have opened the doors of Heaven and released such a display of My handiwork, you will stand in awe. Anticipate great things. Expect great things from a great God who neither sleeps nor slumbers. All your children shall be blessed of the Lord. All your children shall rise up in My authority in this day. Your youth shall be put on display as those who have gone through the fire and come through to the other side. This is the day of household salvation. This is the day when I shall raise the dead. This is the day when I shall put the house in order and present to the world a Bride without spot or wrinkle.

Rest in the assurance that I am able to do all things, that I am able to put the accuser of the brethren to flight. I am setting things up in your household according to My good pleasure. Even your sons and your daughters will recognize that I have moved in and taken over.

Resign yourself to trusting Me for the details of what I am doing. Know that I am looking after specific detail. I will break the power that tries to interfere with My purposes. Your sons and your daughters shall walk out in complete health, for I shall break the cycle that has been at work and nullify damage. I shall mount your youth up with wings as the eagle and they shall take flight. Grace and peace shall be poured out upon them.

Keep these promises in mind. Do not lose hold of them, for they are coming to pass at a rapid pace. I have granted to you My peace. Rest assured that I am on the move to bring your household into line with My will and purpose. I will demonstrate My power in your midst in such a way that all will stand up and take notice. I will transfer wealth and equity from one to the next and tap into resources within the confines of the home. Watch and you will see how I have made My way known among you. Watch and see how I take apart the existing hierarchy of rulership and establish My rule. This is the work I am doing in your midst by the power of My Spirit. This is the stepping stone to ushering in My glory. All households of the Earth shall be blessed. All households shall function by the standard that I am erecting in this day.

Great joy is coming to your household, great joy beyond what you could imagine. Did I not say that I would break the power of the intimidator? Did I not say that I would apprehend the enemy and move My standard of holiness into place? Well this is what is happening amongst those who put their trust in Me. I am sovereignly moving to establish righteousness in the Earth through one household to the next. Great are My ways, says the Lord your God. Great are My ways, high above the ways of men!

Resist the devil and he will flee. Stand strong against the power of wickedness and you will see the enemy flee. This is the day of household salvation. Whole households shall be brought to the foot of the cross. Whole households shall line up with My will and purposes. This is the day to reinforce My counsel in the midst of the people. This is the day when unrighteousness shall be replaced with holiness unto the Lord. Watch Me bring everyone of your household into obedience. I will deal with the flesh man. I will pronounce it dead and buried. Watch to see as I crucify it completely and birth forth a new man in Christ.

Rejoice, for those things you never dreamed possible are coming into view. I am moving the promises forward. It won't be long before many are fulfilled as prophesied. There is a swift wind blowing. It will sweep across the land to bring multitudes into the Kingdom of God.

Abundant Finances

I Shall Release Abundant Finances For The Work Of The Ministry
riverpub@sgci.com
February 2, 2004
Mountains formerly looming up before you will be smashed. I will take the hammer drill to their base and break them apart piece by piece. This is the work I am doing. I am smashing down the altars of men and raising up a standard of righteousness in the midst of the people. Changes are in the air. I have a timetable that I am working with and things will move ahead according to schedule, so do not be anxious, but trust that at the right time, the changes promised you will come into place.

Prosper and be in good health! I am leading you into position. I am relocating you and you will be a light to those around you. I will reestablish you. Though you be uprooted from those things that are familiar to you, I am establishing you on the heights and you will be fluent in the movement of My Spirit. Great shall be your reward for staying steadfast in Me, for continuing on in the hope given you. I will thrust you out of the quiet zone and move you forth into prime position, so move with the flow.

Do not view what looks like a negative report as a threat to what I am doing. I have all things in control, all things in My hands, and I am able to cause all things to work together for good. Wrestle not with outstanding issues. Bask in My love, rest in My presence, and I will lead you out in a way you least expect. I will lead you out through a door of hope. I am ushering you on and into the abundance promised.

I will cause you and your household to prosper. As I promised, I will direct finances and the wealth of the wicked to be passed into the hands of My offspring. Just as I said, I am opening doors of opportunity to walk you into the abundance of good things I have in store for you. Houses and land will come into your jurisdiction. I am passing deeds into your name. Monies with which to purchase will be put into your account. This is the day of change, of reversal. I am emptying the vaults into the hands of My Elect and I will pour out an increase in stamina and good health along with an increase in material goods. Keep in mind that this is something of My doing, and not of the works of your own hands, and though you do not understand the implications of what I am doing, thrust Me to be at the helm, to be steering the ship.

You know that there are many who consider themselves in ministry and solicit funds for their endeavors, however, in this day, those who truly are Mine will have no need to solicit monies from others, for I shall open the windows of Heaven and release abundant finances for the work of the ministry. And you ask what that ministry might be? To house the homeless, to provide shelter to the poor wanderer. This is the ministry that I am raising up in this day. I will provide expertise to those of My choosing to prepare houses of refuge.

So go with the flow and do not back down. I am moving you on to invest time and money into accommodation for the needy. I will finance the endeavor. I will release funds to you in a way you did not expect. I will open doors into the storehouses of My treasures. All belongs to Me. Do you think I cannot release it according to My good purposes? I will give you a glimpse of what I am doing. I will push back the veil and show you My purposes. You shall house the lowly. I will increase your borders and expand your influence far and wide. I will release to you abundant finances for the task at hand and ahead. I shall distribute wealth to you to do the things I am laying out before you. All things will work together. I will provide everything needed for the projects. I will increase buying power. I will give instruction in detail. I will put into the heart of those called to this ministry, My heart for the poor, for the down-and-out, and I will provide them with every good thing. I will instruct them in the set-up

My Promises Are Sure
Shirley Lise

riverpub@sgci.com
February 7, 2004

I am giving you a time of freedom, a time to break from tradition. I have assigned to you much and I have much more in store for you. I will provide you with favor. Just as I promised, I will move you into areas of expertise. One by one the promises shall come into fruition So do not believe the negative report of the enemy, but believe My promises. They are sure.

Remember when I said that all things are going to be exposed in this day and that all outstanding issues will be dealt with? These things are coming to pass within your midst. Those things that have been out of line are being lined up. Outstanding issues in relationships are being dealt with, for I am bringing into accountability those who need to be changed. So you see, that issues concerning the marriage bed are being dealt with. And you will see the issue of your sons and daughters needing their lives lined up with My will and purpose is also being addressed.

I truly am on the move to put the household in order. I will shift things until they line up perfectly with My plumb line. So do not be afraid of the shakings, but know that I am in them, and that through them the household will come into perfect order.

You will walk on and into every avenue of expression promised you This is not too difficult for Me and it is the desire of My heart. So know that I have not left you or forgotten you, but I am carrying out every promise given you, that My promises are sure. You will enter into fullness of joy when you see the wonderful things I have done. You will rejoice with great joy at the liberty given to your sons and daughters as I lift them up and make it known far and wide that I am the Lord their God who will stop at nothing to bring them into the land of plenty and establish them amongst My Elect.

Those who wrote off these "coming up out of the wilderness," will be awakened to their senses, for I shall make a display of My splendor through these, My chosen vessels, that will turn the hearts of many to the Lord. I shall use them to usher in My kingdom and to establish righteousness in the midst of the people. These are My "called out" ones, ones I have called out of complacency and into a life of passion for the King. Watch and you will see these things come to pass shortly.

Day of Vengeance of Our God

Carla Rickard

eastcst@nbnet.nb.ca

I'd seen a torpedo making no sound under the deepest parts of the waters. The propeller is spinning silently. Its heading in direct line of its target. The enemy's radar can't pick it up.

The Lord gave me the meaning of the vision:

Today! Today! Is the Day of Vengeance of Your God. I have picked and appointed your day to set you free from the devices and bondages of the enemy. You have been taken captive for you are at war. But I AM the LORD OF THE BATTLE and I have set a strategy for your release. This is the year where the captives will be set free.

There is a stealth attack coming to the enemy. His camp is going to be destroyed and the spoils are Mine. He will pay with interest that which he has stolen from you. The Torpedo of the Lord has already been sent and it is right on target. It will strike with great destruction on the strongholds of the enemy, setting free the prisoners of War! This is the year the captives will be set free! The Lord is delivering you out of the hand of your enemy. His plan has been executed and the enemy's camp will be plundered.

"I give you the spoils of war for you have been cheerfully obedient, giving a tenth of everything back to Me. Because you have BELIEVED ME and NOT FAINTED, I shall take the spoils and deliver them into your hands because you have been faithful in the little. This is the year where I will make you ruler over much!"

"I have set the offensive plan in motion. I paid the price for your freedom. Rejoice because your Deliverance is at hand! I have come to destroy the works of the enemy. I have come to bring Life and Life more abundantly. This is the year where the prisoners of War are set free. Be convinced! For I am the Lord of Hosts and I have set Power against the enemy. My plan is executed and he doesn't see it coming. For his weapons are weak and hold no power. But I AM strong! Vengeance is Mine! And I have heard the cries of the oppressed. I AM DELIVERING YOU OUT OF ALL YOUR DISTRESSES!"

Deep calls unto Deep!

Then the Lord spoke to me again and asked me what have I tithed? I listed some things and He said to me " tithe the fruit"

I began a word study that is only an outline of the things he is revealing. Perhaps we can call it an introduction

First Fruits

February 6 2004

The Lord dropped this in my spirit tonight. Abel brought the first fruits to the Lord and it was pleasing to the Lord.

(Malachi Chapter 3)

Then the Lord told me bring ALL the tithe into the storehouse and He would pour out a blessing ….

We can tithe the FRUIT

The Image In You
Carla Rickard

February 2 2004

You have heard that My Word goes forth and accomplishes that which I have sent it to do. But you say to Me " Lord it isn’t working, what am I doing wrong?"

I say to you " My people perish for a lack of knowledge. Now sit at My Feet and I will teach you My ways for My Ways are Higher than your Ways, My thoughts are not your thoughts. I will teach you ALL things by My Holy Spirit."

I AM giving you the framework to call by Faith that which is not as though it were. I have called you to be imitators of Me. So do as I have done. Learn of Me for My Yoke is easy. My work is easy. Do not try to do these things in your own power because you will have allowed yourself to fall into the trap of witchcraft. But in all wisdom and understanding be Imitators of Me and I will lead your feet on the path of righteousness, ordering these things by the Word you speak which is My Word through you.

GENESIS 11

[4] And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.*

[5] And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded.
[6] And the LORD said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.

My dear child, first remember that there will be no name higher than My Name, do not struggle and desire to make you a name whether for My Sake or the Sake of the Ministry I have given you. For it shall never be. It will fail because only I shall be exalted. Remember your enemy wanted a name and fell.

I have given Power to Image. The enemy also knows this and will steal Righteous Images from you. He wishes to lord over the Image and have authority over it. He always attempts to steal the vision or get you to put it down because he knows Vision births Life. You have seen this through countless ways on the earth. He has neutralized My Body in certain areas because is convincing them that Image is not of God. And you have assumed that is it not of Me too because you have read in My Word that they will make an image of the beast in Revelation. But the first image came from Me for I seen you and I called you into being by My Word. You were made in my likeness and My image. But I tell you now. IMAGE is from Me, how it is used, will depend on you and if you believe Me. Bring back the Image to Me and I will renew it for you. I will give you holy Images in which to speak in faith toward. Do you see how powerful the Image truly is? The enemy desires to have it. That is why I have instructed you not to make any image with wood and stones. That is why I have instructed you to cast down the high places in your heart that promote pride by the image inside of you. Be careful of which image you choose to place in your heart. One leads to prosperity, the other to destruction.

2 Corinthians 10:5
Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;*

My Word and My Image work hand in hand. Imitate Me

Now that I have told you what the enemy is doing you can set your face like flint towards his devices. Come now and focus of the things that are good and from your heavenly Father. I have spoken to you by the Living Word. I have given you manna. Today I desire that you sit and speak to me about the Image that I would have you hold in your heart. To those who I have called to do, grab hold of the image and visualize what I have said to you. Get a picture. Get the right one!

Proverbs 29:18

Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

Then call those things that are not yet, as though they were. Come into agreement with My Word. Come into agreement with Me on My Vision for you.

I caution you again so that you keep this in remembrance. Do not look to make a name. That is wrong desire and motivation and is not of Me. Use what I have said to examine yourself often for what I have called you to do is a great work . The enemy will come and tempt you with pride and fame.

LUKE 4
[6] And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.
[7] If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.
[8] And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

But I have in this moment made a way of escape for you if you will determine in your heart to follow only after Me.

1 Corinthians 10:13
There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

1 Timothy 6:9
But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

I have come to encourage you My People, and also to remind and warn you of the devices of the enemy. Bring the Image, bring the vision, bring the Word spoken over you to Me and I will give you Wisdom to Do My Commands.

Speak only what I have given you to speak. This is for your protection for then you abide under the shadow of the Almighty. Listen closely to what I have said:

Joshua 1:8
This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.

If you can see, if you can observe, if you imagine, ALL I HAVE SAID, YOU my Child will make your way prosperous and you will have good success.

Luke 22
[27] For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.
[28] Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations.
[29] And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;

You Are My Heart
Carla Rickard

February 1, 2004
eastcst@nbnet.nb.ca
I love you with a jealous love. I love you with a passion and compassion. I AM your Father. Who has done this thing? Who has hurt your heart? Who has abused your love? Return to me for I will heal your heart. Do not runaway from the One Who Loves you and will completely heal the pain. Listen closely as I speak softly in your ear " It has come to pass" I have faith in you my sweet one. You are as tender as the limbs on the branch as they birth forth new life. Will I allow anyone to cause you harm? I AM your Father and all good things come from Me to you.

Show me who has tormented you with the lies I am angry at you. Show me and I will show you My tenderness toward you. I will show you how far from Truth are these lies.

I always remember you. For I never sleep and all the day and night I consider you, I meditate on how much you have grown; how much you are looking more and more like your Brother. I have told your Brother these things that have hurt you and He will bring the healing balm quickly to you. He knows those very things you have experienced. Yes, He came quickly and told me of all you are going through. Don't go it alone and don't blame yourself. You are growing up and there are many pangs that come with it. You have just learned a lesson that everyone who says they are your sister and your brother are not of a right spirit, you are learning that there are those who would sneak in the back door who are not in My Family at all! These are thieves and I AM not a thief.

I am proud of you, you are My very own. I see how you purpose in your heart to act just like Me! You love those who persecute you, you desire to show Mercy in every situation. Oh how you are precious in my sight! For that I will give you nations for your inheritance.

Don't fret about those who have hurt you. They are already judged by the words they have spoken. Forgive them for your sake. Release them to Me. I will take care of it. I will take care of your family. I will take care of your church. I can't do anything though until you put it down in My capable hands. They don't understand you and your love for Me. But I tell you a truth, I desire compassion not sacrifice and in that I say to you My Daughter, Well done, Enter into the Rest of your Father. Enter in to the Presence of Your King. I exalt over you with singing for you have brought great Joy to My Heart because you have allowed your heart to be tender.

You are a risk taker. You have risked all that was precious in your own sight to chase after Me. Today I let you catch Me! I will give you the Desire of your heart. Come let Me pour out My Love into your aching heart. Soon there will be Joy for your sorrow is shared by Your Brother. He has wept with you. And He is rejoicing with you! Come, receive your Reward. I AM your Reward.

Day of Vengeance of the LORD
Becky McLendon

After a week of having a bad cold, I mustered up the courage to put on my walking clothes and shoes and take up my trekking pole to take advantage of the cool dry morning air. I looked forward to a "nice devotional time" with the Lord on this walk, but He had other plans.

I had been hearing for several days the words CONFIDENCE and AUTHORITY in my spirit and I knew He would confirm them more with a word. He spoke that word this morning, and I will share what has been permitted for this day. This word is NOT directed to His flock, but was a word to be prophesied out loud to the winds to be carried wherever the Spirit of God chooses to carry it. It is a word speaking against those who trouble the flock, who set up obstacles in the pathways and accuse and attempt to curse the Israel of God.

It is the sin of Ham and the sin of Balaam all wrapped up in one. As you recall, Ham, Noah's son, went into his father's tent and discovered him lying there naked and drunk. He immediately ran out and "told" his siblings, not sparing one detail. (Apparently he had spied out the entire scenario, so as to get the details "right"). What was Ham's sin? And what difference did it make—after all wasn't NOAH the one who was "in the wrong?" So why did Noah curse Ham, and why did God allow that curse to stand?

Ham had "snooped around and discovered Noah's nakedness and drunkenness," and set out to expose and accuse the one God had established His covenant with. Trouble is HAM had NO AUTHORITY or ANOINTING to do so. So he was guilty of "breaking and entering" without a proper search warrant. He conducted his search because he had a "suspicious hunch" and probably resented his father's position in the Lord (his position was not as high as Noah's, so he resented his father anyway.) He resented the covenant between Noah and God and the author of that resentment was Satan himself, who resents to this day the covenant between God and His people.

He did not have God's authority to search Noah's tent (his secret parts). He thought he had "permission from God" to snoop, but in reality it was Satan driving him to snoop and get gossip against his father. Why? SATAN wanted Noah taken down so the plan of God and the seed of God would be stopped.

So rather than covering his father's sin with fervent, effectual, righteous prayer, he EXPOSED and ACCUSED and made his father a public spectacle before the rest of the family, without the authority of God to do so.

In this public exposure, he tried to curse his father but instead, he touched God's anointed with intent to bring him harm. In turn, Noah cursed Ham with the curse with which Ham tried to curse Noah. Why? Was it because Noah didn't see anything wrong with what he had "done" in the tent? NO! It was because, as God's anointed, Noah had the authority and the confidence in the anointing to curse his own flesh and blood who had violated God's anointing! Noah saw through to the enemy's plot to destroy the plan of God and His lineage! As for Noah's sin, Noah would go before God with that. It was not Ham's job to expose it; it was Noah's responsibility before God to confess it.

Balaam was PAID to go curse Israel. God became Balaam's worst enemy, thus preventing that mission of Satan against His own people. Balaam came to the brilliant conclusion that you CANNOT CURSE GOD'S ISRAEL, even if you see them "sinning" every day. Why? Because, as he said in Numbers 23: 8: "How can I curse whom God hath not cursed (I do not have the AUTHORITY to curse them). How shall I defy whom the Lord hath not defied? (How can I come against whom the Lord hath not opposed)?

He had NO authority from the Lord to do so. He said in Numbers 23:12, "Must I not take heed to speak that which the Lord hath put in my mouth?" He goes on to say that these people (God's Israel) cannot come under any enchantment or divination…no curse can be pronounced against them because 1) God has not regarded iniquity in them and 2) they have in their MIDST, the SHOUT OF A KING. These cursers and accusers are being told to GIVE IT UP, it CANNOT BE DONE. But many will not and will be cursed.

There is a word in Greek kataskopeo that encompasses what God's wrath is being kindled against this day:

kataskopeo signifies a sinister[F2] activity on the part of those who were doing the "spying out." Commenting on the significance of kataskopeo*, F.F. Bruce affirms "The 'spying' (kataskopesai) of the false brothers had no friendly purpose, in Paul's judgment: they wished to put an end to this freedom, to make those who enjoyed it for bondage."*[F3] In the words of Paul, "This matter arose, because some false brothers had infiltrated ["infiltrate," GK. pareiserchomai,[F4] "to slip in, come in, smuggled in, sneaked in"] our ranks to spy on the freedom we have in Christ Jesus and to make us slaves" ["to make slaves," GK. katadouloo*, "to enslave, reduce to slavery, take advantage of"].*

These are the false brethren that Jude speaks of in scripture:

Jude 1:4-19 For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. . . Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities. Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee. But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves. Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core. These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever. And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him. These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage. But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts. These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.

This morning, as I said earlier, the Lord confirmed the words “Confidence” and “Authority” in light of His now-kindled anger against the accuser of the brethren, the unholy spies who creep in and out to see what they can “get” on God’s Israel. They are ever eager to expose God’s Israel and make a public spectacle of them.. There may actually BE a sin that needs to be exposed, but these have no “authority” to bring the exposure. Only the Spirit of God has this authority. These cannot curse the Israel of God.

God has spoken by His word this day, “You who have cursed My Israel without My authority; you who have delivered rebukes and reprovals but NOT in My Name against Mine anointed ones, I AM against you this day! You have touched Mine anointed ones and NOW I will repay.

“I am speaking to My anointed ones against whom you have come, and I say to them: “Protect them no more with your intercessions and demonstrations of love toward them, for I will NOT hear your prayers, nor will I be in that “love” you want to show them. I no longer protect them, nor do I intercede on their behalf. They have no advocate for their cause and grace has run out for them. They will be cursed with the curse they have tried to curse My anointed ones with. They are judged with the judgment they have tried to judge My anointed ones with.

“Again, to My saints, when you hear Me say pray no more for these, do not pray! To pray without My authority to pray will make your prayers unrighteous. You are going to see the reward of the wicked: strokes and comas will silence them. Devastating diseases and circumstances will befall them. Death will come suddenly to some. In this day, however, death will be the most merciful way out for these, and many will beg to die, but cannot.

Revelation 9:5*: And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented* five months*: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.*

“Court is in session, and My Enoch generation—the seventh from Adam—will rise up and execute this judgment with my full authority and in quiet confidence. It will be My vengeance upon a people.

“Get ready to hear Me on this.”

Amen and Amen.

Dream Interpretation

Dreams & Dream Interpretation

I believe that many of God’s people are beginning to experience an increase in dreams and visions. Why is this happening? How can we know what the Lord is trying to communicate to us through dreams?

As many of you already know, dreams are very symbolic in nature. They are metaphors or dark sayings.

Why does the Lord speak to us in dreams that are full of symbolism? Why doesn’t He just speak clearly to us so that we can know exactly what He is saying to us? To answer this question, please allow me to ask another question. Why did the Lord speak in parables when He ministered to the multitudes?

Matt. 13:10-11 – And the disciples came and said to Him, “Why do You speak to them in parables?” He answered and said to them, “Because it has been given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given.”

Jesus told His disciples that He had given them the ability to understand the parables or the mysteries that He was speaking to the multitudes. “It has been given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven!” I believe the answer is the same regarding why the Lord speaks to us in dreams. He has given us the ability to understand the symbolism and to unveil the mysteries that He speaks to us through dreams. This is absolutely astounding to me! We have the God-given ability to unfold the mysteries of the kingdom by the power of His Holy Spirit and His written word.

A dream is no different than a prophetic word, a word of knowledge or a word of wisdom. It’s just being filtered to us in a different form.

The Lord is not limited in the ways by which He speaks to His people. He spoke to Moses through a burning bush. He spoke to Saul on the road to Damascus in an open vision. He spoke to Joseph in a dream saying, “Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take to you Mary your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. And she will bring forth a Son, and you shall call His name Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins.” The Lord spoke to Abraham in a vision saying, “Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield, your exceedingly great reward. Look now toward heaven and count the stars if you are able to number them.” And He said to him, “So shall your descendants be.” These are just a few examples of how the Lord ministered to His servants through dreams and visions.

Polycarp, a man believed to have been a direct disciple of the Apostle John, was given a dream that revealed how he would be killed in Rome and burned at the stake. In 155 A.D., at the age of 86, Polycarp was martyred for his faith just as his dream had depicted.

St. Augustine lists several of his dreams in his writings and he declared that they were an important way in which God spoke to him and to mankind.

Jerome, a translator of the Latin Bible, was converted as a result of the Lord appearing to him in a dream.

God is not limited in the ways that He chooses to speak to His people.

Numbers 12:6 – Then he said, “Hear now My words; if there is a prophet among you, I, the Lord, make Myself known to him in a vision; I speak to him in a dream.”

I do not believe that dreams and visions are limited to those who walk in the prophetic office. I believe that all of God’s people have the ability to dream and hear from the Lord.

Joel 2:28-29 – “And it shall come to pass afterward that I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh; Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions. And also on My menservants and on My maidservants I will pour out My Spirit in those days.”

The Lord has promised to “pour out” His Spirit upon all flesh! There is no limitation to what we can and will do when He pours out His Spirit upon all of mankind. People who have never prophesied before will find themselves prophesying in the midst of the congregation. Children who have never had a vision will see into the realm of the spirit and declare what they are seeing to those around them. God’s people will dream dreams and have visions! All the limitations will be broken off so that the Lord can communicate His divine purposes to His people.

There are basically two different types of dreams:

1) Intrinsic Dreams: About 95%-98% of the dreams we have are intrinsic, meaning that they are talking about you and what is going on in your heart. These are dreams that reveal what is going on in your life and they deal with the issues of your heart. They deal with the mind, will and emotions. They are all about you.

In Genesis 37:1-11, Joseph had two dreams which fall into this particular category.

2) Extrinsic Dreams: About 2%-5% of our dreams are extrinsic. An extrinsic dream talks about real outer situations instead of about you.

Extrinsic dreams sometimes reveal murders, airplane crashes, earthquakes, theft, or rapes before they actually happen. Pharaoh’s dream about the fat and thin cows was an extrinsic dream speaking about the coming famine.

I personally believe that our intimacy with Jesus will have a great impact upon our ability to hear from the Lord through dreams, visions, prophecy, etc. The greater the intimacy, the greater will be our level of ability to hear, see and receive from the Holy Spirit.

Dreams:

1) Have the ability to reveal our calling or ministry gift to us.
2) Have the ability to bring correction, edification, and warning to the body of Christ.
3) Can be prophetic, revealing the future and giving us insight into what lies ahead.
4)Can place a spirit of intercession upon us or give us a burden to pray for a particular person or event so that problems can be averted.

God created man with the ability to dream and see into the realm of the spirit. Dreams have a way of bringing emotional release and stability to man's physical body. We may not understand all the functions and intricate details of our physical makeup, but our heavenly Father thoroughly understands. He created man with the capability to communicate with him in a variety of ways. Let's not put God in a box and give the religious excuse that God doesn't communicate to His people in dreams and visions today, because that is not compatible with the word of God. One third of the Bible speaks of dreams and visions. If dreams and visions are not important for us in this dispensation of time, why did the Holy Spirit take up so much space in His word writing about them?

How can we interpret the dreams that God gives to us? Do we need to go to the psychic down the street or should we go to the village witch doctor?

Daniel 2:28 – "There is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and He has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what will be in the latter days."

James 1:5 – If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him.

Dream interpretation comes from the Spirit of God. As we ask the Holy Spirit to reveal the interpretation to us, He will be faithful to respond to our request. He will reveal the meanings behind the symbols. He will unveil the mysteries that He desires to make known unto us. He will give us eyes to see and ears to hear what His Spirit is speaking through our dreams and visions.

Driving Dream

John Martin

In my dream I was driving a car that had other people in it though I can not say how many nor was I aware of any particular person though I felt that I knew them all.

We were traveling on a freeway that was 3 or 4 lanes wide and only went in one direction. All traffic on this roadway was going in the same direction and traffic was nearly bumper to bumper but we were moving along at a good speed.

Directly ahead of us in the distance was the outline of a city and even though it was a good distance away I could see a lot of detail as though we were much closer. I was aware that the direction of the city was south. To my left were several railroad tracks, (how many I cannot be sure but it seemed like 3 or 4 at least. Just beyond the tracks seemed to be a barrier or mountain that prevented me from seeing further east. What it was is not clear. To my right which would have been west was scenery like woodsy suburban area with a few scattered houses but mostly they were partially obscured by foliage and trees of the type that lose their leaves in the fall. There were open meadows and swampy areas and streams that were running near the top of their banks.

Suddenly as my eyes were fixed on the road ahead and the skyline of the city I saw what appeared as an explosion that nearly leveled a whole section of the city. In almost the same instant I became aware that the railroad tracks to my left were crowded with rail cars all having been derailed and torn up until it looked as though a child had walked into granddads train room and took all the little cars and smashed them and dumped them back on the tracks where some of them were standing on end pointing straight up in the air. No sooner did my eyes take in that horror but that more explosions seemed to be going off in the city ahead then cars started going out of control as though something was exploding in them and causing them to crash into other cars. All this seemed to happen in a matter of no more than 10 seconds. Suddenly all traffic was at a standstill and not a single engine seemed to be running.

People were out of their cars and were heading on foot, back in the direction they had come from. (probably heading home) there were so many people all pushing and shoving and shouting at each other. It seemed too big of a number to count.

I do not remember getting out of the car but found myself in the midst of this mass stampede and was aware that my passengers were following me. It seemed as though we might be trampled.

Suddenly a shadowy figure (more of a presence than a person) appeared close to my right shoulder and said softly in my ear “it might be a good idea to turn off here and take a different route.

At first I thought it was someone I knew but later realized that this was the Holy Spirit who’s presence and direction I’ve begun to sense more clearly lately.

I turned to the left leaving the roadway having had to climb over a guard rail and then out into this meadow with some tall grass and some that seemed to have been grazed down by animals. Then I found myself wading through waist deep water and out again until we saw a house in a secluded area that was all landscaped and had people that were very relaxed and did not seem to be aware that anything unusual had happened. As we approached hoping for some fresh water and a little food (I do not know how much time had expired but knew we had nothing to eat and were very tired.) These people, some of whom had been sitting in lounge chairs got to their feet and others came out of the house and some had guns and others clubs and other objects in their hands and were waving them in warning to us not to come near. This happened several times and I can remember crossing swampy areas in waist deep water and then forging across swift moving streams. And by this time even being pursued by some people that did not want us even in the area. My last memory was of starting into another stream when someone to my left was struck by an object and fell dead in the water. I do not know who they were but was certain that it was one of those following me who had been riding in the car with me. At this point I awoke from my sleep.

This is the understanding the Lord has given me.

The city ahead was Christian City. The visible manifestation of what Christians have built and applied God's name. It looked very much like a prosperous city of industry hardly distinguishable from any U.S. city one might observe.

The cars represent ministries of small in size but all having the same focus, which is to build in Christian City rather than in the kingdom of God, which is without observation (Luke 17:20-21)

The trains represent larger ministries that are or think themselves to be on the fast track of what God is doing in the earth today.

The wall or barrier to the left or east represents our inability to see beyond the large ministries into Zion or what God is really doing (the city made without hands who's builder and maker is God). This is only found individually in the "secret place with Him".

The explosions and fire and resultant destruction all pertain to the earlier revelation He gave me of imminent judgment coming upon the Church.

The people who seemed to be following me though I never actually saw them represent all those who are also led solely of the Holy Spirit and when He leads there is no confusion and the ability to immediately respond to His direction.

The most interesting aspect of this dream vision was the homes we approached for help.
They did not even seem aware of what had happened and were only interested in protecting their turf. The Lord has impressed on me that these represent denominations who are holding doctrinal ground on only a few key points that separate them from other streams. They are not open to revelation beyond their present understanding of scripture. Therefore must drive off those who would approach who might warn them of the rapidly approaching doom or challenge their doctrinal stance.

I believe these will very quickly become open to revelation when they observe what God has done to those who use His name for their own benefit.

The streams and swamps represent obstacles that must be forcibly overcome to arrive at the real City of God.

Finally the fallen comrade. A few hours after waking from this dream vision I received notice that a key couple within our fellowship was withdrawing from us and they would be seeking another Church.

The north and south directions that I was aware of are spoken of in this scripture the Spirit revealed to me.

(Ezek 20:46-48 NKJV) "Son of man, set your face toward the south; preach against the south and prophesy against the forest land, the South, {47} "and say to the forest of the South, 'Hear the word of the LORD! Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour every green tree and every dry tree in you; the blazing flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be scorched by it. {48} "All flesh shall see that I, the LORD, have kindled it; it shall not be quenched."' "

Seeking and serving His kingdom,

Discerning The Spirit Of Anti-Christ

Clay Sikes

Never in the history of the Church has discernment been more important to the Body of Christ. It is a most needed gift of all the gifts of the Spirit. With each passing day we are closer to the triumphant return of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and with each passing day the enemy's tactics of deception grow. The spirit of anti-Christ is not coming (future tense), but has already come (past tense) (1 John 4:3). It is naïve to believe that we are not all subject to being deceived by this spirit; hence, the importance of knowing what this spirit is all about. Knowledge of this massively deceiving spiritual force is critical in this hour. The scripture below should lay a strong foundation of the potential to deceive, "even the elect."

Matthew 24:11, 24
"Many false prophets will arise and will mislead many... "For false Christs and false prophets will arise and will show great signs and wonders, so as to mislead, if possible, even the elect."

Let us begin this study by identifying where the anti-Christ spirit will levy its first major influence in our lives – OUR FLESH! This spirit will always appeal to our inadequacies, our often-poor self-image, lack of success in health, spirituality, ministry, finances, marriage, business, etc., It will offer knowledge, identity, self worth, stability, purpose, and supposedly destiny. The anti-Christ spirit appeals to the worldliness in us - often a worldliness that we do not recognize as being such. It is almost as if one must experience an attack of this spirit to get an understanding of its power. I speak from first hand experience: I have a testimony. Grasp the words of the following scriptures – "Many will follow their sensuality, and because of them the way of truth will be maligned; and their GREED will exploit you with false words…"

II Peter 2:1-3
"But false prophets also arose among the people, just as there will also be false teachers among you, who will secretly introduce destructive heresies...Many will follow their sensuality, and because of them the way of the truth will be maligned; 3 and in their GREED they will exploit you with false words..".

The spirit of anti-Christ is a spiritual force that always leads us away from Jesus. As stated, it lures us with supposed spiritual leadings that appeal to our flesh. The telltale sign of this spirit is that we will be asked to compromise Jesus in some seemingly small way. It is also of importance to know that this spirit is not aimed at the world, but rather God's own people. It will always attempt to exploit our impatience, while those being used to exploit us will do so out of their own "GREED." Greed is not so subtle - it is there to be seen should we care to look! Often our spiritual naivety will cause us to overlook this less than subtle factor. Perhaps we begin to understand why "the children of darkness are wiser than the children of light."

I John 4:1
"Dear friends, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. This is how you can recognize the Spirit of God; Every spirit that acknowledges that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, but every spirit that does not acknowledge Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of anti-Christ, which you have heard is coming and even now is already in the world."

Here is the acid test. What does "every spirit that DOES NOT acknowledge Jesus" really mean? When we take actions, without the leading of the Spirit, we are NOT "acknowledging Jesus" through those actions. We are moving in our own strength and purpose. When we represent those actions to be God-purposed and God-motivated we have fallen victim to the delusional force of the anti-Christ spirit. Only "he who does the will of the Father," is he who "acknowledges Jesus." When I first saw this connection between I John 4:1 and Matthew 7:21-23 I shouted! Spirit filled Christians who are not Spirit led Christians lead powerless ineffectual works, which are capable of creating chaos in the lives of God's people. But let us take it a step further. What about those who are NOT doing the will of the Father who are prophesying, casting out demons, and performing miracles?

"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the Kingdom of heaven, BUT HE WHO DOES THE WILL OF MY FATHER who is in heaven will enter. Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name cast out demons, and in your name perform many miracles? And then I will declare to them, I never knew you; DEPART FROM ME: YOU WHO PRACTICE LAWLESSNESS" (Matthew 7:21-23).

Matthew 7:21-23 in NIV calls those who are not submitted to the will of the Father, "evildoers." Many well-meaning Spirit-filled Christians are not Spirit-led. Actions that are NOT originated by God's Spirit can be costly, and those who take such actions are highly susceptible to the spirit of anti-Christ. Emphasis is placed upon the external; what the eyes can see and the ears can hear (Isaiah 11:2,3/II Corinthians 10:7).

How can we do the will of the Father if we are not regularly hearing His voice (John 10: 2-4/Romans 8:14)? No doubt you have seen those with extraordinary gifts to preach, heal the sick, do miracles, and yet felt no witness to them as strong men of God? Many prophesy, cast out demons, and perform miracles, yet do not do "the will of the Father." These men, despite their outward appearance, are not walking in the Kingdom Matthew 7:21-23. From my own experiences, I am convinced that many follow the anti-Christ spirit without any knowledge of what spirit they are following. The sin of presumption often hides itself in noble purposes. Presumption is the birth canal for Ishmael. We will address this in more detail later in this study.

Where many are fooled is in seeing the gifts of God operating in men, then naturally assuming that these men are God-sent. If nothing else is understood in this writing, please understand this - the gifts of God are without repentance (Romans 11:29), which means that God freely distributes these gifts just as he does musical talent, athleticism, etc., Men do not always use the gifts according to God's will. Our own tradition will make the following hard to accept. MINISTRY GIFTS CAN AND DO OPERATE OUTSIDE OF GOD'S SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS.

Separating The True From The False

A number of issues will be discussed here that will assist us in discerning the true from the false; and while the points made in this discussion are by no means the only elements of separation, they will point us in the general direction of understanding. We will first discuss obvious observable differences, and then the more subtle ways of discerning differences.

A true prophet will point you to Jesus, and the vision HE HAS PUT IN YOU. A false prophet will point you to himself; his vision, his purpose, his ministry, etc., The vast difference between the true and the false is that the true will always, always point you to the Jesus in you: your calling, your ministry, your purpose, and your destiny. The 'true' can point you to nothing but Jesus…the 'false' can point you to nothing but man. The false prophet will always leave you empty in a crisis, while the true will leave you full. The true prophet speaks to your heart, while the false will excite your eyes and ears. THOSE WHO ARE EASILY DAZZLED ARE PRIME CANDIDATES FOR DECEPTION FROM THE ANTI-CHRIST SPIRIT.

While the following observable difference is not a law, I think it worth mentioning. For some years there has been great favor within the Body of Christ for the works of men and the gifts of God that operate in men, while there has been little emphasis upon the true character of God within those same men. Character seems to have fallen by the wayside as Christians, much like their counter-parts in the world, have given their respect to external gifts and works rather than the internal character of God. In other words, it has been 'what the man is all about' rather than 'who the man really is.' Character is internal, while gifts and works are external. Our character is eternal, our gifts temporal. To which should we show the greatest respect?

What is character in the context of this teaching? Character is an identifying factor in separating the true from the false. Character is a man's testimony - Who he is, and what he is. It is what his life says about him. In God's eyes, we are not defined by the externalities of who we are (our name, works, titles), but rather the internalities of what we are (our true character.) Character is a reflection of heart. Who we are in the worst of times will always reveal us (James 1:1-15).

Our testimony (what we purport to believe) and our life are should reflect one in the same. No man can truly lead you where he has never been. A great indicator between the true and the false is that the 'true' can only teach what is true in their life (their testimony), while the 'false' will attempt to teach, will equal passion, what they have never experienced for themselves. Arthur Burt, in defining revelation states, "Situation must be married to revelation. Until your revelation works in your situation, you do not really have a revelation."

"They overcame him (Satan) by the blood of the Lamb and by THE WORD OF THEIR TESTIMONY" (Revelation 12:11). If our testimony does not match the word (revelation) we preach, teach, and espouse, we are no more than a sounding gong. I can teach salvation because I am saved. I can share salvation because I have experienced it. My word and my testimony are one in the same. A true prophet teaches what he knows from his heart (Luke 6:45), while a false prophet teaches what he knows from his head.

How does our life experience define us? Watchman Nee, in his book Sit, Walk, Stand opens with "If the life of a Christian is to be pleasing to God it must be found properly adjusted to Him IN ALL THINGS. Too often we place the emphasis in our own lives upon the application of this principle to some single detail of our behavior, or of our work for him. Often we fail to appreciate either the extent of the adjustment called for or, at times, even the point from which it should begin. But God measures everything, from start to finish, by the perfections of His Son. Scripture clearly affirms that it is God's good pleasure "to sum up all things in Christ…in whom also we were made a heritage" (Ephesians 1:9-11).

God measures things from start to finish. Our lives, even our past to some extent, represents who we are, and who we are is what dwells within our heart; and what is in our heart is the fruit of our actions past, present, and future. From a practical standpoint, without accountability to our past, there is little room for correction in our future. As we gaze into life's rear-view mirror, the debris from past mistakes should be less and less visible as we travel the road of life. If the debris piles in our immediate past are not less, the lessons and necessary changes from those lessons should indicate that we are following the wrong spirit.

Some of God's greatest revelation comes through our own mistakes. Is this the best way to hear God? Absolutely not! Is it a sure way to hear God? Absolutely! We tend to retain what we have learned through adversity, and as Christians with ordered steps, our mistakes should always serve a powerful teaching purpose. I have repeated the same mistake more than once, with catastrophic results. I followed what appeared to be the right way, which I now know to be the anti-Christ spirit. It appealed to what I considered to be 'my goodness,' my desire to get on with my destiny and purpose instead of waiting on God.

Deception Comes When We Fail To Love Truth

Scripture reveals that failing to have a sincere love of the truth will lead one to embracing deception. If we have been given light and truth, but fail to walk in it, even what we have will be taken away and the Father will consequently send delusion to these saints.

II Thessalonians 2:10-11
"because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. For this reason God will send upon them a deluding influence so that they will believe what is false..."

Other aspects open us up to deception: rebellion against the governmental order of God; harboring idols; and a spirit of unbelief are some of the more evident things. Truth and error will both increase alongside one another during the times in which we live. We must not despise or reject prophecies and teaching, but must carefully examine every word.

Some Who Perform Miracle Healings Are Not Necessarily God's Men

As we delve deeper into understanding, as we previously mentioned, we humans are quick to judge based upon outward appearance though we are warned not to (Isaiah 11:3/II Corinthians 10:7). We are quick to judge good and evil and often that judgment is based upon what we see and what we think to be God.

Be aware in the area of healing, miracles, and other signs and wonders: all that appears to be founded in God IS NOT. While it important to give God the glory for such healings, it is equally important to properly discern the vessel through which such gifts operate. In short, miracles are not a sign of God's unequivocal endorsement of the individual, but rather a sign of His great compassion for His people. There are many within the Body of Christ today who are taking these signs and wonders as God's unmitigated endorsement of the individual and his ministry. There are leaders within the Body who are using these gifts as a platform upon which to pillage the Body for money and support of their personal agendas.

As previously stated, miracles and signs and wonders performed by individuals are no more an indication of God's character in a man than the gifts that beset great musicians, athletes, or scholars – as mentioned, the gifts of God are without repentance, meaning that God can and does bestow His gifts upon whomever He desires. Those who discern properly will quickly recognize the farce that is often being perpetrated upon the unsuspecting Body. The time has come for the unsuspecting Body to awaken to God's call to come in behind the veil and commune with Him; to awaken to the fact that God desires to have communion and relationship with His people. This intimacy produces discernment, which causes us "to know them by their fruit" (good or bad).

God wants a one-on-one relationship with us; a relationship that puts man in complete dependence upon his God with little to no dependence upon man. To the extent we depend upon man, to that same extent we forego God. To the extent we depend upon God, to that same extent we will forgo our dependence upon man. The time has come to be awakened to the gift of discernment that is activated in you as you seek God, spend time with Him, and obey His voice – "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God" (Matthew 4:4). The real character of God is formed in us as we spend time with God allowing a true relationship to develop. If we are not eating the "bread of life" – God's spoken word to us individually, we are missing the most dynamic part of God's design for man while living upon the earth.

Obedience: A Key To Discernment

While there are observable elements of the anti-Christ spirit, there is also a much more reliable method of discerning this spirit.

God made me to rule "my territory," that appointed place and sphere in which only I can rule with competence and the assurance of God's backing. I pray that God draw me to the places that I am assigned to rule and quickly repel me from those places that I am not assigned. I am to work with all my heart, as unto the Lord, in the places of God's assignment. To step out of my assigned boundary is to step out of God's will…my joy stops, toil and strain start, and it is here that I must awaken to my trespassing; it is here that I must return unto my own territory, but how do I get there from here? "In repentance and rest is my salvation; in quietness and trust is my strength" (Isaiah 30:15).

Just as sun produces light, repentance and rest enhance and brighten discernment: and quietness and trust produce strength. As I draw near to God, He draws near to me. Often, I must slow down my activity-based life; repent of my trespasses, reenter into the "rest" of God to accurately discern "my assigned territory." As I draw near to God by obeying Isaiah 30:15, "my territory" is plain to see because the greater (drawing near to God), always includes the lesser (clearly discerning my territory). Sharp discernment will alert us to the spirit of anti-Christ as it attempts to enter our assigned sphere.

True repentance is a giant leap in drawing near to God; it is a form of worship that ushers in the presence of God. Toil and strain should be our alarm, and repentance and rest our remedy in returning to quietness and trust, which is our strength. The true measure of our repentance determines the level of our discernment. Few remnant Christians knowingly hold unrepentant sin, but many of us unknowingly and ignorantly have unconfessed sin in our lives. As we ask the Lord to reveal our hidden and even unknown sin, He will; and as we confess it, it will be removed and accurate discernment will abound.

It is very easy to transition from works of the Spirit to works of the flesh when we have a history of God-appointed success and years of tradition and training. Moses could not fathom simply speaking to the rock when hitting the rock had worked before. It is in this simple Bible illustration that we find the difference in our destiny and how easy unknown sin can creep in. The Promise Land is for those who refuse to live from the intelligence of past traditions, and only obey the Spirit's leading today. Our past successes can cause us to be open to the lure of the anti-Christ spirit.

Why is this so important in this hour? Prophetically, we have entered a time in which acts of obedience will trigger a supernatural response from heaven. Obedience to the Spirit opens the door to God's power. Obedience to the Spirit opens the door to miracles. It is important to note that the sentence did not say sacrifices or good works opens the door….there is a vast difference between the acts of men, and the acts of men directed by God's Spirit.

Intimacy Produces Discernment

Prior to marriage, Tracy and I went through a time of courtship in which we displayed the best of our behavior. During this period the birds were always singing and the sun always shinning. We spent every available second absorbing and learning all we could about each other. This wonderfulness continued through the first six months of marriage, and then, as the honeymoon ended, the reality of the relationship, both its strengths and weaknesses, became obvious to us both. We realized that to make it we must have consistent communication.

As we faced difficulties and trials that newly weds face, we soon learned a valuable lesson – "Reliable communication permits progress" (Proverbs 13:15 TLB). The NIV is even more direct, "Good understanding wins favor, but the way of the unfaithful is hard." God's Kingdom rest upon understanding while Satan's depends entirely on misunderstanding.

As is the natural tendency during trials, the last thing either of us wanted to do was communicate, or said more honestly, communicate properly. The purpose of this writing is not to extol the virtues of our marriage or to portray us as poster children for marriage; we are not, but we have come to an important understanding that has an enormous parallel with our relationship with the Father. Communication is the essence of life between any two living beings - stop the communication and death begins.

If we do not spend time with each other, listen to each other, and communicate what we want to see out of each other, we soon see the aforementioned death creeping into our life and marriage. As a direct parallel to this analogy, I can say with equal emphasis, that the same is true with my relationship with the Father. If I do not take the time to be with Him, to hear Him and His direction for my life, I soon see the inevitable death that is so sure to come. God desires us to spend time with him, to communicate and have fellowship with Him, and like all spouses, He likes to be worshiped and adored, and also like all spouses, He does not like to play second fiddle to other Gods (things that occupy the bulk of our time). Our greatest deterrent to being a victim of the spirit of anti-Christ is intimacy with God.

Dickie Welch, a friend, recently ministered that while many of us have been focused on the improper traditions (old wineskins) that besiege most modern churches, the greatest tradition that we as individuals battle are those in our own lives, especially in our own homes. Interestingly, he pointed out that there are 168 hours in a week, of which, most of us spend 40 at work and 40 sleeping. He further pointed out that most of us spend an average of 4 hours in church each week, leaving 84 hours for other endeavors. He reasoned that we probably average 3 hours a day on chores, errands, and other responsibilities leaving 60 hours of time devoted to other things. He then posed the question, "How much of the 60 hours do we use to spend with God?"

When I am in fellowship, I am in a flow in which there is joy and strength – that flow can only come by spending time with the Father, getting His specific direction for my life. From that intimacy comes joy and life and once it has been experienced, nothing short of it will do. I know when I am not spending enough time with the Father; the first thing to go is my joy and strength. Communication breakdowns are often a result of one party or the other not communicating or not listening. God never fails, so again the failure in this communication is totally mine, most notably because of my unwillingness to spend the quality time needed to produce intimacy. It is here that I am susceptible to false leadings.

As with a married couple, true intimacy is impossible without a continuous flow of good communication. I recently felt I heard the Father say to me that he was not a prostitute to whom remuneration could be paid for favors. While I was quick to see this as a strong indictment of traditions within the modern church, especially with the tithe and prosperity message, I was taken aback when the Holy Spirit said, "I am speaking to you Clay! You want intimate knowledge, favor, and understanding without having an intimate relationship; you want the reward without the responsibility." Any husband who has demanded intimacy from his wife without an ongoing proper relationship knows of what I speak.

If I will take the time (ascend) to the Father, He will cause me to (descend) to this world with substance for my life, and occasionally for the lives of others. The voice of the Bridegroom is calling to His Bride. It is a call to communication, a call to intimacy. It is here that the heart of the Father is birthed in men and discernment comes alive.

Death That Produces Life
Robert Ricciardelli

Robert@vision2advance.com

[23]Jesus replied, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. [24]I tell you the truth, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds. [25]The man who loves his life will lose it, while the man who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. ~ John 12:23-25

For Christ to be truly glorified, death must take place. For true life to be established, a death must occur. In our lives, we must follow the pattern our Savior had obediently gone through. This does not mean we necessarily will have the privilege of hanging from a cross for our Father, but it does mean there are many area's of our life we must put to death, for the glory of Christ to be revealed in us.

We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about the hardships we suffered in the province of Asia. We were under great pressure, far beyond our ability to endure, so that we despaired even of life. Indeed, in our hearts we felt the sentence of death. But this happened that we might not rely on ourselves but on God, who raises the dead. ~ 2 Corinthians 1:8-9

We all go through hardships in life, emotional, financial, relational, etc. These are the very times spiritual growth begins to sprout. Many times it literally is the entry way into a new beginning. We can place a greater value on what we had before and use it for His purposes. Perhaps for the first time we can identify with others who find themselves in a similar trial.

I remember many years ago in my youth, when I could not understand what another brother was going through. I could not understand how a Christian could be so deceived. I do now, because it was not to long afterward that I experienced the very same thing. I now can relate well with those who have gone through what I have and seek to relate with everyone who goes through their own set of trials. I learned a great deal during that period. I learned to die and I learned a new way to live and judging was not to be a part of it. I learned that the world and even Christians often treat such people as lepers. Like me, they didn't know how to relate. Now, I appreciate the little things that I never would have valued without that trial and other trials that have followed. The experience taught me greater dependence and faith in those areas of my relationship with God.

When God brings death to one area of life, he brings resurrection in a fresh new way. Death works in us to bring new life and new revelation towards better life applications. These trials are really birth pangs towards death in the area's that need to die, so we can MOVE ONWARD AND UPWARD IN HIS PURPOSES. Father wants us to die in those areas and by design; this death begins to press us forward in ways that we never would have moved without the experience. Father knows just the right ingredients of pressure to produce the death that brings forth new life. Through the suffering we then are able to tap into His abundant grace and mercy towards that prize He has planned for each of us.

I die to live and I live to die daily… Oh how I long to really live every moment in that truth. I love the passion here in Paul's epistle to the Corinthians:

[31][I assure you] by the pride which I have in you in [your fellowship and union with] Christ Jesus our Lord, that I die daily [I face death every day and die to self].* *- 1 Corinthians 15:31 (Amplified)

In the context of Paul's life physical death was much more probable then many of us, especially us here in the western world. But Paul is talking about his willingness to die daily to SELF in his service to the King and the Kingdom. Should we not have the same passion for those areas in our life that need to die and come under submission to the Word of God? I say that we should be militant in battling one of our greatest opponents - SELF.

SELF does not go down easy, and when you think he is down, many times SELF makes a comeback if we are not daily immersing ourselves in Christ and our intimate relationship with the Father. God's mercy and compassion brings strategic happenings and revelation for us to continue to be in process towards Christlikeness! To be Christ-like in every way of our existence and purpose should be our goal Press into Him, learn of Him, and rely on Him, as you utilize opportunities to die to spring forth a greater life and a greater light for the world to behold.

Just Two Things
Robert Ricciardelli

I have been blessed by all of the relationships the Lord has placed in my life. I have been blessed by the many teachers, mentors and spiritual fathers and mothers that have imparted to me throughout my walk with the Father. I am truly blessed to communicate with over 100 countries on a daily basis and over time hear what the Lord is doing in many places. I have heard and believed many things all through the years. I thought some of what I learned was absolute truth only to find out it was absolutely not true. I have been sincere about many things only to find out I was sincerely wrong. The bottom line is I only know what I know today and the rest is yet to be revealed and paradigms adjusted.

1 Corinthians 13:9-12
[9]For we know in part and we prophesy in part. [10]But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part will be done away. [11]When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things. [12]For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known.

You see, we are all in process towards the next thing. What is the next thing? I don't know, but when it arrives I will share it with you. There are many of us that have taken past "truths as we know it", and at times, have made it a permanent and foundational religion over our lives. When people ask why it is so, our answer is something like this, "because I know it brother, we have always believed that way and have scriptures to prove it." And so on and on we go holding on to man made traditions and religion and fighting tooth and nail to prove it. And then we grow up in the midst of all the ugly division and strife it has caused and say to ourselves, "What in the heck are we all doing anyway?"

Many times we are disputing the order of things rather than rejoicing together in that which is the foundation of all things and in the unity of love from that foundation. We have heard in various ways over the years from our 20,000 divisions of Churchianity, how that the written word is our foundation and if it isn't in print, it isn't worth lint. Before I make my point, I just want to clarify that the printed word of God is God breathed, infallible and absolutely worthy to use for doctrine. But because we are human, we will many times interpret that same printed word based on our presuppositions up to that stage of our existence. With that being said, let me move towards the two things that my point is about……..

The Most Important Commandment

[34]But when the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees with his reply, they thought up a fresh question of their own to ask him. [35]One of them, an expert in religious law, tried to trap him with this question: [36]"Teacher, which is the most important commandment in the law of Moses?"
[37]Jesus replied, "You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind." [38]This is the first and greatest commandment. [39]A second is equally important: "Love your neighbor as yourself." [40]All the other commandments and all the demands of the prophets are based on these two commandments."

I have highlighted the above in red for two reasons; one is of course, because they are the words of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. The second reason is because these are the words from the foundation of all we are about, all we ever will be about. The blood purchased foundation of Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior, whom through the Holy Spirit of our one true God and Father dwells within us.

I have heard the delusion many times that the gospels are the milk of the word and then the real "meat of the word", is in the epistles. This is a delusion as the reality is, all scripture is God breathed and if we were going to label "the meat" of the word, we better give some weight to the words of The One who is the foundation of all that we believe. Jesus is not only the bread of life, He is the whole loaf! Okay, now I am getting closer to my point, in verse 40 in the above scripture, it says that [40]All the other commandments and all the demands of the prophets are based on these two commandments."

Which means, All the other commandments and all the demands of the prophets are based on these two commandments. I am not sure what version you have, but no matter what your version is or in what language it is, you will probably see that it says pretty much the same thing. So this is the meat of the word and this is the main thing. The printed word, the law and the prophets, the Alpha and the Omega all point to this as the main thing. The rest of it is a blue print, road map, "The Way" for us to go in living in "The Main Thing."

Paul cried out,

Galatians 4:19
But oh, my dear children! I feel as if I am going through labor pains for you again, and they will continue until Christ is fully developed in your lives.

I have not been through labor pains, but I know some who have and let's just say, I am glad I have never had the pleasure….. Paul was describing unbearable pain to watch the Galatians be caught up in false teachings and doctrines because Christ had not been formed within them. When Christ is formed in us, these doctrines of man cannot take us from "The Main Thing". We are so consumed in loving God, pleasing God, obeying God, that foolishness has no place, sin has no place, because we live and move and have our being in Him that is formed within us.

Brethren, may we all take heed to our Saviors words. Unity is not even something we have to strategize, because in Him unity IS! Transformation is not a formula, because in Him Transformation IS! Just two things that if we get right in Him, we will also fulfill all the other things this life has for us. We must grasp this truth, because it is everything according to our Lord. When we are operating in Him and through Him offenses cannot remain, willful sin cannot remain, bitterness cannot remain, envy cannot remain, and fear cannot remain.

Father let us live the "Main Thing"
Oh what freedom it will bring"

Help us to see only what you see,
So we can set the captives free.

Let us listen only to your voice,
Through obedience make all of heaven rejoice.

Let us put away our rights and our will,
Give us insight to the flesh we must kill.

Your Spirit to lead and our soul to submit,
As we eternally follow, and to your will commit. R.R.

Discerning The Season

[Preliminary quotes]
"The next move of God will be known for people falling on their faces and weeping, weeping, weeping" - Paul Cain

"There is a gift that we need to ask God for in these days. It's the gift of tears. We need to come before the Lord, making ourselves available to Him in a deeper way. The gift of tears is more than a result of the suffering that comes from living in a fallen world. It flows from feeling the pain and the suffering that the Lord Jesus feels for us. He is our High Priest, touched by the feeling of our infirmities. We need to feel what He feels for America. We need to feel what He feels for the Church. We need to feel what He feels about sin and the abominations that are going on in the earth today.

We must have tears if we are going to see revival. If we have no tears it's because our hearts are parched. Lord, give us tears that we may see revival!" -Prophet Paul Cain

"...when the angel of the United States of America came and stood before me, I tremble and quake every time I see an angel of a nation, I always tremble and quake in my heart, because of the awesome anointing and authority they have. When he came and stood before me, he told me, An awesome judgment is going to come upon America very soon. An awesome judgment. When he spoke, I felt a fear, a Godly fear running through my bones and my spirit. This is not a judgment that would destroy the entire nation, but something quite similar to what happened with the twin towers. But, it can all be prevented, IF RIVERS OF INTERCESSION flow in the nation. This is the word that he told me to speak.

And I saw, that if you will take this seriously and pray, a huge river flowing all throughout the center of your country. If it flows - a river of tears, rivers of intercession (and as the angel was speaking, I saw this huge white river flowing from the east to the west)-- only that would prevent this judgment that could come."

-"PROPHETIC MESSAGE to the USA CHURCH" -by Sadhu Sundar Selvaraj (-prophet from India). Delivered to the church in St. Louis, June 2002.

Discerning the Season
By Cher Coner

There is a tremendous wave of anointing being blown across our nation to mobilize intercessors. An intercessor is not an office as the five-fold calling of Pastor, Prophet, Teacher, Apostle, or Evangelist, but it is and should be a function of every believer.

The term mobilize is defined, "Make ready for War," or "to assemble and to organize for action or use, esp. for war."

Joel 2:15-17
Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly:
2:16
Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.

2:17
Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

Fasting . . . weeping . . . mourning is expressed strongly in this passage of scripture because their sin being most heinous needs extraordinary humiliation. This is the season we are in right now in America- A season of weeping and reaping! We need to have extraordinary prayer movements where we are not standing and praising but bowing down in humility and weeping. We must discern that this is the hour of crying out to God for the Lord of The Harvest to send forth the Laborers. The outward marks of repentance are to signify the depth of their sorrow for sin. There should be an inward sorrow of heart, and not the mere outward manifestation of it by "rending the garment" (Joshua 7:6). Christians not unbelievers are expected to humble themselves and pray. God calling forth the intercessors at this hour to water the earth with their tears. There will be no public, reaping without some public weeping. The greatest reapers in this world are the greatest weepers.

Dealing With Accusation
Sandy Warner

Apr 23, 2004
You are eating in the presence of your enemies. They watch and wait for anything in which to accuse you. Do not wrestle or defend yourself before your accusers. To do so will be a wild ride, for you can not tame them, they will only buck and backlash. Rather stand straight and make proclamation of My Word, without fear and without shame. At the same time come before Me in humble prayer and lay the accusations before Me. I forgive and give grace to the humble, and will release you from their accusations as you humble yourself. You have suffered greatly from hope deferred. I promise that I will make amends.

"Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; For You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; My cup runs over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the LORD Forever." (Ps 23:4-6 NKJV)

I Am Settling You
Sandy Warner

Apr 20, 2004
[Encouragement For Those Waiting for Loved Ones]

HEARD [2/02/04]: I am answering your prayer, sweet one. I am giving them understanding. Your sacrifice and commitment. To be there for them. Alone. If you only knew. How I appreciate you.

HEARD: It's already been done. Set in motion. What's happening? Those you love. I am settling you.

VISION: I saw a picture frame on a wall. It was being mounted, as though settled in its place. I saw a measuring tape that went from the middle of the picture up to the ceiling in order to line it up and center it. The tape said 17 inches. [Number 17 means victory.]

ANOINTED HANDS: I opened my Words to Ponder book to the following entry: "My faithful servant, My joy, My friend. You have remained behind while others ascend, and chosen to serve rather than leave your loved ones behind. While you wait, I see you rightfully dividing My Word and releasing hope to those in the same place of waiting. Thank you, beloved, for your faithful labors."

1 Peter 5:10 NKJV
But may the God of all grace, who called us to His eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a while, perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you. To Him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

WORD TO PONDER: I WILL REACH THEM
Do not fear, the ones you are wanting so badly to reach with the truths you discovered long ago, I have drawn to other rivers and will use other ways to reach them. I know how this has been an unsettling time for you. Honey, I am so proud of you! Your prayers and heart's desires are answered and I will see to their needs.

Ephesians 6:18 KJV
Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints;

HEARD: I will reward you. I know you're hurting. My darling bride. And so we separate the good from the bad. Cling to Jehovah. Settling the differences. Something wonderful is happening. A transformation taking place right before your eyes. Plan.

HEARD [as I was clicking on a file called "Establish"]: I heard the Lord say, "Parallel walk." [In context I was thinking about a loved one whom I had been praying over and wanting to reach.]

HEARD: I will settle you.

QUICKENED EYE GLANCE: My eye fell on the following phrase: "Go on home. What you have believed has happened." (From Matthew 8:13 NLT)

GRANDMA ANNA RHEMA
HEARD: It doesn't make any difference. You are what you are. Brought to a door. Ended. In your place. You were settled.

CONCLUSION
{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER: ALREADY DONE
I know you have felt unsettled and out of alignment as you have earnestly waited upon Me for those you love. Thank you for your intercession, My precious one. The Words that I speak into your life and you speak back to Me are already set in motion as you stand upon them. I view them as already done.

Thank you, My dear friend, you who wait upon Me and want only My point of view for those you love. How you honor Me as you lay your life down and serve as you wait for them to come into their destinies. I know your sacrifice and commitment behind the scenes. Your intercession bears fruit for so many, even more than you know. How you have touched My heart to be so willing to wait for what matters to Me the most. Thank you for not giving up. You really are not alone. You have all of heaven yearning with you, dear one.

Isaiah 46:10-11 NLT
Only I can tell you what is going to happen even before it happens. Everything I plan will come to pass, for I do whatever I wish.

Processing Your Will
Sandy Warner

Apr 21, 2004
If you convince a woman against her will, she will be of the same opinion still. Yes, My bride, that is you. Long you have suffered between the pressures of right and wrong. As much as you have wanted to comply, you found yourself unable to stay committed. You have known the way, but your flesh rebels. That is because the sin nature of your flesh wars against that which is born of My Spirit. You may not know the way out of this ever circling maze, but I do.

I created you and know exactly how to reach you and bring you out of bondage. The way is love. The gift of repentance comes through My kindness. I know that real change only comes through love. If you capture a woman’s heart, you have all of her.

For many years now, I have been processing your will. I brought you in and through the wilderness. I know how to woo My bride and capture her heart so that it will never wander again. Yes, I hate idolatry and desire obedience. This is because I AM jealous for your love, your heart, your complete surrender to Me that we may be one, as we were meant to be. I AM doing My work in your life and know you through and through. All I ask is that you be willing and open the door to My unrelenting love.

Song 4:9-11 NLT
You have ravished my heart, my treasure, my bride. I am overcome by one glance of your eyes, by a single bead of your necklace. How sweet is your love, my treasure, my bride! How much better it is than wine! Your perfume is more fragrant than the richest of spices.

Rom 12:2 NLT
Don't copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will know what God wants you to do, and you will know how good and pleasing and perfect his will really is.

PARABLE
Before the Civil war, there were Christian's from Canada who traveled down to the southern states as "conductors" and secretly gathered slaves who were interested in taking the journey north to freedom. Basically the slaves were given instructions to follow the maps to Chicago, with secret places of refuge along the way. The houses of refuge were lit with a candle in the window and the password to be invited in was, "A friend of a friend."

Waiting in Chicago, there was a lady they called "Moses" who was coordinating the movement. They placed people inside coffins to travel the final 6 hours via train on to the Canadian border. I thought it interesting that they had to travel by coffin for the last leg of the journey. This was a parable of their final death to self. Those on the other side set up a liberty bell in Canada, and every time someone crossed the border, they rang the bell for them. I really sobbed when I heard this. I knew this was the same heroic journey of many to find their quest for freedom in the Spirit. There were over 40,000 slaves who crossed the border to freedom prior to the civil war.

HEARD: Seeing the door opened. Deliverance.

A SIGN: It was dusk outside and we were driving to a meeting up north. A Mahesh tape was playing and he had just said the phrase, "Shining like the stars." Then he said to "keep focusing on the light." At that moment my eyes fastened onto a door that was left open into a darkened house. There was one small light on in the room of the opened door. The rest of the house was dark and so was everything around the outside of this farm house. At the very instant that Mahesh had said to keep focusing on the light, my eye was drawn to the only light in the area and its door was open. I knew the Lord was quickening this to me as a sign.

THE WHITE LIGHT

http://www.bobjones.org http://www.whitedoveministries.org

"… A "great light" will be offered to those who have formally known darkness and gloom. Much like the promise given to the land of Zebulun and Naphtali, the people who walk in darkness will see a brilliant light and he will make the latter time a glorious season. (See Isaiah 9:1-2) This is for the land "beyond the Jordan" as we cross over into the day of promise. Illumination will be coming to those who have formally embraced traditionalism and religious structures and many will now embrace divine light."

"… The color for this year is white...specifically, white light. There will emerge from the throne of Heaven great deposits of Heavenly light into the spirit and soul of the Church to ignite us on the course of destiny and high purposes… There are many applications to white and even more as it relates to light. Some pertain to the purity, consecration and holiness that is to characterize God's people. Light dispels the darkness of our soul as He lights the candle of our innermost being." (John 8:12) {end quote}

HEARD [10/11/03]: Candelabra. The great awakening after a long winter's nap.

VISION: I saw a liberty bell being rung. I saw the flash of a finger in the sky reach down and touch the big ball at the bottom of the bell. Instant life came into the bell as it turned into a brilliant, bright white light.

HEARD: Liberty to the captives. Fear God. Go.

HEARD [10/23/03]: Plan. Coming up, a bell tower.

DREAM: I saw a volcano erupt. I saw people escaping the hot lava flow by riding on a chunk of land that had some green grass on it and a tree.

HEARD: Between the porch and the altar.

Joel 2:15-17 NLT
Blow the trumpet in Jerusalem! Announce a time of fasting; call the people together for a solemn meeting. Bring everyone--the elders, the children, and even the babies. Call the bridegroom from his quarters and the bride from her private room. The priests, who minister in the LORD'S presence, will stand between the people and the altar, weeping. Let them pray, "Spare your people, LORD! They belong to you, so don't let them become an object of mockery.

CONFIRMATION
I wrote this following Word to Ponder, "The Bell Tower Rings" on 10/23/03. On 12/22/03 there was an article from Reuters entitled, "Earthquake Rang Planet 'Like a Bell'." It was about California's largest earthquake in four years, magnitude 6.5. I post the Words to Ponder (PonderWords) online from 2-4 months after my rhema, in chronological order. I thought it no accident when this Word to Ponder was posted on the Internet as the first entry for the year 2004. I felt a corner had been turned. We are the salt of the earth and our prayers are more vital then even before.

CONCLUSION

{Words to Ponder are summaries of His quickened Words}

WORD TO PONDER: THE BELL TOWER RINGS
Long we have waited for this hour of the great awakening, when in two opposite extremes, I ring the bell. Listen! Even now the bell tower is ringing. On one side, this bell rings liberty for the captives! Break the cords of the pain of delay and be released into your birthright. It is My joy to give you the kingdom for such a time as this. Deliverance, deliverance is coming, deliverance is nigh, deliverance is here. Within the great irony of a failing and fallen world, I will set My people free! They will go forth amidst the fires, and yet they will fear only their God, for they know the One Who is their all consuming fire.

Those on the opposite side hear the same bell, but they hear a different sound. Will they heed the warning? Awake from your slumber! Rise from your beds of apathy and pleasures and listen to the signs of the times. Like the magma of a fiery volcano, the consequences of rebellion and sin are spewing out. The toll of the bell rings warning, yet few will heed.

My love is so fierce that I will stop at nothing to awaken those in Jezebel's bed. Come out, My people, come out! Separate yourselves. Turn to the only One Who can save you from the ravages of sin. The earth grows hot with the consequences of defiance, and the bell rings for all who would listen. Come to your Maker and reject Him not. For He alone holds the keys to your deliverance for such a time as this.

Heb 12:25-29 NKJV
See that you do not refuse Him who speaks. For if they did not escape who refused Him who spoke on earth, much more shall we not escape if we turn away from Him who speaks from heaven, whose voice then shook the earth; but now He has promised, saying, "Yet once more I shake not only the earth, but also heaven." Now this, "Yet once more," indicates the removal of those things that are being shaken, as of things that are made, that the things which cannot be shaken may remain. Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace, by which we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear. For our God is a consuming fire.

I have given you My Word. Put the pieces together and let revelation take its course. One, two, three, I AM working through thee. Four, five and six, there is nothing I can't fix. Seven, eight and nine. You are doing fine. The tens, elevens and twelves. Use what's on the shelves. Add and subtract, divide and multiply. Find the common denominators and sum it all up. You will be done in no time. Amen.

Dealing With An Orphan Spirit
Robert I Holmes

I was born into the kingdom at a time when the TV evangelists were coming down, judgment was upon the church and the prophets were getting into trouble. There was a lot of talk about the fall of great men of God, and leaders were, by and large, backing away from mentoring. I knew right from the outset that to grow in the gift, I needed to find someone better, older, wiser than me. On the music side, I picked up a guitar and started hanging out with gypsies. I penned songs and took them to be critiqued by folk song writers. I joined the church music team and learned all I could. But the prophetic. was not going to be that easy. In 1993 I went to John, my pastor and we drafted a list of every prophetic person we knew of in Australia: big or small, famous or infamous. I wrote 21 letters asking for help, opportunity to learn, time for a coffee, anything. Three responded. One invited me to his conference and gave me a copy of his book. One invited me to his church and read a copy of an article I had written. But the last fellow took a little more interest. Brother McIntyre had been in the game for quite some time. We did breakfast, we did lunch and we traveled to Melbourne together. I learned much from his teaching, but more from his conduct. He even read a copy of my first book (which incidentally, never saw the light of day). He and I grew busy with our schedules, and lost touch. but it made me hunger for more. I went back to my pastor, and we drew up a list of internationally recognised prophets. Only 12 letters this time. and 3 responded. Off we went again!

"I will not leave you orphans, I will come to you" (John 14:18).

Some hallmarks of an orphan spirit

An orphan is someone who had been abandoned by their primary care giver. The kingdom of God is based upon relationship, and the central relationship is one of parent to child - father to son. "Older women. should admonish the younger women" (Titus 2:4). "Timothy, my true son in the faith" (1 Tim. 1:2). "I am your father in the gospel" (1 Cor. 4:15). We become orphaned when those who are caring for us abandon us, or when those who should care, do not. We may have an orphan spirit because of the natural parenting we received. Perhaps you were literally abandoned, or adopted out. Perhaps you had an absent father, or abusive mother. Perhaps you raised yourself because of the financial condition of your family, or the number of children in the home. On the spiritual side, neglect happens at every level in institutional christianity. Leaders demand instead of admonish, berate instead of beseech, are busy with church life instead of the life inside the people, and are not being fathered by the system themselves. There are promises of parental love, but in reality, scarce little more than a request for the tithe.

So what are the hallmarks of an orphan spirit? - Inability to have lasting relationships - Hatred of authority, general distrust for leaders - General lack of direction for your life - Inability to make key, strategic decisions - Drawing near, then backing away from intimacy - A sense that they're just going to reject you anyway - A gnawing sense of failure, never quite good enough - An inexplicable drive to succeed, win, prove yourself

"But you have received the spirit of adoption" (Rom. 8:15 c.f Gal. 4:5)

The effects of adoption

Jesus knew we would suffer with doubt about belonging to the family of God. He knew that the church would generate thousands of mentors, but not many fathers, so He promised to give us the spirit of adoption. The very Spirit of God, who teaches us how to pray, gives us the confidence to cry "abba, Father". Under the laws of Australia, America and England an adopted child has certain privileges assigned to them that even natural offspring are not afforded. For example, you cannot disown them. You cannot disinherit an adopted child. They have equal share in the Will and Testament of the parent(s). This gives the adopted child unshakeable confidence that they will always belong - so far as the law is concerned. Our spirit ceases to feel orphaned when we have confidence that we belong to a family - God's family. It enables us to connect with our brothers and sisters, and yield ourselves fully to those in authority in the church.

"Appreciate those. who have charge over you in the Lord" (1 Thess. 5:12)

The issue of inheritance

When it comes to money, there are two ways we can receive it: by work or by grace; by labour or gift; by reaping & sowing or inheritance. Any orphan can work hard to earn a salary, indeed he can even become rich. But only a son can receive an inheritance. There are things that can only be obtained by inheritance - from being part of a family.

We must be rid of the orphan mentality, and receive confidence from Christ that we are His. Our behaviour will demonstrate what we believe. If we behave like a slave, a servant, a man under bondage to the law then we are orphans still. If we must work to be pleasing to God; must achieve to gain His favour; must obey this legal requirement or another to be acceptable (or saved) then we are orphans. But if we behave like a son, then we will work from that perspective. God the Father owns the land. It is His business, and one day we will own a part of it. So we work without guilt or need to please. We labour for Him because it is our pleasure.

"No longer a slave, but a son. and an heir of God through Christ" Gal. 4:7)

A harlots' son

We can probably name most of the people in the "hall of faith". But tucked away in vs 32 of Hebrews 11 is Jephthah. Jephthah's story is drawn out in Judges chapter 11. He was the son of a harlot. His father had a fling one night with a prostitute, and he was the result. His father's wife had other children, but these loving sibling half-brothers said, "You shall not have an inheritance in our father's house, for you are the son of another woman". Enter the orphan spirit. Disinherited, rejected, wounded in the house of his father Gilead.

So Jephthah fled, and the Lord brought him soldiers, warriors, mighty men in like the "endebted, distressed and disenfranchised". He was David in another skin. Now Ammon invaded the land of his father, and the elders of Gilead came to him, begging for help. They invited him back and accepted him as leader. Now the man was faced with his own heart - it was saying "But you drove me out, you hated me." Would he rise above that orphan voice? What if they said, "You will become head over us, your inheritance shall be of us"? So Jephthah told them he would do it, if he made them his chief. He threw his lot in with them, defeated the Ammonites, defeated the Ephraimites (42,000 of them) and became judge over Israel for six years. Rise up man of God! No wonder Hebrews says he was a man who "conquered kingdoms, performed acts of righteousness, obtained promises". Noble indeed!

Dealing With Differences

Mario Liu

The purpose of this article is to look at examples from the life of Jesus, to show that it is OK to have different or opposite opinions with the people you love. We need to apply the life of Christ into our own lives, and see the way he responded to those who disagreed with him.

How should we handle disagreements in the church (between denominations, between church members), in the family (between husbands and wives, parents and children, among siblings)?

The wedding at Cana

John 2:1-11. Jesus attended a wedding at Cana, in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there, and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. As was the custom, wine was served to the guests, but it ran out. This situation could bring great shame to the wedding party. Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no more wine." What was his response? "Dear woman, why do you involve me?" Jesus replied. "My time has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Nearby stood six stone water jars, the kind used by the Jews for ceremonial washing, each holding from twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water"; so they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the banquet."

You know the rest of the story, the water turns into the best wine the master of the banquet had ever tasted. In this miracle we first find Jesus disagreeing with His mother. He tells her that this is not his will, and she has sought to concern him with a matter that is not on his heart.

Discussion with the Priests

Luke 2:41-52. Every year Christ and his parents went to Jerusalem for the Feast of the Passover. When he was twelve years old, they went up to the Feast as usual. It was the twelve year old's first opportunity to present the family lamb offering, and during this time the priest would question the child to see if he understood the ramifications of the offering. After the Feast was over, while his parents were returning home, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but they were unaware of it. We find Jesus engaged in several days discussion with the priests. "After three days they found him in the temple courts, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. Everyone who heard him was amazed at his understanding and his answers. When his parents saw him, they were astonished. His mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us like this? Your father and I have been anxiously searching for you." Why were you searching for me?" he asked. "Didn't you know I had to be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he was saying to them."

Even at the tender age of twelve, Jesus disagreed with mother and dad. He did so without dishonouring them. He did not rebuke or argue with them, but gently corrected his mother's misunderstanding of His role and place. It is OK to disagree yet to do as he was then told by his parents.

His brothers goad Him

John 7:1-9. Jesus went around in Galilee, purposely staying away from Judea because the Jews were waiting to take his life. The Jewish Feast of Tabernacles drew near, and Jesus' brothers said to him, "You ought to leave here and go to Judea, so that your disciples may see the miracles you do. 4No one who wants to become a public figure acts in secret. Since you are doing these things, show yourself to the world." 5For even his own brothers did not believe in him. Therefore Jesus told them, "The right time for me has not yet come; for you any time is right".

Jesus said to his brothers "You go to the Feast. I am not yet going up to this Feast, because for me the right time has not yet come." Having said this, he stayed in Galilee. Jesus disagreed with His brothers. Jesus' brothers spoke from the mind of men, and not from the mind of God. It is OK to disagree with our physical, or spiritual, siblings. Especially when they are offering you carnal advice. Once again we see the dignity with which he deals with his brothers. He does not put them down, condemn or criticise, he simply suggests that they might like to go ahead. He will obey his conscience (and His Father's will)

A strong difference of opinion

Luke 8:19-21. Jesus' mother and brothers came to see him, but they were not able to get near him because of the crowd. Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you." He replied, "My mother and brothers are those who hear God's word and put it into practice."

The time had now come for Jesus to confront a difference in opinion with those whom He loves. As in the previous examples, Jesus disagreed with His brothers and mother. But this time Jesus was not going to 'obey mother' and give in. Jesus chooses not to go outside at her command (instruction, request) in order to obey His heavenly Father. Jesus defined some 'personal boundaries' by implementing geological and emotional distances.

I recommend the 'Boundaries' books by Dr Henry Cloud and Dr John Townsend, with the following qualification: 'Love' sometimes means willingly allowing others to violate our boundaries. Jesus, when being crucified, willingly allowed those who hated Him to insult, torture and murder Him. During His suffering, He lovingly prayed for forgiveness to Father God on their behalf.

Luke 23:34 Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing." This is the ultimate example of 'Love Means Consenting To Boundary Violation Principle' in action.

The prodigal son

Luke 15:28-32. In the story of the father and his two sons we find several differences of opinion. When the younger son returns home and is well treated the older brother became angry and refused to go in. So his father went out and pleaded with him. But he answered his father, "Look! All these years I've been slaving for you and never disobeyed your orders. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours who has squandered your property with prostitutes comes home, you kill the fattened calf for him!' "`My son,' the father said, `you are always with me, and everything I have is yours. But we had to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.'"

There are several occasions of conflicts of opinions between the father and his two children in the prodigal son story. The father, who knows love, would not give up on, or take offense with, either of his children. It is OK to disagree, but it is not 'love' to give up on relationship.

At the cross, all is forgiven

In spite of any disagreements, or conflict of opinion, Jesus never let this get in the way of his love for his family, nor his ongoing concern for their welfare. Nowhere is this better portrayed that at the cross. "When Jesus saw his mother there, and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to his mother, "Dear woman, here is your son," and to the disciple, "Here is your mother" (John 19:26-27)

Love survives all the disagreements throughout Jesus' lifetime. Love perseveres and never gives up.

Summary

* Jesus disagreed with His mother and brothers. It is OK to love without having to agree with them. * Submission means even though not being able to agree, yet goes along. Jesus changed the water into wine, violating His own 'timetable'. * Disagreements need not result in broken relationships. * Sometimes disagreements may result in broken relationships, e.g. Jesus and the Pharisees. Jesus has to apply 'distance' between Himself and the Pharisees who were planning to kill Him. * Unfair expectations: 'If you love me you will agree with me' or 'you will do what I wish' etc. This is blackmail. Jesus' examples showed us that we do not need to agree in order to love. * Respect others' choices: e.g. the father allows the 'prodigal son' freedom to squander all his share of the inheritance. * Some examples of dealing with differences: be low-key; do not force an agreement; may go separate ways, e.g Jesus went to Jerusalem by Himself, Jesus refusing to quit His ministry and return home to complete His share of carpentry work in His family shop, the father letting his 'prodigal' son go his own way. AND it is still OK. * Do not take offence * Differences do not imply 'if you are right then I am wrong.'

"We know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose" (Rom. 8:28-29).

We should make a decision to love others and to allow them to have different opinions without 'consequences' from us, and repent of past anger or bitterness caused by differences in opinions.

May the Lord bless you.

Dealing With Desire
Robert Holmes

What hits you when you fly into Manila is just how Western it is. In contrast to India or PNG, [Papua New Guinea], the Philippines have had a strong American influence. Some images which captured my attention. Mud huts and mobiles. A woman sitting on the dirt verandah of her grass roofed hut, SMS text messaging from her cell phone. Tight jeans and turbans. Everyone is wearing jeans, mostly tight jeans. But Mindanao is mostly Muslim, so there are Kaftans and turbans too.

It is perhaps this last element that is most disturbing. The otherwise demure and conservative eastern people have been downgraded, degraded by our culture on this level. One of the most interesting Bible Studies I did in the east was based on the difference between wrong desire (lust) and right desire (passion).

Wrongful Lust

1. Lust of the eye - covetousness Moses said, "Covet not thy neighbour's." whatever. Covetousness desires after things you cannot have, like your brother's wife. "Anyone who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart" (Matt. 5:28 NIV). The west is heavily eye oriented, and our economy is geared by covetousness.

2. Lust of the flesh - lewdness John said that in the world we would face the lust of the eye and the lust of the flesh. A recent study of violence underscored the connection between violent video games and crime. We move easily from watching to doing, by talking about it, boasting, cajoling, daring one another. "Swelling words of emptiness allure through the lusts of the flesh, lewdness" (2 Pet. 2:18 NKJV).

3. Lust of the mind - fantasy "We once fulfilled the lusts of the flesh and the mind" (Eph. 2:3 NKJV). Imagination, a God given gift, turned toward itself becomes fantasy. Fantasy leads to wild vanity, confusion and a blurring of real and unreal. As a man thinks, so he is. We entertain fantasy at our own peril, for Paul says we now take every thought captive to obey Christ.

4. Lust of the heart - wanton passion There were evidently some young war widows in Ephesus, and Timothy had a problem on his hands. They had been awakened to love, but were now "full of sensual desires" - because they had no husbands. Poor women. James speaks of a man, "tempted by his own evil desire, dragged away, enticed" (James 1:14 NIV). The process is mathematical: tempted, desiring, sinning, death.

5. Lust of the world - cares and riches Titus lived among the Cretans, known as liars, deceivers and fornicators. Paul told him to deny worldly lusts and live soberly among them. Jesus told the parable of the seed falling among thorns, "the cares of this world, the deceit of riches, the desire of things" (Mark 4:19 NKJV). These rise up and choke our faith. Just ask Mainland Chinese Christians now living in America. By the next generation you cannot tell them apart from the locals.

Righteous Passion

1. Desire the gifts Paul chose his words carefully. He said, "eagerly desire spiritual gifts, especially the gift of prophecy" (1 Cor. 14:1 NIV). That word is lust, covet, envy. Such inward desire, rightly directed at the gifts is applaudable. This is the antidote to the lust of the eye. Instead of coveting our neighbour's stuff, we are to covet the spiritual gifts.

2. Desire the goodness of life Paul told the Thessalonians to take pleasure in God's goodness. Life can get to you, it can be a grind. That's why we need to desire God, and the goodness of life. "Love life and desire good days" (1 Pet. 3:10 NASB). This is the antidote to the lust of the flesh. Instead of corrupting our desire on the ambitions of the flesh, we should pursue a good life in Christ.

3. Desire the Spirit Lust creates work - as Paul told the Galatians, there are works of the flesh, and there are fruits of the Spirit. "The Spirit yearns in us jealously" (James 4:5). Yearning by the Spirit, bearing good fruit in Him acts as the antidote to the lusts of the mind. The spirit desires against the flesh, against the mind, against the soul. Fruit overcomes works.

4. Desire love Paul leads from a discussion on gifts, straight into love: "Desire the best gifts. but I will show you a more excellent way" (1 Cor. 12:31). The way of love - there's no law against love. Love conquers all, it triumphs over sin. It's the highest law. Hollywood love is the antithesis to agape love. Wanton passion is misdirected love. Love is the antidote to the lust of the heart.

5. Desire to live a godly life There in the house of Lazarus, Mary and Martha learned a valuable lesson. Martha desired to please God with her labour, and Mary desired the better part - to sit and listen to Jesus. Paul told Timothy, "Desire to live godly in Christ" (2 Tim. 3:12). Desiring to live our lives in Christ, that is the final antidote- to the lust of the world.

Darkness Will Scatter

I Am Coming To Rescue My Sheep And Darkness Will Scatter

So many of My faithful ones are reeling from the snares and attacks of the enemy but know that your Father is with you even when you are at your very lowest ... even when you feel there is not one thing left in you that might be even remotely spiritual, lo I AM still with you. Many have felt the stings of 'words' spoken against you by those who don't understand your walk with Me and by those even amongst the brethren who seek to do My justice - but Justice is Mine, saith the Lord! You have shed many tears for all you have sought to do was to follow Me. Beloved, "know" that I AM with you through all attacks... I am with you even when you feel you 'feel' spiritually stagnant and not fit for My Kingdom. Know that I AM with you always and My tears are shed for you as well as they were shed for My Son.

Know this, My children, I AM COMING TO RESCUE MY SHEEP AND DARKNESS WILL SCATTER and the hell that has been holding you and restraining you will hold you no longer.

To My beloved daughters, you will see that it is your time, your time to move out in the direction that I have given you. You say that you have no direction ... I say, read the Word and the Words I have given you. You say that you have no hope .... My child I never leave any of Mine without hope and I have not left 'you' without hope. Where are the proclamations that I have given you? "They were and are your hope." The enemy seeks to rob you of your hope and your joy and he will steal it if you allow him. The enemy has set up ambushes to try and sidetrack My plan for your life but a breakthrough in the heavenlies has taken place and each demon assigned to you must retreat. My daughters, do not fret ...do not keep silent in My presence. Glorify My Name and offer up praises of thanksgiving for I have not left you or forsaken you. You are a blessed woman of God, one who has found favor in My eyes. Watch as I remove all hindrances that have been set against you.... watch and see, My daughters, watch and see what your God can do!

Beloved sons and daughters of Mine....My rod and My staff they comfort you. I have prepared a table before you 'in' the presence of your enemies. The table is prepared -come to that table prepared just for you. Beloved, grasp the truth of MY LOVE for you. Grasp what I AM doing and will continue to do for you. Grasp it, lay hold of it because it is for you... My Beloved, come to the table prepared just for you.

My Faithful ones, who have found favor in My eyes, you who have answered the call of your God. You have sought Me and you have found Me for I AM your faithful God. Come now into the presence of your Father, come into the place reserved for only you. Be silent before Me and hear My words of Love, My words of Compassion, My Words meant just between the Bridegroom and His Bride. Do not hold back nor pull back from My presence but come boldly into My chamber. Hear the heart of your God, hear the heart of your husbandman. Push aside the concerns of the world and seek only My face.

Look in My direction for the answers, do not put your confidence in men, they will fail you. I will not nor cannot fail and although I use man, your confidence must remain IN ME. Turn your eyes to Jesus, turn your heart to HIM. Ponder on His first coming and what He did for you and ponder on His second coming, the reason for your calling. Help others, help prepare My people so they are prepared to reign with Me. You have been called for such a time as this and I shall bring it forth... Do not put your thinking on the 'precise' when and wherefore put your thoughts on Jesus and your call.

As you come to me and your professions and confessions come forth I am giving you clarity of mind. Words will be clearer to your understanding than they have ever been before. You will see what is happening in the heavenlies and you will marvel at what your God is doing. My hand is outstretched to you and I AM moving in a mighty way in your life. This is not the time for despair but to stand "expectantly" in what the I AM is bringing forth in your life.

The Husbandman has come. The provider is here, therefore do not fret My Beloved, My arm is not short. The enemy has been sealed and the prayers of the intercessors have opened the airways on your behalf. The enemy is losing his hold and it's been through the prayers and obedience of My people. Share your proclamations as a testimony, some will hear and some will not, but share!

I AM COMING TO RESCUE MY SHEEP AND DARKNESS WILL SCATTER. I have placed upon your heart a sure calling. Follow that desire and walk through the door that I will open before you. The way will be made straight and your calling sure. Keep focused upon the door that "I" will open, do not allow other doors to allure you. You say, how will I know? Let My peace that passes all understanding be your guide. The way will be made sure and the door WILL open. Just as the disciples entered the boat to go to the other side, you also entered the boat with your willingness, your obedience and your faith. But as the circumstances have welled up around you, you began to sink and you said "Lord, save me." Know that Jesus has taken you by the hand and you are in My boat of safety. I WILL still all storms and we ARE going safely to the other side.

This is the time, the way is now open to receive My instructions. Receive them now as the enemy will try to regain the ground he has lost. Give him neither the time or the energy. When he knocks do not answer the door....when I knock swing wide open that door. Seek My face and 'do not delay'... your day is happening - your deliverance is nigh.

You have been set apart to follow the straight and narrow road and I placed within your hearts the desire to follow that way. I saw your love for Me and your desire to move out ... now comes that time of moving forth, it is in the here and now. All will be made clear to you, all of My promises to you will come forth and you will have ALL sufficiency to carry out My plan. Your long waiting is coming to a close - I have prepared the way "before you" and the door will open, walk ye through it. Do not look to the left or to the right but rely on Me totally!

Be at peace My Faithful Ones, what I promised I will do - I WILL DO for a two fold purpose - I cannot go against My own Word to you and I desire to please My bride. Those who have been waiting on the Lord will rejoice in My promises and you will give thanks to your mighty God as you see Me do the impossible in your life! I have promised you manifold blessings and now you shall see them come to past. Walk in assurance, knowing that I AM COMING TO RESCUE MY SHEEP AND DARKNESS WILL SCATTER!

Rise Up O Woman Of God
Olivia Long

(faithbuildersministries@the-i.net)

RISE UP O' WOMAN OF GOD.... You are passing over the Jordan into the promised land. I have prepared you and I have guided you. Each word that I have given you was a preparation, like the manna I gave to the children of Israel. - and like the children of Israel you have become very weary, at times, of the manna. But this was to feed you and to sustain you.

NOW, I AM taking you from your wilderness and into your promised land. I will go with you... I will go before you ... and I will go behind you. You shall move into the land that I have prepared for you.

As you draw near to the river to go into the place that I have called and prepared for you, do not be afraid to step into that river for it will part for you. Much preparation has been done in you and in the same wise much preparation has been done in the place I am calling you.

So many times you thought I was doing nothing, but the fact remains a great and mighty work has been done unbeknownst to you. I have never forsaken you although you may have thought that I have. Many times I have been carrying you and protecting you and guiding you through areas that you were never aware of, all the while holding you in the palm of My hand. Beloved, I saw every question, every concern, every tear - never forsaking you...EVER!

I have placed upon each of you a calling like no other. I have placed upon each of your hearts - a hunger and desire to serve Me. An all consuming desire, consuming your thoughts at this very time and times past. Through times of doubts, loneliness and hardships ... times when you have cried out to Me "Where are You God? You promised to move mightily in My life, where are you?"

I say to you, here AM I in your midst. Even when you are surrounded by distractions,and the distractions have been many, I AM in your midst. Keep your eyes and your heart focused on Me, do not be moved, for I will move mightily. Many are called but few are chosen and I AM well pleased that you have stood and remain firm in your calling.

One word of caution, My daughters, "YOU ARE SERVING ME, not man!" You have faced opposition in the past and you will face opposition in the future, such is the course of one who TRULY follows Me. Mankind will try to dissuade you - set your face like flint - only following and serving ME.

Over these past days and hours I have been placing within your spirit a stirring of hope and a stirring of assurance in your heart for the call upon your life. This stirring will begin to bring the flow of My Spirit. You have sensed that there is a moving, "a tangible" moving taking place. Do not denounce it but grasp and lay hold of what I lay before you. The time of being held in limbo is now coming to an end for My Spirit is moving in a mighty way.

Give ear to My Word and remember My precepts - they are for instruction and wealth. Take note of every jot and tittle - they are for a purpose. I do not give words of non effect or non meaning. Each word to you has been carefully picked for you edification and for you instruction. Do not discount My Words but take heed and give ear. Weigh them very carefully!

My Beloved Daughters, you have been in a most vulnerable place because it is the place where I am positioning you to enter and claim your inheritance. A place where often all you can do is "stand." My daughters, through it all, I AM delighted with your obedience and My recompense and reward is with Me. My daughters, I will never allow you, My faithful ones to lose or miss your inheritance and blessings - you can be sure ALL that I have promised you will be fulfilled.

Breakthrough, breakthrough, breakthrough ... I AM the Breaker and I AM breaking through every door and every hold that would try to bind you. You Lord God Almighty is doing this thing and I AM breaking through on your behalf. I AM reaching out My arm to you this day and I say come away My Beloved to that secret place reserved only for you.

The time is right, the day is here, I AM calling you forth. It is no accident that I have chosen this season to bring release to you and to your calling. It is a new beginning that you are celebrating - a new day and a new hour is dawning, so lift up your eyes, My daughters and see your Father and your God bring to pass all that I have promised.

Lift up your eyes for a mighty work has been accomplished. Lift up your eyes for your new day is dawning and your call been made ready. Lift up your eyes to the hills from which cometh your help - your help cometh from the Lord! Lift up your eyes for the unveiling...

You will stand in amazement in what I AM unveiling. You will 'watch' in amazement at the unveiling. I said I would do it and I AM fulfilling My Word. You will see that shortly it will be your triumphant day, a day of breakthrough, a day of triumph over all the enemy has tried to do to hold you back. It will be a day of laying forth the plans I have for you and the triumphant entering into those plans. It is a glorious entering in of you with your King. Listen, My daughters, for the trumpets are sounding and My angels have gone forth.

Get ready for your glorious visitation. Get ready to receive the voice of your God as the mysteries of My will shall be revealed to you. Do not question My instructions but move in them. They will bring an excitement to your spirit and music to your ears. You will say "I can't believe it" but Beloved, you WILL believe!

Don't believe or settle for the lies of the enemy that would say it's not going to happen. Let the words of My mouth be the final say in your life, knowing you can rely on what I say and know that it is truth and it cannot change or fail! My daughters, stand on My Word, it is life to you.

Stand fast, stand fast and don't let go. Your vision, your dream, your hope is in the making, don't let go. Hold fast, stand fast and you will see the I AM bringing into the physical realm those things I have accomplished in the spiritual realm. You will stand in amazement for your thoughts, your conceptions of what I would do could not even begin to compare to what I AM really doing. You will stand amazed at what I AM bringing forth.

The way has been hard and the road has been rough but it is time to RISE UP O' WOMAN OF GOD, rise up and take your rightful place. A place of distinction and a place prepared for only you. I have been knitting you with like sisters who have known much heartache, suffering and pain and those who have 'no need' for personal glory - cherish My precious gift unto you! The hour and minute is upon you - RISE UP O' WOMAN OF GOD!

Do You Have His Perfect Peace

Dorothy Hedlund

[Something of Mystery … Based on Intimacy]
– June 13, 2004

[JESUS]:
Walking to a nearby lake from home, sitting down under a weeping willow near shore-line, I heard: "Are you at peace?"

"Yes, it is a GOOD thing," I replied. (esp. in light of the prior week's turmoil & assaults.)

"May I speak to you about PEACE?" - [Certainly…]

Peace Sanctifies

"PEACE is a most precious gift. PEACE calms every storm within. PEACE is not some 'thing' – peace IS ME," He said. [The Spirit then brought I Thes. 5:23 to mind: May God himself, THE GOD OF PEACE, sanctify you through and through. May your whole spirit, soul, and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. The one who calls you is faithful, and He will do it."

I had never 'seen it' before, and asked, "Peace…sanctifies?"
"Yes…….I DO."

"Is it not by a work of circumcision – by which souls, sanctified, come?"
"Even in the midst of 'spiritual operations,' is there not PEACE, dear one?" (yes…)

"MY NATURE IS PEACE…even in the midst of righteous anger, I AM & remain, PEACE."
"But how can that BE?"

"Peace is the undisturbed confidence of knowing, (even though storms arise) that ALL of Father's plans…are good & true & wise. With evil He does not compromise. TRUTH brings PEACE because it sets captives free. THE MORE TRUTH YOU UNDERSTAND…the more you come to TRUST in the wisdom of His plan. This sets your mind at ease, bringing you back to the place called PEACE.

Even the 'violent' need times of PEACE; they are only human. It is actually PEACE for which they seek. PEACE, which encompasses love - is the only gift that can fill up 'empty ones.' When you do not have peace, you are not aligned with Me.

In the midst of every storm, you must also 'remember your song.' It will bring PEACE, setting your gaze back on Me. Peace…MY PEACE, is a GIFT that cannot be 'taken away' by any circumstance, nor by man. IT IS ME.

Where Does Peace Come From?

"Now, let Me ask you – WHERE does this 'peace' come from, that I give to you?" He asked. [I responded with a thought which had just popped into my mind…]

"You are CORRECT … FROM INTIMACY … even as the Father, Spirit and I are one."
[He let it sink in…]

Without INTIMACY (agreement/unity/being ONE with and in Them) – I Myself could have no lasting peace to keep or bring. Father sent Me into the world to be called 'Immanuel,' God With Us – but also to come as THE PRINCE OF PEACE." (again He paused to let me take it in…)

Peace IS the will of God.
Peace IS God.
The Father and I are ONE.
Because we are one, I AM PEACE.
And in order to become one, there MUST BE INTIMACY.
From the place of INTIMACY & PEACE – all virtues flow.

Then He asked, "Do you know what the 'birthchild' of INTIMACY + PEACE IS? It is LOVE… TRUE LOVE … AGAPE LOVE.

He paused again, letting me chew on the spiritual steak I was being given, then said, "I have heard your thoughts at times – when you've said, 'love is not enough' in the midst of storms in life's relationships. AND THIS IS TRUE. Love is NOT enough, according to what man is capable of – if there is not also PEACE. Do you see WHY, now, that Satan, the enemy of your souls – tries to STEAL YOUR PEACE? If he can work havoc in the souls of men, and in their relationships stir up strife or 'di-ease' – he has grabbed the prize: PEACE. When he has worn you down enough to get YOU to give it up, without Our intervention – LOVE WILL CEASE TO BE.

That is why I have said unto you that THE GOD OF PEACE will soon crush Satan underneath your feet. Yes, I know we could go off on the tangent of 'feet' now – but let's stick to PEACE. One subject at a time," I could hear Him smiling at me.

How is Peace Transferred?

Then the Lord asked, "HOW is peace transferred from the Father into Me – and then from Myself into you? Have you ever considered that?"

"No, not until YOU put the thoughts in my head," I teased Him, "and now that You HAVE, what more is there to be said?"

"PEACE is a GIFT OF LIFE – and must be RECEIVED."

"How is this done?"

"By becoming ONE: one with the Father, one with Me, one with the Spirit – and ultimately one with others, for eternity." He responded.

"So, how do we BECOME one?"

Drink Me In

"By joining in spirit with The Spirit in Me … by receiving LIVING WATERS/PURE WORD, that is why I tell you TO DRINK AND RECEIVE. He (the Spirit) will even teach you HOW TO DRINK, so that more one with Me you can be.

Your peace is dependent on how often you come to Me TO DRINK. Have you heard it said, "I drank in the beauty of the scene with my eyes?" (yes…)

'DRINKING IN' something simply means: opening up your spiritual faculties to Me that you might receive. It is opening your spirit & soul up to Me. That is why those who are either close-minded or hard-hearted have so little peace. They cannot 'open up their spirits to Me' and come freely to drink/receive. My waters received, bring LIFE and PEACE. Having once TASTED OF PEACE, you can then more & more fully LOVE.

Some 'drink Me in' by receiving the living waters of My word, by studying the scriptures.

Some 'drink Me in' by prayer & intercession, aligning their spirits with that of My own.

Others 'drink Me in' with their spiritual eyes, as we come face to face in 'the revelation place.'

And still others 'drink of Me' by passing 'beyond the veil' – coming to drink & receive… directly from Me (by means of spirit transport/reality revelation). Here, they receive things rich of Spirit-overflow, as they come to dwell IN THE Father along with Me. In this place is PERFECT PEACE due to the highest level of INTIMACY."

He continued, "You can 'KNOW PEACE' (as some would say, 'in the biblical sense') – only by becoming ONE WITH ME. In this place of undisturbed confidence, trust, and knowledge of the holy – you come to PERFECT PEACE."

Coming to 'Perfect Peace' By Tabernacle Design

"And what IS 'perfect?'" He asked. "That which is MATURE. There are things of MATURE LOVE that you cannot understand until you've arrived – just as also there are things of MATURE (perfect) PEACE, in which 'the mature' come to abide.

According to tabernacle design, your soul experiences more & more transformation as you come 'forward' (closer) to Me. Those dwelling in the OUTER COURT will experience & understand but a limited measure of My peace and love at hand. Those who move in closer, into the INNER COURT (Holy Place), begin A DEEPER WALK OF PEACE, more deeply in love with Me. But then there are those desperate souls who leave the world totally behind, becoming as those fully sanctified/crucified – dead to all, but Me.
THEIR REWARD is to taste of PERFECT PEACE – and of the abundant delights of My love.

HOW CLOSE, dear ones, do you want to come? There are many who have already come before you. The invitation has been open to all. The 'less YOU become' – the MORE you'll have NEED of ME… and THE MORE YOU'LL COME TO 'DRINK.'

Your Daily Portion is as 'The Big Dipper' … SO DRINK

The DAILY PORTION I have for YOU fills up the 'BIG DIPPER' in the night sky. Do you KNOW how wide & deep this is by measurement of miles? It is MORE than you can ask for or dream. It is taken from a well, supplied by an everlasting stream. The next time you see 'The Big Dipper' – consider the LIVING WATERS/PORITON that I had intended for you THAT day. Did you linger in My presence and drink – or did you, in busyness, rush away?

If you would 'know peace' – you must DAILY COME to drink. I speak this to the mature and immature…to those who are just learning, and to those who have heard this message many times before. So why are you dry? Why are you not at peace? Who enticed you out of the Fortress/Tower – that your peace in last weeks has ceased? DRINK in my word… gaze upon Me by revelation, come to Me by Father … DRINK & RECEIVE BY CONSUMMATION.

I and the Father are one, and so must you be – only then, My Church – will you know THE POWER OF PEACE and THE AUTHORITY OF SABBOTH-REST – IN ME.

Don't be a 'sipper' – when I've supplied the 'Big Dipper.'

DEEPER MEAT – He then said: "The basis of a passionate relationship is oddly enough, not love, but peace. Peace comes by way of intimacy, and intimacy comes when two join and agree. Love IS BIRTHED as a result of SYMPHONY.

You ask, "Well, did LOVE come first or PEACE?" What a question to ask – when I AM both of these," He laughed, amused. "In the fullness of peace there IS LOVE – but also in the fullness of love there IS PEACE. I am THE PEACE OF GOD – and GOD IS LOVE. When peace and love join as one, creative power-works are done." [just think about THAT for a moment.]

When peace and love join as one…
'creative power-works' are done

[Consider: in the midst of relationships where you can say 'we love each other' (family & friends) – is there ALSO peace? If the spirit of strife/division, accusation, unforgive-ness, jealousy or dishonor is in place – it is likely there is little true peace. Yes, there is, of course, "agape love," which goes the distance because of GOD IN US. However, IF THERE IS LITTLE TRUE PEACE – few creative works (a result of intimacy with God & each other), can be done. How important is peace? Oddly enough, it's so important that it's something worth FIGHTING FOR in our churches, homes, and ministries. In fact, what would happen if for one week…on our knees…WE ALL CRIED OUT FOR the establishment of God's SUPERNATURAL PEACE?]

"Just guess…" Jesus replied to me. (I thought He was done speaking) …

"The enemy flees when you drop to your knees…
Cry out together: "Oh, come, Prince of Peace!
Yes, I may be shaking & turning some things 'upside down'
But in the 'eye of the storm' – there I Am, peace and calm
Inside of your spirits – inside of your hearts,
Let Me establish MY PEACE – or you'll fall…apart
Become one with Me in the place of intimacy –
Then let ME BATTLE FOR YOU, as I position you STAY IN PEACE"

Declare Your Love
Sandy Warner

Dec 24, 2004
Dearest, always be free to declare your love. Your life will be like a crystal clear pool or water, refreshing and pure. Love is Who I AM and Who I want you to be. Do not hold back your language of love over those I have given to you. They need your declarations of heart just as much as you need to express it. Stand strong and release what I have placed in your heart to liberally give.

1 John 4:11-12 NLT
Dear friends, since God loved us that much, we surely ought to love each other. No one has ever seen God. But if we love each other, God lives in us, and his love has been brought to full expression through us.

Weight Loss
Sandy Warner

Dec 22, 2004
The hearts of My people have grown heavy and cold and they continue to lift up the burden of weight too heavy for them. Much of this heavy weight is literally excess body fat. Spiritual weights are sins that so easily beset, heavy weights of the soul are depression, mourning and sighing. The debt of such has grown in the years and taken its toll. It is time, I want you out of debt. Put this promise in your pocket and carry it in your heart. I am paying the way with great grace, put it on My account. Prayer warriors, call out to Me for the miracles you need and I will open the door to let the hindrances go.

Heb 12:1 KJV
Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

Bring Forth The Hidden Seeds
Sandy Warner

Dec 20, 2004
Written for Mr. President, George Bush
7/16/04

My Son, you have been prepared your entire life for such a time as this. Yes, My burning Bush, like the bush that Moses saw, you are burning brightly and My flame upon your life shines not only in this world but in heaven too. How brightly you burn! And how dear you are to My heart as I witness your deepest humility while you stand under the spotlight, because you seek My will and My way. Thank you.

You wonder about your future and feel the earnest longings to bring to completion this flaming passion I have placed within your life. All of heaven works with you, My Son, as you pave the way in bringing My will to earth, even as it is in heaven.

I have planted many seeds within the womb of your heart and calling. It is time to bring them forth. Many of these seeds are hidden ones that are deeply buried. Some of these are mystery seeds that you do not understand. Even as I have called My army of prophetic prayer warriors and intercessors to pray over you, over the White House and over America, I AM calling you to also release your own seeds of intercession and declaration over America and over the world.

I have anointed you with great power of influence. For such a time as this, it is time to release that power and anointing through prayer and declaration. You have a host of angels that are waiting to be released as you speak forth My kingdom on earth, even as I have declared in heaven.

Pour forth these seeds of great passion, - all of your heart's desires for America, for the White House, for the government, for the nations. Ask of Me and I will give you My righteous government in the land. Ask of Me and I will give you the nations. My scepter is extended to you, My Son, the one who burns for Me. Release your requests to Me, pour forth every desire, and I will bow My ear low and listen. Then receive My gift of boldness to declare your vision upon earth, knowing that it shall be done, because I have placed My mantle of great favor upon your shoulders, My Son.

This is My secret divine work, it is the work that will live long after your time. The power of these seeds will bear fruit for all generations. These hidden seeds will bear eternal fruit. Take every advantage, every moment you have to verbally spread My righteous seeds through private and public prayer, through private and public decree and know without a doubt that My army of angels are dispatched to carry forth your orders. Thank you My Son, thank you My burning Bush.

Psalm 71:15-18 NLT
I will tell everyone about your righteousness. All day long I will proclaim your saving power, for I am overwhelmed by how much you have done for me. I will praise your mighty deeds, O Sovereign LORD. I will tell everyone that you alone are just and good. O God, you have taught me from my earliest childhood, and I have constantly told others about the wonderful things you do. Now that I am old and gray, do not abandon me, O God. Let me proclaim your power to this new generation, your mighty miracles to all who come after me.

Esther 4:14 NKJV
For if you remain completely silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Yet who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

Job 22:28 NKJV
You will also declare a thing, and it will be established for you; So light will shine on your ways.

Matthew 6:9-13 NKJV
Our Father in heaven, Hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come. Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, As we forgive our debtors. And do not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

1 Kings 3:5 NKJV
At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask! What shall I give you?"

Do You Love Me?

Angel Dahilig

July 15, 2004

Just as each major step of maturity in Me required a deliberate and conscious choice on your part, so does getting closer to me require a conscious decision on your part.

I will not make you deny your flesh,
but I will put the choice in your heart,
and you can wrestle it (your flesh),
and it's desires, and the comfort it craves,
and choose how much you will desire me.

How much do you truly love me?
Do you truly want my presence?
When I am hiding My face, will you seek me?

Then, die to your flesh.

It wants to sleep, rather than to pray.
It wants to eat, rather than to fast.
It wants to pursue it's own interests, rather than to dedicate it's time,
worshiping and learning, at my feet.

I'm looking for the few,
the faithful,
the remnant.

They are those who fought their flesh,
who battled the temptations,
and who persevered even without an apparent reward from me.

The desires of this life,
it's allurements and rewards are fleeting and truly a deception... like a ring in a pig's snout!

Do you love me, more than these?

Do you love me, just for the reward of me?

Rev 2:4-5, 7 (NIV):
"... You have forsaken your first love.
Remember the height from which you have fallen!
Repent and do the things you did at first. If you do not repent,
I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place.
... To him who overcomes, I will give the right to eat from the tree of life, which is in the paradise of God."

John 21:15-17, 19, 21, 22 (NIV):
15 When they had finished eating, Jesus said to Simon Peter,
"Simon son of John, do you truly love me more than these?"
"Yes, Lord," he said, "You know that I love you."
Jesus said, "Feed my lambs."
16 Again Jesus said, "Simon son of John, do you truly love me?"
He answered, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you."
Jesus said, "Take care of my sheep."
17 The third time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?"
Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him a third time, "Do you love me?"
He said, "Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you."
Jesus said, "Feed my sheep.
19 ... Then he said to him, "Follow me!"
21... When Peter saw him [John following them], he asked, "Lord, what about him?"
22 Jesus answered., "... what is that to you? You must follow me."

Luke 12:48 (NIV):
"... from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked."

1 Corinthians 9:27 (NKJ):
But I discipline my body and bring it into subjection,
lest, when I have preached to others,
I myself should become disqualified.

Elections [Canada] 2004

Carla Rickard

The Lord spoke to me about the upcoming elections in Canada.

The shaking will continue. Every plan that was devised in darkness will be brought into the light. There will be nothing left standing. In the process there will be much grief in the people as they see that there is no judge on the earth to bring their cause to righteous end. There will be groaning as the Lord sweeps through the electoral process, police organizations both in the RCMP and city police. Leaders in the house of the Lord will not be spared as they have also done violence in the land against the Sheep of the Shepherd. Criminal activity will continue to be brought to light.

The Lord said, " watch as things that you have never heard of before are brought into the public forum". I inquired of the Lord what this would be. He indicated to me that it would be about what comes out of the mouth of man and how it will bring him destruction. Canada’s political system will be brought low and a new system will have to be birthed in its place. This birthing has begun but will not yet be seen for many years to come until all that is unfit for kingdom purposes is destroyed by exposure.

There will be not one stone left unturned. All things that are corrupt and criminal will be brought into the light. The shaking cannot be stopped. The people have cried out for a king and they received one of their choosing because they did not desire the King of Glory. The harvest of wickedness is ripe. The seeds of righteousness have been planted and will grow rapidly within the next 5 years. There will be great attacks on the seeds of righteousness but they will be futile and not stand.

Canada will be preserved by the righteousness of a few. The Lord said that He has called Canada to be tolerant but in that tolerance He did not call us to compromise righteousness and right judgment. This is a lesson that will be difficult to learn for many, for it is neither of fundamentalist thought nor is it of liberal assertions but of the Pure Word of God: not of man's theological philosophy.

They will see their plight as unjust, those who have been marked for purging, however it is perfectly just as to save many of the same from out the pit of doom that is awaiting them now if they continue on the present path of destruction.

The wicked will remain wicked, but the Lord says for his people to keep his statutes and the blessing of the land will come through the righteous. For His Name’s sake he will bring forth all that was spoken of for Canada. It is not a war against flesh and blood. Do not bring in the war of the flesh! Be mindful that the Lord God is in control and knows all things past present and future. He knows and has designed it to bring to pass exactly His Will in the earth and in this country.

The princes of the land are leading the people into grave spiritual danger. They have bowed to a dangerous god called democracy where the majority speaks but however the system is deceptive. It does not speak for the people. Its mouth is full of lies and false promises which is grievous to the Lord.

There will be a revolution of ideas brought forth in the land to propel Canada forth into her destiny of being the healing of the nations to many. Lessons learned in a difficult manner will be lessons not easily forgotten.

Watch. Is Lightning greater than a Flame? Is a Flame greater than lightning?

Lightning is powerful but for a second, a flame burns on and on and illuminates for a while rather than a moment. Those who have ears to hear will understand the mystery spoken of.

The Lord is full of mercy and his judgments are righteous. Canada will bring forth the fruit required in the kingdom of God. Do not pray as you have prayed thus far. Ask the Lord how to pray for then you walk in agreement. God has called Canada into a unique position in the world but she cannot enter into her destiny until the purging is complete. You have heard it said the cream rises to the top. You have also heard it said that the very cream that rises also curdles into corruption and is not fit for consumption. Be ware that you do not fall into the trap of being complacent towards your leaders for your duty is to pray for them.

This is the year of creation for Canada. As all is being torn down, so the Lord is rising up a new way that is agreeable to His Kingdom on earth. It will unfold but not in a day, but precept upon precept, until it is accomplished in the earth.

(based on Micah)

The Lord instructed me to get this message out for His Glory promptly to you all.

Divided Land

Subject: Divided Land

I at first discounted this dream but the Lord spoke into my heart that He wants me to " write the vision down" So that is what I am doing now. I dreamed Paul Martin (possible new leader of the Federal Liberal Party, predicted successor of Prime Minister Jean Chretian of Canada and a " practicing Catholic" in his own words) was following me in my dream.

He was talking with me about being the Prime Minister. I said to him. " No. The last Prime Minister of Canada was Jean Chretian. There are no more Prime Ministers" He kept arguing with me that he was PM. I kept saying back to him (almost like I had amnesia but not really) that Jean Chretian was the last PM . Finally I had to say to him to make him understand that Canada was split up now. The West went to the USA, Central Canada went back to Britain (or vice versa), but Atlantic Canada was now its own " Maritime Country" The only independent. " They were standing on their own now" . Therefore there was no need for another PM.

June 3 2004

The Lord gave me the interpretation of this dream just today! He told me the dream was about the upcoming elections in Canada. Here is the symbolism:

Prime Minister Paul Martin is still running on the Chretian mandate. He has not been voted in by the Canadian people.

Jean Chretian was a powerful leader that represented the old form of politics where the leader holds most of the power which is delegated under his authority to the other ministers of government.

The reason that Chretian was the last PM of Canada in the dream is that the shift of power has taken place where there will not be a powerful leader in the head of Canadian government again.

The splitting of the country in three ways are this:

Liberals (Paul Martin) belong to Britain (the old system of the Privy council and responsible government)

The New Conservative Party of Canada (Stephen Harper) belong to the United States (the system adopted by the Americans for their independence from Great Britain)

The New Democrat Party (Jack Layton) represent the independent and a new vision for Canada.

This is the shift in power. The Lord is in control of this. I sometimes wonder how come he gives it to me so far in advance that I don’t understand it. He made this clear as well. So He gets all the glory because no man can interpret the mysteries of God that he chooses to conceal until the times and seasons are fulfilled for the disclosing

Note:

There is as three way split in the election poles. The Elections are on June 28. The three parties have almost equal DIVISION OF VOTES from the Canadian public that looks like a possible minority government. This has only happened two other times in Canadian history. The last was in the Trudeau years when Joe Clark went in power with a minority government with the Progressive Conservatives and lost that power in the House of Commons.

Elisha's Come Forth!!

It is time, time for My Elisha's to come forth all over the earth. The forerunners have prepared the way. I tell you Elijah's to release the Elisha's in your midst, the young unknown ones coming out of the caves. Their zeal will not fail them and such is what you have prayed for My Elijah's, that I would use your "young".

Their anointing shall be double your anointing My Elijah's for these are My fearless ones, My Joshua's that will go in and take the land. They have energy and passion to truly spread My kingdom in the hard places where many Elijah's do not want to or cannot go.

Release them My precious older sheep, so they can come forth and be supported by you, for your age and responsibilities are against you. Why are armies in the natural made up of the young? Because they have more natural strength to deal with the uncomfortableness of battles. They have no family usually to hinder them and dying does not waiver them as much.

Does it mean I won't use you Elijah's yet in My kingdom? Of course not! As you support the Elisha's you will share equally in their reward.

Are you jealous of them coming into the spotlight? If so then My Spirit will convict your heart as My Love desires and demands the greatest good of all.

Did you not think I would greatly use this generation born in the shadows of abortion and death? Watch and see the ones I will use will have been born since abortion was legalized in this country, for great has been their loss of security and great shall be their desire for Me. Indeed, I am their only hope, unlike other generations, they know they are at the end. They do not hope for a "normal" American life, they know it is not possible.

So I say to you let go My Elijah's, for you shall not be able to stop what I shall do next, the Elisha's shall arise because I have ordained it!

So bless them, and you will be blessed for I am not a God of disunity but harmony between My children. When you do not let go you are only hurting yourself.

Arise My Elisha's into your glorious hour! This is now the day of Elisha!!

Old ministries will dry up and new ones shall come forth! Come out! For I Myself am leading you out of the cave!!

An Undivided Heart

Jeanne Kruchowski

Dec 5, 2003

Pray for an undivided heart My people for many will be snared and indeed already are in the fowler's trap because of their divided heart.

A divided heart cannot stand just as a house divided against itself cannot stand. When the winds blow they will fall who have divided hearts. A heart that loves Me/Jesus/Yeshua but ALSO loves it's own way is a divided heart.

There is coming a day when MANY will sell themselves to the evil one just for something to eat! In fact many have sold their souls to him to receive the wealth they now have, that is why I have said the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil.

Brother will accuse brother in the days that are coming and will turn in one of My own just for a piece of bread.

Unheard of jealousy and fighting. But if you seek to please Me completely you will be taken safely home.

That doesn't mean you won't be hated, cursed, lied about or killed. It does mean that you will inherit eternal life, for such are the lives that have gone before you, the great cloud of witnesses.

Do not even look to what your brother says is from Me, seek Me directly for that was the price I paid, for you to come directly to Me. Seek Me now while it is easier to hear My voice for it shall be more difficult in the days to come when the testings increase on the earth, the voices around you are many.

The prophetic realm is changing. No longer will signs and wonders be your judgment of who is from Me, for many will come with signs and wonders who are not from Me.

Many exaggerated words have been said to My body, this too will end as the centrality of the cross in one's life becomes the focus.

And the "wonderful ministries" that have been prophesied, if they come about at all, will be born out of being a "bondservant" to Me.

You look at the Upper Room and say I want that! And while this is right and true, if you look at the end of Paul, Peter and John's lives you will see it had changed. Their end ministry was a result of their depth in Me. The signs draw, but the depths are needed to complete the course.

Come into the depths, yes even the depths of My suffering, I shall not leave you there but shall draw you up into a higher place, a solid place, not built on emotions or "highs" but built upon the rock, Me, Jesus, Yeshua, where there is no wavering.

Escape From Churchianity

Chip Brogden

Aug 11, 2004

It is important that we make a clear distinction between the True Church (the Ecclesia) and the Institutional Church, Organized Religion, or religion in general. The easiest way to begin is to discuss one critical thing that Organized Religion cannot do.

Organized Religion cannot impart Life.

"This is our testimony, that God has given us Eternal Life, and this Life is in His Son: He that has the Son has Life, and He that has not the Son of God has not Life (I John 5:11,12)."

Contrary to popular belief, the Lord Jesus Christ does not live within the matrix of Organized Religion. The Ecclesia, like our Lord, is Wholly Other. I can prove it to you beyond the shadow of a doubt. Can you join a "church" ? Yes, if you meet their requirements for membership. Can you join the Ecclesia? No. You have to be born into it. Or, to be more correct, you have to be born-again into it. It is not a question of joining or not joining, but a question of having Life versus not having Life. "He that has the Son has Life; He that has not the Son has not Life."

Some erroneously believe Jesus founded a movement, or formed a new religion. No, the world already had movements and religions, and would continue to have them. He had no intention of starting a new one. What did He bring us? What did He contribute to the world? He committed Himself to us as our Life.

Muhammad, Buddha, Confucius, or Socrates can bring us good teaching, moral excellence, and religious philosophy. For this they may be commended as rendering help and aid to humanity. But Jesus Christ is different: He brings us Himself as our Life. It is not that He merely transmits some teachings to us, depositing some virtue into the human race, before being taken up into heaven. It is well beyond Him simply being an example for us to follow, the standard by which our morals are measured as we frantically whisper, "What would Jesus do?". No, He Himself came to be our Life. He is Savior, and Salvation. He is Redeemer, and Redemption. He is Healer, and Healing. He is the Giver of Life, and He is Life.

In Him is Life because He is Life. All who are in Him possess Life, and Life possesses them. The Life is in the Son. The Son is in me, and I am in Him. We share in a common Life. "He that is joined to the Lord is one spirit with Him (I Corinthians 6:7)."

Everyone together who possess Life are called the Ecclesia, the Church, the Body of Christ. The individual members of the Ecclesia are called Christians. They are the in-Christed ones. They abide in Him, and He abides in them.

You ask is not a Christian one who believes thus and so, or behaves thus and so. We answer that they may very well believe or behave thus and so, but the belief or the behavior, while it may assist us in identifying them, is not what makes them a Christian. It is the Life. Certainly, Christians have a core system of beliefs and practices. But the characteristic of a Christian is Life. It is not even "the Lord of my life", implying something apart from Him that I still have control over; it is "the Lord AS my Life."

An intellectual Christianity is what Organized Religion brings. It cannot impart Life. What do I mean by an intellectual Christianity? It is the ABC Gospel. Perhaps you have heard it. Salvation is obtained in three easy steps: "A" stands for "admit you are a sinner"; "B" stands for "believe on the Lord Jesus to save you"; and "C" stands for "confess Jesus as your personal Savior." What is wrong with that? Simply this: there is no Life there. "ABC" will not save us. With "ABC" there is no encounter with Jesus, Who alone is Life. There is only an intellectual acceptance and affirmation of what is presented as "Three Easy Steps". I believe this, I say that, and that makes me a Christian, right? No, it just makes you religious. There are many people who "get religion", but they don't get Jesus.

Organized Religion has caused Christianity to morph into Churchianity, a gospel which is easy to believe in but progressively more difficult to live up to.

Organized Religion can bring doctrine, teaching, and belief. Some of it may be morally excellent and good. Some of it may even sound Biblical, like "Three Easy Steps". Nevertheless, Organized Religion cannot impart Life. Why? Because it has no Life to give. Jesus Christ is the Life. And Jesus does not live within the matrix of Organized Religion. He gives HIMSELF. How can any man, organization, or movement claim to give away another man, much less impart the very Life of Jesus Christ? Only Jesus can give Himself as our Life.

You see, then, that the most anyone can do is point people to Jesus as the sole Source of Life. They may contact Life through us, but we cannot give them Life. To those bound by Organized Religion, Jesus cries "You search the Scriptures, because you think in them you have Life. You are content to read about Me, but you will not come to Me that you may have Life (John 5:39,40, paraphrased)." Come to Me! Not, "Memorize these Three Easy Steps and attend the Church of your choice this Sunday." Come to Me! He is Life.

The Church, the Lord's Ecclesia, is the synthesis of individuals who have the Revelation of Jesus and have come to Him to receive Him as their Life. Here is where the confusion begins. We glibly use the term "church" to describe things which are not The Lord's Ecclesia. A building devoted to religious meetings is called "the church". Attending a religious meeting is called "going to church." Hearing a good message or good music during the religious meeting is called "having church" (a popular tune says "crank up the music, let's have church!"). Becoming a member of the non-profit organization which owns the building devoted to religious meetings is called "joining the church". Taking responsibility as the founder or being voted in as the director of the non-profit organization which owns the building devoted to religious meetings is called "pastoring the church". Making additions to the building devoted to religious meetings or to the membership list of the non-profit organization which owns the building is called "church growth".

Why are we being so facetious and wordy? Why do we choose our phraseology carefully? For the sake of convenience, or just plain laziness, people have grown accustomed to saying "church" instead of "a non-profit organization that owns a building devoted to religious meetings." Whatever nomenclature you decide upon, we are drawing the line and making a distinction between "The Church" and "church". We hope to impress upon you the difference between what people customarily call "church" and what the Lord considers to be "The Church". As demonstrated above, much of what we call "church" is simply Organized Religion. It is not the Lord's Ecclesia.

We simply see things the way we have been trained to see them; we do not see things as God sees them. It is very easy to quantify and describe things in terms of Organized Religion because it is earthy, worldly, natural. Ask someone on the street. What is church? Why, it is that building there with a steeple on top. What is a pastor? The fellow who does the preaching. What is a Christian? The folks who read their Bible a lot and pray a lot and go to church a lot - you know, doing good works. You see how easy it is to define. It is tangible, concrete. We can get our hands on that.

But the reality is that everything which makes up the Ecclesia is spiritual, and thus, it is invisible to the naked eye. It is non-corporeal. It cannot be measured by dollars and statistics. Now ask the same questions of someone who knows better. What is church? The Church, the Ecclesia, is the synthesis of individuals who have the Revelation of Jesus and have come to Him to receive Him as their Life. Pray tell, where do I find that? What do I look for? You can't do it, it's like trying to find the wind at 101 North Main Street. It is beyond geographical description; it is everywhere and nowhere. What is a pastor? Someone called to feed the Lord's sheep as an under shepherd of the Chief Shepherd. Huh? You mean preaching? No, not necessarily. You mean a doctor of theology? No, not really. Oh never mind: what is a Christian? Oh that's easy, someone who is in Christ. What do you mean "in Christ"? Don't you mean "believes in Christ?" No, I mean IS in Christ, in union, one with Him. So what does THAT look like? How many chapters of the Bible do they read per day? How long do they pray? How often do they attend church? It defies explanation because the truth is it has nothing to do with the external, only the internal. Like the wind: you can see the effects of it but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it goes; so are they which are born of the Spirit (John 3). This invisible Life is the characteristic of the Ecclesia. When you can capture the wind in a bag then you can stuff Christians into a building and call it "church". " Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you (Luke 17:21)."

So, from our vantage point here on earth, Organized Religion can be easily seen, felt, touched, experienced, quantified, denominated, characterized, categorized, analyzed, and explained. We can chart its progress and hang the data up on the wall, point to it and say yep, we've got this many million converts here, and this many million members there. Church growth is up (or down), we collected this many billions of dollars last year, and in relation to the rest of the world's religions we rank number whatever. We've got this many thousands of churches in this part of the world, we have this many thousands of pastors and Christian workers, and we've translated the Bible into this many different languages.

Meanwhile, what drives the Real Church, the Ecclesia, is invisible, spiritual, ethereal, in the world but not of the world, hidden, veiled, hard to describe in terms we can understand. We can't generate the data and hang it up on the wall. Even those who know what the Ecclesia is sometimes have difficulty expressing themselves. Ask them where to find the Church of which they so longingly speak, and they are apt to reply, "I'm not sure if I know where the Church is, brother, but I sure know where it ain't!"

Now imagine that the Lord wakes you up one night and says, "Come up hither, and I will show you the Church." You expect Him to carry you down the street to the Family Worship Center or across the country to where the crowds say they are experiencing revival; but instead you find yourself rising high into the air, leaving the earth behind, and in the blink of an eye you travel beyond the edges of the temporal universe and into the spirit realm, seated with Christ in heavenly places, there in the throne of God.

Seated with the Lord and looking back down upon the world, we find from this perspective that the cathedrals, the church buildings, the worship centers, the sanctuaries, the denominational offices, the seminaries, the tithes and offerings, the membership drives, the movements, all vanish from sight. Everything melts away. He does not see the Assemblies of God, the Southern Baptists, the United Methodists, the Lutherans, the Presbyterians, or the Roman Catholics. He does not see Charismatics or Fundamentalists or Bible Belts or Christian Conservatives or Religious Rights. He does not see the building devoted to religious meetings as anything more special or significant than the grocery store or barber shop. He sees pastors, yes, but strangely, He does not see every director of a non-profit organization who owns a building devoted to religious meetings as a pastor. And it is not just the pastors that are different, from our heavenly observation point. Everything seems odd. Backwards. Apostles are not where you expect them to be, and they are not doing what you expect them to be doing; neither are prophets, evangelists, or teachers. Yet, they are right where He wants them to be, doing exactly what He wants them to do. Interestingly enough, He is not concerned with a rise or a decline in church attendance because He does not see the Church as something which can be attended. Hmmmm.

Standing next to Him we see as He sees. We realize when we look upon Christendom that all God sees there is His Church, the Ecclesia. He deems those who abide in Him, those who possess the Son, as those who have Life. His Church is not declining, it is growing because His Life cannot be contained or restricted. His Ecclesia is outside the matrix. His Church is spiritual, and as such, it is eternal, transcending time and space. Just as He is, and does.

You look upon His Face and see the curve of His smile, so you follow His gaze - and there it is, the living stones and precious gems which make up His Church. You couldn't see them before, because you were right in the middle of it while still on earth. But now, far removed from it all and looking down upon it from the Lord's perspective, you see that the living stones are being assembled together into a brilliant, gleaming, dazzling building which covers the entire earth! An angel stands apart from it, shouting, "100% pure: never touched by human hands!" You zoom in closer and discover that the stones and gems are not literal stones and gems, but people! Wonderful, beautiful, joy-filled people, joined together into a striking mosaic of vibrant colors, a tapestry of interwoven beauty, a medley of lives in perfect twelve-part harmony, all pulsing with His heartbeat, His Life, His Essence. You begin to weep at the unadulterated purity of it and oneness of it. There is no spot, wrinkle, or blemish to be found.

Only God could make something this gorgeous. Only God. Only God. And there in the midst of this wonderful place, you see what makes it so splendid...

There HE is, walking around in the midst of this Temple, adding living stone upon living stone, precious gem upon precious gem, and what do you hear? Singing? Yes. The Living Stones are crying out in praise. And He is smiling, and - whistling! - while He works.

Jesus is building His Church.

Then, as quickly as it began, it is over.

You open your eyes and find yourself back on earth, having returned to your three-dimensional world. It's a sunny day, the birds are singing, the church bells are ringing, and you see men, women, and children walking down the street, carrying their Bibles. You rush out into the road and grab an elderly gentleman.

"Where are you going? What's going on? Why are you so dressed up?"

"Get your hands off me, you crazy idiot! It's Sunday morning, and I'm going to church!"

"You've seen the Church??"

"Seen it? Of course I've seen it. My great-great grandfather helped build that church!"

"No, I mean have you SEEN the CHURCH," you repeat emphatically. "The Church that JESUS is building!"

"I don't know what the devil you're talking about, young man. Now let me alone, or I'll be late!"

You let him go and before you know it you are swept along by the crowd and find yourself sitting within the four walls of a building that calls itself "First Hypocritical Church, International."

The service is just beginning. The pastor approaches the lectern and announces, "Let's all stand and sing!"

Not sure what to do, you join in the chorus:

Know ye not, know ye not ye are the Temple? Know ye not, know ye not ye are the Temple? Know ye not, know ye not ye are the Temple? Ye are the Temple of the Holy Ghost! At the end of the song the pastor appears at the lectern again and matter-of-factly shouts, "Isn't it good to be in the house of God today!" It's more of a statement than a question. And all the people say, "AMEN!"

Hope rises! The House of God! Maybe he's seen it too! Forgetting where you are, you stand up and excitedly shout "Have YOU seen the House of God, brother?"

"Amen!" He replies. "It's good to be in church this morning!"

"Amen!" the people agree.

"No, wait a minute," you interrupt, mouthing the words ever so slowly and deliberately, as if you were talking to a deaf lip reader. "Have you SEEN the CHURCH, brother? The Church that JESUS is building?"

All heads are turned now, facing you. The old man, one of the deacons, whispers, "That's the weirdo I met on the way to church this morning!"

The pastor is growing impatient. "This IS the church, brother. Hallelujah!"

"But sir," you press, "KNOW YE NOT YE ARE THE TEMPLE???"

The silence is deafening.

"You are the Temple. WE are the Temple! Jesus is building His Church! I' ve seen it! It's a wonderful House of Living Stones, filled with His Life! We are the Church that He is building! We are the Living Stones, the Precious Gems! I saw Jesus, and He was smiling and placing the stones together, and..."

Some teenagers on the back row are giggling.

"I've seen it! It's true! The stones... the jewels... it's gorgeous!"

The people are looking at the pastor to see what he will do.

Slowly it dawns on you. You realize that to them you are an alien from another planet trying to communicate something that is so real to you but is totally foreign to the rest of the world.

Desperately you grab the man standing next to you by the shoulders, thinking to shake it into him. "You don't believe me... But it's true! You sing about it... but you don't believe it! YOU ARE THE TEMPLE! You have to believe me! I've seen it! Jesus is building His Church!"

The ushers are making their way over to your place in the pew.

Sweating and shaking, you look around the sanctuary, wild-eyed. "No, something's wrong here. Everything is different... this isn't the Church! I mean, you're calling it church, but this isn't what I've seen at all. No, the Church is... is... One Flock with One Shepherd, not divided up into denominations and sects! It's a mosaic of people! It's a tapestry of rich colors! It's a medley..." You begin to sob. "Listen to me! Know ye not ye are the Temple?!?"

The congregation is uncomfortable and agitated. The old deacon is ashen-faced, glaring at the pastor to put an end to this.

"Friend," the pastor finally manages, "if you'll go with the ushers I'm sure we can better minister to you in private. With every head bowed and every eye closed, why don't we go to the Lord in prayer right now."

While every head is bowed and every eye is closed, except the pastor's head and eyes, the ushers quickly hustle you out the back door and throw you down the steps.

The pastor smiles. "and the church said... AMEN. Amen. You may be seated. Well, praise the Lord. Today my message is entitled, 'What It Means To Be A Christian'. Turn in your Bibles to...".

* * *

If God would grant you a moment by His side and allow you a fleeting glance at His Church you would at once understand what a pitiful substitute we have in Organized Religion. There is no vanity so deep as religious vanity, nothing more sickening and diametrically opposed to the heart and ultimate purpose of God.

And we who are in Christ Jesus ARE seated with Him in heavenly places (Ephesians 2:6).

If God is pleased to grant you this vision of His Church then you will come to appreciate it as a blessing and a curse. A blessing, because to see things as He sees them is true Wisdom and Oneness with Him and His people. A curse, because to see things as He sees them will ruin you for life, for you will never again be able to accept the surrogate, the counterfeit, even the good, at the expense of the Holy. His Church, His Treasure, how holy and pure and wonderful and unspeakable it is! Before you would casually call this thing and that thing "church" just like everyone else does and find it socially acceptable, but now your skin will crawl and your stomach will twist in knots when you hear others call some building the "house of God", knowing full well that His House is not this dead thing made with human hands!

It will not be enough for you to then say: "Lord, the Church belongs to You, not to me, not to anyone. Now I see my mistake. I take my hands off of it, for it is not mine to control or run. I repent of trying to build what you wish to destroy, and destroying what you wish to build. What am I, Lord, but a little stone, a little sheep, a little member of a wonderful Body of Believers? You are building Your Church, and now I will let you do it. At last I see. Only let me find a quiet place to serve You and serve Your people in secret, for I want nothing else for me, but all of it for You."

No, once you see this, once you take your hands off of His Bride, once you stop beating your brothers and sisters in the Name of God, then you will be jealous over His Church with His jealously, and will be so sensitive and so aware of false pastors and false teachers and false evangelists and false prophets and false apostles - yes, all that would abuse and confuse and rape and pillage His People! It is a question of seeing! And see, you will! You will see as He sees, hear as He hears, feel as He feels. "He was angered at their hardness of heart." Without effort, without trying, you will see right through the false, the quasi-faith, the pseudo-spirituality, the whitewashed tombs full of dead men's bones. Once you have had a taste of Real Life, you smell Death a thousand miles away, and your spirit rebels against it, your emotions scream in protest, and you are sick to your stomach with grief, anger, and compassion all at once. "No! This is not the Ecclesia. This is not the Lord's Church. This is a sham. This is bogus. This is nothing but Organized Religion!"

May God have mercy on us, and give us such a revelation of Himself, and His Church, that we may escape from Churchianity and find Life.

We are not suggesting that you challenge the system this Sunday by provoking a public confrontation with some unsuspecting pastor. All the argument in the world will not convince people, nor should we attempt to make people see. Simply allow them to see. Look upon the face of Him who sees things as they are, that others may look into your eyes and see Him as He is. One minute of seeing is worth a lifetime of argument. God will grant us a discerning heart and eyes to see if we will ask for them, and if we are willing to accept both the joy and the burden that accompanies such a revelation.

I am calling forth a life called worship. Deep calleth unto deep I say unto you. The praise shall pour from your lips and your life will be worship and song shall pour from your heart. Oh, that you would hear the echoes from heaven. If your ear will incline toward Me, you will hear and be unified with the heavenly hosts that encamp around in song and worship that is never ending. The host of angels that dance and sing and worship day in and day out all day and all night , Oh how they await the unity of those called Mine. That my children in the earth will join those with Me in the heavenlies in unified worship that is everlasting.

I look to the earth and watch for the life called worship, and the song called tried, tested, faithful, victorious and blessed. I listen for the praise at the mountain and the song in the valley and the worship called hunger, brokeness, love and holiness. I have come to bring you life and Life abundantly. I have placed the song of triumph with you. I have called you worship. Cry out Cry out... for this is the song of deliverance for many. My eyes look to and fro seeking those who will only worship in Spirit and Truth which is in Me. These will hear the echoes from the heavenlies.

Oh, that you will hear the echoes from Heaven and begin to dance and worship with the legions of angels and yea, even those warrior angels that battle on your behalf. Yea, I say it is through worship that I will be glorified. Come and seek My face and not My hand alone. I call you now to an intimate place in Me, an invitation to you, to come in , into the Holy of Holies. You cannot bring luggage or baggage here. You cannot bring unforgiveness, nor jealousy, nor strife, nor anger, nor bitterness here. You cannot bring self motivation or self edification here. This place is Holy ground. Remove your shoes from your feet. Remove your attitudes. Remove your performing. Remove your heavy garments. Remove your traditions. Remove your rituals. Remove your agendas. Remove your plans. Remove your titles. Remove your positions. Remove your wealth. Remove yourself. Remove false humility, Remove pride, Remove these things that you may enter in to this Holy place, for there I AM waiting. For there worship is true. That is the place called Beauty of Holiness.

Draw nigh....that you would hear the echoes from Heaven.

There is coming healing, deliverance and holiness from this place called Beautiful in My sight. In the echoes from Heaven a song will be brought over you and healing shall be in it. One shall sing life upon you and there will be deliverance through it.

I have given Worship and it is the key to the gate called Holiness. I have given this unto you. Come in, Come in. I am releasing the echoes from Heaven to you that worship would be done in earth as it is done in Heaven.

Revelation 21
[1] And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.
[2] And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.
[3] And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.
[4] And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.
[5] And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.
[6] And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.
[7] He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.
[8] But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

[9] And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.
[10] And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,
[11] Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;
[12] And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:
[13] On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.
[14] And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.
[15] And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.
[16] And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.
[17] And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.
[18] And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.
[19] And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;
[20] The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolyte; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.
[21] And the twelve gates were twelve pearls: every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.
[22] And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.
[23] And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.
[24] And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.
[25] And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.
[26] And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.
[27] And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Revelation 22: [14]Blessed (happy and [3] to be envied) are those who cleanse their garments, that they may have the authority and right to [approach] the tree of life and to enter through the gates into the city.(7) [15][But] without are the dogs and those who practice sorceries (magic arts) and impurity [the lewd, adulterers] and the murderers and idolaters and everyone who loves and deals in falsehood (untruth, error, deception, cheating).

My New Jerusalem is not made with rocks and stones of the earth, but of lively stones. My City is Alive with the Breathe of Life. You are lively stones, placed as you should be that I may dwell among you and through you.

1 Peter 2:5
Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.
Isaiah 7
[13] And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?
[14] Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.
[15] Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

Matthew 1:23
Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

The Levites were the keepers of the Eastern Gate. You are my Royal Priesthood and Keepers of My Eastern Gate. It is you whom I have charged to declare who may and may not enter as I have declared in My Word. You are GateKeepers to the Truth. Because you stand on guard, men MUST CHOOSE Life or Death. Today is the day of Decision.

2 Chronicles 31:14
Kore son of Imnah the Levite, keeper of the East Gate, was over the freewill offerings to God, to apportion the contributions of the Lord and the most holy things.

Nehemiah 3:29
After them repaired Zadok son of Immer opposite his house. Then Shemaiah son of Shecaniah, keeper of the East Gate, repaired.

Jeremiah 31:40
And the whole valley [Hinnom] of the dead bodies and [the hill] of the ashes [long dumped there from the temple sacrifices], and all the fields as far as the brook Kidron, to the corner of the Horse Gate toward the east, shall be holy to the Lord. It [the city] shall not be plucked up or overthrown any more to the end of the age.[Zech. 14:10-11.]

Ezekiel 10:19
And the cherubim lifted up their wings and mounted up from the earth in my sight, and they went forth with the wheels beside them; and they stood at the entrance of the East Gate of the house of the Lord, and the glory of the God of Israel [the Shekinah, cloud] was over them.

Ezekiel 11:1
MOREOVER, THE Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the East Gate of the Lord's house, which faces east. And behold, at the door of the gateway there were twenty-five men; and I saw in the midst of them Jaazaniah the son of Azzur and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people.

Ezekiel 43
[1]AFTERWARD the man [an angel] brought me to the gate, the gate that faces east.
[2]And behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the east and His voice was like the sound of many waters, and the earth shone with His glory.(1)

Ezekiel 43
[3]And the vision which I saw was like the vision I had seen when I came to foretell the destruction of the city and like the vision I had seen beside the river Chebar [near Babylon]; and I fell on my face.(1)
[4]And the glory of the Lord entered the temple by the gate facing east.
[5]Then the Spirit caught me up and brought me into the inner court, and behold, the glory of the Lord filled the temple.

Ezekiel 44
[1]THEN the man [an angel] brought me back the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary which faces the east, and it was shut.
[2]Then the Lord said to me, This gate shall be [1] shut; it shall not be opened and no man shall enter in by it, for the Lord, the God of Israel, has entered in by it; therefore it shall remain shut.
[3]As for the prince, being the prince, he shall sit in it to eat bread before the Lord; he shall enter by way of the porch or vestibule of the gate and shall go out the same way.
[4]Then he brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple; I looked, and behold, the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord, and I fell upon my face.(1)
[5]And the Lord said to me, Son of man, mark well and set your heart to see with your eyes and hear with your ears all that I say to you concerning all the ordinances of the house of the Lord and all its laws, and mark well and set your heart to know who are allowed to enter the temple and all those who are excluded from the sanctuary.

[6]And you shall say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord God: O you house of Israel, let all your previous abominations be enough for you! [Do not repeat them!]
[7]You have brought into My sanctuary aliens, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My sanctuary to pollute and profane it, even My house, when you offer My bread, the fat and the blood; and through it all and in addition to all your abominations, they and you have broken My covenant.
[8]And you have not kept charge of My holy things, but you have chosen foreign keepers to please yourselves and have set them in charge of My sanctuary.
[9]Therefore thus says the Lord God: No foreigner uncircumcised in heart and flesh shall enter into My sanctuary [where no one but the priests might enter], of any foreigners who are among the children of Israel.
[10]But the Levites who went far away from Me when Israel went astray, who went astray from Me after their idols, they shall bear [the punishment for] their iniquity and guilt.
[11]They shall minister in My sanctuary, having oversight as guards at the gates of the temple and ministering in the temple. They shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall attend the people to serve them.
[12]Because [the priests] ministered to [the people] before their idols and became a stumbling block of iniquity and guilt to the house of Israel, therefore I have lifted up My hand and have sworn against them, says the Lord God, that they shall bear the punishment for their iniquity and guilt.
[13]And they shall not come near to Me to do the office of a priest to Me, nor come near to any of My holy things that are most sacred; but they shall bear their shame and their punishment for the abominations which they have committed.
[14]Yet I will appoint them as caretakers to have charge of the temple, for all the service of the temple and for all that will be done in it.
[15]But the Levitical priests, the sons of Zadok, who kept the charge of My sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from Me, shall come near to Me to minister to Me, and they shall attend Me to offer to Me the fat and the blood, says the Lord God.
[16]They shall enter into My sanctuary; and they shall come near to My table to minister to Me, and they shall keep My charge.
[17]When they enter the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed in linen garments; no wool shall be on them while they minister at the gates of the inner court and within the temple.
[18]They shall have linen turbans on their heads and linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with anything that causes [them to] sweat.
[19]And when they go out into the outer court to the people, they shall put off the garments in which they ministered and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments, lest by contact of their garments with the people they should consecrate (separate and set apart for holy use) such persons [unintentionally and unfittingly].
[20]Neither shall they shave their heads or allow their locks to grow long; they shall only cut short or trim the hair of their heads.
[21]Neither shall any priest drink wine when he enters the inner court.
[22]Neither shall they take for their wives a widow or a woman separated or divorced from her husband; but they shall marry maidens [who are virgins] of the offspring of the house of Israel or a widow previously married to a priest.
[23]The priests shall teach My people the difference between the holy and the common or profane, and cause them to distinguish between the unclean and the clean.
[24]And in a controversy they shall act as judges, and they shall judge according to My judgments; and they shall keep My laws and My statutes in all My appointed feasts, and they shall keep My Sabbaths holy.
[25]And they shall go near to no dead person to defile themselves, except for father or for mother, for son or for daughter, for brother or for sister who has had no husband; for them they may defile themselves.(2)
[26]And after he is cleansed [from the defilement of a dead body] they shall reckon to him seven days more before returning to the temple.
[27]And on the day that he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, says the Lord God.
[28]This [their ministry to Me] shall be to them as an inheritance, for I am their inheritance; and you shall give them no possession in Israel, for I am their possession.(3)

[29]They shall eat the meal offering and the sin offering and the trespass offering, and every offering in Israel dedicated by a solemn vow to God shall be theirs.
[30]And the first of all the firstfruits of all kinds, and every offering of all kinds from all your offerings, shall belong to the priests. You shall also give to the priest the first of your coarse meal and bread dough, that a blessing may rest on your house.
[31]The priests shall not eat of anything that has died of itself or is torn, whether it be bird or beast.

Ezekiel 48:32
And on the east side's 4,500 measures, three gates: one gate of Joseph, one gate of Benjamin, one gate of Dan;

Ezekiel 47:2
Then he brought me out by way of the north gate and led me around outside to the outer gate by the way that faces east, and behold, waters were running out on the right side.[

Behold! I have made known My Mysteries to you, guard them as Keepers of the Eastern Gate. Keep Charge what I have given to you. Those who hear My Spirit will know only I have revealed these things. I will receive ALL the Glory and Honor. Let not the Fire within you be extinguished, My Overcomers! My Kingdom Pillars!

Set Up A Memorial

Carla Rickard

Set up a memorial of the things I have done to deliver you says the Lord. For I have delivered you out of much. Set up a memorial for your healing, your deliverance, the salvations I have brought to you. There will be more trials and tribulations that will come. For I have told you so. Set up a memorial so when you pass that way again you will remember that it is I that brought you out of ALL your distresses. Remember those times when you pass by! Will I not do it again and again? Keep Me in Remembrance of all that I have done. Call upon the Name of the Lord and I will save you. Set Up a Memorial to Your God.

Extreme Home Makeover

Mary Lindow

THE SPIRIT OF GOD WAS PRACTICALLY SHOUTING THE LINE; "EXTREME HOUSE MAKEOVER" TO ME FOR OVER A MONTH!
Finally, I understood what The Lord was saying after watching this new "reality program" titled the very same thing a few times!

THE LORD HAS SHOWN ME THAT HE HAS BEEN SENDING IN "DEMOLITION CREWS" FOR A FEW YEARS NOW, shaking everything that can be shaken until ...everything has been literally ripped down to nothing but a mere shell in many peoples lives.

See, today I appoint you over nations and kingdoms to uproot and tear down, to destroy and overthrow, to build and to plant." ~ Jeremiah 1:10

YET...EVEN STILL, THERE IS A GREAT AMOUNT OF STRATEGIC "BLUEPRINTING" AND RE-DESIGNING GOING ON IN THE LIVES OF THOSE CALLED TO MOVE INTO THE ROLES OF APOSTOLIC FATHERHOOD AND MOTHERHOOD.

OLD WALLS FIRST COME DOWN BEFORE NEW ONES CAN BE PUT UP! Old walls of keeping people out of "your space" or “your ministry.” The true boundaries of the Kingdom have room for everyone to freely express, (with respect for others), the passion they have for the "design" the Lord has given to them for building up the King's domain!
THE "KINGDOM" OF GOD HAS GRACE AS ITS BOUNDARY SETTING AND HUMILITY AS ITS FOUNDATION.

And it will be said: "Build up, build up, prepare the road! Remove the obstacles out of the way of my people" ~ Isaiah 57:14
THE LORD IS SAYING TO US IN THIS HOUR OF "REBUILDING THE TABERNACLE OF DAVID" or – "HIS House of Worship," that there will be rooms re-designed by the "MASTERS Craftsman" that will be filled with strategically planned prayer concepts, music rooms equipped with the sound of "clear spiritual headsets" to hear the songs of the Kingdom and actually record and share them freely, and a series of Family rooms where all ethnic groups become "One Family" as they gaze upon the "Fireplace" of the Presence of the Holy Spirit and His Pentecost type of power and Might!
"I also told them about the gracious hand of my God upon me and what the king had said to me. They replied, "Let us start rebuilding." So they began this good work. ~ Nehemiah 2:18

“YES SAYS THE LORD! I AM RE- BUILDING EVERYTHING IN YOUR LIVES THAT I HAVE ALLOWED TO BE TAKEN AND SHAKEN FROM YOU! HOW CAN YOU DO MY NEW THING IN THE EARTH WITH OLD WAYS AND WORN OUT LIVING SPACES OF THE PAST? Those who continue to cling to the accolades of the past and gone ministry meetings and services (even if they were just last week) will receive a limited amount of new assignments until they realize that the past is….PAST! Each day is a new day and needs a fresh approach to the new Design concept I the Lord

Am revealing!”

“EXTREME GENEROSITY WILL BE THE NEW WAVE OF GLORY IN THE EARTH. Missionaries will weep no more over broken promises made to them for support to go! NO! Those now arising in the earth as the Fresh wave of Pure and Davidic hearted NURTURING Mentoring Fathers and Mothers, will be suddenly recognized… as well as the faithful and obedient who have never hoarded the anointing or promoted their gifting.”

“THE FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS WILL BE SHAKEN IN THE WORLD'S CONCEPTS, BUT… those Joseph gifts in the Body, Men and Women who are beginning to see with eyes now stripped of selfish fears and lack of honor for those who have loved them into higher levels of passion for the King...they will be visited with great joy and supernatural revelation as they see that they are the "Truck loads of blessings" bringing the freedom to those who are being called to lead the next fresh "Extreme House Remodel!" The New wineskin of sweetness!”

THERE WILL BE SHOUTS AND TEARS OF JOY AS CHECKS, PROPERTIES, AND LITERAL CASH BEGIN TO FLOW INTO THE HANDS OF THOSE READY TO ONLY BUILD WITH THE NAME “JESUS” ON THE FINAL PRODUCT. No brass placards with important titles or religious entitled positions or names on them. No Big ministry embellishments.
GOD IS EXTREMELY MAKING OVER ALL OF THE PLACES OF WORSHIP IN THE HEARTS OF HIS MEN AND WOMEN AND GIRLS AND BOYS!
LET HIM DO HIS WORK OF DEMOLITION WITHOUT HINDRANCE OR FEAR! He WILL Rebuild a New "House of Worship" within Each of His People who allow Him to walk each room of their heart and tear out the old and embedded dirt, grime, and putridness of stale living.

IT IS THE DAY OF THE RELATIONALLY UNITED CHURCH TO THINK OF ITSELF AS ONE GODLY ORGANISM, READY TO HONOR AND EDIFY EACH UNIQUE MASTER PLAN OF THE KING. It's the hour where building upon egos, insecurity, and entitlement, only invites the demolition sledge hammer of the Spirit to go to work until the knowledge of humility and eternal reward are viewed as the Most Excellent Eternal Blueprint!
"Since you are eager to have spiritual gifts, try to excel in gifts that build up the church." ~ 1 Corinthians 14:12

Elders In The City

Charles Newbold

Charles Elliott Newbold, Jr.
Apr 2, 2004
Dear List Members, [Lighthouse Prophecy]

This word by Charles Newbold, Jr. to be one of the most significant clarion calls ever seen by this generation of believers. It is calling forth the 'righteous' government of God. As those who are "called" to this government (in their respective cities) are set in place, enormous Spiritual Authority from heaven will be released.

It is my strongest belief that this true heaven-appointed authority will not be released UNTIL the "called" are gathered at the symbolic spiritual gate. The next step in this process is "the gathering."

We posted (on our website) a word God spoke to us several years ago:

The Army of God is now beginning to make strategy for VICTORY; the primary focus of this strategy involves unifying the Body and joining the parts that are suppose to be JOINED. We must work to properly discern and join the Body properly... This is not a joining for the sake of joining, but rather a fitting of the parts that are CALLED to be joined. We pray that you allow the Holy Spirit to guide you to those individuals, churches and organizations that will usher in your ministry, purpose, and destiny.

The true elders who read this will recognize this calling...Clay.

Elders In The City

Abstracted from an unfinished work titled, The Habitation for Yahveh: Setting His House in Order By Charles Elliott Newbold, Jr. Copyright © 2004

Submitted for your edification and discernment.

I heard it taught for years that New Testament elders were citywide. I could see how that might work in those beginning days with a few believers in cities such as Antioch, Ephesus, and Corinth, but what about today? The "Christian" population of many cities numbers into the tens and hundreds of thousands. I did not see how it could work.

Then, in early 2004, the Holy Spirit caused me to see how it could, should, and indeed will work in Crossville, Tennessee, the county seat near where I live. I knew that if it could work in Crossville, it could work anywhere because it is God's divine plan of righteous government for His assembly of called-out-ones, His body.

I not only see how it could work, I have a burning fervor to see it working in my home city as well as in cities throughout the world.

The city I see is a Kingdom reality. It is spiritual in nature. The boundaries of this spiritual city are set by the Holy Spirit and made known especially to the elders of the city. In Crossville, I sense it closely aligns with the political boundaries of Cumberland County (though we are not to assume those political jurisdictions will always be aligned as such or that they mean anything to God). The elders and the saints will simply come to operate within that boundary whether they are conscious of what it is or not. They will come to know who the elders are within that city, and the elders will know who the sheep are within their care.

The elders of the city live within this spiritual city boundary. They are "from there" or have lived there long enough to call it home. Figuratively speaking, they expect to "have their bones buried there." They have a passion for their city.

The elders are older, spiritually mature men whom the Holy Spirit has appointed and empowered to function as shepherds. Care for the sheep is part of their nature. They lead, feed, tend, and heal the sheep. The sheep know them by their fruits.

The elders are not "city elders," but are the "elders of the city." There is a subtle difference. Elders are not positional, but functional. The term "city elders" suggests a position (office) and title; "elders of the city" suggests function. They are not titled as Elder Bob or Elder Joe, etc., but are simply Bob and Joe who everyone knows to have shepherd's hearts.

Though some of the Pastors, Ministers, or Priests of churches may be true elders of the city, it is not so because they are Pastors, Ministers, or Priests of churches. These elders of the city are not a redefined version of the local ministerial association. As elders of the city, they are not overseers of buildings, programs, organizations, and institutions.

These men are the elders of the city at large. Individually, they are part of a group or fellowship just as any other brother. They are in, but not over any fellowship in particular. The elders jointly oversee the whole flock in the city.

Some of these elders already know each other. As time passes, the Holy Spirit will cause them to all know each other and find each other. They will come together in the Spirit with authority to oversee the sheep in the city.

I shared these thoughts about elders in the city with my friend Bill Shipman in New York State, and he said the Lord had been speaking to him about "gates." That thought exploded in me. I remembered how the elders in the Old Testament sat at the city gates. What they did in a natural sense then has far-reaching spiritual significance today. When the elders of the city come together as one, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, they will have taken their place of authority at the city gate. This city gate is a spiritual reality that serves as the entrance to this spiritual city.

When the elders take their seat in unity at the city gate, the changes in that city will be remarkable. Here are a few significant changes to be expected.

· Most significantly, they will know the mind of the Spirit, particularly as it pertains to the sheep. They will be of one mind and one heart, enabling them to do the Father's will.

· They will cast down strongholds in heavenly places. Once these city elders have taken their seat at the city gate and come to know the authority they have there, they will determine who comes in and who goes out in the realm of the spirit. Everyone and everything has to pass by them. They have authority over the powers of darkness that have had clandestine rule over the city. One command by these elders while sitting in unity together can cast down and send away the powers and principalities over their city. They can accomplish more in one command than what ten thousand of the most renown intercessors could do. They are men under the authority of the One who has been given all power (authority) in heaven and on earth, Yeshua (Jesus). Matt. 28:18. "For the government is upon His shoulder…and of the increase of His government and peace there shall be no end." Isa. 9:6,7.

· As the powers of darkness are dismissed, a unity in the body throughout the city will result as never experienced before. The sheep will take comfort in the safety they feel from having this righteous oversight in place.

· The elders will set into motion the beginnings of divine government that will release the body to function as a unified force in the city.

· In so doing, they will fulfill their divine, heavenly purpose in bringing unity to the Body of Christ, tearing down walls of religion, separatism, denominationalism, and territorialism.

They will know by the Spirit the condition of the sheep throughout the city and will know how to minister to their needs. They will lay down their own agendas and ambitions to tend to the souls of the sheep.

The scriptural ministries and gifts of the Spirit will be released with miracles, signs, and wonders.

Power for salvations, deliverances, healings, and blessings will be released.

Praise and worship in Spirit and truth will flow from within the saints as rivers of living water.

Ultimately, the faithful will be brought "to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ." Eph. 4:13.

I then saw with the eye of my understanding that the called-out-ones are also citywide. For example, we are the called-out-ones of Crossville. I saw us gathering in clusters of home fellowships that appear as flaming tongues of fire throughout the city. In another city where I visited, I saw these gatherings as artesian wells springing forth living water.

These home fellowships are made up of families and individuals who have been drawn together by the Holy Spirit as a family within the larger family of God. They have no name and are not identified with any separate church or denomination. They are not a church at all. They are merely saints gathering together to encourage one another and provoke one another to love and good works. Heb. 10:24,25.

These saints will come to know the true elders and will joyfully submit to them; that is, receive the gift of God in them, knowing that they will watch over their souls as ones who must give an account. Heb. 13:7.

The Holy Spirit raises up the elders. The apostles confirm, appoint (ordain), and oversee them. Apostles lay hands on what the Holy Spirit has already done and is doing. The apostles further equip the elders and provide continued oversight to them. Everything that is done is for the sake of the sheep who belong to the Good Shepherd.

This is not a formula for church government that we can put in place, but is a prophetic event that will take place as godly men respond to the will of the Father. Our part is to pray for this vision to be burned in us, for the elders to find each other, and take their seat of spiritual authority at the gates of our cities.

Yahveh promised, "Then, I will give you shepherds according to My heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding." Jer. 3:15.

A 10 Day Prayer Focus to Develop this Year's Mindset
(This also includes the revelation for the Hebrew Year 5765 â€“ Have a Good Year!)

October 15, 2004

Dear Faithful Seekers:

I am so excited to write you. I have waited as long as I can before I share a portion of what the Lord has shown me for this new season. The Lord began to release this revelation to me beginning at Rosh Hashanah.

This is a year of change and redirection for me. I feel like the Spirit of God is giving me new intercessory assignments. One specific assignment is how to plunder the enemy's camp, and another is to pave the way and create a vehicle for the transference of wealth.

We at Glory of Zion International have already begun to pray for you to increase in supernatural ways. We so appreciate you being involved with us. We pray for each one of you as you respond to us by giving or sharing a prayer request. We decree an Issachar revelation over you. We also sound a shofar over you and shout your name into heaven.

This will be a year that I will be circling the United States and visiting key cities. I will also be finishing the Five Year Call to the 40/70 Window with a trip to Italy. Additionally, I have seen port cities and key cities throughout the United States where the Lord wants to visit.

Trade and the release of supply lines and wealth are important concepts this year. I will also continue to develop Eagles of God strategic mission prayer teams to send to various parts of our nation and the other nations of the world.

STARTING THIS MONTH, I WILL BE SENDING A 10-DAY PRAYER FOCUS EACH MONTH SO YOU CAN REALLY DEVELOP THE MIND OF THE LORD IN CERTAIN AREAS (Romans 12:1,2). You can repeat these prayer focuses three times a month, or a single time, whenever you prefer to pray them during a month. They will reflect important revelation each month that should be developed in each one of us throughout the year.

Understanding The Times and Seasons is Key for Our Victory!

Most of us do not understand the Biblical time-tables. Timing is built around the Feasts. The Old Testament contains two calendars—a civil and a religious one—and this complicates our understanding of the origins of the New Year.

We have begun the "Head of the Year." The Head of the Year begins at Rosh Hashanah and includes the Feast of Tabernacles. This is different from the first month of the year, which actually begins at Passover. As we prophetically mature in the Feast of Tabernacles (Zech. 14), these days become more and more important. We find Jesus celebrating this feast in the New Testament in John 7, the Feast of Illumination. May the Spirit of Revelation and Wisdom surround you now!

Let's review this season:

- In May 2001 The Future War of the Church (by Chuck D. Pierce and Rebecca Wagner Sytsema) was published to help the Body shift into a mindset for war.

- In September 2001, the Hebrew Year 5762, we entered into a â€œSeven Year War Season."
- In September 2002, the Hebrew Year 5763, we moved into a â€œSabbath Day Rest Year,â€ a year to test and rebuild our faith.
- The past year, beginning September 2003, or the Hebrew Year 5764, was a year filled with Secrets, Mysteries and Surprises, and was a time to understand Doors.

Now we have entered the Hebrew Year 5765.

This will be a year to circle, surround and plunder the enemyâ€™s camp. This year also means â€œto take a compass and chart your course for the future.â€ We are just beginning to see the DOOR of our future develop. There are many enemies waiting to oppose us on the other side of this door. Therefore, this will be a year of violent praise! This is a year to let the ROAR of the Lord rise above the sound of the enemy! I am excited about this fourth year of the seven year war season we are in!

Receive this PROPHETIC DECREE:

I hear the Lord say:

Throw open the window of your heart and receive the sound of heaven! Let the wind bring the sound that you need through your window. Your conscience is like a window between soul and spirit. Make sure nothing is clouding your conscience.

Open your mouth and release the shout of victory! This is the year of confession and decree. What you say now determines your future. If you will cleanse your conscience, then the revelation that has not been able to influence your mind will find entrance. Though the enemy is roaming like a mighty lion seeking whom he may destroy, there is a ROAR in you to be released. This ROAR will defy the enemy. Go past that which seems invincible in your life.

Get in the river of change that is flowing by your door and let it take you to your next place. Get a shield of protection around you and birth the NEW that I have for you. Your latter end (future) will be greater than your beginning. The RIVER is changing courses!

Ready yourself for the next war ahead! Don’t remain in your last war cycle. Make sure you are allowing or causing or choosing for the old to end! Deal with all of your dangerous emotions so they will not present great challenges to you by the middle of next year. Get ready to advance into your next phase of victory!

Receive a new anointing. Be anointed for victory over death cycles and the fear of death. Be anointed for victory over demonic forces that would try to stop you in the future (particularly through the end of March). Be anointed for increase and harvest so you begin to fill My storehouses. Be anointed with an Issachar anointing to interpret the times so you know what decisions to make so your will does My will in Heaven! Be surrounded with My Glory and be favored where you walk.

Be surrounded and sealed by the Holy Spirit. Worship Me in a new way and watch your discernment increase. Reality is produced when you worship in Word (Truth) and Spirit. You must allow your worship to take a turn in the Spirit.

Do not stay earthbound! End old cycles. Do not cycle through your wilderness again. Break the cycle of Mt. Sinai (don’t get around that mountain again!) and head toward and up Mt. Zion. In the face of your enemy, praise violently! Let praise BIND the strongman and then plunder, take and repossess your spoils.

Surrounding Your Enemies with Violent Praise: The Year 5765

(September 2004 October 2005)

At each breaking day of a new season, we need to have a renewed commitment to the One who made us and gives us life. Psalms 37:5-6 says: Commit everything you do to the Lord. Trust Him to help you do it, and He will. Your innocence will be clear to everyone. He will vindicate you with the blazing light of justice shining down as from the noonday sun. (TLB)

Your commitment to us propels us into the places God calls us to minister. I would like to declare to you as you enter this New Year, the Hebrew Year 5765, that you be encompassed in THE NEW. New is defined as: different from one of the same which existed before; or made fresh.

Here are 8 NEW Issues to look for in your life this year:

1. New relationships. May your relationship with the Lord be new and fresh, and may He supernaturally connect you horizontally with others that will cause you to come into a greater level of success.
2. New acts. May the Lord divinely intervene in your life with signs, wonders and miracles.
3. New identity. May His fullness flow through your personality. May your soul be restored.
4. New weapons for the war ahead. The trumpet is sounding a new sound. Listen carefully. May you receive everything you need to defeat your enemies.
5. A new garment of favor to go with your new identity. May you radiate with favor and have an entry way into new opportunities.
6. A new sound. May you hear the sound of victory and shout this sound from the rooftops.
7. A new anointing. May you be anointed in a way that every yoke be broken.
8. A new level of authority. May you receive the ability to stand in dominion in the sphere of authority that you have been granted by God.

The Meaning of This Year 5765

Hebrew numbers have word meaning. This year the number 5-7-6-5 is spelled Tov, Shin, Samekh, Hei. Tov means a stamp, seal, mark or impression like the sealing of every believer by the Holy Spirit. This will be a year to see the seal set on God’s covenant plan for our future.

Some of the significant words beginning with Tov mean to seek out, spy out, explore, to prevail over, overpower, to lay hold of, to be completed or finished. Shin means to come full circle, consume ,and destroy. Samekh means to turn, to surround, go around, a repeating cycle, to encompass, or enclose. Hei means revelation, wind, shout or roar, praise and Spirit and Word.

Shin, samekh, and hei together form the Hebrew verb "TO PLUNDER". This is a year to develop your wall of protection. This is a year that the Lord will review our city walls. Some cites will begin to experience darkness while others will see the fire of God established.

There will be a SOUND this year. We will hear the roar of an army, of a fire, a tumult of battle, loud expressive praise and rejoicing (Halel – Hallelujah!). Joyful shouting will come forth from those who tread the winepress, produce wine and bring in the harvest. Memorize Zechariah 2:5: “fire around you and the glory within”. There will be a supernatural alignment producing a wall of fire.

A Year to Circle the Wagons!

When the enemy encircles you, you must circle the wagons and find security. This phrase was important for pioneers to understand. We will be setting new courses in the Spirit this year. The enemy will attempt to surround you, so be sure to develop your shields of protection. This was a defensive tactic that pioneers used on their journey to their new settling place.

Another example is that of the Musk Ox. These animals form a circle around the cow that is giving birth. This produces protection so the next generation can come forth. No other animal has the defense method of musk oxen. When danger threatens they do not run away. Instead, a herd of twenty to forty individuals backs into a rough circle facing outward with the calves in the center or under their mother's bellies.

This ring of horned heads can defy such natural enemies as the arctic wolf and the grizzly bear. From time to time a bull dashes out to do battle, then returns to the circle. He is exceedingly nimble. A single sweep of his horns can cripple or kill a wolf, dog or Eskimo hunter armed with a spear. For intercessors and prayer groups, you must be like the musk ox this year.

This is a year to walk a FINE LINE in every area of life*. Do not be afraid of falling. Do not try to stay balanced in the flesh.* This is a year of the Holy Spirit supernaturally rekindling the power gifts. The war will take a supernatural turn. Example: There is a fine line between word of knowledge and ESP (I Cor. 12 &14).

This is a year of supernatural, divine teaching. Teaching will defy religion. The Lord will reveal a different dimension of the Word to expound upon (Mark 2). This will cause the Church to shift or harden. This will be teaching that will penetrate into strongholds and religious structures in regions.

There will be such demonic manifestations that the Lord will send His troops into the religious camp. This is a Year for Women to become secure in who they are in the Lord and to release supernatural influence in the earth (Jeremiah 31:22). This will also be a year of violent praise, releasing angelic forces to come to our help.

Read II Kings 6. Do not look at your enemies with dismay this year but see the supernatural realm of angelic hosts that have surrounded you to bring help.

10-Day Prophetic Declaration Prayer Focus for Shifting Your Mind to Receive the New Revelation

Day 1. Declare the Lord will take His compass, chart your course, and set a new direction for fullness in your life. Read and pray Psalm 118 and I Cor. 16:5-18.
Day 2. Declare that God will give you the strategy to surround what has been or seemed invincible in your past. Read and pray Joshua 5-7.
Day 3. Declare that you will be overwhelmed and encompassed by His supernatural LOVE. This will release a dimension of compassion that the Church has lost. This will cause the healing mantle to be restored back to the Church. (Healing will spring forth this year!) This will open the door for prodigals to return. Read and pray Matthew 9 and Luke 15.
Day 4. Declare that you will know your spiritual and physical boundaries. This is a year of Divine Commandments. The Lord will be restructuring our boundaries so the law can be fulfilled in our hearts. This will allow us to take back ground this year from the enemy who attempts to shift laws and time. Satan is a legalist. Decree that all unfair legal practices set against you break. Read and pray Daniel 7.
Day 5. Declare that this is a year to come Full Circle. The Lord will give you a second chance to confront and deal with that thing that defeated you in the last season! …or you will go around that same mountain again. Read and pray Psalm 138. Read II Samuel 5. Listen carefully for the new sound of the wind in the mulberry trees. Read the Book of Jonah.
Day 6. Declare that this will be a year of a new expression of worship. Be expressive in PRAISE and rejoicing in the midst of your battles. Do not hide your emotions this year. Read and pray II Chronicles 20. The Roar of the Lion of Judah will win your battles!
Day 7. Declare that the generations will connect this year. The generations must war together this year (Isaiah 59:15-21). The word generation is linked with circle. Read and pray Esther 9.

Day 8. Declare that this will be a year that you PLUNDER the enemyâ€™s camp. Read and pray through Exodus 3 â€“ 12. (The Future War of the Church explains dethroning the gods of Egypt). I Samuel 30 shows how David got a handle on his emotions and recovered his loss.
Day 9. Declare that you will enter into a new dimension of revelation that produces unexpected surprises in the enemy's camp. Prepare the way and expect victory! Read and pray II Kings 3. Do not let the enemy's retaliation cause you to back up.
Day 10. Declare that every voice that is not God's voice will be silenced. Declare that every lion in your pit will shut its mouth. Read and pray Daniel 6 and I Peter 5.

Thank so many of you for participating in the S*even Days of Stillness Prayer Focus*. We are getting many reports of victory. Please continue to bring your emotions before the LORD so that every out-of-control or up-and-down pattern will be shifted. Another principle of "circle" occurs in the issue of circumcision. Let the Lord circumcise your heart in a new way so that you can move forward with a clear conscience into your future.

Thank you for praying for our family. Daniel will be getting married to Amber Sauce on December 18. Rebekah is in college. John Mark is working and bowling. He and Isaac continue to concentrate on their music. Ethan is enjoying his courses from Texas Tech and is a delight to his mother, who stays involved with ministry, writing, and teaching. Thank you for supporting my ministry. You can give by calling (888) 965-1099 or going to https://www.glory-of-zion.org/secure/gift.asp.

Blessings,

P.S. We have placed the details for the Start the Year Off Right Conference on our website. The dates are January 6-8, 2005. Also, I awakened this morning with a dream about California. The timing was during the Christmas holidays and there was an attack. Let's ask the Lord to turn this now!

Election Angels

Bill Yount

I Saw 'Election Angels' Erecting 'Cross-Like' Poles Across America As God Spoke To His People. "I'll Meet You At The Polls On Nov. 2nd... 'If' You Meet Me At The Cross Before Then!"

In the Spirit I saw the latest poll being taken by the angels showing many of God's people, who were taking for granted who was going to be the next president, falling behind in prayer! I heard the Father proclaiming to His people. "Your prayer closet is your voting booth for this election! You must vote now on your knees or the results of this election will drive you to inhabit your prayer closets!"

Again God was speaking to His People. "The real election will take place before Nov. 2nd! If you make your calling and 'your' election sure at My cross, I will move My throne to rest over the White House. My people, America is at a cross-roads... but you are at the cross! And if you miss your crucifixion, America will miss her resurrection! If you make your calling and 'your' election sure at My cross before Nov.2nd, I will turn the White House into a Light House to the world!

'Voting Booth' Angels were being released to awaken many of God's people to give them no rest for they would not see the answer to their prayers for this election until the 'voting booths' literally became their prayer closets on Nov. 2nd.

I sense The Passion of the Christ movie was released recently to call us back to the cross so we wouldn't face another cross-roads in America in this election like we did in the last one. He wants our sins so He can wash us whiter than snow with the blood of Jesus so He can wash our whole nation from her sins.

Vote early this election. The real election is taking place now in the hearts of God's people. Let's make our calling and our 'election' sure. The word election means 'chosen' by God. "Many are called but few are chosen."

"I'll meet you at the cross.... then I'll see you at the voting booth!"

It Is Well With My Soul
Priscilla Van Sutphin

July 30th, 2004
The following song came to mind when I asked the Lord if He had something to talk about…
When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, Thou has taught me to say,
It is well, it is well, with my soul.
Refrain: It is well, with my soul, It is well, with my soul,
It is well, it is well, with my soul.
Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
Let this blest assurance control,
That Christ has regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed His own blood for my soul.
My sin, oh, the bliss of this glorious thought!
My sin, not in part but the whole,
Is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more,
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!
For me, be it Christ, be it Christ hence to live:
If Jordan above me shall roll,
No pang shall be mine, for in death as in life
Thou wilt whisper Thy peace to my soul.
But, Lord, 'tis for Thee, for Thy coming we wait,

The sky, not the grave, is our goal;
Oh trump of the angel! Oh voice of the Lord!
Blessèd hope, blessèd rest of my soul!
And Lord, haste the day when my faith shall be sight,
The clouds be rolled back as a scroll;
The trump shall resound, and the Lord shall descend,
Even so, it is well with my soul.

“ The signs of the culmination of all time are here. Yet so many still sleep. What is going on? What is happening? Many are thinking! Why won’t they wake up? Lulled asleep by their comfortability and the spirit of slumber, they rest in the assurance of a next day the same as the last. Business as usual you could say. It is as in the days of Noah! So do not be discouraged, nor be dismayed at their slumber. Only worship Me in the beauty of holiness and stand firm to the end My beloveds. The winds of change have come, and rapidly, perilous times will descend.

But have REST in your souls! Have PEACE within, for I AM with you. My rod and My staff will comfort you. I will lead you in the way everlasting. So do not be moved. And expect that I will lead you when it IS time to move! Expect Me to lead you out as I led Lot out of Sodom, and assured his passage before bringing judgment! Be assured that I have Goshens in the making where many will be kept safe through the times ahead. I will not call all of you to spend your time in Goshen however. For I have many MOSES type leaders and many Elijah’s that will go forth in the power of MY MIGHT and confront the darkness head on!

They will not go unequipped. THAT is why many are in transition now! I am wooing you closer to My side, that I may consume all that cannot withstand the test to come , and that I may fill you with all you need to go through what is coming! WHATEVER your role is I am preparing you. I ASSURE you I will finish the job! I will not leave you behind, nor lacking if your heart is right! I am removing the dross that would make you look back like Lot’s wife! AND I am enlarging your tent pegs and expanding your FAITH so that you will believe TO DO THE GREATER THINGS I have for you to do! So rejoice and be exceedingly glad! Worship and praise me with all you have!

Praise will bring down the darkness and will LOOSE MY KINGDOM to come and cover the earth where My people will worship freely and unashamedly in abandonment to Me! I am shouting and trumpeting to the enemy to “LET MY PEOPLE GO that they can worship ME!” WATCH and see how I bring down every stronghold in your lives! Watch and see how I will bring down every stronghold that has kept your families captive to the enemy! I WILL LIFT YOU UP WITH MY RIGHTEOUS RIGHT HAND!

REJOICE MY BELOVEDS for YOUR KING DRAWS NIGH! BE EXPECTANT!

Luke 6:22-23 NKJV Blessed are you when men hate you, And when they exclude you, And revile you, and cast out your name as evil, For the Son of Man's sake. 23 Rejoice in that day and leap for joy! For indeed your reward is great in heaven, For in like manner their fathers did to the prophets.

Luke 19:37-38 NKJV Then, as He was now drawing near the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works they had seen, 38 saying: "'Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the LORD!' Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"

Phil 4:4-5 NKJV Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice! 5 Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand.

1 Thess 5:16-18 AMP Be happy [in your faith] and rejoice and be glad-hearted continually (always); 17 Be unceasing in prayer [praying perseveringly]; 18 Thank [God] in everything [no matter what the circumstances may be, be thankful and give thanks], for this is the will of God for you [who are] in Christ Jesus [the Revealer and Mediator of that will].

1 Peter 4:13 AMP But insofar as you are sharing Christ's sufferings, rejoice, so that when His glory [full of radiance and splendor] is revealed, you may also rejoice with triumph [exultantly].

Rev 12:12-13 AMP Therefore be glad (exult), O heavens and you that dwell in them! But woe to you, O earth and sea, for the devil has come down to you in fierce anger (fury), because he knows that he has [only] a short time [left]! [Isa 44:23; 49:13.] 13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast down to the earth, he went in pursuit of the woman who had given birth to the male Child.

Rev 19:7 AMP Let us rejoice and shout for joy [exulting and triumphant]! Let us celebrate and ascribe to Him glory and honor, for the marriage of the Lamb [at last] has come, and His bride has prepared herself. [Ps 118:24.]

The God of Diversity

The Divine Counter to Methods, Programs and Other forms of Madness In the Church Today
August 1st, 2004

When I was 38, I had grown weary of my aloneness and bankruptcy spiritually, and I sought to bring my son to church. I didn’t think there was any hope for me, but I kept thinking maybe he can be good enough, if I raise him right. So off we went to an Easter service at the Catholic Church.
Much to my dismay, the gospel message was far from my need, and the priest was speaking on why there were people at mass only on holidays.

I wanted to stand up and tell him right there and then. But I decided against that, and instead left. In my anger, I cried out, “ God, there has to be more than this! “ God was quick to answer, and within a week, a neighbor explained to me the difference between being born again, and the Catholic church doctrine with which I had been raised. I had been raised to believe if I committed mortal sin, I was lost and never could make it to heaven. But if I committed venial sins, I could make recompense and had a chance. Since I’d had two abortions and a life of self-serving lust, I knew myself to be condemned, hopeless, and not going to heaven. So needless to say, the good news to me was truly GOOD NEWS to me!

A year after making a decision to serve Christ, I got baptized in the Spirit in my living room, after staying up late after children and husband were in bed. I was desperately seeking the Lord’s face, as I felt I’d made the biggest mistake in my life marrying my ex. I didn’t know I was to DEPEND on Him for who to marry at the time. So I married for all the wrong reasons. This concept of dependency was WAY foreign to my upbringing.

My mother was infested with bitterness, jezebelian pride and lust and my foster mom had taught me that if I didn’t care for myself, no one else would, and she taught me to be INDEPENDENT. So I’d built my life around that theorem. I got a bachelor’s degree, then worked in Children’s hospital in Chicago for a time, then I went to grad school at UCLA to get a graduate degree in Pediatric Nursing. I finally taught nursing for five years at Rush, Presbyterian St. Lukes’ hospital before moving to California. There I made educational coordinator within a couple years and assistant professor, rapidly working myself to the world’s idea of success. I established for the first time, with the March of Dimes, conferences for OB nurses that were taught by women and nurses!!! That was a big deal way back then and I became Chairman of the Illinois NAACOG [Nurse’s Association of the American College of Obstetrics and Gynecology] I also joined the honorary nurses association Sigma Theta Tau…etc., etc. I was very independent!

When I came to the Lord, after about a year and a half, I got sick frequently, with headaches, aches and pains, tiredness…and I had this new family after marrying, and getting saved with two added stepsons, and a mother in law living with us. The Lord asked me to give up NURSING and stay home which is something my husband wanted…so I gave it up. The Lord told me, " I have other things for you to do! " You see, the Lord is very WISE. He knew all my pride was tied up in what I COULD DO! So He asked me to give up the profession to serve HIM. Being often sick it wasn't always hard, except when I'd see pregnant women and new babies, or hear stories about birth. Then I'd think back to the "good ole days". But God in His wisdom, had me relinquish little by little all that was ME. All the kingdom I had built upon.

Much later, after the divorce and being forced to live with my mother as I'd become sick with CFIDS [Chronic Fatigue Immunodeficiency Syndrome and Fibromyalgia] I'd lost my husband, my two stepsons, the white-washed marriage, and was left to depend on the one year of alimony { had no money for a lawyer } and left to depend on GOD alone for all I needed. My mother died after a year, and again, I feared we'd lose our place to stay and would be homeless, as she had been on housing. But graciously, THE LORD supplied our needs by extending the housing contract to me for me and David my son! The lady said, I could INHERIT her account. I'd never heard of that, but GOD KNEW I would need help and provided the way. I couldn't work…I could barely do activities of daily living and it eventually after my mother died, got so bad my immune system was like someone with AIDS.

People just didn't understand how I couldn't work however, and how I could live this life of dependency. "Dependency is BAD!" And yet , they knew nothing of my life, and how INDEPENDENT I had been. GOD, had provided THIS time, as He spoke to me, " I've turned your vitality to the drought of summer!"

Ps 32:4-5 NKJV For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me; My vitality was turned into the drought of summer. Selah 5 I acknowledged my sin to You, and my iniquity I have not hidden. I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD," and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.
Selah

The reason He did that/allowed that, was so I could get healed of the terrible abuse I'd received as a child. My stepfather practiced witchcraft and molested me. I was abandoned by my mother many times in my life and left with Grandma first at birth, then with foster parents later on. I had been a "disposable child ". So besides being taught independence from my foster mom…there was a lot of hidden RAGE and ANGER, REJECTION and REBELLION, and many other things, etc…to deal with that added to the fierce INDEPENDENCE I had had.

In the midst of the worst persecution and sickness, the LORD came to me and ministered to my pain and loneliness. I had many visitations that I could not see, but could hear and feel His touch. I could smell him walking outside in the garden. I would get into the car when I had one, and could feel another hand come down on mine when I put it on the gear shift! I KNEW HE WAS WITH ME. In the midst of so much abandonment by others…HE was my ROCK. HE WAS MY LOVER, and the COMFORTER of My soul. AND He sent me Judy, my surrogate mom who would come week after week for four years, and just hold me and pray with me and walk me through inner healing. It took a lot for me to submit even to that, as my mother had been involved with new age practices…so I didn't want to do anything against the Lord. He had to give me a dream and a word that would open my heart to doing it!

AGAIN, I couldn't be INDEPENDENT. He wanted me to learn to RECEIVE…and to no longer be INDEPENDENT, but to be interdependent with the part of the body of Christ I COULD trust, and to receive the healing He had for me.

Many times in my walk in Christianity, I was doing healing and deliverance, even before I was delivered from things. And if there was one thing I could tell you, that I have learned after 20 years of doing healing & deliverance in a variety of settings, it is that GOD IS sovereign and the most important thing to remember is to DEPEND on the Holy Spirit in all the prayer, and all the deliverance.

I had A LOT of psych background in my master's training at UCLA as we used a behavioral model for evaluating patients. I knew a lot of psych things, and relationship of certain behaviors to problems.

BUT if I depended on my own knowledge rather than on HIS, I would often miss what GOD WANTED TO DO!

THE MOST IMPORTANT THING IN HEALING AN DELIVERANCE IS DEPENDENCE ON GOD.

I have used lists, for deliverance, I have used rebuking and I have spent hours in worship and using the WORD. BUT, the most important thing is to ASK HIM what HE is doing, not relying on what He has done before! ONLY HE knows all things and all people! ONLY HE knows what HE is doing at this moment in that person's life. So, when I see people teach methods. It is good to an extent to learn what HAS BEEN DONE. BUT it does not prepare you for what GOD is doing NOW! It only gives you background that will help your discernment, but you must rely on HIM.

Let me tell you of one instance. While still living in my mother's apartment after she died, a young couple came to live with me for three months as they'd come out here at the Lord's bidding but had no place to stay. We were praying for this young woman one night for deliverance. [her father had been a satanic high priest and high up in the business world] We were praying, and the Lord showed my friend a snake wrapped around her spine in the spirit. So after so much praying, etc…the Lord said to me, " Have Jim, [her fiancée] come and profess his love to her in front of ME and you!" This was strange to me, but after three times hearing it I obeyed. I told Jim what I thought the Lord was saying and he did it! AS HE DID, SHE burst out in tears [it was a father's love issue] and that pride stronghold was broken…and she got delivered and some inner healing at the same time! All the rebuking in the world was not going to undo that spirit!

This is just to show, that God does not always work according to OUR PLANS, OUR METHODS, or what we have been taught! He still is on the THRONE. He still is Jehovah Sabaoth. He still does a NEW THING whenever HE LIKES!

All this is to demonstrate that when we become to RELIANT on our methods and programs for doing things, it is not being DEPENDENT on GOD like HE would like! It is being INDEPENDENT. The MOST VALUABLE THING to learn is how to DEPEND on HIM for all the answers. THAT is HUMILITY. Jesus had that humility! HE depended on the Father for what HE was doing, so how much MORE should we also DEPEND on the FATHER for what and how we do things?

Every time we choose to go our own way, or the TRIED way…we are acting INDEPENDENTLY! YOU don't know what that person standing in front of you has been through, but HE DOES! You don't know the history of that person, what they've been delivered of, or not, but HE DOES! You don't know the sensitivity of that person but HE DOES.

I learned to ASK A LOT OF QUESTIONS of GOD. That is key to dependence also! He knows all the answers that we don't! He is the ROD and the STAFF. You know that verse from Psalm 23…Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me! That is symbolic of HIS direction and guidance!

In the days ahead we will ABSOLUTELY HAVE to DEPEND on Him for all things – What to eat, and what NOT to eat! – Where to go and where NOT to go! Who to touch, who NOT to touch! It is getting MORE AND MORE important as the world grows more disparate in the difference between good and evil. So He is teaching us to act in FAITH, and to DEPEND on HIM more than our own knowledge. There is no guarantee that what has worked before will work now…SO if you haven't already, or don't understand what you are going through, ASK, and LEARN DEPENDENCE ON HIM! HE is the Source of all WISDOM. HE IS THE WAY, THE TRUTH AND THE LIFE! SEEK HIS ADVICE and learn to shun independence! I can do all things THROUGH CHRIST Who strengthens me.
Apart from HIM, I can do NOTHING.

Trial And Error
Priscilla Van Sutphin

July 31st, 2004 4:24 am
My beloveds, children learn by trial and error a lot. I have called you to be like children otherwise you won't enter the kingdom. So don't condemn yourself when you learn by trial and error. Just pick up and start over again…and PRAISE Me for helping you to overcome. This is key My friends. It is key because the enemy wants you to feel disqualified for what's ahead. But I'm a good FATHER and I don't disqualify you because you make mistakes or are not perfected in my image yet! Sanctification is progressive and it will be done thoroughly as I come to perfect My bride. But none of you are now fully and wholly sanctified! Yet I will do it Myself, that in the days to come, the enemy will not be able to touch you, except I allow it!

Lev 22:15-16 NKJV They shall not profane the holy offerings of the children of Israel, which they offer to the LORD, 16 or allow them to bear the guilt of trespass when they eat their holy offerings; for I the LORD sanctify them.'"

1 Thess 5:23 AMP And may the God of peace Himself sanctify you through and through [separate you from profane things, make you pure and wholly consecrated to God]; and may your spirit and soul and body be preserved sound and complete [and found] blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ (the Messiah).

John 17:17 AMP Sanctify them [purify, consecrate, separate them for Yourself, make them holy] by the Truth; Your Word is Truth.
John 17:19 AMP And so for their sake and on their behalf I sanctify (dedicate, consecrate) Myself, that they also may be sanctified (dedicated, consecrated, made holy) in the Truth.

Your righteousness is in ME, so whatever you do thinking you are doing it by My guidance and depending on My wisdom, will I then condemn you? NO, my children, even if you make a wrong choice or are mistaken…the Blood of Jesus covers your sins. He is the atonement. He is the mercy seat! He is your Righteousness! So stop condemning yourself, and stop allowing the enemy to condemn you, for even if you make a mistake, all it takes to rectify it is to come to ME, and confess, and it is forgiven. But if you live by the LAW instead of by GRACE you are under a curse, and subject to all kinds of torment from the enemy. HE KNOWS where your weaknesses are. So stand FIRM in the WORD and do not allow him an inch in your life! Do not stand in self-blame, self-abasement, self-condemnation or self-doubt. Call him the liar that he is, and CLING TO ME! CLING TO MY TRUTH! Speak the Word and he will flee! SHUT THE DOOR on his lies!

Rom 3:22-24 AMP Namely, the righteousness of God which comes by believing with personal trust and confident reliance on Jesus Christ (the Messiah). [And it is meant] for all who believe. For there is no distinction,
Since all have sinned and are falling short of the honor and glory which God bestows and receives.
[All] are justified and made upright and in right standing with God, freely and gratuitously by His grace (His unmerited favor and mercy), through the redemption which is [provided] in Christ Jesus,

" Know this My beloveds, that many trials are ahead of you. But I have called you My own. You are my precious jewels! So have I not prepared the way knowing what you would have to endure. If I know all things, and am omniscient, would I allow you to suffer more than you are able to endure?
Would I throw you out on the street if you are humble and fearing Me?
Don't underestimate the LOVE I have for you My beloveds! What you expect is what you will get. Remember My servant Job? The thing that he greatly feared came upon him! So do not fear the future. Do not fear what man can do to you. FEAR ME ALONE! Be filled with the fear and dread of ME, YOUR KING, and all else will pale in comparison to MY MIGHT! Believe in MIRACLES, for you about to see astounding miracles on your behalf and on behalf of all who will come to ME!"

Deut 4:34-35 NKJV Or did God ever try to go and take for Himself a nation from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs, by wonders, by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes? 35 To you it was shown, that you might know that the LORD Himself is God; there is none other besides Him.

Deut 29:3-5 NKJV the great trials which your eyes have seen, the signs, and those great wonders. Yet the LORD has not given you a heart to perceive and eyes to see and ears to hear, to this very day. And I have led you forty years in the wilderness. Your clothes have not worn out on you, and your sandals have not worn out on your feet.

James 1:2-8 NKJV Profiting from Trials
My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials, 3 knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience. 4 But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing. 5 If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him. 6 But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven and tossed by the wind. 7 For let not that man suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; 8 he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

1 Peter 1:6-12 NKJV
6 [You should] be exceedingly glad on this account, though now for a little while you may be distressed by trials and suffer temptations,
7 So that [the genuineness] of your faith may be tested, [your faith] which is infinitely more precious than the perishable gold which is tested and purified by fire. [This proving of your faith is intended] to rebound to [your] praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed one) is revealed.

Early Morning Prayer

Marie-France Mc Dowell-Smith

April 21, 2004 I was with the Lord in prayer and intercession early, early this morning. I felt very impressed to send out an email asking all whom felt the Holy Spirit touching them to send prayers and words of encouragement to those in need. I sensed that the Father's heart was specifically directed to GRACE BECERRA. She is a 3 year old child who is beginning 8 months of chemotherapy for her reported adrenal cancer.

I typed and prayed. I typed, I cried, I prayed some more. This went on for several hours. It was a long prayer. The Lord patiently waited for me to finish. HE WAITED for me to STOP and listen. HE HAD SOMETHING TO SAY!

"CAN WE TALK? This is how one has a conversation, talk, listen, speak, listen more, an exchange, a dialogue....not a monologue. O, that My people would learn to converse with Me; that you would take time with Me".

I heard him and did not listen. I continued with typing a posting of this prayer. I wanted to finish and get ready for work; time was running out, more than I understood.

As I was 'saving' the prayer on my PC, the electricity once again went off in our house, and it the email was gone. How could this happen? God, how could you let this happen?

Late for work, I hurried and readied myself for a busy day ahead. While driving, I was singing and praising HIS name. Then I interjected, "O, God, obviously you don't want that prayer to go out".

Whew, can you believe the arrogance on the part of this 'sleep deprived, deaf, and blind saint'! 'Abba, I really wanted that prayer to go out, but, you are God, and you know what is happening here. I can never recreate that prayer again. I mean, Lord, all those scriptures! The Holy spirit said, "Right, that's the idea, I thought you were talking to Me. My mistake? I AM created that prayer through you." I was shocked into reality. I cried out, "O God, forgive my arrogance and pride, my total ignorance, FORGIVE ME!"

Crying with all that was in me I asked HIM to forgive my lack of reverence and understanding and love for the Creator of the Universe.

Quickly, I confessed and saw who I was at that moment...and it was ugly without HIM! UGLY! Then our conversation got turbo charged, because we got down to it...I mean, all those things that I prayed about for others, all the while blinded to my own glaring SIN. I had once again been blind, and in HIS compassion HE let me see me. HE continued, despite my ignorance, vileness and absurdity...HOW GREAT IS OUR FATHER'S LOVE.

'I AM the great I AM! NOW you repent of the sin of putting other things, really good things, before ME! I watched you, heard you, and now I answer. I am in the middle of your frustration. I AM blocking what you are doing, so that you will STOP and take time with me'.

'I heard as you were repenting for the idolatry, greed, arrogance, sexual perversion, hidden sin in [the congregation]; those secret chambers in My living temples. These SINS that prevent My people from entering into My Holy of Holies. I see and know all hidden, secret enjoyments that no one knows about but them and ME. (I KNOW ALL ABOUT IT! There are NO surprises to ME, nothing is hidden from ME!).

You were repenting of the false pride of your nation, the perversion that becomes law, and sacrifices to Molech of the first born in the Great congregation, NOT THE WORLD, all this in My Body!!! 'It's nothing new to Me, as in the days of Noah,' HE declared.

"I saw you crying out to ME to heal physically, mentally, to restore marriages, families, congregations.

The Great I AM listened as you repented for deceived cultures and mini cultures who are controlled by demonic gods of false religion, even many mainline churches that are FALSE to the core....did you not? I responded to the Lord, 'Why, yes, Lord all of that and more!'

"HE said again: 'I AM that I AM! I AM the Aleph and the Tav, I am the beginning and the end.

I know the end from the beginning.

I AM! I AM! I AM EL ELYON, the Most High God, Love Me, as no other.

Cease from your worry and strife.

Be still and know that I AM GOD!

Love one another!

You have cried out for many things, and I have many others who are weeping before My altar at this very time.

I have 7,000 x 7 x 7 x 7.

I have three times that many who are about to find that their testing time is upon them.

I will have a Body who loves me as evidenced by their love one for another.

Many people are unable to love one another, because they do not REALLY LOVE ME.

They know Me not.

I will allow many things to occur, to bring My eternal purposes to the forefront of Your scarred minds.

The scar tissue has built up thickly in your minds; scarred from the lies received; scarred from lies believed; scarred from lies lived out.

I understand, but do you understand the Love that I have for YOU?

I have sealed scars in my hands and feet for the Love I have for you.

BELIEVE UPON ME, believe upon the SON, Yeshua haMashiach / Messiah Jesus!

You who have received My free gift of salvation, it is time for action in faith, this is what pleases Me, your love for me in faith.

Do you believe? Then walk out your faith!

Allow Me to live My life more completely in YOU.

BELIEVE THAT I AM COMING SOON!

THIS IS NOT ESCAPISM, this is REALISM.

I have told many to "Tell them, I AM, Coming SOON!"

Do you want to come to ME not having touched one soul with My Love? For there are many who crave MY LOVE!

This is again to be Your Father's World. Soon to be governed by Yeshua from the City called by My name, Yerushalayim.

Do you want to come before Me not ever having held a weeping mother's hand, or consoled a man broken from alcohol, or taken a 'Lutheran Ladies Casserole' to that one just home from surgery? Or visited a prisoner in jail or the sick? Or even given a cup of water to the least of these? Never having defended nor stood with MY PEOPLE, Isra'el? Do you?

Do you want to come before ME and say, but O Lord, I was so busy, just trying to make ends meet.

Did you ever stop to consider that it was I who would not allow those ends to meet.

I wanted your attention, your undivided attention, your undivided affection and love.

You dads and moms, you know what I mean. Have you ever said to your children, "Pay attention, look at me, stop, be quiet and listen to me. I want to talk with you, I love you!!!"

I want us to have time together. Gaze upon My face, for the righteous shall see their God. Just gaze upon my eyes of love for you.

I want all of you, right now, listen!!! Just clear away the hidden things, let us do surgery. Let's do it NOW!

I AM ABLE to take away all things that prevent your entry into that Dwelling Place I have reserved for you with Me.

In trembling and fear, I got into my work's parking lot and fell to my knees in my minivan.

The Lord and I met once again right there in an old white Dodge minivan.

It was holy ground this morning.

I wept before HIM asking for forgiveness for arrogance and pride, and all my SINS.

SIN is so deceptive and creeps in unawares. Too many times, we are blinded to our own SIN, easy to see the speck in our brother's eye.

That is the necessity of prayer in our lives, in my life; not only to talk to HIM, but to listen very closely to the Lover of our Souls.

HE releases HIS compassion and love upon us after allowing a moment of clarity into how we look without HIM.

Seeing our fleshly selves is ugly, frightening. To see ourselves apart form Jesus is sickening. It is a terrifying thing to fall into the hands of the Living God.

"I tell you, it is better to love Me, confess your SIN to Me, allow My Holy Spirit to cleanse you from all your SIN."

"I AM the WIND in the storm that comes, it comes to cleanse MY HOUSE.

I AM coming to clean up, to repair the lines of communication that My commanders will warn the great assembly and prepare for the last of the invited guests.

Blow the Silver Trumpets, assemble, listen for My voice, My direction, and move at My command!

I want My house clean and bright and beautiful as THEY COME, this harvest, MY harvest awaits. I will have only the BEST for My children!

I am inviting many guests, the invitations are going out. The directions have been written in their hearts by My Ruach (Holy Spirit). When they SEE ME IN YOU, they will follow ME, I KNOW THE WAY. For I AM THE WAY, THE TRUTH and THE LIFE and no one comes to the Father, except through Me.

Prepare the Way of Your Lord. O, I want YOU to prepare their way, a highway of holiness. No debris, no broken stones in the road. There must be no garbage in the way, no broken branches fallen to the ground, nothing that will be burned, for all will be burned that can be burned. Do you see?

SEE ME! BELIEVE NOW! LOVE ME NOW!

For those of you who have been through the cleansing I am speaking -- MAKE READY, SUIT UP, BATTLE FORMATIONS. I have whispered into your spirits your place, your part in My great symphony of all the ages. Move NOW, for the fields are ripe unto harvest.

Do not allow this harvest to rot in the fields. Do not allow the enemy of your souls to continue to steal, kill and destroy...for there are many who will come.

I have opened your understanding this day, I have shown you in one brief second what you once were, and in my redemptive work WHO YOU ARE AS I LIVE WITHIN YOU.

I show you, WHO I AM! My wonders to declare in the assembly. Praise Me, My wonders to behold. My authority given My commanders in battle.

I TELL YOU, WHAT I AM ABOUT TO DO, and the part that My Body walks out in faith at this end time.

BE READY, I COME!

ALL of heaven assembles and watches this day, for you are chosen for this end time--REACH OUT in My compassion and love to the ones who are as you once were, gripped by sin and death.

Do not verbally abuse them, manipulate or cajole; rather allow My love to entice them into My ark of safety and they shall be saved.

It is My doing, not yours; yours only to obey.

So allow Me to clean up, and My house shall shine brightly as the sun, for the Son comes in brilliance, Light, and Power, HIS justice to perform.

Love to you MY precious Commanders, My Generals of Faith, My much loved Sons and Daughters; remember, I AM El Gibor!

Blow the Trumpets in Zion!

I COME!"

England You Have A Choice

Chuck Pierce

May 20, 2004

Dear Faithful Watchman:

Thank you so much for praying for this trip. I have completed our report from our stop in England. Our time there was so powerful! Reports from Germany and Spain will follow in separate emails.

We left Germany early on Friday morning and flew to Birmingham, England. Again, our luggage did not arrive with us. Many of you who will be reading this report have roots of inheritance here in England. I believe it's very important we pray for England at this time. The team and I found it very interesting that the burden of the Lord came on us in England more than the other two countries we have been in.

As a team, we met to pray before I spoke that afternoon, after I spoke, and then before I spoke again that night. We felt it was very important that we hear the Lord's message for this nation.

Dr. Sharon Stone, with Christian International Europe, is doing a great work here in this country. However, the country, overall, is very weak prophetically. We stayed at the Westwood Training and Conference Center in Coventry where the meeting was being held. The architectural design had allowed for the middle of the Conference Center to reflect "the Eye. "Of course, many of you know that I have been studying the evil eye and how it affects our lives. This eye is linked with Mammon, superstition, occult and false worship.

Before the meeting began my right eye turned bright red. During our prayer meeting the same thing happened to Marty's eye. After the afternoon session the Eagles of God team members went and stood under "the eye" and declared the Glory of the Throne Room would penetrate down through the heavens and remove any evil watchers in the region. We formed a cross in the center of the eye and declared that the blood of Jesus would cover and block all the workings of the enemy.

When I got to the meeting on Friday afternoon, Sharon stood up before the crowd and said, "We don't want to hear a good preacher. We want to hear the message of God for England." I began by exhorting them the following way: "Prophets in England, you've got your work set out before you. You are in a difficult time. This is a season when prophets need to meet together, worship, cry out and press into revelation. The enemy has a plan to suppress the vision of God in this land. Do not get discouraged. You need to keep saying what needs to be said even if it seems no one in this land is listening."

Then the Lord began to speak, "There is an unholy alliance being negotiated now in this nation. This alliance will be devastating to this nation in days ahead. This is a very formative time for the future of this nation. I have worked in times past to prevent this nation from forming this type of alliance. However, now it will be your choice whether you align wrongly or align with Me.

I say to the people of England, you will be contending concerning this alliance. Prophets need to contend. Intercessors need to contend. Apostles need to rise up. This is a time of choice. I will be sure that My message is heard in this land so the choice is clearly determined.

Two prophets in this land will go into high places of governmental authority to tell them the dangers of this wrong alignment. For if this alignment takes place, in five years you will be overtaken by false gods. You are on the verge of being overtaken now. However, there is still time to choose Me. You have three years of choice that will set your course and determine your direction for the next seven years. I am raising up the intercessory call in this nation. Watchman must have a single eye in the land. This is not a time for divided minds and double mindedness.

I will offer an opportunity for this land to align with My covenant people, Israel*. However, if they reject this alignment they will find another alignment with* Germany and France at their door. Syria will also be a part of this wrongful alliance and coalition. England, you have a choice. For the next 18 months a window of opportunity to change this alignment has been positioned over this nation.

I am calling My people in this nation into a time of worship to create portals that My Glory and favor can enter into the nation and bring My choice of life. There is a sound in England that is like none other in My people. Join that sound with My sound from heaven now, and this sound will begin to cover and permeate into high places in this nation.

If you will allow worship to develop in a new way in this nation, My presence will begin to rule in a new way throughout the land. Join your present sound of intimacy and exaltation of Me with My sound of war. Do not just sing these songs with your mouth but allow the message of these songs to pierce and activate your spirit-man for war.

I am forming doors in heaven. As you worship, these doors will move into the earth realm and give you opportunity to enter in and present My message to this land. I am calling you to celebrate in a way that your enemies come to My table. I am preparing a table before you and anointing your shield for war. Do not resist in this season of war. Raise your shield of faith high. Do not become complacent and sympathetic with the enemy that is in your land. If you do, your land will be overtaken.

Watch the key banquets that are occurring in this land. Governmental and social banquets should be watched carefully. Prepare the way for Me to enter in and move during these banquets," saith the Lord. "I will give prophets and intercessors and the watchman of this land favor in these 18 months. From the center of this land a gate is being formed. Determine at this gate whether hell will rule or I will rule," saith the Lord. "The rulership at the gate of England is being determined now."

We are in a seven-year war season. Seasons are determined by God. It is amazing to see how nations are aligning in war. In this third year of the seven-year war season, alignments are becoming very clear. Choices are being made. During August of this year economic decisions and change will begin to occur. Autumn is an important time for incredible new beginnings in the earth realm in the way we process and gain our supply for the future.

A new anointing for administration is coming into God's people. We will begin to administrate as Joseph did. Joseph gained authority and understanding over the agricultural realm, livestock, land and the people of that day. We are entering into different times of administration. These times may become hard in the natural, but God has a plan for us to multiply. England is at a door of choice on how they will begin to move into this season which sets the course for their future.

Thank you for being a part of this trip with us.

Blessings,

Chuck D. Pierce

Entertainment No Longer In The Holy Place
Sandy Warner

Jul 2, 2004
There are many living within the outer courts of My kingdom. They are satisfied with the entertainment of carnal pleasure and a distant heavenly Father.

There are others who have been touched by a glimpse of My greater light and love and are walking away from the deceitfulness of heart. My light has spotlighted and purged their motives and My Presence has washed them as they have walked away from personal idols. These are finding much comfort dwelling in My inner court. They dwell in the intimacy of ministry and fellowship within My sanctuary.

Finally there are those who are so ravished by My loving Presence that they have forsaken the world and walked straight into My holy place. It is there within the bosom of My heart that I share My secrets with My friends. In the days to come there shall be a visual distinction between the hearts of men, their dwelling place and their degree of separation from the world. How I long for your friendship and yearning love! Would you come deeper yet into My heart and let the things of this world grow dim? As you behold My light, all else will fade in comparison.

Ezek 42:14 NLT
When the priests leave the Holy Place, they must not go directly to the outer courtyard. They must first take off the clothes they wore while ministering because these clothes are holy. They must put on other clothes before entering the parts of the building complex open to the public."

Already Done

Jun 25, 2004

Thank you for your intercession, My friend. The Words that I speak into your life and you declare are already set in motion as you stand upon them. I view them as already done. Thank you, My dear friend, you who wait upon Me and want only My point of view. How you honor Me as you lay your life down and serve your loved ones while you wait for Me and wait for them. I know your sacrifice and commitment behind the scenes. I know you have been misunderstood by your loved ones. I will settle the differences. Your intercession bears fruit for so many, even more then your family. How you have touched My heart to be so willing to wait for what matters to Me the most. Thank you for not giving up. You really are not alone. You have all of heaven yearning with you, dear one.

Rom 8:24-25 AMP For in [this] hope we were saved. But hope [the object of] which is seen is not hope. For how can one hope for what he already sees? But if we hope for what is still unseen by us, we wait for it with patience and composure.

Candid Giving

Sandy Warner

Jun 28, 2004
When giving a gift to others, remain real and candid and let it pour out naturally from your life. As you share with others what I have given to you, you shall have cooperation and reception. Why? Because you have believed Me. You are faithful and I have placed My favor upon you. No one can give your gift, dear one, it is remarkably profound because no one has walked in your shoes. I made you and everyone unique and I enjoy you just as you are. Do not fear sharing liberally, for I have sealed you and hidden you. I AM establishing your walk in Me. You will find how joyful life can be when you give and pour out your life.

Heb 4:12-13 NKJV
For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a Discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

Redeeming The Mistakes
Sandy Warner

Sandy Warner Jun 30, 2004

How I have heard your cries over spilt milk with enough mistakes to last a life time! You are not alone, My child. The cries go out across the earth. The pain you feel is not only for yourself, but for the choices of a generation and for the time in which you live. I receive even your groans as acts of intercession as you bear the weight of such misery. It is much too heavy for you. All that matters is that you have carried your pain to Me and let Me comfort you. In so doing I have also used this to lift another's pain in greater misery than your own.

We have turned a corner and it is time to redeem the mistakes. I have used your mistakes as training tools in preparation for your destiny. It is good to go back over your endeavors and see how you can improve the next time. You will also be given the opportunity to share these with the next generation so that they will learn from you and not repeat the same cycle. I have made them teachable for they have much to accomplish in their life time. You will find that My redemptive power seems even greater in your mistakes than in your successes. This shall be a joy to you as you humble yourself before Me and witness My fulfilled Word in your life, in spite of yourself.

"For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need." (Heb 4:15-16 KJV)

Establishing Order

Ephraim Frank

Dear fellow Israelite,
“Vayechi” (“and he lived”) is one of the most prophetically loaded parashot (plural of parasha) in the entire Tanach, and quite appropriately ends the book of Bereshit (Genesis). The title itself describes God’s sovereign intentions regarding the fulfillment of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Thus, not only did they live, but also became fruitful and multiplied: “and they (Israel) had possessions there (in Egypt) and were fruitful (from the same root as the name “Ephraim”) and multiplied exceedingly” (Gen. 47:27). Many years later Moses, observing the multitude, exclaimed: “YHWH your God has multiplied you, and here you are today as the stars of heaven in multitude. May YHWH God of your fathers make you a thousand times more numerous than you are, and bless you as He has promised you!” (Deut. 1:10-11). One of the interesting things to note about the fruitfulness of God’s chosen nation was that it always took place outside the land of Israel. Jacob propagated his family (Goy-nation) (all except for Benjamin) while in Haran. In Egypt he became as numerous as the “stars of heaven”, and of course later, being dispersed into all the nations and lands on the face of the earth, became “as the sand of the sea” or the “fullness of the nations”. A simple mathematical equation would be as follows: Israel came out of Egypt somewhere between 1.5 million and 3 million souls, multiplied by a thousand yields the figure 1.5 to 3 billion souls. Who knows how many out of 6 billion people living on the earth today are a fulfillment of that prophecy?! As we know, “with God everything is possible”, especially when it comes to keeping the covenant that He swore to the patriarchs.

God’s plan of fruitfulness or multiplicity is laid out prophetically in this parasha. Right from its beginning verses we see a Torah, or life, principle in action. Laying on his deathbed Jacob calls for Joseph. The meaning of the root of the name Joseph is “to add to,” in accordance with his mother’s prayer at his birth (to have another son). Joseph’s presences alongside of his dying father is a foreshadowing of the promise “to add to”, or to multiply the life of the one dying (Jacob-Israel). Thus, even under these natural conditions it may be said: "O Death, where is your sting? O Hades, where is your victory?" (Hos. 13:14).
Our Messiah also said: “Truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it produces much grain (John 12:24). Wheat was one of the biblical symbols that described the House of Joseph.

The years of Jacob’s troubles and sorrows were over. Only the memory of a blood stained garment of his beloved son would linger, as a prophetic picture of what price it would cost the Heavenly Father to redeem these sons of promise (Israel). In those few fleeting moments of Jacob’s life he approached Joseph with reverence and honor as the government of the entire world of Egypt was upon Joseph’s shoulders (“shechem) but yet he was not the king.

Joseph was known as a dreamer and an interpreter of dreams. But far surpassing these attributes was Joseph’s understanding of the faithfulness of the God of his fathers through the very situations of his life. The Torah was being written on Joseph’s heart through his tribulations. The testing of his faith produced wisdom, humility and compassion which then qualifying him to hold the position that he was now in. His life exemplified the prophetic destiny of his entire household. For as a people they were to pass under the rod of God’s judgments, which afterwards would prepare them for their irrevocable call to become a part of a nation of kings and priests.

When Jacob knew he was drawing nigh to death, his first line of business was to strike up his final deal by making Joseph swear to bury him with his fathers. The transaction was for Joseph to put his hand under his (Jacob's) thigh, just like Eliezer did to Abraham when sealing the oath. This meant that the strength and power of life represented by the thigh, will find expression through the hand of another, who swore or promised to be faithful to the oath. Israel then bowed at the head of his bed, signifying, as it were, having completed the work that God had sent him to do. However, there was still one more thing left for this chosen servant of God, and that was to pass on, by the laying on of his right hand, the most coveted of all blessings that are recorded in the Scripture. This blessing was reserved for a son, a son who has shown himself faithful and trustworthy in the eyes of his father. The son who would now step into the role of his father, and take upon his shoulders (shechem) the right to be the redeemer in the family. In order to have the means to redeem, this son would receive a double portion of the inheritance. However, that was not all that was to be passed on in that solemn moment in history. Jacob, holding the positions of a prophet and a king-priest after the order of Melchizedek in God's kingdom on the earth, was now obligated to pass on this highest of all positions to his beloved; the right to govern, with the dual role, or the authority of a king-priest. But is that what happened?

Jacob, as he lay upon the bed of his departure from this life heard the announcement: "Behold, your son Joseph has come to you" (Gen. 48:2). There probably was not a more comforting, nor a sweeter word that Jacob could have heard than those spoken by that faithful servant attending him on that final day. With those words, heralding the arrival of his beloved son, he gathered up whatever strength he had left, for he knew he had one last task to perform. But just before doing that, he recalled to Joseph the covenant promise that he had received from God Almighty in Luz (Bet El). "Behold, I will make you fruitful and multiply you, and I will make of you a multitude of people, and give this land to your descendants after you as an everlasting possession" (Gen. 48:3-4). Jacob was not just telling Joseph this for the purpose of reminiscing. He wanted his son to know that the birthright included the land of Canaan and the covenant of fruitfulness. But please keep in mind that Jacob left out one little part of this covenant reminder, "and kings shall come out of your loins" (Gen. 35:11). Everything that was happening in those moments was under the guiding hand of YHWH. Jacob's prophetic anointing was working with keen clarity. It was not because of old age that he forgot this portion of the verse. He knew and understood the statutes and ordinances of God's kingdom government, suggesting that to him the term "kings" was not referring to the kingdoms of men, but to the kings after the order of Melchizedek.

Leaving out that portion of the blessing, he now concentrates on the prophetic destiny and significance of Joseph's two sons, Ephraim and Menashe. Because Israel's eyes were so dim from age, he apparently was not aware that they were present with Joseph; although, he did speak to Joseph very directly about them saying: "And now your two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, are mine; as Reuven and Simeon, they shall be mine" (Gen. 48:5). Notice Joseph did not argue this point with his father, as he knew the old patriarch had the right to adopt his sons.. "May they be like Reuven and Simeon", Jacob declared. It was no coincidence that Jacob put Ephraim's name before Menashe's, even though Menashe was the firstborn. Thus in the positioning of the lads, he compared Ephraim to Reuven Leah's firstborn and not Menashe. Joseph was totally unaware of what was happening, as later he questioned the way Jacob placed his hands upon their heads.

Why was Jacob so interested in Ephraim and Menashe? Let us go back to parashat (="parasha of") "Miketz", where their names are given. "And Joseph called the name of the first-born Manashe: 'for God has made me forget all my toil, and all my father's house.' And the name of the second he called Ephraim: 'for God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction'" (Gen. 41:51-52). Hidden in these two names is God's prophetic plan to bless and multiply while in a state of forgetfulness. God intended to bless all the families of the earth through the Abrahamic covenant. Thus YHWH, being faithful to His word, laid the foundations for the fulfillment of this part of the plan of redemption, in (and through) the House of Joseph.

Jacob now gets down to his prophetic 'business', and so does the God of Abraham. "And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said: 'Who are these?'" (Gen. 48: 8). Now why would Israel be asking Joseph that question when he had just proclaimed them to be his own, unless he was testing Joseph? Well, if he was, Joseph failed the test by still declaring that those two little ones belonged to him. There is another interesting point in the above scripture. Looking closely we find a very interesting switch. It does not say "Jacob beheld", but "Israel". >From now on, throughout these next couple of chapters, when Jacob blesses, he does so in his God-given name of Israel.

The above question seems to be eternally on the heart of Jacob, as even later the prophet Isaiah says of him (Israel) that he doesn't recognize his own children (see Isa. 63:16). Again in another scripture: "Therefore thus says YHWH, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob: 'Jacob shall not now be ashamed, nor shall his face now grow pale; but when he sees his children, the work of My hands, in his midst, they will hallow My name, and hallow the Holy One of Jacob, and fear the God of Israel. These also who erred in spirit will come to understanding, and those who complained will learn doctrine'" (Isa. 29:22-24).

If we gain an understanding of what is going on here, in the tent of Jacob, so many years ago, we will not err nor complain about God's order or instructions. Maybe we should hear again the voice of our father when he says: "Assemble yourselves, that I may tell you what shall befall you in the last days. Gather together and hear (from the root "sh'ma"), you sons of Jacob, and listen (also from the root "sh'ma") to Israel your father" (Gen. 49:1-2)!!!
Shabbat Shalom,
Ephraim
Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell togetherin unity. (Psa. 133)

There are promises I made to you years ago. You have faithfully waited for the timing and now the door of promise is open. Trust Me, when I say it's a new day in every way. I know you do not understand this to the degree that I intend. It would simply matters if you would simply call this door, the door of YES.

Earthquake Vision

Susan Cummings

11-27-04 -Prophetic Experience/Vision
Earthquake Vision:

Just after midnight, I had a very profound and unsettling experience. I will attempt to write it out so that everyone can clearly understand it.

I am lying in bed, and am dreaming. The power of God begins to hit me very strongly and the lightning begins to crack through me. I am jerking strongly and my husband attempts to sleep through this….sorry honey……smile….. this was a very strong and real experience, and I was crying out in the experience, my husband said I moaned through it….. there is truly great changes coming to us.

There was so much happening at once in the experience, but I will break it down into each thing, so that each will be clear, but not all occurred separately, but most was all at one time or so close together that it was hard to tell what occurred first or next.

I enter the vision:

I am standing and underneath my feet, the ground below, begins to sink. It is a sudden violent sinking feeling, like the bottom of the earth is falling or caving in. Everything under your feet sinks while a bright light suddenly flashes all around and a “click” sound in the spirit. This “click” is a dull click sound like a light switch was turned on, and it signaled something, while the flash occurred and exploded in a great light all around us.

Then, this great roar began to slowly grow and increase as the falling ground gave way to a shaking from up and down, to side to side, at the same time. It seemed like the earth is coming apart. The earth violently quakes and breaks up all around. The side to side motion, the up and down, and now forwards and backwards motion.

The land breaks open as it is sinking underneath and quaking in all directions. The middle of the USA breaks open, and splits down the middle, as I stand there, the land masses move. I understand in the vision, that I am not harmed as I watch this, and God’s people will not be harmed either, but multitudes will perish in this sudden, great, explosive quake.

There was no warning. Just the sinking ground, the light, the “click”, and the then explosion into a huge quake. The USA is split apart, and the dividing and the exposing the heartland of the land, the heart of America. The land masses and the topography are altered. There is a great silence afterwards. All is quiet.

I did not know where I was standing in the middle of the US, as this experience happened, nor was I told when it would occur, only that it would, and that the heart was being torn open and exposed, and divided.

There was about a 45 minute time period in this experience.

Some scriptures I looked up afterwards were:

Proverbs 1 + 2
Isaiah 1+ 2
Isaiah 24
Jeremiah 4:22-26
Daniel 12

Note:

This experience is in no way declaring a definite, irreversible event, or releasing it as such, as the Lord has only told me to share it as it occurred and as He showed me. We all need to seek the Lord for our part in this, and for His Wisdom and Will for the days ahead.

I pray that we can avoid this great loss of life and catastrophic event, but I also pray to embrace His Will, and for His Purposes to be established in the earth. May all men seek Him, and draw near while our time of grace is given to us.

Escape to Freedom

Priscilla Van Sutphin

4/29/04 11:11pm
www.upstreamca.org

When I looked up after the news, wondering what am I to do next, it was 11:11 pm Again the number of end times ministry 11, twice. They have just become signs to me that God wants to say something. What do You want to say Lord? And heard, “ Escape to freedom! “

As I asked this, I went to launch my bible program and I noticed the photo on my screen was that of Mel Gibson carrying a sword, from the movie Braveheart. And immediately I remembered the scene at his execution in the movie for William Wallace, the character he was playing. And I could see him yelling before death, as the “priest” taunted him, ‘ FREEDOM! ‘
He died that others would be FREE. Just as Jesus died, and all other martyrs since Christ.

People look upon death as a bad thing or as defeat. But for the martyr it is truly an escape to FREEDOM. Paul said, “ To live is Christ, to die is GAIN.”
When a pastor died in Columbia at the hands of drug-lords, it initiated REVIVAL in Cali. If you’ve seen Transformations, then you know about it.

Death for us Christians, is really just a beginning of TOTAL freedom and eternal happiness. It is not sad. It is sad for those we leave behind because they will miss us. But for us who are called according to His purposes, we must believe that our time is not up till HE says it’s up. HE ALONE HOLDS THE KEYS TO DEATH AND HELL. WE MUST BELIEVE HE WILL SUSTAIN us till it is our time here is finished, and the work He gave us to do is finished!

So then I asked Him again…what do YOU want to say Father about this?

Do not regard your life as one who has no faith. When you come to me and surrender your life, THEN, you GAIN MY LIFE! Nothing is lost, but only gained from this exchange. You exchange death for life and darkness for light!”
Paul said in Acts 26:17-18 NKJV
17 I will deliver you from the Jewish people, as well as from the Gentiles, to whom I now send you, 18 to open their eyes, in order to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith in Me.'

“I am the LIGHT of the world, and I came to give you LIFE so that you might give life to others. Resurrection life is powerful and creative and the dynamics of prayer and praise, and speaking My Word over people brings new life to your own soul, and the souls of others. There is a divine exchange program as it were, that imbues light into your soul as you worship Me, and darkness is driven out. Revelation is given to further your understanding of WHO I AM, and of WHO YOU ARE in Me.

I love you with an everlasting love. That means I never, never, never STOP loving you. I will always love you, forever, and ever, and ever and ever!
And I have told you that NOTHING can separate you from My love! So can death separate you? NO! Can demons separate you from My love? NO!
Can circumstances or your failures separate you? NO, they cannot! I am your FATHER, and I love you immensely. I love you as My own SON!!!
Did I allow My Son to go through some hard things? YES! Did I save my SON from the sacrifice HE asked to perform on your behalf? NO! I knew his desire for relationship with you was equal to Mine!

He laid down HIS LIFE, that you might receive life. So I ask you My beloveds, are you willing to lay down your lives, and surrender completely to MY WILL, that you may have LIFE and LIGHT and no longer walk in darkness?

John 12:46-50 NKJV I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in Me should not abide in darkness. 47 And if anyone hears My words and does not believe, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. 48 He who rejects Me, and does not receive My words, has that which judges him — the word that I have spoken will judge him in the last day. 49 For I have not spoken on My own authority; but the Father who sent Me gave Me a command, what I should say and what I should speak. 50 And I know that His command is everlasting life. Therefore, whatever I speak, just as the Father has told Me, so I speak."

Matt 6:22-24 NKJV The Lamp of the Body (Luke 11:34-36)
"The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is good, your whole body will be full of light. 23 But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness! 24 "No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.

You cannot serve self and what you want and serve ME. I can' t make it more clear than that My beloveds. So ask yourself, do you do the things you do at My command. Are you fulfilling your goals or Mine? Are you trying to make ME FAMOUS? Or are you building your kingdom? A heart that walks in much insecurity is vulnerable to deception. But when you yield your will to MINE, then you will be able to hear correctly what it is that I WANT. And how will you know what I want, unless you are in communion with Me and listen to My still small voice? How will you hear Me, if you are too busy doing what YOU WANT to do? How will you hear Me, if you are too busy with works. I told Martha, that Mary chose the greater thing…to spend time with ME, not that serving is invaluable, but that she was way too concerned about menial things, rather than the things of the Kingdom! Sometimes in your life there are things you MUST do. But sort out what is a must, from what can wait, so you can spend time with me, by asking if it is going to matter eternally if this gets done NOW!

Seek FIRST the Kingdom of God and HIS righteousness, and all these things will be added unto you I said! So if you put that time with me as priority…all else will come easy for you, compared to striving without Me. I am STEADFAST towards you My love, so learn to be steadfast with Me! There is nothing that is too big for Me to handle.

Matt 11:29-30 NKJV Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. 30 For My yoke is easy and My burden is light."

Exposing your heart to Me is hard, but not as hard as if I expose it to others is it? So come to ME, and confess your struggles and weaknesses, and sins to ME. I will NOT condemn you. I will only HELP YOU to receive the healing and deliverance you need, and the empowering with My love to drive out all darkness! Allow Me to soak you with My perfumes."

John 3:19-21 NKJV And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. 20 For everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. 21 But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been done in God."

John 1:4-5 NKJV In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it.

John 8:12 NKJV Then Jesus spoke to them again, saying, "I am the light of the world. He who follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but have the light of life."

John 12:35-36 NKJV Then Jesus said to them, "A little while longer the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, lest darkness overtake you; he who walks in darkness does not know where he is going. 36 While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light." These things Jesus spoke, and departed, and was hidden from them.

Changing Of The Guard
Priscilla Van Sutphin

April 29th, 2004 12:02 am
www.upstreamca.org

Even as there will truly be some changing of the guard in Iraq due to tonight's debacle showing the inhumanity of soldiers against prisoners; I will also remove those who have abused My children in My church! I will not continue to tolerate indifference to hurting others, and limiting others and trying to destroy the ministry I am trying to birth in others! I am calling all My children to HUMBLE THEMSELVES in My sight, before I come and humble you Myself!

What it takes for some, will be different from what it takes for others!
But I WILL REMOVE all indifference and complacency from this nation!
I will answer the prayers of My remnant! I WILL in no way allow their prayers to fall to the ground. But how I do what they want may not be their idea of how I do it. So prepare yourselves My people! Prepare yourselves!
I am not unsanctified in MY MERCY! MY JUSTICE will prevail in this nation and those who have defiled it will be removed in the secular arena as well.

Many things happening will serve to exalt MY KINGDOM in the days ahead.
Hold fast to ME My beloveds. For great HUMBLING is coming to the proud in heart! Those who have exalted themselves will not continue to have favor! I will raise up those who have been hidden in MY HEART! I will cleanse them and purify their hearts for all they have had to endure and I will promote the HUMBLE!

Take MY YOKE upon you and learn of ME for I am humble and lowly of heart!
You must cast ALL YOUR CARES ON ME to be truly humble. I am big enough to handle them all! Do not think you are in control! Those in the world will soon enough see that they are not in control when they think they are. They will come to know that I AM and there is no other! Suddenlies are being released, and they will also catapult those who have been hidden in My wilderness to a place of prominence in MY KINGDOM. You will stand before kings and rulers and testify to My LOVE. KEEP YOURSELVES in the shadow of My wings. Hold fast to ME as you see the changes around you!

I am able to defend My own, so do not try to defend yourselves before your accusers. LET ME give you direction. Rely on ME for what to do and what to say. Look to Me for the answers you need. RELY on ME! Do not espouse your own opinions, but look to Me for MY opinion.

James 1:5-10 AMP
5 If any of you is deficient in wisdom, let him ask of the giving God [Who gives] to everyone liberally and ungrudgingly, without reproaching or faultfinding, and it will be given him.
6 Only it must be in faith that he asks with no wavering (no hesitating, no doubting). For the one who wavers (hesitates, doubts) is like the billowing surge out at sea that is blown hither and thither and tossed by the wind.
7 For truly, let not such a person imagine that he will receive anything [he asks for] from the Lord,
8 [For being as he is] a man of two minds (hesitating, dubious, irresolute), [he is] unstable and unreliable and uncertain about everything [he thinks, feels, decides].
9 Let the brother in humble circumstances glory in his elevation [as a Christian, called to the true riches and to be an heir of God],
10 And the rich [person ought to glory] in being humbled [by being shown his human frailty], because like the flower of the grass he will pass away.

Call to Remembrance Priscilla Van Sutphin

April 28th, 2004 3: am
www.upstreamca.org
tearsofthefather@comcast.net

Mal 3:16 NKJV A Book of Remembrance
Then those who feared the LORD spoke to one another, and the LORD listened and heard them; So a book of remembrance was written before Him
For those who fear the LORD and who meditate on His name.
Mal 3:16 TLB Then those who feared and loved the Lord spoke often of him to each other. And he had a Book of Remembrance drawn up in which he recorded the names of those who feared him and loved to think about him.

Isa 26:8 NKJV Yes, in the way of Your judgments, O LORD, we have waited for You; The desire of our soul is for Your name and for the remembrance of You.

“I want to teach you something about covenant tonight My beloveds! There is an air of discontentment around the earth, for the creation is groaning.
But there is another form of discontentment that is not good for your soul.
When you are dissatisfied with yourself, or dissatisfied with others, or dissatisfied with the way I am doing things, then there is a STRONGHOLD of discontentment. That breeds hopelessness in My people. If you have not had all the roots of self-discontentment uprooted, then there will be a temptation to be discontent with many other things, and people, including ME. I want you to be filled with contentment. Paul said, I have LEARNED to be content in whatever state I am, because He knew what it was to wait, to be without, to suffer, or to be blessed. Either way, he learned to ACCEPT that I am in control. And that whatever happens, there is something to be learned. Now this is not a blanket statement. For there were times when he knew he was to go to Asia for example and he was shown it was the ENEMY who was opposing him. Delays happen in a WAR. Sometimes unexpected things happen, and advances are delayed in a natural war.

The same is true in spiritual war. Daniel waited for answers for three weeks because of war in the heavenlies. So it is NOT always true that delays are a sign of disfavor or alternate plans you are unaware of, but that some things have to be worked out, before it will come through. I want you to understand so that you will ask for discernment and not assume that you are at fault in certain situations.

Discontentment can be a major interference in FAITH that brings forth promise. So you must be alert because the enemy sneaks around seeking to disenfranchise you from all I have called you to! How do you get contentment? From MY PEACE! I said, I will keep in perfect peace the mind that is STAYED on ME! So you must learn as Paul did to STAY your mind on the things above, and not things below…NOT circumstances or the opposition, but on ME and all things that are good, pure, kind, holy, etc.

Phil 4:8-9 NKJV Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy — meditate on these things. 9 The things which you learned and received and heard and saw in me, these do, and the God of peace will be with you.

When you have been through something and I have seen you through, then you need to CALL TO REMEMBRANCE that time, when you are feeling the lure of discouragement. Go back and look at all I have done for you. This is what covenant is about. I keep a book of remembrance. And you need to keep a book of remembrance, for the things that I have done for you! Then when the enemy comes to try to tempt you to be discontent, dissatisfied, you can remind him of all the times I came through for you, all I have done for you! And when you then focus on those things, you gain strength. David encouraged himself in the Lord. How did he do that? He looked back at all the times I helped him and ministered to him encouragement! He did that so that he would not lose focus!

When Israel had victories, or something significant happened, they built an altar to remember me by…and often assigned a new name to ME, each time they got a revelation of My CHARACTER. This is another thing you can do, is to recite the written WORD, to encourage yourself with what happened in the past, and how my character NEVER changes. Speak My Word outloud and remind the enemy of My CHARACTER. REMIND HIM OF MY NAME!

Ex 17:14-16 Complete Jewish Bible
(Maftir) 14 Adonai said to Moshe, Write this in a book to be remembered, and tell it to Y'hoshua: I will completely blot out any memory of 'Amalek from under heaven." 15 Moshe built an altar, called it Adonai Nissi [Adonai is my banner/miracle]. 16 and said, " Because their hand was against the throne of Yah, Adonai will fight Amalek generation after generation."

Praise Me, and worship Me in this manner, and I assure you, the enemy will BACK OFF from tormenting you. But discontentment, breeds complaining and whining, and discouragement…leading to hopelessness and distrust, then unbelief. So when you find yourself complaining, ask yourself, " am I discontent with God?". Am I keeping my mind STAYED on Him? REMIND yourself and the enemy of your own victories, purchased by the BLOOD, and I assure you, you will then be able to take all thoughts captive!

I KEEP COVENANT with My people. I AM FAITHFUL AND TRUE. YOU can remind Me of My promises, and I will remember. I have said, I will make remembrance of those who love to talk about Me - those who remember MY CHARACTER! This remembrance ENGENDERS FAITH that endures till the end! Remember this way, that I LOVE YOU ETERNALLY, and NOTHING can separate you from my love, though the enemy is busy trying to make you think you have failed too much or too often to be secure in your election or calling, he is a liar, and the father of lies. So resist him in this manner. And CLING to the knowledge that I LOVE YOU. And speak it out daily how much I love you! Look at My word and speak it! "

Then I was reminded of how a prophet from Colorado once spoke on 1 Cor 13, and because God is love, he would replace the LOVES in that chapter with GOD. [for example: God is patient. God is kind.] In this way affirming the TRUTH of Who He is, and who we are to Him.

Ps 30:4 NKJV Sing praise to the LORD, you saints of His, And give thanks at the remembrance of His holy name.
Ps 77:6 NKJV I call to remembrance my song in the night; I meditate within my heart, and my spirit makes diligent search.
Ps 97:12 NKJV Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous, and give thanks at the remembrance of His holy name.

Ps 102:12 NKJV But You, O LORD, shall endure forever, and the remembrance of Your name to all generations.

Ps 112:6-8 NKJV Surely he will never be shaken; The righteous will be in everlasting remembrance. 7 He will not be afraid of evil tidings; His heart is steadfast, trusting in the LORD. 8 His heart is established; He will not be afraid, until he sees his desire upon his enemies.

Isa 43:26 NKJV Put Me in remembrance; Let us contend together; State your case, that you may be acquitted.
Isa 43:26 NLT Let us review the situation together, and you can present your case if you have one.

Luke 22:19 NKJV And He took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is My body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of Me."

John 14:26-27 NKJV But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all things that I said to you.

Ps 80 NKJV Prayer for Israel's Restoration To the Chief Musician. Set to "The Lilies." A Testimony of Asaph. A Psalm.
Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, You who lead Joseph like a flock; You who dwell between the cherubim, shine forth! 2 Before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh, Stir up Your strength, and come and save us! 3 Restore us, O God; Cause Your face to shine, and we shall be saved! 4 O LORD God of hosts, how long will You be angry against the prayer of Your people? 5 You have fed them with the bread of tears, and given them tears to drink in great measure. 6 You have made us a strife to our neighbors, and our enemies laugh among themselves.
7 Restore us, O God of hosts; Cause Your face to shine, and we shall be saved! 8 You have brought a vine out of Egypt; You have cast out the nations, and planted it. 9 You prepared room for it, and caused it to take deep root, and it filled the land. 10 The hills were covered with its shadow, and the mighty cedars with its boughs. 11 She sent out her boughs to the Sea, and her branches to the River. 12 Why have You broken down her hedges, so that all who pass by the way pluck her fruit? 13 The boar out of the woods uproots it, and the wild beast of the field devours it.
14 Return, we beseech You, O God of hosts; Look down from heaven and see, and visit this vine 15 And the vineyard which Your right hand has planted, and the branch that You made strong for Yourself. 16 It is burned with fire, it is cut down; they perish at the rebuke of Your countenance. 17 Let Your hand be upon the man of Your right hand, upon the son of man whom You made strong for Yourself. 18 Then we will not turn back from You; Revive us, and we will call upon Your name. 19 Restore us, O LORD God of hosts; Cause Your face to shine, and we shall be saved!

“I have a vineyard and a very large garden. And I am an excellent gardener.
When I plant, I fertilize, I tend and weed. I water. I carefully guard My garden that it might bring forth fruit. This garden I planted has grown full of weeds for some time, but I am now bringing forth fruit in it, that it might truly understand the faithfulness and GRACE I have for those who love Me.
I told you that the weeds and the wheat grow together. It is the angels I send in the end that will sort out what is Mine and what is not. And I still have many that are MINE and marked for the kingdom that are not IN the Kingdom! I am HUNGERING for a bride that is totally yielded to ME and what I WANT!

I AM not so concerned as many are with all the foibles and sins of the church, though it has been a stench in My nostrils, I AM ABLE TO TEND MY GARDEN! I am not weak or asleep, nor indifferent! I am ABLE and WILLING and STEADFAST in enabling My garden to bring forth FRUIT.
And the fruit I bring forth will be SWEET. It will not be rotten on the inside, nor hard on the outside. It will be perfectly brought forth in maturity that it will be palatable to those who are HUNGRY. I am generous to the unloving and patient with the impatient. I am tender with those who have endured much violence, as I know the pain it causes. So YOU must understand that what I do, is MY decision, and has nothing to do with your own unsanctified opinions!

I will use whom I WILL USE! I WILL CHOOSE WHOM I WANT to go forth in this army! I am NOT weak, or insensitive, or uncaring. But I AM JUST! I WILL DO AS I SEE FIT because I see the whole picture. NOTHING is hidden from My eyes. I will have MY WAY in MY CHURCH.
I AM THE HEAD. I AM THE EXALTED KING. I AM YOUR ADONAI!
YOU WILL KNOW the fullness of My love! You will know the preciousness of My peace and forgiveness. You will grow mature in revelation of My GRACE! All things that have seemed impossible are with ME, possible!

You will know the measure of My MIGHT! There is nothing hidden that will not be revealed.

All that has been swept under the rug will be blown away! All that has been carefully sought after will be rewarded! There is nothing I will not do for the children of God who are desirous to be transformed into My image! I am a FAITHFUL FATHER! I will carry out My will regardless of the plans of men. I will DO all that is in MY HEART TO DO. I am forever YOUR FATHER. MY LOVE IS EVERLASTING and unchangeable! I will not pull out my flowers like a bad gardener. I will not supplant saplings with weeds. I am FAITHFUL to protect all that belongs to ME! I am not negligent with My children. Sorrow endures for a night, but JOY comes in the morning! Many have suffered and endured much for the sake of what I AM about to pour out! Angels and hosts of heaven and saints of old have waited for this hour to see the culmination of all time. They are standing in anticipation of what is about to happen. Understand that I have had a timing in mind for all I will do. The seasons change, and as they do, everything changes in the earth. The temperature changes, people have things they do to compensate for that change.

Well the season has changed. Yet many are still hopeless and tired. But YOU WILL SEE the flowers! You will see NEW LIFE BUDDING FORTH. YOU WILL SEE ANSWERS to PRAYERS like never before. So stay in a place of ANTICIPATION My children for I will NOT disappoint you! It is spring in part of the earth and autumn in the other half. In both seasons, raking and cleaning of gardens and grass is done. I will blow the dry dead leaves off the new budding plants. I will rake the old leaves from off the grass that have fallen off trees. I will deal with PESTILENCE in a very powerful way!
It will never have the same effect on you again! And anything dead will be removed. NEW LIFE will abound everywhere. “

Lev 19:23-25 NKJV 'When you come into the land, and have planted all kinds of trees for food, then you shall count their fruit as uncircumcised. Three years it shall be as uncircumcised to you. It shall not be eaten. 24 But in the fourth year all its fruit shall be holy, a praise to the LORD. 25 And in the fifth year you may eat its fruit, that it may yield to you its increase: I am the LORD your God.

Jer 17:7-8 NKJV "Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, and whose hope is the LORD. 8 For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters, which spreads out its roots by the river, and will not fear when heat comes;
but its leaf will be green, and will not be anxious in the year of drought,
Nor will cease from yielding fruit.

Jer 45:2-5 NKJV "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch: 3 'You said, "Woe is me now! For the LORD has added grief to my sorrow. I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest."' 4 "Thus you shall say to him, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, what I have built I will break down, and what I have planted I will pluck up, that is, this whole land. 5 And do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for behold, I will bring adversity on all flesh," says the LORD. "But I will give your life to you as a prize in all places, wherever you go."'"

Gen 2:15-16 NKJV Then the LORD God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to tend and keep it.

Gen 21:32-34 NKJV Then Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and there called on the name of the LORD, the Everlasting God. 34 And Abraham stayed in the land of the Philistines many days.

Ps 1:1-3 NKJV The Way of the Righteous and the End of the Ungodly
Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly, Nor stands in the path of sinners, Nor sits in the seat of the scornful; 2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD, and in His law he meditates day and night. 3 He shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, That brings forth its fruit in its season, whose leaf also shall not wither; and whatever he does shall prosper. 4 The ungodly are not so, but are like the chaff which the wind drives away. 5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. 6 For the LORD knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Ps 92:13-15 NKJV Those who are planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God. 14 They shall still bear fruit in old age; they shall be fresh and flourishing, 15 To declare that the LORD is upright; He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in Him.

Eccl 3:2 NKJV A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck what is planted;

Amos 5:11-14 NKJV Therefore, because you tread down the poor and take grain taxes from him, though you have built houses of hewn stone, yet you shall not dwell in them; You have planted pleasant vineyards, but you shall not drink wine from them. 12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: afflicting the just and taking bribes; Diverting the poor from justice at the gate. 13 Therefore the prudent keep silent at that time, for it is an evil time. 14 Seek good and not evil, that you may live; So the LORD God of hosts will be with you, as you have spoken.

Matt 15:13-14 NKJV But He answered and said, "Every plant which My heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted. 14 Let them alone. They are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind leads the blind, both will fall into a ditch."

Luke 17:28-30 NKJV Likewise as it was also in the days of Lot: They ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; 29 but on the day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all. 30 Even so will it be in the day when the Son of Man is revealed.

Trafficking

Lam 5:16-18 NKJV The crown has fallen from our head. Woe to us, for we have sinned! 17 Because of this our heart is faint; Because of these things our eyes grow dim; 18 Because of Mount Zion which is desolate, with foxes walking about on it.

I am terminating trafficking in the wrong direction. I will lead you out into a place of integrity and purity. But there must be a ceasing to do the things that get you into sin in the first place. You cannot serve God and mammon My beloveds! I will show you that if you GIVE UP this control of your life, then you will gain your life. But if you hold on to it, then you will lose it!

RENEW YOUR MIND with the washing of the WORD! Renew your thinking to agree with My thinking. I am releasing you from the deceptions of the enemy that you will walk in TRUTH and not compromise.

Some of you are like those who drive, but don’t adhere to the laws for driving. When there is a stop sign, you go through it! Or when the light turns red, you go on through it. You continue on in the same sins, because you will not take every thought captive unto Christ! You continue on without strength, because of laxity in the Word, worship and in time with Me.

Do NOT GIVE UP on yourself because of these inconsistencies and do NOT give in to DEFEATISM. I KNOW the deep recesses of your heart and what keeps you from victory and I WILL OVERCOME IT IN YOU, if you will but come to ME and rely on Me to do it in you! You have not, because you ask not! So ASK and you will receive! Knock, and the door will be opened!

Do not let guilt and condemnation a rule in your life. I came to bring you life and that more abundantly. Ask for ME to help you to take every thought captive and to recognize when you are being deceived! I AM FAITHFUL!

I will unmask the enemy for you! Allow ME to strip him by giving all of your life to Me. Hold nothing back and neither will I!

I am pursuing every little fox in the fields, that all will come into submission to My will in your life! And I WILL bring them into captivity. Because of My love for you, I will do this. I am enraptured with you, and will finish the preparation of My BRIDE.

Song 2:15 NKJV Catch us the foxes, The little foxes that spoil the vines,
For our vines have tender grapes.

Ezek 13:3-5 NKJV
4 O Israel, your prophets are like foxes in the deserts. 5 You have not gone up into the gaps to build a wall for the house of Israel to stand in battle on the day of the LORD.

Entering The Critical Mass Stage

Ron McGatlin

I had a couple of things in my mind to write to you in this article. But as I asked God what did He want to say I heard, "Entering the critical mass stage".

In my dictionary "critical mass" is defined as: 1. the amount of a given fissionable material necessary to sustain a chain reaction. 2. an amount necessary or sufficient to have a significant effect or to achieve a result.

My next thought was, "Precisely what does fissionable mean?" The word fission means: 1. the act of cleaving apart or splitting into parts. 2. the splitting of the nucleus of an atom into nuclei of lighter atoms, accompanied by the release of energy. 3. the division of a biological organism into new organisms as a process of reproduction.

There is a time of the fissionable material being poured into a mix causing division or separation until a massive chain reaction begins and is accompanied by a release of energy. God's manifest presence is the fissionable material being poured into our world. God is love and the passionate love of God is being poured out upon the people of God causing a great division (fission) which is "cleaving apart and splitting into parts."

Intimate relationship with Father God in His manifest presence of love is cleaving people apart from their own sometimes hidden inner evil thoughts and ways. Pure hearts and truly holy living are developing. People who are not being saturated in the cleansing presence of intimacy with God are being separated from those who are and a chain reaction has begun. Great energy is beginning to be released by the fusion (oneness) of God and man causing a fission (separation) of man from darkness.

Over the course of the life of Jesus the Christ, the love of the Father was poured forth through Him into the world causing fission and volatile reactions. During those years when the love of the Father poured into the world building toward the critical mass stage, Jesus knew that His time was not yet fully come.

John 7:6-8: Then Jesus said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready. "The world cannot hate you, but it hates Me because I testify of it that its works are evil. "You go up to this feast. I am not yet going up to this feast, for My time has not yet fully come."

There was a "fullness of time" event when the fissionable material of the love of the Father being poured into the world reached "critical mass" stage.

In the Garden of Gethsemane, Jesus poured out His heart in the obedience of love while the disciples (church) slept. The Father's love poured into the world caused the "critical mass" stage as Jesus quietly poured out His life blood at His horribly painful crucifixion.

The world was forever changed and eternity forever affected by the "critical mass" that led to the resurrection, ascension, and glorious return of Christ in the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. This critical mass event produced great outpouring of energy from heaven at Pentecost empowering the people of God to overcome all the work of the enemy and destroy darkness.

Acts 2:1-4: When the Day of Pentecost had fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. Then there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire, and one sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

The world is now entering another critical mass stage. The life of Christ is now coming forth in the corporate Christ. The "many sons" are manifesting upon the earth establishing the true Body of Christ. These are seeking only the kingdom of God and are only satisfied in the manifest presence of God.

The life of Christ within them by the Holy Spirit is producing purity and holiness that will only obey God and only do what they see the Father doing.

The love of the Father pouring through the holy pure life of Christ in His corporate Body is causing the same fission process and volatile reactions as the love that flowed through the life of Jesus the Christ. The love of the Father flowing through the Body of Christ today is pouring out in similar ways as it did in the life of Jesus. Yet, the time has not yet fully come.

However, we have entered the critical mass stage that will fully come when the love poured into the world causes critical mass to be reached and the glorious outpouring of energy will explode into all the earth. The time does not come chronologically but circumstantially. When the time fully comes will be the time when the outpouring of the love of God has fully matured and multiplied the "called out ones".

The experience begins with decision. The experience of soaking in the manifest presence of God and personally intimately being consumed in His love begins with the decision to posture one's self to receive. As multitudes decide to get into position to encounter the manifest presence God and begin to flow His love out to others, the world is moved toward critical mass.

Lots of Love,

Considering Yourself
Ron McGatlin

Gal 6:1 Brethren, if a man is overtaken in any trespass, you who are spiritual restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness, considering yourself lest you also be tempted.

Erroneous interpretation and application of Scripture will lead to trespassing the ways of God. I remember hearing a man of God ask this thought stimulating question, "Does a person who is deceived know that he is deceived?" Obviously if a person new he was deceived he would not be deceived.

An enemy of truth is partial truth. A half truth can come from an incomplete revelation of what God has said in Scripture. Only someone with total revelation of Scripture will have the whole truth. Deception occurs when a person or group is tricked into believing that they know what Scriptures says and what it means and that they can order life by it. When the reality is that no one has all revelation of Scripture. No one except God.

Jesus knew the Scripture and used it effectively against the enemy yet he did not attempt to order His earthly life only by Scripture (Mat 4:4-10). He only did what He saw the Father doing. How did Jesus see what the Father was doing? Jesus saw by the Holy Spirit what the Father was doing. He was led of the Spirit and empowered by the Spirit(Mat 4:1). As Jesus heard and obeyed He became truth. The love relationship between Jesus and Father through the Holy Spirit created intimacy, open communication and obedience.

John 5:19 -20: Then Jesus answered and said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of Himself, but what He sees the Father do; for whatever He does, the Son also does in like manner. For the Father loves the Son, and shows Him all things that He Himself does; and He will show Him greater works than these, that you may marvel.

Intellectually knowing can never bring forth the whole truth. We can only know and live truth as we follow the one who has all truth and is truth. Truth is full and complete obedience to following God.

Many people including well meaning but deceived leaders have been overtaken in trespasses. They are among those who know in part what the Scripture says and means but are not following God by the Holy Spirit. They are attempting to order life by their partial revelation of Scripture. They are not seeing by the Holy Spirit what God is doing and following Jesus in obedience to what the Father is doing. They become a mixture of half truth and darkness.

There are sons of God today who become saturated in the Holy Spirit and come into an intimate love relationship with Father. As they continue in His manifest presence they can see what the Father is doing and in obedience of love they do what they see the Father doing.

This creates a distinct difference and in many cases a physical separation as the Father leads them to come out from among the exposed darkness of half truth.

2 Cor 6:16-7:1: And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For you are the temple of the living God. As God has said: "I will dwell in them And walk among them. I will be their God, And they shall be My people." Therefore "Come out from among them And be separate, says the Lord. Do not touch what is unclean, And I will receive you."

"I will be a Father to you, And you shall be My sons and daughters, Says the LORD Almighty." Therefore, having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

In this season of great paradigm shift, God's desire is for all of His people to move from the mixtures created by seeking to order life by the Word without following by the Spirit what Father is doing. Some have moved into intimacy with God, some are in transition and just beginning to move, and others are not moving at all but are locked in the deception of partial truth.

Gal 6:1 Brethren, if a man is overtaken in any trespass, you who are spiritual restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness, considering yourself lest you also be tempted.

The spiritual ones are warned to "consider yourself" as you seek to restore in gentleness the one overtaken in this trespass. The temptation is to become gossipy and even bitter or angry because of the injustices of the trespasser. The enemy seeks to cause hard feelings in the one who is spiritual against the one who is deceived into trespasses that wound and harm others. These hard feelings can cause the one who is spiritual to loose that place of intimacy with the Father. Consider yourselves.

God's love is great enough to not only forgive but to pray for those who persecute you and spitefully use you. There is a reward now in this life for loving those who harm us. There is a loss to those who respond with resentment to what has been done to them and others.

Mat 5:44-46: "But I say to you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you, "that you may be sons of your Father in heaven; for He makes His sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. "For if you love those who love you, what reward have you?

Love does not mean that you snuggle up and hug everyone. It may mean in some cases that you care and pray from a distance. You will receive of the collective rewards or of the judgments of those with whom you are joined.

Embracing the Fight of Faith

Francis Frangipane

Jul 31, 2004
In spite of worldwide conflicts, the Holy Spirit is guiding the church into its greatest season of transformation. We must not look at the pressures of our times as though they were obstacles set to restrict us. For in the hands of the Almighty, these are the very tools He is using to perfect us.

One of the problems of interpreting end time events is the tendency to focus only upon one set of conditions. If we only look at the fact that Satan will be raging or that there will be lawlessness, wars, earthquakes and famines, we might conclude that difficulties and darkness is all that we have awaiting us until the rapture.

Yet, the same Spirit that predicted the perilous conditions at the end of the age, also forecasts that, in spite of difficulties and battle, the gospel of the kingdom of heaven will be proclaimed worldwide to all nations (Matt 24:14). The Lord also said that the "crop" of last days Christians will reach full stature (Mk 4:29), and those who know their God will be strong, do exploits, shine like the stars and lead multitudes to righteousness (Dan 11:32; 12:3).

Our focus must remain riveted upon becoming like Christ in all things. One might argue, "But the world around me is full of sin and wickedness - and it is getting worse!" Yes, but the Bible tells us that where sin abounds, the grace of God abounds more so (Rom. 5:20). We might be overwhelmed by the flood of evil storming against our societies. Yet, the promise of God is that, when the enemy comes in like a flood, God shall raise a standard against him (Isa 59:19).

Is your focus upon the enemy's flood or are you aware of the standard God is raising up to counter the flood?

Do not forget, beloved, that even when darkness covers the earth and deep darkness the people, the promise of God is that His glory shall rise upon us and His presence shall be visibly seen through us! In spite of the appearance that darkness is never ending, the Lord promises that, at the end of the war between light and darkness, "nations shall come to your light and kings to the brightness of your rising" (Isa 60:1-3).

Indeed, nestled and unfolding in the midst of the panorama of end time events, God's word reveals that there will also be an ongoing "period of restoration" (see Acts 3:20-21). This does not mean that the world will be subdued by the church (as some erroneously teach), but that the true church will be fully subdued and transformed by Christ! This final display of grace will be consummated in a Christlike church, whose spiritual maturity shall manifest the person and passions of Jesus Christ Himself on earth.

I have written you by way of reminder that, though the battle seems to rage, God's word shall not return to Him void. Our fight is the fight of faith: do we believe what God has promised? Our war is against principalities and powers: do we believe the report that Christ shall "sprinkle (that is, cleanse, and bring forgiveness and transformation to) many nations" (Isa 52:12-53:2)?

I, for one, believe the promises of God. God's word is not just a comfort to me in times of trouble, but a sword that I speak in times of spiritual war. I proclaim the reality of God's promises over my family, my church, my city and nation! Consider His proclamation:

"So shall My word be which goes forth from My mouth; it will not return to Me empty, without accomplishing what I desire, and without succeeding in the matter for which I sent it"(see Isa 55:9-11).

Consider also His commitment:

". . . I am watching over My word to perform it" (Jer. 1:12).

And His accessibility,

"Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?' (that is, to bring Christ down), or 'Who will descend into the abyss?' (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead)." But what does it say? "The Word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" -that is, the word of faith which we are preaching" (Rom. 10:6-8).

You see, we are not mere mortals stumbling blindly on earth, separated from God and isolated from His response to our needs. No! We are new creatures, born again from above, that have resident within us the Holy Spirit of Almighty God. And, He has given us His word, put it in our hearts and mouths and then He promises, "Whoever believes in Him will not be disappointed" (Rom. 10:11). The Lord does not want us worrying about the future, but to create it through the knowledge of His will, through the proclamation of His word, and our yieldedness to the power of the Holy Spirit.

God calls us to a "war mode" in our thinking, where we take up the "sword of the Spirit," which is the living "word of God" (Eph. 6:17). Yes, we labor and intercede, we repent for our sins and the sins of our nations, but the weight of our victory rests not upon how much we labor and groan, but upon how truly we believe what God has promised! Beloved, the sword God has given is nothing less than the echo of His voice in us!

So, do not just whine about negative conditions in the world or sigh prayers muttered in fear and unbelief - embrace the fight of faith! Pick up your Bible and speak audibly the promises of God's word. Pick any verse that I quoted above and speak it out loud, with faith and authority. I guarantee that, if you proclaim God's word with faith, it will release power in and through your spirit.

The greatest weapons in the universe are the promises God has inspired in His book. He assures us, "All things are possible to him who believes" (Mk 9:23). Our call is not just to pray, but to take up the sword of the Spirit and embrace the fight of faith!

The Silent Harvest
Francis Frangipane

Recently, I had a dream in which I found myself inside the mind of a dying man. The man had been in a coma or drug induced unconsciousness for some time; his family had been praying, but they did not know whether or not he had accepted Christ's sacrifice. All they were sure of is that, throughout his life, he had resisted their efforts to lead him to Christ.

In the dream, I became so acutely aware of the man's state of mind that his thoughts, feelings and struggles almost seemed my own. Although his eyes were nearly closed and his vision clouded, through a break in this visual fog he saw his loved ones at his beside. I watched as he tried to reach toward his family, but outwardly his arm never lifted. Inwardly, I heard him speak their names, but no sound whispered through his lips. A loved one held his hand and asked, "If you hear me, squeeze." He heard and pressed his fingers tight against hers, but to the eyes of all his hand clearly remained limp. He was conscious, but perfectly incapable of responding. He could hear their prayers; he felt the wet warmth of their kisses on his face.

The pride and isolation that had, throughout his life, stood as guards over his heart were gone. A physical catastrophe had overtaken him. Death approached and he knew he was unprepared for eternity. Submerged beneath his placid exterior, a war had raged for his soul and God had won. Subdued by the relentlessness of God's love, he was finally at peace. During his time in the hospital he had silently prayed and accepted Christ as his Savior. I was watching his last effort to tell them as life ebbed out of his body.

Suddenly, the alarms of hospital monitors filled the air and I now found myself in the room looking down at the lifeless body of a man who had just died. The room was buzzing with nurses, while his family huddled in a corner, grieving. The idea of their loved one dying without receiving Christ was more devastating than the reality of death itself. In my sleep, I stirred and, as I woke, I heard the Lord speak to my heart, "Tell them he is with Me."

God is Good

A couple days have passed since I had this dream. During this time, as I pray, I am increasingly aware that there are many of God's people who have been carrying a deep and troubling heartache about the passing of an unsaved loved one. Obviously, this dream does not apply to all, but there are some for whom this experience is divinely directed. I submit it to you in a general sense, because the Holy Spirit has assured me He will bear witness to your heart.

I have also felt an urgency to pass this dream to you. I am convinced that the Lord has an important work for you, yet the enemy has used the questions about this event to sow doubt into your soul, not only about your deceased loved one, but doubts also about God Himself and the power and gift of prayer. As a result, your confidence in looking to God has diminished, and this is at a time when it is vital for you to stand for other members of your family.

Finally, even with all the questions and mysteries of life, we must not let the unknown obscure the face of the known. God is good. I only know the nature of God by looking at one reality: the life of Christ. I know God loves me because He sent His Son to die for my sins. Indeed, Jesus said, "He who has seen Me has seen the Father" (Jn 14:8). When we look at Christ, we see God.

Some of us have lost loved ones in sudden tragedies, where they had apparently no time to repent and turn to God. Yet, let me remind you that many people who have had near death experiences, tell of seeing their "whole life flash before [their] eyes." Others who were in accidents tell of "time slowing down" and the movement of life almost stopping. I believe that, even in what seems like a "sudden" death, time itself accordioned out: it stretched and slowed until that person entered a different realm of time. There, they saw the highlights and shortcomings of their lives and again had an opportunity to accept Jesus Christ.

Beloved, in spite of what we do not know about the mysteries of life, this one thing remains eternally true: God is good. He does not desire that any man perish and He will fight to save us to the moment of death. Indeed, He promises His light would find and even shine upon those "in darkness and the shadow of death" (Lk 1:79). Let us, therefore, cast our burdens upon the Lord, for He truly cares for us. And let us again run with endurance the race set before us, for He who has promised is faithful.

Lord Jesus, thank you for dying for my sins. Lord, there are many issues I do not know, but I do know that You are good. Those things I do not understand, I give to You, trusting You with myself and those I love.

Enter The Kingdom
Chip Brogden

Jun 1, 2004
"Someone asked, 'Lord, will only a few be saved?' Jesus answered, 'Make every effort to enter through the narrow gate, because I tell you this: many will try to enter but will not be able to... For narrow is the gate, and narrow is the path which leads to Life, and few will find it (Luke 13:23,24; Matthew 7:14).'"

We live in a day of easy-believism. According to the way today's church operates, it is very easy to be saved. All we have to do is make a confession, or repeat a prayer, or make a decision, or respond to an altar call. What is more, every day we hear reports of hundreds or thousands of people being "saved" in crusades and evangelistic meetings around the world. We are being told to prepare for a great last days harvest of souls which will proceed the return of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Since it is easy to become a Christian, it is even easier to remain one. So long as we do not recant our original confession, we believe, all is well. Once we have "prayed the prayer" we are Christians. Particularly if we attend church services, read the Bible, witness, give, and obey the Ten Commandments. But, we are told, those things have nothing to do with salvation - having entered in, we are safe and secure. According to the way we have been taught it is the easiest thing in the world to become a Christian, and once your name is on the roll it is difficult, if not impossible, to have your name erased.

We are not debating if you can have your salvation and lose it - we are questioning whether these "easy believers" ever found real salvation at all. It is a foundational issue of eternal significance. In stark contrast to the conditions which exist in our day, Jesus frankly tells us that few will be saved, and few will find Life. When we read what Jesus Himself has to say we have to come to the conclusion that some within Organized Religion are guilty of trying to make the narrow gate and the narrow path into the wide gate and the wide path. We have become excellent salespeople and know how to use our powers of persuasion. We have become good at arguing our viewpoints. We are skilled at manipulating the emotions of other people. Those who know how can lead many people to the Lord - at least, according to the outward appearance.

It behooves us to go back to what the Lord Himself says, and we believe we have found at least seven occurrences in the Scriptures (beyond the two cited above) which seem to indicate that the way to Life is anything but easy. By the time we are concluded with our examination we will understand why Jesus says few are able to enter into the Kingdom. In the first place, the Kingdom is more profound than we have been taught. In the second place, the Way which leads us into the Kingdom is more narrow than we have been taught. By the grace of God let us ask the Lord enlighten us so that we will not go on deceiving or being deceived.

1. Unless you are born-again, you cannot enter.

"I tell you the truth, unless a man is born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God... unless a man is born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter the Kingdom of God (John 3:3,5)."

All of us are familiar with these verses, but we are not so familiar with what they actually mean. To state it simply, being born-again is not the goal, but the first step towards the goal: the goal is the Kingdom of God. We could state it like this: the narrow gate is not the goal, but it is the first thing we must pass through in order to enter the narrow path. Our goal, and God's goal, is not the gate, or we would not need a path. Though we begin our journey by entering the gate, the goal is at the end of the path, not at the beginning of the path. So what is the goal?

"It is God's will for all men to be saved [narrow gate] and to come to the full-knowledge of Truth [narrow path] (I Timothy 2:4)." Here we see one will of God with two expressions - a gate and a path. We enter the gate in a moment, but we walk the path over time. We are saved in a moment, but we come to the full-knowledge (epignosis) of Christ over time. So John 3:3 is not telling us about our ending, but our beginning. Birth is the beginning of Life, not the goal of Life. The goal in view here is not being born-again, but entering the Kingdom. Jesus does not just say, "You must be born again." If He did then we might be correct in saying that is all there is to it. But Jesus says, "Unless you are born again, you cannot see or enter into the Kingdom of God." It is clear that the Kingdom is what we are trying to gain entrance into, and while being born again is the gate, the ultimate destination of the Kingdom of God is at the end of the path.

So what is the Kingdom of God? Stated simply, it is where Christ has the preeminence as All in All. It is where we finally behold Him in all His fullness. To begin with this preeminence is found inwardly in the individual disciple, where it is then seen a little more visibly in the Church, from which it is eventually manifested outwardly in all of creation. This is why we lay such stress on disciples, for as the disciples go, so goes the Church. Jesus did not establish His Church until He had selected His disciples.

What is commonly preached as the "Full Gospel" might be more properly termed the "Fifty Percent Gospel." We lay such stress on the gate, on the initial coming to the Lord; but the other half of the equation, the Kingdom and the ultimate intention of God, is hardly alluded to. What is worse, we invite sinners to Christ on the basis of their own self-serving needs (e.g., come to Christ and He will take away all your burdens, etc.). As a result, most of these people will sit just inside the gate, claiming salvation, but never enter the Kingdom, never come to the full-knowledge of Truth, and never demonstrate the preeminence of Christ over sin, self, and satan.

2. The proper confession is not enough.

"Not everyone who says to Me 'Lord, Lord' will enter the Kingdom of Heaven, but the one who does the Will of my Father in heaven (Matthew 7:21)."

We began by saying that not only is the Way more narrow than we have been taught, but the Kingdom is more profound than we have been taught. For some, the Kingdom of God (alternatively known as the Kingdom of Heaven*) is a place where Christians go when they die. In the meantime we are supposed to hold on to our faith the best we can, and if we persevere, then we will enter the Kingdom of Heaven when we leave this earth. This is an error. While to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord, and while there is a place called "heaven", the Kingdom of God is not up in heaven, nor is it someplace in our future. The Kingdom of God is "at hand", "has arrived", "is among you", "is within you."

So we will state it again: the Kingdom of God is where Christ has the preeminence as All in All, beginning with the individual disciple, then the Church, and ultimately, all of creation. "Thy Kingdom come... on earth as it is in heaven." Obviously, the Kingdom would include heaven, but it is not heaven. Jesus tells us not to look for an outward Kingdom, or a political Kingdom, or an earthly Kingdom. "My Kingdom is not of this world... the Kingdom of God is within you." Jesus lifted up His eyes to heaven when he prayed in John 17, yet He says the Kingdom is within you already. We may look up for heaven, but we look within for the Kingdom. When a Christian dies he or she does not travel to a heaven within themselves, nor do they go to live within a heaven which indwells other believers. So entering the Kingdom of God is more encompassing than going to heaven when we die.

Not everyone who says, "Lord, Lord" will enter into this Kingdom. Are we saying confession is unimportant or unnecessary? God forbid! "As I live, says the Lord, every knee will bow to me, and every tongue will confess to God (Romans 14:11)." Yet, even if "every tongue will confess" sooner or later, it still remains that not everyone who says, "Lord, Lord" will enter the Kingdom. It is most difficult to find a religious person who does not claim to be following Christ and does not say, "Lord, Lord". Even so, they will not enter in based solely on saying, "Lord, Lord". The text goes on to say that there are even those who can perform signs and wonders in the Name of Jesus, but the Lord does not even know who they are! Obviously this is a serious problem.

We cannot make the narrow Way more narrow than it is already, but we can certainly mislead people into believing it is wider than it really is. We dare not make it too difficult; but we should tremble at making it too easy. That is why this word must be spoken. Remember, we are not making any claims in our own name, nor are we suggesting some hidden secret we possess that others do not, nor are we establishing a system whereby we can judge the eternal destination of others. We are merely calling attention to Jesus' own words. He says few will be saved; many will try to enter but will be unable; few will enter the gate and walk the path in order to find Life. Many are called, but few are chosen.

3. Unless you become a child, you cannot enter.

"The disciples came to Jesus and wanted to know, 'Who is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?' So Jesus called a little child and had him stand in the midst of them. And then He said, 'I tell you the truth, unless you change and become like this little child, you will never enter the Kingdom of Heaven. So the greatest one in the Kingdom of Heaven is the one who humbles himself like this child (Matthew 18:1-4).'"

The disciples wanted to know who would be the greatest in the Kingdom. What they were really asking was, "Which one of us is the greatest?" In their question we see that they are heading in the wrong direction already. They see themselves as leaders, as kings, as lords, as heads inside this Kingdom. But Jesus seems to say, "Why do you assume that you have even entered the Kingdom? Unless you change from what you are into what this child is, you cannot even enter, so how can you claim to be the greatest?" Pride is a great stumblingblock. Proud people cannot enter the Kingdom of God. They cannot give up their own preeminence for His.

Jesus did not have to call a child over to make His point. He could have just said, "Humble yourself as a child." But He did not. So there is a significance to calling the child over and having him stand in the midst of them. Only after this was done did Jesus say, "Become like this child, or you cannot enter the Kingdom." So what is the significance? Jesus called the child, and the child responded to Jesus. There is no questioning from the child, such as, "What do You want?" or "Who are you?" Jesus had him stand in the midst of them, and again, the child complies. We do not hear him say, "Why?" or "What are you going to do now?" or "I don't have time to stand here, I want to go play."

The Lord would have given two simple instructions to the child, "Come over here" and "Stand right here". There is much we can say about being with the Lord and standing still, but we will not dissect that now. Our point is simply this: the child did what he was told. Silent, meek, surrendered, obedient. It is very simple, Jesus says. The greatest people in the Kingdom are the ones who do what I tell them to do, nothing doubting. It is only when we get older that we begin to question everything. To enter this Kingdom we must know there is only room for one Head, for one Preeminence, for one King, for one Lord. We are disciples, not masters. We may struggle and question His dealings with us, but if we progress in the Way then one day we will learn the best course is to bow our heads and say, "Yes, Lord."

We are waiting for Jesus to give us grand instructions and commandments: "Go around the world and proclaim the Gospel full-time" or "Rise up and fulfill the ministry of an apostle" or "I have appointed you to be a prophet to the nations." But if we cannot hear and obey in the small things, how can we expect Him to lead us into greater things?

4. Unless you are perfectly righteous outwardly, and inwardly, you cannot enter.

"I tell you the truth, unless your righteousness is greater than the Pharisees and teachers of religious law, under no circumstances will you enter the Kingdom of Heaven (Matthew 5:20)."

We know from the Scriptures and from historical writings that the Pharisees were the strictest sect of Judaism. These people were zealously religious, even to the point of giving God a tenth of all their herbs. It was the Pharisee who stood and prayed with himself, "I thank you God that I am not like the others... for I fast twice in the week and give a tenth of all my possessions." It was the Pharisees who had Jesus arrested and turned Him over to Pilate to be crucified - all the while thinking they were doing the right thing. Before meeting the Lord Jesus, Saul carried out their tradition as a member of this elite group and led a fanatical persecution against Christians thinking he was doing his duty to God. Looking back on his religious experiences, Paul said he was "blameless" insofar as the Law was concerned.

According to man's own standard, there is none more holy or righteous than a Pharisee. So when Jesus says a disciple of His must have a righteousness which surpasses the Pharisees, it is, for all intents and purposes, an impossible, idealistic goal. It would be like expecting everyone to have an athletic ability which surpasses Michael Jordan. We cannot even bring ourselves to the outward standard that the Pharisees represent, much less the perfection of an inward standard which Jesus says will characterize His followers.

It is amazing to see how many people, even today, try to please God in their own strength with outward works. They wear themselves out with church attendance, ministry, and giving. Unconsciously or not, they believe God will bless them because of their works. Consider a couple who told me they did not agree with what the church was doing with their money, but they continued to tithe anyway because they did not want to lose God's "blessing" on their finances. This is the logic of Pharisees blinded by their own self-righteousness. Such unwavering support of religious things would appear to be applauded by God, but Jesus says it counts for nothing insofar as the Kingdom is concerned.

Jesus leads us down an impossible path, and demands of us a righteousness that not only looks good outwardly, but looks good inwardly. Are you beginning to understand why few are able to follow this Way? The word translated "narrow" means "difficult to pass through because of many obstacles standing about". More and more I am finding that it is Jesus who puts these obstacles in front of us. And this is one of the biggest hurdles - how to have a righteousness that exceeds a Pharisee but does not turn me into a Pharisee. What a dilemma!

5. Apart from much tribulation, you cannot enter.

"[Paul and Barnabas] strengthened the disciples and encouraged them to continue in the faith, saying, "We must enter the Kingdom of God through much tribulation (Acts 14:22)."

This does not sound like something which would strengthen and encourage young disciples. If Paul and Barnabas brought this message to some churches they would not be invited back. Our idea of overcoming is to avoid tribulation, not pass through it. We certainly do not connect entering the Kingdom with going through tribulation. We think having the victory means eliminating all tribulation. Nothing could be further from the truth.

In order to enter the Kingdom there must be an increase of Christ and a decrease of Self. This is an ongoing process, and by it we judge how far along the Path we have progressed. But how is Self decreased? We cannot do it by saying over and over, "I have to die. I have to decrease. I have to take up my cross." The more we try to decrease the more we are increased. Any attention we give to ourselves, even in an attempt to decrease ourselves, only serves to make us larger. So what is the answer? The answer is in our circumstances and trials. They are sufficient to decrease us. We need not do anything but wait for them to come, and see them as our opportunity to have Self decreased and Christ increased.

There are some who want the full-knowledge of Christ and want to advance along the narrow path. But they resist the dealings of God which are meant to push them farther along and deeper into Christ. On the one hand they want more of God, but on the other hand they do not want to experience what they must experience in order to see Him. Hence, they unnecessarily delay the work of the Cross. They find fault with their circumstances, murmur, complain, and resist every contrary thing. After ten, twenty, or thirty years of being dealt with they are still as stubborn and headstrong as ever.

Some have no depth in God because they have no depth of circumstances. Their life has been relatively easy. Even what we think are huge trials, Paul calls "light afflictions". Here is a man who has some depth of circumstances. The biographies of these men reveal they have had hard lives, both before and after knowing the Lord. If we desire ease and comfort then we will not have much depth. The Lord Jesus is "a Man of sorrows, and familiar with grief." It is better to agree with the Word of God, and realize that we cannot enter the Kingdom except through much tribulation. If we want to reign with Him, we must suffer with Him.

6. Unbelief and disobedience is enough to disqualify you.

"So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief... some will enter that rest, but they to whom it was first preached did not enter in because of their disobedience (Hebrews 3:19; 4:6)."

The people referred to here are the Hebrews, most of whom died in the wilderness between Egypt, (representing the bondage of sin) and the Promised Land (representing the Kingdom of God). In First Corinthians 10:1-11, Paul says that they were ALL delivered, they ALL passed through the sea, they ALL ate the manna and ate the meat and drank the water from the Rock, Who is Christ. In spite of this they were not pleasing to God and they were destroyed in the wilderness. Twice we are told these things happened as an example to us. Why were they destroyed? Because of disobedience. They never lived out of all God had for them. They missed the fullness.

Upon hearing this message many become concerned about their relationship with God, and rightfully so. They have been taught that because God brought them out of Egypt, fed them manna, and gave them water that now they are set for life and can do as they please. Again, we are not questioning anyone's inward condition before God. There is no need to. Our own heart will either convince us or convict us. If we are in the Path we know it; and if we are not, inwardly we know that as well.

What we are endeavoring before God is to show His people that the issue of Life dwelling in us today is not based upon a confession that was made years, months, weeks, or days ago. It is not based on mighty works done in the Name of Jesus. It is not based on spiritual gifts or experiences. It certainly is not based on church membership or attendance. Life today is immediately and directly related to whether or not we are abiding in Christ! This abiding is a continual thing, and this continual abiding WILL (not might) result in fruitfulness. Without the fruit, we cannot claim to be abiding in Him at all.

The Hebrews' immediate concern was to get out of Egypt, but God's concern was getting them to enter the Promised Land. It was relatively simple to get them out of Egypt, but only two men out of several million of that first generation reached God's goal and crossed the Jordan. I think the problem is this: we have "going to heaven when we die" as the ultimate goal, and Christ has "entering the Kingdom of God" as the ultimate goal. Do we want to "just" go to heaven when we die, or do we want the preeminence of Christ expressed in "Your Kingdom come, Your Will be done, on earth [now] AS IT IS in heaven"? If we continue to preach an easy Gospel and bring sinners to an easy Jesus by having them pray an easy prayer then we are guilty of propagating another gospel, a false gospel, a Gate without a Path. Thank God for the Gate, but there is a Path, and neither of them are wide, and neither one of them are easy. But do we preach this?

7. The wealthy will find it virtually impossible to enter.

"Jesus looked around at His disciples, and said, 'How hard it is for those with riches to enter the Kingdom of God!' And the disciples were astonished at this saying. But Jesus repeated, 'Children, how difficult it is for those trusting in wealth to enter the Kingdom of God! I tell you the truth, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of God (Mark 10:23-25).'"

We have saved the best for last. It seems this rich young ruler came to Jesus as a model "seeker", having obeyed all the commandments from his childhood. If ever there was someone ready to walk the aisle, sign a decision card, or pray the Sinner's Prayer it was this man. He actually ran up to Jesus! Surely there is a future apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor, or teacher in this one! At the very least he can use his wealth to help support Jesus Christ World Outreach Ministries, Inc. No soul winner or fisher of men worth his salt would let this catch get away.

But instead of doing what we would do, Jesus pinpoints the very thing that is going to keep him from entering the Kingdom, and throws it up in front of Him as an obstacle to entering. As soon as the rich young ruler knows the cost, he turns away, grieving, and we never see or hear from him again. It is interesting that Jesus, even though He loved him, just watched him go. Does this sound like an easy Jesus? Does this sound like a soul winner? What kind of fisher of men is this? What a contrast to the way we solicit converts every Sunday, with repeated altar calls and singing that hymn "just one more time" to give everyone an opportunity to come forward. Eventually, under such pressure, someone always does. But have they really counted the cost, or did we just make it sound too cheap? A cheap Gospel results in cheap disciples with no depth of root.

The Jews had been taught that material prosperity was a proof-positive sign of God's blessing (not too unlike some of the teaching we hear today). That is why Scripture records the shock and amazement of the disciples when Jesus announces that rich people will have a hard time entering the Kingdom. According to the way He words it we have to assume that it is well nigh impossible, more difficult than getting a camel to go through the eye of a needle. I have known some rich people, and I can affirm what Jesus says. It is most difficult for Him to have the preeminence over someone with great wealth. Even people of modest means can still be bound by riches, pursuing wealth or blessings, hoping to make it big one day. The pursuit of wealth is as dangerous as the accumulation of wealth.

The point is not that every disciple must be penniless. The point is that in this Kingdom, Christ alone has the preeminence, and you cannot serve two masters. Why are riches such a stumblingblock? It all relates to Self. For the rich man, Self is mostly represented in his riches. For the wise man, Self is mostly represented in his wisdom. For the good man, Self is mostly represented in his goodness. For the strong man, Self is mostly represented in his strength. YOU are your biggest obstacle to entering in. Why? Because there is no room in the Kingdom of God for Christ and Self. To leave the Kingdom of Self and enter the Kingdom of God is indeed a Narrow Path that few ever find.

WHO THEN CAN BE SAVED?

"His disciples were astonished beyond measure, saying among themselves, 'Who then can be saved?' Jesus looked at them and said, 'With men, it is impossible! But not with God; for with God all things are possible (Mark 10:26,27).'"

If you have endured everything said up to this point perhaps you are angry, confused, burdened, or amazed, just like the first disciples of Jesus, that entering the Kingdom is not as easy as you had at first thought. The Scriptures tell us that the Lord Jesus is "full of grace and truth." With Truth comes Grace, and we will now conclude with how God accomplishes this impossible work by Grace.

Let us review all that is required of us in order to enter the Kingdom. We must be born again. In addition to saying, "Lord, Lord" we must actually do the Father's will. We have to humble ourselves like children. We should be more righteous than a Pharisee without becoming a hypocrite. We must endure tribulation joyfully. We ought never disobey or show lack of faith. We have to give up every vestige of Self, whatever we love the most, whether it be money, pride, natural wisdom, friends, family, position or status. On top of all this we are told that many will try to enter in but will not be able to. So the odds are against us already. Then Jesus says, "It is impossible with man." That eliminates self-effort altogether.

Some will say, "Oh yes, I can do all these things." Very well. My advice to those who think they can do it is: keep trying! Perhaps one day you will come to the end of yourself. But the rest of us already know better. The disciples, absolutely dumbfounded by this time, were beginning to question this among themselves: "Who in the world can be saved?" And Jesus frankly said, "It is impossible with man." Please note we are using "saved" in its ultimate intention of being established in the Kingdom of God, not merely going to heaven when we die, for that is the context in which it is used in this passage. Jesus says you cannot do it, I cannot do it, no human being can do this.

Where does God's grace begin? It begins with man's impossibility. It begins with "I cannot". It does NOT begin with "All these things have I done from my youth until now." As long as it is possible with man, there is no need for grace. We may be able to fulfill six out of seven things, or ninety-nine out of one hundred things, but when we meet Jesus on the grounds of self-effort there is always "one thing thou lackest." And this "one thing" is going to stop us dead in our tracks every single time, no matter how perfect we otherwise are. The Lord is waiting for us to know and to confess, "I cannot". For He can do what we cannot do; and He will do what we will not do! And once we allow Him, He brings us to where He wants us to be in a most remarkable manner.

"I am the Door [Gate]... by Me if any man enter in, he shall be saved (John 10:9a)."

"'So how can we know the way?' Jesus answered, 'I am the Way [Path]'... (John 14:5,6ff)."

What is impossible with man is possible with God. Jesus is the Narrow Gate whereby we enter in and are saved. This much is obvious. So what is the Path? Is it being a good disciple? Is it fasting and prayer? Is it living a more holy life? Is it attending church or doing great works for God? Not at all. For Jesus tells us, "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life." The Narrow Gate is Christ, and the Narrow Path is Christ. This explains why the Gate and the Path are so narrow. There is no room for you at all.

There is no room for self-effort. There is only room for Christ.

To enter the Kingdom is to lay down my life and live the Life of Another. The very thing which frustrates me is the answer to my problem: since I cannot do it, I have to depend upon the Life of Another to do what I cannot do. Hallelujah! I cannot enter again into my mother's womb and be born again, because I am too old; I cannot be faithful to do God's will at all times, because I am rebellious; I cannot humble myself and be like a child, because I am too proud; I cannot have a righteousness that is outwardly perfect and inwardly pure, because I am a hypocrite; I cannot endure tribulation with joy, because I love myself too much; I cannot find my way out of Egypt and into Canaan, because I am disobedient; I cannot just give away from everything I have worked for all my life, because I am selfish. I cannot, and you cannot, and no one can. This Gate and this Path is too narrow, too demanding. It is impossible.

Only one Man has perfectly fulfilled all these requirements - the Lord Jesus Christ - and this Man lives in me now. I thank God that what is impossible with me is easy achievable with Him! "As you have received the Lord Jesus Christ [Gate], so walk in Him [Path] (Colossians 2:6)." We come to the Lord admitting that we cannot save ourselves, and He does the saving. That is the Gate. Now we come to the Lord every day, admitting that we cannot enter the Kingdom, and He does what it takes to conform us into His image. That is the Path. Hence, I have no secret for the Christian Life, but Christ. I have no key, but Christ. I have no method, but Christ. I have no formula, but Christ. I have no technique, but Christ. I have no life, but Christ for it is no longer I that lives, it is Christ that lives in me (Galatians 2:20a). In Him, through Him, because of Him, by Him we may enter the Kingdom.

Lord Jesus Christ, I thank You that You are my Way, my Truth, and my Life! I praise You that I cannot save myself. I praise You that I cannot enter the Kingdom. As I trusted in You to bring me out of Egypt, so I trust in You to bring me into the Promised Land. As I have received You, so I will walk in You. You are my Narrow Gate, and You are my Narrow Path. As I am decreased, You are increased, and my life is exchanged for Your Life. I thank you, Lord, that through You we may enter the Kingdom. Amen.

*A comparison of the terms "Kingdom of Heaven" and "Kingdom of God" shows that what Matthew calls "Kingdom of Heaven" the other Gospel writers call "Kingdom of God". Since the same parables used to describe Matthew's "Kingdom of Heaven" are also used to describe Mark and Luke's "Kingdom of God", there is no Scriptural basis for teaching these are two separate ideas. For the most obvious example, compare Matthew 13 with Mark 4 and Luke 8. www.watchman.net

The Perfecting Of The Saints
Chip Brogden

http://www.watchman.net/articles/perfecting.html

"And He gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ" (Ephesians 4:11-13).

For what purpose did God give apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers? Verse 12 tells us they are for "the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the Body of Christ". This, of course, does not mean that the saints are supposed to be perfect in the sense that they never make a mistake or can do no wrong. "Perfection" here means "maturity", and it would be good to simply remember that whenever we see the word "perfect" used in this context we should think "spiritually mature".

The perfecting of the saints means the maturing of the saints, the process of bringing the saints out of spiritual immaturity and into spiritual adulthood. This is the purpose for the ministry gifts. We are not born fully-grown; we must "grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ" (II Peter 3:18a). In Biblical language, to be "perfect" is to be fully developed. For instance, "My strength is made perfect in weakness" (II Corinthians 12:9ff). What does this mean? "My strength is matured through your weakness, and is fully developed in the one who comes to the end of his natural strength."

After more than twenty years of Christian experience, Paul explains that he has neither attained, nor is he already perfect (cf. Philippians 3:12a). Clearly he expects to be perfect one day, but he has not yet attained it. But to what is he attaining to? Sinless perfection? No. He is striving for spiritual maturity, which he defines as an experiential, intimidate, fully-developed relationship with Jesus Christ ("to know Him"). Then he says everyone who is perfect (that is, spiritually mature), will be like-minded in their pursuit of knowing Christ.

Paul says he preaches Christ: "...warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus" (Colossians 1:28). This, in essence, is the purpose of all ministry, whether it is the ministry of an apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor or teacher. It is to preach CHRIST, and to bring all men into a spiritually mature relationship with Him. Christ is at the heart of everything; He is at the center of all activity; we begin with Him and we end with Him.

When we are introduced to a new ministry and we wish to test its authenticity and spiritual value, we need only ask ourselves two questions: is this ministry centered upon Jesus Christ, and does it bring people into a deeper, more experiential knowing of Him?

If we wish to evaluate someone who claims to be an apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor or teacher, we can apply the same test: is this person centered on Jesus Christ? And when they do whatever it is that they do (preach, teach, prophesy, sing, plant churches, etc.), does it bring people into a deeper, more experiential knowing of Him?

Some may think that kind of test is too severe. Why, if we applied this criteria to every minister and ministry in the world (they say) then we would probably disqualify a majority of workers and works that are doing the Church and mankind a great service. Yes, we probably would. Yet in terms of value to the Kingdom of God, if the work is not Christ-centered and does nothing to bring people into a mature relationship with Him then it has no value to God and is worthless in His sight. If we are not preaching Christ then we are preaching something or someone else; and if we are not bringing people into the depths of Jesus with our life and work then we are either leaving them as they are or leaving them worse than when we found them. We become a distraction and a hindrance to the spiritual growth of others.

If the minister or the ministry does not preach Christ, and does not bring people into spiritual maturity, then they fulfill the opposite of God's intention - they make themselves the center and make the people dependent upon them, guaranteeing the spiritual immaturity of those affiliated with them. A congregation that is dependent upon its pastor to hear from God for them, deliver a message to them, pray for their needs, and take responsibility for their own spiritual growth is doomed to infancy and spiritual immaturity. If the pastor accepts this situation then he reinforces the congregation's dependency upon himself. Instead of pointing them to Christ as their Shepherd and getting them to stand on their own, he becomes their surrogate mother. Unfortunately, this is precisely where many churches are today. "We leave the spiritual work to the pastor, while we attend the services."

The prophetic ministry is just as guilty. The "prophet" or "prophetess" and their "word" becomes the focus of everything; and instead of bringing people to Christ and teaching them how to hear from the Lord on their own, they take responsibility for giving them messages from God. So now people are passively depending on the prophetic ministry for direction, instead of growing up into Christ and developing their own discernment and ability to hear His still, small voice. I read recently of a "prophet" who claimed to give personal words of prophecy to over five hundred people in the course of a week. I do not have to know what was said to know that this person's idea of a "prophetic ministry" will only keep people spiritual dull and incapable of hearing from God on their own. Why should they develop any kind of spiritual sense when they can have a "prophet" come and give them a "word" whenever they like?

Just because we CAN give a word does not mean that we SHOULD give a word. The goal is not to give people a word, but to give them CHRIST as their Word. Or to put it another way, the goal of ministry is not to give people a loaf of bread every day, but to show them how to obtain all the bread they wish in CHRIST who is the Bread of Life. Do you see the difference? If my entire goal is to give people a sermon every week or a prophetic word every day then both I and they will fall far short of God's Purpose, which is spiritual maturity and knowing Christ experientially. If the crowd is coming to me for a loaf of bread every time they get hungry then they are dependent upon me to feed them. This is only acceptable so long as they are children who cannot feed themselves. But if I show them where to get bread on their own then they will not have to come to me anymore: and THAT is the goal. Then they can get nourished directly from the source, Who is Christ Himself. The truth is that selling loaves of bread is big business, and a ministry whose survival depends on selling loaves actually WANTS the people to come back to them over and over again to be fed!

May we see before God that CHRIST is the object and the reason for all ministry. Our goal is not to see anyone become dependent upon us, our ministry, our work, or our word; our goal is not to give them a loaf, but rather, to encourage them to go experience the depths of Jesus Christ experientially and personally - to show them where the Bread of Life is.

End Time Marriages Coming Forth

Doug Addison

June 14, 2004

In 1991, I had a spiritual experience in which God gave me a message about some future events involving marriages. At that time I was also given personal insight into some things that would happen in my family. Later on, I understood that when the events in my family had occurred, it would be a sign that what God had told me in the message on marriages would begin to happen. I wrote down what God had given me and placed it in a file folder. I knew that some day I would present it on a larger scale. Last year God instructed me to pull out the message and begin to get it ready to share. By April of 2004 all the events concerning my family had taken place, and God began to give me greater insight about the message that was called "The End Time Marriages. The visitation foretelling family events

Early in the morning of July 6, 1991, while camping at Big Sur, California, I went for a walk by myself to pray. I came upon a stream of water that I had seen in a vision just the week before. Suddenly, there was such a strong presence of God that I fell to my knees. Although I did not see anything, I heard the voice of what I knew to be an angel speaking directly to my spirit (difficult to describe). I began to speak the angel's words out loud as they were spoken to me. The angel said, "Your mom is dead, and you are to tell Ray (my step-dad) to stay in the church and he will marry a godly woman. At the time this happened, Ray was not a Christian and my mom had been ill, but she was now recovering. I was so startled by the experience that I ran to a payphone to call my mom to see if she was okay–she was. I did not understand why the angel had told me that she was dead.

A few years later Ray gave his life to Jesus, and my mom became terminally ill; she died eight years later. I shared the word from God with Ray; he stayed in his church and in April of 2004 he married a godly woman. God told me that the events foretold about my family were now fulfilled, and that this was a sign that the events of the message I had received in 1991 would now begin.

For the longest time I did not understand why the angel had spoken to me in the present tense about events that would occur years later. The only conclusion I was able to come to was that God operates outside of time. Too often we receive prophetic words and do not understand the timing of God.

The message on end time marriages

I had gone camping in 1991 because I felt that God wanted to speak to me. I knew it had to do with something in the Bible so I brought along a ton of books and study resources. As I prayed I felt God directing me to 1 Corinthians 7 where the Apostle Paul talks about marriage and about some future events:

29 What I mean, brothers, is that the time is short. From now on those who have wives should live as if they had none; 30 those who mourn, as if they did not; those who are happy, as if they were not; those who buy something, as if it were not theirs to keep; 31 those who use the things of the world, as if not engrossed in them. For this world in its present form is passing away. (1 Corinthians 7:29-31 NIV)

God revealed to me that a time is coming when the attitudes of Christians will begin to change, and a new strategy will be released from heaven to establish God's end time ministry activity. He will begin to bring couples together to be married, and their marriages will be centered upon a higher ministry purpose.

The Apostle Paul said that it is better to remain unmarried and serve the Lord, but in the last days God will bring couples together in marriage for His purposes. These marriages will allow His people to freely serve Him with greater impact than if they were single, yet they will be happily and firmly married. They will not get bound up with the cares of this world or focus on their own households; instead, there will be incredible spiritual synergy which will come from being in agreement and together, serving God with higher purposes. The focus for families will no longer be on earthly possessions but on Heavenly destinies.

Many women and men have been single for a number of years because God spared them from being in marriages with someone who did not share the same calling and destiny. The events that will begin to happen will look quite strange to those who do not have eyes to see and ears to hear (spiritual discernment). Existing marriages will be strengthened. Some spouses will die and strategic remarriage will occur. Some couples will separate and even divorce—though this is not God's will, and He will redeem and restore them. In some cases it will appear as if their ministries are finished, but God will bring great surprises as He brings justice and repays people for the years of suffering they have experienced from being outside of His greater purposes. Those who focus on God will not miss their destiny.

The Importance of Non-Abusive Relationships: Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her. (Eph. 5:25) Many called and gifted men and women of God are currently being held back from their callings by abusive spouses and abusive marital relationships. Abuse will no longer be tolerated.

The Importance of Synergy: Two are better than one—this is a spiritual principle. If one can put 1,000 to flight and two 10,000, how much more effective are two people serving the Lord together. (Deut. 32:30)

The Importance of Spiritual Covering: Many women have been suffering with strange and often untreatable sicknesses such as chronic fatigue or fibromyalgia. Many of these illnesses result from the lack of a spiritual covering. For a woman to operate in a higher level of authority, she needs a spiritual covering. (1Cor 11:8) This covering comes from a husband, a pastor, or in some cases the Lord Himself. Because of this requirement for a covering, God is about to move to provide marriages for a great number of single women in the church who are seeking His will for their life in Him.

The Importance of Sexual Intimacy: Being single and staying pure is not an easy thing to do, especially with the extra added warfare which comes with being in the ministry. The Apostle Paul encourages marriage if you burn with lust. It is better to marry than to fall to sexual sin. (1 Cor. 7:9)

Appropriate sexual intimacy within marriage can be a powerful form of spiritual warfare. When two are joined together as one, the enemy has less opportunity to bring temptation. Walking this close together also brings a greater prayer covering for each other. When you are one in the spirit, you know how to pray for your spouse.

Churches are full of single woman wanting to marry. I often hear people ask, "Where are the men?? The addiction to pornography is holding people back from their destinies in God. The entrapment of pornography is about to lose its grip on men, and on women also.

(Jesus speaking) Nevertheless, I have a few things against you: You have people there who hold to the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to entice the Israelites to sin by eating food sacrificed to idols and by committing sexual immorality. (Revelation 2:14 NIV)

Judgment is coming to those in the pornography industry because they have enticed God's people to sin. The pornography industry will suffer great loss, and the billions of dollars that are currently being siphoned away from God's work will be released into the hands of Christians. The grip that pornography has on people will be broken, and this will happen as suddenly and unexpectedly as the fall of communism. This will release many men and woman into healthy relationships, marriages, and into their destinies in God.

End Time Vision of Daisy Osborn

Daisy Osborn

Given to Daisy Osborn over 20 years ago.

I lay sleepless and horrified, greatly vexed in the spirit. The Lord visited and showed me things that will shortly come to pass. The JUDGMENT and WRATH of God will soon bring disaster and havoc to the world we live in. The DIE is CAST. God’s clock is set. TIME is running out.

In a vision I saw the face of the earth and the changing of the shape of America. It was drastically altered and reduced in size through terrible disasters. Hunger and suffering were everywhere. The devastation caused by volcanic eruptions and fires were widespread and horrifying during this terrible holocaust.

I saw Christians clustering together from all walks of life and many church affiliations. They did not care about their sectarian doctrines. The tie that bound them in their desperate hour, was their common faith in Christ. They clung together as though their survival depended upon each other.

After these terrifying cataclysmic events which the Lord showed me, all the evils of sectarianism and apostasy vanished among the Christians desperate struggle to draw strength from one another.

Those who had been lukewarm, cast aside besetting sins, and sought identity with the true believers.

Cigarettes, pills, social drinkers, marital cheaters; were repented of and amends were made.

A new sense of values gripped the conscience of Believers. The new morality standard and modern license for laxity was like a remorseful hangover. Most of the Christians in the "visitation" were amazed that WE were witnessing His WRATH and JUDGMENT!!!

Many social Christians were ill-prepared. Their frivolous, unwatchful, imprudent lives had GAMBLED on Mercy and Grace, which they had thought required NO RECKONING – EVER!!!

I saw hordes (Believers) lost among the religious and Christ Jesus rejecters. As I looked, I saw where mountains were flattened. Believers were FLEEING to the desert to take shelter in caves and rocks.

The DESOLATION was so terrible that it seemed NO ONE would be spared (Luke 21:34-37 KJV; Matthew 24:20-22).

All but a few were full of remorse. Lamentations could be heard everywhere. It was heartening to observe that during the FEARSOME DISASTERS – UNSHAKABLE FAITH held like an ANCHOR among the Christians. They knew they would SOON see the SON coming in the clouds of heaven and with Power and Glory!!!

(Daisy Osborn (now with the Lord) was the wife of Brother T. L. Osborn.)

Eat the Whole Scroll

Ashanti Davis

Ezekiel 3:1-14:…"[1] Moreover He said to me, "Son of man, eat what you find; eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel." [2]So I opened my mouth, and He caused me to eat that scroll. [3]And He said to me, "Son of man, feed your belly, and fill your stomach with this scroll that I give you." So I ate, and it was in my mouth like honey in sweetness…[10]Moreover He said to me: "Son of man, receive into your heart all My words that I speak to you, and hear with your ears…[14]So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the LORD was strong upon me."

2 Timothy 4: 2-5..."[2]Preach the word! Be ready in season and out of season. Convince, rebuke, exhort, with all longsuffering and teaching. [3]For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but according to their own desires, because they have itching ears, they will heap up for themselves teachers; [4]and they will turn their ears away from the truth, and be turned aside to fables. [5]But you be watchful in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry."

In reading the first scripture above you will see that the Lord told Ezekiel to "eat" the scroll, then speak. Now when Ezekiel ate the "scroll" at first it was sweet like honey to him, but by the time he went, it was in bitterness, yet the Lord had told him to eat it all, to fill his belly with it. And the Lord is requiring the same from us as leaders today, we have to eat the whole scroll BEFORE we go! But the "heat" will be like fire "shut up in your bones".

It is amazing to me that so many leaders today will preach certain scriptures, and not others. They will preach a "selective" gospel, choosing scriptures that keep them in good standing with the people, [on one side], their denominational leaders those who has sent them out, [on the other side], and/or the people with the money, [which may be in one of these groups], or a separate group altogether. Help me, Jesus…

What are we doing, saints? What are we preaching and teaching? The Gospel is for CHANGE, that's it's job, who's life is being changed by what we preach? Why are so many people coming in the house of God, and leaving the same way they came? This "politically correct", people-pleasing, user friendly, gospel is not of God. The Lord is not "hard up" for anyone, He loves us so much, but His love is not co-dependent, or unhealthy. He loves us but He doesn't need us, and His love will correct, and chastise you…Hebrews 12:6.

One has to wonder today, what has happen to the message of the Bible? Scripture teaches us in Acts 2:36...[36]"Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ." And in Romans 8:2..."[2]For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death."

Now these two scriptures shows us two things, that Jesus wasn't just our Savior, but He IS our Lord, also. He didn't just free us from the law of death, but from the law of sin, also, and herein lays the problem in the Body of Christ, and in some of the pulpits across America. We have no problem with Jesus being Savior, and saving us from spiritual death so we can go to glory in the end, the problem is with His Lordship, and His freeing us from the law of sin, the desire to give in to our flesh and sin…Romans 7:23, maybe we don't want to be free!!!

The church seems to say; “Save me, Jesus, but don’t tell me what to do with my life. Take me to heaven when I die, Jesus, but let me keep my “pet sins” here on earth.” We want to have our proverbial cake, and eat it too. We want the best of both worlds, but scripture teaches that if you are friendly with the world, you are an enemy to God…James 4:4...[“Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God].” You can’t have it both ways! Choose you this day who you will serve…Joshua 24:15!!! Eat the WHOLE scroll…

Galatians 3:3 reads…“[3]Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now being made perfect by the flesh?” We started out being led by the Spirit of God, now we are judging spirituality by natural, or material means. We judge how spiritual people are by their level of influence, and/or the earthly possessions. How do we do this when scriptures teaches that one's life does not consist in the abundance of the things he possesses."…Luke 12:15. When did “material things” validate our spirituality? When did “rich” always come to mean righteous? We read Hebrews 11, and jump and shout and stop reading just shy of verses 35b to 39 because those verses do no fit our theology.

Well, let‘s read a little further…“Others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. [36]Still others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yes, and of chains and imprisonment. [37]They were stoned, they were sawn in two, were tempted, were slain with the sword. They wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented-- [38]of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, in dens and caves of the earth. [39]And all these, having obtained a good testimony through faith, did not receive the promise…” We delete what we want because we want to believe that everyone who exercised faith got what they wanted, we want a “blood-less, painless, prosperous gospel”.

Then we state that Job was afflicted because he feared when that is NOT what scripture teaches…Job chapter 2...“[8]Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered My servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and shuns evil?" We attribute Job’s assessment of his situation to God because we do not want to believe that what to Job could happen to anyone in spite of their FAITH, or even because of their faith.

We preach and teach that Ananais and his wife were killed because they didn’t give all their money to the church, when this is not true. They were killed because they LIED and pretended that they had given it all…“But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession. [2]And he kept back part of the proceeds, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part and laid it at the apostles' feet. [3]But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and keep back part of the price of the land for yourself? [4]While it remained, was it not your own? And after it was sold, was it not in your own control? Why have you conceived this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men but to God." In essence, Paul says the land was yours to do with what you want, you didn’t have to lie about your giving. If they had been honest in their dealings, and admitted that they wanted to keep a part, they would have lived. We scare and manipulate people into giving, when the Lord loves a cheerful giver…II Corinthians 9:7.

Then we believe we “have arrived” spiritually when we cease to feel, but our High Priest can “be touched by the FEELINGS of our infirmities”…Hebrews 4:15, He knows how we FEEL, and it is this that TOUCHES Him. In John 20: 11-17...Mary is at the tomb weeping because she believes that someone has stolen the body of Christ, and Jesus comes to comfort her. On His way up to the Father, he stops to comfort one of His own because she is sorrowful and weeping. Awesome!!! But we are so “deep” that we don’t have time for the “challenges” of our brothers and sisters. We are so “spiritual” that nothing bothers us, or hurts us, and we teach others to be the same.

Our message is that if you hurt about anything that happens in your life, you are not “dead” yet, but my Bible teaches that I am to be dead to sin, only…Romans 6:1-7, not to emotions, even Jesus wept! Scripture reads that many are the AFFLICTIONS of the righteous…Psalm 34:19, and afflictions are things that hurt. Jesus spoke many times regarding the PERSECUTIONS that would come to us, and persecutions hurt. Even Jesus was WOUNDED for our transgression, BRUISED for our iniquity, CHASTISED for our peace, and BEATEN, [stripes], for our healing; He hurt for us, He felt pain for us, so where do we get this doctrine from?

Church members are becoming “men-pleasers” because leaders don’t fully trust, or recognize the Holy Ghost. We manipulate and intimidate people into accepting who we have accepted, by virtue of our leadership. We respect “papers and titles” and fail to recognize anointing, unless a person has been validated by someone we know in leadership but what does the scripture say…I John 5:9...“[9]If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater;”. But who “ordained” Jesus?

In Matthew 21: 23-27, Jesus is operating in His purpose and the religious leaders come to Him asking who gave Him authority to do these things. Now, Jesus didn't go to their schools, nor did He have their degrees. He had spent time with His Father and was doing what His Father told Him to do...John 8:29, but this didn't please the leaders of His day. If it was during our time, Jesus would have been consider un-teachable, to have a rebellious spirit, to cause "division" among the brethren, church hopper, and a "parking lot prophet". Scripture teaches that we ought to obey God rather than man...Acts 5:29. Hmmmmm...

In Galatians 1:15-24, Paul says that when the Lord called him, he didn't confer with man but went away three years to be alone with the Lord, [not with the his peers, or the Apostles, the Lord]. Then he spent 15 days visiting with Peter, and James before starting his ministry. No where does he say that they "sent him out"! Paul would have been considered a "lone ranger" in this day.

In fact, let me add this...the Apostles were arrested by the religious leadership of their day, and FORBIDDEN to teach in "that Name"...Acts 5:17-29, and the Apostles stubbornly refused to be obedient, [the nerve!!!]...going right back in the temple preaching the message the Lord had given them [v.41-42]. They were rebellious, un-teachable, trouble makers!

"Leaders" say that the Lord would not tell a person to do something that He had not revealed to them, but does the Lord answer to man now? His thoughts are NOT our thoughts, nor His WAYS, our ways...Isaiah 55: 8-9. Does He have to get their approval before using a person for His glory? I am not promoting anarchy, just suggesting that maybe we have taken our control too far! The Lord says that some have great influence, but along with that comes great responsibility. We should be careful how we use our influence.

There are so many scriptures that I could quote that would refute quite a bit of what we say in our churches today, [and most of what some churches teach]. I often wonder if we are becoming like the Catholic church, whose whole foundation is built on man-made traditions, and not the Word of God. Some would say don’t speak against the church, and I am not. I speak against error, the “church” is a living “Body” of baptized believers that adhere to the truth, and they are not confined to one building, or denomination.

In the Old Testament, whenever the people would stray; someone would find the “Book of the Law”; read it before the people; there would be repentance, with weeping and mourning; and the people would rededicate themselves to the Lord. What about today? What will we do today…

The second scripture at the beginning of this message, in II Timothy 4, we are told to “PREACH THE WORD"!!! The whole Word, not just the parts we like, or the parts that fit our denominational beliefs. We are told to preach it, when it is convenient, and when it is not. We are told to use it to rebuke, [admonish, forbid], reprove, [convict, convince], and exhort, [invite, entreat], suffering long in doing so.

Why? Because we are in that day when people do not want to hear "sound doctrine", the balance of the Word. People want a God that is love but not correction. A God that blesses, but never spanks. A God that gives but doesn't require anything in return, but privileges without responsibility produces "spoiled" children and the Lord is not in the business of doing that!

The Bibles reads in II Timothy 3: 16-17 that… "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, [17]that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work." All scriptures, not just the ones you like, or support what you want to say and think, every scripture in the Book is profitable and must be taught.

Isaiah 58:1 reads… ""Cry aloud, spare not; Lift up your voice like a trumpet;

Tell My people their transgression, And the house of Jacob their sins. The Lord was not saying cry out to sinners regarding transgression and sin, but to HIS people. We seem to forget that from Acts to Revelation those books are written to the church!

Saints, we need to pray, and not just pray, but speak the truth without respect of persons, BUT respectfully. I feel an urgency in my spirit as though we don't have much time. I believe we will be the generation that will see Jesus' return. Will you be ready???

3 John 1: 4...[4]I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.

"Change occurs when staying the same is MORE painful than the fear of changing..."

Encounter Visitation and Habitation

Daniel Black

Psalm 91:1, "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

What is the Secret Place. Jesus tells us in the Gospel of Matthew chapter 6:6, "And when thou prayest, enter into thine closet, and when thou hast shut thine door, pray to thine Father which is in secret, and thy Father which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly."

We see here that The Secret place is the place of supernatural meeting with the Father. it is a place of encounter, visitation and habitation.

But how do I get to the place of supernatural "ENCOUNTER, VISITATION, and HABITATION" of the Secret Place.

Let's study Genesis 32:22,24-26, 30 .

32: 22, "And he (Jacob) arose that night and took his two wives, and his two women servants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford Jabbok...."

Did you know that that word "Jabbok" literally means emptiness. So, before Jacob could have an encounter with the Most High in the Secret place, Jacob had to empty himself. The same is with us. We all have to empty ourselves of ourselves. When we are about to go before God we must empty ourselves of our own visions and dreams. We must empty of ourselves of all our own wants and cares. Jabbok is also a place of emptying of oneself from all sin and taking it before Him.

32: 24a, "And Jacob was left alone..."

Let's envision Jacob. All that he had, all that he had owned, all whom he loved were gone. He was left alone. There were no distractions. It was just him. What is God doing to you today to get you alone? What things are being taken away from you? What is it in your life that God is taking away to get you to be alone. For you to have a supernatural encounter with Him, you must be empty, but to have His visitation, you must be left alone.

32:24b-25, "...and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of day. And when HE saw that HE prevailed not against him (Jacob), and He touched the hollow of his (Jacob's) thigh, and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled with Him..."

The word wrestle literally means to fight with your hands in the dirt. Sometimes when we are left alone, we do not realize that the LORD is trying to have a visitation and encounter with us. We don't see that it is the Holy Spirit trying to lead us, and so we fight it. We don't like the urgings that He gives us. After all, we've been left alone. But there is something that happens when the dawn arises.

32:26, "And HE said, 'Let me go, for the day breaketh.' And he (Jacob) said, "I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.'"

Something changed. It seemed as if the lights clicked on in Jacob's head. The man demands that Jacob let Him go now, and you would think that since Jacob was trying to get rid of Him most of the night, he would gladly let Him go, but Jacob had a revelation of something. He saw who he was wrestling with. The day break had come and he saw the man's face! So, he wouldn't let go. He saw Who he had and he would not let go. To experience habitation, we must grab onto His presence and never let go.

32:30, "And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel: for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved."

When we have experienced emptiness, being alone and grabbing hold of HIM (Jesus), we will then have an encounter that will change our lives. It is an face to face encounter with the Living God. A place where it is just you and God. Its a place of realization. The place of true fellowship, because its Peniel, its face to face with the Almighty. And it will only happen if you go in secret! Close that closet door. Get down on your face and seek after Him. Seek after Him as the Psalmist did in Psalm 63:1-2, "O God thou art my God; early will I seek Thee: my soul thirsteth for Thee, my flesh longeth for Thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is; to see Thy POWER AND GLORY, so as I have seen in the sanctuary."

I would just like to encourage not to wait. Get empty. Get alone, and grab hold of this new thing that God is doing. This encounter. It's a visitation and I know HE wants to make it a habitation. He wants to take you to a place to see Him, Who is Glory and is Power.

The Hand Of God Is Upon You

Daniel Black

Isaiah 42: 6-9 says the following, "I, the Lord, have called You in righteousness, And will hold Your hand; I will keep You and give You as a covenant to the people, As a light to the Gentiles, To open blind eyes, To bring out prisoners from the prison, Those who sit in darkness from the prison house. I am the Lord, that is My name; And My glory I will not give to another, Nor My praise to carved images. Behold, the former things have come to pass, And new things I declare; Before they spring forth I tell you of them." God has a WORD for YOU today.

God is about to do a new thing in you. I don't care what you are going through, I don't care how big the storm looks, I don't care what it is, God is holding you in His hands!

Not only is He holding you in His hands, He is about to lift you up out of that mire, and God said that He is calling you into His righteousness and placing the anointing of the Spirit upon you to be a light! Matthew 10:8 says, "Heal the sick, cleanse the leper, raise the dead, cast out devils, freely you have received, freely give."

He has anointed you to heal broken hearts, open blinded eyes, and to lift others from the darkest prisons that life has to offer! You want to see the culture of a generation changed, then, your speech and preaching shouldn't be with persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, that faith should not be in the wisdom of men but in the power of God!

God has called you to change a generation! To change the nations! To change the culture! To change the mentality! For the Lord has plans to prosper, hallelujah! If you will open your mouth, the Lord will declare new things before they spring forth!

People of God, let your light shine, before all men, and with the Spirit of God in you, many will be drawn to you and will come unto the salvation of Jesus Christ!

Remember though, that the Lord does not share His glory. Proverbs 29:23 states, "A man's pride will bring him low, But the humble in spirit will retain honor." James 4:5-6, "Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, The Spirit who dwells in us yearns jealous? But He gives more grace. Therefore He says: God resists the proud, But gives grace to the humble."

Experiencing His Presence

Holy Filling Is the Quest, Holy Frustration Is the Address

"But Tommy, I don't like living with this … this, this uneasy feeling. Will I ever stop feeling that I need more of Him?" Will it help if I tell you that all the spiritual luminaries of ages past have lived at frustration's address? Holy Hunger is their street in the village of Repentance, and Divine Desperation is their zip code. Their hunger was greater than their receiving, and their divine discontent made them pray a prayer like this: "Show me Your glory." They didn't base their faith on the success of their pursuit; they based their pursuit on the strength of their faith.

The myth persists that we enjoy a perfect life after receiving Christ despite two millennia of persecution, adversity, and opposition for His name. The lives of Peter, Paul, James, John, and many other less-known saints mentioned in the Bible make it clear that divine desperation is a natural part of our life in Christ.

Some may hope it isn't so, but students of the Word know it's so. God Chasers who hope to become God Catchers must inevitably enter the zip code of Divine Desperation and take up residence in the village of Repentance. In their quest for Holy filling, they make their home on the street of Holy Hunger.

Is your hunger "greater than your receiving"? Do you know what it feels like to experience His presence and yet hunger for more?

The passionate pursuit of God's presence puts a serious demand on the human soul, a price that some may find too high to pay. As we noted in The God Catchers:

Once you decide to abandon your permanent place in the pew or leave that comfortable padded seat in the back of the church to chase Him, God issues a permanent change-of-address notice for you. From that moment on, you become a spiritual traveler in transit, a pilgrim on an eternal pilgrimage to the place of His presence.

The necessity of repentance is the first demand you encounter when you enter the chase. It dawns on you that the repentance that led to salvation was a door to deeper repentance, not just a one-time occurrence. From that point on, salvation is not the issue for that has been accomplished for you by Christ Jesus. Now you are consumed with a desire for holiness and righteousness before the One you long to be near, and a broken and repentant heart is the first steppingstone to His manifest presence.

Are you prepared to live life as a spiritual pilgrim in perpetual pursuit of His presence? Were you ever told about the important of repentance-continual repentance-to those who hunger for righteousness and holiness?

Repentance can accelerate the process of entering His presence. I've often said that repentance is like "worship on steroids." True repentance produces godly sorrow that bridges the gap of sin that separates us from Him. It also births desperation and brokenness. If worship entreats the presence of God, it seems that repentance places a demand on His presence because He said He will not despise the sacrificial cry of a broken and repentant heart. … The full faith of God Himself backs His statement about repentance. It places a legitimate demand on His presence; it fuels it like pressing an accelerator on a car.

There is a world of difference between repentance and condemnation. Repentance produces godly sorrow and salvation; condemnation produces death. Repentance leads to something better, purer, and healthier; condemnation or "worldly sorrow" produces ever-descending cycles of depression, guilt, and hopelessness. It amazes me that so few Christians realize the freedom available in God through the cleansing power of heart-felt repentance. Repentance removes the pressure each day when holy filling is your quest and holy frustration is your address.

Is repentance part of your daily worship before God? Do you view it as a "morning shower" to cleanse the soul and prepare you for pure service to Him?

Our problem is that most of us have a concept of repentance as "an occasional visit to the village of Repentance." God calls us to a lifestyle of repentance, which is living in the village.

What Do You Think?

Once you decide to abandon your permanent place in the pew or leave that comfortable padded seat in the back of the church to chase Him, God issues a permanent change-of-address notice for you. From that moment on, you become a spiritual traveler in transit, a pilgrim on an eternal pilgrimage to the place of His presence.

What do you think? In the footnote for this statement, I make it clear that being a "pilgrim" does not include the act of hopping from church to church. What do you think it does mean?

Scripture Reading: 2 Corinthians 11:23-12:12, where Paul portrays the "glamorous" life of a first century apostle, and describes what it was like to live at frustration's address while glorying only in his weaknesses and his total dependence upon God's strength.

23 Are they ministers of Christ?—I speak as a fool—I am more: in labors more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequently, in deaths often. 24 From the Jews five times I received forty stripes minus one. 25 Three times I was beaten with rods; once I was stoned; three times I was shipwrecked; a night and a day I have been in the deep; 26 in journeys often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of my own countrymen, in perils of the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; 27 in weariness and toil, in sleeplessness often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness— 28 besides the other things, what comes upon me daily: my deep concern for all the churches. 29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to stumble, and I do not burn with indignation? 30 If I must boast, I will boast in the things which concern my infirmity. 31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is blessed forever, knows that I am not lying. 32 In Damascus the governor, under Aretas the king, was guarding the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desiring to arrest me; 33 but I was let down in a basket through a window in the wall, and escaped from his hands.

1 It is doubtless not profitable for me to boast. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord: 2 I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago—whether in the body I do not know, or whether out of the body I do not know, God knows—such a one was caught up to the third heaven. 3 And I know such a man—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows— 4 how he was caught up into Paradise and heard inexpressible words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. 5 Of such a one I will boast; yet of myself I will not boast, except in my infirmities. 6 For though I might desire to boast, I will not be a fool; for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, lest anyone should think of me above what he sees me to be or hears from me. 7 And lest I should be exalted above measure by the abundance of the revelations, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I be exalted above measure. 8 Concerning this thing I pleaded with the Lord three times that it might depart from me. 9 And He said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness." Therefore most gladly I will rather boast in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. 10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in needs, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake. For when I am weak, then I am strong. 11 I have become a fool in boasting; you have compelled me. For I ought to have been commended by you; for in nothing was I behind the most eminent apostles, though I am nothing. 12 Truly the signs of an apostle were accomplished among you with all perseverance, in signs and wonders and mighty deeds.

Prayer Father, please forgive me for so rarely visiting the village of Repentance. Today is a new day, and I choose to begin by moving my heart into the village of Repentance. I'm frustrated by the dichotomy of my longing for You and my fullness with "me." Please forgive me and cleanse me of my unrighteousness and make me more like You. Above all Lord, let me dwell in Your presence all the days of my life.

Visitation That Shakes The Earth
Tommy Tenney

When Praise and Worship Pierces the Heavens, God's Sudden Visitation Shakes the Earth

Once we learn how to worship and sing and chase Him even in a dreary midnight hour, we will accomplish more than just having a "sudden visitation" from Him. When God heard the worship rising from that Philippian prison cell, He came so suddenly that His coming triggered an earthquake that shook chains off of more than just Paul and Silas. The Bible says that all the prisoners were set free.

Just when it seems safe enough to settle in and relax in the temples of man's making, those troublemakers from heaven blow in through the doors. They are "normal" in every respect except one-they have a strange fixation with the manifest presence of God.

In biblical days, they used to wear camel's hair coats and eat strange diets. Some of them even paraded around town naked or called the local ministers snakes (no, I'm not promoting such behavior today).

Today's breed of troublemaker generally remains fully clothed, eats in all of the usual restaurants, and converses politely with local pastors and visiting evangelists. What you remember most about them is that look of hunger in their eyes. You get the strange feeling that they've seen or experienced Something greater than most churches can offer or even claim to possess. They burn with so much passion for God that it is almost embarrassing. For better or for worse, more and more of them are calling themselves "God Chasers."

God Chasers are so frustrated at times that they make everyone else feel frustrated too. It seems that whatever they have is "catching." The radical God Chasers who become God Catchers have a way of entering our meetings with their hair still smoking from fresh encounters in an upper room somewhere. They are always looking for another worship fire to fan with their passion, so God tends to show up and make it nearly impossible to conduct church as usual.

How did you catch the God Chaser bug? What or Who possessed you to turn your life upside down so you could put His pursuit at the top of your life agenda? How would you describe the God Chasers the Lord sent into your life? How would you describe yourself?

There is no doubt that God Chasers often have a hard time fitting into the "church as usual" mold. Very often their presence and the passion and single-minded focus they bring to the act of worship seems to reduce "church as usual" to empty acts of religious procedure. Their passionate search for God's face can create a lot of discomfort for those interested in preserving the status quo at any cost.

There is a clear difference between a God Chaser and what may be called "God fakers or God flakes." God fakers pretend to be spiritual, but they are more interested in the approval and respect of men than in the manifested presence of God. The fastest route to winning that approval most often involves producing a false image of the latest move of God in the earth.

God flakes are lightweight, dried-out, half-baked imitations of the real thing. They all come out of the same hypocrisy box littered with rewards and gifts attractive to manpleasers, and they are more interested in attracting the attention of men than the attention of God. Once they win the attention, they do all they can to keep it on themselves.

True God Chasers, on the other hand, attempt to keep their eyes on Him despite the ups and downs life brings their way. They will do everything in their power to divert all attention, praise, and honor toward God and away from themselves because they know that is a key to turning visitation into habitation.

What are your motives for pursuing God's presence? Do you want to be part of the latest "God thing" in the church, or are you genuinely hungry for God Himself? Do you concern yourself more with the opinions of men or the manifest presence of God?

The significance of living at frustration's address isn't that we are suffering for more of the Lord; it is that we have learned to worship and praise Him regardless of our circumstances or status in life. Our contentment isn't based on what happens to us or what comes our way; it is based solely upon His love for us. It is the essence of a "fasted life" devoted to the pursuit of His face.

Do you reserve your praise and worship for Him solely for the good times of divine visitation, or do you lavish worship upon Him day and night, in good times and bad?

Remember Where You've Been, But Always Dare to Dream

Do you get the feeling something is missing from the typical Sunday morning religious experience we call "church"? It is God who placed this incredible hunger and divine discontent in you. Even as He blesses you, He ignites a deep hunger and longing in your heart of hearts that cries out, "Daddy, don't send Your assistant…I want You!" (page 166)

As you read these words, did you feel that familiar sinking feeling again? Remember that God established the church-any problems or errors in it can be corrected just as quickly as God can adjust attitudes, change paradigms, and alter our man-centered methods. So remember where you've been, but always dare to dream of moving up from "good" to "best." What is the hunger and longing of your heart?

Scripture Reading: Acts 16:16-34, where a bloodied pair of evangelists launched the first New Testament prison ministry by leading a rowdy worship service from prisoners' stocks. In the end, they worshiped God's glory down to earth and introduced their jailor's family to Christ.

16 Now it happened, as we went to prayer, that a certain slave girl possessed with a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much profit by fortune-telling. 17 This girl followed Paul and us, and cried out, saying, "These men are the servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to us the way of salvation." 18 And this she did for many days. But Paul, greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And he came out that very hour. 19 But when her masters saw that their hope of profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace to the authorities. 20 And they brought them to the magistrates, and said, "These men, being Jews, exceedingly trouble our city; 21 and they teach customs which are not lawful for us, being Romans, to receive or observe." 22 Then the multitude rose up together against them; and the magistrates tore off their clothes and commanded them to be beaten with rods. 23 And when they had laid many stripes on them, they threw them into prison, commanding the jailer to keep them securely. 24 Having received such a charge, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks. 25 But at midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. 26 Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were loosed. 27 And the keeper of the prison, awaking from sleep and seeing the prison doors open, supposing the prisoners had fled, drew his sword and was about to kill himself. 28 But Paul called with a loud voice, saying, "Do yourself no harm, for we are all here." 29 Then he called for a light, ran in, and fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. 30 And he brought them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" 31 So they said, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household." 32 Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. 33 And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their stripes. And immediately he and all his family were baptized. 34 Now when he had brought them into his house, he set food before them; and he rejoiced, having believed in God with all his household.

Prayer Lord, I don't claim to know much but I know this much: I need You. I hunger for You. I thirst for You. My soul pants for You. All of the wonders, gifts, attractions, and blessings of humanity cannot equal a mere thirty seconds in Your presence-yet I want more. I thank You for everything You did yesterday and in years gone by; but I want to see what You can do today; and I admit right now that I will want even more tomorrow. I am in passionate pursuit of Your presence, Lord, and nothing less will do.

Excuse Me

Becky McLendon

Devil you can no longer accuse
What has been forgiven and hidden in Christ.
You will pay the consequence if you do.
Death has passed over this house...
The blood is on the doorposts.

Excuse me, but step aside...
Because, in Jesus' name,
I am going through
Sin, sickness, infirmity and death,
Excuse me,
But you need to get out of my way.
I am going through

Excuse me sin, darkness, death,
Sickness, accusations and word curses.
I am going through in Jesus' name.
You cannot get me from the front.
You cannot get me from the side,
And you cannot get me from behind,
For Emmanuel is IN me, in front of me and beside me, and surely goodness and mercy follow me
All the days of my life.

Jesus has stood up in me,
And woe to any who get in his way.

Becky

Exceptional Purity

Mary Lindow

THE LORD IS SAYING WITH UNNERVING INTENSITY IN THIS HOUR," CLEANSE YOURSELVES FROM SECRET AND PRESUMPTUOUS SINS."

"NONE OF YOU HAS THE RIGHT OF AUTHORITY OVER YOUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN ORDER TO BREAK AND DEFEAT THEM.
I came to set the captives free…do not attempt to gather unto yourselves followers for the sake of numbers and egotistical prowess."

"IF YOU HAVE A DRIVEN NEED TO BE HEARD for the sake of fleshly delight, then you will be one who crushes and walks on the hearts of the faithful to get to the pinnacle of your ego. Quickly cut off the ugly head of pride before it multiplies and it's multiple tentacles strangle you!"

"I WILL SHAKE AND SHAKE AND SHAKE EVERYTHING UNTIL IT IS CLEARLY UNDERSTOOD THAT I AM A GOD OF FREEDOM AND PROMISE."
"CUT OFF THE TETHERS YOU HAVE PLACED ON MY PROPHETS AND THOSE NOW HIDDEN, BUT WHICH I AM RAPIDLY RELEASING AND WHO ARE RISING INTO THE NEW WAVE OF APOSTOLIC ANOINTING. Stop attempting to corral them into your form of organizing and wild forms of promotion and advertising!"

"THOSE WHOM I WILL GRANT THE CLAIM TO APOSTLESHIP WILL LIVE LIVES OF EXCEPTIONAL PURITY and will have families who love and live humbly with each other."

"THERE WILL BE NO NEED FOR HYPE UPON HYPE TO CAUSE THE PEOPLE TO HEAR AND OBEY AND TO….PAY."

"TRUE APOSTOLIC LEADERSHIP IS PURE IN MOTIVE.
It is always overjoyed and is Ready to nurture, release and advance another generation until only they are seen as the hope and future…not the generations of past years."

"I AM GOING TO CAUSE A GREAT HOLY FRUSTRATION TO OCCUR over those still trying to prove their ministerial value by the lists they have presented as their entitlement to high levels of self claimed authority and power over others."

“MANY IN THE BUSINESS MARKETS AS CHRISTIAN LEADERS AND WORKERS ARE NOW BEING CHALLENGED TO REASSESS WHAT THE HEART OF GIVING INTO THE KINGDOM LOOKS LIKE! Soon, very, very soon…. shackles of greed, control, and entitlement will be shattered by My revelation of their place in the Kingdom of My Design. There will be a new joy found in “sending others out” into the nations, the cities the streets, as a wave of compassion floods once skeptical and now hardened hearts.”

“LET ME, THE GIVER OF THE GREATEST OF GIFTS, I…The ONE who spent the Full Wealth of My Life and Kingdom, let ME free you from the fear of giving in fear. Give to those whom you see fruitfulness, compassion, humility and grace resting upon. But…Give unto Me as it passes into others hands.”

“HUMILITY HAS NO PROBLEM EXPOSING ITSELF. It is a natural outpouring of what is in the heart of a true follower when put under the pressure of the test of exposure.”

“LET MY SEASON OF NEW BEGINNINGS BE A TURNING POINT IN YOUR CONCEPTS OF SERVICE, and let ME be the ONE who rules and reigns and hands out promotion in the way I see needed in order to fulfill My Plan in the Earth.”

Extreme Spiritual Makeover

Denis Drewlo

My Church Is In Need of an Extreme Spiritual Makeover

My Church is in need of an extreme spiritual makeover. She has been badly scarred and divided. Old dead things must be cut away. My Bride needs the healing balm to heal her divisions and her scars. The world cannot recognize Christ in the Church.

She Has Been Scarred

“As many were astonished at thee; his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men” - Isaiah 52: 14

My Church has been scarred. Her visage has been marred. The world cannot recognize the true Bride – the true Church. Division and factions have scarred her. She bears scars and wounds of battle. She needs to be healed. I will heal Her if She will allow Me to.

I Do Not Want What Is Bruised, Therefore I Will Heal My Church

“Ye shall not offer unto the LORD that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut; neither shall ye make any offering thereof in your land”. - Le 22:24.

I do not want what is bruised, therefore I will heal Her. I will heal Her bruises with My love and power. Those who have been crushed will be restored. Those who are broken will be made whole. My desire is for complete healing- body, soul, and spirit.

There Must Be a Cutting Away. The Church Must Go to Cherith - (The Cutting Place)

"AND Eli'jah the Tish'bite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said unto Ahab, As the LORD God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word. And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, Get thee hence, and turn thee eastward, and hide thyself by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan. And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there. So he went and did according unto the word of the LORD: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan." - I Kings 17:1-5

My Church must go to Cherith - (The Cutting Place). The old must be cut away for the new to come. The dead flesh must be cut away. She must go through the place of separation and solitude. Her heart must be circumcised. She must come to the place of complete dependence upon Me. This is where I will deal with Her. This is Her “boot camp”. I will bring Her to a place of hiddeness in Me, and also a place of My divine provision. She will come into places of dryness. These places will keep Her moving – looking for water.

My Church Needs a Circumcision of the Hear – A Team Approach.

“Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiff-necked” - Deuteronomy 10:16.

I am asking My Church to circumcise Her Heart. She must cast away all corruption from Her heart that keeps Her from experiencing My love. Cast away from you all corrupt affections and inclinations, which hinder you from fearing and loving Me. Mortify the flesh with the lusts of it. Keep anything away that obstructs the flow of My word and My presence in your hearts.

“And the LORD thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live” - Deuteronomy 30:6

My Church needs Her heart circumcised. The flesh must be cut away. The stony heart must be replaced by a heart of flesh. My Word and My Spirit will cleanse you of all that is not of Me. You will produce more fruit. Grace will be imparted and prosperity will come.

"…to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings". - Jeremiah 4:4

"But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God" - Romans 2:29

"Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.
Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness. How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also: And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised. For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect…" – Romans 4:8-14

". . . you were also circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, in the removal of the body of flesh by the circumcision of Christ; having been buried with Him in baptism, in which you were also raised up with Him through faith in the working of God, who raised Him from the dead" - Col. 2:11-12.

The old ways of sin must be cut away so that My Church may carry out My will. The corruptive ways must be done away with. She needs to be cleansed from within.

Transformation – It's All In Your Mind!!!

"And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what [is] that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God" - -Romans 12:1-2

"This is the end of the account. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts greatly troubled me, and my countenance changed; but I kept the matter in my heart." - Da 7:28

"Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed" - 1Co 15:51

My desire is for your complete transformation, spirit, soul, and body. She must have the Mind of Christ. She must think like the victorious Bride I have called Her to be. My desire is for My Bride to be transformed in Her thinking... to come to the place of repentance.

I Want My Church to Look Like Me

"For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son" –Romans 8:29

"But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord" – II Cor. 3:18

"And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly"
- 1 Corinthians 15:49

My desire is for My Bride to look like Me. Bearing the My image of now, assures you will bear My image for eternity. It has been pre-ordained that you will be conformed to My image. To be transformed into it, you must behold it. She will become what she beholds.

Transformation Brings Life

"And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD" - Ezekiel 37:6.

"Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you completely; and may your whole spirit, soul, and body be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. He who calls you is faithful, who also will do it" -1 Thess. 5:23,24.

I will make My Bride new. She will not recognize Herself when I am finished. She will like what I have made Her.

What Are You Wearing
Denis Drewlo

You're Not Wearing That, Are You?

"Put away the strange gods that are among you, and be clean, and change your garments":

My Church needs a change of clothes. She needs a whole new wardrobe. She needs to be clothed in the right things… the right thoughts, the right attitudes… the right motives. The old ways are not for today. Take careful consideration for what you clothe yourselves with. The "old clothes" that you have been wearing are "out of style".

Are You Putting Me On?

"But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts thereof - Ro 13:14
"For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ" (Ga 3:27).
"And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness" (Col. 3:14)

I have called you to put on Christ in thought, attitude, deed, and word, and character… spirit, soul, and body. And holiness. I have called you to put off selfishness. Putting on Christ will reflect the way that you treat others. I am asking you to put off the carnal ways that hinder your relationships. I have called you to put on charity (love).

I Am Asking You to Exchange Your Garments

"That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts…" (Eph.4: 22).
"For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality"–(I Cor. 15:53).

I am asking you to exchange your garments – the old for the new – the stained for the clean. My exchange policy is good. No receipt needed. Exchange your old, tattered garments for new garments made of fine white linen. Give Me your old ways and I will make you new again.

Be Led By My Spirit. Some Colors Are All Wrong For You.

These Are Your Colors:

Purple: (Royalty) (Judges 8:26)
Scarlet: Often refers to blood atonement and sacrifice.

White: forgiven sins (Psalm 5:7, Isaiah 1:8); a refined remnant (Daniel 11:35, 12:10)
Gold: Revelation (Rev 14:12)

A Little Blood Will Get Those Stains Right Out!

“Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out… (Acts 3:19)

Only the Blood will get the stain of sin out of your garments and the stains that others have left behind. Put your faith in the Blood.

“That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish” (Eph. 5:27).

I am looking for that spotless Church that I have longed for. My Church must put their faith in My Blood.

What Are You Washing Your Clothes With?

“That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word…” (Eph. 5:26)

My Church needs to be cleansed by My Word daily. My Word will wash life’s daily blemishes away.

“Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost…” (Titus 3:5).

Be washed. Be cleansed. Be renewed by My Spirit.

It’s Time For a Wardrobe Change

“And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him” –Eph. 3:10

“And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness” –Eph. 4:24

Now is the time for a wardrobe change. It is time to put off the old and put on the new. Now is the time for you to put on the clothes that I have tailor-made for you. Now is the time to put on the new man. The old clothes are out of season.

Those Who Overcome Will Have the Best Clothes!

“He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment” –Rev. 3:5’

I am looking for an overcoming Church to give My best clothes to. The overcoming church will be the best dressed of them all. She will be worthy of the finest clothes. I am looking for an overcoming church to adorn with the finest raiment.

Do Not Wear Clothes That Clash

“Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded” (James 4:8)

“And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? (I Kings 18:21)”

Do not wear clothes that clash. Be cleansed of your double-mindedness. Cleanse your hearts and your minds.

I Want to Clothe Entire Cities In My Glory

“And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!” (Rev. 18:16)

My desire is to clothe entire cities in My Glory… for cities to be re-born, for cities to be clothed in My very presence. My desire is to clothe cities in glory, in love, in renewal, in revival – manifested in various ways, through prayer, music, the arts, dance, and drama.

Take Off Those Grave Clothes!

"And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go." (John 11:44).

Some of you have had words of life spoken into you. Some are no longer dead in the old ways of sin, but you are still wearing the clothes of a dead man. You need help from others to get you out of your grave clothes. Some of you are wrapped in wrong attitudes, wrong thinking, old habits, old thinking patterns, or words spoken over you that did not bring life. Some of you, though you were made alive by the new birth, are still wearing the clothes of a dead man!!

Some are wearing the same clothes you they had on yesterday. Yesterday’s clothes are not for today. They have the stench of the old man. They were for then, not for now.

You Must Follow My Divine Dress Code, But I Will Provide The Wardrobe

“…clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you…” (Col. 3:12)

I have a dress code for My people to follow. Put on compassion, kindness, and humility, forgiveness. I will provide the wardrobe.

The Best Clothes Have Been Reserved for You

I have reserved the best clothes for you. They are waiting for you now, My church.

Extending the Right Hand
Arlette Pollard

Revelation 13:16-17

Reveal dear Savior
Your unending love
Extend Your hand of favor
Help children rise above
Thoughts that hinder
The purpose of the cross
So that they can praise
Your holy, righteous name
Which is able to heal
Redeem and to save
The weary, the lonely, the lost.

Use our hands
That they might extend
Your truth
To the weary, the lonely, the lost.

Reveal Your glory
Let the Word go forth
Declare Your message
Of great reward
Let wisdom be found
By those who seek after the Lord
So that they embrace
Your message of grace
That will take them by the hand
So they no longer stand
Beside cruel masters of pride and hate.

Let our words
Speak of Your great worth
Sent to comfort
The weary, the lonely, the lost.

> “And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: and that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.” Revelation 13:16-17*
> “Send thine hand from above: rid me, and deliver me out of great waters, from the hand of strange children; whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.” Psalm 144:7-8

*mark (Greek definition) 5480 [5481, 5482, 5489 (related words)], mark, stamp; image, idol. [5481], exact representation, reproduction: - express image.

Those born of the Spirit, partakers of God’s heavenly nature, who through God’s mercy, have become heirs of God through Jesus Christ, “no more a servant, but a son”, will in God’s strength, be used to extend His righteous right hand of mercy to the weary and the lost. Children born of God’s Spirit will be taught of the Spirit, so they gain true wisdom and understanding of the great mysteries that exist within God's eternal Word of truth. As God establishes His righteousness, upon the throne of a child's heart and mind, speaking into the life of the child His purpose and truth, through the Spirit and the Word, His children will come to understand the importance of God's power and authority in directing their thoughts and actions.

Children who bear the express image of God, His Holy Spirit, within their lives, will be used of God to speak to others of His desire and love toward mankind. So that the hardened, fallow ground of men's hearts are able to receive the good seed, God's Holy Word into their lives, God will use His children, led of the Spirit, to prepare the way. His children will be directed to speak words that will be like water that is poured out upon a dry and hardened ground. Their words, inspired of God, will help prepare the soil, so that the fallow ground of a man's heart and mind can be tilled, broken up, and prepared to receive the good seed, God's Holy Word into their lives.

And as the good seed, the Holy Word, takes root within a man's life, God will continue to send forth the living waters of His Holy Spirit, so that his life will be like a tree that grows up into maturity, yielding abundant, good fruit. What a man thinks upon will influence his thoughts and desires, and when he bears the good fruit of righteousness, his nature will become more aligned with the nature of the Lord on high. The good fruit, produced through relationship with God, will then be used of God to bless and prosper the souls of others. A man, whose heart is transformed by the Holy Word, is a man whose nature, desires, thoughts and actions have been redeemed, rescued from out of the darkness.

Those who have been redeemed from the earth are those who have been sealed by the Holy Spirit unto righteousness. They are taught of the Holy Spirit not to place their confidence, hope and desire, in things of the earth. God's voice, which echoes through the chambers of their hearts, has revealed to them the futility of thinking that things of the earth will be able to help men escape the darkness that seeks dominance over their thoughts and actions. Though they are of the earth, God's love inspires their focus upward. They have come to understand that when their thoughts are fixed upon Jesus Christ, they are released from being led astray by the voice of Satan who walks unhindered within the realm of darkness.

God's Holy Spirit, which redeems man, rescues man from out of the darkness, is the seal of God's righteousness that is placed within a man's life, signifying that divine relationship has been established between man and God. God's Spirit bears the express image of God. And as the Spirit takes up residence within a man's life, God is able to impress His nature and desires upon the heart and mind of the man. God's righteous right hand of power and authority, which has reached out from heaven through His righteous Son, Jesus Christ, was purposed of God, so that He could lead children into their inheritance, which is the Holy Spirit of eternal life. Those who have received God's seal of ownership, the Holy Spirit within their lives, will begin to rise up in the authority and power of God, so that they are no longer servants to the darkness, no longer deceived into living in agreement with the desires of Satan.

A man sealed of God is a man who has had God's hand of righteousness place His mark upon his life. A man, who has received God's mark, is a man who has been called of God, redeemed of God, to be led of God. God's mark upon a man's life signifies man's union to God through the Holy Spirit. This mark, when pressed firmly upon a man's heart and mind, will cause a man's heart to be enlarged, so that he more clearly and precisely understands God's desire toward himself. With this knowledge upon his heart, he will desire to become more aligned to the truth that he has received. God's mark, when pressed upon a man's life, will help him receive the revelation of God's Light of holiness and truth.

The Spirit of God's holiness and truth, when impressed, imprinted upon a man's heart and mind, will be influenced of God, so that his desire will be to live in agreement with God's nature. He is then used of God, to demonstrate God's nature and desire. The man, once held captive to seeking purpose in ideas under the authority of the evil one, when released from his captivity, will be used of God to demonstrate God's restoring, healing nature. When a man is redeemed, rescued from living under the authority of the “serpent of old, called the Devil, and Satan,” he will be thankful that God reached out from heaven and placed His seal of ownership, God’s mark, upon his life.

> “Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to the light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.” Acts 26:17-18

Apostle Paul, who was of the tribe of Benjamin, “as touching the law, a Pharisee”, had at one time persecuted those called of Jesus Christ. He would proudly walk as a Pharisee, until the day that the Light of glory and resurrection, Jesus Christ, appeared to him and announced that he would be a “minister and a witness” of the things he had seen. Thoughts and actions aligned with darkness, when exposed to the Light, would then lose their authority over Apostle Paul’s heart and mind. His thoughts that he held in high regard, that he believed would bring purpose into his life, would be cast off the throne of his heart and mind, as Jesus Christ established His kingdom authority, through God’s Spirit of truth and revelation.

Apostle Paul had once thought that, by obeying laws and rituals, he was cleansed from the defilement brought about because of the sin nature he was born with. He believed, in keeping the laws and rituals of his forefather’s, that access to the Father’s heart could be obtained. But when the Light of truth and resurrection, Jesus Christ, appeared before him, his old nature, thoughts and beliefs, were shaken loose from their position of authority over him. He was made to realize that fellowship with the Father was not obtained through outward rituals and procedures, but through the Son, the Light who leads those who belong to God’s eternal kingdom of righteousness.

Apostle Paul was redeemed from the law. He, who thought of himself as a righteous man before God because of his observance of outward, physical ceremonies, when encountering the Light, would understand that true righteousness was found only in looking to Jesus Christ. And as God imprinted his seal of righteousness upon his heart, marked him as a child called of God, he would be trained up by God, so that he could be sent out as a witness to the life transforming power of the Holy Spirit. His heart and mind, quickened by the Holy Spirit, would gain understanding of the truth, that it is through faith in Jesus Christ, that a man’s sins are washed clean, healed and forgiven.

Through faith in Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit is received and will impress upon a man’s thoughts the purpose and power of the blood that was shed by the holy, unblemished Lamb of God, upon the cross. It is the Holy Spirit that binds the truth upon a man’s heart, so that he appreciates the price that was paid as Jesus shed His precious blood upon the cross, on his behalf. Only the precious blood of Christ is able to redeem men from out of their captivity to the darkness, where Satan wields his sword of destruction. It is God’s hand pressing down upon a man’s soul, through the Holy Spirit, that will help him perceive the value of God’s covenant of grace, which was purposed through Jesus Christ. It is God’s mark, His seal of righteousness, that proclaims a man belongs to Him, and when pressed upon a man’s heart, will cause a man to stand before God, knowing that he is accepted of God.

Apostle Paul, through the perfect work of the Spirit, would receive wisdom to understand that a man could believe that in his obedience to rituals and regulations, he was in right standing with God. He understood that a man could believe he was righteous, according to the dictates of the laws created and upheld by men, while not realizing that he still existed in the darkness of unbelief, which denies what Jesus Christ accomplished on the cross. Apostle Paul knew that a man who does not understand the significance of being marked by God, sealed unto righteousness through the Holy Spirit, will continue to walk in the realm of darkness, which does not comprehend the sanctifying power of the Holy Spirit.

Filled with this understanding, Apostle Paul would be used of God to speak into the hearts of men, to explain the power of the life transforming Spirit of the resurrected Christ. Apostle Paul’s life would be used of God to reveal the power of the Holy Spirit to turn a man “from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God.” God would use Apostle Paul to demonstrate through his life, through the words he spoke and lived, the importance of being sealed unto righteousness through receiving the Holy Spirit. Many people would be joined in holy union to God, because of the words that God would have Apostle Paul speak. Receiving the mark, the Holy Spirit signifies that a man belongs to God, is a member of God's household, of His possession.

> "Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? And your labor for that which satisfieth not? Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness." Isaiah 55:1-2

Those who bear the mark of God, whose bodies bear the express image of God, the Holy Spirit, understand what it is like to partake of the bread that was broken on their behalf, so that their hungry souls could be satisfied. They also know what it is like to partake of the living waters that flow in abundance from God's throneroom in heaven. To partake of the living waters from heaven, they know that God can move in resurrection power within their lives. Children of faith, who God has purposed to be heirs of righteousness, adopted into His eternal family through the Spirit, also know the great value of their salvation.

Children who appreciate the truth of being redeemed, rescued from out of the darkness, so they live in the Light of God's love, value the price that was paid for their freedom. The mark of God that presses upon their hearts, revealing the good intentions of God, the holy commandments of God, speaks into their lives of the great value of the blood that Jesus Christ shed upon the cross. God's children, sealed unto righteousness through the Spirit, appreciate the value of the precious blood of Christ, who paid the established and determined price that was required to redeem their souls from their bondage to the flesh.

Children released from their captivity to the flesh, because they bear God's express image upon their hearts, which is the Holy Spirit, will be instructed in the ways of God, so they are able to live in peace with God. They will come to realize that when they were redeemed, the hand of God broke their shackles, so that they were no longer forced to serve a cruel master, the carnal nature. Their redemption was not because of any outward acts of righteousness they had performed, but because of what Jesus Christ accomplished on the cross.

> "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God." 1 Peter 18-21

Those who have received the law of God's righteousness, having had His holy commandments impressed upon their hearts, sealed and bound upon their minds, appreciate the great price that was paid for their redemption. They understand that they could not purchase, through performance or observance to rituals and laws, this understanding; but that it was through faith in Jesus Christ, and in receiving the Holy Spirit, that this truth was revealed to their hearts and minds. Their performance of rituals and regulations did not cause the holy commandments to be written upon their hearts, but instead, through faith in Jesus Christ was the Holy Spirit given, so that God could establish His truth within their lives.

Children of faith now realize that God did not require them to offer up coins that bear the image of men, before they were allowed to sit down at the Lord's banqueting table. God did not require that they lay upon the altar a specific sum of silver or gold before they could reach out to Jesus Christ, in hope of obtaining the object of their salvation, the Holy Spirit. It was through calling upon the name of Jesus Christ, in faith, that God sealed them unto salvation, filling them with His Spirit of holiness and righteousness.

Those redeemed from the earth, released from their prison walls built up of earthly, carnal desires, appreciate the grace that God has extended toward them. Yet many, who are sealed by the Holy Spirit unto the Lord, have gone through long seasons where their souls desperately groaned to be delivered from out of their captivity to any darkness of unbelief that distorted their vision of God. As Light, God's truth, which is like an all consuming fire, moves upon a man's life, revealing and destroying the darkness that lingers in the many rooms of a man's mind. A man may find himself groaning to be delivered from out of all darkness. And with time, he will. The man must remember that in patience he will possess his soul, that through patiently waiting upon the Lord, that God will be faithful to complete the good work that He has started within his life.

The Spirit of God is holy, and those born again of the Spirit will bear the holiness of God within their lives. Yet, before a man is born again into God's kingdom of righteousness, through the Holy Spirit, he will have been born into the world, bearing the image, the mark of the first man, Adam, who fell from grace in the garden. However, those who bear the mark of Adam, the natural man, are not filled with God's eternal life, the Holy Spirit, and their sins will continue to lead them along the path that leads to destruction.

Until a man bear's the express image of God, the mark of eternal life, the Holy Spirit, he will not experience God's love moving in power and authority upon his heart and mind. Because of the offence of one man, Adam, all men would be born into the world, bearing the image of the natural man, who walks in darkness, sealed unto destruction. And until a man turns to the Lord, calls out to Jesus Christ, he will not be redeemed from his carnal, Adamic nature. Until a man, through faith, calls upon Jesus Christ, God's hand of grace will not reach out and press His seal, the Holy Spirit, upon his life.

> "And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: and that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name." Revelation 13:16-17

Woe unto those who would offer up offence by encouraging men to look away from God's free gift of salvation. Yet, the beast who rises up from the earth, performing miracles in the sight of men, continues to raise up offences, by placing stumbling blocks before them, while discounting the gift of grace, that came through the second Adam, Jesus Christ. The beast who speaks like a dragon, able to perform miracles in the sight of men, represents all men, who continue to hold others captive to thoughts and behaviors that deny or distort what was accomplished on the cross.

The beast, men who direct others away from path that leads to the well of eternal life, where they are able to drink of the living waters for themselves, lead men into captivity. They themselves bear the mark of the natural man, who is like a beast of the field, in that they do not possess eternal life, the Holy Spirit. Men who bear the mark of the natural man, the image of the first man, Adam, look to the earth in hope of finding purpose. They are not spiritually discerned, they have not received the inheritance of great worth, the Holy Spirit, so they cannot understand the value of being joined to God, through the Spirit. They continue to look to things of the earth that can be bought and sold, in hope of finding purpose and worth in life. They continue to look out upon the world, and think that power can be bought through carnal means.

Men who bear the mark of the first man, the natural man Adam, will live their lives controlled by the same desires and thoughts as he did. Those who walk bearing the mark of the natural man have not reached out and called upon Jesus Christ, so they have not received the Holy Spirit, which is able to heal all their sins. The approach of the natural man, in seeking God, is to live in obedience to rules, rituals and laws established by other men. They believe that in their performance of outward acts, that they can drape the commandments upon their lives and be considered holy in God's sight.

The beast, men who bear the mark of the natural man, Adam, continue to this day to hold men in subjection to their own self-focused desires and purposes, by keeping others focused on outward performance. The beast, who speaks like a dragon, promises life, but continues to hold out rituals and rules that keep men in subjection to others who walk in pride and vain imaginations. To lead men to dry wells of rituals and rules will cause men's hearts to remain hardened, so that the Word of eternal life is turned into fables that deny the power of God. To stand beside wells without water, will cause men to continue their journey upon the earth without understanding the purpose of the Holy Spirit. And without the Holy Spirit, they will continue onward, bearing the mark of the beastly, earthly, carnal nature.

Men who bear the mark of the natural man, Adam, cannot create enough rules and rituals in which to build a stairway to heaven, so that they can stand before God and ask Him to write His holy commandments upon their hearts. It is only through faith in Jesus Christ, that a man will receive the mark of eternal life, the Holy Spirit, that is able to reveal greater realms of the Father's love. And it is through faith that God will press His holy commandments firmly upon a man's heart, so that he is able to live in holy union unto God.

Through Jesus Christ, a new day arose upon the earth, so that all who would hear His voice and respond would be welcomed into God's eternal kingdom of righteousness. Because of Jesus Christ, the veil was torn in two. Because of what Jesus Christ accomplished on the cross, all men who hear His voice and call upon His holy name are welcomed to come before the Lord and receive the mark of eternal life, the Holy Spirit.

> "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man. For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ." 1 Corinthians 2:14-16

Expanded Understanding

Suzanne Luis

The Lord has been showing me that 2004 is the year when His people will experience an expanded understanding of how He speaks. I saw two things in conjunction with this word, one was open doors and the other was a library with lots of books. The Lord is going to increase our vocabulary this year. We will understand His words and what they mean in a greater way. We will hear, see and comprehend His word in a greater dimension this year and where there has been confusion, we will experience clearer understanding enabling us to move into His purposes for us in 2004.

Explosive Words

Mary Clark

The Lord showed me an explosion at the top of a “Microsoft Word,” page, and said the words “explosive words.” Here are the explosive words that He has to speak to us:

I am the living, breathing, Lord God Almighty. I hold the whole future of the universe in My hands. Never doubt it, beloved – NEVER doubt it!

I am calling to My children, asking that you take your positions and rest in that place until further notice. I want you to see the glory of your God manifest in your lives in a dynamic way. I want you walking in My truth with sure, swift steps – stepping into the fancy of your God.
